Q. Was that for the purpose of destroying them as evidence in this case?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for the conclusion of the witness.

By the Court: Ask what the purpose was?

Q. What was your purpose in leaving them ther?
A. My purpose was not to encumber myself with them in moving to another state; I simply did not want them and I left them to get rid of them.
Q. You kept them all those years? A. I had.
Q. Had any one connected with the defense or with the prosecution of this case asked at any time, up to that time, to see those sores?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay testimony. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I think not.

Q. Do you know Mr. Borgolthaus who used to live in Lawrence? A. I do.

Q. Do you know Mr. Samuel A. Riggs, an attorney of Lawrence? A. I do.

Q. And Mr. John Hutchings who formerly resided there, but [not] dead? A. I knew him.

Q. Did either of those gentlemen, or the plaintiff, ever ask you for an examination or an opportunity to look at those sores?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay testimony. "It would be silly for the plaintiff to ask for them after the witness had an opportunity to manipulate them as he pleased." The Court overruled the objection, to 1072 which ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. They did not.

Q. Now, at the time this autopsy was held upon that body, what examination was made of it by the attending physician?

A. I first made a very careful inspection of the body on its exterior and careful measurements were made, and then the body was opened and the internal organs of the body were examined.

[—] Now, doctor, did you notice the clothes upon that body? A. I did.

Q. How did they fit the body in appearance; the sleeves?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for a conclusion of the witness. The court overruled the objection, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. The coat sleeves appeared to be too short for the arms and the coat appeared to be too full around the body, and the trousers appeared to be too short for the limbs.

Q. Did you make measurements of the body? A. I did.

Q. Did you examine it for scars or any other means of identifying the body? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you make a memorandum of that at the time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Look at the paper which is marked Exhibit C, and state if that is the memoranda of measurements of the examination you made of the body at that time? A. It is.

Q. Now, if you can state from memory, if not, refresh your memory from the paper, and go on and state, give a description of that body as you examined it there at that time?

A. The body was in a good state of preservation. The hair was a dark brown, almost black.

By the Court: You are only to refer to the paper in case it is necessary to refresh your memory.

Q. I wish you would proceed, as you made the examination, doctor, proceed and state what you found, and if necessary refresh your memory from that paper?

A. The body was free from any marks that might be called marks of identification. Judging from the appearance
1073 of the skin and the character of the hair, the fine hair and skin, I should judge the body to be about 25 years of age; the only evidence of decay or decomposition or change was the eyes, what is commonly called the pupil, or cornea; it had lost its color and the eyes were shrunken and shrivelled; the line marking between the white and dark of the eye was obliterated in a measure; the nose was dry and shrivelled, especially the cartilagenous portion, so that the nose was apparently shorter, and not natural in its appearance. There was no discoloration about the body whatever, not a mark of decay in the skin anywhere. The fingers were long and slender; the feet were long, and I think free from any special marks; I think there were some evidences of corns on the toes, but nothing marked; the body was muscular in appearance. As to measurements—

Q. Doctor, in regard to the cheek bones; do you remember in regard to them.

A. In regard to the face, yes. The face fas unusually broad across the cheek bones; the cheek bones were unusually prominent, so much so that you might say the face narrowed in both directions from a line drawn across the middle over the cheek bones to the forehead, and the cheek bones to the chin; it was symmetrical in that way, also, but the cheek bones were remarkably prominent and wide. The lower jaw was heavy and strong; the upper lip was full, coming up well; the lower lip, I should say, not the upper one. The upper lip was rather narrow, and seemed to expose the upper teeth. It had a rather light growth of mustache, irregularly, probably either not trimmed at all, or trimmed very irregularly and scanty in its growth. The face was smooth shaven otherwise. The lower jaw was slightly to one side, displaced; that was discovered to be on account of a fracture of the skull, and the lower jaw was easily brought around into place so that the teeth came together in a normal way. The teeth met each other very squarely, one against the other, when the jaw was brought into place, so the interior surface of the teeth was nearly smooth, the upper jaw not closing around
1074 the lower teeth as is often the case. The teeth were perfect; singularly even and large. The upper incisors or middle teeth were broad, quite broad, broader than usual,

I may say. The length of the body, I think, was five feet, eleven and five-eighths inches measured by laying the body on a board and standing up squares at the foot and the head, marking their position on the board, and then measuring with some measuring instrument. The girth of the body around the chest, around the nipples, was taken by a tape line. The length and circumference of the wrists—I think the hands I measured—I can tell by referring to this; the width of the face across its middle part, and the length of the face, can give the exact figures.

Q. Will you refresh your memory by referring to the paper as to the width of the face?

A. These figures I will have to read from this: The circumference of the head was 23 1-2 inches; that is that measure the length of the profile with mouth closed 8½ inches from the top of the face, and the width of the face across the maler bones, the cheek bones, was 5¾ inches; the hands measured 9¼ inches as the measurement for gloves.

Q. Now, what was the measurement of the chest, the chest measurement of this body?

A. The chest measurement was thirty-five and one-half inches; the length of the foot was ten and a half inches. The nose, although it was, as I said, dried and shriveled—it had a high bridge; I should judge it to be an aqualine nose, and somewhat prominent in its middle portion. I see the weight of the body, and I am refreshed by that. The weight of the body was 147 pounds naked; nude; the clothing was put together and weighed and it weighed nine pounds. The length around the wrist was seven inches, and around the neck 13 1-8 inches.

Q. What, if any, identifying marks did you find on the body?

A. Well, there were no blemishes of any character or marks by which the body could be identified that we discovered; the only thing on it was two small moles on the body.

1075 Q. Where were they located?

A. One of them was located on the back.

Q. Whereabouts on the back?

A. It was on the back about the spine, along middle way between the lower borders of the shoulder blades. The other one was on the hip.

Q. What sized mole was that?

A. They are described here, if you will permit me: The size of a small pea, teat-like, exactly on the spine adjoining the lower point of the shoulder blades, and one the size of a mustard seed over the left hip; I found nothing else.

Q. Now, you spoke of his age. How do you judge of his age?

A. Well, I judged that by the feel of the skin; the velvety feel of the skin, the soft white hairs and the condition of the teeth.

Q. Now, as to the hair; what was the character of the hair on this body?

A. The hair was four inches long, and more or less curly; somewhat curly, and almost black.

Q. What beard, if any?

A. He had no beard except the mustache which I described.

Q. Did you describe the mustache? A. I did.

Q. How did you describe that?

A. I described the mustache as being rather thin on the upper lip, narrow, that is, not a wide mustache, short and rather rough and stubby, unevenly trimmed or not trimmed at all, and not meeting very well in the middle under the nose, the central portion.

Q. You say not meeting very well?

A. Not coming together well in the central portion of his upper lip. The eyebrows came together, while they were not very striking, very prominent, but they came so as to unite almost in the central part of the forehead; the hair, that is, grew until it met. There was—Shall I go on?

Q. If you please.

A. There was found to be a hole in his head, the entrance large enough to insert my fore finger, which I did. It was on one side, on the right side, going over the meatus or 1076 hole in the ear upward, and then forward; going upward an inch and a half and forward half an inch, on the right side of the head an inch and a half above the opening into the ear, and half an inch forward from that line would find the middle of the entrance; that hole had come out on the other side in a similar position about half an inch lower I think just a little bit lower down near the ear; the hole went almost squarely through the head, and on either side I could insert my finger. I judge that it went in on the right side because of the character of the hole on the left side which was broken more than on the right, indicating there it had evidently broken the skull and loosened the jaw; the skull was evidently broken because there was a grating felt as we took hold of the head in the manipulation of the bone.

Q. Will you tell of the lower jaw once more?

A. The lower jaw was square and heavy. The jaw came so far forward, as I said, as to bring the teeth in a line; that is, in a straight line together.

Q. Did the teeth strike together?

A. Yes, the teeth would strike in front or very nearly.

I have described it here; here is a note in regard to that, if I may be permitted.

Q. Refresh your recollection from the paper.

A. A full set of teeth all sound and of large size; the two upper incisors broad and cover two lower and right lateral in part; they spread not only over the lower incisors, but they covered more, and when the jaws were closed the anterior surface of the upper and lower teeth, that is, the front surfaces of the upper and lower incisor teeth were even when the jaws were closed or very nearly so. So the jury may understand what I mean by that, that the teeth came together, his lower teeth were not either in front of the line of the upper teeth nor backwards.

Q. Now, did you make an examination of the cavity of the body?

1077 A. Yes, sir, we opened the body and examined the chest, the organs of the chest, and the organs of the abdomen, that is, the lungs, the heart, the liver, the stomach, and the intestines.

Q. How did you find them?

A. Found them all in a normal condition except that one of the lungs was adherent to the wall of the chest; that is, grown to it.

Q. What would that indicate, if anything?

A. It indicated that at some time in the person's history he had had the pleurisy, or pneumonia, and that the pleurisy had caused the two surfaces, the pleural surfaces, to grow together; to adhere.

Q. I think you stated the length of the feet to be ten and a half inches? A. Yes, I think I did.

Q. Did you see the body again after it left the undertaker's establishment? A. I did.

Q. Where did you see it?

A. I saw it at the cemetery there at Lawrence.

Q. About how long after you had made this examination?

A. Well, this examination, I think, was made on the 4th of April, and was made within, pretty soon, within two or three days; I should think a day or two or three—I don't remember exactly the date on which that was made.

Q. What was the condition of the body at that time?

A. It was not materially changed.

Q. Had decomposition set in more.

[—] No special evidence; a little more shrivelling and drying of the body.

Q. How were the eyes? A. Well, they were more sunken.

Q. Now, what was done at that time, that you saw it out there?

A. The body was exhumed and taken out of the—at least, the lid of the coffin was removed, and I examined the hands and wrists more particularly, with a casual inspection I think of the lower part of the limbs or the legs.

Q. Now, what, if any scars, did you find upon this body?

A. Did not find any; there were none.

1078 Q. On the hands; did you find any there?

A. Not any.

Q. Or marks or cuts or any of that kind? A. Not any.

Q. You may state if at that time or at any time, you preserved any of the hair? A. I did.

Q. When was that?

A. I think I took that out at the cemetery.

Q. Can you remember which portion of the head you took it from?

A. I could not say certainly about that; I think it was probably from the back portion of the head.

Q. What did you do with that, if you remember?

A. I kept it in my possession for a good while, and I left it with the attorneys in this case; I think,—I am not certain about that; it went out of my possession, and I cannot testify just at what time, nor into whose hands it went; I think I surrendered it to the attorneys for the defense; I don't know.

Q. Do you remember whether you gave any of it to Mr. Riggs?

A. I don't think I ever did; I think I gave some to Doctor Miller, but I don't think I gave any to any attorneys at all, except I left a package, think, with the attorneys for the defense.

Q. Now, what was the purpose of taking that hair?

A. My purpose was to preserve a specimen to be referred to, in regard to its character and color.

Q. Was anything else done about the body while you were there? A. It was photographed.

Q. Do you remember who the photographer was?

A. I think his name was Lamon.

Q. Did you notice any ring marks on the hand at that time? A. I did not.

Q. Did you examine it with a glass, doctor? A. I did.

Q. What sort of a glass was it?

A. It was an ordinary hand mirror; small like mirror.

Q. What do you mean; a magnifying glass?

A. Yes, that is what I mean to say; a lens was what 1079 I mean; it was an ordinary lens that would magnify three or four times, I suppose.

Q. If there had been marks, ring marks on the hands, do you think you would have observed them?

A. I think so; I looked for them; that was the occasion of my looking for them.

Q. How did you come to make this more particular examination out there at the cemetery of these hands?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and assuming a fact not proven in the case. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. You may state, doctor, if you had heard a rumor, after you examined the body at Bailey & Smith's, between that time and the time you went out to the grave, if you had heard a rumor that John W. Hillmon had scars on his hands, and if that was the object and purpose of more particularly examining that hand? A. That is the case.

Q. Now, referring once more to these vaccine sores, when did you say it was you vaccinated him, doctor?

A. I vaccinated him on the 20th of February, 1879.

Q. And when did you last see those sores?

A. I saw them on the 25th, five days later.

[—] What was the condition of them at that time?

A. They were progressing very favorably there was a vesicle or little blister in process of formation.

Q. You may state whether a vaccine sore has regular stages of progression? A. It has.

Q. Will you briefly describe to the jury how you vaccinate in the first instance, and then the progress of the sore?

A. We now use altogether the cow pox. The manner of vaccinating is just to scratch or break the skin where we wish to make the sore with some instrument so that it shall bleed slightly, a very little, then to reduce the virus to a semi-liquid state with water and rub it on this in 1080 such manner that it shall be absorbed by the little absorbents of the skin and taken into the skin or as much of it as may be; then the arm is allowed to dry as to be sure that nothing shall rub it off; it [—] made dry, and then the matter is let alone. That is the common custom. Now, if it takes, as we say, in a few days, about this place, this point of scarifying, it will begin to become red at first, and become a sore, as we say, and swell, and the swelling and redness extends until in the course of a few days, four, five or six days, there will be—well, of course, not so early, in the course of seven or eight days, or more, there will be quite a caked or swollen surface there, the swollen portion which is called the areola or reddened portion. In the center of that, where the abrasion was made, a blister begins to form, first filled with a clear lymph, that a little further along changes to pus-like matter, yellow, and then in the course of a few days it dries.

Q. You speak of a few days, doctor. Can you tell about the number of days?

A. If you will permit me, sir, I will give you the days a little farther on.

Q. Go on in your own way.

A. The skin together with the dried pus, the material underneath, dries and forms a crust or scab which, in process of time, if not disturbed, loosens itself and drops off, and leaves a scar, a vaccine scar. This crust, of course, varies somewhat in size; if often will be from the size of a—probably you might consider that of a ten cent piece; it may be a little smaller and it may be a little larger. Now, the day history of that, the chronology would be something like this: That about the fourth or fifth or sixth day, the vescicle or blister makes its appearance, which continues two or three days or four; something like that; then it gradually changes into a pus-like form. That condition will last until the 12th, 14th or 15th days, and then that begins to dry and form a scab or crust which in the process of time is ready ordinarily to drop off about the 25th day.

Q. Now, in this description, what are you describing;
1081 what would be a normal—

A. What I would call a normal, ordinary history of vaccination.

Q. May the time when the scale or scab is ready to drop off vary? A. Somewhat, yes.

Q. Does it vary sometimes somewhat? A. Yes, it does.

Q. Now, you examined this sore, as you say, which you found upon the arm of this man? A. I did.

Q. At about what stage of development or what day of development, did you conclude from that examination that this vaccination had taken place on this body?

A. I concluded that it must be from about the 12th to the 15th or 16th day.

Q. How did you arrive at that?

A. From the appearance and character of the sore I found; the sores.

Q. Now, will you describe, doctor, the character and appearance of the sores you found upon this arm?

A. There was present to the feel the areola or the cake about the sores where there is a hardened, thickened condition of the skin, but they were not red; the skin was pale; in the center of the sore, was a dark spot about the size of a ten cent piece, I should say, which appeared to be dried skin closely adherent to the skin below, and not raised above the surrounding surface, but appeared to be as though it had been full of liquid and instead of a crust being formed to cement the skin together, the skin had shrunken down and adhered to the surface below, and very nearly on the same plane with the other skin; then I cut through the sore—that was part of my purpose in dividing one of the sores was to note the appearance of the section, cut with a knife through the skin to note how thick this crust or scab might be, how thick the thickened condition of the skin or areola might be around it, and I found that this dark sore on the surface was so to speak only a superficial matter; I could not raise the crust of it at all; I took my knife and tried to lift it up, but I could not; it was simply a scale of black skin and immediately be-1082 neath it I cut through tissues which had a reddened appearance showing the inflamed condition, and for that reason I judged that the vaccination process had not gone so far as to even form the crust that we ordinarily find in a vaccine sore at its maturity further on, but missing in its earlier history.

Q. Doctor, are you able to determine a true vaccine sore from a sore which was caused by a wound; if so, state how you do that.

A. Well, the character of a vaccine sore, the surrounding inflammatory process, causing thickening of the skin, and the unbroken character of the skin, is one thing, and the absence of other marks that might occur in a wound, because a wound that would produce a sore like that would penetrate and break the skin. As I said before, a vaccine sore has its characteristic appearance.

Q. What are those?

A. I have already described them pretty fully.

Q. I am speaking now particularly of the scale or scab.

A. That is to be found later in the stages; of course, that is characteristic; there is a difference between a vaccine scab or crust and an ordinary scab from a wound; probably more easily—not in every respect so easily described; the scab of a wound is probably more closely adherent and is not regular or circular in form and is not as hard and tough as a vaccine scab because a vaccine scab at maturity is very hard; it is very hard and of uniform thickness more like a button.

Q. Now, may the progress of a vaccine sore be retarded; if so, how may it be retarded?

A. By injury; a bruise to the arm or a scratch that will break the vesicle or blister and convert it into something of an open sore would prolong its history sometimes.

Q. Are you able to tell from the appearance of the sore or the scab on the sore, as to whether it has been injured or not?

A. Well, yes, pretty well; there might be exceptions, but if the skin were not broken, I should judge if the skin was not broken, or the sore had assumed more the appearance
1083 of a wound, I should judge that there had been nothing done in injury to it.

Q. Would you be able to tell from the character of the scab itself? A. I think so.

Q. Now, from your examination of these sores which you found on the arm, would you say that was a normal sore, or did it have the appearance, at any time, of having been injured? A. I should say it was a normal sore.

Q. Now, you say you found a wound in the head?

A. Yes sir.

Q. [And] you [described] the size of it.

A. It was a hole through the head; I can better describe it by saying that I easily inserted my fore finger; it very nearly filled it on the right side, at the entrance; on the other side, it was more irregular and larger.

Q. What would be the effect upon a person, in your judgment, who should be struck with a ball large enough to make that wound? A. Oh, I should say instant death.

Q. What would be the effect as to his falling?

A. It would paralyze him utterly at once; I should say he would drop into a heap, so to speak; fall directly.

Q. What nerves or nerve centers would be affected by a passing in that way through the head?

A. It would especially divide the motor nerves from the motor and sensory nerves of the lower extremities, cut them off from their center, because they are centered above the wound; the motor sensories of the lower extremities would certainly divide, and hence it would bring immediate paralysis of the lower extremities. All power of locomotion would be destroyed surely.

Q. Drop like a beef?

Objection as leading.

Q. How would he drap?

A. Well, he would, of course, go to the ground, at once; of course, he would be lying, I suppose, somehow; I don't know; it would depend on circumstances.

Q. Would that depend somewhat on the position in which he was standing as to which way he would fall?

1084 A. Well, it would depend on the circumstances; after the man dropped he might straighten out a little bit, or he might drop into more or less of a heap; I think that would be a matter I could not answer definitely, just what shape he would be in, but certainly there would be instant paralysis and instant death.

Q. There is another point I would like to ask in regard to vaccination. Is it a difficult process to vaccinate a person?

Q. Any person can do it? A. Yes.
A. Oh, no, not at all; anybody can do it.
Q. May a person be vaccinated from virus taken from the arm of another person?
A. That used to be the custom in my early practice-altogether; largely, at least.
Q. Can it be done successfully? A. Surely.
Q. Any one can do it?
A. Yes. Any one that can scratch a little sore place on the skin, and make the blood come.
Q. Now, doctor, I want to refer to the application once more which was made on the 24th day of February. How often have you testified in this case, doctor?
A. I have testified, I think, this is the sixth time.
Q. Now, were you asked in regard to the figures, "5, 11" which are found in the application, at the first trial of this case? A. I think I was; I am not sure.
Q. What did you say, if you remember, in regard to those at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: That is more properly a matter of cross-examination.

By Mr. Green: We now offer in evidence all the applications to which the attention of the witness has been called—A and B— the others are already in, for the purpose of showing the amount of insurance for which John W. Hillmon applied at those various dates.

By the Court: They are in for all they show.

1085 And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by L. B. Wheat, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to-wit:

Q. Doctor, will you tell me who wrote this 5, 11, in this application dated the 31st of October; whose handwriting is that 5, 11? A. That is mine.
Q. That you say, was the first application you made?
A. Yes, the 31st of October.
Q. That is the first time you examined him?
A. That is the first I examined him.
Q. If there is anything in here that gives any identifying mark on him, please state what it is in this first application.
A. He is reported as being white; skin is white; figure erect; his eyes marked, hazel.
Q. Were his eyes dark or light or hazel according to your recollection of Mr. Hillmon?

A. Well, that I don't think now I would be able to testify to; certainly I should think rather on the order to be light rather than dark.

Q. If I remember right, you said he had dark hair?

A. Yes, dark.

Q. Almost black? A. No, I said dark hair.

Q. He had dark hair?

A. Yes, sir. Complexion fair; that is all I discover on this.

Q. Is there anything in that paper in relation to any scar on his hand or head; if there is, please point it out.

A. I don't see any; I am not aware of any.

Q. You don't see any reference to any such thing?

A. No, sir.

Q. How many times did you examine him; six or eight times?

A. No, I think it was five; yes, I think I filled out five certificates.

Q. You had four here, I believe of the Connecticut Mutual and two of the New York Life, have you; right here now, today.

A. No, I don't think so; there was two of them were filled out on the same day.

Q. The 4th of December, 1878? A. Yes, sir.

1086 Q. And one on the 24th?

A. I think on the 4th of December, two of them were filled out on one day, which constituted the real manner of the examination, and the next time, occurring within thirty days or a month, was largely a copy of these.

Q. I do not ask you now about a copy. You filled out two on the 14th of December, one on the 24th of December, and one on the 24th of February in the Connecticut Mutual?

A. Yes, sir, 1879.

Q. Then there was two in the New York Life you have referred to.

A. One of those was on the 31st of October, and the other on the 4th of December.

Q. Then, on each of these five different days he was before you?

A. No, there was only four of these days he was in my presence.

Q. Well, four days, then? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, state whether on those occasions you did not feel of his pulse each time?

A. Yes, sir, I counted his pulse.

Q. Can you tell me which hand of his you took hold of to examine his pulse? A. I could not.

Q. Which hand do you generally?

A. That depends altogether on the relative position of myself and the applicant.

Q. You don't now remember which hand on either occasion, do you, or do you? If you do, I want it.

A. No, I could not tell which hand I took hold of.

Q. Can you recall the situation there so as to say which hand it must have been; from the way you stood can you state which one it was?

A. No, I could not, because I am apt to take hold of the hand which is most convenient; it might be the hand farthest from me and it might not.

Q. You did examine his pulse each time? A. Yes, I did.

Q. And each of these four different timee you measured his chest?

A. I don't think I measured his chest—Yes, I think I did on four different times.

Q. Was he standing up or sitting down when you examined his chest?

1087 A. Oh, he was standing up, I presume; that is my custom.

Q. And you standing up? A. I think so.

Q. Doctor, how high are you?

A. I am five feet ten and a half.

Q. You can tell very easy whether a man is higher or lower than you when you are standing up close to him measuring his chest?

A. If there is any great discrepancy I can, I should judge, but unless my attention was called to it, I would not notice it.

Q. When you measured him do you remember where you stood, when you were measuring him Doctor?

A. We stood face to face.

Q. You remember his appearance well enough to tell the color of his eyes, and even the shade of hazel.

A. Well, I think that was my impression, yes.

Q. If you were higher than he you would have had to look down at his eyes, wouldn't you?

A. Well, if I was very much higher, I would.

Q. If you were at all higher, the slant of your eyes would have to be down, wouldn't it? A. I would not know—

Q. I am not asking you what you would know. Where were you; let us get at that; where were you each day when you did the measuring of his chest; were you in a room on the floor or were you on raised ground? A. On a level floor.

Q. In a room? A. Level floor.

Q. In a room?

A. Yes, sir, when I looked into his eyes—

Q. Never mind now. I ask you that question we got away from. A. Yes, sir.

Q. And if he was the taller, you would look up towards him, of course wouldn't you?

A. If he had been very much taller, I would.

Q. If he was taller at all, the slant of the look would be upward, wouldn't it?

A. If he was a man very much taller.

Q. Well, we will pass from that. You looked at him close enough there to notice that his hair was what you call curly, wasn't it; slightly curly; you didn't mean by that that it hung in ringlets, did you?

A. I do not mean to say that his hair was curly.

1088 Q. Didn't you say his hair was curly? I understood you to say so.

A. No, I am not aware of having said so.

Q. Well, never mind; we will leave that to the jury as to what you have said. I will ask you now to tell me whether his hair was curly or not. A. Was it curly?

Q. Was it curly? A. I don't think it was curly.

Q. You know I am asking questions about John W. Hillmon, don't you?

A. Yes; I don't think his hair was curly.

Q. Was it wavy?

A. I don't think it was; I think it was straight hair.

Q. Now, with reference to the nose; you spoke something with reference to a bulge didn't you, in his nose?

A. Mr. Hillmon's?

Q. Yes. A. No, sir, I did not.

Q. That was with reference to the corpse? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have some memoranda there, have you not; some memoranda that you read from?

A. I had some in my hand a while ago.

Q. Haven't you it there now? A. No.

By Mr. Green: I have it.

Q. I will ask you to point out to me the part of that memoranda if there is any, in which corns are mentioned, if it is in there. A. Yes, if it is here.

Q. You don't find them yet?

A. I don't seem to find the part, the measurement of his feet.

Q. I ask you if you have got any mention in there about corns? A. I do not seem to discover it.

Q. You don't discover it?

A. I haven't read it over entirely, but I don't see it.

Q. You were examined as a witness in this case about the 12th of February, 1895, were you not, at Topeka, before Judge Thomas?

A. I say I have been examined in all the trials; I don't remember—

Q. Every trial that has been had? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whilst we are on that subject, let me ask you where you have resided at every trial, at the time of every 1089 trial?

A. I moved to Minneapolis in 1882, in the spring of 1882, and I have been in Minneapolis.

Q. So that at the trial in June, 1882, you were present?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And at the trial in June, 1885, here before Judge Brewer you were present? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And at the trial before Judge Shiras in March, 1888, you were present? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And in the trial in January, February and March before Judge Thomas, you were present in February?

A. I have been at all the trials.

Q. Well, were you not present in February, 1895?

A. I don't remember the month, but I was before Judge Thomas.

Q. And again at the trial at Topeka before Judge Williams? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, I will ask you if you produced these same three pages—these notes that you referred to—These notes are on three pieces of paper, are they not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you produce these same identical three pieces of paper at these two last trials? A. I think so.

Q. Now, I will ask you if Mr. Samuel A. Riggs—He was present at those trials, was he not? A. I think he was.

Q. One of the attorneys for the plaintiff. I will ask you if he did take a copy of these notes on one of those occasions?

A. I don't remember whether he did or not; I don't know.

Q. You handed it over to him whilst you were being examined, didn't you? A. I don't remember.

Q. Don't you remember of his asking and that you delivered it to him then, and then his going on and asking you questions with regard to the various things in it, he holding your paper in his hand, and asking you questions to see what answers you could make?

A. No, sir, I don't remember particularly about that.
1090 Now, did you not state on each of those trials that the word corns was not in those notes, alluding to the notes, to the three pieces of paper that you held in your hand?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Don't you remember of saying that there was no reference to corns in it? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. Well, words to that effect; that there was no corns.

A. I don't remember.

Q. Now, as I understand it, there is no corns in there now.

A. I will read it over if you will permit me; I will take it and read it over very carefully.

Q. I would like to have you look and see if the word corns is in there, and I would like you to say in what part of the paper it is.

Q. Did you examine the paper last night? A. I did, sir.

Q. Did you find the word corns in it?

A. I did not find it mentioned, no sir. Not in those notes.

Q. You took that memoranda for what purpose, when you wrote that memoranda?

A. I took it as a description of the body.

Q. As a description of whatever you found? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You marked on it the matter of a mole about the size of a mustard seed, didn't you. A. Yes, sir.

1091 Q. Even that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But you didn't put down anything about corns in it? A. No, sir.

Q. You have been present at each trial of this case, you said? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember hearing the Fort Madison depositions read?

A. I have heard of it; I never heard it read.

Q. Did you hear of some witnesses in those depositions saying there was corns on Frederick Adolph Walters' toes?

A. No, sir.

Q. You don't recollect that?

A. No, I never heard anything about those depositions.

Q. You heard of their being read here at every trial?

A. I heard there were depositions read.

Q. You made a very careful examination of the body there from the sole of his foot to the top of his head? A. I did.

Q. You did not make any memorandum of any scar amongst the hair? A. No, sir.

Q. And you didn't make any memorandum of any scar on the hand? A. No, I did not.

Q. Will you read word by word and figure by figure, that memorandum there, or will I ask you a question, and then if it is agreeable to all, you can hand the paper to the stenographers and let them copy it. Will you state the words, letters and figures just in the order as they appear here in those notes that you hold in your hand; begin at the beginning and end at the ending just as they come there.

A. The question is just to read the notes?

Q. Yes, sir.

A. (Reading.) "April 4, 1879. Examination of body at Bailey & Smith's shop, said to be John W. Hillmon's.

Drs. Fuller, Stuart & Mottram present. Body in good state of preservation—hair dark brown—almost black—curly. Three to four inches long; eyebrows meet over the nose—brown mustache, light brown, thin, trimmed unevenly or not at all; very narrow, not extending high on upper lip;

1092 face smooth shaven. Upper lip short, would most likely show his upper teeth. Lower lip full and prominent. Full set of teeth, all sound and of large size, the two upper incisors broad and cover the two lower and right lateral incisors; the anterior surfaces of the upper and lower incisors even when the jaws are closed, or nearly so; nose not very long; somewhat prominent at bridge, or aquiline; cheek bones prominent and broad, lower jaw large and heavy. A bullet hole entering the right side of head one inch and a half above and half inch in front of the right auditory meatus, and a hole marking the exit of the ball on the left side one inch above the auditory meatus. Circumference of head, 23¼ inches; length of profile, mouth closed, 8½ inches; width of face across malar bones, 5¾ inches. Hands, long, measuring for glove, 9.14, without any scars or defects; fingers unusually long. Body stripped naked; skin white; body remarkably well developed, muscular; length of body, 5 ft, 11⅛ in. Body entirely free from any blemishes or marks whatever except a mole the size of a small pea rather teat-like exactly on the spine on a line joining the lower point of shoulder blades; also, one of the size of a mustard seed over the left hip. Measurement around thorax (chest) over nipple next the skin, 35½ inches; length of foot, 10½ inches. Age, apparently about 25 years. Body opened. Intestines, stomach, spleen, liver, lungs, heart and kidneys examined and found to be in a healthy and normal condition, except considerable pleural adhesions over upper portion of right lung. No food found in stomach. Weight of the body (bare), 147 pounds. Weight of clothes (pants and drawers, shirt, coat and vest), (9 pounds). Length around wrist, 7 inches. Length around the neck, 13½."

Q. Is that all of it? A. That is all.

Q. Doctor, won't you please read by itself, the interlineation on the second piece of this paper. After the word "condition" is a mark indicating an insertion above, what you call a caret, is it not?

A. Yes, a caret, then it is inserted, "except consider-1093 able pleural adhesions over upper portion of right lung."

Q. That is interlined, is it not?

A. That is interlined.

Q. Who wrote all this? A. I did.

Q. What did you write it with? A. A pencil.

Q. You had made the examination very carefully. State whether you wrote this description as you went along, or did you write it out afterwards?

A. I wrote it as we went on, went along, step by step.

Q. And when you made the examination—this part here. "Age apparently 25 years: Body opened, intestines, stomach, spleen, lungs, heart and kidneys examined, and found to be in a healthy and normal condition," you wrote that just as you examined those parts? A. Yes.

Q. Then you wrote along then, "No food was found in the stomach." You had written the words, "No food was found in the stomach," before you had written the words, "Except considerable pleural adhesions over the upper portion of right lung"; you had written those words, "No food was found in the stomach," before you interlined these words, did you not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, doctor, how could you skip so important a thing as that when you were writing that description, and have to interline it; will you please explain that incident?

A. Yes, I remember; when the body was opened, the manner of opening the body was to divide the soft tissues from the neck, the lower portion of the abdomen, the skin was laid aside except in the central portion, it was divided in this manner; the anterior portion of the ribs are cartilagenous; two to three inches of the portion are cartilage, and they were divided between the cartilage and the bony union on each side, opening up from the center of the space—over the center of the chest, the space, from top to bottom, containing the sternum, and the cartilagenous portion of the ribs, some four to six inches wide; that portion of the chest bone was laid away and the lungs were observed, as we looked at them; the ab-
1094 dominal cavity was opened up in the same way, the tissues laid aside. Now, later in the examination, these pleural adhesions were only discovered by slipping the hand in between the lung and the ribs, and feeling around the lungs on each side; so that that portion of the examination was a little later done and was entered in at that place.

Q. Now, you made this examination for the purpose of identification?

A. Well, my object was simply to get an accurate description of that body.

Q. Was it any more important to get an accurate description of that body, than it was to give an accurate description of him in the applications for policies of insurance?

A. Well, I can answer that by saying that I was there to make a distinct and correct description of the dead body; that was my purpose.

Q. Doctor, how long had you been medical examiner of either these insurance companies before you took his applications?

A. Well, I could not say; I think I became examiner for the New York Life, I could not tell you; it was some time in the 70s, previous to this but I don't know how long.

Q. Several years before?

A. It might have been a few years.

Q. It might have been fifteen years? A. Oh, no.
Q. Well, how long? I thought you said fifteen?
A. I said a few.
Q. It might have been a few years? A. Yes.
Q. Doctor, will you please tell me what the object of a medical examination of an applicant for life insurance is?
A. It is to ascertain the character of the risk; that means whether the condition of the health is—
Q. Is it not also to take a description of the person?
A. That is what I am saying; yes sir, sure.
Q. How—
A. I meant to give a fuller answer to that question.
Q. Let us get down to the description. Doesn't it include to give a full and accurate description of the person?
A. I can answer that by saying that medical blanks
1095 contain questions for only certain points, not a full description, in every particular, of the body.
Q. In these applications of the New York Life and Connecticut Mutual, is there not three points; don't you remember points in there that ask for personal injury, and some of them that call for marks, some of these applications?
A. I do not know now just which one; I don't remember; they differ from each other; some of them ask whether there is any evidence of previous disease or injury.
Q. That is not the point we are asking about now.
A. I do not understand you.
Q. By putting in the height: Can you tell me what is the object of putting that in the application?
A. Well, it is a matter of description of the body.
Q. I am talking about putting it in the application; it would be part of the description of the individual, wouldn't it?
A. Yes, that is right.
Q. In this connection, before we go further, right there I will ask you if a person lying down, either alive, or a corpse, after it is dead, is not generally longer than it is standing up?
A. Not much; a little I think; it is owing to—people who are stooped are a little bit longer.
Q. Don't it depend also upon the texture of the cartilages in the joints? A. No sir.
Q. Doctor, don't you know that people, living people, will vary from a quarter of an inch to two inches in length between standing up and lying down?
A. No sir, not ordinary straight people; I don't know that.
Q. You have measured people, have you not? A. Yes sir.
Q. How much difference do you remember of discovering?
A. I have no—
Q. I am speaking now of living subjects?

POOR COPY

A. I don't remember of measuring—I remember of measuring one man.

1096 Q. That would not be enough to make a rule.

Q. The height of a person is regarded as a very important matter, is it not? A. Yes sir, for these reaesons—

Q. I didn't ask you the reason, doctor; I want to know if the matter of the height of a person was not a very important matter? A. It is an important matter, yes sir.

Q. Doctor, will you look at this application here, dated, it is exhibit 7, M. L. J. the one you referred to as the application made on the 24th of December, 1878; that is your signature there, J. H. Stuart, M. D., I believe you said? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whose signature is this here?

A. That is John W. Hillmon's.

Q. John W. Hillmon wrote that signature? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, Doctor, who put that under the description of height, under the word Height who put that 5 ft. 11 in. there?

A. I think that is my writing.

Q. I believe you said on yesterday you wrote it?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You have always said that you wrote it at every trial, didn't you? A. I think so.

Q. Now, he was there on the 24th day of December?

A. Yes sir if that is the date of the paper, it was on the 24th.

Q. This was the third time that you examined him?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You examined him on the 31st of October, the 4th of December, on the fourth of December was the making of three different applications, I believe? A. Yes sir.

Q. And on the 24th of December, that was the last time?

A. Yes.

Q. You measured his chest at the same time that you measured him for the 5 feet 11, didn't you? A. I think so.

Q. How long a time were you engaged in measuring him on the 24th of December?

A. Well, I should think half an hour to an hour.

Q. You made the examination full on this occasion?

A. I think so.

Q. Measured him around the chest. Whatever measurements you made on him you made when he was standing up, did you? A. I think so.

Q. You made it personally yourself? A. Yes sir.

1097 Q. Did you stand in front of him or were you behind him when you made it?

A. Standing in front of him when I measured around the chest.

Q. Whatever measurement you made? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I notice one word here, under sub-division 10, the word, "Has he experienced any injury, state, and its effect upon the state of health. Ans. No." Who wrote that "no."

A. I did.

Q. Who was present when you wrote that in the Connecticut Mutual application? A. John W. Hillmon.

Q. Who else; wasn't Selig there? A. I don't think so.

Q. You think he was not there on that occasion?

A. I don't think so.

Q. You stated that you examined this body for scars and marks carefully, so as to find that little mole? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, did you notice any scar on either of his legs, the calf of his leg, or below the calf of the leg or below the knee, or anywhere there on this cadaver? A. I did not.

Q. You examined him, didn't you? A. I did.

Q. You examined him carefully? A. I did.

Q. Had a magnifying glass?

A. Well, I am not so certain about the magnifying glass myself at the time I examined his legs.

Q. Didn't you state that you had a magnifying glass?

A. I had one when I examined him at the cemetery.

Q. There was a magnifying glass used there at the autopsy when you was examining the body, was there not?

A. Well, I am not so certain about that; I cannot answer whether any one was using one or not; I could not say.

Q. You examined him very carefully? A. I did.

Q. Did you find any scar of any kind on either leg, including the calf of the leg? A. I did not.

Q. You didn't find any bunion on the foot, did you?

A. No.

Q. Or one of his joints enlarged? A. I don't think so.

Q. You don't believe there was anything of that kind
1098 there? A. I don't think so.

Q. If there had been anything of that kind there, you would have noted it in your memoranda?

A. I would, I think.

Q. If you had found any little scar on the leg you would have noted that? A. I think so.

Q. I believe if I understood you right yesterday, you said he had a nice hand; I am speaking of the corpse?

A. I think I said he had a shapely hand, I think with long fingers.

Q. Good, nice fingers?

A. The fingers were long, yes, sir.

Q. Straight?

A. Yes, I think so; I don't remember any thing to the contrary.

Q. You don't remember anything to the contrary of their being straight? A. No, I don't.
Q. Straight and nice?
A. I don't remember anything about nice.
Q. If he had had a crooked little finger, you would have noticed it, wouldn't you? A. Well, I possibly might.
Q. Let us see about that possibility. You said you did not see any ring mark on either finger? A. I did not notice any.
Q. You did not notice any? If there had been one you would have noticed it? A. I think so.
Q. If there had been a ring mark on either little finger you would have noticed it?
A. Why, I think so if it had been well marked.
Q. If it was anything you could call a ring mark?
A. If anything noticeable, I think I would.
Q. You would have discoverd it, you said that yesterday?
A. Yes.
Q. If it had been on either little finger? A. I think so.
Q. And if either little finger had been crooked you would have discovered it? A. I rather think so.
Q. That is certain, ain't it. A. I think so.
Q. If your examination was close enough to show if there was a ring mark, it would have been close enough to show whether there was a crooked little finger?
A. I think, Mr. Wheat, if it had been noticeably 1099 crooked, I should have seen it.
Q. Dr. on this subject of scars, you said that you felt his pulse on each occasion? A. Mr. Hillmon's.
Q. You took the pulsation of Mr. Hillmon's pulse?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did this four different times, the 31st of October, the 4th of December, the 24th of December, and the 24th of February? A. Yes, sir.
Q. On each of those days you took his pulse beats?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. The pulsation of his heart? A. I did.
Q. Number of respirations, etc? A. I did.
Q. Did you notice any scar in this part of either hand?
A. I don't remember any.
Q. Well, if there had been one there, you would have been apt to have seen it, wouldn't you? A. I couldn't say I would.
Q. If it had been a noticeable scar you would, wouldn't you?
A. Well, if it had been a noticeable scar perhaps, on the hand that I was examining, I might and I might not. I hold my watch in one hand, and put my finger on the pulse with the other; I generally arrange it in that way to take hold of the pulse.

Q. It is a matter of indifference to you, as I understand, which hand you examine? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Which pulse you take, either the right or the left wrist?

A. That is correct.

Q. It would be very singular, then, if on each occasion, you had taken the same hand, wouldn't it? You would not have taken the same hand each time if it was a matter of indifference to you? A. Yes, I might or I might not.

Q. It would be four chances to one of doing it?

A. I never figured them.

Q. This scar here on the hand, if there was anything that would have torn his skin apart here enough to have made a scar, both on the inside and outside of the thumb, between the thumb and forefinger, if there had been such a scar, 1100 wouldn't you have seen it? A. Not necessarily.

Q. How could you have avoided it if you had seen him and he had stood up in front of you. How long would he stand up before? A. It would only [—] a very few minutes.

Q. Then he was standing up before you? A. Yes.

Q. And you were talking to him? A. Yes.

Q. If it had been a noticeable scar, why wouldn't you have noticed it?

A. Simply because I did not examine him particularly for it.

Q. Do you mean that you did not or that you don't remember anything about it?

A. No, I did not examine him for any scars.

Q. Do you remember whether you did or did not or simply don't remember whether you did or not?

A. I did not examine him for scars.

Q. You talked with him on each occasion? A. I did.

Q. You examined him as medical examiner? A. I did.

Q. There was quite a number of times that you saw him other than when you were taking these examinations?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you walk along the street and talk with him?

A. I don't think so.

Q. On which arm was he vaccinated? A. On the left.

Q. You had his sleeve stripped up as high as where you vaccinated him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. His coat was off? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Shirt sleeves rolled up? A. Yes, sir.

Q. With reference to his teeth: Did you notice anything about his teeth?

A. I have no definite knowledge of his teeth; I have an impression.

Q. You have sworn on several occasions in this case?
A. Yes.
Q. You have been asked every time whether you noticed anything about his teeth, have you not?
A. I don't know whether I have been asked every time or not; I don't remember.
Q. You have been asked several times?
A. I have been asked several times, yes.
1101 Q. The tooth question has been up for consideration every time? A. I can't remember about that.
Q. Now, I will ask you if you did not swear on each occasion that you did not remember any defects or any defective teeth or any defect to his teeth?
A. I can't remember; I don't remember what my testimony was.
Q. You can't remember what you swore to on every trial?
A. I don't remember what my testimony was; I remember testifying early in the case but I could not say that I testified every time, and I could not say what I did say.
Q. If there had been anything about his teeth, you would have been apt to put it down in his application, wouldn't you?
A. No, sir.
Q. Now, I want to know whether you did see any scar on his hand when you took his application? A. No, sir.
Q. You did not see any? A. No, sir.
Q. You never saw any scar on Hillmon? A. I did not.
Q. Nor you didn't see any defective teeth in his mouth, did you?
A. I don't remember definitely whether I did or not.
Q. You don't remember of seeing any decayed teeth or anything?
A. I don't remember definitely enough to testify; I have an—
Q. Never mind; this is the first time you have said you have, on this occasion? A. I should not think so.
Q. Isn't this the first time you have rung this point in?
A. No, I don't think it is; I don't remember my testimony on the subject.
Can you remember what you swore to on the different trials on these main points?
A. I think I can on the main points. I think so.
Q. Now, has not this matter of tooth been one of the main points in the case from beginning to end on every trial?
A. Well, it has been up but I don't remember my testimony upon it.
Q. You say you can remember your testimony on the main points; how about this tooth? You can remember 1102 about some other things, even to these talks with him?

A. I think I have testified as I testified to-day, in a way, but I don't remember definitely.

Q. Mr. Stuart, in this matter of teeth, you have never testified that you had any recollection of anything wrong or rotten or missing to his teeth, have you?

A. I don't remember that I have; I cannot remember.

Q. Don't you remember that you have not?

A. No, I can't remember that I have not; I can't remember my testimony.

Q. Was not this question asked you by Mr. Riggs at the trial in 1895: "Did you ever notice whether he had a missing tooth or not?

A. I can't testify in regard to his teeth."

The defendants object to the question for the reason that it does not tend to contradict the witness. Objection overruled, the defendants duly excepting.

A. I don't remember definitely the question, but I, of course, if it is recorded, I cannot remember definitely.

Q. Wasn't your answer correct at that time?

A. I should think substantially; I should think so.

Q. Wasn't it exactly correct? A. If it is so recorded.

Q. Never mind how it is recorded. Wasn't that the correct answer to make to the question according to the fact?

A. Yes, that is what I think it is.

Q. And it is correct answer to make now to that question?

A. That is what I mean to make.

Q. With reference to these measurements on the 24th of December, what is the object of putting in the 5 feet, 11; what is the object of putting in the height?

A. It is to record his height.

Q. That would be for a description of the person, wouldn't it? A. A part of the description of the person, yes.

Q. Partly; wouldn't it be for a description of the person so far as the height is concerned?

A. Yes, sir, that is right.

1103 Q. To show the height of the man that was making the application? A. Yes.

Q. That is, for descriptive purposes? A. That is right.

Q. How much do ordinary men vary in height; how much do you find them varying in height; from what height to what height? There is only a few inches variation in the height of men, the ordinary men?

A. Well, yes, that is correct.

Q. The average man—I have no definite figures on that, but— A. The range?

Q. The range? A. Yes, I think that is correct.

Q. It is an important matter of description?

A. Yes; if I understand the question.
Q. It is an important matter of description, the height?
A. Yes.
Q. Right down to half an inch?
A. Well, we usually want to make it acurate; it is the purpose to make it accurate.
Q. The object is to make it accurate? A. Yes.
Q. That is the object of the examination?
A. Yes, that is correct.
Q. Now, where did this examination of the 24th day of December, 1878, take place? A. That was in my office.
Q. That same scale on the paper that you spoke of was there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What part of an inch was that scale marked?
A. I think it was marked in inches and the fractions in it were always indicated afterwards.
Q. What was that scale there for?
A. For the measurement of applicants for life insurance.
Q. And the object of putting in the height was to give an accurate description? A. Yes, sir.
Q. The application was made and written in the same room the scale was or in some other room? A. In the same room.
Q. There was no reason why the scale was not comeatable then at any rate, out of the way or anything?
A. Not anything.
1104 Q. Nothing standing in the way of going to it?
A. Nothing that I know of.
Q. Why didn't you measure him instead of writing it 5 feet, 11?
A. Because I carried it along, the figures that I had written down in the first application something over a month before.
Q. You had him right there, before you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had stood up and measured him; that was the third time? A. Yes.
Q. Doctor, couldn't you have told a difference of an inch in a man's height in those days when you were examining him just by looking at him?
A. I could if I had directed my attention to it probably.
Q. Couldn't you have told it to the half inch?
A. No, I should not say so.
Q. You said you were 5 feet, 10, 1-2? A. Yes.
Q. I understood you to say that you measured this body that was brought back to Lawrence, whilst it was laying in Bailey & Smith's place? A. I did.
Q. What was the object of measuring it there?
A. It was to get the length of the body.
Q. You wanted to have that accurate, didn't you?
A. I did.

Q. How did you measure him?

A. The body was laid on a plank or board and upright pieces were placed at the head and the foot in an upright position, a square, I think; the points were noted on the board with a pencil, the length of the body, and then we did the measuring afterwards.

Q. You say it measured 5 feet, 11 inches and what?

A. 5 feet, 11, $\frac{5}{8}$ I think.

Q. Now, that was to assist in determining whether it was Hillmon or not?

A. Yes, sir, it was made to get an accurate description of the body.

Q. I want to know whether it wasn't made with di-
1105 rect reference in assisting in determining whether that body was Hillmon's body or not? A. I think it was.

Q. Made with direct reference to that? A. I think so.

Q. Was it any more important, in your judgment, to get an accurate measurement of the length of the corpse, than it was to put an accurate measurement of Hillmon in his application?

The defendants object to the question as calling for the conclusion of the witness.

By the Court: That is a matter of argument.

Q. It was done for the purpose of assisting in determining whether it was Hillmon or not? A. Yes sir.

Q. Am right on that, am I? A. Yes sir.

Q. On this matter of height, I will ask you also, in that connection if it ain't taken with reference to the weight; must not a person have a height in proportion to his weight, that is, if a man has not what is called a proportion, within certain limits, is it not an objectionable feature that might prevent the acceptance of the application? A. That is correct.

Q. That is another object? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, in this taking of the height, I will ask you— You said something on yesterday with reference to when you took the measurements of Mr. Hillmon. I will ask you whether, in the examination in chief in the trial of 1896, this question was not asked you, and if you did not make this answer:

[—] You were speaking with reference to his height by measurement.

"Q. When did you ascertain that fact, Doctor?"

The question before: "Q. You may state how tall Hillmon was. A. Five feet, nine inches.

Q. When did you ascertain that fact, doctor?

A. I can't give the date but it was during the early part of 1879, either in January or early in February."

Q. Did you make that answer?

A. I don't remember definitely the words I used.

Q. I will ask you if that wasn't the fact?

1106 A. That is what I mean to say; of course, the facts were, it was the early part of—

Q. It was either in January or the early part of February. You say that now?

A. Some time in February; The date, I don't remember.

Q. I ain't asking about some time in February; you said that on your examination in chief; I want to know if you didn't use the words "Or early in February."

[—] I don't remember.

Q. And then on cross-examination; didn't you say in substance the same thing on cross-examination?

A. I can't remember definitely; it might have been in substance; I can't remember.

Q. You heard Mr. Wiseman's testimony in 1882 about this measurement didn't you? A. No sir.

Q. Didn't you hear Doctor Miller's testimony?

A. I think I did.

Q. Didn't you hear him testify in 1882 to the effect that Hillmon talked to him about his height and that he actually measured him on the 17th of December, 1878?

A. No, I could not remember the particulars that he stated.

Q. Wasn't the 17th of December, 1878, the date that Dr. Miller fixed in his testimony in this case, as the date on which he actually measured John W. Hillmon?

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

A. No, I don't remember that that was the date.

By the Court: Not whether Dr. Miller testified, but whether this witness heard him.

By Mr. Wheat: Yes, I ain't trying to prove what Dr. Miller testified to but only trying to prove the date.

Q. Don't you know that Dr. Miller claimed every time that he testified in the case, that he actually measured Hillmon on the 17th of December, 1878?

A. I don't remember that date.

Q. Didn't you see a record in a book in relation to 1107 the matter of the measurement by Dr. Miller; didn't you see it with your own eyes?

A. I don't remember of seeing that.

Q. Now, let me ask you if on the first trial of this case in 1882 and at the second trial in 1885, and at the third trial in 1888, if you did not on each of those trials, or at least in one of them, testify to the effect that you measured him actually during the same day or a day or two after Miller testified he measured him? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. Didn't you place the time of the actual measurement of John W. Hillmon by you as occurring—speaking now within a day or two, or a short time, anyhow—as being the same day that Miller did? A. I did not.

Q. Now, Doctor, I will ask you if you did not testify at the trial in 1895, and also at the trial in 1896, or at one of them, "Now, doctor, you said at one time that you measured John W. Hillmon. How did you do that and when was it as near as you can state," to which you answered, "I measured him some time in the early part of 1879, there—"

I will withdraw the question. Now, then, I will ask you whether on those trials in the 80s, you did not testify that it was about the same time that Miller did; didn't you about agree on the time?

A. I don't remember that we did.

Q. There ain't any mistake about this measurement here in this application of the 24th of December, 1878, having been made on that day, is there? A. I don't think so.

Q. There is no doubt about that as the correct time at which that business was done?

A. I should think not.

Q. I want you to be as sure as you possibly can in your memory that it was on the 24th day of December when you concede you still wrote 5 feet, 11. Did you ever report this measurement to the company, this actual measurement?

A. Not except on the application.

Q. Whatever was written in the applications at the 1108 time you made them of course, that you sent to the company? A. Yes sir.

Q. Sent it immediately? A. Yes sir.

Q. But when you actually made the measurement of John W. Hillmon that you testified to, you didn't send any note to the company about it did you?

A. I don't remember about it.

Q. Didn't send any note?

A. I don't think so; I don't remember.

Q. Didn't call their attention to any mistake in the previous applications? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. Nothing about it? A. I don't think I did.

Q. Haven't you testified at each of the previous trials of this case that you did not?

A. I don't remember my testimony but I don't think I did.

Q. You don't think that you made any note or memorandum of that? A. I don't think so.

Q. Didn't write and inform them of the discrepancy?

A. I did not.

Q. Didn't say a word to them on the subject?

A. I did not to the company.

Q. Wasn't this question asked you at the trial in 1895 and 1896, each, respectively: I want the question to be separate as to each of those trials: "Why didn't you measure him on those occasions when you took his application," to which you answered, "I followed his statement." Is that correct?

The defendants object to the question because the same is double.

Q. At Topeka, in 1895, before Judge Thomas and a jury, wasn't this question asked you: "Why didn't you measure him on those occasions? when you took his applications?

A. I followed his statement."

Wasn't that question asked you and didn't you make that answer?

A. I don't recollect definitely about the circumstance of the question but I think it is correct.

Q. Wasn't that question asked you at the trial in 1896 when Judge Williams presided?

A. I don't recollect about the question being asked me.

1109 Q. Then, wasn't this question asked you—Didn't you so testify on that occasion?

A. I don't remember definitely about it.

Q. Now, the next: These questions are partly preliminary to get up to the main questions: Wasn't this question asked you and didn't you make the following answer on the trial in 1895: "Why didn't you measure him on those occasions when you took his applications? I followed his statement."

A. I don't remember the answer, but the substance, I think it is correct.

Q. Wasn't this question asked you at the trial in 1895: "You had the measurement right on the door? A. I didn't measure all applicants."

A. I don't remember the definite answer, but I—

Q. Never mind; I want to know if that question wasn't asked you at that trial, and if you didn't make that answer to it? A. I don't remember definitely about it.

Q. Well, in 1896, wasn't that same question asked you, and didn't you make the same answer?

A. I don't remember particularly.

Q. Did you think you did make such an answer or not?

A. I might have done so if the question had been asked me.

Q. Now, wasn't this question asked you at the trial in 1895. "You had the measure right there on the door when Mr. Hillmon was measured? A. Yes, sir." Wasn't that question and that answer made at that trial in 1895?

A. I don't recollect definitely.

Q. Well, do you remember indefinitely that that question was asked you at that trial?

A. What I mean by not remembering—Can I explain at all?

Q. No, you may answer my questions.

A. I can't remember definitely the questions and answers in the other trials.

Q. Wasn't that question asked you at the trial in 1896, I have mentioned? A. It might have been.

Q. And wasn't the same answer made?

A. It might have been.

Q. Didn't you so testify in substance?

A. I think I did, but I don't know definitely.

1110 Q. Wasn't this question asked you in the trial in 1895? "You have a clear recollection that he was measured at this time when he came in to correct the statement as to his height, haven't you," to which you answered, "Very clear recollection of that." Was that question and answer given?

A. I don't recollect definitely about the question, No, sir.

Q. Don't you remember the substance of the question and your answer on cross-examination?

A. I think it is correct, but I don't remember definitely.

Q. Wasn't the same question asked you and the same answer made in 1896? A. I don't remember.

Q. Next question: "On the first trial of this case, didn't you state that you had no absolute recollection upon that subject at all?" And didn't you to that question answer: "I might possibly have had some difficulty about my recollection." A. I don't know about that.

Q. Wasn't that question asked you at the trial in 1895 and didn't you make that answer to it?

A. I don't recollect.

Q. And at the trial in 1896, wasn't that question asked you, and you made that answer that I read? A. I don't recollect.

Q. Is it not a fact that you have difficulty about recollecting about that measurement? A. I don't recollect.

By the Court: He is asking you now.

A. I thought he was reading that paper.

Q. Did you say very clearly, asking about your status on that subject?

A. The other gentleman—I understood him that way. I thought you were reading.

Q. You didn't say anything about thinking that I was reading until Mr. Green made that suggestion to you. You just heard a suggestion by Mr. Green.

A. No, I said I did not understand you before Mr. Green spoke.

Q. You heard the last suggestion of Mr. Green?

A. I heard him make a suggestion, yes, sir.

1111 Q. That is all I want to know. Now, the next question.

By Mr. Green: I think the witness has answered that question under a misapprehension, and that he should be allowed to answer it now. The question being asked him is a question read from his former examination.

By the Court: I think so.

Q. The present question was as to your—
A. I wish the question read, please.
(It is read.) A. I had difficulty about it.
Q. You did have? A. Yes, I did have.
Q. You did have in 1882? A. Yes, sir.
Q. At the trial in 1882, you had difficulty in remembering it? A. I did.
Q. That is about the measurement? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I am talking of the actual measurement. A. Yes, sir.
Q. That trial was in 1882? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Before Judge Foster here in Leavenworth?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say you testified to some indefinite recollection?
A. Yes, I did; that is in substance correct.
Q. In your testimony in 1882, is it not?
A. I think it is; I don't know.
Q. You think that is correct? A. I think so
Q. You stated, Doctor, if I remember right, in your examination in chief on this occasion, that you first noticed this matter of the 11 in this application, where your examination is dated on the 25th of February, 1879; if I understood you right, in your examination in chief you testified with reference to the time and place when and where you first discovered the figures 11 in there, the alteration of them? A. Yesterday?
Q. Yes. A. I did.
Q. You testified to the time and place? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who had the application at that time?
A. Mr. Green had it in his possession.
1112 Q. He had it in his hands and drew your attention to it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was in a room in the Hotel Throop in Topeka, was it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Several others were present besides Mr. Green?
A. There were others present, yes, sir.
Q. That was the first time you had ever noticed the 11?
A. Yes, sir, the first time I had noticed the erasure.
Q. Now, I will ask you if, in 1882, in the trial before Judge Foster, you did not testify that you wrote in there the 5 feet 11?

A. I think probably I did; I don't recollect that I did.

Q. Didn't you in 1885 at the trial before Judge Brewer and a jury testify that you wrote the 5 feet 11 in that same application? A. I don't recollect definitely that I did.

Q. Is it not your recollection that it was 5 feet, 11, your best recollection? A. Well, I might have done so.

Q. Well, didn't you? It was always read, all the applications read alike, 5 feet, 11? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the first three trials, ain't that right?

A. I don't remember that they were.

Q. Didn't you testify at the trial in 1895 before Judge Thomas, that at the previous trials you had testified that you wrote the 5 feet, 11?

A. I might have done so; I don't recollect definitely the testimony.

Q. It is your best recollection that you did?

A. I think I did.

Q. You think you so testified? A. I think so.

Q. At all three of those trials? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That includes the trial before Judge Shiras at Topeka in 1888? A. I think so.

Q. And Brewer in 1885 here in this city? And Foster in 1888? A. I think so.

Q. You think you testified that you wrote the 5 feet 11 every time at those three trials? A. I think I did.

Q. Now, doctor, when they drew your attention to 1113 5 feet 11, you noticed it very quick; you could see it very plainly; you could see the 11 just as plainly or a little plainer than you can now, couldn't you?

A. I could if I had looked at it, as closely.

Q. As you do now? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, let me ask you if this same application was not handed to you, all these three applications, at each of these trials, 1882, 1885 and 1888, that the same application was given to you to look at wasn't it?

A. I don't remember definitely that it was.

Q. It would have to be for you to read it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You couldn't tell unless you looked at it; ain't that your recollection that the application was handed to you at each of these three trials?

A. I think they were; I don't recollect the definite act of looking at them.

Q. You could not testify with reference to it being in your writing unless you had it before you?

A. That is correct.

Q. Now, you can see that that matter of the 11 has been—There is a scratch, an erasing, and extra writing?

A. I can see two lines there, but I can't say that there has been—

Q. Can't you see even a third line there; the left hand one must have been the same as a double line; can't you see that far right now? A. Yes.

Q. There never was a word said about an erasure on that by anybody until that Sunday evening over in the Hotel Throop whilst the trial was progressing before Judge Thomas in 1895? A. I think not.

Q. The very first time you sent that application to the company? A. I did.

Q. In February 1879?

A. Immediately on its being taken; I didn't send it direct to the company; I gave it to the agent; I did not communicate directly with the company.

Q. You gave it to the agent in Lawrence?

A. I did not send any application directly to the company.

Q. The custom was to send them right on?

A. The custom was to give them to the agent and 1114 the agent communicated with the company.

Q. Sends them on and the policy issues afterwards?

A. He sends them on and the policy issues afterwards.

Q. That is the custom of the business, is it not?

A. I think so.

Q. When did you next see this application that we have got here of the 25th of February, where you signed on the 25th and Mr. Hillmon signed on the 24th. When did you next see that application after you turned it over to the agent there in February, 1879? A. I don't recollect when I next saw it.

Q. It was present at all the trials that you have been at?

A. For anything I know, I don't know that it was.

Q. The applications have been handed up to you in your writing; they have all been handed up to you at the time of each trial?

A. I don't remember that they have on every occasion.

Q. What is your best recollection?

A. My recollection is that the applications have been passed to me, a number of applications, but I don't remember definitely whether every one was in each case.

Q. When this actual measurement was taken of Hillmon that you spoke of in your examination in chief, was Mr. Selig present? A. Mr. Selig was present.

Q. That is A. L. Selig, ain't it? A. A. L. Yes.

Q. The man whose signature is on these papers?

A. Yes sir.

Q. He was agent of the company?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and not proper cross-examination. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Haven't you sworn at each trial that he was agent of the company? (No answer.)

Q. This A. L. Selig was along with Hillmon when he came in there at the time you spoke of actually measuring him?

A. He was.

Q. He was present when the measurement was made?

A. He was.

Q. Is that right? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was there more than one measurement made by 1115 you of John W. Hillmon or in your presence?

A. There was a measurement—

Q. I am speaking of the actual measurement of his height.

A. Yes, when Mr. Selig was present; then it was verified when I filled out the last examination on the 25th of February.

Q. Was that the time Selig was present or was it previous to that time? A. Previous to that, yes sir.

Q. Can you tell me, as near as you can, when this measurement was made when Selig was present?

A. I can't give you the date of that.

Q. As near as you can?

A. I cannot; I think it was some time in February, but I cannot remember the date.

Q. As a matter of fact, didn't you testify in 1882 that it was in December? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. Previous to the time when this application of the 24th of December was made? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. At the trial in 1882, wasn't the question put to you on the stand how he could have directed his measure to be made, how he could have come back, after the measurements made in the Mutual Life by Miller on the 17th of December, and still let you have written 5 feet 11 in this application on the 24th of December 1878? Wasn't that question asked you in 1882 and in 1885 both? A. I don't recollect that it was.

Q. What is your best recollection on that?

A. I don't recollect at all about it.

Q. Then, let me ask you if at the second trial, in 1885, you did not testify that your recollection was that he came in to be measured, the actual measurement that you speak of—if you did not testify that he came and told you his height was wrong, and that you measured him with Selig, sometime after the 24th of December, immediately after, within a few days?

A. I don't recollect.

Q. Wasn't that question asked you in connection with the idea how, after he had been to Miller on the 17th day of 1116 December, 1878, according to his testimony, to correct the measurement, how you could have written in here, how he would have let you write in 5 feet 11, or state anything about 5 feet, 11 on that occasion. Wasn't the substance of such a question asked you in 1885? A. I don't remember.

Q. You have been asked many questions at each of these trials to explain how this discrepancy in the height occurred, haven't you? A. Yes sir.

Q. That has been a big part of the examination each time?

A. I think it has.

Q. At all of these five previous trials? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say that Selig was along when he came there first to you to correct about his height? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was Selig present when you measured him more than once?

A. I don't remember; I don't think he was but I don't remember.

Q. You don't remember of his being present more than once? A. Not when he was measured.

Q. Did you testify at the trial in 1895 or 1896 to his being actually measured a second time when he came to make the application which is dated the 24th of February, the one that is being passed around to the jury? A. I don't remember.

Q. You don't remember as to whether he came back a second time or not? A. What was your question?

Q. I will put it this way to make it shorter: Did you testify at the trials in 1895 or 1896 to his coming back a second time to actually, or of his being measured a second time?

A. I don't remember my testimony.

Q. You don't remember that you testified? A. No.

Q. Is not this the first trial and wasn't it in answer to this question of mine the first time you have ever testified that you actually measured him on the 24th day of February, 1879, when you took that application on that day?

A. I don't remember, that it is the first time.

1117 Q. If you remember of testifying to that at any previous trial mention at which trial.

A. I don't remember.

Q. At every trial you have testified that Selig came with him at the time he spoke about his height and you actually measured him, [you] haven't you; you testified at each trial that Selig was with him?

A. I don't remember, particularly.

Q. He was with him the first time he came to be actually measured? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Selig? A. He was.

Q. Selig was with Hillmon the first time he came to you to be actually measured? A. He was.

By the Court: I don't know that I understand you. Do you claim now that you actually measured John W. Hillmon twice? That is, as to his height?

A. I verified his measurement when the last application was filled out on the 24th of February; that is my impression.

By the Court: That is not the question: I say, do you claim that you actually measured him twice?

A. No, I don't claim that I stood him against the door and made an accurate measurement of him.

By the Court: That is not it. Do you say you actually measured John W. Hillmon twice with reference to his height, whether you stood him up against the door, or in any other way.

A. I measured him on the occasion of Mr. Selig's coming in with him; and then when I filled out the application of the 25th, the last application, I think, I verified it by measuring him again, but on that question I am not as certain as I am on the other.

Q. How did you measure him at the time when this application, when your examination here, dated the 25th of February, 1879, was made; how did you measure him on that occasion?

A. I measured by the door; by my scale on my door.

Q. You were just saying in answer to questions by the Court that you didn't measure him on the door the second time.

A. My answer to that question is a little indefinite.

1118 Q. I didn't understand your answer as being indefinite. Do you mean your remembrance is indefinite as to the second measurement?

A. My best recollection is that I measured him on the—that I verified it when I filled in this certificate.

Q. I understood you as just saying that you did not; but never mind; I may have understood you wrong. Did you ever see him after he made that application?

A. I never saw him after the 25th of February, 1879.

Q. You never measured him after he made that application, did you? A. Not after this date, no.

Q. Did you measure him after taking that application?

A. I did not.

Q. On the 25th of February? A. I did not.

Q. You made out at that time and signed on the 25th of February, 1879, that medical examiner's certificate that you hold there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you never saw him after that occasion, did you.

A. No.

Q. You are sure of that? I am very anxious that you should be as certain as you can whether you ever saw him after you saw him on the occasion when that certificate was made?

A. I have no recollection of ever having seen him after the 25th.

Q. You don't remember that you did see him after the 25th?

A. I have no recollection of seeing him.

Q. Well, did you ever make any measurement of him after that time? A. I don't remember any.

Q. Well, if you did, you would know it, wouldn't you?

A. I think so.

Q. That would be the third measurement if you measured him after that, wouldn't it? A. I think so.

Q. You don't remember any third measurement?

A. I don't remember any.

Q. You don't remember any occasion of it?

A. No, I don't.

Q. About the hair, doctor. I will ask you if this question was not asked you at the trial in 1895, before Judge Thomas: "What was the texture of the hair of this body, coarse or fine," and your answer, "Hair of the head?" Do you remember that question being asked at the trial in 1895 on cross-examination?

1119

A. I remember being questioned about the hair.

Q. Do you remember that question?

A. No, sir; I don't remember the form of it.

Q. Do you remember that question and answer in 1896?

Q. What is the answer?

Q. You inquired there, "Hair of the head?" This is only preliminary to show what we are talking about.

By the Court: That is probably a return question of the witness, whether you meant the hair of the head or the mustache.

Q. I will read two or three questions together: "What was the texture of the hair of this body, coarse or fine? A. The hair of the head? Q. Yes, the hair of the head. A. Well, I should think medium, if I remember right; maybe on the whole on the line of coarse, but not the coarsest hair." Were those questions asked and answers made at the trial in 1895? A. They were, I think.

Q. And also in 1896? A. I think so.

[—] "Did you make any memorandum of that in your notes made at Bailey & Smith's? I would like to refer to them and see." (Does so.)

Q. Then the answer, "The hair of the head, I made it, Hair dark brown, almost black; curly, three to four inches long. Is that right? with reference to your testimony at those two trials? A. I think it was.

"Q. I am asking you about the texture. A. Well, there is no note here on the texture."

"Q. That, of course, means coarse or fine, the texture?"
"A. Yes, sir.
Didn't you make that answer to that question?
A. I did, I think.
Q. You answered to the question, "I am asking about the texture. A. Well, there is no note here on texture."

By the Court: That would not be contradictory to any testimony he has given now, that I recollect of; you have not 1120 asked at this trial as to the texture of the hair, and what he may have testified at some other trial could only be used by way of impeachment or contradiction. Do you say it is contradictory to anything he has testified to at this trial?

By Mr. Wheat: Yes.

Q. The next question: "You said there was no note on the texture; there is no memorandum in these notes about the texture of the hair is there? A. I think not."
Q. You said there was not then; that was your answer.
A. Well, there is no note here on the texture; that was a correct answer.
"Q. Have you any recollection then aside from your notes as to the texture of the hair upon the corpse," to which you answered, "A. No, sir; I have not, besides the notes." Is that not so? Didn't you make that answer to that question? A. I think I did.
Q. It was true, was it not? A. I think it was.
Q. Next question: "The hair was curly. A. It says so, yes, sir." Did you make that answer then? A. I think I did.
"Q. You made the statement here on yesterday about the hair being curly; do I understand you to say you have no recollection aside from the notes? A. I have no notes besides these." Is that right? Did you testify that way? A. I think so.
Q. Now, have you an yrecollection—

The defendants object to the asking of the witness questions asked him at former trials which have no relevancy to the case, and ask that an objection may be considered as made to all questions for which a proper foundation has not been laid.
By the Court. I cannot separate the objection made to a series of questions unless made to the questions, as asked. What the counsel says is correct: I do not think that the last several questions that have been asked respecting his testimony at a previous trial are correct impeaching questions.

1121 Q. When you said you had testified to these questions at the other trials you meant the trial of 1895, did you not? A. I did.

Q. Those questions and answers were asked you at that time?

The defendants object to the question on the ground that it is not an impeaching question. Objection sustained, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. With reference to 1896; didn't you at that trial testify in the same way?

The defendants object to the question on the ground last stated.

Q. At the trial in 1895, that we have been mentioning, were you not asked, "Coarse and curly?" and was not part of your answer to that, "Not very curly?"

The defendants object to the question for the reason that it does not tend to contradict the witness.

By the Court: Ask him now what he says?

Q. With reference to the extent of the curliness: To what extent do you say that hair was curly?

A. Moderately curly.

Q. Do you mean curly enough to be in ringlets?

A. No, I don't think so.

Q. Was it anything more than what would be called wavy?

A. Yes, it lay on the head more than wavy; it had curls; what I would call curly hair; not a kinky hair, but a curly hair.

Q. At that trial in 1895, with reference to the ring mark on the finger, was not this question asked you: "I want to ask you one more question in relation to the examination you made at the cemetery; you say you don't think you saw a ring mark on the finger." "A. I don't remember about that."

A. If the Court please, may I make an explanation?

By the Court: Yes.

A. I don't remember my answer in reference to that question, and the particular answer I may have given to it at the time.

Q. You are through with your explanation? "I want to ask you one more question in relation to the examina-
1122 tion you made at the cemetery; you say you don't think you saw any ring mark on the finger?

A. I don't remember about that."

By the Court: The question is whether that question was asked you at the trial in 1895 and you made that answer?

A. That is what I thought I was answering. I don't recollect the particular instance of the question being asked me and the answer being made; I am not positive as to the purport of the answer in every instance.

Q. Do you remember such a question being asked you?

By the Court: He has answered that he did not remember.

Q. Didn't you in substance state on that trial that you did not remember examining close enough to see whether there was a ring mark or not? A. Would I say that?

Q. At the trial before Judge Thomas in 1895?

A. Now, this is six trials that I have testified to in this case; the five preceding ones, I cannot testify to what question was asked me in 1895, or 1892 or 1887 or any year; that is what I am testifying to. I cannot distinguish between these several trials so as to say that a certain question was put to me one year and a certain answer given and another one in another year; in my answers as to the time when these questions were made, the character of the questions, I cannot remember; I can testify as to the material of the answer but I could not as to any particular answer. If you ask me whether there was a ring mark there, I will answer the question.

Q. But you have been a witness five times and I want to know what you said before. Wasn't this question asked you at the trial of 1895, the question last asked you?

Question objected to and not answered.

Q. At this trial in 1895, while you were testifying at that trial, I think it was the first part of February, in the U. S. Court House in Topeka, when Judge Thomas was presiding, and this case was being tried, did you not testify in 1123 answer to this question: "Have your attention called to anything of that kind there?" And you answered thereto: "I cannot remember anything definitely about a ring or a ring mark?

A. If that question was asked me that was most likely my answer to it.

Q. That answer would have been true, would it not, your answer in these words: "I cannot remember anything definitely about a ring or a ring mark? A. That is correct.

Q. Doctor, with reference to this corpse: You saw the corpse? A. I did.

Q. At Bailey & Smith's and in the grave yard?

A. I did.

Q. Did you see it when Lamon took the pictures?

A. I was on the ground.

Q. Did you see Lamon take them, or some photographer or somebody?

A. I saw the photographer that took the pictures?.

Q. You said yesterday, I think, it was Lamon?

A. I think it was.

Q. I will ask you to look at Exhibits 12 and 13 at this trial and state whether those are good pictures of that corpse as it lay there in the coffin at the time you mentioned in the grave yard when it was being photographed?

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

A. They are.
Q. Each of them is a good picture of the point of view from which it was taken? A. I think so.
Q. Doctor, you testified on yesterday, if I remember right, to the effect that the eyebrows of the corpse met?
A. I did.
Q. How heavy were they where they met?
A. Not very; they were light.
Q. They were heavy enough to call them meeting eyebrows?

The defendants object to the question as calling for the conclusion of the witness.

1124 The Court overruled the objection, to which ruling the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. Look at that picture, Doctor, these two pictures, each one of them, and look carefully at the front view, and tell me —you have already said it was a good picture, and tell me if those are good pictures of his eyes and nose and eyebrows, as he lay there at that time? A. In this picture—
Q. Never mind about in this picture?
A. The eyebrows do not appear prominent to me in the front.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as not responsive to the question.

By the Court: The answer should stand because it is in effect saying the picture is not a good picture, probably.

Q. Very well; go on.

By Mr. Isham: His answer is incomplete; he has not finished it.

Q. Go and finish the answer, doctor.
A. The portion of the eyebrow above the nose which ought to form the meeting of the two does not appear in the picture.
Q. Does not appear there?
A. Does not appear in the picture.

(Mr. Wheat here receives from Mr. Green exhibits 29G and 30G.)

Q. Now, Doctor, these pictures which I just obtained from Mr. Green, marked Exhibit G29 and the other marked Exhibit

G30, I will ask you to look at each one of these pictures, and tell me if these are what you call good pictures of this corpse as it lay there at the time the pictures were taken at the time you have mentioned at the grave yard at Lawrence?

A. They are good pictures except they were faded and somewhat indistinct.

Q. They are not faded quite so much as the pictures marked Nos. 12 and 13, are they, but in other respects just like them so far as you can see?

The defendants object to the question for the reason that the pictures speak for themselves.

By the Court: Let the pictures show for themselves.

1125 Q. The two sets of pictures of this corpse are duplicates of each other, are they not?

A. I think so; they look like it.

Q. The last ones not exposed to the air so much. Now doctor, look at the eye brows in these pictures that Mr. Green produced, the eye brows, the nose, the upper lip, the hair, well, the whole thing; look at it all carefully and tell me whether these pictures marked 29 and 30 are good pictures of the eye brows or not?

A. They are good pictures except somewhat indistinct and faded.

Q. I am just asking about the eye brows; they show the eye brows? A. I don't think they show the eye brows.

Q. Which part of the eye brows don't they show that was on that body? Which part of the eye brows do they fail to show?

A. The delicate portion that united the two prominent and distinct portions here across the center of the face.

Q. Well, had the eye been pulled out before these pictures were taken? A. No, sir.

Q. One of these pictures is a front view, is it not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. They show quite a width between the eye brows, do they not.

By Mr. Barker: As to what the pictures show, we object on the ground that the pictures themselves are the best evidence.

The question not pressed for answer.

Q. Wasn't the nose bent around to the left, the end of it; the point? A. It was twisted a little bit; was dried.

Q. Didn't Doctor Miller take hold of the nose and try to straighten it up just before the photograph was taken so that it would present a straighter appearance than it would if it hadn't been done? A. I don't know.

Q. Can you say whether he did or not?
A. I cannot say whether he did or not.
Q. I will ask you with reference to the hair in these two photographs, these four pictures, these pictures of which you have the duplicates, you have seen them all, I will ask 1126 you as to the hair, whether these pictures correctly represent the hair as it appeared there on that occasion when the pictures were being taken? A. They do.
Q. That is as far as you can remember, they represent the hair correctly? A. I do.

By Mr. Wheat: We offer in evidence the pictures G29 and G30.
Admitted without objection.

Q. Now, doctor, you spoke about vaccinating Mr. Hillmon, and if I remember right on the 20th of February, 1879; was that the right date? A. Yes, sir.

The hour of 12 m. having arrived a recess was taken until 1 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon session. 1 o'clock p. m. Cross-examination of Dr. Stuart concluded by Mr. Wheat.

Q. You were one of those who made the autopsy?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you commence to make that with reference to the time the corpse arived? A. On the following day.
Q. Were you not there with the corpse on the same morning? A. I was.
Q. Examining of it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had you taken it out of the coffin; did you take it out of the coffin that morning, that day?
A. I don't think we did.
Q. Did you undress it? A. No.
Q. It was not undresed that day?
A. No, it was undressed the next day.
Q. But it was not undressed the first day it was there?
A. I think not.
Q. Are you sure it was not?
A. I feel very sure it was not. I am not sure but I feel very sure.
Q. Did you cut it up on that first day? A. No.
1127 Q. You didn't cut it to pieces on the first day?

The defendants object to the question as assuming a fact not proven.

A. I never cut it to pieces; I removed a piece of skin referred to in describing the vaccination.
Q. A piece on the arm? A. A piece on the arm.

Q. You took that off on the first day?
A. On the first day.
Q. Very soon after it arrived?
A. During the forenoon some time.
Q. That was on the first day. Now, on the same day, you didn't cut the body to pieces at all, if I understand you rightly, in your answer?
A. Well, do you mean by the autopsy, the examination—
Q. Yes. A. The autopsy was made on the next day.
Q. If I understood you right, you just answered me, you meant to say it was not undressed on the first day any further than to pull up the sleeve to get at the vaccination?
A. I don't think it was.
Q. State whether it was left in the coffin all that day so far as you know, or not?
A. I think it was laid out of the coffin that day.
Q. What was done with it? A. Excuse me—
Q. What was done with the corpse that first day?
A. It was laid out and inspected.
Q. Well, in or out of its clothes?
A. I think it was in its clothes on that day.
Q. The careful, scrutinizing examination that was made then was made the next day?
A. Was made on the next day.
Q. Now, on the next day it was that it was cut to pieces?

The defendants object to the question as assuming a fact not proven.

Q. In the manner you have described?
A. We merely made an autopsy.

By the Court: He has described the extent of the cutting.

Q. I mean to the extent mentioned in your previous answers; I mean as you have already shown as the autopsy.
1128 A. Yes, we made the autopsy on the 4th, the next day.

A. Yes, we made the autopsy on the 4th, the next day.

Q. The body was cut to pieces to a considerable extent, wasn't it? I understood you to say that you took out some of the ribs from the body. I may have misunderstood you; how was it as to that?
A. The chest was opened; the ribs were opened.
Q. Were they not taken apart? Taken and laid aside? I understood you to say the ribs were laid aside?
A. No, a portion of the breast bone and a portion of the ribs were divided and turned up.
Q. Divided and turned up? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who did the principal part of the cutting, if any one did? A. I think Dr. Mottram did the principal part.

Q. How came he to be there? A. He was there by invitation.

Q. Invitation of whom? A. I think Doctor Fuller.

Q. State whether, so far as you know, or did know, any application was made to the plaintiff, Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon for leave to hold the autopsy on the body or in any manner to cut it up?

The defendants object to the question as immaterial. Objection overuled, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

A. No.

Q. Do you know of her giving her consent to any such thing? A. I do not.

Q. Do you know as to whether she knew it was going on or not? A. I do not.

Q. This cutting out of the little piece from the arm in which the vaccination sores were, did you have her consent, so far as you knew, either consent to do it, or knowledge on her part that it was being done,—taking that out of the arm?

A. I had no knowledge.

Q. Of her consent? A. Of her consent or knowledge.

Q. Or that she knew it was being done; you did it without leave from her so far as you know? A. Yes, sir.

1129 Q. Who requested you to do it, to take the piece out of the arm?

A. I think that was my own proposition. I did it on my own motion.

Q. Now, when the corpse was taken up there in the grave yard, state whether anything was said to Mrs. Hillmon about doing it before it was done, or any consent of hers obtained, or whether she knew of it so far as you know, before it was done or when it was done.

A. I have no personal knowledge whether she knew it or not.

Q. You have no personal knowledge of any consent or anything of that kind on her part? A. I do not.

Q. I understood you to say yesterday—I may have understood you wrong—that the purpose of cutting out the vaccine sore was to preserve evidence of it? A. It was.

Q. Now, was that the only purpose?

A. No, there was another suggestion about it.

Q. Something that resulted in the use of a piece of red hot iron, wasn't there? A. Yes sir.

Q. That was one of the purposes of taking it out and taking it away was to apply a red hot iron to it, wasn't it?

A. One of the purposes was to apply a hot iron, yes sir.

Q. Doctor, you said that this was a vaccine sore, if I understood you right? A. Yes sir.

Q. There ain't a doubt about that in your mind? A. No.

Q. Didn't you testify on the trial in the court room of this county over on the hill in June, 1882, before Judge Foster when you were giving evidence that you had doubts at that time when you took that piece out and carried it off and put a hot iron to it, whether it was a vaccine sore or not?

A. Did you read the question and answer? If I could hear the question—I had the question in my mind; it was a question that was raised, not by myself; I did not raise that question, but Doctor Miller raised the question whether that might not have been done by a hot iron.

Q. Let me ask you if this question was not asked
1130 you in the federal court house at Topeka in the court room where this court is usually held, in February, 1895, when you were testifying at the trial before Judge Thomas, whether this question was not asked you: "You questioned whether at first it was a vaccination sore at all or not." The answer to that: "I didn't believe it was at first."

A. Well, I cannot acknowledge that as my testimony, but if it is written, why, it must be. I can remember the state of mind that I was in; I never remember of answering it in that way.

Q. Who did you say it was that questioned its being a vaccination sore?

A. Dr. V. G. Miller suggested at once that it was done with a piece of hot iron, and he says, "We will test it." That is the way the application came to be made with the hot iron.

Q. When you took out the piece and took it away, you took it to what office? A. Took it to my office.

Q. And you put a piece of hot iron to it?

A. It was applied.

Q. Who applied it?

A. I don't remember whether I did or Dr. Miller I think I did it.

Q. Wasn't the iron red hot? A. No sir.

Q. Haven't you testified heretofore on each of these trials that it was red hot? A. I don't think I did; it was hot.

Q. What kind of a piece of iron was it that you applied to it? A. It was a poker to the stove.

Q. Poker to the stove?

A. Yes, a rod with a flat end to poke the fire.

Q. Now, what part of this piece of flesh or skin that had this vaccine sore on it did you apply it to?

A. The strip of skin was two to two and a half inches long, two inches more or less and the sore was near one end, and the hot iron was applied near the other end.

Q. You can't remember which did apply it?

A. I can't remember definitely but my impression is that I did it myself.

Q. You didn't produce a similar sore, did you?

A. No, in no sense.

1131 Q. Now, this sore: Will you describe the way the one looked that you cut into. I will ask you first if the whole of it was on the piece that you took out?

A. No, I divided the other one.

Q. You divided the one of which you took out a half?

A. I took out a whole one, and then I divided through the other and took out a piece of skin including half the sore.

Q. Was that half next to the other sore, or farthest away from the sore that you cut out entirely?

A. It was the half nearer the other sore.

Q. So that when that piece was taken off, it made one continuous taking off?

A. One continuous wound, yes sir.

Q. Doctor, describe that vaccine sore as well as you can when you cut out the two pieces with reference to what it showed there.

Q. You mean the one that I divided?

Q. Yes; did that on the surface, when you first looked at it, present any different appearance from the other? A. No.

Q. Looked the same? A. Looked the same as the other.

Q. Was it the same with reference to the texture of the outside covering or skin as you referred to yesterday?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, what was on the outside, then, of those sores as you first looked at them?

A. What was on the outside of them?

Q. What was on the outside surface of them?

A. The surface was dark over the sore.

Q. What was it; skin, cuticle?

A. It was cuticle, wrinkled and dried.

Q. Was it the original cuticle?

A. Yes, the original cuticle.

Q. It was the original skin of the body?

A. Of the body, yes.

Q. Was it the entire skin or just the outside skin, surface skin?

A. It was the skin; such portion of the skin that was raised by the blister.

Q. Yes, I understand that, but I am now asking another question. I will drop that for a few minutes and ask 1132 you still another question. You have sworn that you vaccinated him by cutting on the outside and putting some of the vaccine matter under some portion of the skin.

A. No, I simply scraped a little bit.

Q. At the top? A. Yes, scraped the surface.

Q. And was the entire skin of the body on the outside of this sore that you spoke of, that you found there in April?

A. No, this epidermis or outside skin that was raised by the blister; that was the first I saw—

Q. That was on the outside of these sores?

A. Yes, that was the covering of the sore.

Q. That was true of both sores, was it? A. Yes sir.

Q. Then, what was next below that?

A. That was adherent—the next was the under skin, the true skin underneath.

Q. That came next to the outside skin in these sores, did it?

A. Yes, except that there was underneath some dried material, in between the epidermis and the true skin that was dried.

Q. Did you mention that in giving your evidence in 1895 and 1896?

A. I supposed I included it in my description; I don't remember exactly the form of it; I intended to.

Q. How much was there of that dried matter in there?

A. Oh, there wasn't much.

Q. What thickness? A. Very thin.

Q. Well, how thin?

A. Well, I should think like a piece of paper.

Q. Paper is of various thicknesses. A. It would be.

Q. Here is a piece of paper.

A. Hardly as thick as that, I should think.

Q. Hardly as thick as the common paper that is laying around the table here? Well, then, what was next below that?

A. The next was the layer of the true skin, the cutis vera.

Q. Was this true skin any harder than it ought to be in health?

A. Yes, it was somewhat inflamed and thickened.

Q. Did it show any inflammation then?

1133 A. Yes, it showed, the cut surface was red, showing the increased quantity of blood, of blood elements.

Q. Was the blood still there?

A. Well, it was reddish; bloody; pinkish.

Q. Now, this outside skin—epidermis, I think you call it, don't you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was that continuous over both of those sores?

A. From one sore to the other, do you mean?

Q. No, I mean the crust of the sore?

A. With the healthy skin?

Q. No, I am not talking about the healthy skin; was this epidermis entire over each of these sores? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It extended clear across? A. Clear across.

Q. Did it connect with the epidermis, the outside skin, on adjoining parts of the arm? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And was continuous clear across?
A. Continuous clear across.
Q. From the healthy part of the arm that had not been vaccinated clear across the sore? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was that the case all around each of those sores, all around on every part of those two sores?
A. All around; that is my recollection.
Q. You took a knife, you said, and tried to raise the sore?
A. I did take a knife and try to slide it under the crust.
Q. Couldn't do it? A. No.
Q. Because of this epidermis being across there?
A. Because it was adhered to the surface below.
Q. Yes, well, wasn't the epidermis continuous and solid so that it did not present a point of cleavage? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Doctor, was this dried matter that you spoke of the first thing you encountered after taking off the outside skin; was this hardened matter, this crust matter, or whatever it was, that stuff that was thin like paper, that you spoke of, was that the first thing on the surface next to the cuticle?
A. That was beneath the cuticle.
1134 Q. The outside cuticle or epidermis? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And next below that was what you called the true skin, the endermis? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is endermis the right name. What is the right name?
A. That is the true skin; the cutus vera.
Q. Is it not also sometimes called the endermis as contra-distinguished from the epidermis or outside skin?
A. It might be; I don't remember to have seen that term applied to it.
Q. This sore: We will take the outside surface of it, the upper surface of each of these two sores; how were they with reference to height as compared with the adjoining healthy parts of the arm; which was the highest?
A. There was a wrinkled surface, somewhat wrinkled, and was a little higher than the healthy skin around the border.
Q. Was it any higher than the adjoining skin around than what the little wrinkling would make on top of the wrinkles?
A. Well, I think it was a little.
Q. How much, doctor?
A. Why, I should think, I should not think very much; the thickness of paper, I should think.
Q. The thickness of a piece of common writing paper?
A. Fully that I should think.
Q. Any more than that?

A. Well, that would be perhaps—I don't [—] that there was any special difference; there might be a little bit more; I don't know about that.

Q. But it was a very little? A. It was not a great deal.

Q. The true skin that you spoke of: I will ask you if that was not thicker where the sore was than it was in the parts that the sore was not, that you cut out?

A. The inflammation extended around quite a border.

Q. I am talking now about the thickness right beneath the sore whether the true skin, as you call it, was not thicker at that point on account of the inflammation that had been there?

1135 A. Why, I don't think a very great deal thicker than it was around the border.

Q. Well, wasn't it thicker: This piece that you cut out, I suppose extended farther away than any of the inflamed part that had been there, did it not; than the inflammation had extended?

A. It was a narrow strip that reached out immediately in one direction.

Q. Didn't you cut out some of it that was still healthy?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is, a part where the inflammation had not extended?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, wasn't this true skin immediately under these two sores thicker than it was anywhere else?

A. I don't think it was much thicker than the inflamed skin just around the border of the sore.

Q. Didn't the inflammation have a tendency to thicken it all?

A. It had thickened the whole skin in the neighborhood; that is, the whole surface.

Q. That is the very question I was just trying to show; the true skin was thickened then as far as the sore extended?

A. Yes, to the extreme border of the areola or sore. I thought you inquired simply for the center of the sore.

Q. You are answering what I was trying to get at; you understand me, now. The areola, what do you call that?

A. The reddened, inflamed surface or portion surrounding the sore.

Q. The true skin was thickened, then, as far as that extended? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Also let me ask you if that thickening did not extend clear cross under where the sore was? A. Oh, yes.

Q. That is what I was trying to get at. I was asking you about that before; of course, it would extend that far out, so that underneath this sore, the true skin, for some little distance around where the sore was, was thickened?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much was that thickened, doctor?

A. Well, it was—I don't know as I can give it accurately.

1136 Q. At its thickest part, as near as you can.

A. I should think a quarter of an inch or more.

Q. You would think it was thickened a quarter of an inch?

A. I should think so.

Q. More than it would be farther apart?

A. No, the whole thickness of the inflamed portion of skin.

Q. Well, how much was that thicker than that part of the true skin that had not been affected by these sores, adjoining the sores?

A. The true skin was not more than 1-16 of an inch; probably a little more than 1-16 of an inch.

Q. And it was how thick?

A. I should think a quarter of an inch or a little more.

By the Court: You mean laterally or perpendicularly?

A. Perpendicularly, as I cut through.

Q. Can you tell me how thick this true skin was at the point, not immediately underneath the sore, but still underneath the areola, as you call it, the reddened parts, close up to where the sore was; how much was the true skin thickened at that point as near as you can tell me?

A. Well, my estimate applies to both. I think the skin around just the thickest portion would be as I have indicated, shading off—

Q. A quarter of an inch?

A. In the neighborhood of a quarter of an inch.

Q. At the thickest part?

A. And shading off to get back to the normal skin.

Q. And at the point where it was the normal skin it was 1/16 of an inch? A. Yes, I should think so.

Q. How far from the center of the sore was it to the place where it was 1/16 of an inch?

A. Well, in the neighborhood of an inch, I should think.

Q. That would be in every direction from each sore?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was the thickest part immediately in the center of the sore?

A. Well, I would think that including the covering of the sore it was.

1137 Q. To illustrate, doctor: If I understand you right, these two sores as they were there on the arm—For instance, one of the sores was there, (illustrating.) If I understood you right, the top of that sore was more than about the thickness of paper, somewhere about that, above the surrounding parts of the arm; was not raised up more than that.

A. It gradually rose with increasing thickness until it reached the border of the vaccine sore in the center; that would be somewhat elevated above the skin.

Q. The healthy parts?

A. Above the surface of the inflammation, the skin immediately near it.

Q. That was about the thickness of paper, or a little more, just where the sore lay above the balance of it? A. Yes sir.

Q. And the outside cuticle that was there when he was vaccinated, the same true cuticle that was there when he was cinated, I mean the corpse when that corpse was vaccinated, the same true cuticle that was there when he was your judgment? A. Yes, in my judgment.

Q. That is your judgment? A. Yes sir.

Q. At any rate, there was outside skin over the outside of each of the sores. A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is called the outside skin? A. Yes sir.

Q. The epidermis as distinguished from the true skin?

A. Yes sir.

Q. That covered all over the place where this sore was?

A. That is my judgment.

By Mr. Barker: I want to know if the witness understood that the question was that the corpse had been vaccinated.

Q. The man whose corpse that was must have been vaccinated in life as I understand you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, the true skin that was in his arm at the place where he was vaccinated, the part which covered over this scab, the original true skin, that was there at the time of the vaccination of that arm and the same outside skin that was there at the time of the vaccination, was still there, was it not?

A. That was my judgment.

1138 By the Court: He has testified three times that it covered both vaccine sores all over.

By Mr. Wheat: Yes, I know he did; I am only asking him again in view of what Mr. Barker said in order that there might be no misunderstanding.

Q. So that there shall be no chance for a misunderstanding, I will now ask you another question: Doctor Stuart, I wish you would describe as accurately as you can, and minutely, the appearance and character of the vaccine marks which you found upon the body of the cadaver, which you saw in the Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment in Lawrence, giving the extent and character of the surface appearance, color and all the other features of the marks as fully as you are able. Now, I do not desire to interrupt you with questions so I wish you would make your answer complete upon all those points? A. What is the question?

The defendants object to the question for the reason that thequestion has already been answered.

By the Court: He may answer the question.

The defendants duly excepted.

A. Do I understand I am to describe the whole of the sores again?

Q. If there is any trouble about your understanding it, doctor, I will present the question to you as printed in type here. I read that question. (Handing paper to witness.)

A. Well, I understand this question to imply that I am to—

Q. I didn't do anything but to ask that question just as it is there; I read it from this paper.

A. This first asks for the appearance of the vaccine marks; that, I take, to mean the sores, the vaccine sores of which we have been speaking, or which there were two in size and dimension, I don't know accurately, but I should think in the neighborhood of the size of a ten cent silver piece; they were dark in color; they had a wrinkled or rough surface; they were raised somewhat above the surrounding skin; they were 1139 hard and dry; the skin bordering these was somewhat raised above the skin immediately around; it was thickened and hardened to the extent of perhaps an inch and a half to two inches in diameter about each sore; then it shaded off to the normal skin; there was no special redness on the surface. I have no further special remarks.

Q. I want a full answer made to that question; read the balance of the question.

A. It says, "Give the extent and character of the surface appearance, color and all other features of the marks as fully as you are able." I think I included those; I included the color. It was not much different, if any, from the other skin, the normal skin; it was harder to the feel and raised somewhat from the normal condition, or thickened, meaning the same thing.

Q. Anything further to say in answer to that question? I am only asking you to make a full answer.

A. It seems to me to cover the points of the question, as I understand it.

Q. I will ask you if, at the trial of this case in 1896, in Topeka before Judge Williams, sometime in March, in the federal court room where this court was then being held, you were not asked this same question that I have just asked you, to wit: Dr. Stuart, I wish you would describe as accurately as you can and minutely, the appearance and character of the vaccine marks which you found upon the body of the cadaver which you saw in the Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment in Lawrence, giving the extent and character of the surface appearance, color, and all the other features of the marks, as fully as you are able. No, I do not wish to interrupt you with questions, so I wish you would make your answer complete upon all those points. Wasn't that question asked you by Mr. Riggs and didn't you answer to that as follows: "There was what we call the sore, the central portion. That was surrounded by the areola or inflamed portion of tissue, making a surface probably two inches in diameter; something like that, an inch each way. That was elevated somewhat and swollen, hard, harder than the adjoining skin 1140 The sore itself was a dark spot, probably $\frac{5}{8}$ of an inch or 6-8 of an inch in diameter. It was about on a level, perhaps a little above the level of the other, or the surrounding tissue. The surface of that was not smooth, as was the skin around it; it was roughened and was dry and was harder. The appearance to my eye was as though it was a continuation of the skin from the surrounding surface, which had dried and hardened as though it had been distended a little by the accumulation of fluid beneath it, and the fluid had dried away and it had settled down on the base below it and in drying had adhered firmly to the underlying tissues; so much so, that making an effort with my finger to try to raise a portion of it around the edge, it seemed to be continuous with the skin, and I couldn't do it; I could not raise any portion of it with my finger nail. I took my knife and tried to loosen it up but I could not loosen it, but I shaved off a sliver of it, and found on cutting off a very thin sliver that I came to a red surface beneath colored pinkish, bloody color."

A. I think that is correct.

Q. That was next to the outside cuticle?

A. It was next to the part that I shaved off.

Q. Well, wasn't that next to the outside cuticle?

A. Yes sir. It was next to what I cut off, whatever it was.

Q. In this answer don't you answer as saying that that was next to the outside skin?

A. Well, it was what I shaved off; I shaved down to the—

Q. I am asking you if you didn't understand the answer as saying that you came to a red surface beneath, a pinkish, bloody color, and that you meant the cuticle or outside skin in this answer?

A. I said I cut off a sliver; I made a shaving and in cutting off the shaving, I cut down to the red surface.

Q. Did you or did you not make this answer that I read to you?

By the Court: He said he did; it was a correct answer.

Q. Now, let me ask you whether at the trial in 1895, at the court room in Topeka, where the court was being 1141 held in January, February and March, 1895, when you were being questioned by C. F. Hutchings, attorney for the plaintiff, you did not, on cross-examination, to the following question, make the following answer: "Now, I would like to have you describe as an expert to this jury, taking as much time as you require to state it accurately, or in any language that you can make it plainest in, the condition, character and description of this vaccination mark which you cut out of this arm and carried to your office?

A. There was a dark spot or sore, two of them, on the arm, in size half to three-quarters of an inch in diameter, perhaps, surrounded by a hardened thickened portion of the skin running together between the two more or less. The extent of this hardened thickened condition around the sore was perhaps an inch and a half or two inches in diameter with the sore in the center; as I said, the sore itself was dark and rough ened, not raised much, if any, above the general surface of the skin. That was the general appearance. Then, my object in cutting it as I cut through one of them, made a central incision right across through the center of the sore, passing through the hardened thickened skin about it for a distance of an inch and a half, removing a piece of skin half or three-quarters of an inch wide, to observe the depth or thickness of that hard ened or inflamed portion of skin surrounding the sore I found that the thickness varied, I didn't take any definite measurement, but I should say from half an inch, more or less, shading off to the margin of it, the cut surface presenting a reddish or pinkish hue, still maintaining the characteristics of the inflammation that existed from the vaccination, the central part, the sore. I made an effort to lift up and remove the crust, as it seemed to be, from the other; I found I couldn't do it; it was adherent, I found. Its thickness was very slight, and under the sore was also this reddened thickened condition resulting from the inflammation and the filling up with blood product.

1142 Q. I will ask you if you didn't make that answer? I will let you have the paper.

A. I take this to be my answer; I don't recollect what answer I gave but I take it to be my answer to the question.

Q. That would be a true answer to-day, wouldn't it?

A. I think so.

Q. About the color of the arm immediately around these sores; what color was it, Doctor, at that time?

A. It was not much different, if any, from the normal color of the skin.

By the Court:

Q. You mean the outside skin, the epidermis?

By Mr. Wheat:

Yes. A. Yes, up to the margin of the sore.

Q. The color that it presented there at the time you first looked at it, before any cutting was done. That is what I meant to inquire about. That is the way you understand me, don't you? A. That is correct.

Q. This ball hole through the head that you spoke of in your examination in chief; if I understood you right, you seemed to think that something had gone through the head on the right side? Is that right? A. Yes, sir.

Q. On the right side: The exact location, will you give it to me?

A. Beginning at the opening in the ear, going up an inch and a half, if I remember correctly, and then half an inch forward, would make the center of the opening.

Q. That would take you to the center of the opening?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How about the point of exit on the other side of the head?

A. It corresponded very nearly exactly the same place, I think except a little bit lower.

Q. How much lower?

A. Oh, not to exceed half an inch.

Q. Now, will you tell me what part of the brain you think a straight line from the center of each of those holes would pass; what is [is] it called, that part of the brain that a straight line between the center of those two holes would pass?

A. It is called the cerebrum.

Q. Draw a straight line across through the head from the lower parts of those holes, one to the other, through 1143 what part of the brain would that straight line pass?

A. It would pass through the lower portion of the large brain, the cerebrum.

Q. It would still be within the cerebrum? A. It would.

Q. I understood you to say that a man shot in that way must drop right down?

A. That would be my judgment, that he would fall down.

Q. Let me ask you if it is not a well known scientific fact that anything injuring the cerebrum in that way that a man might stand up, or if he was sitting on a horse, that he might sit there for some little time, and that he does not necessarily fall immediately because of the wound in the cerebrum?

A. I should say it was not.

Q. In your judgment, where do the motor nerves center in the head? Those governing the lower limbs, whether they center in the cerebrum or in some other part of the brain?

A. Well, they are gathered into bundles into the spinal cord, what we call the medulla oblongata.

Q. The medulla oblongata is another portion of the brain, is it not? A. Yes, that is the extreme base of the brain.

Q. That is the extreme base. Let me ask you what comes next below the cerebrum? A. Well as to the skull in front—

Q. Let me ask you if there is not a part of the brain called the cerebellum?

A. That is in the back portion of the head, way beyond where this wound was.

Q. Let me ask you whether between the medulla oblongata and either the cerebrum or the cerebellum, and above it, there is not a part of the brain known as the pons variolii?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is a part of the brain then above the medulla oblongata? A. Just above, yes.

Q. And still below the cerebrum?

A. It is rather below the cerebellum.

Q. And the cerebellum intervenes at that point between the upper part of the pons variolii and the cerebrum?

1144 A. It comes in, wedges in between the two. It does not separate the two, by any means.

Q. It separates them on the back side?

A. It goes into the medulla oblongata; it is not horizontal exactly, but it is inclined a little bit; it slides in between the medulla oblongata and is a prolongation of the fibres from the cerebrum.

Q. Now, these motor nerves in reference to the limbs and body. Where do they center; in which one of these four parts of the brain we have been talking about?

A. They are included in the medulla oblongata.

Q. And don't extend up into the cerebrum?

A. Oh, yes, a portion of them do.

Q. They are simply nerve fibres, as they are called?

A. That is what the brain is. A portion of it.

Q. But when these parts that go up into the cerebrum and cerebellum there, are they considered in medicine and science as governing the motive powers of the body?

A. The fibres are conducting elements like wires; the real center of power is in the gray tissue of the brain outside of the brain.

Q. Where is that gray tissue located?

A. It covers the brain all over.

Q. All around it? A. All around it.

Q. Is it not a recognized fact in medicine and science, so far as expert testimony goes that when a man is shot through the head in this way, that whether he will fall immediately or whether he will remain up for some little time, must depend upon the exact situation he was in when the injury was inflicted, and that it cannot be determined by such a wound, or how such a thing would be, but must be in every instance depend upon the fact as it actually was, and there is no means of determining scientifically how it would have been?

A. I don't know what the question means; I give it up; it is a conumdrum I could not settle. If a man was lying down flat on his side, I should say he would not fall; that is 1145 as near as I can tell.

Q. If he was standing, do you mean to say that it is certain sure thing he would fall immediately?

A. I should say in my judgement he would.

Q. You never saw an instance of this sort? A. No.

Q. Did you ever read anything on the subject in books, scientific books, I mean, such as you get your expert knowledge from?

A. I have read of men being shot and falling, etc.

Q. I mean with reference to the exact question I am asking?

A. I have read about a man that had a crow bar shot through his head and not dying.

Q. Have you read about a man by the name of Small shot in the Philippines, recently published in the medical journals, being shot through the brain right above the ears, clear through the head and who is living now and walking now?

A. No, I have not come across that.

Q. The question is whether you have read that case in the medical journals? A. No, I have not read that case.

Q. Were you present when this coffin was opened?

A. Referring to Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment?

Q. Yes? A. On the morning of the 3rd of April?

Q. Yes, where the corpse was that you found there that day and on which the autopsy was held? A. I was.

Q. You were present when the corpse was opened the first morning? A. When the coffin was opened.

Q. He was clothed then was he not? It was dressed then, was it not? A. It had clothing on it.

Q. I will ask you if these were the same clothes that are in the picture there, the picture of the corpse that you have before mentioned, in exhibits 12 and 13 and 29 and 30? Whether those are the same clothes, so far as can be seen, that were on the corpse when it was first opened there in Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment at Lawrence?

1146 The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

A. Apparently they are.

Q. You saw the body when it was exhumed there in the grave yard, did you not? A. I did.

Q. Were the same clothes on it the[m] as were on it when the coffin was first opened at Bailey & Smith's?

A. I think they were the same.

Q. The same clothes. A. I think so.

Q. I will ask if that matter has not been asked of you and of other witnesses in your presence at all these different trials?

A. It has been asked me; I could not say at all of them.

Q. It has been your understanding all the time that he was buried in the same clothes that he came there in the coffin?

A. Yes, that has been my understanding.

Q. That he was brought to Lawrence in? A. Yes, sir.

By the Court: I want to shorten this case as much as I can consistently, with the rights and interests of the parties, and with that object in view, I want to ask this doctor a question. One of the expressions used by the witness, John H. Brown, in describing the killing of the man he called Hillmon, was that he reeled; I believe that was the expression Brown used in describing the falling, or sinking, or whatever it was, of this man that he called Hillmon. Do I understand you, by your evidence, to say that with that wound he could not have reeled?

A. I don't know just what that might mean, by reeling.

By the Court: Nor I, but using your definition of reeling?

A. A man standing that way, might turn to one side or the other a little bit and then go over by the force of the blow; or it might knock him around to one side a little bit or something like that.

1147 By the Court: If that was what was meant by reeling, you would not say that he could not reel or would not reel, if shot in the way indicated?

A. He might fall this way or he might fall that way, or some other way; I couldn't tell, but as to the idea of a man going or walking anywhere, I think that is impracticable; it was impossible.

By the Court: Can there be any difference between counsel on that? If there can be none, what is the use of taking up time in discussing whether a man could reel or could not reel?

By Mr. Wheat: It has always been claimed from the testimony of this witness and two or three other witnesses that they have produced that a man could not have reeled, and they have argued it to the jury; that is about as far as they have gone into it. That is the reason I have asked him.

By the Witness: If your Honor please, I do not think the word reel has ever been presented to me in this case; I don't remember the word; I don't think it has.

Q. By Mr. Wheat: As I understand you, you left this jar that had the parts of flesh containing the vaccine sores, in the back part of Woodward's drug store? A. I so stated.

Q. I understand you left it there to get rid of it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You wanted to get rid of them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was what you did to preserve them for the benfit of the parties. I understood you at first to say that you did it to preserve it? A. That is correct.

Q. At the time of the last trial of this case in Topeka, I will ask you after you had testified on the stand on that trial, before Judge Williams, in the court house at Topeka, in March, 1896, the trial that you have mentioned before, at that time, whether you did not that evening, after you were through testifying, or that day, after you testified, go back to the Hotel Throop? A. I did, I think.

Q. And whether you there did not meet S. F. Neeley,
1148 a gentleman—you have seen him during the trial, the man that was United States Marshal at that time—

A. —I know Dr. Neely.

Q. Did you meet him, the man you call Dr. Neeley, I mean, who was U. S. Marshal of this district?

A. Did I meet him where?

Q. At the Hotel Throop; do you remember of meeting him there and having a conversation with him about your testimony in the case? A. I don't remember.

Q. I will ask you if you did not that same afternoon, in the Hotel Throop, in the same room, in which the office is, whether you did not there say to him in substance, this, to Dr. Neeley: That when you viewed the corpse brought to Lawrence, supposed to be the body of Hillmon, that you were in doubt about the identity of the corpse, and when you stripped the arm and saw the sores at the two places corresponding to the points at which you introduced the virus into the arm of Hillmon, it greatly increased your doubt as to the identity of the corpse?

A. No, sir; I could not have made that statement; I don't remember the interview; I remember seeing Dr. Neeley in Topeka, but I don't remember the interview referred to there.

Q. Didn't you say that, in substance to him there?

A. No, I did not.
Q. Or anywhere else? A. No, never said that to any one.
Q. You understand the time I allude to well enough, do you not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did he not say to you that he could not quite reconcile your testimony in the case with the testimony of Dr. Morse, the testimony in relation to identity?

The defendants object to the question because it does not tend to impeach the witness.

By the Court: That will not do as an affirmative question.

Q. State whether he did not say that to you in substance, and then if you did not answer him to the effect or in words substantially those I will now quote: That you could not [my] yourself after having examined the body, including the examination of the vaccine sores, say for certain whether 1149 it was Hillmon or not?
A. Oh, no, sir.
Q. Did you not have a conversation with J. D. Patterson, a dentist of Lawrence, in which this was said: Did you not in Lawrence, Kansas, in the office occupied by you, or in that occupied by Dr. J. D. Patterson, a dentist, at or about the time of the inquest held by the coroner of Douglas county early in April, 1879, say to Dr. Patterson, or in his presence, in reply to a question as to whether the body in question was the body of Hillmon, or whether the whole thing was a fraud, say, "I am sure I don't know; I am sure I don't know," or words to that effect?
A. I shall have to give no to that; my answer is no; not in accordance with any recollection whatever that I have.
Q. Patterson had an office close by yours?
A. His office was next to mine.
Q. You know the man I refer to as Patterson?
A. I did then; I have not seen him for many years.
Q. Do you know the man who made the model of the teeth there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I am alluding to the same man.
A. Yes, sir; Dr. J. D. Patterson.
Q. You understood him to be the man that I was asking the question about, did you not? A. Yes, I did sir.
Q. I will ask you if you didn't pull out some of his hair?
A. I did.
Q. At the coffin. How much did you pull out; the hair of the corpse, I mean when it was there out at the grave yard? A. Small wisp of it, not very much.
Q. Wasn't it when it was first brought here to court a bunch larger than your large finger?
A. Oh, no, by no means; not by any means.

Q. I will ask you where your present place of residence is?
A. Minneapolis, Minnesota.
Q. You have been residing there ever since when?
Ever since 1882.
1150 Q. You have come here at each of these six trials, five previous to this one, to testify in this case, have you not? A. I have.
Q. For that purpose only? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Each time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. State whether you have been paid for coming or not?
A. I have had compensation.
Q. How much have you been paid for coming each time?
A. Well, it has varied somewhat.
Q. My question covers each time?
A. I could not give it each time; but I can come in the neighborhood of it; I don't remember the exact sum.
Q. As near as you can?
A. I think in the first instance I was paid eight dollars a day for the absolute attendance on the trial.
Q. From the time you were absent from Minneapolis?
A. Yes, the time occupied in atending the trial.
Q. You mean just the time you were out, or from the time you left Minneapolis?
A. I mean the time I was serving at the trial in the city of Leavenworth, this place and my expenses.
Q. Your expenses for the whole trip?
A. For the whole trip.
Q. Eight dollars a day for just the time you were in Leavenworth or did that include from the time you left Minneapolis until you got back?
A. The time I was absent from my business, I had better say.
Q. That is what I mean; that is, the time you were absent from Minneapolis?
A. Absent from my business, yes, sir.
Q. Now, the second trial?
[—] Well, that is about the same.
Q. The third trial? A. About the same.
Q. The fourth trial?
A. I don't remember. I charged more later.
Q. You charged more the fourth trial?
A. I am not sure but I think I got fifteen dollars a day.
Q. For the whole time, from the time you left Minneapolis until you got back? A. I did.
1151 Q. That was in the trial before Thomas? A. Yes.
Q. The fourth trial? A. Yes.
Q. How much the fifth trial?
A. I think I got the same.
Q. Fifteen dollars? A. Yes, sir.

Q. This time how much? A. I haven't got anything.
Q. Haven't you any bargain about how much you are to ave? A. No, I have no bargain.
Q. They pay you what you ask?
A. No, they don't; they don't pay what I think my time s worth.
Q. You said that you gave all the hair you got to whom; Dr. V. G. Miller? A. No, I did not.
Q. What did you do with the rest of it?
A. It passed out of my hands at one of these trials.
Q. Into whose hands?
A. I think it went into the attorney's hands.
Q. Which ones? A. The attorneys for the defense.
Q. Which one of them? Mr. Green or Mr. Barker?
A. Well, I could not say.
Q. Was it one or the other of them? A. I think so.

And in answer to redirect-interrogatories propounded to im by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the vitness testified as follows, to wit:

[A.] Now, doctor, you have stated the various sums you ave got from time to time as you have come down. I will sk you if at any time the subject-matter of your compensation as been agreed upon before you came but was the matter ar-anged after some controversy after you had testified?
A. That is the case; it was arranged after I came with ome controversy as Mr. Green says:
Q. Now, you may state whether, in your judgment, you ave at any time, at any time of these trials, received com-ensation to compensate you for the loss of services, the loss of your services at home?

1152 Mr. Atwood, on behalf of the plaintiff, objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. "We find that he is getting fifteen [days] a day in this case. He might get eighty dollars a day somewhere else where he night swear a little harder."
(No ruling.)

A. No.
Q. Or the value of your practice? Or as an equivalent for he loss you suffer in your practice? A. No.
Q. Now, you spoke of those scars. You say that you left those scars, in answer to a question they asked you, to get id of them. What did you mean by that?
A. Why, I simply mean that I relieved myself of the care of them any further; I did not want to take them with me; they were probably useless and worthless to anybody, and I did not wish to take them to another state and my only thought was to set them aside and not have the care of them any further.

Q. Were there other specimens that you had at that time that you left there?

A. Yes, there was a number of others, what we call pathological specimens that I had collected from my practice.

Q. Did you have at that time that you left them, did you have any idea whatever of depriving any of the parties to this suit of matters of evidence?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for the opinion of the witness on the propriety of his own conduct.

By the Court: No, he has the right to say what his purpose was in disposing of them as he did.

A. No, sir.

Q. You say there were no value at that time; why did you say that?

A. Well, they were in a large measure disintegrated, going to pieces; it was nearly two years afterwards. No, I think it was nearly three years afterwards.

Q. Now, doctor, you spoke about applying a red hot iron to a portion of this skin that you removed from the arm at that time; was that applied to the sore at all? A. No, sir.

Q. The vaccine sore?

1153 A. No, sir, it was kept away from the sore and applied to the healthy portion of the skin which was included in the piece that I removed.

Q. What was the purpose of applying that red hot iron?

A. It was to observe the appearance that its application would have on the skin, whether it would blacken it and make a crust similar to the one that appeared on the arm.

Q. Now, you spoke about Dr. Miller straightening the nose at the grave; when was it he straightened it as to the time these two pictures were taken?

A. I have said nothing; the question was asked me if Dr. Fuller didn't do it, and I think I said that I didn't have any recollection of Dr, Fuller's doing it.

Q. Of Doctor Miller straightening the nose?

A. No, Dr. Fuller, I think when the question was put to me by the plaintiff, it was Dr. Fuller whose name was mentioned.

Q. Do you know whether or not his nose was straightened at the grave by any one?

A. No, I don't; I don't think I know anything about it.

Q. The nose, as I understand it, had the appearance as though it had been flattened? A. It had shrunken.

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

A. No, sir, it was pinched and dried in appearance, drawn out of shape, the cartilagenous portion.

Q. Now, speaking of the measurement of this body again, doctor, I wish you would state to the jury how many times you measured that body.

The plaintiff objects to the question as a repetition. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I measured the body once.

Q. Who was present at the time, this once, we will say?

A. Mr. Selig.

Q. I mean Hillmon?

A. Mr. Hillmon was present and Mr. Selig.

Q. Now, at this time you speak of, Mr. Hillmon and Mr. Selig were present? A. Yes, sir.

1154 Q. Now, was that the first time you measured him? If you measured him more than once, was that the first time that you measured him, at the time you spoke of Selig being there? A. That was the first time.

Q. Now, can you give the date of that measurement?

A. I cannot.

Q. What is your best recollection as to that date?

A. It was in the early part of the year 1879. In the early months.

Q. Now, when, if at all, did you measure him again?

A. If I measured him at all again it was on the occasion of taking the application on the 25th of February, 1879.

Q. Now, did you measure him at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as an attempt to coach the witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. You may answer, doctor.

A. I do not think I can change my answer that I gave this forenoon.

Q. I am not asking you to change your answer; I am asking whether you did or not.

A. My recollection is not definite enough to declare I did.

Q. You spoke about verifying; what do you mean by that?

[—] Well, when I examined him, the circumstances were these. When I examined him on the 25th of February, for the last policy, I had knowledge of his height by previous measurement and that knowledge was the basis of my entries in that medical examination.

Q. You may state if at that time you were in the habit measuring all applicants, or what your custom was in regard to that.

A. No, my custom was not to measure every applicant.

Q. In regard to the height of a person: Was it considered at that time, or at the time of taking this application, as being necessary for any other purpose than the purpose of description?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for the conclusion of the witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

1155 A. Well, it was considered not only for the purpose of description but also to get the proportions of the applicant. There is a certain ratio between height and weight that is essential in considering an applicant for insurance.

Q. Was that point considered essential eighteen years ago?

A. Oh, I think it was.

Q. Now, a question was asked you as to whether you measured him a third time after this 25th of February, and as I recollect, you said you did not remember.

A. Why, I never measured him after the 25th. Never saw him.

Q. What did you refer to then that you spoke of that you did not remember?

A. I presume it was in the class of questions that this morning confused me when I answered in regard to the entries on the papers and the time at which they were made when I answered. I didn't recollect in regard to those, but I do recollect that I did not measure him a third time.

Q. What would you say as to seeing him after the 25th of February?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as a repetition "He already stated that after the 25th he never saw him."

By Mr. Green: That is satisfactory. Question withdrawn.

Q. Did you see any scar on the nose of Hillmon at any time when you were examining him?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled; the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I did not.

And in answer to re-cross interrogatories propounded to him by Mr. Wheat, counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Doctor, you never measured him in the presence of Selig but once, did you?

A. I don't think I did.

1156 Q. When was it; before the 25th of February, anyhow?

A. It was before the 25th, that is my recollection.

Q. Now, then, at the time you left that jar where you say you did, I will ask you if these gentlemen, Mr. Green and Mr.

Barker, two of the attorneys for the defendants now here present, did not each of them at that time reside in Lawrence, Kansas, the same city where your office was and in which you left that jar? A. They did.

Q. They both resided there at that time? A. Yes sir.

Q. You were well acquainted with them?

A. Yes, well acquainted with them.

Q. You knew they were attorneys for the insurance companies, didn't you in this case at that time?

A. Well, I knew that they had served in that way.

Q. Now, at that same time they had lived there for years, hadn't they, each of them? A. Yes sir.

Q. And at the same time didn't John Hutchings and Samuel A. Riggs and each of them reside in Lawrence?

A. They did.

Q. Had they not each of them resided there for years?

A. They had.

Q. You knew each of them? A. Yes sir.

Q. Well acquainted with each of them? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you not know that both of them were attorneys for the plaintiff in the then pending litigation?

A. Why, I don't think I did; I don't think I knew anything about it; I don't think so.

Q. What was Borgolthaus' name; attorney Borgolthaus?

A. Rufus Borgolthaus.

Q. You knew him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Didn't he reside there in Lawrence also? A. Yes sir.

Q. Didn't you know at that time, the time that you left that jar there, that he was attorney for the plaintiff in these now pending cases? A. Yes, I knew he was.

Q. Now, did you say anyhing to either of those 1157 three men that you knew were in the case, Borgolthaus, Green and Barker, about that jar or the vaccine sores in it, or as to what disposition you would make of them?

A. I did not.

Q. Where was the plaintiff living at that time?

A. Mrs. Hillmon.

Q. Yes. Didn't she live in Larence?

A. Well, I don't know whether she was living in Lawrence in 1882 or not.

Q. Did you say anything to her, or communicate or make any communication to her with reference to what should be done with those vaccine sores? A. Not at all.

Q. You never had any communication or conversation with her in relation to those vaccine sores? A. No.

Witness excused.

1158 Claude Holliday, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name?
A. My name is Claude Holliday.
Q. Where do you live?
A. About eight miles northwest of Tonganoxie, now.
Q. In what county? A. Leavenworth county.
Q. Where were you living in 1870, 1 and 2?
A. I was living about four miles south [if] where I live now; six miles west of Tonganoxie.
Q. How long have you lived in Leavenworth county?
A. 32 years.
Q. I will ask you if you are acquainted with one Levi Baldwin? A. Yes.
Q. About when did you become acquainted with him?
A. It must have been in 1870 sometime.
Q. Where did you live with reference to Levi Baldwin at that time? A. I lived south about a mile.
Q. About a mile from Levi Baldwin? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where did Mr. Baldwin live with reference to Tonganoxie, about how far from Tonganoxie and in what direction?
A. He was about the same distance only about a mile further north.
Q. Were you acquainted with one John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you become acquainted with him?
A. I don't recollect exactly what time it was.
[—] Where was he and what was he doing when you became acquainted with him?
[Q.] He was herding cattle for Keeler.
Q. Whereabouts with reference to your place and Levi Baldwin's
A. It was about a mile from Levi Baldwin's, and joined up to where I lived.
Q. Do you recollect what year that was in?
A. I can't just remember now.
Q. Did you know him after that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where did you see him after that?
A. He was at my house I think.
Q. Do you know of his working or being at Levi
1159 Baldwin's?
A. Yes, he worked there and stayed there most of his time when he was in that part of the country.
Q. Did you see him frequently and become quite well acquainted with him? A. Yes, I saw him pretty frequently.
Q. Now, after you became acquainted with him there at Levi Baldwin's when he was there herding cattle, state if you saw him after that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recollect of the fact of his being absent for awhile and then coming back? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him after he came back? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell the Court and jury about how often you saw him after he returned from the west?

A. I couldn't tell, no sir, how many times.

Q. Where was he apparently making his headquarters at that time, I mean after his return from his western trip?

A. He was at Lawrence part of the time and part of the time at Baldwin's.

Q. Baldwin was still living in the same place, was he?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember about the last time you saw Hillmon?

A. I think it was in the winter of 1878 or 9.

Q. Where did you see him then?

A. I met him in the road coming from Lawrence.

Q. That is, he was coming from Lawrence?

A. I think he was.

Q. In which direction was he going, so far as Baldwin's was concerned? A. He was going out in that direction.

Q. Do you know the general appearance of the man?

A. I do.

Q. What would you say in regard to the color of his hair?

A. Well it was light brown or sandy; something of that kind.

Q. What do you say in regard to Hillmon's height?

A. I think it was about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches.

Q. I will ask you if you remember the fact or circumstance of a dead body being brought to Lawrence, Kansas in early April, 1879? A. I do.

1160 Q. I will ask you if you remember the fact of an inquest being held over that body? A. I do.

Q. You may state if you were in the city of Lawrence at the time or during the time that that inquest was being held?

A. I was.

Q. I will ask you if you went out to the cemetery where this body was lying? A. I did.

Q. I will ask you if you saw the body exposed there at the cemetery? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember the condition that it was in at that time? A. Well, it was in a tolerable—

Q. I mean so far as being in a coffin, sitting up or whatever you remember in regard to that?

A. He was sitting kind of sloping; the coffin was kind of sitting on the end like, in the coffin—

Q. Was that the same occasion of certain pictures being taken? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, at the coroner's inquest, do you remember when you went in there, who was on the witness stand?

A. Sallie E. Hillmon.

Q. Did you hear this question asked her in substance: That she was asked to state the height of her husband, John W. Hillmon? A. I did.

Q. You may state if you heard the answer she made to that question?

A. She said she really didn't know what; never saw him measured.

Q. Now, you say you saw those remains out there. Were those the remains of John W. Hillmon whom you had known at Levi Baldwin's in your neighborhood? A. No sir.

Q. Did you observe any peculiarity or defect in John W. Hillmon's teeth? A. I did.

Q. You may state as near as you can what that defect or peculiarity was as well as you remember?

A. Well, it was a defective tooth broken off or out.

Q. When did you observe that, Mr. Holliday?

A. It was in, I think it must have been 1874, more than likely; I am not right sure about it; it was after the 1161 grasshoppers was at our place.

Q. You may tell the jury as well as you can in what portion, in which jaw this tooth was broken out?

A. It was on the upper jaw on the left hand side.

Q. That would be your best recollection?

A. That would be my best recollection.

Q. Did you observe the teeth of this dead body when you were out at the cemetery? A. I did.

Q. What kind of teeth the body had?

A. It had perfect teeth, large teeth and white.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. How many times have you testified in this case before?

A. I was at the inquest, I was at all the other trials.

Q. I mean in the trial of this case?

A. I don't know exactly how many trials there has been.

Q. You have testified at every trial of the case haven't you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you ever testify before that you saw any defect in John W. Hillmon's teeth? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember of testifying at the trial in 1895 when Judge Thomas presided? A. I think I do.

Q. Did you testify at that time anything with reference to any defect in the teeth?

A. I don't know as I did; I don't know whether the question was asked.

Q. Don't you know you did not?

A. I don't know whether the question was asked.

Q. When did you first become acquainted with John W. Hillmon, in what year?

A. I couldn't tell the exact year.

Q. How many times did you ever see John W. Hillmon?

A. I couldn't tell that either.

1162 Q. The Hillmon that you knew had light brown hair? A. I should say so, yes sir.

Q. You never knew any Hillmon that had dark hair?

A. No sir, that is the only one I knowed.

Q. When you went to see this body at Lawrence, you didn't recognize it as Hillmon because it had dark hair?

A. Because it had black hair.

Q. You never knew any man by the name of Hillmon that had dark hair? A. No sir.

Q. Now, then, I will get you to state whether in the trial before Judge Thomas in 1895, you didn't say that you never had seen John W. Hillmon but three times in your life?

A. I never said it.

Q. Did you not in the trial at Topeka in 1895, at which Judge Thomas presided, testify as follows: "Now, from 1872 up to the time you saw this corpse taken from the grave at Oak Hill cemetery you had only seen John W. Hillmon three times in seven years. A. Yes sir, all I recollect of." Didn't you so testify before Judge Thomas? A. I don't recollect.

Q. You remember where the court house is there in Topeka? A. Yes sir.

Q. You were there and testified in 1895 when Judge Thomas presided? A. I did.

Q. But you say you don't remember answering that question in that way? A. No sir, I don't.

Q. Did you not in substance testify at that trial of this case that you had never seen John W. Hillmon but three times from 1872 up to the time that you saw the body in the grave in the coffin? A. I don't recollect.

Q. How many times do you say you ever had seen him?

A. I couldn't say that either.

Q. What is your best judgment? A. Well, I couldn't say.

Q. Do you think you saw him more than three 1163 times? A. Yes, I did.

Q. You can't state in what years you saw him?

A. Not precisely only the last years, of course.

Q. When did you see him last before you saw that corpse?

A. I saw him in the winter of 1878 or 9.

Q. Which was it, 1878 or 1879? A. I couldn't say.

Q. How many times did you see him that winter?

A. I don't think I saw him but that one time.

Q. Where did you meet him? A. On the road.

Q. He was riding horseback? A. I think he was.
Q. He passed by you and said "Good morning, Mr. Holliday?" A. I think he did.
Q. That is the only time that you saw John W. Hillmon after 1872 wasn't it? A. No.
Q. Where did you see him next before that?
A. I couldn't say exactly.
Q. What is your best recollection?
A. I don't recollect that.
Q. Don't know whether it was a year or two years or three years? A. No, I don't.
Q. So that your testimony here as to the identiy of Mr. Hillmon is based upon seeing him in the fall or winter of 1878 or 1879, riding horseback on the road and saying good morning to him simply once? A. I think that would be about it.
Q. Now, then, you testified about being at the coroner's inquest and hearing Mrs. Hillmon's testimony? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you testify before the coroner's inquest? A. I did.
Q. Do you know what attorneys were there at the inquest?
A. I think Mr. Barker was there.
Q. Didn't you testify upon the previous trial of this case that you didn't know, you didn't remember as to any attorney that was there? A. No sir.
Q. Who asked Mrs. Hillmon the questions?
A. Couldn't say that.
Q. Don't remember? A. No sir.
1164 Q. Did you see anybody there but Mr. Barker?
A. Mr. Green was there.
Q. Do you remember anything else Mrs. Hillmon said?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You do? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, didn't you testify at the same time before Judge Thomas, at the time and place mentioned, that the only thing that you could remember that Mrs. Hillmon said was simply that she didn't know how tall her husband was?
A. I don't recollect about that.
Q. Didn't you testify before Judge Thomas in 1895 at the court house in 1895 in Topeka, Kansas, as follows: "You don't remember what attorneys were conducting the examination? A. No sir, I don't." Is that right?
A. I don't know whether it is or not.
Q. Did you testify upon that trial that she said she had never measured him?
A. I don't know as she [saw]—she said she had never seen him measured.
Q. Didn't you testify upon the previous trial of this case that you just came into the room as that question was put to her and that you heard her say she didn't know how tall her husband was, and that that was all that you heard? A. No.

Q. I want to read to you and ask you whether you testified before Judge Thoms as follows: "You don't remember who examined her? A. No sir, I don't. Q. You don't remember who else was there? A. Ollie Walker was there. You don't remember what attorneys were conducting the examination? A. No sir, I don't. Q. You just remember that one thing, that she was asked what the height of her husband was? A. I just came in, you know. Q. How long did you stay in there? A. While they examined me. Q. That is the only thing you heard her say, was it? A. She said other things but I don't recollect what she did say."

Q. Didn't you so testify? A. It might be possible.

Q. If you so testified at that time, it was true, was it not?

The defendants and each of them object to the form of the question as improper. No ruling or answer.

1165 Q. State in your opinion as to whether your testimony at that trial was true?

A. Yes, sir, it was, I intended at that time to testify to the truth, yes sir.

Q. You say this tooth of Hillmon's that was missing was on the upper left hand side of his jaw? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The rest of his teeth were good?

A. Well, I don't think they were all good; they might have been.

Q. Did he have any other tooth out?

A. I don't recollect of seeing any other tooth out.

Q. The rest of his teeth might have been good so far as you know? A. Yes, so far as I could see.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. In these examinations, you have always been examined by questions and answer have you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. They asked you in regard to the color of Mr. Hillmon's hair, what you testified to on a former trial; I will ask you to state if Hillmon didn't have light hair, I will ask you if you haven't stated on each of these trials that he had light brown hair? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have stated one reason why you say you know that those remains were not the remains of John W. Hillmon was on account of the color of the hair? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What other reason have you for it?

The plaintiff objects to the question as not proper re-examination. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. In what other respect did the remains differ from John W. Hillmon?

A. Well, in regard to his mustache, his beard and so on.

Q. What did you say in regard to his teeth?

A. Which, the body?

Q. Yes, the difference between the teeth of John W. Hillmon and the body.

A. The body's teeth was good teeth, sound teeth, and large teeth and white.

1166 The plaintiff objects to the evidence as not proper re-examination. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. Did you notice the hands of the dead body out there?

A. I did.

Q. Did they differ from the hands of John W. Hillmon?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. The question was how, if in any manner, the hands of the dead body differed from those of John W. Hillmon; did you observe the difference? A. Yes, I did.

Q. In what respect?

A. The dead body's hands were long and slim and clear of scars or anything of that kind.

Q. What do you say in regard to Hillmon's hands?

A. He had a shorter hand, well, like my own, something like that; thick.

Recross-Examination by Mr. Hutchings.

Q. Did you see John W. Hillmon at any time in the year 1878? A. I couldn't say whether I did or not.

Q. Did you see him in the year 1877? A. I think I did.

Q. Where did you see him? A. I can't recollect.

Q. Did you see him at any time in the year 1876?

A. I couldn't say.

Q. Did you see him at any time in the year 1875?

A. I couldn't exactly tell.

Q. Can you remember any place that you ever saw John W. Hillmon except the one time that he rode along the road on horseback past you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where? A. At my house.

Q. When was that?

A. I think that was, must have been 1874.

Q. Can you remember any other place you ever saw him in your life?

A. I seen him at our school house on Nine Mile directly after he was married.

Q. Can you remember any other place that you ever saw him? A. Saw him many a time out on the prairie.

1167 Q. You say that you don't remember but what you testified in 1895 before Judge Thomas that the only times you ever saw him were the three times you have mentioned? A. No, sir, I can't.

Q. Remember whether you testified to that or not?

A. No sir i can't.

Q. What color were John W. Hillmon's eyes?

A. I could not say.

Q. Don't know what the color of his eyes was, whether they were blue or whether they were gray or whether they were black? A. I don't think they was black .

Q. Were they blue? A. Couldn't say.

Q. Don't know what the color of his eyes was, at all?

A. Don't think they were black.

Witness excused.

1168 Joseph Bebout, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination,

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. Joseph Bebout, I live in Lawrence now.

Q. Did you ever live in Jefferson county, Kansas?

A. Yes sir.

Q. About how long did you live in Jefferson county?

A. Well, I lived there in 1869 and was there off and on until 1872.

Q. How long have you lived in, say, Leavenworth Jefferson and Douglas counties? A. About 31 years.

Q. Were you acquainted with one Levi Baldwin?

A. I was.

Q. Were you acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

A. I was.

Q. Did you ever work for Levi Baldwin? A. I have.

Q. Did John W. Hillmon either live with or work for Levi Baldwin at any time that you did?

A. No sir, he worked for Keeler.

Q. About when did you become acquainted with John W. Hillmon? A. In the summer of 1871.

Q. What were you doing at that time?

A. I was herding cattle for Baldwin.

Q. What was John W. Hillmon doing at that time?

A. Herding cattle for Keeler.

Q. At what place or on what range were you herding cattle at that time?

A. In Jefferson county, Levi Baldwin's Jefferson county farm.

Q. Whereabouts was Hillmon herding cattle at that time?

A. He was right west and south.
Q. How close were you herding together?
A. The ranges adjoined.
Q. About how long did he herd cattle there at that time?
A. During the summer of 1871, about four months.
Q. Were you herding cattle during the same time?
A. I was.
Q. Did you see him seldom or frequently during that time?
A. I seen him every day; most every day.
1169 Q. In regard to eating and sleeping arrangements; how was it in regard to them?
A. Oh we ate a great many times together and slept a great many times together.
Q. Whereabouts, on the range?
A. No, sir; we corralled the cattle; we boarded at Brown's a good part of the time.
Q. Did you afterwards go to work in Douglas county?
A. I did.
Q. Do you remember for whom? A. Yes sir.
Q. Whom? A. Martin Sedgwick.
Q. Did John W. Hillmon work for any one in that neighborhood? A. That winter he worked for I. C. Baldwin.
Q. Who was I. C. Baldwin?
A. He was Levi Baldwin's father.
Q. Where did I. C. Baldwin live at that time?
A. Five miles west of Lawrence on the California road.
Q. In what township? A. Wakarusa township.
Q. In Wakarusa or Kanwaka? A. Kanwaka.
Q. Where did Martin Sedgwick live?
A. Lived in Kanwaka.
Q. Did you see him frequently during that time?
A. Well, I seen him off and on at the school house during the winter was about all the time I seen him.
Q. Did you see him after that? A. Yes sir.
Q. Several times?
A. Yes sir; I seen him several times during that next summer.
Q. Do you remember of missing him, of his being away at some time? A. Yes sir, I do.
Q. Do you remember his coming back? A. I do.
Q. When he returned from the west, if west he went, state whether you saw him or not?
A. I saw him once after he came back, in 1876.
Q. I will ask you if you saw him in 1878? A. I did.
Q. In the fall or winter of 1878?
A. Along in the fall.
Q. Where did you see him?
A. I met him at John Eldridge's livery stable.
Q. Where, in Lawrence? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you if you were at that time pretty well acquainted with John W. Hillmon, that is, when you 1170 saw him in 1878?

A. Well, I wasn't any more acquainted with him than I was in 1872. Of course, I knew him.

Q. Now, will you state in a general way the appearance of John W. Hillmon; state about his height.

A. I never measured him but I should judge he was about 5 feet 9 inches.

Q. You may state what his build was and how he carried himself, whether he was square-shouldered or round-shouldered, and how did he carry himself, erect or stooping?

A. He carried himself square, up straight.

Q. Do you remember in regard to his feet, the size of his feet, whether he had a large foot or a small foot?

A. No, he had a medium foot; he didn't have an overly large foot; of course, I never measured his foot.

Q. Now, I will ask you if you saw the remains that were at Bailey & Smith's in 1879? A. I did.

Q. Do you know about how long they had been there when you saw them?

A. Well, I couldn't say how long [there] had been there; they had been there a day.

Q. Where were those remains when you saw them?

A. At the back end of Smith & Bailey's undertaker shop.

Q. In the city of Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was their condition so far as being dressed or in a coffin or out of the coffin?

A. Well, it was dressed and lying in a coffin when I seen it.

Q. That was the first time you saw the remains?

A. That is the only time I ever saw them.

Q. I will ask you to state whether those were the remains of John W. Hillmon whom you knew? A. They were not.

Q. I will ask you to state if you know anything or remember anything in regard to the condition of John W. Hillmon's teeth? A. I do.

Q. You may state as well as you remember what the 1171 condition of them was.

A. He had one out on the left side of the upper jaw right next to the eye tooth.

Q. You may state about when you discovered that he had this absent tooth? A. That was in 1871.

Q. The question was when you dicovered it; you discovered this when you were on the range herding cattle; it was at the time you were herding cattle? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You observed it after that, did you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will call your attention to this exhibit No. 11, and ask you to state if that is a photograph of the John W. Hillmon concerning whom you have been speaking? A. Yes, sir.

Q. State whether or not you consider it a good representation of Mr. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You say you noticed in 1871 that John W. Hillmon had a tooth out? A. I did.

Q. All the rest of his teeth were good?

A. Well, no, the one next to it was a little decayed or a little black.

Q. Do you remember of testifying in this case before Judge Thomas in 1895 at the federal court-house in Topeka?

A. I do.

Q. Do you remember of testifying in 1896 at the federal court-house in Topeka before Judge Williams in this case?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you not in 1895, testify as follows: "Now, then, you are positive now, that his teeth were good but one, are you? A. I am. Q. That is, as good as the common run of men's teeth. Q. He had no tooth out except that one tooth on the upper jaw? A. Yes, sir."

Q. You so testified, did you, that all the rest of his teeth were good but the one? A. The next one was black.

Q. You never testified to that before, did you?

A. I did.

Q. Did you not testify both in 1895 and 1896 that all the rest of his teeth you noticed were good but one?

A. No, sir, I did not.

1172 Q. Did you not answer this specific question at both of those trials: "Now, then, you are positive now that his teeth were good but one, are you? A. I am. That is, as good as the common run of men's teeth." Did you so testify?

A. I did.

Q. Did you testify at either one of those trials that he had any other black tooth? A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. You did at both of those trials? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are as positive of that as you are of your recollection that he had one tooth out, are you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So that you at those trials both testified that the rest of his teeth were as good as the common run of men's teeth, and you also testified that one of them was black?

A. A little black spot on one side.

Q. Do you say you noticed it in 1871? A. I did.

Q. That was eight years before you saw the body at Lawrence? A. Yes.

Q. And during that eight years you had never seen John W. Hillmon but twice? A. Seen him in 1876.

Q. You saw him just once? A. In 1872.

Q. I am talking between 1872 and the time you saw this body at Lawrence; you never had seen John W. Hillmon but twice? A. Seen him in 1876 and 1878.

Q. Well, is it right that you only saw him twice from 1872 up to the time you saw this body in the coffin?

A. Seen him twice, yes, that is right.

Q. During that seven years, you only saw him twice?

A. That is all.

Q. Only one time in 1876? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And on that occasion you did not stop to speak to him? A. No more than just to pass the time of day.

Q. Just passed the time of day and the other occasion in 1878 you simply passed him on the street?

A. No sir, not in 1878, I did not.

Q. Didn't you so testify on both the trials in 1895
1173 and 1896 that you simply passed him on the street?

A. Not in 1878, I did not.

Q. Did you not testify as follows at the trial in 1895 at Topeka before Judge Thomas in the federal court-house there: "From 1872 to 1878, you just saw him once. A. That is right."

Q. Was that your answer? A. From 1872 to 1878?

Q. Yes. A. I saw him in 1876.

Q. Was that your answer at that trial? A. It was.

"Q. During six years," and your answer, "Yes, sir."

Q. Is that right? A. Yes, sir.

"Q. And you never saw him any more? A. Not until I met him on the street there between Walker's and the bridge on Massachusetts street."

Q. You so answered, did you not?

A. I met him at John Eldrige's livery stable in 1876.

Q. Didn't you say that in 1878 you met him on the street there between Walker's and the bridge on Massachusetts street? A. I did [no] not.

Q. You didn't so testify? A. No, sir.

Q. Then, were you not asked this question: "Q. When was that?" Your answer: "In 1878, in the fall of 1878."

A. I didn't meet him on the street in 1878.

Q. Didn't you so testify both on the trial in 1895 and 1896?

A. No, sir.

Q. Then were you not asked this question: "Q. I say between 1872 and 1878, you never saw him but once. A. But once and that was in 1876."

A. Yes, sir, I met him in 1876 and then in 1878.

Q. Now, didn't you testify that you met him on the street, on Massachusetts street, between Walker's and the bridge in 1878? A. I did not.

The defendants and each of them object to the question for the reason that it does not tend to [contract] or impeach the witness.

Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.

1174 Q. Then were you not asked as follows: "Q. How long did you see him in 1878," and didn't you answer, "I didn't stop; just passed him on the street, and passed the time of day with him." A. Not in 1878.

Q. Now, then, you say in 1878 you did not meet him on the street? A. I met him at John Eldridge's livery stable.

Q. What do you say about meeting him on the street between Walker's and the bridge in 1878?

A. I didn't meet him on the street.

Q. You didn't meet him on the street; didn't you so testify in 1896? A. Not that I know of.

Q. You didn't testify in 1895 or 1896 that you simply passed him on the street and passed the time of day with him?

A. No, sir.

Q. And that that was the only time you saw him in 1878?

A. No, sir, I did not.

Redirect Examination by Mr. Barker.

Q. You have spoken in your cross-examination in regard to the location of this absent tooth, that is, where it was out. You may state how you are able to locate the missing tooth, the place from which it was absent?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason that it is cross-examination. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. Go on and state how you know it?

A. I had one on the opposite side just the same as he had his on the other.

Q. I will ask you if there is any other circumstance by which you can remember in regard to that tooth, that is to say, if you had any conversation in regard to it.

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay, and as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. Well, I used tobacco and he used it once in a while.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as not responsive. Motion overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

1175 A. We would go to take a chew and he would bite off on one side and me on the other; he made the remark or I made the remark that—

Q. State what was said betweeen you and Mr. Hillmon in regard to his tooth and your tooth; what was said on that subject at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as hearsay, incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. Go on and state what he said?

A. When he would take a chew of tobacco, we just made the remark that he bit off one side and me the other; he said he had a tooth out on the left side.

Q. Was the question of your having a lost tooth discussed?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. If it is competent to give the conversation the witness should state what was said and done.

Q. What, if anything was said in regard to your tooth on that occasion?

By the Court: State what was said.

Q. Just state briefly what was said there at that time, or at the time you were herding cattle and chewing tobacco?

A. Well, there was nothing more said only "You had one out on one side, and I had mine out on the sight side." We were showing each other our teeth. That was all that was said so far as the teeth were concerned.

Q. When was that with reference to the time you were herding cattle, you and he?

A. That was at the same summer.

Recross-Examination by Mr. Hutchings.

Q. You have never testified to that conversation? A. I did.

Q. In any trial of this case before, did you? A. I have.

Q. You are positive of that, are you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you testify to a conversation in which Hillmon said he had a tooth out? A. Yes, sir.

1176 Q. That was 28 years ago that that occurred?

A. That was in 1871.

Q. And from the time that that conversation occurred up to the time that you saw this body in the graveyard there was eight years? A. I didn't see it in the graveyard.

Q. Or at Bailey & Smith's? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was eight years? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it has been 20 years since? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you remember that conversation? A. I do sir.

Q. Do you know what color Hillmon's eyes were?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Didn't you testify upon the other trials of this case that you didn't know what the color of his eyes was?

A. No, I did not.

Q. Didn't you testify upon the trial of this case before Judge Thomas in 1895, at the Federal Court House at Topeka, that you did not know what the color of John W. Hillmon's eyes were? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not testify upon the trial of this case before Judge Williams in the Federal Court House in Topeka in 1896 that you didn't know what the color of Hillmon's eyes were? A. I did not.

Q. Did you not in answer to this question, testify as follows: "Q. You don't know the color of his eyes? A. No, I don't, no, sir."

Q. Didn't you so testify positively in 1895 at the Federal Court House in Topeka before Judge Thomas when this case was being tried? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you so testify in 1896? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't you testify as follows: "Q. Don't know whether he had black eyes or blue eyes? A. No, I don't."

Q. Didn't you so testify in 1895 before Judge Thomas and in 1896 before Judge Williams? A. No, sir.

Q. You deny testifying in that way on either occasion?

A. I said his eyes were light brown.

Q. Wait a minute: Did you so testify? A. No, sir.

1177 Redirect Examination by Mr. Barker.

Q. On each of these trials you have been interrogated upon questions, have you not; questions have been put to you and you have answered simply such questions as have been put to you? A. I have, sir.

Witness excused.

1178 William Brockelsby, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. My name is William Broxkelsby, Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. How long have you lived in Lawrence?

A. Since 1859.

Q. Have you resided at Lawrence all of that time since 1859? A. Except what time I was in the army.

Q. How long was that?

A. Four years and seven months.

Q. Were you residing in Lawrence in 1877, 1878 and 1879?

A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember what official position, if any, you held in the city of Lawrence or in the city government at that time? Say in 1878? A. I was city marshal.

Q. Prior to that time what position had you held?

A. I had been a policeman since 1871.
Q. For how long? A. I went on in 1871.
Q. You had been a policeman then of the city for several years, had you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you were city marshal in 1878 and 1879?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you if, during that time, 1878, you became acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. Will you look at Exhibit No. 11 and state whether or not that is a photograph of the John W. Hillmon that you got acquainted with? A. Yes, I should say it was.
Q. Look at the picture marked Exhibit D and state whether that is also a picture of him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, you may look at the two pictures and state to the jury which you regard as the better picture of John W. Hillmon? A. This one.
Q. That is Exhibit 11. You regard that as the best picture? A. Yes, sir.
1179 Q. Will you state about when you became acquainted with John W. Hillmon?
A. It was along in the fall or winter of 1878, sir.
Q. You may state whether there was any fact or any circumstance which led you to become acquainted with him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state what it was?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant, and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. He was drawn to my attention by a communication from Fort Griffin, Texas, from some parties, as to which I don't remember their names now.
Q. What did the letter contain?

The plaintiff objects to the question as secondary evidence and hearsay.

Q. I will put the question a little more intelligently. What did the letter enclose, if anything, to you?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant, and immaterial. The Court sustained the objection to which ruling of the court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

By Mr. Barker: We offer to show the enclosure which the letter contained.

The plaintiff objects to the offer for the reason that the proof would be incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and hearsay. The Court sustained the objection, to which ruling the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. You may state what you did with that letter?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reasons last above fully stated. The Court sustained the objection, to which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

By Mr. Barker: This question is for the purpose of showing that he received a letter, and that he made a certain disposition of it. We are laying the foundation for sec-1180 ondary evidence.

By the Court. He may answer to that.

A. What did you do with the letter?
A. I turned it over to Mr. Barker, I believe, at the inquest.
Q. At the time the coroner's inquest was being held in Lawrence, Kansas? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have you seen that letter since that time?
A. I have not.
Q. Have you had it in your possession? A. I have not.
Q. Do you know further than that where that letter is?
A. No.
Q. I say further than that you turned it over to me?
A. No, sir, I do not.
Q. You said that you saw Mr. Hillmon, did you, in 1878 and 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see him after you received this communication from Fort Griffin? A. I did.
Q. Do you remember to whom this letter from Fort Griffin was directed?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for secondary evidence, and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Where was he when you saw him?
A. He was on the streets of Lawrence.
Q. Did you see him in any other place except on the streets of Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state where you met him?
A. I met him in the shooting gallery there.
Q. Whose shooting gallery?
A. I met him in the shooting gallery run by one Jakes; Jack Jakes, I believe was his name.
Q. What was he doing there?
A. He and I were shooting at a target.
Q. Do you remember in regard to the appearance of John W. Hillmon, in regard to his height?
A. Yes, sir, I kind of sized him up.
Q. What do you say in regard to his height?
A. About 5 feet, 9½ or 10 inches, I think.

1181 Q. Do you remember how he carried himself, whether erect or stooping? A. Erect.

Q. Do you remember in regard to his shoulders, whether he had square shoulders or sloping shoulders?

A. Square built; square shoulders.

Q. Do you remember in regard to the color of his hair?

A. He had dark brown hair.

Q. Do you remember in regard to his teeth, whether he had any defective teeth or not? A. He had.

Q. Were you in the city of Lawrence when certain remains were brought from Medicine Lodge and were in the undertaking establishment of Bailey & Smith in 1879? A. I was.

Q. Did you see those remains? A. I did.

Q. Where were they at the time you saw them?

A. At Bailey & Smith's.

Q. Do you remember when you went in there?

A. It was the next day, I believe, after they were brought in there.

Q. You didn't see the remains before they were taken to Bailey & Smith's? A. No, sir.

Q. You think it was the next day after they were taken there that you saw them? A. Yes. sir.

Q. What was the condition of the body, so far as being dressed and in a coffin, when you saw it state in regard to that? A. It was dressed.

Q. Where was it lying, on a slab or in a coffin when you saw it? A. In a coffin.

Q. Now, you may state whethsr or not those were the remains of John W. Hillmon? A. No, sir.

Q. What is your answer? A. No, sir.

1182 And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You never saw John W. Hillmon in your life until December, 1878? A. No, sir.

Q. What time in December?

A. My best recollection it was the latter [—] of December.

Q. You saw him how many times?

A. I saw him quite a number of times.

Q Don't you know that in the latter part of December, or early in January, he left Lawrence and went to Medicine Lodge? A. No, sir; I don't recollect.

Q. Will you swear that you saw him there in January, 1879? A. No, sir; I don't think I did.

Q. Will you swear that you saw him there in February, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What time in February, 1879, did you see him there?
A. I think it was in the fore part of the month.
Q. In the fore part of the month?
A. Yes, sir; I can't give the day exactly.
Q. How many times did you see him there?
A. Quite a number of times.
Q In the fore part of February? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You are as sure as you are that you saw him there in December? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You saw him there repeatedly in the fore part of February? A. I did.
Q. Your recollection is as clear about that as that you saw him in December? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see him there in March?
A. Well, I am not positive whether I saw him in March or not.
Q. What is your best recollection? A. That I did not.
Q. Now, then, this is the fact about it? You never 1183 saw John W. Hillmon in your life until the last part of December, 1878; that is true, is it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you did not see him at all in January?
A. Well, I can't testify as to that.
Q. You have no recollection of seeing him in January?
A. No recollection.
Q. And you saw him in the first half of February?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is all the acquaintance you ever had with him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And if you did not see him at those times, you did not see him at all; that is right, is it not?
A. I might have seen him and not paid any attention to him.
Q. Now, this John W. Hillmon that you say you saw, what was the color of his eyes? A. I can't say.
Q. You don't know? A. No, sir.
Q. He had a hump on his nose, didn't he? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Looked as though he had received a blow there, or something? A. Yes, rather a high bridge there.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by Mr. Barker, counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Do you remember when it was that you saw Mr. Hillmon in the shooting gallery of Mr. Jack?
A. It was in the month of February.
Q. You think it was in the month of February?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you if Mr. Hillmon seemed to be engaged or was engaged in any business at that time that you know of? A. Not that I know of.

Q. Did you ever know him to be engaged in any business there in Lawrence? A. I did not.

Q. What would you say in regard to seeing him in this shooting gallery more than once? A. I have.

1184 Q. Did you ever shoot with him in the gallery?

A. I have, sir.

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. In the first half of the month of February, you saw Mr. Hillmon repeatedly at this shooting gallery and shot with him there? A. I have.

Q. You remember that? A. I do.

Witness excused.

1185 Jordan Neal, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. What is your name? A. Jordan Neal.

Q. Where do you live, Mr. Neal?

A. I live in Lawrence.

Q. How long have you lived in Douglas County, Kansas?

A. About 45 years.

Q. What business have you been engaged in and what business are you engaged in now?

A. I have been farming, stock-shipping and stock-buying.

Q. What business are you engaged in now?

A. The same.

Q. How long have you been engaged in the business of farming and shipping stock? A. About 30 years.

Q. Did you have an office in the city of Lawrence in 1878 and '79?

A. Yes, sir. Indirectly. I had a place of headquarters no particular office.

Q. Where was your headquarters in 1878 and '79?

A. At the butcher shop of Fred Dykeman.

Q. On what street? A. Massachusetts street.

Q. I will ask you if you became acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. When did you become acquainted with him, as near as you can state?

A. Well, I could not name the precise time.

Q. Well, about when?

A. It was about a year before this corpse was brought in there.

Q. Where did you become acquainted with him?

A. In Kansas City, I think it was the winter before the corpse was brought in there.

Q. After forming his acquaintance in Kansas City, did you see him in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir; very often.

Q. Did you see him seldom or frequently?

A. Frequently, yes, sir.

Q. State whether or not you became well acquainted with him?

1186 A. Yes sir, very well acquainted for the time we were together, six or eight months.

Q. I will ask you if you saw him in the fall of '78 in Lawrence?

A. I think it was in the fall of '79.

Q. Do you think you saw him in the early winter of '79?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember in regard to the general appearance of Mr. Hillmon in regard to his height?

A. A man about my height; might have been a little taller; little bit heavier set.

Q. In regard to his shoulders, whether he had square shoulders or sloping shoulders?

A. Shoulders were square, reasonably so.

Q. Do you remember in regard to the color of his hair?

A. He had dark hair.

Q. Do you remember in regard to his hands?

A. He had a very long, slim hand, unusually long hand.

Q. I am asking now in regard to John W. Hillmon?

By Mr. Hutchings: That is what he is answering about.

Q. I ask you if you remember in regard to Hillmon's hands?

A. Hillmon had a rather thick, stubby hand.

Q. When you said he had a long slim hand, you didn't refer to John W. Hillmon?

A. No, I didn't; the other man. I made a mistake there.

Q. Now, I will ask you if you saw the remains that were in Lawrence in Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment early in April, 1879?

A. I think that is about the time I seen the remains. I could not tell the date precisely.

Q. You did see the remains there, did you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember about when that was? I suppose there is no question in regard to the time. It was early in April, '79? A. I think so.

Q. Where were you when you saw them?

A. They were in the undertaking establishment there.
Q. The undertaking establishment of whom?
A. Smith & Bailey.
Q. How far from Bailey & Smith's undertaking
1187 establishment, from there was your place of business, that is, from your office in Dykeman's butcher shop?
A. A few doors, two or three doors south.
Q. Was it on the same street? A. Same street.
Q. Now, I will ask you whether the remains which you saw there in Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment were the remains of John W. Hillmon?
A. I didn't think it was.
Q. What do you think now?
A. I think the same; never changed my opinion.
Q. What did you say in regard to that, whether they were or were not the remains of John W. Hillmon?
A. They didn't look like it.
Q. Where in the City of Lawrence did you see John W. Hillmon?
A. O, I seen him often at my headquarters there at Dykeman's place.
Q. I didn't understand your answer?
A. I seen, I said, him very often, mostly at my headquarters. He mostly came to my headquarters there and talked.
Q. State whether or not he was frequently in your place of business? A. Yes sir.
Q. You spoke about having met him in Kansas City?
A. Yes sir, that was how we formed acquaintance.
Q. Did you meet him in Kansas City more than once?
A. No.
Q. Can you tell the jury about how many times you saw John W. Hillmon?
A. O, I could approximate; quite a number of times, though.
Q. State whether or not you shook hands with him very often?
A. Always, after we met in Kansas City we shook hands, or, as a rule, we shook hands.
Q. Now, you may state what some of the differences were between the remains which you saw at Bailey & Smith's and John W. Hillmon?
A. Mr. Hillmon's hair was brown; rather shaded brown. The other man's were black, or very dark, and moustache.
Q. No other points of difference that you recollect now, striking?
A. The corpse had a very long slim hand, and slim, tapering fingers.
Q. In what respect, if any, did it differ from Hillmon's hands?

A. Hillmon's, as I said before, was thick, rather thick and stubby hand; showed a man that labored; the other 1188 showed a man that didn't labor.

Q. Did you observe the difference, if any, between the shape of the face of the remains and of Hillmon?

A. Well, my recollection is that the dead man's face was somewhat rounded; wasn't a flat face; wasn't a square face, as Hillmon's.

Q. Did you see the remains more than once?

A. Just seen them once; one time.

Q. Do you know where Levi Baldwin was when you went in to see the remains?

A. He was on the opposite corner from where the remains was.

Q. Did you see him when you went in?

A. I seed him before I went in. I left him on the corner just across the street.

Q. How far would that be from where the remains were?

A. Well, it was just across the street, about, I should say, two or three doors.

Q. Did you see Mr. Baldwin after you came out?

A. Yes, he was on the same corner as I came out.

Q. How long was it from the time you came out until you saw Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Levi Baldwin?

A. I just walked out. I was in there about fifteen or twenty minutes; just walked back on the corner and he was still standing on the corner.

Q. Do you know whether or not the coroner's inquest was going on at the time? At the same time you went in there, do you know whether or not the coroner's inquest was being held at the courthouse? A. No, I don't know it.

Q. You didn't know in regard to that?

A. No, I don't know anything about the inquest.

Q. Did you have a conversation with Levi Baldwin after you came out?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: It is preliminary. He may answer.

A. After I came out he asked me if I—

1189 The plaintiff objects to the answer as incompetent.

Q. The question is simply whether or not you had a conversation with Levi Baldwin after you returned, soon after you returned from viewing the remains? If you had a conversation, not what the conversation was?

A. Yes sir, we did.

Q. Where was he standing then?

A. Standing on the corner right where I left him when I went down to see the remains.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Mr. Neal, you have testified at each trial of this case?

A. Yes sir, all but one, I guess. The first trial, I don't think I did. I am sure I wasn't on the first trial.

Q. You remember of testifying at the trial in 1895, before Judge Thomas, at Topeka, in the Federal Court House at Topeka? A. I testified up there.

Q. Do you remember the fact of my cross-examining you at that time? A. I do.

Q. Now, what attitude was this corpse in at the time you saw it at Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment?

A. How is that?

Q. What was the attitude of the corpse?

A. Sitting up; rather, leaning against a post. It was in a sitting posture.

Q. In a sitting posture? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you examine the hands carefully?

A. No, I just looked at them.

Q. They appeared to be long and slim? A. Yes sir.

Q. In fact, they were shrivelled, were they not, after the hands of any corpse, after the blood is out?

A. I didn't notice any shrivelling; smooth, nice-looking hands.

Q. They looked like the hands of a corpse, and you noticed the hands of the man like a dead man after death?

A. Yes sir.

Q. The fingers were spread apart somewhat, were they not?

A. A very little, yes sir. [A.] His fingers lay on his limb in that position.

1190 Q. The tissues were shrunken, and the hand looked like a dead hand, didn't it? The tissues were badly shrunken, were they not?

A. I didn't notice that, no. I didn't notice that close. I noticed the shape of the hand more than I did anything else.

Q. This hand, you say, of the corpse, was long and slim?

A. Yes sir, very long.

Q. Did you notice any crooked little finger?

A. No, I didn't.

Q. Hands pretty shapely, the fingers were located on his limb like that? A. They were straight.

Q. If one of his little fingers had been crooked you would have noticed it, wouldn't you? A. Likely would, yes sir.

Q. You also noticed that the corpse had a mustache, didn't you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, the reason that you think that wasn't Hillmon was based wholly upon the hair and the hands?

A. The hair and hands and general appearance. It looked unlike.

Q. Don't you remember answering me in the trial before Mr. Thomas that the only way you had to think that that wasn't the body of Hillmon was the hair and the hands? Now, to refresh your recollection, I would like to call your attention to the testimony given there in answer to my question. These questions: "Your recollection now is that the hair upon this corpse was nearly black? A. Yes." You answered Yes?

A. Yes sir.

Q. "Q. That is the particular thing upon which you based your opinion? "A. That is one of them, yes, sir." You answered in that way, didn't you?

A. I think I did, yes sir, should have.

Q. Didn't you answer as follows: "The dead man had unusually long slim hands, while Hillmon's hands were large, like your fingers, thick at the ends, while this man had tapering fingers; kind of long slim, tapering hands." That was your answer, wasn't it? A. That is correct.

Q. You remember me asking you this question "Now, what else was there" and didn't you answer "That was all:"
1191 That was your answer?

A. Yes sir; I suppose that was about all.

Q. Don't you remember that I wound up the cross-examination with this question: "It was two things, only two things, upon which you based your judgment, was it, that the hair upon this corpse was darker, and the fingers appeared to be longer and slimmer" and didn't you answer "yes sir."

A. Well, if I did, I didn't mean to answer just that way, for there is—for as I say now, there was other differences. That was one of the main things.

Q. Those were the principal criterions? A. Yes sir.

Q. The principal things? A. Yes sir.

Q. You saw Hillmon quite frequently in his lifetime?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And you met and talked with him and shook hands with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you ever notice he had any missing teeth?

A. No sir, never did.

Q. Did he wear a mustache when you knew him?

A. I think he did.

Q. You don't remember the color of his eyes? A. No sir.

Q. You think his hair was light?

A. No sir, his hair was rather brown; rather shaded or faded brown.

Q. You think it was faded, what you call a faded brown?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And it was in that respect you thought this corpse differed from Hillmon, because the corpse had rather dark hair?

A. Dark hair.

1192 William Brown a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name? [—] William Brown.

Q. Where do you live now?

A. In the west part of Douglas Co., Kas.

Q. What business are you engaged in? A. Farming.

Q. Did you formerly live in Jefferson County, Kansas?

A. Yes sir.

Q. From about what time to about what time did you live in Jefferson County?

A. I think I moved into Jefferson Co. about 1883 or 4.

Q. Did you live there before that time? A. No sir.

Q. Did you work over there in Jefferson Co. before that time? A. Yes.

Q. Did you ever work for Mr. Levi Baldwin? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember about when it was that you first worked for Levi Baldwin?

A. I think about 69 or near there was the first I ever worked for him.

Q. Did you work for him some time, off and on?

A. Yes sir.

Q. For how many years, would you say, from 69 to about what time did you work, more or less, for Levi Baldwin?

A. I worked for him considerable the latter part of 71 and in 72.

Q. Where was Levi Baldwin living at that time; that is, at the time you worked for him?

A. The first work I ever done for him was in Jefferson Co. He moved from there to Leavenworth Co. on a farm adjoining my folks.

Q. At that time your father lived in Leavenworth Co.?

A. Leavenworth County.

Q. How far did your father live from Levi Baldwin's?

A. Joining farms with him.

Q. How far did Levi Baldwin live from Tonganoxie?

[—] About five miles and a half.

Q. What were you doing for Baldwin in 71 & 2?

1193 A. I herded part of the time cattle in 71 for Mr. Nichols and Fred Kellar.

Q. What was Levi Baldwin's business?

A. Farming, buying cattle and shipping.

Q. Did you become acquainted with one John W. Hillmon?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What was you doing, and what was Hillmon doing when you first became acquainted with him?

A. Mr. Baldwin and he came there, I think, the first time ever I see him.

Q. Did he go to work there then?

A. No sir, he didn't go to work there then, that is, for a short time. He boarded there a few days and then he went to work for Mr. Kellar.

Q. What was he doing for Mr. Kellar?

A. Herding cattle and taking care of stock.

Q. Do you know how long he herded cattle there then?

A. No, I don't, but I think in the neighborhod of four or five months, something like that.

Q. On what range was he herding cattleat that time?

A. There was a part of the range in Leavenworth County and a part in Jefferson County. It was right on the county line.

Q. How far would that bring him from Levi Baldwin's?

A. Right at the edge, probably come up within about a mile of his place.

Q. Where were you herding cattle?

A. I herded with him there part of the time, and part of the time for Nichols.

Q. Were you working for the same person part of the time?

A. Yes sir, working for Mr. Kellar part of the time.

Q. How long did you and Hillmon herd cattle there upon this ranch near Levi Baldwin's? How long did you work there together, as near as you can remember?

A. Why, we worked together, and we were together every day or so for 4 months, I would think, probably longer.

Q. Did you become well acquainted with Mr. Hillmon then?

A. Yes sir.

1194 Q. I will ask you if you attended during that time or any other time any parties or places of amusement?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember those circumstances?

A. Yes, sir, I do.

Q. Well, now, after that time, that is, the time of herding cattle, did you see Mr. Hillmon?

Q. I saw him in '72 and afterwards.

Q. About where did you see him in '72?

A. He came to Mr. Baldwin's, worked there some that spring, and was around there considerable in '72. That is, the spring, and early part of the summer.

Q. Were you working for Mr. Baldwin at that time?

A. I was working for Mr. Baldwin at that time, by the month on the farm.

Q. What character of work did Mr. Hillmon do during that time?

A. He helped Mr. Baldwin buy some cattle; was around trading some I think.

Q. Did you see him after that, after '72?
A. Yes, I saw him; he went away somewhere along about the fore part of the summer, or along about then, and I don't recollect of seeing him for three years or something like that.
Q. Did you see him along in '77 & '8; say the fall of '78?
A. I saw him either in '76 or '78.
Q. Do you remember of seeing him along in the fall of '78 in the City of Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know about the height of John W. Hillmon?
A. Why, he was about my height; a little taller, probably; ¾ of an inch; maybe an inch.
Q. About how tall are you, if you know?
A. I am about five feet, eight and a half.
Q. Now, in regard to the color of his hair, do you remember in regard to that? A. He had kind of light hair.
Q. So far as brown is concerned, could you give the shade of brown, whether it was light brown or dark brown? What would you say?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason that the witness has not said it was brown.

1195 Q. State the color of it, as near as you can?
A. I would think it was something near the color—it would not lack a great deal [—] being the shade of my hair.
Q. Now, in regard to the size of his feet, do you remember in regard to that, whether he had a large foot or a small foot?
A. He had a medium foot, about the same as mine. We wore about the same sized shoe or boot.
Q. Have you any means of knowing about what sized boot he wore? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What were the circumstances that led you to know about the size of the boot he wore, besides seeing his boot?
A. I traded boots with him in '72.
Q. Do you remember what that was, that is, what you were doing at that time?
A. Working for Mr. Baldwin on the farm.
Q. You may state how the boots which you got from him fit you? A. Fit me good.
Q. What sized boot did you wear then, do you remember?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What size do you wear? A. I wear sevens now
Q. I will ask you if you remember the fact of their being certain remains there in the city of Lawrence at the undertaking establishment of Bailey & Smith in the spring of '79?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see those remains? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were those the remains of John W. Hillmon, whom you had known at Baldwin's? A. No, sir.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. When did you first become acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

A. I think in '71, the spring of '71 I think.

Q. How old were you?

A. How old am I? The 5th day of coming December I will be 49 years old. I was born in '52.

Q. You first saw him in '71? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did you see him in '71?

A. O, probably 4 or 5 months, something like that.

1196 Q. See him 20 times?

A. Yes, possibly more than that. I could not tell. Saw him frequent.

Q. When did you next see him?

A. He was around there in '72; around Mr. Baldwin's, where I was working.

Q. Saw him several times in '72? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you next see him?

A. In '77, along there somewhere. Probably three years; maybe longer. He went away and was gone somewhere west, or went west.

Q. When did you next see him?

A. I saw him in the fall or early part of the winter in Lawrence.

Q. How often did you see him in '78?

A. I don't recollect seeing him but twice.

Q. Didn't you see him 20 times in '78?

A. No, I don't think I did. I don't believe I did in '78.

Q. You have seen Hillmon laugh?

A. Yes, sir, saw him laugh.

Q. Jovial man? A. Sir?

Q. He was a jovial man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You stood close up to him and talked to him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the color of his eyes?

A. I could not tell you exactly the color of his eyes. I think, though, kind of brown.

Q. What did you say was the color of his hair?

A. O, it seems to me his eyes must have been lighter than his hair, but I would not be positive.

Q. You think that he had light hair; did he have light hair; light brown hair? A. I should think, brown hair.

Q. And his eyes were lighter than his hair?

A. I could not say positive, but I think they was, to the best of my recollection.

Q. He had a kind of Roman nose, didn't he?

A. Yes, sir, he had a kind of a raise; kind of a hump on his nose.

Q. What kind of teeth did he have?

A. Well, now, I could not say as to his teeth. I
1197 recollect of his saying something one time about having a tooth taken out.

Q. I am not asking you that. You didn't notice any teeth out? A. I do not know as I noticed any teeth out.

Q. And you have seen him a great many times?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Talked with him; joked with him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Seen him laugh? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Been to parties with him? A. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. What is you best impression as to his having taken care of his teeth?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

By the Court: I do not think any statement of Hillmon's along the line indicated would be competent. Perhaps, in order that the situation may be shown definitely, you had better ask your question, and I will pass on that. I don't want a general exception to a general theory of examination. I don't think that would be proper to go into the record.

By Mr. Barker: I withdraw the question, and ask the witness if he remembers having a talk with Mr. Hillmon in regard to his teeth?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and hearsay.

By the Court: The objection is sustained, and the witness need not answer unless during that conversation his attention was directed to some condition or appearance in the teeth. To which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

1198 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence testimony of James Cameron, given upon the trial in 1896.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Cameron is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read to the court and jury, and is as follows, to wit:

James Cameron.

Jas. F. Cameron, called on behalf of the defense, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name, Mr. Cameron?

A. James F. Cameron.

Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Cameron?
A. I reside now about four miles southeast of Lecompton.
Q. How long have you resided there?
A. Something like ten or eleven years; I wouldn't state positively; but I don't remember—I think about eleven years.
Q. Where did you reside before you moved to that place?
A. Been knocking around all over Kansas—First lived in Leavenworth County, Osage County and in Jefferson County, Valley Falls,—mostly in Jefferson and Douglas Counties.
Q. When were you living in Jefferson county?
A. Well, I went up there prior to the land sales; I believe that was in 1857 or 8, but I went up there prior to the sales of the old Sacker lands—they was just trying to prove the claim when I got there.
Q. Did you continue to live in Jefferson county?
A. No, sir, I continued to occupy that claim occasionally and trying to get a hedge, but I didn't live there, alone.
Q. How long did you reside in Kansas, Mr. Cameron?
A. Been in Kansas since May 21, 1856.
Q. And when you lived in Valley Falls did you know a family by the name of Hillmon? A. I did, sir.
1199 Q. Did you know one John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know the father of John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir. The first night he stayed in Kansas he stayed on my quarter section of land.
Q. How long did you know him?
A. From that time up to the time I last saw him.
Q. When did you first become acquainted with John W. Hillmon?
A. When his father stopped there. He built himself a claim there on his farm lying near. I boarded with them. Most of the time I would stay up there at Benjamin Hillmon's house on the joining quarter section.
Q. Did you meet John W. after that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know him after he left your father's place?
A. Well, I seen [—] occasionally; not to say as often as I did when he was about home; but John and I was very good friends, and also when he come up he always stopped at my brother's place where I was living, four miles.
Q. When do you remember seeing him last?
A. I can't state the day, but he told me he was,—

Objected to.

Q. Can you state about the year that it was?
A. 1879—I think 1879.
Q. 1878 or 9?
A. 1878, or 9, I wouldn't swear positively.

Q. Do you know where he lived at that time?
A. I do not.
Q. Did you have any conversation with him at that time?
A. The last time I saw him I did a little—not much. And I did one or two times prior to that—I met him in the city of Lawrence.
Q. You met him in the city of Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, Mr. Cameron, you may state if you know, the condition of John W. Hillmon's death—the last time you saw him?

A. Well, the last time I saw him he had one of his 1200 front teeth out.

Q. By what circumstances, do you recollect of them, if there were any circumstances, by which you do?
A. I think it went out from decay, but I can't say—
Q. No, I am asking you what circumstances, if there were any circumstances, by which you remember that you knew he had a tooth out?
A. O, I talked with him myself. We was always joking with one another about getting married, and I told him he had better get that tooth in.
Q. Were you married at that time? A. No, sir, I was not.
Q. Don't you remember any other circumstances that calls the fact to your mind?
A. Yes, sir; the very last time I saw him I pointed him out to my sister; she was well acquainted with him too; and there was Mr. Hillmon I believe and this other gentleman, I can't say who, standing right in front of the old grain store in Lawrence, and I pointed him out to my sister.
Q. Was anything said about his teeth at that time?
A. Yes, sir.

Objected to—sustained as to what witness said to sister.

Q. Did you notice his teeth at that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How did you come to notice his teeth at that time?
A. By simply pointing him out to her.
Q. What was the condition of his teeth at that time?
A. His teeth looked about fair and I would say all good, except that one out in front of his mouth—one of his front teeth.

1201 Q. Now were you present in Lawrence when that dead body was brought from the southwest, claimed to be the body of John W. Hillmon? A. No, sir, I was not.
Q. Did you see the dead body? A. No, sir.
Q. Were you at the coroner's inquest held over that body?
A. No, sir.
Q. Do you know where you were at that time?
A. I think I was about four miles north of Lawrence.

Q. Look at picture marked Exhibit "F," and see if you recognize that as a picture of any one you have known?
A. I think I do.
Q. Who is that a picture of?
A. I would call it a very good picture of John Wesley Hillmon.
Q. The party you have been speaking about?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did you say the middle name was?
A. John W.—John Wesley Hillmon.

Cross-examination.

Q. Where do you now reside?
A. About four miles southeast of Lecompton.
Q. Did you know the father of John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was his name? A. Benjamin Hillmon.
Q. Did he have any middle letter? A. I don't know.
Q. Do you know where he came from?
A. Yes, sir, I know what he told me.
Q. Where? A. Crawfordville, Indiana.
Q. Did he have any other sons except John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir, he married a second wife—had a growing family.
Q. Did he have other sons except John Wesley?
A. He had a son named Henry, and one named William.
Q. When did you see them last? A. I can't say.
Q. How long did he and his three sons live in Jefferson County?
A. Lived there until he was killed, but I can't tell.
Q. Several years? A. More than that.
1202 Q. When did you say he came there?
A. I can't specify, only I told you the year prior to the land sales of the old Sacer's.
Q. You can't give the exact date, but about how many years did Benjamin and his three sons live there—just give your estimate?
A. I should think 12 or 14, maybe 15 years—I would not form any idea; it's a good while ago.
Q. That was in Jefferson county? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And he and his three sons lived there 12 or 15 years?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Which was the oldest son? A. Henry.
Q. He was older than,— A. Than John Wesley.
Q. Of the other two sons which was the elder?
A. He didn't have any other unless it was by his last wife; Billy was the youngest of the two sons.

Q. John Wesley Hillmon was away from the county much of the time before 1876?

A. He was not away much while his father was alive; after his father's death he was not much at home.

Q. Do you remember seeing him in the year 1876?

A. Yes, sir, I did in 1876; I can tell you just where I saw him.

Q. Where? A. At Perryvale at the hotel.

Q. You saw him frequently before 1876?

A. A great many times.

Q. You spoke of his having a missing tooth—It was in the lower jaw?

A. I couldn't swear positively to that; when he spoke you could see he had a tooth out.

Q. It was in the lower jaw? A. I didn't say.

Q. Was it in the lower jaw? A. I wouldn't say.

Q. Do you say whether it was in the upper or lower jaw?

A. I couldn't say; I know he had a tooth out.

Q. In 1876 he didn't have a tooth out, was it?

A. The last time I saw him before 1876 his tooth was in; when I saw him in 1876 his teeth was out; he was gone a couple of years, maybe three; I couldn't state positively,

1203 because I was not a hand to keep track of him—

Q. You say you saw him in 1876 and he had a tooth out?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whether it was out in the upper or lower jaw, you don't know? A. No, I never said which was out.

Q. And you don't know now? A. I know it was out now.

Q. When you saw him next before that time then he had no tooth out?

A. Yes, sir, the time I saw him before I saw him in 1876.

Q. How long was that?

A. I think two or three years.

Q. Not more than that?

A. I don't think it was; I don't think it was quite that.

Q. Your best judgment now, you say you saw him in 1876; do you think you saw him in 1874 or 5?

A. I didn't see him for two years. I think it was two years before 1876, that I didn't see Mr. Hillmon at all, but I don't think it was hardly three years.

Q. And when you did see him he had no tooth out?

A. When I saw him formerly he had no tooth out.

Q. He never had any tooth out until you saw him in 1876?

A. I never saw him with a tooth out until I saw him in 1876.

Q. When you saw him before 1876 they was all perfect and regular? A. No sir, I didn't say so.

Q. Well about what then?

A. Well I noticed a dark colored black spot like that in my tooth there (indicating).

Q. In which; the upper or lower side?

A. I wouldn't tell you; I don't know.

Q. I am asking you about the black spot.

A. The tooth that was out was the black or dark one.

Q. How long had this tooth been dark or black?

A. I couldn't tell you how long the decay was working on the tooth.

Q. You are perfectly positive that in 1871 and 2 that Mr. Hillmon had not tooth out?

A. I think that is; I think that is.

1204 Q. And except that tooth that was black, and you say afterwards come out, his teeth were all in good solid condition?

A. Well all that I could notice, his front teeth in his mouth; he might have had all the rest out.

Q. Now this tooth that was out, was in the front; it was a front tooth?

A. Yes, sir, and just as plain to be seen as,—

By Mr. Hutchings: That's all.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You say he had some dark colored teeth; do you remember when you saw that?

A. I do not, but it was while his father was living his teeth was colored.

Q. While they were living there in Jefferson county?

A. Yes, sir. I never knew them to live anywhere else.

Q. That's while he was living there with his father?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now you say you saw him at Perry in 1876?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What circumstance calls that to your mind, that it was at Perry that you saw him there?

A. Well I was living at Perry in 1876, and I was over at the hotel, and two gentlemen came up to me and I turned around and looked at him and I saw one was Mr. Baldwin, and stepped up and spoke to him, and he says, "I guess you don't know this man"—

Plaintiff objects to conversation—sustained.

Q. Did you know the man that was with him?

A. I told him it was John Wesley Hillmon.

Q. Did you know him?

A. Of course I knew him.

Q. Did you have any conversation at that time with them?

A. I had considerable.
Q. Was it at that time that you noticed his tooth was out?
A. Yes, sir, I talked to him about it right there.
Q. That was the first time you had noticed a tooth was out?

Objected as leading.

1205 Q. Well was that the first time that you noticed that a tooth was out? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember what time his father died?
A. I do not, positively.

Re-cross-examination.

Q. This picture you saw before you came upon the stand?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had a similar picture?
A. Yes, sir, I had two.
Q. You had one similar to this one?
A. I don't know whether it was similar to that or not.
Q. You were just shown picture on the stand; you have a picture just like that?
A. I have a picture; I wouldn't say whether it is just like it or not; it is Hillmon's picture.
Q. Will you produce it?
A. I can produce it if I ain't lost it.
(Hands picture to Mr. Hutchings.)
Q. Well that is precisely the picture that Mr. Barker showed you; didn't they show the picture here?
A. I got this of Bill Laymon, photographer, of Lawrence.
Q. When did you get it?
A. I guess it was prior to the first trial of this case.
Q. It was after the first trial or before?
A. Before I think it was, I wouldn't swear positively.
Q. It was after the suit was brought, wasn't it?
A. I don't know, I don't think it was.
Q. You have exhibit- this picture to several witnesses?
A. I have showed it to some three or four, and some that was not witnesses, but wanted to see it, yes, sir.

Redirect Examination.

Q. Can you fix about the year his father died, Mr. Cameron?
A. I couldn't tell unless I would consult with some of my papers that I have.
1206 By Mr. Green: That's all.
A. I can tell if I would look at my diary, but you don't want that.

Witness excused.

1207 James W. Adams, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name? A. James W. Adams.
Q. Where do you live, Mr. Adams?
A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long have you lived in Lawrence, Kansas?
A. About 24 years.
Q. How long have you lived in Douglas county, Kansas?
A. About twenty-six years.
Q. Where were you livng before you moved to Lawrence?
A. I lived in Kanwaka one year.
Q. Kanwaka township? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And after that where did you live?
A. Lived in Grant township, one year.
Q. What was your business when you were living in Kanwaka township? A. Farming.
Q. What was your business when you were living in Grant township? A. Farming.
Q. Where were you living in 1878 and 1879?
A. Living in Lawrence.
Q. In what business were you engaged? A. Grocery.
Q. Did you have an associate in business, a partner?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the name of the firm?
A. It was Adams and Hosmer.
Q. Where was your place of business in 1878 and 1879?
A. On the corner of Henry and Vermont streets.
Q. In the city of Lawrence? A. City of Lawrence.
Q. Where was it with reference to what is known as the court house or city hall? A. It was across the street.
Q. What street? A. Henry street.
Q. Were you acquainted with one Arthur Judson?
A. I was.
Q. Were you acquainted with Mrs. Judson, his mother?
A. I was.
Q I will ask you if you were acquainted with Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon? A. I was.

1208 Q. Did you become acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. Do you know about the time that he was married?
A. I know about the time.
Q. Were you acquainted with Mr. Hillmon before that time? Before October, 1878? A. I was not.
Q. You became acquainted with him after that, did you?

A. After that.
Q. After October 3rd, 1878? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then you became acquainted with him after his marriage? A. After his marriage, yes.
Q. Did the Judsons, Arthur and his mother trade with you? A. They did.
Q. I will ask you now if you saw John W. Hillmon seldom or frequently after October, 1878, at the time of his marriage?
A. I saw him frequently.
Q. Where did you see him? A. Saw him at the store.
Q. Did you see him there seldom or often in your store?
A. I saw him there quite often.
Q. What was he doing there; I mean by that, did he make purchases there? A. Yes, sir.
Q Did you see him in the early part, will say, of 1879?
A. Yes, I think I did.
Q. Along in February, do you think you saw him in 1879?
A. I think I saw him then.
Q. Where did you see him on those occasions?
A. Saw him at my store.
Q. There in Lawrence? A. In Lawrence.
Q. Did you become pretty well acquainted with him?
A. Fairly well.
Q. Do you remember the circumstance of the remains of some dead person being brought there to Lawrence in April, 1879? A. I do.
Q. And being at Bailey & Smith's A. Yes, sir.
1209 Q. Do you remember of a coroner's inquest being held at the court house about that time, that is, about the same time that the remains were there at Lawrence?
A. I do.
Q. Were you a member of that coroner's jury?
A. Yes, sir.
Q Do you remember the fact of Mrs. Hillmon, the plaintiff in this case, testifying at that inquest? A. I do.
Q. On that occasion was she not asked in regard to the height of her husband, and did she not state that she did not know the height of her husband, that she had never seen him measured?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. She was asked the question.
Q. What answer did she make?
A. She said she did not know.
Q. What, if anything, did she say in regard to having seen him measured or anything as to measurement?
A. She said she did not know; she was asked in regard to his height, and she said she didn't know his height.

Q. Now, do you remember of her being asked in regard to the character of his teeth, and what reply she made to that?

A. I remember that being asked.

Q. She was asked that question? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did she say in regard to the character of his teeth?

The plaintiff objects to the question because it is not in proper form. Objection overruled; the plaintiff excepts.

A. What is the question?

Q. What did she say in regard to her knowledge in regard to the character of her husband's teeth?

A. As I remember, she wasn't acquainted with him enough to know.

Q. She said she wasn't acquainted with him enough to know? A. I think that was the answer.

Q Do you remember of her being asked on that occasion in regard to the color and quality of her husband's hair?

A. I do.

Q. You remember that question being asked?

A. Yes, sir.

1210 Q. What reply did she make to that?

A. I think Mr. Green asked the question and I think she said he had more hair than he had on his head.

Q. Did she say she had any further knowledge of his hair except that he had more than Mr. Green?

The plaintiff objects to the form of the question. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I don't remember that she did.

Q. How long before you saw these remains at Bailey & Smith's should you say you had seen John W. Hillmon in Lawrence?

A. I saw him two or three months before, I think.

Q. Well, when was the last time you say that you saw him, before you saw the remains there at Bailey & Smith's, assuming that those remains were brought there on or about the the 3rd day of April, 1879; how long before that had you last seen John W. Hillmon?

A. I saw him just before he left.

Q. You saw him just before he left?

A. Yes, sir; Lawrence.

Q. When should you say that that was, as near as you recollect? February? March?

A. February, I could not fix the date, but it was a few days before he left.

Q. Now, do you remember Hillmon's personal appearance to some extent? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember in regard to his height?
A. Something about it?
Q. What should you say was the height of John W. Hillmon? A. He was a little taller than I am.
Q. How tall are you? A. Five feet, eight.
Q. What would be your best judgment?
A. About an inch taller than I am, I think.
Q. Is that a matter of judgment, or did you ever measure him or see him measured?
A. No, I never saw him measured.
Q. It is a mater of judgment? A. A matter of judgment.
Q. Now, do you remember in regard to the color of his hair? A. Yes.
1211 Q. What should you say was the color of John W. Hillmon's hair? A. Brown.
Q. Now, do you remember in regard to his bearing, whether he was erect or stooping?
A. I don't remember; I think he was erect.
Q. Do you remember in regard to his shoulders; was he a square-shouldered man, or sloping-shouldered?
A. I should call him sloping shouldered, if anything.
Q. How many times do you remember, did you see those remains there at Lawrence in April, 1879?
A. I saw them once.
Q. When was that; how long after they arrived there, if you know? A. The same day, I think.
Q. Where were they then?
A. They were at Bailey & Smith's.
Q. In the undertaking establishment? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, in regard to the condition of these remains, were they in a coffin or outside of the coffin; state where they were?
A. I think they were in the coffin.
Q. The body was clothed then, was it not? A. Bloody?
Q. Had clothing on? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was with you then? A. The coroner's jury.
Q. You only saw it with the coroner's jury?
A. That is all.
Q. Now, I will ask you if those remains which you saw there at that time with the coroner's jury were the remains of John W. Hillmon? A. They were not.

And in answer to cross interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You have been a witness for the insurance companies at every trial of this case, haven't you? A. No, sir.
Q. When were you first a witness in the case?
A. I think they had two trials before I was witness.

1213 Q. You have been a witness, then, ever since 1887?
A. I could not state the date; they had two trials before I was a witness.
Q. This is the fourth trial in which you have been a witness? A. I think it is.
Q. You have told this same state of facts every time to the other juries? A. I think so.
Q. Is that your recollection? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you ever testify before to the identity of Hillmon?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you ever testify that you saw Hillmon in the fore part of February, 1879?
A. I don't know; I can't remember the date.
Q. Now, will you swear that you saw Hillmon any time between the first of February and the 4th day of February, 1879? A. I could not fix those dates.
Q. Was your recollection better before the adjournment than it is now? A. I don't understand the question.
Q. You testified on your direct examination, did you not—

By Mr. Barker: Let us have an anewer to the former question.

Q. Do you want to make any other anwer?
A. Let me understand that question.
The question is repeated.
A. I think it was.
Q. Didn't you testify on your direct examination that you saw Hillmon in Lawrence in the fore part, in the early part of February, 1879? A. I don't know but I did.
Q. Didn't you so testify on your direct examination, just now, before adjournment, just before noon?
By the Court: Before noon to-day?
A. I think I did.
Q. You say now that you saw Hillmon in Lawrence any time in the fore part of February, 1879?
A. I think I did.
Q. Your recollection is as good upon that as upon other subjects; is it distinct; is your recollection distinct about that?
A. Well, it bothers me fixing dates.
Q. How did you come to say in your direct examina-
1214 tion then that you remember of seeing Hillmon in Lawrence in the fore part of February, 1879?
A. Well, now, I could not fix the dates but when I saw him, I saw him in February.
Q. You don't remember now whether it was the fore part of February or the last part of February?
A. Well, I saw him, I think, the last part any way; I am not sure about the first; I can't remember dates.

Q. Your opinion is now it was in the last part of February that you saw him instead of the first part of February?

A. I do not say that; I think I saw him in February, and may be the first part.

Q. Now, then, Mr. Adams, the fact of the business is you haven't any recollection of any kind whatever as to what time you saw him in February, have you?

A. I couldn't fix the exact date.

Q. You haven't any recollection of any date in February when you saw him?

A. There is no particular date that I could testify to.

Q. Where did you see him, if you saw him at all, in Lawrence, Kansas? A. I saw him at my store.

Q. You say you were one of those coroner's jurors there in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was it that was examining Mrs. Hillmon when she was testifying? A. I think Mr. Green and Mr. Barker.

Q. Which one of them asked her the questions?

A. What question?

Q. The questions that you have been testifying about?

A. I think Mr. Green asked most of the questions.

Q. Don't you know it was Mr. Barker; that Mr. Green didn't ask any questions of her? A. Mrs. Hillmon?

Q. Yes; that all of the questions asked of Mrs. Hillmon were asked by Mr. Barker.

A. I think Mr. Green asked some questions.

Q. Did both of them examine her?

A. I don't remember, but I think Mr. Green asked some questions.

Q. Now, then, the fact of the business is you don't remember even who asked her the questions, do you?

A. Not all of them.

1215 Q. Do you remember, so you can state to this jury, whether both of them examined her or only one of them? A. I know Mr. Green asked her one question.

Q. Do you remember whether Mr. Barker asked her any questions? A. I am quite sure he did.

Q. Then you think that both of them examined her?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, then, who did you understand that they represented there?

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination, and as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained; the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. Do you know who they represented or claimed to represent? A. Barker and Green?

Q. Yes.

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination. Objection sustained, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. Was there anything said there at that time as to who they represented or claimed to represent? Were they appointed by the coroner's jury to ask those questions?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and not proper cross-examination. The Court overruled the objection to which ruling the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

A. I could not say whether they were or not.

Q. Now, then, have you any recollection upon the subject of how Mr. Green and Mr. Barker came to be there asking questions?

A. I could not say.

Q. During the time that this examination was going on, there was a stenographer there, wasn't there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Taking down every word that Mrs. Hillmon said?

A. I think so.

Q. You are testifying now to what occurred more than 20 years ago, as to what she said?

A. About 20 years ago.

1216 Q. There was a stenographer there taking down her words? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know who brought the stenographer there?

A. I think the coroner.

Q. The coroner? A. I think so.

Witness excused.

1217 Tinetta Corcadell a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

Direct Examination,

By Mr. Greene:

Q. State your name? A. Tinetta Corcadell.

Q. Where do you live?

A. Valley Falls; near Valley Falls.

Q. About how far from Valley Falls?

A. Four miles from Valley Falls.

Q. When did you go to Valley Falls, do you remember?

A. No, I don't remember.

Q. Do you know how long you have lived there?

A. Well, I have lived there 40 years.

Q. You came there as a little girl?

A. Yes sir, I was only eight or nine years old.

Q. What was your maiden name?

A. Hogan, was my maiden name.

Q. Did you know a family residing there near Valley Falls by the name of Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you know a young man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember how long you have known him?

A. Well Mr. Hillmon lived there when we came there, 40 years ago.

Q. How far did they live from your father's house?

[—] About two miles and a half.

Q. Did you live in the same school district? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you go to school with any of the Hillmon children; if so, state each one?

A. I went to school with all of the Hillmon children.

Q. Do you remember how many children there were in that family? A. Yes sir.

Q. Who were they, if you remember?

A. State their names?

Q. Yes. Can you state their names?

A. Henry Hillmon; John W. Hillmon; William Hillmon; Lizzie Hillmon and Martha Hillmon.

1218 Q. Did you know John W? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you go to school with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you see John W. last, do you remember?

A. Well, about the year 1870. It has been 29 years ago since I last saw him.

Q. Where did you see him that time? A. At our place.

Q. Had you seen him prior to that time frequently?

A. Why, I don't know how often I did see him for the last six or seven years, but once every two or three years he would come back in the neighborhood, and I saw him, I guess, every time.

Q. Where did you see him the last time that you spoke of seeing him? A. At my place; at our place.

Q. Did he visit your father's house? I am not speaking of the last time, but when he was living in the neighborhood?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And when he would return after he had been away, and he came back, would he visit your father's house?

A. Yes sir, he would generally visit all the old neighbors.

Q. Whom, if any one, did he come in particular at your father's house?

A. Well, I don't know. He came to see us all, I guess.

Q. Were you at any time engaged to Mr. Hillmon?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. The objection is overruled. To which ruling of the Court the plaintiff then anad there duly excepted.

A. What did you ask me?

Q. Were you engaged at any time to this John W. Hillmon. You need not answer if it embarrasses you?

A. I do not know whether I will have to answer that or not.

By the Court: You may answer the question.

A. Well, I was at one time.

Q. Now, Mrs. Corcadell, do you remember Mr. Hillmon's teeth? A. Yes sir.

Q. You may state, if anything was noticeable in regard to his teeth?

A. Shall I tell how I think they were? Just state what kind of teeth I think he had?

Q. Yes.

1219 A. Well, I think his teeth was a little uneven, and when I first saw him he had a decayed tooth, here. I don't mean that the tooth was all gone. The outside of the tooth was there, but it was a dark colored tooth.

Q. Now, when do you remember of first noticeing that he had a dark colored tooth.

A. Well, I can remember that as far as I can remember anything about him.

Q. Was—what was the condition of his teeth, if you remember, at the time you were going to school together?

A. Well, that tooth was dark ever since I can remember, that one tooth was a dark colored tooth.

Q. How were the other teeth as to color?

A. Why, I don't remember as to the color, or any of them being colored only that one.

Q. Do you remember, Mrs. Corcadell, about what year it was that you were engaged to Mr. Hillmon?

A. I do not. I don't remember anything about it.

Q. Can you tell about how long it was before he went away from there in 70; when you saw him there in 70?

A. O, when I kept company with him was before the war—he went off to the war.

Q. Now, was any portion of this dark tooth gone, Mrs. Corcadell?

A. Well, I think that one corner, the lower part, was gone when I saw him last; it was broken off.

Cross-Examination.

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Now, you say you were engaged to Mr. Hillmon, engaged, I suppose, to be married to him?

A. I was a little while.

Q. That was away back before the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Away back in the sixties?

By Mr. Green: That is not the witnesses statement. She said before he went to the war.

1220 Q. Do you know when he went to the war?
[—] What war do you refer to, the war of the rebellion?
A. Yes, I do, but he only went just three months before the war was closed.
Q. You know what year he went? A. No, I don't.
Q. But it was before that you were engaged to him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, about when were you married?
A. I was married in '68.
Q. You had been married for three years, and had a family of children at the time you say he came back in '71?
A. Yes, sir, I had one child.
Q. The last time that you saw him was in '71?
A. No, I didn't. I say '70.
Q. Which was it, '70 or '71?
A. 29 years ago last August; you can count for yourself. I guess that is 1870.
Q. Do you remember in testifying in the trial of the case at Topeka in 1895 when Judge Thomas presided?
A. I guess I did.
Q. Do you remember of me cross-examining you then?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember testifying at that time that you saw him in '71; that the last time was in '71?
A. I do not know. I do remember of my examination, and I think it was 29 years ago last August.
Q. In '71 you were a married woman and had a husband, and children, or a child, in '71?
A. Well, I was married. I don't know whether I had any children or not.
Q. You say that Hillmon was coming there to see you in '71?
A. No, I didn't say me. He came and saw me. I say he came to our place and saw all of us.
Q. Now, after he went to the war, when did you next see him? Did you see him at any time except in '71?
A. O, yes, many a time. He was back home for several years. I don't know, but he was back at his old home after the war a long time.
Q. Mr. Hillman, when you last saw him in '71, didn't have any tooth out, did he? A. Not that I could see.
1221 Q. If he had any tooth out in '71, you never noticed it? A. No, I didn't notice it if he did.
Q. But you noticed that his teeth were all in his head at that time?

A. No, I won't say that, because I don't know as I did—because I could not say, only his front teeth.

Q. Now, this was not one of his front teeth, was it?

A. Not right in front, but it was right here, just—I think it was right here.

Q. On which side of his mouth do you say the missing tooth was? A. I think it was on this side.

Q. On the right side? A. Yes, on the upper jaw.

Q. That is your recollection, that it was not on the left side, but on the right side?

A. I think it was on the right side.

Q. And it was a front tooth?

A. No, it was right—it wasn't one of the two front teeth.

Q. It was the third tooth from the front tooth, wasn't it?

A. It was pretty close there, I could not say just exactly.

Q. There are two front teeth? A. Yes.

Q. And this was one of the third teeth, was it not, beginning at the front tooth—one of the front teeth to the right, and then the next one, and then the third one?

A. Yes, sir, it was one of them two, next to the front tooth, but I don't know which one, to my knowledge.

Q. You say that the lower corner of the tooth seemed to be worn off? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you notice his other teeth?

A. No, I don't know as I did. I know what kind of teeth he had, but I don't know as any of them was out.

Q. How long was Mr. Hillmon about there in '71?

A. He wasn't there long.

Q. About? A. I don't know whether he was here or not.

Q. How is that?

A. I don't know whether he was here or not. He just stopped a little while, as he was going to the train.

1222 Q. Stopped where?

A. Stopped at our house, my husband's house.

Q. In '71, the last time that he was there?

A. It was 29 years ago.

Q. You never saw him afterwards?

A. No, sir, I never saw him afterwards.

Q. How many did you say of these Hillmon boys were there? A. Three.

Q. What were their names?

A. Henry, We—we always called him Wes. That is the John W. Hillmon you claim; and Henry Hillmon; Henry Hillmon was the oldest, and then John W. and then William.

Q. Isn't it a fact that it was Henry Hillmon that had some of his front teeth gone?

A. Oh, yes, when I saw him last he didn't have hardly any teeth.

Q. Henry Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. There were several of these Hillmons? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know where Henry Hillmon went to?
A. No, down in the southern part of Kansas some place.
Q. He wasn't down around Wichita, was he?
A. He was down there some place. I don't know just where he was.
Q. He was a brother of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know where the other Hillmon went to?
A. Bill Hillmon?
Q. Yes? A. Yes, he is dead, I believe.
Q. Do you know where he was when he left that country?
A. No, he went off on the plains, too, but I could not tell you where.
Q. Now, besides these Hillmons, there were several other Hillmons, weren't there?
A. There wasn't any other family of Hillmons that lived in our neighborhood.
Q. Did you ever know any other persons by the name of Hillmon but these?
A. I have heard of some of their relations, but I wasn't acquainted with them.
Q. You don't know them personally? A. No, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. You were speaking about Henry Hillmon being 1223 about Wichita. Did you correspond with him at all?
A. Henry Hillmon?
Q. Yes? A. No, sir.
Q. You didn't know which portion of southern Kansas he was in, did you?
A. No, I could not tell you where he was. I heard from him —the people,—neighbors did.
Q. He had gone off onto the plains? A. Well, yes.
Q. Do you know when he left home as to the time you were married, for instance? A. Henry?
Q. Yes?
[Q.] Well, I think he left about the time we was married, but his family didn't. His family staid in our neighborhood for some three or four years, but he finally came back and took them away.
Q. I understood you to say that Henry Hillmon's teeth were nearly all gone? A. Yes, sir.
Witness excused.

1224 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of William Hogbin given upon the trial of 1885. It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Hogbin is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

William Hogbin called for the defense, and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. Green:

Q. Where do you reside? A. In Jefferson County.
Q. What portion of Jefferson ounty?
A. Near the northern part.
Q. Near what town? A. Near Valley Falls.
Q. Did you know John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir, I used to know one John W. Hillmon.
Q. When did you know him?
A. It has been about fifteen years since I seen him.
Q. Were you schoolboys together? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where was he living at that time?
[—] He was living up there in the same neighborhood I was.
Q. Now you may state if at any time you noticed anything peculiar about his teeth?
A. When I was going to school with him I noticed he had one dark tooth. That was all I remember about his tooth.
Q. Where was that dark tooth?
A. On the upper jaw near the center, as near as I can remember.
Q. What do you mean by 'dark'?
A. I mean it was dark color, or kind of blue.
Q. Discolored? A. Yes sir.

Cross-examination

Questions by Mr. Riggs:

Q. It was a kind of a blue tooth, was it?
1225 A. It was dark colored, or blue.
Q. Very noticeable, was it?
A. Well, not in particular. I had noticed it, though, often.
Q. How many years ago was that?
A. Fifteen years ago, I think.
Q. You haven't seen Hillmon, have you, for fifteen years?
A. No.
Q. There were several Hillmon's up there, were there not —he had brother or two ? A. Yes sir.
Q. What was your age at that time, fifteen years ago?
A. I was about eighteen.
Q. How old are you now?
A. I am thirty-four years old.
Q. You are thirty-four years old now? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you testified in this examination, didn't you, three years ago? A. Yes sir.

Q. What did you give your age at, at that time?
A. I don't remember giving my age.
Q. You responded to the name of Jackson Hogbin when ou were just called? [—] I came; my brother is not here.
Q. You say you were about how old when you knew Hill- on last?
A. I guess I must have been about eighteen.
Q. Don't you know how old you were?
A. I am thirty-four now and that was fifteen years ago. ou can count up and see.
Q. Hillmon at that time was a man grown, was not he, natured? A. Yes, I think he was, pretty near.
Q. About how old was he when you saw him last?
A. Well, I don't know as I can state exactly. I think he as twenty-six or twenty-seven years old.
Q. When did you first notice that he had this black tooth?
A. I can't remember it when I noticed it. I remember it hen I first seen him, I believe.
Q. You noticed it every time you saw him, didn't you?
A. I don't think I seen it every time I seen him, but I oticed it often.
Q. You say he had several brothers?
A. He had two brothers.
Q. Do you know their names? A. Yes sir.
Q. What were their names?
A. One was Henry and the other was William.
Q. Henry they called Hank, didn't they? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know what kind of teeth he had?
A. He had one or two teeth out.
Q. Do you remember that distinctly? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you remember what kind of teeth he had?
A. I think his teeth were white, so far as I know.
Q. How old was William Hillmon?
A. He was about my age.
Q. Mr. Green asked you if you went to school with John W. Hillmon; did you? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, don't you know it was one of John W. Hillmon's brothers that had the black tooth? A. No sir.
Q. Are you sure it was not?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Are you sure it was not?
A. If it was, I never seen it.
Q. I am asking you if it was not his brother who had that black tooth?
A. John W. had one; I am sure of that.
Q. You are sure that his brother never had it?
A. I don't know whether he had it or not.

Q. What directed your attention to John W. Hillmon's black tooth?

A. [—] stranger came to ask me if I knew anything of Hillmon, or if I used to know him. I told him I did,— 1226 Q. I just asked you what drew your attention to John W. Hillmon's black tooth?

A. That is the first circumstance that I know of. After he spoke to me about it I remembered seeing it.

Q. What impressed it on your memory that John W. Hillmon had a black tooth?

A. That is all I can state.

Q. Then there is no fact to impress it on your memory, that he had a black tooth? Nothing you can associate with it to remember that he had a black tooth?

A. I remember seeing him have a black tooth; that is all I can remember.

Q. Is there any special reason why you remember that John W. Hillmon had a black tooth?

A. Nothing more than what I have told you.

Q. You remember no circumstance except what you have stated, then?

A. I remember seeing the black tooth, that is all I remember of it.

Q. Do you know of another man who has got a black tooth?

A. I believe I know of one man in my neighborhood who has.

Q. He is the only man?

A. There may be several others.

Q. Do you know of any who have blue teeth?

A. I don't know but what they have.

Q. How were the balance of [the] Hillmon's teeth?

A. I never examined them.

Q. How were the balance, so far as you saw them?

A. So far as I saw them they were all right.

Q. Do you know whether the balance of John W. Hillmon's teeth were good or not?

A. They were good so far as I saw them.

Q. Do you know whether they were good or not?

A. No sir.

1227 Q. Do you remember whether he had two teeth out at that time?

A. I don't remember. I remember seeing the black tooth.

Q. When were you first asked in relation to this black tooth—after this suit was begun, when did anybody first speak to you about Hillmon's tooth—after this suit was begun?

A. I don't remember when; I was spoke to by a stranger over three or four years ago.

Q. Don't you know the man?
A. He is setting right over there, if I am not mistaken—(pointing to a party in the court room—reporter.)
Q. Who do you refer to? A. To Mr. Green.
Q. Where? A. Up on the farm.
Q. That was the first time you had been spoken to for fifteen years? A. O, no.
Q. Well, then, I will ask you who first spoke to you about this black tooth after the institution of this suit?
A. I don't remember who was the first.
Q. Did Mr. Cox ever talk to you about the tooth of Mr. Hillmon? A. I don't know any one by that name.
Q. Did Colonel Walker? A. No, sir.
Q. Can you state who did first?
A. I think I have stated.
Q. The first one who spoke to you about the tooth was Mr. Green? A. Yes, sir, I think it was.
Q. That was up on your farm? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When was that?
A. That has been over three years ago.
Q. That was the first time your attention had been called to this in fifteen years, was it?
A. It was not fifteen years then; it is fifteen years now.
Q. How long do you say it was at the last trial?
1228 A. I believe it was twelve years then since I had seen him.
Q. When did you say at that examination that you had first noticed that missing tooth?
A. Ever since I can remember.
Q. You say then it was twelve years from the last trial that you sad seen Hillmon; the mention that Mr. Green made of it was the first [mentioned] that had been made of that black tooth for twelve years, was it?
A. I don't know exactly about that.
Q. Have you any recollection of a black tooth being mentioned since you last saw Hillmon up to that time?
A. I don't believe I have, except when it was spoken of in these cases.
Q. And you remember it without anything to attract your attention to it? A. I remember it, yes, sir.
Q. And you can state nothing to impress that upon your memory at all.

Witness dismissed.

1229 E. Summerfelt, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name to the jury, please?
A. E. Summerfelt.
Q. Where do you live, Mr. Summerfelt?
A. I live in Valley Falls.
Q. What county? A. Jefferson.
Q. In what business are you engaged?
A. Hardware and farming implements.
Q. How long have you lived in Valley Falls?
A. I have lived in Valley Falls off and on; it was ten years ago when I moved to Valley Falls.
Q. How long have you lived in Jefferson County?
A. Ever since the 12th day of July, 1858.
Q. Where did you live when you came to Jefferson county, Kansas; where did you first locate?
A. A place they call Nichols station now or right adjoining it.
Q. Were you living on a farm or claim at that time?
A. I was living on a farm until the spring of 1864.
Q. Did you become acquainted at or about that time with a family by the name of Hillmon? A. I was.
Q. Do you remember in what year you made the acquaintance of that family? A. In 1858.
Q. Where did that family reside?
A. They resided—Mr. Hillmon lived,—it was about two miles between us.
Q. Did you connect on adjoining quarter sections of land?
A. No.
Q. There was one quarter between?
A. There was one farmer living between us; his name was Smith.
Q. What was old gentleman Hillmon's name?
A. Benjamin Hillmon.
Q. Did he have sons? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many, if you knew? A. I knowed three.
1230 Q. What were their names?
A. Henry, Wesley, we always called him Wes and William.
Q. You were acquainted with all three of them, were you?
A. I was.
Q. Now, from your farm, did you finally remove to Valley Falls?
A. I moved in 1864, in the spring of 1864, to Valley Falls.
Q. How long did you continue to live there at that time?
A. Until the spring of 1868 when I went on the farm again.
Q. Then where did you remove to?
A. It is a little west and north of Valley Falls.
Q. On a farm? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you removed back to Valley Falls, did you?
A. I moved back to Valley Falls about ten years ago.
Q. And you have been living there ever since?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you make the acquaintance of John W. Hillmon whom you called Wes. or who was called Wes. at the same time you did his father?
A. I knowed him like I would my neighbor's boys.
Q. Do you remember the fact of John Wesley Hillmon going into the army?
A. Well, it was reported that he went into the army.
Q. Did you miss him from the neighborhood for a while?
A. I did.
Q. Now, did you see him after he returned from the army?
A. I did.
Q. You may state where you saw him?
A. I was living at that time in Valley Falls and I see him in Valley Falls.
Q. You may state if at that time, in 1864, there was a dentist residing at Valley Falls?
A. There was not; there was a dentist working there; came from Leavenworth; that is what he reported to me.
Q. But there was a dentist working there at Valley Falls in 1864? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How did you know that fact?
A. I had a tooth fixed myself by the dentist.
Q. Where? A. At Valley Falls; at the hotel.
Q. Do you remember what hotel?
A. That was the Cataract House.

1231 Q. Do you remember of seeing John W. Hillmon at or about the time that you had this dentistry work done upon your teeth in Valley Falls in 1864?
A. Yes, sir, I saw him there and I took—

Q. Where did you see him? A. In Valley Falls.
Q. Did you have a talk with him in regard to his own teeth at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay evidence. Objection sustained; the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Did John W. Hillmon at that time show you, or was your attention called to any defects in his teeth? A. It was.

The plaintiff objects to the question as double. Objection overruled; the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. Answer the question.
A. I would have to make a statement.

By Mr. Atwood: That question should be answered by yes or no; we insist on a categorical answer.

A. I say yes.

Q. Did you go with him at that time from any place to any place? A. I took him to the dentist.

Q. From where did you take him to the dentist?

A. From the street.

Q. From the street where; in what place?

A. In Valley Falls.

Q. Where was the dentist?

A. The dentist was at the Cataract House.

Q. What dentist was it? A. I didn't learn his name.

Q. State what dentist it was with reference to being the same dentist who had fixed your tooth?

A. It was the same dentist.

Q. How long was it prior to the time this dentist had worked on your teeth, until you took to him John W. Hillmon?

A. I don't think it was over fifteen or twenty minutes.

Q. Did you see the dentist doing anything to the tooth or teeth of John W. Hillmon?

A. He took the chair and went to work at his teeth.

Q. Could you tell which tooth it was?

A. It was the second tooth on this side. (Indicat-1232 ing.)

Q. Did you observe what he was doing with reference to it?

A. He cleaned it out was what I should call it.

Q. By cleaning it out, what do you mean? Did he simply clean the outside, or remove something from the inside of the tooth?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

By the Court: He may answer, if he knows.

The plaintiff duly excepted to the ruling of the Court.

A. The tooth was decayed; I noticed it; I looked in his mouth when the dentist was to work on it; it was on the inside, and on the outside was a little spot about half way up in his tooth the size of a pin, and the tooth was kind of dark; black.

Q. And do you say you saw him working upon that tooth?

A. I did.

Q. The dentist? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, you may state what was said by the dentist, and what was said by you, and what was said by John W. Hillmon at the time that the dentist was working upon his tooth?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and hearsay. Objection sustained, to which ruling of the Court, the defendants and each of them and there duly excepted.

Q. What was the dentist doing, if anything, when you left there; I mean when you left the dentist and John W. Hillmon?

A. They was talking.

Q. State whether or not there was being anything done on the tooth?

A. I didn't see anything further done, only I suggested to Hillmon—

Objection.

Q. Did you come away from the Cataract Hotel at that time? A. I did.

Q. Whom did you leave there?

A. I left Hillmon and the dentist in the room.

Q. Where was Hillmon at that time?

A. Well, in the sitting room.

Q. Was he in the chair?

A. He was in the chair, yes, sir.

Q. They did not have any dentist there at that time?

A. No dentist there, no.

1233 Q. What, if anything, was the dentist doing when you left the two in that position?

A. Right at the time I left, he wasn't doing anything; they was talking.

Q. That was after whatever operation you have spoken of had been performed? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you next see Hillmon after that time?

A. Frequently, but I couldn't make any positive—

Objection.

Q. You saw him frequently. Do you remember any particular occasions when you saw him after that?

A. You mean the last time?

Q. Yes.

A. I think the last time I saw him his brother was cutting cord wood on a farm adjoining me and the boys was out hunting; I think that is the last time I saw Wesly Hillmon.

Q. Did any accident occur at that time to any one which fixed the date upon your mind?

The plaintiff objects to the question as hearsay and incompetent. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepted.

Q. Did any accident occur to any person at that time that fixed that occasion upon your mind.

By the Court: It is leading; you should ask him if any accident occurred, or if there was any occurrence at that time.

A. One of the hunters shot his leg off, or shot the calf of his leg off, and he died very shortly, in the course of an hour after he shot his leg off.

Q. Who was that?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. You may state who that was that was injured in that way? A. It was Roderick.

Q. Are you able to state in what year that was?

A. I could not say exactly; it was some time in the 70s.

Q. That is the last time you remember of having 1234 seen John W. Hillmon?

A. Yes, sir; the last time I remember that I had any talk; I think I seen him after that, but I was living on a farm at this time and I didn't see him very often.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. When did you say you saw John W. Hillmon in the dentist's chair?

A. He just came from the army. I don't know what year it was in; I think it was in 1864.

Q. In 1864? A. In the fall.

Q. You never saw him but once after that?

A. I saw him many times.

Q. When did you say you saw him the last time?

A. When that accident occurred.

Q. That was in 1864? A. In 1864.

Q. That you saw him at the dentist's? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In Valley Falls? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You noticed his teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You saw the dentist working on his teeth in the chair?

A. Well, he was sitting in the chair; he was—I wouldn't quite say he was working; he was examining the tooth.

Q. That tooth was on the left side of his upper jaw?

A. It was; it was the tooth right there on the side.

Q. Is that the left side of the upper jaw?

A. I call it the left side.

Q. Left side of the upper jaw? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Which tooth from the front?

A. It was the second tooth from the front.

Q. There was a hole in it?

A. Very small one on the outside.

Q. And the dentist was cleaning it out preparatory to filling it?

1235 A. That is what I supposed.

Q. You saw him put a filling in, didn't you?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did you next see Hillmon after that?

A. Well, I couldn't say. I saw him a good many times.

Q. He always showed a gold filling in his teeth whenever you saw him? A. I never noticed.

Q. You never noticed to look and see whether it was filled or not? A. No, I couldn't say.

Q. But you saw him a good many times? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Never noticed his teeth afterwards? A. No, sir.

Q. You didn't see any other teeth in his mouth at that time that were defective? A. No, I did not.

Q. There was one tooth in the left-hand upper jaw that had a hole in it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you saw the dentist working on the hole?

A. I saw the dentist with an instrument cleaning it out.

Q. That was in 1864? A. Yes, sir.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified, as follows, to wit:

Q. Do you know whether it was decayed in the front or the rear?

A. The tooth was decayed most from the rear.

Q. It was on that place that you saw the dentist at work?

Objection as leading. No answer or ruling.

Q. What did you see the dentist doing to that portion of the tooth that was decayed the most?

A. I don't understand.

Q. What did you see the dentist doing to that portion of the tooth which was decayed the most?

A. The dentist had an instrument, a kind of a hook; he was working at it to examine it to see how bad it was decayed; that is all, I know about it; I was standing right before them and watching them.

1236 Q. Did he work from the outside of the tooth or the inside?

A. He opened his mouth and he worked this instrument on the inside.

And in answer to recross- interrogatories propounded to him by Mr. Hutchings, counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. That hole came clear through from the other side?

A. It did a little in front.
Q. And he was boring that out?
A. No, he didn't bore it out.
Q. He didn't bore that out?
A. He was just cleaning it out with his instrument.
Q. The hole was big enough in front so that you could see it? A. It was about the size of a pin head.
Q. You saw it, didn't you?
A. Yes, but it was clear on the—
Q. Will you just answer my question. Did you see the hole in the front of his tooth? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had seen that hole in there before, hadn't you?
A. I hadn't never seen it before until that time.
Q. And you never noticed his teeth afterwards.
A. Well, I didn't pay any particular attention to it.
Q. You first testified in this case at the first trial of it, didn't you? A. I think not.
Q. In 1882?
A. Well, the trial I was called here to Leavenworth in the court-house.
Q. Judge Foster presided, did he not?
A. I don't know who presided; I was not put on the witness stand.
Q. You were not put on the witness-stand that time?
A. No.
Q. When did you testify first? A. I think in Topeka.
Q. You testified in Topeka when?
A. Well, I testified the last term of court and I think the time before.
1237 Q. How many times have you testified?
A. This is the third time.
Q. Now, then, this occurred in 1864? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Right, is it? A. I think so.
Q. And you never testified in this case until 1895?
A. Well, I don't remember the date; the year.
Q. Thirty-one years afterwards?
A. Oh, no, it ain't 31 years ago.
Q. From 1864 to 1895 is thirty-one years, is it not?
A. Since I testified?
Q. It was thirty-one years between the time that you say you saw this thing in 1894 and the time that you first testified to it in 1895?
A. Well, if the court was in session in 1895, of course, I testified.
Q. You remember that I cross-examined you, don't you?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. I am the same person? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Cross examined you when you testified before Judge Thomas? A. I don't know the judge.

Q. At Topeka at the federal court-house?
A. I don't remember the judge's name.
Q. But you have testified on two trials at Topeka, the two last trials? A. Yes, sir.
Q. One was in 1895 and the other in 1896? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Right, is it not? A. I expect so.
Q. So that it was from 1864 until 1895, or thirty-one years before you ever testified to this fact; isn't that right?
A. I expect.
Q. And you never felt interest enough in this matter to look at John W. Hillmon's tooth after you saw it being filled to see whether it had been filled or not?
A. I didn't see it filled.
Q. Your attention was never called to this matter of Hillmon's tooth except that one time in 1864?
A. That is all.
Q. And thirty-one years afterwards you testified to it first?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Right, is it not? A. I expect so.
1238 Q. Now, is it not a fact that you testified in answer to my questions to you in 1895 that you did notice after Hillmon came from the dentist that he had a gold filling in his tooth and that you frequently noticed that filling?
A. I don't think I ever did.
Q. Well, now, you say you don't think so; will you testify here before this jury, that you did not say, in answer to questions which I asked you in 1895, at Topeka, that you noticed, after Hillmon came away from there that he had a gold filling in his teeth?

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination and not proper ground for impeachment. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted and still except.

A. You wanted me to tell you whether it was filled with gold or some other metal and I told you I didn't know.

By the Court: He has asked you what you testified to at the trial in 1895 at Topeka.
Q. Didn't you testify in the federal court-house in Topeka at the trial in 1895 in answer to a question that I put to you that after Mr. Hillmon came away from the dentist's that you saw him and noticed that he he had a gold filling in the front of his tooth? A. I think not.
Q. You think not. A. No, sir.
Q. Do you remember what you did testify on that occasion?
A. Not exactly.
Q. You don't remember? A. No, sir.

Q. You might have testified to it?
A. And I might not.
Q. And you might not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Didn't you swear to that; didn't you testify upon the trial in 1895, at the federal [house] house in Topeka, that you noticed that his tooth was filled with gold?
A. I never answered that question directly; you wanted me to answer it directly and I wouldn't do it.

1239. Q. You wouldn't testify whether you saw it filled with gold or not? A. That is correct.
Q. You wouldn't testify then whether you saw it at all or not? A. I never testified that I saw it filled.
Q. Then, I understood you to say to the jury that you never noticed Hillmon's tooth after you saw him in the dentist's chair?
A. I think I did notice his teeth, that tooth in front when he was at my house the last time.
Q. And it was filled with gold?
A. It was partly broken off.
Q. It was filled with gold, was it not?
A. I never saw gold in his teeth.
Q. When was he last at your house?
A. Some time in the 70's.
Q. About what time would you say in the 70's?
A. I could not say; it might have been 1871, 2 or 3.

By Mr. Barker, counsel for the defendants:

Q. You had heard of the disappearance of Mr. Hillmon long before 1895, had you not?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

Q. State whether you had heard of it long prior to 1895?
A. I have heard it.
Q. You had heard it before that time? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know how early you heard of the disappearance or the alleged killing of John W. Hillmon?
A. It was reported—Well, I wouldn't say positive when the corpse was brought to Lawrence, or whether it was before; I couldn't say positive about that.
Q. What would you say in regard to hearing about it at or about the time the remains were brought to Lawrence?
A. I could not say the time when it was brought back.
Q. I know, but what do you say about hearing about 1240 this matter at about that time?
A. I heard it reported that Hillmon was shot; that is all.
Q. Do you remember when you heard that with reference to certain remains being brought to Lawrence?

A. I don't know anything about the particular time.

Q. State whether or not you had ever known of a dentist being in Valley Falls before that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as not proper re-examination. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. That is the first time I had known of a dentist being there when he fixed my tooth.

Witness excused.

1241 John Alexander Low, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name, Mr. Low? A. John Alexander Low.

Q. Where do you live? A. Jefferson County.

Q. In this state? A. State of Kansas, yes sir.

Q. Near what place? A. Near Nortonville.

Q. How far from Valey Falls? A. About 8 miles.

Q. How long have you lived in Jefferson County?

A. Very near all my life, something over 40 years.

Q. In what business are you engaged? A. Farming.

Q. Have you been engaged in any other business?

A. No sir.

Q. I will ask you if you were acquainted with a family of Hillmon's in or about Valley Falls?

A Used to be, yes sir.

Q. Did you know the father, Benjamin Hillmon?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you acquainted with the sons?

A. Yes sir the whole family.

Q. Do you remember the sons' names now? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He had 3 sons, did he?

Q. You may state their names?

A. Henry, Wes and William.

Q. Was Wes the one who was known as John W?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you live one time in reference to the Hillmon family, one time, in reference to the residence of the Hillmon family?

A. We lived about a mile; about three quarters of a mi' south and half mile east of where they lived.

Q. Were you in the same school district?

A. I was in the same school district, yes sir.

Q. State whether or not you ever attended school with John W. Hillmon? A. One summer.

1242 Q. Do you remember the number of the District? A. No. 2.

Q. How far was that from Valley Falls?

A. I should judge it is about 2 miles from the Falls; two miles north.

Q. After going to school with John W. Hillmon, did you have any further acquaintance with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember of there being in that neighborhood a brick yard? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where was that brick yard with reference to your residence, and the residence of Benjamin Hilmon, father of John W. Hilmon?

A. It was about two miles west of where I lived then. It was something within a mile or a mile and a half of where I lived then.

Q. Do you know whether or not it was on what is known as the Hilmon claim?

A. No, it wasn't. It was on a claim—I don't know who owns it now. I think John Dougla, of Leavenworth, first claimed on it. It used to be called the Cupp place.

Q. Did you and Hilmon ever work there at this brickyard at the same time? A. Yes sir.

Q. For how long did you work together there?

A. I could not tell you the number of months. We worked there one summer.

Q. Where did you board at that time, and where did Hilmon? [Q.] At a board shanty.

Q. Where, at the brickyard? A. Right there.

Q. State whether or not you and John W. Hilmon occupied the same cabin at the same time?

A. Frequently. I stayed there all the time.

Q. How about John W. Hilmon staying there?

A. He stayed there frequently.

Q. Where did he sleep when he stayed at the brickyard?

A. He slept in the bunk with me when he stayed there.

Q. During the time that you were working—that you and Hilmon were working at the brickyard, did you ever treat his teeth in any way? do anything for them?

A. Yes, I put creosote in one of his teeth.

1243 Q. What tooth did you treat in that way?

A. It was one of his jaw teeth.

Q. What was the condition of the tooth at the time you administered this creosote to it?

A. It was a hollow tooth, decayed tooth.

Q. Do you remember on which side?

Q. I would not be positive as to that, however.

Q. Did you treat him in that way more than once during hat time?

A. Well, I should say two or three times during the ummer.

Q. Did you have an opportunity then to observe the con- ition of that tooth when you were treating it?

A. I seen it was decayed.

Q. Did you have an opportunity to observe the condition f his other teeth, of his front teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state what their condition was?

A. There was one his front teeth was decayed.

Q. Notice it at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. During that time was Hillmon suffering from any dif- iculty? A. Nothing but tooth-ache.

Q. That is what I wanted to get at? How did it happen hat you treated his tooth in that way?

The plaintiff objects to the form of the question. The objec- tion is by the Court overruled, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff then and there duly excepted.

A. He had tooth-ache and was in misery, and I got up—he could not put in [in] himself. I got up and lit a light and put a piece of cotton in his tooth.

Q. This creosote, where did you get it?

A. He had that himself.

Q. Now, how many times did you say you treated him in that way during that time?

A. I should say three times during that summer.

Q. Did you see him after that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him after that at any time, when he was suffering with tooth-ache?

A. He bought some cattle from my father, and wanted I should help him to drive them away.

Q. State about when that was?

A. Well, I could not name the year; I could not state the date.

1244 Q. You remember the circumstances, do you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was your father living then?

A. Over where I live now.

Q. Where do you live now from Valley Falls?

A. I live 8 miles northeast of Valley Falls. That was a mile closer, where we lived then, than it is now.

Q. I understand you to say you were to help drive cows?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. From what place to what place?

A. From father's place we went past John Wesley's father's place.

Q. On the way to Valley Falls? [—] Yes.

Q. Going from there to Valley Falls, did you cross any stream? A. Yes, sir, crossed Hickory Creek.

Q. Now, at that time, on that occasion, did you have an opportunity to observe anything in regard to the condition of Hillmon's teeth, John W. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You can state what it was? State the circumstances, or what there was in connection with it?

A. His tooth was hurting him, and he asked me to look at it. He didn't just ask me to look at it. He showed it to me.

Q. Where was that? A. That was at Hickory Creek.

Q. Now, what was the condition of his teeth at that time?

A. The gum was very red, inflamed and sore.

Q. Did you have an oportunity then to see in regard to his front teeth?

A. Not any more than what I had seen before.

Q. What was the condition of his front teeth at that time?

A. Why, one of them was decayed.

Q. Did he complain of any matter at that time.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. The objection is by the Court overruled, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. He complained of his teeth hurting him, yes, sir.

Q. Did you treat the tooth in any way at that time; do anything for it? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember of having seen him after that?

1245 A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember the last time you saw him?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Are you able to fix what year it was that you assisted in driving these cattle from your place to Valley Falls?

A. I could not be certain, but my recollection is that it was 68 or 69. I ain't sure. I would not be positive about that.

Q. When did you say you last saw John W. Hillmon?

A. Well, could not tell you that. I seen him every time he came to the neighborhood, but I could not tell you just what time it was.

Q. You are not able to fix the year? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear, at or about the time it occurred, of the alleged killing of Hillmon and the bringing of a body there to Lawrence? A. I don't understand that question.

Q. I asked you if you heard at or about the time of the occurrence of the alleged killing of Hillmon and the bringing of certain remains there to Lawrence—did you hear about that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you hear of it?
A. I could not be positive about that; somewhere about—well, it would be shortly after it happened. I think it was about 70.
Q. You say you heard of it shortly after it happened?
A. Yes, sir, some time. I could not fix the date at all, for I don't recollect now. I heard it. I don't recollect now when I heard it, but I heard it. But I heard it.
Q. In your neighborhood at Valley Falls, had the matter of John W. Hillmon's death been a subject of discussion among the people there at Valley Falls?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. The objection is by the Court sustained, to which the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:
Q. How old are you? A. I was born in 51.
Q. And you have lived ever since in Jefferson County?
A. Not exactly, no, sir.
1246 Q. Where have you lived?
A. I was born in Scotland, in the City of Dundee.
Q. When did you come to this country? A. In 57.
Q. You were then six years of age? A. Yes. sir.
Q. And you have been living in Jefferson County ever since?? A. Yes.
Q. You have been right there in Jefferson County during all the 5 trials, previous trials of this case?
A. Exactly.
Q. You have never been called as a witness in this case?
A. No, sir.
Q. You have? A. No. sir.
Q. You haven't? A. Haven't.
Q. You were never discovered until this trial?
A. How is that question?
Q. During all the five trials of this case that we had right here in this neighborhood, you never have been called as a witness? A. No, sir.
Q. This is the first time you have testified to these facts?
A. The first time I have ever been called on.
Q. You have heard this case talked about?
A. Certainly, every man in the case has.
Q. Every time it has been tried you have heard it talked about? A. No, not every time.
Q. I will get you to state if it is not a fact that persons representing these insurance companies have scoured that country through there time and time again looking for witnesses? A. No, they have not scoured.

Q. They have never seen you? A. No, sir.

Q. When did they see you?

A. The first time was last week, when I answeerd the subpoena.

Q. Up to that time you never had told anybody that you knew anything about this case? A. Told my neighbors.

Q. Told your neighbors? A. Certainly, they all knew.

Q. Then, during all the time those trials were going on, you had told your neighbors this? A. Yes.

1247 Q. Which particular neighbor did you ever tell anything?

A. I don't know of any particular neighbor. It is the general talk of the country.

Q. What is the general talk of the country?

A. This Hillmon trial.

Q. Exactly, and so you talked about what you had told, and you said you had told your neighbors about this case?

A. I didn't state that. The neighbors did talk about it, but I didn't say I told them anything.

Q. Did you ever tell anybody that you knew anything about this case? A. No, sir.

Q. You never did? A. No, sir.

Q. When they came there and subpoenaed you and you came and testified here in this case, you were surprised, were you not? A. Yes, sir, I was.

Q. Because you had never told any one in the world that you knew anything about it? A. Let me explain.

Q. You can answer that question. I object to this witness explaining. The question calls for yes or no.

A. If you let me answer, and not answer for me, I will answer you straight.

Q. I was asking you whether you were surprised when you were subpoenaed because you had never told any one that you knew anything about the case?

A. Yes, sir, when I was subpoenaed I was surprised. That was, if I ain't mistaken, a year ago last spring, this last spring.

Q. You were subpoenaed? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, when was it that you say you and John W. Hillmon worked at the brickyard?

A. It was either in '66 or '67. I ain't positive. That is a long time ago.

Q. Well, what year did you say you were born in?

A. I was born in '51.

Q. In '66 then you would have been 15 years old?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were a boy then? A. I suppose so.

Q. You were 15 years old in '66? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it was either in '66 or '67 that you worked 1248 with Hillmon there? A. Exactly.

Q. At that time you say he had a decayed front tooth?

A. His front tooth was decayed, but not as bad as his jaw tooth.

Q. Well, in '66 he did have a decayed front tooth?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That you are positive of? A. Yes, sir.

Q. A portion of the tooth was gone, wasn't it? A. Sir?

Q. A portion of the tooth was gone, wasn't it?

A. Not of the front tooth, no, sir.

Q. What do you mean by being decayed?

A. It was dark colored; commenced to decay.

Q. Well, were there any holes in it?

A. Not on the outside, that I could see.

Q. Did you examine it? A. Not particularly, no, sir.

Q. And he had one hollow tooth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You treated that there then by putting creosote in it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And he carried it?

A. Always carried a bottle of creosote around with him. I would not say that he had that all the time. He had it with him at that time.

Q. And produced it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And he had to have somebody to put it into his tooth?

A. O, I don't know as he did. If he did, he had me do it.

Q. How did you do it? Took the bottle and poured it into the tooth? A. No, sir.

Q. How did you do it? A. I took a little bit of cotton.

Q. You did that three times? A. Yes, sir.

Q. During the time he was working there with you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the same time you noticed that he had a decayed tooth? A. Certainly.

Q. Way back as early as '66? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was just after he came out of the army?

A. '66 or '67. It might have been '67.

Q. Was there any filling in it at that time? A. No, sir.

Q. There was a hole clear through it? A. No, sir.

Q. He had been to a dentist in '61, and this was in '66 or '67? A. I never seen it filled.

1249 Q. If there was any filling in it, you didn't see it in '66 or '67? A. No, sir.

Q. There was a hole clear through it, in the front of his tooth? A. Not that you could tell.

Q. You looked right into his mouth in putting the cotton in his teeth three times? A. Certainly.
Q. In '66 and '67? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had no hole through his tooth in front?
A. Not that I noticed.
Q. You would have noticed it if he had a hole right there through the tooth that the dentist could dig out?
A. Yes, if it had been on the outside. There was no hole through his tooth at that time. I didn't notice any.
Q. You are sure of that? A. I didn't see any.
Q. And you were looking at it, weren't you?
A. I was putting cotton in the tooth that ached, and I seen that tooth, that dark colored tooth, very frequently, lots of times.
Q. Saw it lots of times, but there was no hole clear through it? A. Not that I seen, no, sir.
Q. There could not have been a hole there at that time, in '66 or '67, that a dentist could dig an instrument into?
A. I didn't see it.
Q. Now, how long did Hillmon work with you in '66 or '67 in the brickyard?
A. One summer. I could not tell you,, I do not remember the months.
Q. Who was the owner of the brickward?
A. A man by the name of Nichols.
Q. What Nichols? A. Hiram Nichols.
Q. Where is he now? A. Sir?
Q. Where is Hiram Nichols now?
A. That is more than I can tell you.
Q. Have you seen him lately?
A. I haven't seen him for a good many years.
Q. Do you know where he went to?
A. He went from there to Farraday.
Q. Well, after that summer's work in the brickyard, what became of Hillmon? A. I could not tell you.
1250 Q. Where did you next see him?
A. I seen him several times off and on, in the neighborhood. He could attend lyceums and literaries at the school house, and the next time that I could give any definite recollection of it would be when he bought—
Q. When was that, in what year?
A. I think that was in '69. I would not be positive of that either.
Q. About how old were you at that time? I want to fix as near as I can, the date of it; you were about 15 years old when you worked with Hillmon in the brickyard?
A. About 15 or 16.
Q. You remember that; that you were a boy, a lad?

A. Yes, sir, 15 or 16 years old.
Q. Now, then, how old were you at the time you spoke of driving the cattle?
A. Well, somewhere 18, perhaps, or 19.
Q. You remember that, don't you; that is, to fix the date of it, if I can, by your age?
A. I remember he bought them cows.
Q. Could not have been ten years later than that?
A. I could not fix it. I don't know exactly what year it was.
Q. You can give within five years of it?
A. I can come closer than 5 years.
Q. How close can you come to it?
A. I think it would be '68 or '69.
Q. And you remember also that you were 18 or 19 years of age at the time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You remember that occurrence was when you were a young man, before you had come to the age of majority?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And he bought some cattle of your father?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were crossing a creek? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Or a river? A. A very small river.
Q. What was the name of it? A. Hickory Creek.
Q. And when you were crossing the creek he came to you and got you then to look at his tooth again?
A. Will you let me explain that?
Q. O, no, just answer the question?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Right in the middle of the creek?
1251 A. O pshaw, no, not in the middle of the creek. The creek ain't big enough to get in the middle of it.
Q. What I want to get at is the fact?
A. It was on the edge of the creek.
Q. Was it before you had crossed?
A. As we were going into the creek—we had been across and back—we crossed it several times; we crossed it backwards and forwards; the cattle ran up the creek; it was hard work to get them out of the creek.
Q. At any rate on the banks of the creek, he asked you to examine his tooth?
A. No, he didn't ask me that way; he told me that his tooth ached. He told me his tooth ached, and I looked at it.
Q. You knew all the conditions of the tooth; knew that years ago? A. Yes, more than 2 years.
Q. And he knew that you knew all about the condition of his tooth? A. Certainly.
Q. He didn't have a bottle of creosote?

A. No, he didn't have.
Q. He just wanted you to look at his tooth? A. No sir.
Q. He did not want you to do anything?
A. I could not—he just wanted me to look at the tooth.
Q. He said it would be a comfort to him to have you look at the tooth?
A. No, he didn't say that.
Q. What tooth did you look at?
A. I looked at one of the jaw teeth.
Q. Was it the same old jaw tooth that you had packed with cotton before that?
A. Well, I could not answer that question.
Q. How many of his teeth were hollow then; that was two years later?
A. I could not answer that either.
Q. Didn't you notice that one side of his tooth had broke out, and that it had a hole in it?
A. No, I didn't notice that.
Q. You looked at his teeth; now what about his teeth?
A. I looked at that front tooth.
Q. The sore tooth?
A. Yes sir, that tooth that was hurting him.
Q. And the tooth looked red?
A. No sir, I never saw a red tooth.
1252 Q. What was it that looked red?
A. It was the gums that looked red.
Q. I am not talking about gums; did you look at the tooth?
A. I did.
Q. What about the tooth?
A. The tooth was hollow.
Q. Didn't you see two teeth that were hollow?
A. I don't remember examining to see how many teeth were hollow.
Q. You remember, though, that several of them were hollow? A. In '69? No sir, I don't.
Q. How about the front tooth? You noticed the front tooth again at that time in '69?
A. I never noticed, for I had no occasion to notice it.
Q. You had no particular occasion to notice it? Didn't you testify to the jury on your direct examination you did notice again that his front teeth were decayed every time that you met him?
A. Every time that I met him? Not every time. I remember frequently I would notice that tooth. It was discolored.
Q. In '69 did you see any hole through it? That came through outside?
A. No sir, I never did see any hole through it.

Q. If there had been a hole through it, you would have not noticed it, wouldn't you? A. I believe I would.

Witness excused.

1253 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Samuel Walker, given upon the trial of 1885.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Walker is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Samuel Walker called for the defense, and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and where you reside?
A. Samuel Walker, Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. State how long you have lived in Lawrence, Kansas?
A. Ever since the spring of 1835,—Lawrence and vicinity.
Q. You may state if you were acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. I was.
Q. You may state if you remember the circumstance of your going to Medicine Lodge in the spring of 1879?
A. I do.
Q. Who went down with you?
A. Mr. Wiseman and a gentleman by the name of Tillinghast.
Q. Do you remember when you left Lawrence?
A. Not the day exactly, but it was some time in the latter part of the month of February or early in March.
Q. 1879?
A. It was in March or the first of April.
Q. You never made but one trip down there with these gentlemen, did you? A. No.
Q. When you arrived at Medicine Lodge, who did you find there?
A. You don't want to know all, I suppose.
1254 Q. Who from Lawrence?
A. I found Mr. Levi Baldwin, Alva Baldwin, and Brown.
Q. John H. Brown? A. Yes sir.
Q. What did you do with reference to going to the cemetery at that place: Did you go out there? A. I did.
Q. Who accompanied you on that occasion?
A. Mr. Wiseman,—I can't exactly remember the names of two or three that were there,—but there was Wiseman, Tillinghast, and a doctor they called Davis, I believe; Brown, Baldwin, both of the Baldwins.

Q. About how far is it from Medicine Lodge to the burying ground of the place?

A. I should judge a mile or a mile and a half—a mile anyhow.

Q. Was there any grave opened while you were there?

A. They opened the grave while we were there. They were opening it when we got there.

Q. What was the condition of the grave so far as being fenced was concerned? A. It was not fenced.

Q. State what appearance there was that the grave was about to be fenced? A. There was some lumber there.

Q. On the lot? A. Close by.

Q. Was there anything else but lumber? A. No sir.

Q. You state that he grave was opened and the coffin taken out? A. Yes sir.

Q. State if that coffin was opened? A. It was.

Q. You may now state how you were standing and who was standing next to you at the time the coffin was opened?

A. If I can remember correctly, I was standing on one side, I think on the north side; Levi Baldwin was on my right, Alva on my left; Mr. Wiseman was right opposite, and Dr. Davis and Tillinghast was there, and Brown stood off over by the wagon—he didn't come up to the grave.

1255 Q. How far distant was Brown standing?

A. Possibly as far as from here to the door.

Q. Who opened the coffin?

A. Those men that were there. The coffin was taken out of the grave first and then opened.

Q. Now, what examination did you make or did you see made, of the body?

A. Well, I pulled the cloth off of the face. Mr. Wiseman spoke about having the sleeve opened. He had talked all the way of vaccination. I borrowed a knife either of Dr. Davis or Mr. Wiseman and cut the sleeve open. Dr. Davis held the hand while I cut the sleeve.

Q. Then you saw the arm? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What other examination, if any, did you make of the body?

A. I felt the teeth to see if they were sound, with my fingers.

Q. How long had you known John W. Hillmon?

A. Ever since about 1872,—that is, on and off, when he was in Lawrence. He was absent a good deal. The last day he was in Lawrence, that was in February, 1879, that was the last time I saw him,—the day he went away.

Q. February, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him on that occasion?

A. In my office.

Q. You may state what was the condition of that body? whether it was well preserved?

A. It was just as well preserved as the day it went in, as it could possibly have been, except that there was a little coloration where the bullet went in, on each side.

Q. State whether or not that was the body of John W. Hillmon? A. It was not.

Q. What was the condition of the teeth?

1256 A. The day he was last in my office he came in there to hang up his overcoat. I was lying on my bed, was not well. He hung his overcoat right up over me, and I saw distinctly his tooth out. My son has a tooth out in the same place. He went up town and came back. He got a shave. Got his coat and told me he was going away.

Q. On which side was the tooth out?

A. The left hand side, first tooth from the front. He had got shaved and had his mustache cut off considerable, and it showed much more plainly. I remarked to him at the time that he had a tooth out just like Ollie.

Q. I will call your attention to Medicine Lodge again. You have stated now with reference to the body being taken up, etc. What was done with it then? I want to know what was done with it with reference to taking it to Lawrence.

A. It was taken down town, and the next day Levi Baldwin and Alva Baldwin and Brown started with it.

Q. How were they traveling?

A. In a spring wagon that belonged to Hillmon and Brown.

1257 Q. Did you notice any of his effects being taken along, taken in the wagon with the body?

A. A trunk was put in, I put in a pair of shoes and a hat. They claimed they was Hillmon's shoes; those folks said they were his effects.

Q. You put in a pair of shoes, did you? When and where did you last see them? A. At Kingman.

Q. Did you see the effects afterwards in Lawrence?

A. No, sir; I didn't.

Q. You don't know then whether they arrived in Lawrence? A. The shoes hadn't arrived at Hutchinson.

Q. How did you know they hadn't arrived at Hutchinson? A. Because I examined and they were not there.

Q. What did you examine at Hutchinson?

A. The shoes were in the wagon, and the shoes were not in the wagon when they came in there.

Q. Did you measure the height of the wagon, body and all? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How high was it? A. Four feet ten inches.

Q. Did you measure the depth of the wagon box?
A. No, I think not;—just from the ground up on the outside. There was a small wagon bed, about that high—(measuring with his hands—Rep.)—and then side boards on top.
Q. What would be your best judgment in regard to the depth of that box?
A. I should say from fifteen to eighteen inches.
Q. Did you afterwards see this same body at Lawrence?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where was this body taken then?
A. To Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment.
Q. Was it the same body over which the coroner's inquest was held at Lawrence?
A. It was the same body that started from Medicine Lodge.

2158 Cross-examination.

Questions by Mr. Wheat:
Q. What is your occupation? A. What is it now?
Q. What was it at that time?
A. I was in the livery business and deputy sheriff.
Q. How long were you in the employ of these companies?
A. I have never been in the actual employ of them, only when they would get me to go to certain places for them.
Q. On certain specific matters? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did they get you to do that several times?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did they compensate you for it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What is the total compensation these defendants have paid you for what you have done for them in these matters?
A. I couldn't say; they always paid me so much a day and my expenses.
Q. How much did they pay you a day?
A. Five dollars a day.
Q. Five dollars a day? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Can you tell me how many days you worked at this business?
A. Indeed I could not. I expect I got in the neighborhood of—except when I was a witness—probably in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty dollars.
Q. State as near as you can?

1259 A. I say, I think, except as a witness here, and at the other trial of court, that I got in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty dollars, but I never kept count.
Q. How much did you get as a witness?
A. I got my mileage and my witness' fees.
Q. Did you get anything more than the regular per diem?
A. No.

Q. State whether your occupation has not, at different periods of your life, been that [what] is commonly called a detective?

A. I never claimed to be a detective. I have been employed in different cases.

Q. State whether, in behalf of these companies, you didn't go down to see Brown, the father of John H. Brown?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many times did you go to see him? A. Twice.

Q. State whether you ever went to see Reuben Brown?

A. I have seen a Mr. Reuben Brown there and at Mr. Buchan's. I never seen him anywhere else except when he went to help me hunt Brown.

Q. You did that in the employ of these insurance companies?

A. Not for the insurance companies but for Mr. Wiseman.

Q. Did you hear the testimony of Mr. Wiseman?

A. No, sir, not all; only a part of it before dinner.

Q. State the first time you noticed this tooth was out—was that the last time he was in your office?

A. The last time he was in Lawrence, I think.

Q. And you had known him since 1872?

A. Yes, sir. I never had noticed his teeth at all, because he had always worn a big mustache.

Q. How long have you worn glasses?

A. Well, I have worn glasses to read at night ever
1260 since I was about forty-five, I think.

Q. How long before 1879?

A. That would [—] 1862; at night, but not in the daytime.

Q. Were you wearing them in the daytime in 1879?

A. No, sir.

Q. Were you wearing them in the night?

A. Yes, sir, to read.

Q. How many times had you seen Hillmon, do you think, before that last time?

A. Well, I could not tell you. He used to always, when he lived with Major Houston, he always put his horse up here, and when he lived with Mr. Baldwin he either put it up there with me or Mr. Eldridge; and he frequently got teams of me.

Q. So that it amounted to seeing him a great many times?

A. I could not tell how many times it amounted to. Sometimes Hillmon was gone a year or two.

Q. So that it would run into hundreds of times?

A. No, not that many.

Q. Give us the best estimate that you can. A. I could not.

Q. Fifty times?

A. Well, I judge more than that.

Q. Did you talk with him these different times considerably?

A. Every time he would come in with his horse or to get a team.

Q. That was a good many times?

A. I couldn't tell how often.. A great many times.

Q. Now, you don't mean that he wore a mustache all that time, do you?

A. I never saw him without one.

Q. Do you mean that he wore his mustache long all that times?

A. I never saw him without a mustache and a pretty good one.

Q. Do you mean to say that it was shorter at that 1261 time than you had seen it?

A. It might have been often, but I never particularly noticed him until that day.

Q. Why did you notice him that day?

A. Simply because he was right over me, hanging up his coat right over my head.

Q. How could you look at his mouth when he was right up over you?

A. You stand up over a man when you are talking, and you will show your mouth when you wouldn't otherwise.

Q. What were you lying on? A. Lying on my bunk.

Q. Was there anything other than the mere situation to call your attention to the condition of his mouth at that time?

A. No, sir, nothing that I know of.

Q. Can you tell us any instance of ever looking in any other person's mouth under similar circumstances?

A. No. I have seen lots of people—

Q. With reference to your associates, people with whom you are acquainted? people who don't wear mustaches—can you tell who has missing teeth and who has not?

A. If you would particularly ask me I think I could.

Q. How many do you think you could tell?

A. I don't know.

Q. Do you know W. W. Nevison?

A. W. W. Nevison has not got good teeth.

Q. Has he got any teeth out?

A. I don't know certain; I never looked at them.

Q. You know him well?

A. I know him as well as I do any other lawyer there.

1262 Q. Do you know Mr. Horton?

A. B. J. Horton?

Q. Yes. A. Yes, I know him.

Q. You have seen him a great many times?

A. Yes, I have seen him often.

Q. Does he wear a mustache?

A. I couldn't tell you that.

Q. Another species of test that I would like to ask this gen-eman in reference to. Mr. B. J. Horton has lost one of his gs, has he not?
A. I have seen him going with a crutch.
Q. Can you tell me which leg is missing?
A. It is his right leg.
Q. Are you sure of that?
A. No, I think it is his left.
By the witness: If the Court please, I would like to explain ay—why my attention was called to that tooth in the first lace.
By Mr. Wheat: We are asking questions now. You spoke vith reference to a trunk that was brought up from Medicine Lodge.
A. I don't know whether it was brought up or not.
[A.] It was started from there?
A. Yes; there was some clothing—
Q. Where did you last see the trunk?
A. At Hutchinson, I believe.
Q. Have you not seen it in Lawrence? A. No, sir.
Q. What was done with it at Hutchinson?
1263 A. I don't know. It was in Mr. Baldwin's care.
Q. How do you know the shoes didn't arrive at Hutchinson? A. They were not in the wagon.
Q. Were those an especially valuable pair of shoes?
A. No, they were common shoes, but they were an extra-ordinary pair; I should judge tens.
Q. Were they any longer than the foot of the corpse re-quired?
A. I don't think they were any longer than the foot of that corpse.
Q. You think that the shoes, then, were appropriate for the foot of the corpse?
A. I think the shoes belonged to the corpse.
Q. The question is whether they were appropriate for the corpse? A. I should think so.
Q. The feet went to Lawrence, didn't they?
A. I suppose so.
Q. It is very easy to determine what length of shoes re-quired by the corpse is, [it]it not?
A. I couldn't tell. I know what shoes fit me.
Q. It would be easy to determine by the foot what size the shoes were? and is it not a matter of fact that shoemakers de-termine that constantly?
A. Yes. There was nothing peculiar about this pair. I should judge them to be tens or elevens.
Q. And the feet were long too?
A. Yes, looked so in the coffin.

Q. You think that those feet were tens or elevens, and that the shoes were tens or elevens?
A. I think the shoes were tens or elevens.
Q. Do you think the feet required tens or elevens?
A. I think they were pretty long feet.
Q. Do you know what length the feet were?
A. No sir; I don't know what length the corpse was.
Q. Do you know where Orrick is in Missouri?
A. Yes sir.
1264 Q. It has another name,—sometimes called Missouri City, is it not?
A. There is a little town over there I understood was called Orrick.
Q. You went there, did you, on this business?
A. Yes, I went there that time on my own solicitation.
Q. Were you not in the employ of one of these companies at that time? A. No sir, not at that time.
Q. Were you not paid for that trip?
A. Yes sir, afterwards.
Q. With whom did you go?
A. With young Brown and Buchan.
Q. Which one of the Browns—Reuben or John?
A. I don't remember the first name; one of the young men.
Q. It was not John Brown?
A. No sir, we went to see John Brown.
Q. About when was this as near as you can state?
A. It was a short time after the coroner's inquest.
Q. It was the next week, was it not?
A. It was a short time after.
Q. Will you explain to the jury what object you had in going there? A. I wanted to see John Brown.
Q. You saw John Brown in Lawrence, did you not?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That was the fore part of the week, after the inquest at Lawrence, that you went down there?
A. It was a short time after John got away from the sheriff there in Lawrence.
Q. What do you mean by that?
A. The sheriff had him under arrest and a guard with him, and he got away.
Q. What sheriff? A. H. S. Clark.
Q. Under what sort of process?
A. He had him arrested; a man by the name of 1265 Brockelsby was with him.
Q. How do you know that?
A. Only from hearsay.
Q. Who told you that?
A. Brockel told me he had been guarding him.

Q. Who is Brockel?
A. He was at that time on the police, or marshal force. He is now on a transfer.
Q. Who paid him for that work?
A. I don't know; I didn't.
Q. He told you he was guarding him? A. Yes sir.
Q. And Mr. Brown was going around there, around the city of Lawrence all the time just like any other citizen?
A. Yes sir. Brockel was with him most of the time. I never saw him but once and at that time he was with the sheriff.
Q. Has he ever been restrained one moment of his liberty?
A. I considered that he was at that time.
Q. On what business were you up in Valley Falls—for these insurance companies? A. Yes sir.
Q. During the inquest, you were there hunting witnesses, were you not? A. I went up to see Miss McCall.
Q. You have went around the country a good deal hunting witnesses, have you not? A. No sir.
Q. Been to several places? A. That was the only place.
Q. Did you not at that time search about Lawrence for witnesses?
A. I may have asked folks around Lawrence if they knew Hillmon; I think I did.
Q. Didn't you talk with Dr. Simmons on this subject?
A. Never.
1266 Q. Didn't you send your son to do it?
A. I never sent my son anywhere.

Redirect Examination.

Questions by Mr. Barker:
Q. State if you recognize that photograph (handing witness picture—Rep.) A. I do.
Q. It is a photograph of whom?
A. John W. Hillmon,—a good one too.
Q. Is that the Hillmon you have been speaking of?
A. Yes.
Q. Did you ever see a photograph of that kind before, like the one which I just showed you?
A. I have saw several.
Q. Where did you first see one like that?
A. The first one I seen like that—no, I saw some before that, but I saw one just like that in Mrs. Hillmon's mother's house.
Q. When?
A. I think it is about four years ago—four or five.
Q. Where?
A. In Mrs. Hillmon's mother's house, in the album.
Q. Where—in Lawrence?

A. No; up in Jefferson County—Jefferson County or Leavenworth County; it is very close to the line.

Q. They asked you in regard to your having acted as detective. I want you state now what other positions you have held in this State?

A. I have held so many—

Q. Just state now briefly; state if you were in the army?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Were you sheriff of Douglas County?

A. Four terms.

Q. City marshal? A. Three years.

1267 Q. Now you state you went after witnesses at this coroner's inquest. State who you solicited to go there to look at those remains?

A. Quite a number, but I could not state—

1268 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Ollie Walker, given upon the trial of 1885. It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Walker is not within the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereon read in evidence and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Ollie Walker, called for the defense, and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. Barker:

Q. State where you live?

A. In Chicago, Cook County, Ills.

Q. State if you formerly lived in Lawrence?

A. I did, sir.

Q. State if you are a son of the witness who has just left the stand, Colonel Walker, of Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. State how long you lived in Lawrence?

A. From the time I was born until 1872 or 1873, when I went to Texas and stayed until 1875; I came back to Lawrence then and stayed there until the winter of 1878, December.

Q. State if you were acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. I was, sir.

Q. State if you know the fact of certain remains being brought to the city of Lawrence in the month of April, 1879?

A. I do, sir.

Q. State if you remember the fact of a coroner's inquest being held over those remains? A. I do, sir.

Q. State if you saw those remains at any place, and if so, state where?

A. I saw those remains in the rear of Bailey & Smith's furniture store, sir.

Q. Who are Bailey & Smith?

A. A furniture firm on Massachusetts street, Lawrence.

Q. State when you saw them there first?
A. I saw them there at one or two o'clock of the day they arrived.
1269 Q. How long had you known John W. Hillmon?
A. As near as I can recollect, for a year before the accident.
Q. How many times did you see those remains?
A. Three different times.
Q. You may state whether or not those were the remains of John W. Hillmon? A. They were not.
Q. You may state if you know the condition of John W. Hillmon's teeth? A. I do, sir.
Q. You may state whether they were sound or whether he had lost a tooth? A. He had lost a tooth.
Q. You may state if you are able to identify that picture—(handing witness photograph—Rep.)
A. I am, sir.
Q. State of whom that is a picture?
A. John W. Hillmon.
Q. Is that a picture of the person whom you have been speaking of? A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination.

Questions by Mr. Wheat:
Q. State whether you ever saw any other corpse which had been dead as long as this one?
A. I think I have sir, yes, sir.
Q. Where? A. In Texas.
Q. Did you know the person?
A. I didn't know the person.
Q. Did know him in life? You mean the one I have reference to in life? A. I didn't know the person.
Q. Did you ever see the corpse of any person that you knew in life so long after death as this Hillmon corpse?
A. I can't say as I do sir, not quite as long. I don't know exactly how long this man was dead before I saw him.
Q. On which day in April was it that you saw this 1270 corpse in Lawrence?
A. I couldn't tell the date exactly, when it was.
Q. Supposing he died on the 18th of March; then you saw him at the time you did in April—What I want to get at is if you ever saw a corpse that had been dead as long as this corpse? A. I couldn't say I had.
Q. You know the changes in a corpse by that time are very considerable?
A. To a certain extent, I should say, yes.

Q. Do you know what change takes place during that time?

A. I should judge that was according to the climate the corpse was kept in.

Q. State whether the mold had begun to accumulate about the eyes, so far as you saw?

A. The first time I saw the corpse it was a little black under the eyes.

Q. I asked about the mold? A. No, sir.

Q. Hadn't the eyes become quite sunken?

A. No, sir, not the first time I saw him.

Q. How long was it between the first and last times you saw him? A. It was the following afternoon I saw it.

Q. You first saw him in Bailey & Smith's?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The following afternoon, where did you see him?

A. In the same place.

Q. Were his eyes quite sunken then?

A. They were more so than when I first saw him.

Q. A good deal more so? A. I couldn't say they were.

Q. Hadn't some decomposition set in at some other places than at the eyes when you first saw him?

A. In the face, do you have reference to?

1271 Q. Yes.

A. The color in the face had changed, some, yes.

Q. What was the color of the face; you spoke of black under the eyes.

A. The color of the face was the color of most dead persons, and hadn't changed to any great extent. It was white

Q. Do you mean it looked like a dead person's face say who had been dead just a day or two?

A. To some extent it did.

Q. Hadn't the jaw swollen, and when the bandage was taken off did not it fall open?

A. No, sir, not the first day.

Q. Was not the mouth open on the first day?

A. No, sir, the uper lip—

Q. Hadn't the lip dropped down the first day?

A. No, sir.

Q. Was it tied up? A. Yes, sir, it was tied up.

Q. When did you first know Hillmon?

A. As near as I can recollect, it was in the spring of 1878.

Q. How frequently did you see him from that time until the time of his death?

A. I could not say how frequently. I used to see him off and on,—probably every week for a couple of weeks, and then maybe not for two weeks.

Q. If I understand you then, you saw him first some time in the spring of 1878? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where? A. At my father's stable in Lawrence.

Q. In the spring of 1878? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How often did you see him during the remainder of the spring and summer of 1878? A. That I couldn't say.

Q. Well, state as near as you can?

1272 A. Probably twenty or twenty-five times, up to the last time I saw him.

Q. Now, about the spring and summer of 1878, how often did you see him?

A. That I could not say, because I kept no memorandum. I would make it at random twenty-five times.

Q. By the spring and summer I mean to end with the end of August? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Twenty-five times during the spring and summer?

A. I don't say twenty-five times. I say I guess that at random; twenty or twenty-five times.

Q. How many of those times will you fix during the summer months? A. Well, put it at half.

Q. And the balance of them in the spring, of course?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, you are as certain of that as anything you have testified to, are you?

A. Certainly not, sir, because I have no memorandum.

Q. Are you as certain that you saw him in the summer months as anything else you have testified to?

A. Certainly not, sir.

Q. Are you certain that you saw him at all during the summer of 1878 at Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Also in the spring? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you first notice this missing tooth?

A. I think it was late in the fall.

Q. Where were you? A. Right in the stable, sir.

Q. How came you to notice it?

A. I was standing there talking to him. He had a horse there; we were getting the horse ready for him to go out.

Q. That was the first time you ever noticed it?

A. Yes; we were standing there talking of some business that he was going to do.

Q. You had frequently talked to him before?

A. No, sir, not to any extent; I had had very little to say to him.

1273 Q. Do you pretend that you can remember with reference to the missing teeth of all the persons of your acquaintance that you have talked with, had conversation with?

A. I guess I could, sir, especially when they had a tooth out like that.

Q. What drew your attention to that particularly?

A. Because it was a tooth out just like mine.

Q. When was that tooth taken out? A. In 1871 or 1872.

Q. You know a great many people who have a tooth out in the same place, don't you?

A. I don't say as I do. I know of one gentleman who has.

Q. Don't you know of more than one?

A. I don't know as I do.

Q. Is not it a very common thing for a tooth to be out in that place?

A. I don't know but it is just as common as any other place in the mouth.

Q. It is just as common as any other place?

A. Certainly, sir.

Q. And you have never noticed any other but the one person? A. I don't know as I have, sir.

Witness dismissed.

1274 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Mrs. J. M. Dart, given upon the trial of 1885.

It is admitted by the parties that Mrs. Dart is not within the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Mrs. J. M. Dart, called for the defense, and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. Green:

Q. Where do you reside, Mrs. Dart? A. In Dallas, Texas.

Q. How long have you resided at Dallas?

A. Over three years.

Q. Where did you reside before going to Texas?

A. In Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. How long did you reside there? A. Abuot seven years.

Q. Did you know a person by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. I met such a person.

Q. Where did you meet Mr. Hillmon?

A. At Mr. Faxon's.

Q. William Faxon's? A. The butcher Faxon's.

Q. When was that, if you remember?

A. It was some little time before his wife died.

Q. Before Faxon's wife died? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was present there at the time you met him, if you remember?

A. Mrs. Sanders, her daughter and Mrs. Hillmon came in while I was in there.

Q. Were you introduced to him there at the house at that time? A. At the house, yes, sir.

Q. Did you notice anything with regard to his teeth,—whether they were perfect or imperfect.

A. I noticed they were imperfect.

1275 Q. In what respect? A. One being gone.

Q. Will you state which one? A. I cannot.

Q. Can you state in which jaw?

A. I am not positive, I can't state which one.

Q. Did you see him after that? A. No, sir.

Q. That is the only time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you in the room at the time you noticed this?

A. I was sitting at the foot of the lounge; Mrs. Faxon was lying on the lounge.

Q. Where was he?

A. He was sitting about opposite the centre of the lounge.

Q. How did you come to notice it?

A. There was some remark made about—

By Mr. Riggs: Don't state anything that was said.

Q. How came you to notice it—you need not state anything that was said? A. It was his laughing.

Q. There was some remark made in which he laughed, and you noticed it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recognize those pictures? (showing witness photographs.) A. I don't.

Q. You only saw him the once? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you recognize that picture? A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. You didn't see him often enough to recognize these pictures? A. No, sir, I only saw him the once.

Cross-Examination.

Questions by Mr. Riggs:

Q. How long was he in the room with you that evening?

A. Probably ten or fifteen minutes—not long.

Q. And you saw him laugh once? A. Once, yes, sir.

1276 Q. How many years ago was that?

A. It was before Mrs. Faxon died.

Q. How many years ago? A. I can't say.

Q. About how many years ago?

A. It was when Mrs. Hillmon had been married a few weeks. I can't give the date.

Q. You dont' remember what year it was, then?

A. No, sir.

Q. You can't testify to the teeth of all your friends that you have seen alive, can you? A. Not all.

Q. Do you think you could testify to the teeth of a good many of your friends in Lawrence?

A. I think I could, some.
Q. You were examined before in this case? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were asked at that time to testify and you gave the names of two persons whose teeth you could testify to?
A. I don't recollect.
Q. Didn't you testify to the teeth of Louis M....l?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you mention any other names than those of friends at Lawrence at that time?
A. I mentioned my husband's name.
Q. Any others? A. My children's, I think.
Q. Do you know Mr. Rudiger? A. Yes.
Q. You know him very well, don't you?
1277 A. Not very well.
Q. You have seen him a good many times?
A. Not very many times.
Q. Can't you say how his front teeth are?
A. I don't think I can.
Q. Do you know Mr. Albert Hadley? .A No, sir.
Q. Do you know John K. Rankin? A. By sight.
Q. You have seen him a good many times?
A. Never near.
Q. Do you know Mr. Osborn Shannon? A. No, sir.
Q. Not by sight? A. No, sir.
Q. Who is your family physician in Lawrence?
A. Dr. Smythe, now of Denver; Dr. Samuel Smythe.
Q. Can you state as to the condition of his front teeth?
A. He had good teeth.
Q. Do you swear to that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You swear that he had no teeth out?
A. I can't swear to that.
Q. No front teeth, I mean? A. I don't think he has
Q. Do you swear that he has not?
A. I can't swear to that.
Q. Do you know his brother? A. Dr. Frank?
Q. Yes, Frank H. Smythe? A. Not well.
Q. You have seen him frequently? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know as to his front teeth? A. No, sir.
Q. You live in Texas, do you not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Came here to testify in this case? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And for no other purpose? [—] No, sir.
Q. You came here once before to testify in this case, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. The companies pay your expenses here and back?
A. Yes, sir.

Witness dismissed.

1278 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Mrs. Harris given upon the trial of 1885.

It is admitted by the parties that Mrs. Harris is out of the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Mrs. Harris called for the defense, and after being duly sworn testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. Did you ever live in Lawrence? A. I did.

Q. Do you know how old you are? A. No, sir; I don't.

Q. Did you know Mrs. Hillmon?

A. I knowed Mrs. Hillmon well.

Q. Do you remember what her name was before she was married?

A. No, sir; I don't know what her parents' name was.

Q. Did you know John Hillmon? A. I knowed him.

Q. When did you become acquainted with him?

A. Before he was married.

Q. What was your opportunities of being acquainted with John W. Hillmon and Mrs. Hillmon?

A. I was going home—

Q. State whether or not you ever worked for them?

A. Yes, sir; I worked for them. I washed for Mrs. Hillmon.

Q. From what time to what time?

A. I have done some four or five washings for them.

Q. Before or after they were married?

A. Before or after they were married.

Q. What was Mrs. Hillmon doing when you became acquainted with her?

A. She was working for Mrs. Faxon. Then I took her place.

Q. Then you washed for them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember when Mr. Hillmon went away?

1279 A. I went away near about the time he went off. I was there when she was a fixing for him to go.

Q. Do you remember when you first saw Mr. Hillmon?

A. I remember it just as well as if it was yesterday. It was on Monday.

Q. Where was it that you saw him?

A. He had been there at Mrs. Faxon's, and I had been to town. I met him going to town as I came back.

Q. Did you ever talk with Mrs. Hillmon in regard to him?

A. Yes, sir; we both stopped there and talked.

Q. What did she say to you?

A. She said that is my lover. Said I, "It is?" She says, "He is worth a million of dollars."

Q. What did you do?

A. I said, "If he is worth a million dollars, have him."

Q. What did you do?

A. I never done anything, only walked in front of him.

Q. Why did you walk in front of him?

A. I wanted to see what he looked like.

Q. Did you observe what he looked like? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see anything peculiar about him then or at another time? A. He had one tooth gone.

Q. Was it after that that you washed for them?

A. Yes, it was after that.

Q. Do you remember anything in regard to a photograph?

A. I recollect of having a photograph, and recollect of its being scratched.

Q. Where was this photograph? A. At their house.

Q. Where did you see it? A. Lying on her stand.

Q. You spoke of her house; what do you mean?

A. She had rented a house.

Q. Do you remember with what family she was living at that time? A. I know whose house she was living in.

Q. Whose? A. A house they called Sudweek's.

1280 Q. Was that the house she was living in?

A. Yes sir, she was living there then.

Q. What I want to get at [it], where this photograph was —at whose house it was?

A. It was at the house she had rented herself.

Q. Where did you say it was?

A. It was lying on her stand, in a front room. Me and her lived together. That was the reason I came to see it.

Q. About when was that?—Before or after he went away?

A. After he went away.

Q. You say you saw the photograph again?

A. No, I said I saw it after he went away.

Q. What condition was it in?

A. When I see it it was all scratched up. She said she guessed some of the children had scratched it,—I don't know who it was.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with Mr. Hillmon?

A. Well, I had talked a good deal with him before he went away.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Riggs:

Q. When did you first see Mr. Hillmon—how long before he was married? A. It was not a great while.

Q. About how long. A. I reckon about six weeks.

Q. Where was he boarding about that time?
A. I don't know where he was boarding. She was staying at Mrs. Judson's. He was boarding there too, if I am not mistaken.
Q. That was the first time you ever saw him?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You saw him, then, when he came to Mrs. Judson's?
A. I saw him when he came from Mrs. Faxon's. He took Mrs. Hillmon away from there.
1281 Q. They were going away from Faxon's and you met them on the road, did you? A. Yes sir.
Q. And she said that was her beloved? A. Yes sir.
Q. And she said he was worth millions?
A. Yes sir, and I said, "Get him."
Q. And you turned around and looked at him?
A. Yes, I turned around and looked at him.
Q. You didn't have much talk with him? A. No.
Q. But you looked him in the face? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you saw he had a tooth out at that time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. How did you happen to notice that he had a tooth out?
A. He was laughing and talking.
Q I thought you said he was not talking?
A. He was not talking to me.
Q. How long did you stand there talking?
A. I didn't stay but a few minutes—not more than fifteen or ten.
Q. Was it after night?
A. No, it was before night. It was about supper time.
Q. Where was it in Lawrence?
A. It was on the west part of Lawrence.
Q. What street?
A. I could not tell you to save my life.
Q. It was standing upon the street was it? A. Yes sir.
Q. That was the first time you ever noticed that he had a tooth out?
A. Yes sir. After that I washed for them.
Q. When you washed for them, he was not by the wash-tub all the time, was he?
A. No, he was not. He was at home; I was at home
1282 washing.
Q. You took the washing to your house?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Mr. Hillmon was not there when you were washing for him? A. No.
Q. How many times did you ever see Mr. Hillmon?
A. I could not tell how many times.
Q. Could you state about how many times.

A. No, I could not tell.

Q. He was in there when you were washing for him?

A. No, he was not at the house when I was washing for him.

Q. Was there ever any circumstance for that statement except that statement of Mrs. Hillmon, that he was worth a million dollars, that directed your attention to his teeth?

A. I don't know whether there was.

Q. You would not undertake to speak about the teeth of any other man except Mr. Hillmon, would you? A. No.

Witness dismissed.

1283 Eleanor Faxon, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name, please? A. Eleanor Faxon.

Q. Where do you reside? A. Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. How long have you resided at Lawrence, Kansas?

A. Since the raid; after the raid.

Q. Have you resided there ever since?

A. No, I was not; I went down to Kansas City once or twice but I came back.

Q. Where were you residing in 1878? A. In Lawrence.

Q. Were you acquainted at that time with the plaintiff, Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know where you became acquainted with her?

A. I met her at Mr. Faxon's when his first wife was living.

Q. Mr. William Faxon? A. William T. Faxon.

Q. What was she doing there at that time, if you know?

A. Doing housework.

Q. When was that?

A. About 1872, somewhere along there; I don't just remember what year it was now.

Q. Do you remember about the time she was married?

A. I remember when she was married, but I don't remember the time or the date.

Q. When was it with reference to the time she was married; before or after?

A. That she was living at Faxon's?

Q. Yes.

A. She was living there before she was married.

Q. Can you tell about how long before?

A. No, not very long long, I don't think.

Q. Now, did you meet a man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes.

Q. When did you become acquainted with him?

A. I met him while she was working at Mr. Faxon's.

Q. Where did you meet him?
A. Met him at Mr. Faxon's.
Q. Do you know how he came to be there?
A. Came to see Miss Quinn.
84 Q. She was Miss Quinn, and he came to see her?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were there? A. I was there.
Q. What were you doing there?
A. Oh, I did the plain sewing, and I was there part of the me waiting on her.
Q. Do you remember about how long it was before they ere married that you met her there?
A. No, I don't remember just how long it was; not so very ng.
Q. How often did you meet him there at Mr. Faxon's?
A. Oh, I don't remember how often I met him; didn't take ny notice of it.
Q. Did you meet him there more than once?
A. Oh, yes, several times.
Q. Now, you say you know they were married. How do ou know? A. Because I saw them married.
Q. You were at the wedding? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where was that? A. Mrs. Judson's.
Q. Were you invited to the wedding? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, did you see Mr. Hillmon after that time?
A. Yes, sir, I saw him several times passing back and forth.
Q. Did you see him to converse with him prior to this wed- ing?
A. Why, yes, I met him and spoke to him quite often.
Q. And after that time did you see him to converse with im A. Yes.
Q. Now, you may state, Mrs. Faxon, if you ever noticed he condition of Mr. Hillmon's teeth?
A. I noticed he had one out in the front, either out or broken ff through to the gum.
Q. In which jaw was that tooth? A. Upper.
Q. In the upper jaw? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, you may state, Mrs. Faxon, if at any time you ever had any conversation with the plaintiff, Mrs. Hillmon, n regard to that tooth?
A. Yes, sir, I made the remark that the tooth being out spoiled his looks.
Q. What reply, if any, did she make?
A. She said he could have it put in.
1285 Q. When was that, before the marriage or after the marriage? A. Before they were married.
Q. Then you had noticed the absence of this tooth before they were married?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. What did you say your name was, madam?

A. Eleanor Faxon.

Q. Is it Mrs. Faxon or Miss, I didn't quite understand.

A. Mrs. Faxon.

Q. Are you married now? A. No, sir.

Q. What relation are you to the Faxon whom you have been talking about and as owning the home at which Mrs. Hillmon was?

A. W. T. Faxon; his first wife was living then when Mrs. Hillmon was there; I am the second wife.

Q. You say you are unmarried now?

A. I am a widow now.

Q. Were you his wife at the time of his death?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say you met Mr. Hillmon first at Mr. Faxon's?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember how long that was before his marriage to Miss Quinn?

A. No, I don't remember just how long it was.

Q. Of course, you couldn't tell just how long.

A. Not very long.

Q. Within a month or so, think you?

A. Oh, yes, a month or six weeks.

Q. Somewhere in that neighborhood. Did Miss Quinn go directly from the Faxon house to live with the Judson family at the time of her marriage; in other words, was she living at Faxon's at the time she was married?

A. No, she was living at Mrs. Judson's.

Q. How long before?

A. A few weeks; I don't remember just how long.

Q. You were employed in some capacity in the Faxon household at that time? A. Yes, sir.

1286 Q. And she was there too? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did you both work there together?

A. Not very long. I don't known; three or four weeks; until Mr. Hillmon came there.

Q. You say three or four weeks; did you continue to reside there at Faxon's after she left?

A. I did not reside there all the time; I went back and forth.

Q. You were in and out as your services were required?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. She was there all the time?

A. She was there all the time.
Q. Did you remain there during the evening and night?
A. No.
Q. You came there during the day? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What time did you usually go home?
A. Oh, I don't know; sometimes—
Q. Ordinarily. Did you stay there during the evening?
A. No, I didn't stay there during the evening.
Q. How many times during that three or four weeks do you say Mr. Hillmon came to the Faxon house?
A. He didn't come there only a few times.
Q. How many times did you see him there?
A. I didn't keep account of it.
Q. What is your best recollection about it?
A. Before they were married?
Q. Well, during the three or four weeks that you were working there and that she was staying there?
A. Half a dozen times, I guess.
Q. Did he come there in the day or evening? A. Day.
Q. The time that you met him there—was that the first time you met him?
A. Yes, the first time I ever met him.
Q. After that, where did you meet him, if at all, after she left there?
A. I would meet him on the road; I met him when he came to my house and as they passed back; they were there in the evenings at my house.
Q. What was your name at that time?
A. My name was Harrison.
1287 Q. He came to see you?
A. No, he didn't come to see me; they came to spend the evening.
Q. The two of them? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That occurred frequently?
A. Three or four times, I guess.
Q. And that all transpired prior to the time of the marriage? A. After the marriage.
Q. Three or four times, you say?
A. Yes, about that.
Q. When did these three or four times occur?
A. Evenings.
Q. I mean as to the time they were married; in October?
A. Yes, right after they were married.
Q. Shortly after they were married? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see him after he went away to the southwest on any of his trips and came back again?
A. No, I didn't see him.
Q. Didn't see him at any of those times? A. No.
Witness excused.

1288 W. T. Griffiths, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name if you please?

A. My name is W. T. Griffiths.

Q. Where do you reside?

A. In Reno township, Leavenworth county.

Q. What official capacity or office have you held?

A. I don't hold any.

Q. Have you held any?

The plaintiff objects as immaterial; objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. Well, yes, I have held the office of trustee of my township.

Q. How long have you resided in Leavenworth county, Mr. Griffiths?

A. Well I have made Leavenworth county my home for about, well, since 1876.

Q. Where were you residing before that time?

A. Well, I made it my home in Jefferson county; my folks lived in Jefferson county, the south part of the county, Jefferson county; that was my home, that is, I called it my home and made it my home up until I had a home of my own in this county.

Q. Where were you residing about the years 1871 and 1872?

A. Well I made it my home, I called my mother's place my home at the time. Well, I wasn't there but very little of the time; it was my home though in Jefferson county, the south part of Jefferson county.

Q. Did you know a man by the name of Levi Baldwin?

A. I used to know Levi Baldwin, yes.

Q. Where did you know him?

A. Well, I knew him both in Douglas county and in Leavenworth county.

Q. Where was he living in Douglas county?

A. He lived when my folks came to the state, when we first came to the State of Kansas, he lived up the river; the firstyear we were in Kansas we lived right near him, right near his father and I knew him at the time.

1289 Q. How far west was that from Lawrence?

A. About five miles.

Q. West?

A. West; he lived right up the river north of west.

Q. Do you know when he went from there to Leavenworth county; about the time?

A. Well, yes, about the time; I don't know whether I could tell the exact time or not; I could tell right close.

Q. Did you work for him at any time? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was that while he was residing in Leavenworth county? A. Yes.

Q. About what year was that?

A. Well, to the best of my recollection [—] was 1872; I worked for him in 1872 is my best recollection.

Q. Now, did you ever know a man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you become acquainted with him and when?

A. I became acquainted with him to the best of my recollection in 1871, with John W. Hillmon.

Q. What was he doing at the time you became acquainted with him, if you know?

A. He was herding cattle, or he was awhile I think; I am quite confident he was herding cattle; anyway he had charge of a bunch of cattle.

Q. What were you doing when you were working for Baldwin? A. I worked on the farm; done general farm work.

Q. Had you been herding cattle before that in that vicinity?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. The year before I worked for Mr. Baldwin I herded cattle.

Q. Whereabout was the range?

A. Well, it was—I herded just south adjoining Mr. Hillmon's herd or his bunch of cattle, just on the range just south at one of Governor Robinson's places, and still north—Mr. Hillmon was still north of me.

Q. Now, you may state Mr. Griffiths whether you saw him frequently at that time?

A. Well, yes, we became—I became acquainted with him along shortly after the herds wen out onto grass; I was with him quite frequently on the prairie, at watering places,
1290 and so forth as cowboys would always try to get together when possible.

Q. Did you meet him at social gatherings?

A. Well, the following winter, I did yes, sir, fall and winter, I met him at some parties, socials and so on.

Q. In what neighborhood was that?

A. Well, right there in the neighborhood, right there in the immediate neighborhood there.

Q. Did you know the plaintiff, Mrs. Hillmon at that time?

A. Not at that time. I became acquainted with Mrs. Hillmon, as I suppose it was Mrs. Hillmon afterwards. I became acquainted with her while I worked for Mr. Baldwin; became acquainted with her family.

Q. Will you describe the appearance of John W. Hillmon, Mr. Griffiths, in a general way?

A. Well, Mr. Hillmon was a man of medium size, medium height, and a good looking young man.

Q. Do you remember the color of his hair?

A. Well, he had dark hair or brown hair, brown hair, I think I would call it, yes sir.

Q. What was his carriage?

A. He was straight, stood erect, very nice looking man.

Q. In regard to his general build, what do you say?

A. My recollection of Mr. Hillmon was he was a well built man, he is a fairly well built man, fairly well built, square shoulders.

Q. In regard to his hands and feet; do you remember in regard to those?

A. Well, I don't know that I do particularly, now, more than he was a very nicely proportioned man; that is my recollection now.

Q. Now, you may state, Mr. Griffiths, if you ever observed his teeth?

A. Well, yes, he had, Mr. Hillmon had a tooth out in front, or I don't know, I don't know that it was direct in front, but he had a tooth out that was visible to most any one.

Q. Now, after this time that you knew Mr. Hillmon in that neighborhood did you see him again?

A. I don't understand you.

Q. I say, after the time that you became acquainted with him in 1871, did you see him after that?

A. Oh, yes, I seen him frequently after that.

1291 Q. For about how long, do you remember?

A. Well, I don't think I seen Mr. Hillmon—I left that neighborhood in the fall of 1872; I worked for Levi Baldwin in the spring—

The plaintiff objects to the answer as not responsive to the question.

Q. You left the neighborhood?

A. I left the neighborhood late in the fall of 1872 and I went to Texas, and I didn't see Mr. Hillmon any more until, well, 1876 or 1877.

Q. Where did you see him then?

A. I met him in Lawrence.

Q. When did you next see him if you saw him at all?

A. Well, I seen him, I met him frequently after I had returned; I seen him frequently then; I would meet him in Lawrence perhaps; I think I met him once or twice in Tonganoxie, later though.

Q. About when was it that you last saw him, Mr. Griffiths?

A. My best recollection is I saw him last in the winter, the latter part of the winter of 1879; the last time I seen him, I think to the best of my recollection it was the latter part of the winter of 1879, perhaps January or February 1879.

Q. Where did you meet him at that time?

A. I met him at that time in John Eldridge's livery stable in North Lawrence, and walked with him across onto the other side of the river and had a talk with him that day.

Q. Where was Eldridge's livery stable located, please?

A. On Bridge Street in North Lawrence.

Q. That would be on the north side of the river?

A. On the north side, yes sir.

Q. About how far from the bridge? A. Well—

Q. In a general way?

A. Well, I should judge probably 20, 25 to 30 rods; something like that.

Q. Now, did you have a conversation with him in Eldridge's livery stable?

A. He and I talked a while in Eldridge's livery stable.

Q. Did you observe his tooth at that time or his teeth at that time?

1292 The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. I don't remember whether I did at that time or not; I can't remember now whether I did at that time or not.

Q. Well, did you have a conversation with him regarding his teeth at that time?

A. I don't remember whether I did at that time or not I couldn't say whether I did that time or not; we were busy talking of other things.

Q. Did you meet him in the fall of 1878?

A. Why, yes, I met him frequently in 1878.

Q. Was that after he was married or before?

A. Well, I think—I can't remember about that; the last time that I seen him was the first time to my best recollection, was the first time I knew that he was married; the first time I knew he was married was the last time I seen him; that is my recollection. Of course, I am not altogether clear on that subject, though I know the last time I seen him we talked—the reason I remember that so well it was just after he was married; we talked about it and he told me at that time—

The plaintiff objects to the witness telling what he was told.

Q. Was reference made to the condition of his teeth at that time, in that conversation? A. I couldn't say whether—

Q. Did you at any time in your recollection have a conversation with him in regard to his teeth?

The plaintiff objects to the quesiton as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember where that was?
A. Well, it was at a party; I remember that; I think it was at a man's by the name of Torrence where we were and he was there.
Q. About when was that Mr. Griffiths?
A. That must have been—I rather think that that was in the winter of 1871 or spring of 1872, somewheres along 1293 in there, somewhere along in there about that time.
Q. Do you remember the fact of a body being brought to Lawrence in the spring of 1879, claimed to be that of Mr. Hillmon? A. I heard of it, yes, sir.
Q. Did you see the body? A. No, sir.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:
Q. When did you first tell this tale, Mr. Griffiths, to the insurance companies, agents or lawyers?
A. Right here in the chair.
Q. Never [have] told it to them before that time?
A. No, sir.
Q. When you came here you didn't know what they had subpoenaed you about, did you? A. No, sir.
Q. You knew nothing of being a witness or that you were expected to be a witness until the paper was served on you to come up here? A. I never knew anything about it.
Q. So far as any statement made by you is concerned, these gentlemen over there didn't know what you did know about it? A. No, sir.
Q. Now, you say that your first acquaintance with Hillmon dates back to 1871, as your recollection serves you.
A. 1871 is my recollection.
Q. I understand that is all anybody can swear to, his best recollection. At that time, the tooth was out? A. Well—
Q. It was noticeable, I believe you said?
A. My first recollection of his tooth being out was being with him at parties.
Q. Well, then, it was not so noticeable, the absence of that tooth that you noticed it [—] you first became acquainted with him? A. I don't remember as to that.
Q. You remember meeting him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you remember the tooth being out? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the absence of it was quite noticeable?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, then, you say you saw a good deal of him in the summer of 1871? A. Yes, sir.
1294 Q. And then you met occasionally socially during the summer or winter of 1871 and '2? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And it was sometime during that time that you noticed that his tooth was out? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How does your recollection serve you as to being out from the beginning, so far as you know?
A. It possibly was out; I can't remember.
Q. You have testified as your recollection serves you?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was there anything that fixed it in your mind that made you come to discover it suddenly or anything important for some time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. The tooth was gone? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is a fact, is it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was in the winter of 1871-2?
A. About that time, yes, sir.
Q. Did you ever notice it before this time that you mentioned when you met him at parties and noticed it?
A. I don't remember whether I noticed it; I can't remember as to that, whether I might have noticed it.
Q. You recollection does not cause you to say it was not out during the summer of 1871? A. No, sir.
Q. You don't remember much about that one way or the other at that time? A. No, sir.
Q. Now, your intercourse, practically that summer, was meeting occasionally on the range? A. On the range, yes, sir.
Q. Talking together? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did that occur very frequently during that summer?
A. Well, yes, quite frequently, yes, sir.
Q. And the absence of this tooth was noticeable in conversation?
A. Well, I say I don't remember whether it was that summer or not; I don't remember during the summer.
Q. What I am asking you is was it noticeable when you talked with him? A. Yes, sir.
1295 Q. Now, how does your recollection serve you as to his having a tooth out during that summer?
A. If I would be allowed to explain—
Q. Just answer my question how your recollection serves you as to whether it was in at that time?
A. I could not say whether it was or was not; I could not say as to that; I don't remember as to that.
Q. You remember that you knew him but a short time?
A. I do.

Q. You remember that the absence of the tooth was very noticeable. Just answer that question. A. I remember—

Q. Is that a fact; the absence of the tooth was quite noticeable. Is that a fact? A. Well, yes, I will say yes.

Q. Yet you don't know when it was that you first noticed that it was out? A. Yes, I do.

Q. Didn't you say that you could not tell whether it was in 1871 or not, the summer of 1871?

A. I didn't aim to say that.

Q. Now let us get at the fact. Do you now remember whether or not that tooth was absent, the one you are speaking of, was out during the summer when you used to associate with him on the range in 1871?

A. I don't remember about the tooth during the summer.

Q. The fact is that the first you remember of meeting and knowing Hillmon was in the summer of 1871? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you remember that tooth's absence was noticeable?

A. I remember the tooth.

Q. Just answer the question, the absence of the tooth was noticeable, that is a fact, is it not? A. Well, yes.

Q. And yet you don't remember whether the tooth was in or out during the summer of 1871; that is a fact, too, is it not?

A. The fall of 1871 was the first—

Q. Just answer my question, please. Is it a fact, you cannot say that your recollection does not serve you to say whether that tooth was out or in his head in the summer of 1871?

A. I say that I don't remember as to the—

Q. That is all? A. That summer.

1296 Q. That is what I understood you to say. You say that after that you met him occasionally?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And he was out west part of the time, you say; I suppose you met him when he came back? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How frequently did you see him after his marriage?

A. I have no recollection of having met him but once after he was married; I may have met him oftener than that.

Q. You know as a matter of fact he went away shortly after his marriage and was gone most of that winter preceding the time it was claimed he was killed?

A. Yes, sir; I think so; that is my understanding.

Redirect Examination.

By Mr. Green:

Q. Mr. Griffiths, you say there is some circumstance by which you recollect that in the winter of 1871 that the tooth was out. State what that incident was, if you please?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. It was at a party along in the fall or winter of 1871; he remarked—Hillmon and I were joshing each other; he was joshing me about being bald-headed, and I was after him about his snag teeth.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as not responsive to the question. Motion overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Witness [excepts.]

1297 The defendant read in evidence the deposition of Henry Hillmon, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name, age and place of residence.

A. My name is Henry Hillmon. I am fifty-three years old. I reside in Lamar county, Texas.

Q. Please state your father's name?

A. Benjamin Hilmon.

Q. Is he living or dead? A. He is dead.

Q. Where did he die?

A. He died in Jefferson County, Kansas, about four miles northeast of Valley Falls.

Q. What was the cause of his death?

A. He was killed in a coal bank.

Q. Had you any brothers or sisters?

A. I had at that time two brothers and two sisters.

Q. State their names.

A. There was John Wesley Hilmon, Mary E. Hilmon, who is now Mary E. Nichols, and Martha J. Hillmon who is now Mrs. Martha J. McCoy, and Wm. G. Hilmon.

Q. When and where did you last see John W. Hilmon, your brother?

A. It was on the stream called the Picket Wire in Colorado north of Trinidad. I was encamped there when he came along.

Q. When was that?

A. It was in 1877 or 1878 somewhere between the 20th of August and the first of September.

Q. Who was with him?

A. There were ten to fifteen men with him the only

1298 one of whom I know was a partner of his named Jack Brown.

Q. What were they doing?

A. They were leaving teh buffalo range, going north with a bull-train.

Q. When had you last seen John W. Hillmon previous to this time?

A. It was three or four years before I was with him on the buffalo range on the head waters of McClelland Creek in the Texas Panhandle.

Q. How did you come to be with him there?

A. Marshal Sewell and my brother John W. Hilmon hired me to go out and skin buffalo for them.

Q. Where had you last seen him before that time?

A. It was in the neighborhood of two or three years, at Leavenworth City, Kansas.

Q. Had you seen him frequently before that?

A. I had seen him every two or three weeks since I left the service in 1865. We were boys brought up together until I went into the army.

Q. Describe your brother's appearance beginning with his height.

A. He was about five feet ten inches, in his boots; high square shoulders, his body tapering to the hips; his hair light brown; light mustache and light whiskers, light in color and thin set. He had very sharp keen brown eyes.

Q. What was the shape of his nose?

A. It was inclined to be high at the bridge and the point turned to one side which was occasioned by a knock of some kind.

Q. Describe his hands and feet.

A. He had very shapely hands and feet.

Q. Do you know what size boot he wore?

A. When he bought a fine boot, he got about a five and a half, I think.

Q. State the character of his teeth.

A. He had nice even teeth, but one of his front teeth was destroyed and broken off. It first turned black from a knock or something of the kind and afterwards began to decay and broke off on one side.

Q. Did he show his teeth plainly when he laughed?

A. Mediumly plain.

Q. Did you know of his having been wounded in the hand?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants at the time duly excepted.

A. Yes, I heard he was so wounded. When I left the buffalo range and went to Dodge City some buffalo hunters told me John had had his hand torn by a cartridge, down on the range.

HENRY HILLMON.

1299 The defendants, and each of them, next offered in evidence the testimony of William Hillmon given upon the trial of 1896.

It is admitted by the parties that William Hillmon is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence to the court and jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

William Hillmon.

William Hillmon, called, on behalf of defendants, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Direct Examination.

By Mr. Green:

Q. What is your name? A. William Hillmon.

Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Hillmon?

A. For the last 18 months I have been at Cripple Creek, Colorado, or within that vicinity.

Q. What is your business, Mr. Hillmon?

A. Mining and prospecting.

Q. How long have you followed that, Mr. Hillmon?

A. Well, that's been my principal work since 1871 with the exception of about six years I was on the west plains hunting buffalo.

Q. Now where did you formerly reside?

A. Jefferson County, Kansas, Valley Falls.

Q. What relation are you to Mrs. Nichols, who just testified? A. She is my sister.

Q. What other brother and sisters do you have?

A. I had one other sister, and two brothers.

Q. What were the names of your brothers?

A. The oldest was Henry Hillmon, second John W. Hillmon, and sisters, Mary E. Hillmon and Margaret J. Hillmon, who is now Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. McCoy.

Q. When did you leave Valley Falls?

A. I left Valley Falls the 4th of July, 1869.

Q. Had you been residing at home up to that time?

A. I had with the exception of about 11 months in 1864, I went up through Jonathan County and Atchison County, and was gone about 11 months.

1300 Q. Was your brother John W. Hillmon living there up to that time?

A. My brother John W. Hillmon lived there up to 1864 and went up north and stayed a year to the next fall, 1865. In the fall of '65 after he had been discharged he came back home.

Q. Did he stay there for that time as long as you stayed there? A. No, sir.

Q. Where was he, do you know?

A. In the spring of 1868 [we] left home and went on the plains.

Q. Did he return again before you went away?

A. He did some time that fall; came down here on some business and went out home and stayed over night, as near as I can remember.

Q. Now all this time prior to 1869 did you know, and do you know the condition of his teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the condition of his teeth at that time?

A. Well I can't say just the time they began to decay but at the time he left home in 1864, one tooth had begun to decay before he left home at the age of 17, or a little past that.

Q. And did you notice that in 1869, when he was there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the condition at that time?

A. A little bit worse.

Q. Now did you see John W. Hillmon after you left there in 1869? A. Did I see John W. after I left in 1869?

Q. Yes, sir. A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you next see him?

A. Central City, Colorado.

Q. What year was that, do you remember? A. 1872.

Q. How long did you see him there at that time?

A. He came there at Central City some time along in May, 1872, and we worked together and didn't leave that country together until along September, 1872, he went off to hunt, and before he came back I went down on the plains and went to hunting buffalo.

Q. Did you see him again after that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you next see him?

A. The next time I met him I think it was some time
1301 early in 1875--early in 1875—might have been some time in January. It was early in 1875 that I run onto him south of the Canadian river or down there pretty near—in the southwestern corner of Kansas.

Q. When was the last time you saw John W. Hillmon?

A. It was some time in July, 1878.

Q. Where did you see him at that time?

A. It was at a creek called Yellow Horse; out on the edge of the [state] plains.

Q. Was he there with you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long was he there?

A. We got together there sometime along in June it must be—I don't know—along about June.

Q. Where did you first meet him at this time?

A. A place called Redbud.

Q. Who was with him at that time?

A. He came down there alone.

Q. Did any one join him while you and he were there together at this time? A. No, sir, not there.
Q. Now, where did you and he go from Redbud?
A. Went down to Sandrock Spring at McCaney's store.
Q. How long were you together at that time, Mr. Hillmon?
A. It must have been something like six weeks we were knocking around that country together.
Q. Now, during this time, did any one join him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was that?
A. Well, sir, we run,—we got with his outfit.
Q. Whose was that?
A. John W.'s outfit—his hunting outfit all came to us; overtook us at McCaney's store, and one of these fellows was named Gilbert; the other fellow I didn't know what his name was; and after we pulled back on the plain, then his partner Jack Brown came up there to us at ..... House.
Q. The one you call Jack Brown, do you know his other name? A. No, sir; they called him Jack Brown.
Q. What did this outfit consist of?
A. It consisted of four teams; there was either 31 or 32 yoke of cattle and large steer, and I believe about 3 wagons.
Q. Do you know where he got that outfit?

302 Objected to as immaterial. Sustained.

By Mr. Barker: After we make certain proofs, we will want to know in regard to that.

Q. Now, when did you part with John W. at this time, if you remember?
A. Well, I haven't got exactly recollection of dates, simply because I lose track of time out that way, and we don't know what day of the month it is, Sunday or any other time; but it was sometime the latter part of July we parted.
Q. What year? A. 1878.
Q. Have you ever seen him since? A. No, sir.
Q. Do you remember, Mr. Hillmon, the condition of his teeth at that time? A. They were bad.
Q. Well, how bad were they, if you remember?
A. They were that bad that every storm he was bothered with the toothache—every rain or storm—anything of that description, he would be bothered with the toothache. He had one root that broke off, and afterwards got one on each side of it had partly broke of, and all of them you might say showed they began to turn black around the roots, or decayed.
Q. Do you know the condition of the teeth of the Hillmon family?

Objected to as incompetent—sustained.

Q. Now, Mr. Hillmon, do you know whether your brother John W. was in the habit of using tobacco?

A. He wasn't a constant user of tobacco, but I have seen him chew and smoke both—it was nothing uncommon.

Q. And when was that that you have seen him using tobacco?

Objected to as incompetent and immaterial—overruled.

Q. When did you see him using tobacco?

A. At times that I have been with him.

Q. Now, was there anything at the time you were with him last time, any circumstance which called your attention particularly to his teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was it? A. He had the toothache.

Adjourned until 2 o'clock. Mrs. Nixon and Geo. W. Nichols recalled first by plaintiff on convening of court in afternoon.

1303 Saturday afternoon, March 21, 1896.

Cross-Examination. (William Hillmon.)

By Mr. Wheat:

Q. Mr. Hillmon, when did you say your brother's teeth first began to decay?

A. I can't say the exact date they began to decay.

Q. As near as you can?

A. They was decayed when he left home in 1864.

Q. How old was he then? A. Something past 17.

Q. Was that before or after he was in the army?

A. Before he was in the army.

Q. Which one of his teeth was it?

A. It was the left hand tooth on the upper jaw.

Q. Was he not born in 1848—was he more than 16 in 1864?

A. He was born in 1847 I guess.

Q. How much was that tooth decayed at that time?

A. I couldn't say exactly how much it was decayed, but enough to be aching.

Q. Was any other teeth decayed at that time?

A. I don't know whether there was at that time.

Q. Or any other discolored at that time, '64 I am talking about now? A. I can't say that there were.

Q. How long was he gone at that time?

A. Something in the neighborhood of 18 months—16 or 18 months. Something like that.

Q. Then he came back and stayed some time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did he leave again?

A. He left in the spring of '68.

Q. Where did he go to? A. Went out on the plains.

Q. What part of the plains?

A. Went out west of Junction City—pretty much all over the plains.
Q. When did he come back?
A. He was back in the fall of 1869.
Q. Back in the fall of '69? A. Yes, sir.
1304 Q. At Valley Falls?
A. Yes, sir, came back home and stayed over night.
Q. You were living on the farm? A. Yes, sir.
Q. The whole family was living there?
A. Yes, sir, all except the oldest brother.
Q. He stayed over night? A. That is my recollection.
Q. Did you notice his teeth then? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What teeth were discolored, do you claim then?
A. Well, this same tooth was discolored some; probably some others began to show at that time.
Q. What do you say?
A. I say this tooth was discolored at that time, and probably some others was discolored.
Q. I want to know what you remmber about it?
A. My recollection is from the time he left home,—
Q. Never mind about that; we are talking about 1869, when he was there at that time, just what others was discolored then?
A. Well, he had one tooth discolored at that time.
Q. Well, how about the others?
A. He had one discolored.
Q. How about the others at that time?
A. There might have been some others.
Q. I ain't talking about what "might have been"; I want to know your memory?
A. I recollect distinctly he had a discolored tooth at that time.
Q. You spoke about some others—you may state what the conditions were at the time if you remember?
A. I said they might have been discolored.
Q. I didn't ask you what they might have been; I ask you of you remember?
A. I don't remember definitely that there was at that time.
Q. He went away again? A. Don't know—
[—] Where did he go?
A. I don't know; I didn't go with him.
Q. How long did you stay about Valley Falls then?
A. I stayed around that country until 1869.
1305 Q. Where did you go to then? A. I went west.
Q. Where did you go—where west did you go?
A. How far west?
Q. Yes sir, where did you go in 1869 when you left?
A. Went out to St. Mary's Mission.

Q. How long did you stay there? A. A short time.
Q. Well how long?
A. Might have been a month and a half.
Q. Where did you go from there? A. Ellsworth.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. I was around there until,—around there probably two months.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Went to Ft. Simms.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A Was there perhaps a month and a half.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. Came back to Ellsworth.
Q. How long did you stay there? A. Over night.
Q. Where did you go from there? A. Denver.
Q. How long did you stay there?
(Didn't catch answer.)
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Went to Golding.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. About, only a few hours.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Went to Black Hawk.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. Ain't positive whether I stayed over night or not there.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Central City.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. Was around that country something like a year and a half.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Came back on the plains.
Q. What part of the plains?
A. Down about Ft. Wallace.
Q. How long did you stay about Ft. Wallace?
A. I was in that section of the country, there between the Platte and Arkansas something like 3 or 4 years.
Q. What was you doing? A. Hunting buffalo.
Q. When did you leave that section of country between the Platte and the Arkansas?
A. I went south of the Arkansas.
1306 Q. When?
A. Went south of the Arkansas in the fall of 1874.
Q. Did you remain in the country about Ft. Wallace between the Platte and the Arkansas all that time?
A. Yes sir, around in that section.
Q. Then you went south of the Arkansas?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Which part?
A. About the southwest part of Kansas.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. During that winter, fall of 1874 and spring of '75.
Q. When did you leave there?
A. The following spring.
Q. The spring of 1875? A. 1875.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. On the K. P. around Wallace.
Q. How long did you stay there? A. A short time.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. North of the K. P. probably.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. Couple of weeks probably, something like that.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Went back south to Dodge City.
Q. That's in Kansas—Dodge City, Kansas? A. Yes sir.
Q. How long did you stay there?
A. Might have stayed there over night, or a day or two there.
Q. About what day of the month and year was that, as near as you can tell?
A. Must have been somewhere, something like the fore-part of August.
Q. What year? A. 1875.
Q. '75? A. Yes sir.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. I don't know exactly; must have been over night.
Q. Where did you go to from there? A. South.
Q. Which way? A. Southwest.
Q. How far? A. I don't know exactly the distance.
Q. As near as you can tell?
A. I might be a poor judge of distances.
1307 Q. How far was that?
A. Might be a poor judge of distance.
Q. Give us your judgment?
A. I was over that country anywhere from forty to one hundred miles south and west of Dodge.
Q. What were you doing there? A. Hunting.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Until some time in November, about the fore part of November.
Q. What year? A. '75.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Came back to Dodge.
Q. How long did you remain there at Dodge?
A. Only a very short time.
Q. Where did you go from there?

A. Went back south.
Q. What part of the country?
A. Back towards the Panhandle of Texas.
Q. What were you doing? A. Hunting.
Q. How long did you remain in that section?
A. Might have camped a week or more in that place.
Q. How long was you out on that trip?
A. In fact the trip didn't wind up—ain't wound up yet.
Q. How long did you remain in that section of the country? If I understand, you were engaged in hunting buffalo?
A. Yes sir.
Q. How long were you engaged in hunting buffalo in that section of the country?
A. I was around through that section of the country there until along December.
Q. What year?
A. 1875, in that state—I put out, in fact wound up at Griffin, Texas.
Q. What time were you at Griffin, Texas?
A. Some time in the fore part of January, 1876.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Couldn't say just how long.
Q. As near as you can tell?
A. Couldn't say just how long I was there.
Q. I ain't asking you to give the exact time—as near as you can?
A. I was around in that section of country, in west
1308 of there, northwest and southwest, until the fall of 1878.
Q. Didn't you come out of that country during that time? A. No sir.
Q. Well how far from Ft. Frinnin was you at that time?
A. I was around there within,—well, from Ft. Griffin it was probably 350 miles west of Ft. Griffin.
Q. How far from the Mexico line was you at that time?
A. That would take it down I guess into New Mexico, south of where the line is.
Q. How long did you remain in that section of the country?
A. I remained in that section of the country from the spring of 1876, until the fall of 1878.
Q. Where dod you go to then? To Ft. Counsul.
Q. Which way is that from St. Angelo?
A. Just across the creek from St. Angelo.
Q. How long did you remain there? A. That winter.
Q. Then where did you go to? A. Went to New Mexico.
Q. That brings you up to the spring of 1879? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where along in 1879 did you leave the Ft. Counsul country?

A. It must have been something like the neighborhood of May—something like the fore part of May.
Q. Then you went to what place?
A. Went to Silver City.
Q. What state or territory?
A. Silver City, New Mexico.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Lived at Silver City the whole, I believe, of that summer.
Q. Around there the summer of 1879?
A. Yes sir, the summer of 1879.
Q. Well how much longer, if at all, did you stay there?
A. Left there that fall, and went to Colorado.
Q. What place in Colorado?
A. San Francis Range, east of the San Luis Valley.
1309 Q. Into the range?
A. Yes, sir, into the mountains.
Q. What did you do there? A. Prospecting.
Q. How long did you remain there? A. That winter.
Q. When you left there, where did you go?
A. Uncompahgre river.
Q. When did you go to the Uncompahgre river?
A. I think in May.
Q. To the river or mountains?
A. I went to Uncompahgre river first.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Well on that river a little while.
Q. What part of the river—no city there?
A. No, there was no city there.

(The Court suggests that attorney has gone far enough, but Mr. Wheat wants to proceed,—allowed).

Q. From Uncompahgre where did you go to?

A. Your Honor I think the attorney should take a trip himself, if he wants to get an idea of that country.

By the Court: You may answer and they will object when they want.

A. Up from there, up to Ouray.
Q. Was this the city, you mean? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Remained around there in that section of the country until the fall of 1885.
Q. Until the fall of '85? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You reached Ouray about what time?
A. Went in there the 25th of June, 1880, and remained around in that section of the country until the fall of 1885.
Q. Where did you go then?

A. Went off further—took in the northwest part of the state, round up to Leadville—round in that country there.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Along until the spring of '88.
Q. Where did you go to then?
A. Went to the southern part of the state, on the Platte course.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Remained there until the fall of '90.
Q. Where did you go then? A. Came home.
Q. What do you mean by "home"?
A. Back to Valley Falls.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Only a short time.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. Went back to the plateaus.
Q. Where is that?
A. On the east side of the divide—on the east side of the Conejos river, about 63 miles north [—] the Colorado line.
1310 Q. North of the Colorado line?
A. Yes, sir, on the nort-east north of the Colorado line.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Until the spring, until the latter part of April.
Objected to—overruled.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Went from there to Salt Lake City.
Q. When did you reach Salt Lake City?
A. The next day after I got there.
Q. I ask you when you reached Salt Lake City?
A. Some time in the spring—in,—I can't tell the exact date; the latter part of April, or fore part of May.
Q. What year? A. 1891.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Boise City, Idaho.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Probably a week.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Went up to Washington—
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Over night I believe.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Took a trip around south of Little Carps (?) north of there, and then back to Boise City.
[—] How long did you remain there?
A. A week, or such a matter.
Q. Where did you go then? A. Rock Creek, Idaho.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Remained there a month and a half.

Q. Where did you go from there? A. On Wood river.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. No longer that I could travel and get out.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Over to Salmon Creek.
Q. When did you reach there? A. Some time in July.
Q What year? A. 1891.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. Went down the Salmon River.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. I don't think I laid off anytime; went down Sal-
1311 mon river to the mouth of the —— river; went up Salmon river to the head of it; up to the Bitter Root river, and down the Bitter Root river to the Missouri river; went down the Missouri River; went down then until about 20 miles of Congra Lake; cut across the mountains and went to Wallace and from there to Wardner; left Wardner and went to Old Mission, Idaho, and from there took the train and went to Spokane Falls, Washington.
Q. When did you reach there?
A. Must have been getting along to August, 1891.
Q. After you left there,—?
A. After left Spokane Falls I came back to Aspin, Colorado.
Q. When did you reach there?
A. Last of August, or first of September, 1891.
Q. How long did you remain in that section?
A. Remained there until 12th of January, 11th of January.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. To Creede, Colorado.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. A month or six weeks—along there for pretty near two months.
Q. About when did you leave there?
A. Left there along in March,
Q. What year? A. 1892.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. Went back to the plateau.
Q. How long did you remain there? A. That summer.
Q. Where did you go from there? A. To Rico.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Something like three or four months.
Q Where did you go from there?
A. Went down then to the gold excitement on the Lower San Juan that winter.
Q. How long did you remain there? A. That winter.

Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Came back to the plateau.
Q. How long remain there? A. Part of the summer.
1312 Q. Where did you go then?
A. Went back down there—
Q. When was that date? A. When I went back there?
Q. Yes, sir, the last time you spoke of? A. 1894.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Went there in the fall of '94.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Cripple Creek, Colorado.
Q. When did you reach Cripple Creek? A. April (?)
Q. What year? A. 1894.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. Remained in that section of the country until the 11th day of last month.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. Came to Valley Falls.
Q. And you have been about Valley Falls and here since that, have you? A. Yes, sir, and out west the other day.
Q. State whether you have seen Mr. Schleppy—and Mr. W. W. Nichols? A. Whether I saw them or not?
Q. Yes, sir, anywhere in the western country when you was out there, on these trips you have been mentioning?
A. Yes, sir, I saw Mr. Schleppy in 1873, I think on the plain—1873, or '74.
Q. Have you been here during this trial all the time?
A. During this trial? Yes, sir.
Q. You were sworn as a witness on the first day of the trial? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have been in attendance ever since?
A. I have been at all the evidence given in since then.
Q. And you have seen Mr. Schleppy and W. W. Nichols?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You came into Valley Falls about a month ago?
A. Got in Valley Falls on the 12th.
Q. If I understood you right on examination in chief, you said you saw your brother, John W. Hillmon in Central City?
A. Yes, sir, saw him at Central City.
Q You first met there about what time?
A. He came to me there it was some time in May, 1872.
1313 Q. About how long did he remain?
A. Well, we was around all that country together along the last of the summer and along September I think it was, if I recollect rightly, he went off west there somewhere, and our,—and before he came back I left and wentoff on the plains.

Q. What was the condition of his teeth during the time he was there in 1872?

A. His teet's was getting decayed and bothered him considerable.

Q. You spoke of one tooth, and if you saw others that was decayed,— A. I say I saw more than one.

Q. Well which ones was getting decayed?

A. Well, sir, all that time he had three teeth together on one side that was aching.

Q. I didn't ask you about the aching just then; I was asking about which was decayed?

A. Well, he had three teeth on the left side becoming decayed.

Q. Which three was that?

A. These three right along here (indicating.)

Q. Can't you tell us with reference to the front; was either of the front; either of the two fronth teeth decayed; either of them?

A. I ain't positive whether it was one of the front teeth, or the one next to it, that was decayed.

Q. Was it one or the other of them?

A. It was either the front tooth or the one next to it that began to decay on the side.

Q. Which side? A. On the left side.

Q. Are you talking about the front tooth or the one on the side?

A. I don't remember just which—I ain't certain whether tdat was the tooth decayed—I couldn't say.
that was the tooth decayed—I couldn't say.

Objected to—sustained.

Q. Did you notice that tooth was decayed before you saw him in 1872? A. Yes sir.

Q. That same tooth?

A. That same tooth that he had a long time was decayed yet.

1314 Q. That was either the front tooth or the one next to it? A. I was talking.

Q. I was asking you about the front tooth or the one next to it, when you first noticed that one become decayed?

A. I noticed that he had,—

Q. I am asking you about those teeth—when did you notice those two, either the front or the one next to it?

A. I noticed them two teeth when he came to me in 1872.

Q. That was the first time that you noticed that these two, front and the one next to it? A. Yes sir.

Q. You had not noticed either one of them was beginning to decay before?

A. No, I don't know that I had noticed that either of them other two began to decay before that.

Q. When and where did you next see him after Central City?

A. Somewhere about the southwest corner of Kansas.

Q. When?

A. That would be seven,—about the first day of January, 1875, or some where about the early part of '75.

Q. And you spoke something about his teeth then—what was the condition? A. A little worse than when I felt him.

Q. Were there any more teeth involved in the decay than when you saw him in 1872? A. I think there were.

Q. How many at that time?

A. I couldn't say just the number because I don't know just how many teeth a man has got.

Q. Well how many, as near as you can tell?

A. Well I can't remember just when his teeth began to decay, or how long it took the next one to decay.

Q. I am asking you now just about that time when you saw him there about the first of January, 1875; I want to find how many were involved in this decay then; had they extended any further round to the front, to the right, had they decayed?

A. Yes sir, his teeth was in worse fix when I met him there, than before.

Q. What was the condition of the two upper teeth—
1315 the two center upper teeth?

A. If I recollect rightly his front teeth by that time had begun to show little signs of decay.

Q. Both those center upper teeth? A. Yes sir.

Q. And had this decay extended further around to the right of these two center upper teeth?

A. In fact of the business, I don't know that he had a perfectly sound tooth in his head at that time.

Q. Had it extended any further to the right; the decay at that time; the teeth in the upper jaw from the two center?

[—] Yes sir.

Q. Was it plainly noticeable?

A. Plainly if any one looked.

Q. Would anyone see it without closely examining?

A. It would be owing to whether he had his mouth open or not.

Q. When he would laugh?

A. You would plainly see the teeth was decayed.

Q. You are including the two central upper teeth?

A. I am alluding to most any of his teeth.

Q. I would like to know definitely about these two center upper teeth; when did you next see him after that, January,
1875 A. Was with him a good portion of the summer.

Q. With him a good portion of the summer?

A. With him until something like July, I guess.
Q. Then when did you next see him?
A. We was separated then for something like a month or two, I might say that I was not with him but that I was knocking around and seeing him once and a while.
Q. And when did you separate from him?
A. Along in the fall of 1875 when I started to go south.
Q. Who started to go south, you or he when you separated?
A. I went south first.
Q. And left him? A. Yes sir.
Q. When did you see him after?
A. After I left him in the fall of 1875 the next time I saw him it must have been along sometime in June 1878.
1316 Q. Where was that?
A. He came to me at——— Store to Redbud.
Q. Had his teeth grown noticeably worse in the meantime?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Were any of his teeth out at this time 1878 that you mention?
A. At that time his teeth some of them along here (indicating) were broken down close to the gum.
Q. Along here—which do you mean?
A. Along about the eye tooth.
Q. How many were out?
A. There was one broken down close to the gums and two more getting down short.
Q. About how short—more than half of them?
A. Fully half; fully half of the teeth I should think.
Q. More than half of the other teeth; is that correct?
A. I guess it was that.
Q. More than half of two more?

Objected to—discussion—(Questions and answers read.)

"Q. Along here—What do you mean?
A. Just along about the eye tooth.
Q. "Q. How many out?
A. There was one broken down close to the gums, and two more getting down close."
Q. "Q. About how short—more than half of them?
A. Fully half—fuly half of them I should think."
Q. "Q. More than half of the other teeth—is that correct?
A. I guess it was that."
Q. "Q. Half of two more?"
A. Now, my understanding was to not include more than three teeth.

By the Court:

Q. Now were these two teeth next to where the eye tooth should have been?—I want to know whether the two, these two,—were they half down?

A. I might not have words to explain it sir.

Q. Well, was either one of these two teeth that you speak of, front center?

By the Court: Can't you ask him this: If they were farther to the left than the ones broken down?

1317 A. These teeth were at the left of the center teeth.

Q. Was either one of them, one of the two central teeth?

By the Court: He said left of the central.

Q. Did they join the two central teeth?

A. I don't understand you.

Q. Were they farther to the front than the eye tooth?

A. Farther to the front teeth than the eye tooth?

Q. Yes, sir; were they nearer the front of the mouth than the eye tooth?

A. Why, I said that I think that the eye tooth was one that was partly gone and the next one was broken down pretty close to the gums and the next one to that was partly gone.

Q. So that the back one of these you were speaking of was the eye tooth? A. Yes, sir, that's my understanding of it.

Q. This, as I understand, was in June, 1878?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you say that was the last time you saw him?

A. That time I got with him in June, 1876, that time I was with him was the last time I saw him.

Q. About when did you separate?

A. It must have been something like the middle of July; perhaps afterwards.

Q. Afterwards—You mean July, 1878?

A. Yes, sir, July, 1878.

Q. Do you know Neill McClough, trustee of Valley Falls Township?

A. I seen some McCloughs up there; I have no acquaintance very much with them.

Q. Well, do you know Neill McClough?

A. I can't say that I know him; there was some McCloughs there—I wouldn't say positive about the given name.

Q. Do you know one that is trustee of the Township?

A. I don't know anything about what he was, sir.

Q. Did you have a conversation then with this McClough about the middle of February, or a little later, in the clothing store of Hutchings & Hutchings, Valley Falls?

By the Court: Answer yes or no if you remember.

A. I talked with a man in there who claimed his 1318 name was McClough.

Q. In the store of Hutchings & Hutchings?

A. I don't know whose store it was.
Q. Was it a clothing store? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you talk with him about going to school?
A. Well, he was talking to me about that.
Q. You recognized him, did you? A. I did not.
Q. Well, you recognized the man now that you was talking with?
A. I recollect talking with a man that passed himself off for McClough.
A. It was in a clothing store? A. Yes, sir.
Q. About a month ago? A. About like that.
Q. Now, if you had more than one conversation with anybody calling himself McClough since you have been back there this time, can you give the exact date of that conversation?
A. No, I can't.
Q. Well, have you had a conversation with any other than one McClough or than this one? A. Yes, sir.
Q. In the store—clothing store?
A. No, not in that clothing store.
Q. Did you have any conversation more than one time with McClough in that store? A. No.
Q. I will ask you if this John W. Hillmon that you knew, if he didn't commonly go by the name of "Wesley"?
A. Yes, sir, that's what we called him at home.
Q. Well, that's the name he was known by?
A. Yes, sir, at home.

1319 Redirect Examination.

Q. Are you acquainted with your brother John W. Hillmon's handwriting?

Objected to—overruled.

A. I might say I was somewhat acquainted with it one time I saw some of his handwriting since 1878—don't suppose I saw his signature more than a time or two at that time and that was in some old letters written.
Q. Look at paper marked Exhibit "Q," and state if you know in whose handwriting the signature is? (Handing witness H.'s notes.)

Objected to as incompetent.

By the Court: If he knows he may testify—that's merely a matter of knowledge. He says he has not seen it since 1878.

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Go on.
A. Yes, sir, I recollect that is about his handwriting, to the best of my memory of it.

Q. Now, as to exhibit "R," (handing witness paper) whose signature is that?

Same objection—same ruling.

A. I should take it to be his handwriting.

Q. Look at exhibit "S" and state in whose handwriting the signature on that paper is, if you know?

A. That looks natural with the exception of that "H;" I never knowed him to sign his name in that way. Hillmon and Brown—the same whom was his partner—the handwriting looks natural with the exception of the "H" the way he sarts to sign "Hillmon"—I never knew him to write "H" just in that way.

Q. Look at the signature "Hillmon & Brown" on exhibit "T," and see if you know that signature.

Same objection—same ruling.

A. That, sir, I think is his name—I have reason to believe it is his handwriting.

Q. Look at exhibit "T" (attorney should have said "U") and state in whose handwriting the signature of "Hillmon & Brown" is on that paper?

1320 A. I should say the same handwriting.

Q. The handwriting of John W. Hillmon?

A. The handwriting of John W. Hillmon.

Q. Look at exhibit marked "Z" and say in whose handwriting the signature, "J. W. Hillmon and Brown" is on that paper?

A. This looks better, because that's the way he usually makes "H."

Q. Whose signature do you say that is?

A. This is the signature of J. W. Hillmon's, to the best of my knowledge.

Recross-Examination.

By Mr. Riggs: We have no questions—the papers are in.

Witness excused.

1321 Mrs. George A. Nichols, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name, if you please, Mrs. Nichols.

A. Mary A. Nichols.

Q. Where do you reside?

A. Washington county, Kansas.

Q. What was your mother's name?

A. Mary E. Hillmon.
Q. What is your husband's name?
A. George A. Nichols.
Q. Will you please give the name of your father.
A. Benjamin Hillmon.
Q. Where did you father reside, Mrs. Nichols?
A. Near Valley Falls, in Jefferson county, in this state.
Q. Can you tell about how many miles from Valley Falls?
A. About four miles north of Valley Falls.
Q. Where were you born, Mrs. Nichols?
A. In Indiana; Montgomery county, Indiana.
Q. Do you remember about how old you were when you removed to Kansas?
A. Well, I was born in 1849 and removed to Kansas in 1858.
Q. Of whom did your father's family consist?
A. Five children.
Q. How many boys? A. Three.
Q. And two girls? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was the oldest of the family?
A. Henry Hillmon.
Q. Do you remember about how old he is at the present time? A. He is about fifty-five.
Q. And which is the next oldest? A. John Wesley.
Q. About how old is he? A. About 53.
Q. Who was the next one to John Wesley? A. Myself.
Q. About how old are you? A. Fifty?
Q. Then, William next?
A. Yes, William is next.
Q. William testified the last time this case was tried, did he? A. Yes, sir.
1322 Q. Is he now living or dead?
A. He is dead.
Q. What was the name of the youngest member of the family? A. Martha—McCoy now.
Q. Her name is McCoy now? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where does she reside?
A. Near Valley Falls, this state.
Q. Where does Henry reside if you know now?
A. The last I heard of him he was in Texas.
Q. Near Paris? A. Yes, somewheres there.
Q. Now, when did you last see John Wesley?
A. In 1877.
Q. Where was he?
A. At our home in Washington county, this state.
Q. Now, when did you leave Jefferson county to go to Washington county? A. In the spring of 1874.
Q. Had you been married prior to that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When were you married?

A. In 1870; in the year of 1870; spring of 1870.

Q. Did John Wesley live at home up until the time that you were married? A. No, sir.

Q. How long before that did he leave home?

A. Well, he was at home awhile the winter before.

Q. That would be the winter of—You said that you were married in 1870?

A. He was at home awhile the winter of 1869.

Q. Excuse me, I don't remember the date of your marriage now. A. Spring of 1870

Q. When did John Wesley leave home, if you remember, the first time? A. No, sir, I don't remember.

Q. Was he in the army at any time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember about when he returned?

A. Well, it was about the close of the war.

Q. Then, was he living at home or in that vicinity from that time on?

A. Well, a part of the time, and part of the time he was off on the plains. Away from home and around buffalo hunting.

Q. Do you remember what years he was off on the plains?

[--] No, sir.

[--] No, sir, I don't remember.

1323 Q. About what was his age when he left to go on to the plains, if you remember?

A. About 18 I think; 17 or 18 when he left home.

Q. Do you remember how old he was when he went into the army?

A. I think he was 19 if I remember right.

Q. Up until the time that he went into the army, had he been at home all the time? A. No, sir.

Q. Had been away from home prior to that?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was he living prior to that, do you know or where did he go when he went away from home prior to that, prior to the time of his going into the army?

A. Well, he went west on the buffalo range I don't know just where he went to.

Q. Was that before he went into the army?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him in 1870? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was he at your wedding? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did he remain in that vicinity at that time?

A. He remained around there until that winter.

Q. Where was he living if you know?

A. He worked for Mr. McCoy the summer of 1870.

Q. Now did you see him often at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him?
A. Well, he frequently came to Father Nichols' where we lived.
Q. You were living at that time with your husband's father, were you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And he came there frequently? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did he leave that vicinity, if you know, at that time?
A. Well, it was in the winter, November or December, of 1870.
Q. Where did you next see him after he left there, after that time? A. In 1877.
Q. At your house as you state in Washington county?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long did he remain with you at that time?
A. He came on Saturday and went away Monday.
1324 Q. Now, did you hear from him at any time after he visited your house in Washington county in 1877?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where was he at that time, if you know?
A. He was somewheres about Lawrence.
Q. Did this letter which you received from him, sent from Lawrence have any enclosure?
A. It had a picture of himself.
Q. Look at the exhibit marked Exhibit No. 11 for this trial, and state whether it was that picture or one similar to it?
A. Yes, sir. That picture or one like it.
Q. You may state while the picture is in your hands, is that a good picture of your brother, John Wesley?
A. Yes, that is a good picture of him at that time.
Q. Is that the last picture you ever received from him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Look at the picture which has been marked Exhibit No. 10 and state if you recognize that as the picture of any one, and if so, state whom?
A. No sir, I do not think so; this has some resemblance to him, but I could not swear it was him; his forehead there has some resemblance to Wesley.
By the Court: Speak louder.
I don't think that that is: I say I couldn't testify that that was anybody I ever seen; it has some resemblance, his forehead, to Wesley, but then I could not say that it was him.
Q. Now, do you know where the letter is that he wrote to you at that time?
A. No, sir, I don't know where it is; I turned it over to you men, you lawyers.
Q. And the picture also that it contained? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When was that, Mrs. Nichols?

A. Well, I can't tell; it was at one of the trials that we attended.

Q. Do you remember whether it was the first trial?

A. No, sir, it was not the first trial; I think not.

Q. Did you have any papers or documents of any kind in your possession belonging to your brother, John Wesley?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you do with those?

A. Sent them to him.

1325 Q. From what place did you send those letters to him? A. From what place?

Q. From what place did you send those letters to him?

A. From our home in Washington county.

Q. What papers did you send to him if you remember?

A. There was a deed to some land and his discharge from the army; his army discharge.

Q. Look at the paper now shown you marked Exhibit E, and state if you recognize that as the paper that you sent him?

A. Well, I could not say because I cannot see that without glasses; I could just tell his name on there; that is all; I don't suppose I can see through these—No, I can't see; I can tell his name here and that is about all I can read on there.

Q. You stated it was a discharge from the army, did you?

A. Yes, discharge from the army.

Q. Now, when did you send him that with reference to the time he was visiting at your house?

A. Well, we got the letter either in October or November, 1878, that he wrote for them, and they were sent right immediately, or in a day or two.

Q. How were they sent? A. By register.

Q. Did you get the return card of the register?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was in November, you think, or December?

A. It was in October or November that he wrote for them.

Q. Now, can you give us a description of your brother, John Wesley. How tall was he, do you know?

A. Well, I don't know just how tall he was; he was somewheres near the size of my husband. About the same sized man.

Q. Do you remember the color of his hair? A. Brown.

Q. Do you remember the color of his eyes?

A. He had brown eyes.

Q. Now, his nose; what was the shape of his nose?

A. He had rather a large nose, had a high bridge here, and his nose at the end was turned to one side.

1326 Q. In shape, how did it correspond with yours?

A. Something the same.

Q. Now, as to his build?
A. He was square shouldered, straight.
Q. And did he wear any whiskers the last time you saw him? A. Wore a mustache.
Q. How did he carry himself in walking, erect or otherwise? A. Carried himself straight, yes, sir.
Q. Now, as to his teeth, Mrs. Nichols; what was the condition of his teeth, if you know? A. He had poor teeth.
Q. Now, when did you know that he had poor teeth?
A. Well, I don't know just when; I know his teeth had been partly decayed for some time, but I don't know just when I first noticed them.
Q. Did you notice any defects in his teeth at the time you saw him or before the time that you saw him at your marriage? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What defect had you noticed prior to that time?
A. His teeth had begun to decay and turn black; that is, decayed spots in them.
Q. Did he ever complain of his teeth?
A. Yes, sir; a great deal.
Q. What did he complain of? A. Aching. Toothache.
Q. When was that; prior to the time of your marriage?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the condition of his teeth in 1877 at the time he visited at your house?
A. There was one of his teeth clear gone or gone down, broke off down to the gum, any way.
Q. In which jaw was this tooth? A. Upper jaw.
Q. This was now, in 1877? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was it the subject of remark there at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay evidence. The court sustained the objection, to which ruling the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

[A.] Do you know the plaintiff?
A. I have met her once.
Q. Where did you meet her?
A. At the Continental Hotel, I believe in Leavenworth.
Q. Do you remember when that was?
1327 A. No, sir; it was at the first trial of the case.
Q. In this city, at the time of the first trial of this suit? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How did she come to the hotel, if you remember, or whom did she come with?
A. She came in with W. W. Nichols.
Q. Who is W. W. Nichols?
A. My brother-in-law; my husband's brother.
Q. Now, whereabouts in the hotel did you see her?

A. [In] was in the sitting room of the hotel.
Q. In your room?
A. I believe it was in the sitting room; I aint positive where it was, whether it was in the sitting room, or whether it was in our room; it was in the hotel.
Q. Now, who was present at that time?
A. Well, my husband; Mr. Sam Nixon, and William Nichols, and my sister-in-law Mrs. Nixon.
Q. Was your husband there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, did you have any conversation with her at that time? A. Yes.
Q. You say you had not met her before that time?
A. No, sir.
Q. How did you get acquainted with her?
A. W. W. Nichols introduced her.
Q. He came there with her, I think you said?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And he introduced her? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, what did she say her purpose of coming there was?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. She said she came to see what we was going to testify to.
Q. To whom did she address this, if you remember?
A. Well, I don't know as to any one in particular.
Q. You may state what you said to her, if anything?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay and immaterial evidence. Objection overruled; the plaintiff duly excepts.

1328 Q. She asked us what we said about his teeth, and we told her, I told her that he had poor teeth.
Q. What did she say in reply to that?
A. She said that her husband had good teeth.
Q. What was said then, if you remember?
A. Well, I said to her, if her husband had good teeth, it was not my brother.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as immaterial. Motion overruled; the plaintiff duly excepted.

Q. What further conversation did you have in regard to this matter?
A. Well, she said, Yes, it was the same man; she said he might have had false teeth, but if he did, she didn't know it.
Q. What was finally said by her?
A. She said he was very distant and hard to get acquainted with.

Q. What further was said, if anything?
A. Well, she said, then she said, if that was what we was going to testify to, she would go back and give up the case, drop the case or something of that kind and turn him over to the authorities.
Q. Did she leave then?
A. Shortly afterwards. I think that was the last conversation.
[—] Now, who was present at the time of this conversation?
A. Mr. Nixon, Mrs. Nixon, William Nichols and my husband.
Q. Was that the last conversation you ever had with her?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have you seen her at different times when you have been here at the trial? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, do you remember the fact of a dead body coming to Lawrence in the spring of 1879; do you know of that?
A. Well, I heard about it; that is all.
Q. From whom did you hear it, if you remember?
A. Well, I don't know whether I ever heard it before I came to the trial or not; I don't remember whether I did or not before I came to the trial.
1329 Q. Were you informed by the plaintiff in this action of that fact? A. Sir.
Q. Were you informed by the plaintiff in this action of that fact?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to her by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit.

Q. In this conversation, Mrs. Nichols, that was had between yourself and others and Mrs. Hillmon, who did you say was present besides yourself?
A. My husband and Mr. Nichols, Mrs. Nixon and Mr. Sam Nixon.
Q. They are all living? A. Yes, sir.
Q. All here at the trial are they not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Been here at all of the trials as well as yourself?
A. Well, I haven't been to all of them.
Q. How many have you missed? A. I missed one.
Q. How did that come to happen?
A. Well, I did not come.
Q. Were you asked to come? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the occasion of your staying away?
A. My health prevented me from coming.
Q. Oh, it was only your ill-health that prevented your coming? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You wanted to come?
A. Well, I can't say that I wanted to come.
Q. No. Now, at the time you had this conversation with Mrs. Hillmon, she told you that if you were going to testify in that way, she might as well turn over John Wesley Hillmon to the authorities? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You understood that meant your brother?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And supposed he would be turned over to the authorities; had no doubt about it, had you?
1330 A. I didn't know.
Q. You went on and testified just the same, didn't you? A. Yes.
Q. Had you any grudge against your brother John Wesley?
A. No, sir.
Q. Always been good friends? A. Yes, sir.
Q. No particular desire to have him turned over to the authorities? A. No, sir.
Q. At that time she also said that the teeth of her husband were so good that they might have been false, and she not have known it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was the only thing that she said about the goodness or badness of his teeth, was it? A. I believe so.
Q. Now, then, as to the condition of those teeth; what was their condition in 1870? A. Well, they was—
Q. John Wesley's teeth.
A. They was partly decayed; his front teeth.
Q. By that, do you mean that they had crumbled?
A. Well, they was some broken or rotten.
Q. With spots of decay in them? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Which teeth were they, Mrs. Nichols?
A. The ones most noticeable was his teeth in the upper jaw.
Q. Do you mean the front teeth?
A. Yes, sir, immediately in front.
Q. Or a little to one side?
A. I mean these four teeth here between the eye teeth.
Q. Yes, madam, I understand you, to be right in front, these two on either side and then come the eye teeth. Those four teeth were discolored and somewhat crumbled in 1870?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. How much had he been at home prior to that time; I mean John W.? A. Prior to 1870?

Q. You have just described his teeth at that time; how much had he been at home the last three or four years preceding that? A. Well, I don't know.

1331 Q. Of course, you could not tell exactly; he was home some of the time and away some of the time?

A. He was here some of the time and away some of the time.

Q. It is a fact, Mrs. Nichols, that his teeth were bad from his boyhood, almost? A. Well yes, almost.

Q. When he came out of the army he was nothing but a boy sixteen or seventeen years old; that is a fact?

A. He was young.

Q. You would not call him very old 16 or 17, and his teeth were bad then? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He came out of the army in 1864 or 1865, 1864 at the close of the war? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At that time, you remember that his teeth were bad, do you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And these same teeth were impressed upon your memory; these same four teeth were then decaying?

A. I don't know that they were all bad.

Q. But some of them were bad even at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And by the time that 1870 came, they were in very bad condition, crumbled and decayed and broken off; is that a fact? A. They kept getting worse all the time.

Q. That is the natural way those things go; is that a fact that in 1870 they had gotten to be considerably crumbled?

A. Not so very and yet very noticeable.

Q. They were very noticeable? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Any person could see; in talking and laughing, they could observe the fact that those four teeth were in the condition you have described?

A. I don't say the whole four front teeth were.

Q. Then I certainly misunderstood you.

A. I don't say they were all; I can't testify to which ones.

Q. Now, which, madam; give us an idea as to which of those four. A. No, sir, I can't.

Q. Whether it was one or two or three or four?

A. There was two or three of them.

1332 Q. But you can't say definitely which three it was?

A. No, sir.

Q. But three of those four were discolored and crumbled in 1870? A. Two or three.

Q. Of the four? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that condition relative to decay and crumbling so plainly noticeable to any person who should see him laughing or talking; is that a fact? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In 1870, I think you said in the winter of that year he went away? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It is a fact that he went away in the winter of 1870, is it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, when did you see him after that? A. In 1877.

Q. And did you ever see him after 1877? A. No, sir.

Q. Then you have only seen John W. Hillmon once since 1870? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is 29 years? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, what condition had his teeth gotten to by the time you saw him in 1877?

A. There was one tooth clear gone.

Q. Worse than they were in 1870, of course?

A. There was one clear gone.

Q. They were altogether worse than they were in 1870?

A. I think so.

Q. How about the other three of the four? There was one of those four gone, gone now, in 1877? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And how about the other three?

A. I think they were in worse condition than when I saw him before.

Q. They were all blackened and in some degree crumbled in 1877? A. No, I don't think they were all that way.

Q. All of them showed evidences of decay, in some degree? A. I don't know about all of them.

Q. I don't mean all of his teeth; I mean just those four.

A. I say I don't know that all of his front teeth was discolored but I said two or three of them.

1333 Q. That was true in 1870, was it not? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, when he came there in 1877, one of those two or three discolored and decayed teeth was gone entirely?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How about the remaining three of that four?

A. Well, I can't say that they were all at that time partially gone.

Q. What would be your best recollection now?

A. There was one gone.

Q. As far back as 1877. A. Yes sir.

Q. That leaves three, and of those three there was a couple of them in bad shape, do you think? A. Yes sir.

Q. One might have been good?

A. There might have one been good.

Q. Now, would that one good one be in the center of the black teeth, or on either side of it, or were the black, discolored and decayed teeth together?

A. I don't know; I couldn't say positive whether he had ary good tooth.

Q. Now, your best recollection is, Mrs. Nichols, if you will kindly give it to us, you don't know whether he had ary good tooth; what is your best recollection as to his having any good teeth in front?

A. I can't say that he did have nor I can't say that he didn't have.

Q Your best recollection would rather be that he didn't, I take it. Am I right? Of course, you could only speak from your recollection.

A. Well, I don't know whether he had ary good tooth in front or not; I know that there was as many as three of them that was bad.

Q. Decayed and one gone?

A. I can't say that he even had one good tooth.

Q. What I am trying to get is, you say you don't know whether he had one good one; is it your recollection rather, however, that he did not have one good one; of course, you cannot state positively? A. I could not say.

Q. The one that had fallen out, or gone, disappeared between 1870 and 1877? A. Yes sir.

Q. When he left in 1870, of these four teeth, two or 1334 three were bad and partially gone, and the next time wholly gone in 1877? A. No sir.

Q. But the two or three out of the four showed signs of decay, crumbling and discoloration? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, then, in 1877, I gather from your answer to Mr. Green's question, that he made you a little visit?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Visited at your home? A. Yes sir.

Q. Came there Saturday? A. Yes sir.

Q. And stayed until Monday? A. Yes sir.

Q. I suppose he ate at your table with you? A. Yes sir.

Q. As any other guest would? A. Yes sir.

Q. You were at the table with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. During the meals on those days— What time did he come there to your home Saturday, if you remember?

A. I think it was afternoon, but I got him his dinner; he hadn't had dinner.

Q. He also was there at supper on Saturday? A. Yes sir.

Q. And the three meals on Sunday? A. Yes sir.

Q. And he breakfasted with you on Monday morning?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he go away Monday morning?

A. He went away between breakfast and dinner.

Q. During the forenoon some time? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say you ate with him at the same table?

A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you notice any scar on either of his hands?
A. No sir, I did not.
Q. Now, that was in 1877? A. Yes sir.
Q. He didn't wear gloves all the time, of course?
A. No sir, I think not.
Q. What time of year was it? A. It was in April.
Q. Now, Mrs. Nichols, have you any other photograph of your brother, John W., except the one you turned over to these people?
A. I have a tintype, an old-fashioned picture.
Q. Taken quite a long time before the photograph was?
A. Yes sir.
Q. The photograph, I take it from what you say, was a better likeness?
1335 A. Yes, better of him when he left; when I last saw him.
Q. In April, 1877? A. Yes sir.
Q. The tintype was taken—
A. When he was quite a boy.
Q. Now, where has this photograph been during the last 12 or 15 or 20 years, since the first trial?
A. Well, Mr. Green has had it since the first trial; I don't think he got it at the first trial; probably the second one.
Q. He got it at that time? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you take it back home after it had served the purpose?
A. No sir, I never have had it in my possession since.
Q. You left it with him all the while? A. Yes sir.
Q. And the letter also that accompanied it? A. Yes sir.
Q. Was that the last letter that you received from him?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That was in 1878? A. Yes sir.
Q. How frequently had he written to you prior to that when he was out on the plains? A. Well, I—
Q. Got a letter occasionally?
A. Letter occasionally; not very often though.
Q. Heard from him?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and not proper cross-examination. The court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the court the defendants at the time duly excepted and still except.

Q. Heard from him you say occasionally?
A. Occasionally, yes sir.
Q. He wrote from Texas, Colorado, and so on, wherever he was? A. Different places.

Q. But you say you never heard from [—] since this time in 1878? A. That is the last.

Q. What time of year?

A. That was the fall of 1878, it was October or Noverber that the last letter was written.

Q. That was about the time he was married?

A. That was just after he was married; he was married at that time; had been only a short time.

1336 Q. Just after that, he took this trip into the southwest? A. I suppose so.

Q. And you have never seen him since? A. No sir.

Q. And you say you have never heard from him since?

A. No.

Q. Though occasionally you had heard from him prior to that time? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say in describing him, that your brother's nose had a high bridge? A. Yes sir.

Q. You mean arched here?

A. Right across here it was large; rather large.

Q. You mean by that large in that way, or wide here, or how do you mean?

A. His nose was large across here; right across here.

Q. Raised? A. Yes sir.

Q. Your nose is very nearly straight. Was it arched, do you mean by that?

A. His nose was larger here than mine is some, I think.

Q. Just name what you mean; you know when you say here, it does not get into the record. On the bridge of the nose? A. On the bridge of the nose, yes.

Q. Considerably larger at the bridge of the nose than your own? A. Well, not considerably larger; somewhat larger.

Q. It is what you call a large nose at the bridge; his nose had a bridge? A. Yes sir.

Q. And the point, you say, was turned to one side by some accident that had happened to him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Which side? A. I could not state which side.

Q. To refresh your recollection, to the left?

A. No sir, I could not begin to say which side.

Q. But it had had something happen to it which resulted in turning it a little to one side?

A. Yes, turned to one side anyhow; I never heard what did it.

1337 And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Now, you say you have been here at several trials? No answer.

Q. Now, you said on your cross-examination that you had been at each of these trials excepting one? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you whether or not at each of those times you have been served with a subpoena? A. Yes sir.

Q. And it was in obedience to that subpoena that you attended these trials? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, in 1877, what beard, if any, did he wear at that time? A. He wore a mustache.

Q. Wore a mustache at that time? A. Yes sir.

Q. And did he have a goatee at that time, do you remember? A. Yes sir.

Q. Mustache and goatee? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, you were asked in regard to whether he had a scar, or whether you observed any scar on his hand; I will ask you if you observed any scar on his nose at that time, in 1877?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I don't remember that he had.

Q. Or on the [cheeck]? A. No sir.

Q. Can you examine this?

A. No sir, I could not read it.

(Handing paper to the witness.)

A. Yes, sir, that is the letter.

By Mr. Barker: What is the date of the letter, Mr. Green?

By Mr. Green: November 22d, 1878.

Q. Look at that picture and state if that is the picture, if you know? A. Yes, sir, that is the picture.

The paper and picture are marked Exhibits F and G.

Q. Will you look at Exhibit E, and state if you recognize that as the paper you sent to your brother?

A. Yes sir.

1338 By Mr. Green: We now offer in evidence, Exhibit G, which is a small picture of John W. Hillmon, like the one already in evidence.

Admitted without objection.

By Mr. Green: We also offer in evidence, the letter identified by the witness as having been written to her by John W. Hillmon, dated November 22nd, 1878.

The plaintiff objects to the admission of said letter in evidence as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The court overruled the objection, to which ruling, the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Said letter was thereupon read to the jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1339 Lawrence, Kan.
Nov. 222nd, 1878.

Dear Brother and Sister

I have again returned to this place came back here the 26 of August. I do not expect to remain here very long. I left William in west Texas he was doing very well. I came through Mexico and met Henry in the Rattone Mountains. His family was with him. I think I will look up a location west this winter to move to in the spring. I was married the 3rd of Oct. to a Miss Quinn of Lawrence. I shall leave her here until I return we are keeping house in west Lawrence. I wrote to you when I was here a year ago, and sent a photograph and since have been back this time I got it returned from the Dead letter office so I will enclose it again. I have grown some since then: I weigh 170 live weight. I wish you would forward my Discharge and other papers as soon as possible to me. I want to use some of them. I received a letter from Mat a short time since they are all well 4 in number.

I will not write any more until I hear from you write soon.

J. W. HILLMON,
Lawrence,
Kan.

Exhibit F. Oct. '99. W. C. H., Judge.

1340 By Mr. Green: We next offer in evidence, Exhibit E, which is the army discharge of John W. Hillmon, and which was sent to him by the witness, for all purposes which it will serve.

The plaintiff objects to the admission of the same in evidence as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: It will be admitted with the statement to the jury that it shall not be received as evidence of the height of John W. Hillmon, what his height was at the time he procured the policies of insurance in this case, or subsequent thereto.

To which ruling of the court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Said paper is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Paid Oct. 25/65
$177.07
J. Bowman.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

KNOW YE, That John W. Hillman, a Private of Captain Henry H. Ribble's Company ("I"), First Regiment of Nebraska Vet. Cavalry VOLUNTEERS who was enrolled on the Twentieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four to serve one year, or during the war, is hereby DISCHARGED from the service of the United States, this 24th day of October, 1865, at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas, by reason of Expiration of Term of Service.

(No objection to his being re-enlisted is known to exist.)*

Said John W. Hillman was born in Montgomery Co., in the State of Indiana, is Eighteen years of age, Five feet eight inches high, Dark complexion, Brown eyes, Brown hair, and by occupation, when enrolled, a Farmer.

GIVEN at Ft. Leavenworth this Twenty-fourth day of October, 1865.

W. D. HUBBARD,
Capt. 1st Mo. Cav. Vol. and Ass.....

*This sentence will be erased should there be anything in the conduct or physical condition of the soldier rendering him unfit for the army.

Endorsed on back as follows: Exhibit E. Oct. 99. W. C. H.
Judge.
A. G. O. No. 99.

1341 And in answer to recross-interrogatories propounded to her by Jno. H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. What was the birthday and year of John W. Hillmon? What was the year that Mr. John W. Hillmon was born in, if you know?

A. I think it was 1845, the year of 1845.

Q. Do you remember the day of the year?

A. January 11th.

Q. You said that you came here upon subpoena or summons? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you live more than one hundred miles from here?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Don't you know that you are not required to come unless you wish to when you are more than one hundred miles from the court? A. I do not.

Q. They never told you that?

By Mr. Green: That is not the law.

Q. You say you have not been requested to come other than the times the subpoena directed at no time?

A. No, sir.

Q. You and your husband both have come?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And have come at each of the trials except the one that you were absent? A. Yes, sir.

And in answer to further redirect interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Now, Mrs. Nichols, what is your age?
A. Fifty years old.
Q. When were you fifty? A. In August last.
Q. Now, how much older than you was your brother John W. Hillmon?
A. Five, I think—not five; three years, pretty near three years older than I am.
Q. When was he born? What month? A. January.
Q. And he would be two years and from January to August older than you? A. I think that is the difference.

1342 Q. You were asked if at any time you had come here without a subpoena. You may state, so that we may understand fully, if at times you have been allowed to go home and return? A. Yes, sir.
Q. At the same term of court? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Under what circumstances were those?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial.
Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Well, they wasn't ready for us when we came down here and we was allowed to go back home again.
Witness excused.

The hour of 5:30 o'clock p. m. having arrived, the Court arose and adjourned until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, November 1st, 1899.

1343 Mrs. George A. Nicholls, a witness heretofore sworn on behalf of the defendants, being recalled for further examination upon their behalf, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. Mrs. Nichols, you have already testified that you are a sister of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You are the same lady who testified here the other day?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, I desire to call your attention particularly to the size and shape of your brother, John W. Hillmon's hands. I wish you would tell the jury, as well as you can, what kind of a hand he had?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason that the subject has already been fully gone over. No ruling.

A. He had a small hand.

Q. How in regard to its being a long hand or a short hand?

A. He had a short hand.

Q. How was it as compared in form and shape to your hand?

A. Well, something the same shape, I should say, as my own, short fingers.

Q. In regard to the hand and fingers, whether they were tapering or otherwise, state, as well as you can, in regard to that?

A. No, his fingers was not tapering any more than mine, I don't think, rather blunt fingers.

Q. That is as good a description as you can give of his hand? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now you have already testified in regard to his teeth. Now do you know in regard to the character of the teeth of the other members of the Hillmon family, commencing with the oldest daughter, whether they had good teeth or bad teeth?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent,
1344 irrelevant and immaterial, and as calling for remote and speculative evidence. The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

Q. Now I wish you would look at this picture which is marked "Exhibit G," and, assuming that that photograph represents a body which had a perfect set of teeth, state whether or not that is a photograph of John W. Hillmon?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

Q. State whether that is the photograph of John W. Hillmon?

Question withdrawn.

Witness excused.

1345 Wednesday, November 1st, 1899. 9:30 o'clock a. m. Court convened pursuant to the adjournment. All parties present as before.

George A. Nichols, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Please state your name? A. George A. Nichols.
Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Nichols?
A. In Washington County, Kans.
Q. What is your business? A. Farming.
Q. How long have you resided in Washington County, Kansas? A. Twenty-five years ago last March I went there.
Q. Where did you reside before that time?
A. In Jefferson County, Kansas.
Q. Near what place? A. Near Valley Falls.
Q. About how far from Valley Falls?
A. We called it then five miles angling roads; didn't make square corners.
Q. Did you know a family residing near Valley Falls by the name of Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the father's name if you remember?
A. Benjamin.
Q. About how far did Benjamin Hillmon and his family reside from your place? A. About two mile.
Q. While you were residing in Jefferson county, were you keeping house or were you living with your father's family?
A. I was living with my father's family.
Q. Now, you say you are acquainted with the family of Benjamin Hillmon. Will you state of whom that family consisted.
A. That family consisted of Benjmain Hillmon, his wife, and three of her children, two of his children and herself, and then the original family.
1346 Q. Now, how many children were there in the original family? A. Five.
Q. Do you know who they were? A. Who they were?
Q. Yes? A. Their names?
Q. Yes.
A. Well, there was Henry Hillmon, John W. Hillmon, Mary E. Hillmon, William Hillmon and Martha Hillmon.
Q. You may state if you married one of the family?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Which one? A. Mary E.
Q. Was that your wife who was on the stand yesterday evening at the close of court? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, when were you married?
A. The 7th of March, 1870.
Q. Where? A. Married in Valley Falls.
Q. Now, when did you first become acquainted with this family?
A. First became acquainted with the family in the fall of 1865.
Q. Where had you liver prior to that time, prior to 1865?
A. I lived with my father about two miles east of where the Hillmons lived.

Q. You hadn't known this family until that time?
A. No, sir, I knew of them but I had no acquaintance.
Q. Now, I wish to inquire more particularly of John W. Hillmon. What was he usually called there, if you remember?
A. Wes. Called him Wes.
Q. [How] name was John Wesley? A. John Wesley.
Q. When did you become acquainted with him if you remember? A. Fall of 1865.
Q. Do you know whether he had been living with his father immediately before you became acquainted with him?
A. He had just come out of the army when I became acquainted with him.
Q. How long after that were you acquainted with him; how long did it continue — your acquaintance with him?— In other words, when did you see him last?
A. I seen him last in 1877.
Q. Now, after you became acquainted with him in 1347 1864— A. 1865.
Q. How intimate did your acquaintance become?
A. How is that?
Q. After you became acquainted with him in 1865, how intimately did you become acquainted with him?
A. Well, he and I was what was commonly called chums together; we always ran together and went to parties or anything like that; we were always together; I was with him more than any other young fellow in the neighborhood.
Q. Was he younger or older than you?
A. He was older than I.
Q. You attended parties together? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see him at other times than at parties?
A. Oh, yes.
Q. Now, after you became acquainted with him in 1865, say from that time up until you were married, was he at home all the time? A. Not all the time, no, sir.
Q. What portion of the time, if you remember, was he away from home?
A. Oh, I should think something like half of his time was spent away from home.
Q. Do you know where he went on those occasions?
A. Only that he went west is all that I know.
Q. Do you know what portion of the west?
A. He went west at any rate, to Harker, Fort Harker, and Ellsworth; somewhere out there; had a claim.
Q. But he was back and forth, was he? A. Yes, sir.
Q. During this time, from 1865 until 1870? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, you were married in April, 1870? A. March, 1870.
Q. State if John W. Hillmon was present at the time you were married? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, after you were married, how long did he remain in that neighborhood?

A. The summer after I was married in the spring, he worked for a man by the name of William McCoy, just about two miles from where we lived.

Q. After you were married, did you continue to live with your father? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At your father's house?

A. Yes, sir, I lived there four years after I was married.

Q. And during this time that he was working for 1348 McCoy, did you see him?

A. Oh, yes, frequently at our house.

Q. Will you briefly describe John W. Hillmon. What was his height, for instance? A. He was five feet nine inches high.

Q. How did you arrive at that?

A. Well, he is my height; he and I have often stood with our backs together and have frequently measured on the side of a door or something like that.

Q. Was it in his boots or in his stocking feet?

A. In his stocking feet.

Q. Now, do you remember the color of his hair?

A. Yes, sir, his hair was brown.

Q. Do you remember the color of his eyes?

A. Yes, sir, his eyes were brown.

Q. Now, as to his nose; what was the character of his nose?

A. Well, his was what I would call a slightly Roman nose. I never heard a Roman nose definitely described, but his was what I would call a slightly Roman nose, with the point of his nose turned a little to one side.

Q. Raised?

A. His nose had a slight rise in it about the bridge.

Q. You may state whether or not his nose resembled that of your wife? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, what beard did he wear?

A. I never seen him with a beard until 1877; the first time I ever seen him wear a beard.

Q. What portion of his face was covered with a beard at that time? A. He wore a moustache and goatee.

Q. Now, what was his bearing; erect or stooping?

A. He was what I would say uncommonly straight and square shouldred, because the shoulders, the points of his shoulders seemed to be uncommonly high.

Q. Full chested? A. Yes, sir, very full chested.

Q. Do you remember in regard to his hands and feet?

A. Well, yes, he had rather small hands and feet for his size.

Q. Do you remember the size of his foot; what number boot he wore?

A. He generally wore a No. 7 for a fine shoe or boot, but wearing heavy coarse boots or shoes he commonly wore 1349 a number 8.

Q. Do you remember the condition of his teeth in the year, say, 1870? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the condition of his teeth at that time?

A. He had one or two teeth decayed in 1870 and one partly gone at that time.

Q. Did you ever hear him complain of his teeth; if so, what did he say?

A. I have heard him complain of the toothache.

Q. Do you remember of his having toothache?

A. I remember of him saying that he had the toothache.

Q. When was this; as early as 1870?

A. Yes, and before that.

Q. Now, in 1877, did you notice his teeth when he was visiting at your house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the condition of his teeth at that time?

A. Well, he had one tooth entirely gone at that time, and another tooth or teeth close to it was somewhat decayed.

Q. Now, at the time that you saw him in 1877, at your house, did you notice his hands? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you notice, if anything, upon his hands or hand at that time?

A. I noticed a scar upon his hand that I never had seen up until that time.

Q. Where was that scar?

A. That scar was located betwen the thumb and main part of the hand.

Q. Do you remember upon which hand?

A. It was the right hand, I think.

Q. How far back on the hand did it extend?

A. I can only give that approximately; I didn't measure it; it extended back between the thumb and main part of the hand, oh, perhaps three quarters of an inch; maybe a little more than that, and around perhaps that far on the front of the thumb.

Q. What you call the ball of the thumb? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, you may state whether that was a matter of conversation between you and him at that time?

A. It was.

1350 [A.] Did you make any examination of his hand at that time?

A. I took hold of his hand and looked at it, and he told me how he happened to get it that way.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as incompetent, and hearsay. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

By the Court: Answer the questions and don't go beyond proper answers to the questions.

Q. Now, you may state, Mr. Nichols, if he told you how it happened; Not what he said in regard to it?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant immaterial and hearsay. The court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court, the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. He did.

Q. Look at the picture marked Exhibit 11, and state if you recognize that as the picture of any one you have known?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Of whom is that a picture? A. John W. Hillmon.

Q. Now, look at the picture marked Exhibit D, and state if you recognize that as the picture of any one you have known?

A. There is a man living in our neighborhood now that looks something like that.

Q. You don't recognize that as the picture of John W. Hillmon? A. No sir.

Q. Look at the picture marked Exhibit No. 10 and state if you recognize that as the picture of any person you have known, and if so, state who it is?

A. It looks to me a little like a picture of Hillmon, but I would call it a pretty poor picture.

[—] You may state whether Benjamin Hillmon is alive or dead? A. He is dead.

Q. Do you remember about when he died?

A. He was killed, I think in 1869.

1351 Q. Met with an accident? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, are any of the members of the family whose names you have mentioned dead? A. Yes sir.

Q. Which one? A. William.

Q. Do you remember when he died? A. Yes sir.

Q. About when was that?

A. It will be four years next April.

Q. Where did he die?

A. He died at the Interocean Hotel at Denver, Colorado.

Q. Now, Mr. Nichols, are you acquainted with the plaintiff Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon? A. I met her once.

Q. Where did you meet her?

A. At the Continental Hotel in this town.

Q. About when was that? A. In 1882, June 1882.

Q. What was your business here at that time, if any; did you have any business here?

A. Yes sir, I was subpoeaned here as a witness in this case.

Q. It was during the progress of the trial in 1882?

A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you meet her? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where were you stopping at that time?
A. At the Continental Hotel.
Q. Was she stopping there at that time?
A. I think not.
Q. How did it come about that you met her?
A. Why, she came to our rooms there.
Q. Whom did she come with? A. W. W. Nichols.
Q. Who is W. W. Nichols? A. He is a brother of mine.
Q. Were you introduced to her there at that time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. What room was it in, do you remember?
A. I don't remember the number of the room.
Q. Was it your room or the public parlor, if you remember?
A. I think it was in our room.
Q. Now, who was present there at that time?
A. There was W. W. Nichols, S. D. Nixon, Mrs. J. H. Nixon; my wife; Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon and myself.
1352 Q. Did you say Mr. or Mrs. S. D. Nixon?
A. Mr. S. D. Nixon.
Q. And Mrs. Nixon? A. Mrs. J. H. Nixon; yes.
Q. Did you have any conversation with her, or was any conversation had there at that time in reference to this case?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Will you state what that conversation was. How did it arise?
A. Well, after she—
Q. Who was she?
A. Mrs. Hillmon; Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon; after she was introduced some slight conversation occurred between her and my wife and my sister. She said she had come to see what evidence we was going to give in regard to this trial.
Q. What was said in answer to that?
A. Well, she was answered by my wife or by my sister, one or the other of them.
Q. Did she ask anything in regard to any particular part of the body as to what your evidence would be?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

By the Court: Ask him to state all that was said?

Q. Well, go on and state, as you remember it, what was said there between Mrs. Hillmon and the other parties present?
A. Well, she said, "What do you say regarding his teeth?" My wife said to her that his teeth were decayed and poor, and she said her husband had good teeth.
Q. Mrs. Hilmon?

A. Mrs. Hillmon, yes. My wife told her if her husband had good teeth, it was not her brother.

Q. What did she say in answer to that if you remember?

By the Court: What further was said.

A. Well, she said—I can't state just in the words. I don't think; that if we was going to give such evidence as that, she would go and withdraw the case and turn him over to the authorities.

Q. Well, what did you wife do at that?

A. Well, I don't think my wife said anything; she immediately burst out crying.

Q. Made no answer?

A. Don't think she had any further conversation.

By the Court: Did you take that seriously from her, that she would turn John W. Hillmon over to the authorities?

A. Did I, you say?

1353 By the Court: Take it seriously, yes?

A. I can't say that I did, speaking for myself.

Q. Did you have any further conversation with her yourself at that time?

A. Yes, I had some conversation with her myself.

Q. Now, when was that?

A. Why, that was at this meeting at the Continental.

Q. When as to the time this other conversation was held?

A. It was just after this other conversation.

Q. What was she doing when you had the conversation?

A. She was in the act of leaving the room; I stood not very far from the door where she passed out; she halted there close to where I was, and I said to her, "If you have lived as long with him as you say you have you certainly would know whether his teeth were good or not." She said that his teeth were good, that perhaps one of them was a little shorter than the others or something like that. And then I said to her, "If you have lived with him as long as you say you have, you certainly could have noticed that scar on his hand.

Q. What did she say to that, if anything?

A. She said that he did have a small scar on his hand there but when he left it was almost entirely gone.

Q. What did she say then?

A. She went out of the door then.

Q. Have you met her and conversed with her since?

A. No sir.

1354 And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., Counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You say you live in what county, Mr. Nichols?

A. In Washington county.

Q. What is your postoffice or nearest town or village?
A. My nearest town is Branford. My postoffice is Cuba. Cuba is in Republic county.
Q. But that is your postoffice?
A. And the nearest town is Branford.
Q. You say that you knew Mr. Hillmon up to and prior to 1870? A. Up to 1877.
Q. Well, you had known him up, and prior to 1870?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. At that time he went away? A. At that time?
Q. In 1870.
A. He was right there within two miles of us the summer of 1870.
Q. Did he go away in 1870 or didn't he?
A. Well, along that winter; I couldn't say whether it was the winter of 1870 or 1871; I don't know whether it was 1870 or 1871. My impression is it was the latter part of the winter of 1870.
Q. Then I am right, according to your recollection, in saying that he went away in 1870? A. I guess that is it.
Q. Now, how long was he gone?
A. I did not see him again until 1877.
Q. When did you next see him in 1877?
A. Will you allow me to correct that last answer?
Q. If it is not true, I want you to correct it; I want the truth, whatever you believe it to be, if I can get it.
A. I met him in this town some time in 1871 after he left there in 1870.
Q. Then you saw him not again until 1877?
A. No, sir; I didn't see him until 1877.
Q. Then when did you next see him again, if at all?
1355 A. Never seen him any more.
Q. You have seen him but once since 1817?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Twenty-eight years ago? A. Yes. sir.
Q. How early would your recollection serve you that you noticed that his teeth in front were bad; you knew him for some years prior to 1870?
A. Why, the first I recollect of his teeth being discolored was about the first I got acquainted with him.
Q. You say when you first got acquainted with him in the fall of 1865, his teeth were in some degree bad at that time? A. Discolored.
Q. Now, which portion of his teeth; which of the teeth were discolored?
A. Well, I could not say that he had more than one discolored; might have had.
Q. You are sure of one? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Sure of one being discolored in 1865? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And there might have been more?
A. Might have been more.
Q. In 1870, what condition were they in?
A. In 1870, why, they was one or two of them was discolored, one partly broke off.
Q. Where were these teeth located?
A. Located in the upper jaw.
Q. Front or back?
A. I would say on the corner, like.
Q. They all could not be on the corner, could they?
A. Not exactly in front.
Q. Three of them you have got involved in the decay?
A. No, I haven't.
Q. All right; how many have you?
A. I have two; I think he had as much as two; but in the first place I saw one for certain and might have been more.
Q. Well, what is your best recollection about it?
A. That is my best recollection.
Q. That he had more than one?
A. Might have had more than one.
Q. Of course, he might have had them all gone; I am not talking about what might have been done; what is your recollection about it?
[Q.] My recollection is there was one discolored, one
356 in 1865 when I first became acquainted with him.
Q. How about 1870?
A. That tooth was partly gone in 1870.
Q. How about the other teeth? A. I don't know.
Q. Don't know whether any of the teeth were discolored or gone except the one in 1870?
A. I think the one next to it in 1870 was somewhat discolored at that time.
Q. Now, where was the one that was gone; where was it located when it was in the jaw? A. In the upper jaw.
Q. Was it a front tooth? A. No, sir.
Q. An eye tooth? A. No, sir.
Q. One between what we call the front or incisor teeth and the eye tooth? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was gone in 1870? A. Partly gone.
Q. And the one next to it was discolored; which way was that discolored tooth from the one that was gone? A. Back.
Q. Back or front? A. Back from it.
Q. Then his two front teeth, what we call the incisor teeth, these cutting, flat teeth in front, both of them were good in 1870; is that right?
A. I don't know whether they were or not.
Q. Well, what is your recollection about it?

A. My recollection—

Q. You remember so well about the other teeth; what is your best recollection about these?

A. Well, my recollection is that they was perhaps good; I don't know whether they was or not.

Q. And perhaps they might be all gone. I think you will recognize the propriety of leaving "perhapses" out of it, and telling us what you remember about it? What is your recollection about these two front teeth?

A. My recollection is they were there in his jaw.

Q. White or discolored, decayed or sound?

A. Well, I couldn't say.

Q. Have no recollection about that at all; is that right?

A. I have an impression in my mind—

Q. Yes; is the impression the result of recollection,
1357 or something that has been told you since. Where did you get this impression? A. From seeing his teeth.

Q. Then it is from recollection. Then you must remember something about it? [Q.] Yes, sir.

Q. Now, what is that recollection; just give it to us?

A. I say my recollection is that his teeth were there; the teeth was there.

Q. How about them being decayed or discolored?

A. Well, I don't think they were discolored much, the two front ones.

Q. You don't think they were discolored much?

A. No, sir.

Q. You think they were discolored at all? Don't you know they were sound?

A. No, I don't know that they were sound.

Q. Do you remember of their not being sound or white?

A. No, I don't remember of their not being sound.

Q. You don't remember of their being discolored?

A. No.

Q. Then, so far as your recollection serves you, you remember that they were there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You don't remember of their being decayed or discolored, the two front teeth? A. No, sir.

Q. That is a fact? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then your recollection is that in 1870, one tooth was what you call,—in the upper jaw—was gone?

A. Partly gone, I said.

Q. Partly gone, and the one next to it toward the back of the mouth, was discolored? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But the other teeth so far as your recollection serves you were good? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is your tooth recollection? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, you say that you measured, and you know he was five feet, nine inches because you measured him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is it not a fact that for the first three trials, of this case you said that you could not state his height except by approximation or guess? A. No, sir.
Q. It is not a fact? A. Not a fact, no, sir.
1358 Q. Now, you have told Mr. Green that you measured frequently by standing up back to back, and by measuring against a door, and so on? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, when and where was the first time that you remember of measuring in this way, either by standing back to back or at a door? A. I could not tell when.
Q. Do you remember any place?
A. Yes, sir, I remember one place.
Q. Just name one place?
A. It was at his father's.
[—] When was that?
A. I could not tell you.
Q. Approximate it. It was not before you knew him, and it was not after he went away?
A. It was along between 1865 and 1870 sometime.
Q. Now, how many times—You said to Mr. Green that you frequently did this? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, what would frequently mean in your language; what do you mean by frequently; how many times?
A. I mean several times.
Q. Half a dozen or something like that?
A. I wouldn't put a number on it.
Q. You used the word frequently and I want you to tell me what you mean. Would you call once a year frequently?
A. Yes, that might be termed frequently.
Q. Then if once a year was frequently, and you knew him between 1865 and 1870, you must have been measured in this way five times; would that be about as your recollection serves you?
A. Somtime between two or three and five times; I don't know how often.
Q. But it was often enough so that your recollection serves you that it was frequently? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, then, how old were you in 1865?
A. Fifteen years old. Sixteen years old in 1865.
Q. Had you reached your full growth at 16?
A. I was very near as large then—
Q. Do you think you were?
A. Yes, I think I was about as tall then as I am now.
1359 Q. When you measured, you being five feet nine, you found that his height was the same as yours? A. A. Yes, sir.

Q. His height was the same as yours? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, then, can you explain to the jury what occasion there was for your measuring every year?

A. I never said that we measured every year.

Q. But you said that every year would be frequently, and then you said that you measured frequently. Well, leave the year out. Will you explain to the jury here how it is that you measured so frequently. Were you applying for life insurance at that time?

A. No, sir, we were just young fellows, and when amongst ourselves, several in a crowd, perhaps, we would measure.

Q. Wouldn't recollect the fact from one measurement to the next; that you had measured and found you were of the same height? A. Oh, yes, I didn't forget that.

Q. What occasion would there be for measuring a second time, and much less a third and fourth time, after you had once measured and found you were of the same height.

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

A. Sometimes a few of us would be together, probably, of us boys and girls, and we would measure all around.

Q. Where was it that you boys and girls crowded together and measured all around?

A. This time I spoke of at his father's.

Q. Any other time? You wouldn't call one time frequently, would you? A. No.

[—] Give us another time when the boys and girls were together and measured all around?

A. I don't remember just exactly.

Q. Do you remember inexactly? A. No, sir.

Q. You don't remember at all?

A. I remember that we did.

Q. But you don't remember any time or place?

A. No, sir.

1360 Q. And you can't give any reason, as I understand you, why, having measured once, and found what the result of the measurement was, you measured again a third, and a fourth and a fifth time?

A. I think I gave the reason.

Q. What was the reason?

A. A few of the young folks being together and talking of their heights.

Q. Well, two of the young folks who had measured, were John W. Hillmon and Mr. Nichols, were they not?

A. We generally all measured.

Q. You located this measuring bee at whose house?

A. At his father's.
Q. At Benjamin Hillmon's? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was present besides yourself and John W. Hillmon?
A. Oh, I couldn't name them; there was so many times that—
Q. That you measured?
A. There was crowds of us there.
Q. How many times did you measure?
A. Didn't measure every time we was there.
Q. You said you had in mind a partcular time that this measuring business occurred, and that you remembered it was at Hillmon's house when the boys and girls were there, and they were all measured around.
A. I didn't date that time.
Q. I didn't say that you did; I was mentioning that as one of the times; that is a fact, is it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, who was there?
A. Well, I could not state who was there.
Q. But you remember though, that you and John were measured and that you just plumbed even up on top of the head? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You remember that they measured all round, don't you?
A. Yes.
Q. But you can't remember anybody else that was there?
A. No not at that particular time, I can't.
Q. Now, what was anybody's else measurement besides yours and Hillmon's?
A. I don't know that we ever measured, measured by the height to see what it was in feet and inches; I didn't give that statement.
1361 Q. Didn't you say to Green that you measured frequently back to back and against the wall that kind of a measurement? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Consequently, when you measured against the wall, you would do that for the purpose of determining the feet and inches, wouldn't you, or wouldn't you?
A. No, sir, we did not.
Q. Then you didn't measure the height by getting the feet and inches? A. No, sir.
Q. But it was only the comparative height?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You remember now that you measured at that particular time at Hillmon's? A. Yes, sir.
Q. But who the spectators were, you can't remember?
A. No, sir.
Q. Nor who else were measured besides you and Mr. Hillmon on that occasion?

A. I know several other people were measured at some of those gatherings, yes, sir.

Q. You have been a witness at every trial of this case?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was a witness here in 1882? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the time of this alleged interview between yourself and Mrs. Hillmon was the trial in progress, or had it not yet begun: You were here as a witness, and she called upon you you say, at the hotel. Was the trial in progress, or had it not yet begun?

A. The trial was in progress, but no witnesses had been examined.

Q. The trial had begun but the witnesses had not yet been examined? A. No, sir.

Q. You say that when she said she would turn him over to the authorities, you did not take that seriously? For yourself, that is what you told Judge Hook, was it not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is a fact, is it not?

A. Why, yes, that is a fact.

Q. You thought she was joking?

A. Oh, I couldn't say I thought she was joking.

Q. What did you mean by not taking it seriously?

A. I didn't stop to consider at the time.

Q. You have had twenty years to consider, and I
1362 am asking you now what you mean by not taking it seriously unless you understood that she was joking about it. A. I wouldn't know how to answer that.

Q. I am not surprised at the answer. Now, then, this second talk that you had with her, you were sitting near the door?

A. Yes. Nearer the door than the others were.

Q. Did I understand you that you went out into another room with her? A. No, sir.

Q. That was as she went out, when she stopped and began talking with you there?

A. Yes, sir, I spoke to her as she was going out of the door.

Q. After the conversation took place in the room?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. With your wife, and your brother? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did you say the other people's names were?

A. Mrs. J. H. Nixon, and Mr. S. D. Nixon.

Q. Who were they; any kin of yours? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the relationship?

A. Mrs. Nixon is my sister.

Q. And the man is her husband?

A. S. D. Nixon is my mother's brother.

Q. It was your wife, your mother's brother, your sister and your brother? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was the gathering that was met there by Mr. Hillmon, and that she told she might as well turn over John W. Hillmon to the authorities; that is a fact? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The parties that were there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is a fact, all of them were your relatives?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mother's brother, wife, brother and sister; and there was nobody else there except those I have just named except Mrs. Hillmon; that is a fact, is it not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was to you that she made the statement, while this trial was in progress, that she might as well dismiss the suit and turn Hillmon over to the authorities? A. To me?

Q. To the crowd there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is a fact? A. Yes, sir.

1363 Q. Well, the case was not dismissed, was it?

A. No.

Q. And so far as you know, John W. Hillmon has not been turned over to the authorities; that is also a fact, is it not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, do you know, or did you ever know of a man named Munn, H. B. Munn, one of the insurance agents or attorneys? A. No, sir.

Q. Never met him? A. Never met him, no sir.

Q. Not at any of these trials?

A. Oh, yes, I will take that back.

Q. Where was it and when as near as you can remember?

A. I don't think I ever had any conversation with Mr. Munn; think I just had him pointed out to me; I remember of such a man.

Q. Don't you remember his paying you some money?

A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. When was it that you had him pointed out to you?

A. At some of the first trials.

Q. Do you remember whether it was here or at Topeka?

A. I think it was at Topeka.

Q. You say that he did not pay you any money?

A. Not that I remember of now.

Q. Could you tell us, Mr. Nichols, how much money has been paid to you and your wife during these twenty years by the insurance companies for being a witness in this case?

A. No, sir, I cannot.

Q. Do you mean by that that there was so much of it that you could not count it, or what do you mean?

A. I kept no record.

Q. You can approximate it; you know whether it is more than half a dollar. It was more than a dollar, was it not?

A. I guess so.

Q. I should guess so too, if I was permitted to guess, but how much do you say it was, approximately; was it five hundred dollars altogether in those twenty years?

A. I don't think our fee has ever amounted to that.

Q. You say you did not have any transactions with Mr. Munn? A. That is my recollection now, yes, sir.

Q. Of course, recollections are fallible, but to refresh your recollection, I will call your attention to the trial of 1895, and ask you whether or not this question was not propounded to you and if you did not make the following answer:

1364 "Did a man by the name of Munn pay you $65.00 at the first trial of this case? A. I could not tell you; he paid me some money, yes, sir."

Do you remember it now?

A. I remember the man, yes, I think I remember Munn paid us some money; we had come here; the trial was put off and we were let go back home.

Q. Now, you remember that this man Munn did pay you some money? A. Yes, sir, I guess he did.

Q. This Mr. Munn who paid it to you was the same Mr. Munn who was one of the agents or attorneys of the insurance companies? A. Yes.

Q. Now, that was at the first trial of this case?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was money that was paid on that trial; you don't know how much has been paid since?

A. No, I have kept no record of it.

Q. When was the first time that you told the insurance people, the first time that that was ever mentioned by you, was scar that you say was on the hand of John W. Hillmon?

A. You mean during the trials?

Q. That is just what I mean. Is it not a fact that the first time you mentioned the scar was on the witness stand at one of these trials? A. I don't understand that.

Q. Well, perhaps I am at fault. What I mean to say is this: Is it not a fact that the first time you ever stated to these gentlemen, or to anybody representing the insurance people, the first time that that was ever mentioned by you, was while you were on the witness stand at some of these trials that have been had; in other words, that you never mentioned the scar to them before you were put upon the stand; not this time, but some other time?

A. Well, I don't remember.

Q. You don't remember? A. No, sir.

Q. But you have no recollection of telling anybody about it until you got upon the stand? A. No answer.

Q. How about the mention of the teeth? You have testified about the teeth at this time and at other trials?

1365 A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, is it not a fact that you testified heretofore, and I will fix the time in a moment, that you had not told the insurance people anything about the teeth and that you did not know they were going to ask you anything about the teeth when you got upon the witness stand?

The defendants object to the question because no proper foundation has been laid for impeachment.

By Mr. Atwood: I will modify the question by fixing the time as the trial of 1895. Have I made matters plain to you, Mr. Nichols?

A. No, I don't understand this 1895, part of it.

Q. What I am trying to get at is this: Whether or not you, did not testify in 1895 at the trial of this case, that you said when you testified about the teeth, which was probably at the first trial, that you did not know they were going to ask you about it until you were asked about it on the witness stand?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: That would not be a proper question without preliminary questions. It would depend upon what he says now as to whether such a question would be proper.

Q. I will ask you this question: Did you ever tell the insurance people, their agents or any of their emissaries, or any of their lawyers—

The defendants object to the use of the word "emissaries" and ask to have their exceptions saved to the use of such language in the cross-examination of a witness.

By the Court: That word should not be used.

By Mr. Atwood: I didn't know that it implied mala fides or moral turpitude, but if it is so interpreted by counsel, I cannot help but think of the biblical quotation.

I will put the question this way: Did you ever say to any of the insurance agents or their attorneys, anything about 1366 your testimony upon the tooth question or upon the scar question, before you went upon the witness stand to testify the first time? A. No, sir.

Q. You did not? A. No sir.

Q. Then, it is a fact that, so far as you know, they did not know what your testimony would be upon the tooth or teeth, or upon the scar, at the time they put you on the witness stand the first time? A. Upon anything.

Q. Upon anything? They never examined you for your knowledge or information upon anything prior to your going upon the witness stand; the first time, I mean? A. No sir.

Q. Now, you spoke of his nose, that it was what you would call slightly Roman? A. Yes sir.

Q. Slightly Roman—by that you mean, arched in the bridge, if I understood you correctly?

A. Slightly Roman, yes.

Q. By that, do I understand you to mean that there is an arch at the bridge, rather than coming down straight, as yours does, for instance?

A. Yes, a slight rise there.

Q. So that the line instead of coming down straight, would come down to a sort of an arch?

A. A little that way.

Q. And you say it was turned to one side?

A. The point of the nose was a little to one side.

Q. Evidently the result of some accident?

A. Well, I don't know as to that.

Q. Don't know, but the fact remains it was turned to one side? A. Yes sir.

Q. Is it a fact that yon ever knew another man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. No sir, I never did.

Q. Or any other man by that name?

A. I knowed a John Hillmon.

Q. But not John W.? A. No sir.

Q. Where did he live; in Kansas?

A. He lived close to Hiawatha in Brown county.

Q. In this state? A. Yes sir.

1367 And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Now, Mr. Nichols, you have been asked in regard to the amounts of money that you have received from the insurance companies. I will ask you if you have ever received anything other than your witness fees and mileage to come here to testify? A. No sir, I have not.

Q. You said you were paid a certain amount of money by a man representing the insurance companies at the first trial?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, you may state what the facts were in regard to that matter if you remember. You were subpoenaed to some here?

A. Yes sir. We came here, we came here, me and my wife in company with Mrs. S. D. Nixon; we came to the Continental Hotel and we learned that the trial had been put off a week or ten days, it would not take up for a week or ten days and it was impossible for us to stay on account of leaving our children at home, and yourself, I think and Mr. Barker and another man that my recollection now was Mr. Munn, told us that we could go home and return again; I didn't have anything to go home on, nothing to pay our way home, and you gave us this money.

Q. What, if any, arrangements were made for your return?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff at the time duly excepting.

A. What arrangements were made?

Q. Yes.

A. Yes, you told us at that [that] time that we could keep ourselves in readiness; you did not know just the day, but you would send a man from Clyde for us.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as hearsay. Motion overruled, the plaintiff at the time duly excepting.

Q. Now, was this money which was handed to you at that time, deducted from your witness fees and mileage when you made settlement? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, do you remember how much you were al-
1368 lowed as mileage; not the amount, but how it was allowed to you at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Overruled, the plaintiff at the time duly excepting.

A. Our mileage was figured at ten cents a mile on that trial and since that they have only figured it at five cents.

Q. Ten cents a mile each way? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was that your mistake or the mistake of the other party? A. It certainly was not mine.

Q. Now, since that time you say that you have been allowed five cents a mile or ten cents a mile one way?

A. Yes sir.

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

By the Court: The answer may stand. The plaintiff duly excepted.

Q. As I understand, then, that you have only received for coming here to testify, the amount of money which was due you as fees and mileage?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. That is all, yes sir.

Q. Now, what time in the year was this that you were here the first time? A. In June.

Q. You are a farmer? A. Yes sir.
Q. You may state whether or not at that time your crops were needing your attention?
A. They certainly was, yes sir.
Q. What was the effect upon the crops, the time that you did stay here?

By the Court: Going a little too far, Mr. Green. He said that all he has received was the mileage and per diem.

To which ruling the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. You may state if at that time you were given the choice of either remaining here and claiming your per diem 1369 here or returning home and coming back?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff at the time duly excepting.

A. We were given the choice, yes sir.
Q. You took the choice; which choice did you take?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial; objection overruled, the plaintiff at the time duly excepting.

A. Why, we went home.
Q. What family did you have at home at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. We had four or five small children; I could not just tell whether it was four or five.
Q. In whose charge were they, if you remember?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. A neighbor boy that I had got to stay there.
Q. Now, you were asked further in regard to whether you had told any parties in regard to what your testimony would be in regard to the teeth. I will ask you if, up until the time you came to Leavenworth, you had seen or talked with any one whom you knew was connected with the insurance companies in any way, in regard to your testimony?
A. I had not.
Q. Did you know that you were to be subpoenaed?
A. No sir, not until we were.
Q. Now, in speaking about the measurement, do you recollect when you were first measured to know your exact height?

A. Yes, I remember.
Q. When and where was that?
A. That was in the court-room during the first trial in ine, 1882.
Q. Was it in the court-room or in the room adjoining?
A. Well, in the court house, I mean to say, yes.
70 Q. Who was present there at that time, if you remember?
A. The United States Marshal was in the room, I [belve], r. Sam Riggs was there, Mr. Barker and perhaps yourself; wouldn't be positive of that; I think perhaps there was anher man there; I think he was a clerk; I don't know his me.
Q. Do you remember whether Mr. Wheat was there?
A. I think he was, yes.
Q. What was your measurement at that time?
A. I was five feet nine.
Q. At whose request, do you remember, that you were easured at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial.
By the Court: That is immaterial.
The question was withdrawn.
Witness excused.

71 George A. Nichols, a witness heretofore duly sworn, being recalled for further examination by the defendts, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

Mr. Green:
Q. You are the same Mr. Nichols who testified the other y? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You are the husband of the witness who has preceded n? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember in regard to the shape and form of hn W. Hillmon's hands? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state whether he had a long hand or a short nd, describing his hand as well as you can?
A. I would say, from the best of my recollection, that he l a rather small hand in comparison to his size, rather road hand, short fingers, fingers somewhat stubby.
Q. That is the best description you can give of his hand?
A. That is the best description, yes, sir.

Cross-Examination

Mr. Atwood:
Q. How many times have you seen him since 1871?
A. Since 1871?

Q. Yes. A. I seen him a good many times since 1871.
Q. Yes. A. In 1877?
Q. I said 1871? A. I saw [—] in 1877.
Q. Once? A. Yes, sir.
Witness excused.

1372 W. W. Nichols, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to Direct Interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You may state your name. A. W. W. Nichols.
Q. Where do you reside?
A. In Jefferson county, close to Valley Falls.
Q. About how far from Valley Falls?
A. About seven miles.
Q. How long have you lived there or in that vicinity?
A. I have made that my home since 1864.
Q. How long have you lived on the farm on which you now reside? A. Since 1864.
Q. What is your business? A. Farmer.
Q. Did you know a family in that vicinity by the name of Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you become acquainted with that family?
A. 1865.
Q. About how far from your place did they live?
A. Two miles.
Q. Who were you living with at that time? A. My father.
Q. Did you know John Wesley Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was he commonly called in that neighborhood?
A. Wes.
Q. When did you become acquainted with him?
A. Winter of 1865.
Q. Where was he living at that time?
A. I think he was at home with his father.
Q. Do you remember how long he continued to live there?
A. No, I can't tell exactly how long.
Q. Do you know if he lived in the neighborhood, the school neighborhood in which you resided?
A. I don't understand the question.
Q. Did he live in the same school district in which you resided? A. No, sir.
Q. Did you go to school with him at any time? A. No, sir.
Q. How intimately did you become acquainted with him?

1373 A. Oh, him and me was together quite often at spelling schools and entertainments.

Q. Did you meet him at other places then spelling schools and entertainments? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, did he live there continuously up until, we will say, 1870? A. No, I don't think he did.

Q. Do you remember of his being away? A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how long?

A. Well, I couldn't really say, for I was, part of the time too.

Q. Now, up until what time did you see him in that neighborhood? A. About 1870.

Q. When did you last see him in the neighborhood, if you remember? A. When I last seen him in that neighborhood?

Q. Yes. A. 1877.

Q. Now, prior to that time, when did you last see him?

A. In 1870.

Q. Do you remember what time in 1870?

A. I think it was along in March.

Q. On what occasion did you meet him at that time?

A. At my brother's wedding.

Q. Did you see him after that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I mean, in that vicinity?

A. No, I don't know as I did; no, I didn't see him in that vicinity after that.

Q. Did you see him after that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you next see him?

A. After my brother's wedding?

Q. Yes. A. On the buffalo range.

Q. In what part of the country?

A. On the Pease River, Texas.

Q. About what time was that, if you remember?

A. I think that was 1876.

Q. About how long were you with him at that time?

A. About a week.

Q. What was he doing, and what were you doing at that time? A. We was killing buffalo.

Q. Were you in the same camp?

A. We was in the same camp for a week.

1374 Q. Did you belong to the same outfit? A. No, sir.

Q. What outfit did you belong to?

A. My partner's name was Plummer..

Q. You were in partnership with a man by the name of Plummer? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was Hillmon with, if you know?

A. Marshall Sewell.

Q. Then you next saw him in 1877? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was that? A. In Jefferson County.

Q. At what place? A. At my place.
Q. At your house? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the occasion of that?
A. Nothing more than a visit I suppose.
Q. Well, was he visiting you or you visiting him?
A. He was visiting me.
Q. How long did he stay there at that time?
A. Oh, a couple or three hours.
Q. Now, will you briefly describe the appearance of this John W. Hillmon, state his height, and so forth. Do you know how tall he was? A. I don't positively know.
Q. What is your judgment as to his height?
A. About five feet nine.
Q. Do you remember the color of his hair? A. Yes.
Q. What was it? A. Brown hair.
Q. Did he have whiskers? A. Yes, in 1877.
Q. What did he have at that time?
A. Mustache and goatee.
Q. What was the color of his mustache?
A. It was light brown.
Q. How was it in comparison with his hair?
A. I think his mustache was lighter than the hair.
Q. As to his eyes: Do you remember the color of his eyes?
A. His eyes were brown.
Q. Do you remember the condition of his teeth?
A. Oh, not exactly. His teeth was defective.
Q. Now, how were they in 1870, in your recollection?
1375 A. He had defective teeth in 1870.
Q. How was it prior to that time?
A. Well, I would say he had defective teeth ever since I was acquainted with him.
Q. Did you ever hear him speak about his teeth?

The plaintiff objected to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did he say?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay evidence. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. Did you hear him complaining in regard to his teeth at any time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did he complain of? A. Toothache.
Q. Now, when was that; about when?

The plaintiff moves to strike out the last question and answer as hearsay.

By the Court: It may stand. To which ruling the plaintiff duly excepted.

A. In the '60's.

Q. Now, the last time you saw him there in 1870, can you more particularly describe his teeth?

A. No, I don't think I could.

Q. Do you remember at that time whether any of them were gone? A. No, I don't.

Q. Now, you say in 1876 you met him on the range; do you remember in regard to his teeth at that time?

A. I don't know as I noticed his teeth at that time.

Q. How was it in 1877, when he was visiting at your house?

A. I couldn't say as I paid much attention to his teeth in 1877; he wasn't there but a short time.

Q. Now, do you remember anything in regard to his hand?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What do you remember, if anything, in regard to the hand? A. He had quite a scar on his hand.

1376 Q. Do you remember on which hand? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember or do you know how he received that scar? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Please state where it was; how it came about?

A. It was on the Pease River in Texas, by the busting of a cartridge in the gun.

Q. Explain to the jury how that was?

A. He had loaded the cartridge so heavy that it swelled and the chamber of the gun would not receive it, and he was forcing it in, and in forcing it in the cartridge busted.

Q. How was he forcing it in?

A. With a stick he had in his hand.

Q. What was the effect of the bursting of that shell?

A. The effect was tearing the thumb from the hand and lacerating it pretty badly.

Q. What portion of the hand?

A. Between the thumb and forefinger.

Q. This scar: Do you remember how far this scar extended back on the back of the hand?

The plaintiff objects to the question because it assumes a fact which has not been proven.

Q. What did you observe in 1877, if anything, in regard to the effects of this wound which he had received down on the Pease River?

A. I observed quite a scar on the right hand.

Q. Now, who was present at the time, if you remember, when this accident occurred?

A. There was myself, my outfit, myself, my hired man that we had named Jake Sligel, and Joe Plummer, and Mr. John

W. Hillmon was there, and I think Henry Hillmon; I don't know whether Marshall Sewell was there or not, and two other men that was in the camp; I don't remember their names; I don't know as I ever heard their names.

Q. What kind of a gun was it he was using at that time?

A. It was what we called a Sharp's sporting rifle, No. 50.

Q. Was it a muzzle loading or a breech loading gun?

A. A breech loading gun.

Q. What did they use in that gun? A. Brass cartridges.

Q. Loaded cartridges; did they load the brass cart-

1377 ridges; is that it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How were those cartridges discharged?

[—] Why, by a primer on the end of the cartridge; what we called a primer.

Q. Did you see him after the wound was received?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was done after he received that wound?

A. We did the wound up the best we could.

Q. How did he carry his hand after that?

A. He carried his hand in a sling.

Q. Was that wound healed at the time you parted company with him down on the Pease River? A. No, sir.

Q. How was he carrying his hand when you left?

A. In a sling.

Q. Are you acquainted with the plaintiff, Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon, now Mrs. Smith? A. I have met her, yes, sir.

Q. When did you first meet her and where?

A. In my own house in Jefferson County sometime in May prior to the first trial of this case.

Q. Who was with her at that time, if you remember?

A. Mr. Thomas McCoy and his wife.

Q. They came to your house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have a conversation with her in reference to this suit there at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, you may state what that conversation was?

A. Well, that conversation was a description of what I called Wes. Hillmon. They call him here John W.

Q. That don't state the conversation. A. Did you ask—

Q. What did she say and what did you say?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepted.

A. She asked me to describe her husband, John W. Hillmon, which I did, as I have on the witness stand here before.

1378 Q. What did you say? A. What did I say?

Q. Yes.
A. I said John W. Hillmon was a medium height man with brown hair and brown eyes, and the last I seen him, with a heavy mustache and goatee.
Q. Another description? A. I described this —

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

[A.] What further did you say?
A. I described this scar on the right hand, just as I seen it in 1877.
Q. Now, what did she say to that?
A. She didn't make no objections to the scar nor to the description.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as not responsive to the question and as a conclusion.
No ruling.

Q. State what she said?
A. She said I could describe John W. Hillmon better than she could, and she would have to have me for a witness.
Q. How long did she remain there at that time?
A. She came there some time in the forenoon, and went away that evening.
Q. By evening, do you mean after dinner, or in the dusk?
A. We had eat supper before she went away,
Q. Now, when did you next see her, if you met her at all?
A. Some time in June in the court house.
Q. Where? A. Leavenworth.
Q. In which court house?
A. It was not this one; I think it was the court house the case was tried in somewhere south here.
Q. Did you have any conversation with her at that time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Where did you go with her from there, if you went any place? A. Went to the Continental Hotel.
Q. How did you come to go to the Continental Hotel with her? A. At her request.
1379 Q. What did she request you to do?
A. She asked me if there was any other persons from the country in there; I told her that I understood that my brother and his wife was at the Continental Hotel and she said to me that there was one of Hillmon's sisters she had never met, and would I be so kind as to give her an introduction and I told her I would if she would go down to the Continental Hotel.
Q. What did you do then?

A. We went down to the Continental Hotel, ascertained they was in, went up and I gave her an introduction.

Q. Did you have any conversation with her in regard to this case going down to the hotel? A. Yes sir.

Q. What was that conversation?

A. She said she wished I wouldn't testify anything in regard to the scar on Mr. Hillmon's hand.

Q. Did she know yon were a witness at the trial?

A. She surely must have; she subpoenaed me.

Q. More than one subpoena served on you at that time?

A. Yes sir.

Q. When you got to the hotel, whom did you meet?

A. I met my brother, G. A. Nichols.

Q. What did you reply to her when she made that requests that you should not testify in regard to that scar?

A. Well, I made reply that I told her about that scar in my house in Jefferson county and she then made no objections to it.

Q. Anything further?

A. Yes, she said he might have had a scar on his hand but scarcely perceptible by a magnifying glass.

Q. Now, when you got to the hotel, whom did you meet there?

A. My brother, G. A. Nichols, my uncle S. D. Nixon, my sister Mrs. J. H. Nixon and my sister-in-law, Mary E. Nichols.

Q. Where were they?

A. They was in a room in the Continental Hotel.

Q. Now, after the introduction, did they have any conversation in regard to this case? A. Yes sir.

1380 Q. Do you remember that conversation?

A. I do not.

Q. Did you hear it? A. Only in part.

Q. Did you hear any part of it?

A. Yes sir, I heard part of it.

Q. What was said so far as your recollection serves you?

A. My attention was first called to somebody being turned over to the authorities.

Q. You paid no attention to the conversation prior to that?

A. No sir, I did not.

Q. Did you hear any of the conversation after that?

A. No.

Q. If you heard that conversation on that subject, state what you did hear? A. I have already stated.

Q. You have stated all that you remember of that conversation there at that time? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember what Mrs. Nichols was doing there after you heard that part of the conversation?

A. I think she was crying.

Q. How long did Mrs. Hillmon stay there after that?
A. A few minutes.
Q. Who went away with her, if any one?
A. I don't know as anybody went away with her.
Q. I will ask you Mr. Nichols, to look at the picture marked Exhibit No. 10 and state if you recognize that as the picture of any one you know?
A. That has a slight resemblance to John W. Hillmon.
Q. Might that be a picture of John W. Hillmon?
A. It might, yes.
Q. Look at the picture marked Exhibit D?
A. I wouldn't recognize that picture as any one I ever seen.
Q. Look at the picture marked Exhibit 11.
A. That is a picture of John W. Hillmon.

1381 And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him [—] C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. The last time you saw John W. Hillmon was in 1877?
A. Yes sir.
Q. At your house in Jefferson county? A. Yes sir.
Q. How long did you see him at this time?
A. Two or three hours, I think.
Q. The time next before 1877 that you saw him was in Texas, was it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. The time next before you saw him in 1877, was in Texas in 1876? A. Yes sir.
Q. On the Pease River? A. Yes sir.
Q. It was while you were on the Pease River that you say this accident occurred in relation to the injury to his hand?
A. Yes sir.
Q. In what month was it?
A. That was in the month of August.
Q. When did you leave that country to come back to Kansas? A. In September.
Q. You left there about a month after he received this injury in 1876? A. Yes, I think it was about a month.
Q. You say that at the time of the explosion of this shell which injured his hand, that Henry Hillmon was there among others?
A. I don't remember that I said Henry was there.
Q. Didn't you so state in your direct examination that your recollection was that Henry Hillmon was one of the persons that were there at the time?
A. Well, I am not sure now whether I did state it on the direct examination or not.
Q. You don't remember now; do I understand you to say that you don't remember whether you said it in your direct examination, or whether it is true or not; what is your recollection now?

A. I don't remember a thing that Henry Hillmon was there.

Q. Who was present at that time?

A. Myself, Jake Sligel and Joe Plummer.

Q. It was a metallic shell, was it? A. Yes sir.

1882 A. It exploded in his hand did it?

A. I didn't say it exploded in his hand.

Q. Was his hand on the shell?

A. His hand was in the act of putting the shell into the chamber of the gun.

Q. Then the shell was in his hand?

A. No, I didn't so state.

Q. Did he hold the shell in his hand? A. No.

Q. Was he putting the shell into the gun with his hand?

A. His hand was int he act of putting the shell into the gun.

Q. How was his hand situated with reference to the shell?

[Q.] We generally took the shell in the thumb and finger; you don't take it in your hand.

[A.] He took in his thumb and finger as distinguished from his hand? A. Yes sir.

Q. He had the shell in his thumb and finger? A. Yes sir.

Q. And was putting it in the gun? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was loaded with 140 grains of powder, was it not?

A. I didn't so state.

Q. Well, that is the fact?

A. It was loaded with 110 grains of powder.

Q. You testified at the previous trial that it was loaded with 140 grains? A. I don't think I did.

Q. It was loaded with 110 grains of powder? A. Yes sir.

Q. And it exploded while he had it between his thumb and finger? A. I didn't say so.

Q. Did it or not? A. No, it did not.

Q. He did have it between his thumb and finger when he was putting it into the gun? A. Yes sir.

Q. Well, did it explode when he was putting it into the gun? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, it tore his thumb off, didn't it?

A. No, sir I didn't so state.

Q. You have testified at every trial of this case?

A. Yes sir.

1383 Q. You have been interrogated with reference to this same matter at every previous trial of this case? Have you not? A. What do you mean by interrogated.

Q. Questioned. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have been questioned? A. Yes, sir.

Q. With reference to this same matter at every previous trial of this case? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you have testified upon the subject?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will get you to state if you remember of testifying upon the trial of this case before Judge Thomas in the federal court-house at Topeka in the year 1895; do you remember of being cross-examined by me? A. Yes, sir.
Q. In relation to this same matter, the explosion of this shell? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will get you to state whether you did not testify as follows on that occasion in your cross-examination:
"What did you say to the jury about the end of his thumb being torn off? I didnt say anything about the end of his thumb being torn off:
Q. Didn't you say that his thumb was apparently torn loose from his hand?" And if you did not answer, "Yes, sir, I did."
A. Yes sir, I did.
Q. That is correct? A. That is correct.
"Q. His thumb was apparently torn entirely loose from his hand? A. I didn't say entirely loose.
"Q. His thumb was apparently torn loose from his hand?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did he bleed profusely?
A. Yes, sir, it bled pretty well.
A. This was his right hand, wasn't it?
A. Yes, sir, right hand.
Q. He was down there buffalo hunting? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was he engaged in the business of shooting or cleaning; what part of the work did he do?
A. He was huntsman.
Q. Did he stay there? He continued, and you came away?
A. Yes, sir.
1384 Q. You did not see him again until the spring of 1877 when he came to Jefferson county? A. Correct.
Q. Now, then, his hand was still disabled when you left there in September, 1876? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the only time that you ever saw it after that time was when he was at your house in 1877?
A. I left the buffalo range, I left Mr. Hillmon's camp in August, not in September.
Q. I thought you said the injury was in August, and that you left there in September. A. No.
Q. In what month was the injury? A. In August.
Q. And when did you leave there?
A. I left there shortly after that.
Q. In the month of August? A. In the month of August.
Q. Not in the month of September?
A. I left that camp in the month of August.
Q. Now, then, when you left there, the hand was still disabled? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You did not see any scar during that time? A. No, sir.
Q. And the only time that you ever saw any scar on his hand was when he was at your house in 1877? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And he was at your house then for two hours?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You never saw him afterwards?
A. I have never seen him since.
Q. This scar that you saw there in 1877, was at least half an inch wide, was it not?
A. I don't think it was half an inch wide.
Q. You don't think it was? A. No, sir.
Q. It was a very bad scar and very discernible so that anybody would see it that would see his hand?
A. I don't know what anybody else would see.
Q. But in your opinion was it so plainly discernible that if a man should look for a scar—
A. He would surely see it.
Q. He hadn't any scar on his finger—Where was the scar?
A. The scar was right up there (illustrating) around the ball of the thumb here.
1385 Q. The scar extended, if I undestand you, clear around the thumb?
A. Oh, no; no, you don't understand me.
Q. Then make it plain.
A. If it had extended clear around the thumb, the thumb would have had to have come off; I said it extended an inch and a quarter.
Q. That is, on the outside of the hand? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How large a scar was it on the inside of the hand?
A. Probably about the same.
Q. Now, I will get you to state if that scar was not at least half an inch wide, white and plainly discernible?
A. I would not make any such statement.
Q. Referring to your testimony given before Judge Thomas at the federal court-house in Topeka in 1895, I will ask you if you didn't testify as follows:
"How far did that scar extend up on the hand? A. On the side of the hand about an inch and a quarter.
Q. About an inch and a quarter? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Plainly visible? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And on the other side of the hand, how far, the inside of the hand?
A. It was a little more than an inch and a quarter; did not exceed an inch and a half.
Q. How wide was this scar?
A. It must have been a quarter of an inch wide."
[—] Didn't you so testify?
A. Yes, a quarter of an inch and half an inch is some difference

Q. A quarter of an inch wide?
A. Did I say half an inch?
Q. That is what you said.
A. I should have said a quarter of an inch.
Q. So the scar was a quarter of an inch wide?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And plainly discernible?
A. Yes, sir, to anybody that was looking for a scar, they could surely see it.

1386 Q. Now, then, I understand you to say that you have no recollection about his teeth except that you think they were defective; is that right? A. That is right.

Q. How old are you? A. I am 51 years old.
Q. You were born, then in 1845?
A. I was born in 1848.
Q. When did you first]know] John W. Hilmon?
A. In 1865.
Q. And you say his teeth were defective at that time?
A. Yes, sir, he had trouble with his teeth at that time.
Q. They always were defective?
A. Yes, sir, that is my recollection, as long as I ever knew him.
Q. You say in 1877 you did not notice his teeth?
A. In 1877, John W. Hillmon had quite a mustache.
Q. Wil- you answer my question. I didn't notice his teeth.
Q. You didn't notice his teeth in 1876?
A. No, not particularly.
Q. You have been interrogated upon each trial of this case in relation to his teeth, have you not? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you not testify in substance in the trial of this case in 1895 before Judge Thomas at the federal court house in Topeka, that John W. Hillmon had no tooth out in 1877, the last time you saw him?

The defendants object to the question for the reason that it does purport to state definitely enough what the witness did say.

Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Did you not testify in the trial of this case in 1895 before Judge Thomas, at the federal court-house in Topeka, that when you saw Mr. Hillmon at your house, and the last time that you ever saw him, in 1877, that he had no tooth out?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Did you not testify on that occasion that you did particularly notice his teeth, and that he had no tooth out in 1877? A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you not on that occasion testify that you did particularly notice his teeth and that he did not have any tooth out in 1876? A. I don't remember.

Q. And didn't you testify upon that occasion that 1387 you did particularly notice his teeth, and that he had one tooth that was discolored, but that he had no tooth out, and the last time you ever saw him that the discolored tooth.

Q. Don't you remember that you testified that that discolored tooth was in and that he had no absent tooth; that the discolored tooth was in his jaw the last time you saw him?

A. I don't remember testifying to that.

Q. I will ask you if you did not testify as follows in relation to that matter:

"Q. I want you to say that to the jury. You have stated on your direct examination that in 1875 or 1876, you noticed that Hillmon had a black tooth; is that correct?

A. I guess it is.

Q. And your recollection is that it was between 1875 and 1876? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you, prior to that time, ever noticed that he had a black tooth?

A. Well, I don't know as I could say that I had.

Q. Well, now, this black tooth was all intact, wasn't it; the tooth was in there but it was black?

A. The tooth was in there to the best of my recollection, yes, sir.

Q. And he didn't have any tooth out at all at that time, did he? A. Well, I couldn't say that he did.

Q. You took sufficient notice of his teeth to see that he had a black tooth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have no recollection up to 1875 and 1876 that he had any tooth out, and if he did you didn't notice it?

A. That is my recollection.

Q. Where was that black tooth?

A. It was in the upper jaw, in the front part of his mouth.

Q. Was it one of the front or of the two front teeth?

A. I think it was.

Q. One of the two front teeth? A. Yes, sir.

[—] Do you remember of so testifying?

1388 The defendants object to the question for the reason that it does not tend to impeach the witness. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Do you remember of so testifying?

A. No, I could not remember.

Q. Do you remember of testifying as follows:

"When did you next see him anywhere?

A. I think it was in 1877.
Q. Where? A. In Jefferson county.
Q. When you met him while on Pease River in Texas. did you notice this black tooth? A. Yes, sir.
Q. He still had the black tooth? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That would be along in the fall of 1876?
A. When he was camping on Pease River?
Q. Yes. A. August.
Q. August, 1876? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have a distinct recollection at that time he still had this black tooth? A. Yes, sir."
[—] Didn't you so testify?
A. Well, I don't remember my testimony from one trial to another.
Q. Well, you have testified at this trial that you have no recollection with reference to his teeth. Now, have you not as good recollection in regard to the teeth as you have with reference to the scar? A. No, sir.
Q. But you have testified heretofore in each trial of this case that you did remember his teeth, and that he had no absent tooth in 1877; wouldn't you be as apt to remember that as to remember about this scar, or to remember this conversation with Mrs. Hillmon twenty years ago. What is your opinion about it as to the strength of your memory?
A. Well, under the circumstances, I would remember the scar longer than I would anything else.
Q. Do you think Mr. Nichols, that you could have testified in this case in 1895, that you had a distinct recollec-1389 tion that he had no absent tooth, and that you would not remember now of so testifying?
A. I don't remember now.
Q. You don't remember now, so that you admit that you might have testified with reference to this tooth, that there was no absent tooth, in 1895, and now have forgotten the fact?
A. I have answered the question.
Q. And yet you think you can testify correctly to a conversation that you had with Mrs. Hillmon walking along the street twenty years ago? A. I think I can, yes, sir.
Q. Now, didn't you further testify upon that occasion that "The next time you saw Hillmon was in 1877? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where? A. In Jefferson county.
Q. Did you ever see him again? A. No, sir.
Q. How long, and under what circumstances did he remain there in 1877? A. He was on a visit there.
Q. How long were you in company with him?
A. About two hours; or maybe three.
Q. Did you still notice that he had the black tooth?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. You never saw him any more? A. I did not."
[—] Did you not so testify?
A. I testified that I did not see him any more.
Q. Did you not testify that you particularly noticed that he had no absent tooth, and that the black tooth was still in his jaw when you saw him in 1877 at your house?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Don't you remember, Mr. Nichols, that when you were cross-examined, you were repeatedly questioned about the matter as to whether there was any absent tooth from his jaw in 1877, time and time again on cross-examination, and that upon each occasion you said that you distinctly remembered that there was no absent tooth in his mouth in 1877?
A. There was so many [—] repeatedly asked that I can't keep track of all of them.
Q. Yes, but you endeavored, did you not, upon that 1390 occasion, to answer truthfully all the questions that were put to you? A. Well, yes, sir.
Q. Now, you have teseified to a conversation with Mrs. Hillmon that you had with Mrs. Hillmon walking along the street, I think in 1882; that was at the first trial of the Hillmon case, of this suit, was it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were here at that time as a witness? A. Yes, sir.
Q. For the insurance companies?
A. I was here under two subpoenas; I didn't know who was going to use me; I hadn't been put on the witness stand.
Q. You remember the conversation that you had with Mrs. Hillmon on that occasion? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will get you to state whether, in that conversation, when you said there was a scar upon Mr. Hillmon's hand, if Mrs. Hillmon did not reply if there was any scar on his hand, it was so small nobody could see it with a magnifying glass; is not that what she said? A. I think it was.
Q. Didn't you, in that conversation, when she asked you with reference to his teeth, tell her that you were certain he had no tooth out and that you would so testify?
A. I don't know as I did.
Q. What is your best recollection?
A. My best recollection is I think we didn't [mentioned] teeth at that time or in that conversation.
Q. Didn't you when she was up in Jefferson county? She was looking around there among the neighbors to get testimony in her case; you understood that, didn't you?
A. I understood that.
Q. That that was her purpose there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And she had a conversation with you and asked you to describe her husband? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And told you that she wanted to get witnesses to describe him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is what she told you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Didn't you tell her upon that occasion that you could describe him and that he had no tooth out?
A. I don't think the identity of the tooth was mentioned at that time.
1391 Q. Didn't you tell her that if anybody said John W. Hillmon had an absent tooth it was false?
A. No, I did not.
Q. And didn't you tell her the same thing in Leavenworth?
A. No, sir.
Q. And that you would be a good witness for her because you knew he had no tooth out; is not that true?
A. No, sir, that is not.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. I understood you to say, Mr. Nichols, in your cross-examination that Mr. Hillmon had the shell between his thumb and finger when he was putting it into the gun; do you mean to be understood that at the time of the explosion, that Mr. Hillmon was holding the cartridge between his thumb and finger?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

The Court overruled the objection, to which ruling of the court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. No, sir.
Q. What was he doing at the time of the explosion?
A. He was forcing it into the chamber of the gun with a stick he carried in his hand; he had taken it in his thumb and finger, like that was the cartridge, to insert it in the breech block so it would enter the chamber; but it had become swelled to such an extent that it would not enter the chamber like shells had ought to if it had been loaded right, and he endeavored to force it in with this stick that he carried in his hand.
Q. What would be the effect upon the gun after the gun had been fired a few times; what would be the effect upon the gun?
1392 A. Why, the shell exploded before the breech block—
Q. You don't understand; I asked you after the gun had been fired a few times, what effect it has on the gun? Does the gun become foul and dirty? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When a gun becomes foul and dirty, would that have any effect upon the insertion of the cartridge?

A. It hadn't ought to if the cartridge hadn't been swelled from loading.

Q. Now, you spoke about testifying here before that his thumb apparently was torn off from the hand; when did it have that appearance?

A. Right away after the explosion; when it was all bloody. Before we could definitely find the extent of the wound for blood.

Q. In other words, it made a serious accident, did it?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

And in answer to recross-interrgatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You say that you noticed this scar particularly when he came back there to Jefferson County? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And all the scar that you saw was around the thumb?

A. I didn't say so.

Q. Did you see any scar on the fingers? A. No, sir.

Q. There was no scar on his fingers? A. No, sir.

Q. Nor in the palm of his hand? A. No, sir.

Q. You now say on redirect examination, as I understand you, that he did not have the shell between the thumb and finger? A. At the time of the explosion, understand me.

Q. At the time of the explosion?

A. Yes, he did have it in his thumb and finger before it entered the breech block.

Q. When it exploded, his fingers were not near it; neither his thumb nor finger? A. I didn't say any such thing,

Q. He had this cartridge in the gun and was poking
1393 it with a stick as I understand it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is right, is it? A. That is right.

Q. He had the stick then in his thumb and fingers?

A. Well, I can't say positive how he held the stick; he was punching the cartridge with the stick with the right hand, and he held that stick in his right hand; that is all I can tell you; he was holding the stick he had the stick in his right hand and was poking the cartridge with it, forcing it into the chamber of the gun.

By Mr. Green:

Q. Do you know where he got that stick?

A. He carried that stick for the purpose. He always loaded his cartridges heavy.

The witness was here excused, and afterwards recalled when in answer to further cross-interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, he testified as follows, to wit:

Q. I want to ask you a few questions in relation to the explosion of this shell. The gun that Mr. Hillmon had at that time, was it a breech-loading gun or a muzzle-loading gun?
A. A breech-loading gun.
Q. Was it a rifle? A. Yes, sir.
Q. It was one of this kind that break down on a hinge?
A. No, sir.
Q. At the butt? A. Yes, it loads at the breech.
Q. It broke at the breech, didn't it?
A. There was several ways of a gun being breech loaders.
Q. How was this?
A. There was a breech block to this gun about four and a half inches long, and when you throwed the trigger guard down, the breech block dropped down and broke the gun and where the breech block dropped down was on a level or horizontal with the hole in the barrel so the shell could slide along on top of the breech block and be inserted into the barrel of the gun.
1394 Q. I understand that Mr. Hillmon had taken a ctraridge between his thumb and finger and inserted it into the breech of the gun, or into the breech block; is that right?
A. Yes, sir. Into the block.
Q. And he had a stick: How was he holding his gun; in his left hand? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the breech block would be— Was he standing or sitting?
A. He was—I don't know. I think he was standing up.
Q. He was standing up? A. Yes, sir.
Q. So that he would have had his gun in his hand like that, (illustrating) something like that, in front of him?
A. Yes, in front of him.
Q. He picked the cartridge out of his belt?
A. No, I think the cartridges were in a box beside of him.
Q. He picked a cartridge out of the box and inserted it in the breech block? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then he took the stick as I understand it, and was poking the cartridge into the bore?
A. Into the chamber of the gun.
Q. Or into the chamber? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long a stick was that that he had?
A. Oh, I couldn't say positive; six or eight inches long.

Q. So that his hand would be about six inches from the butt of the cartridge? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Probably not as much as that because he had to have hold of the stick, didn't he? You say the stick, he carried for that special purpose? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far would you say his hand was from the shell when it exploded?

A. I don't know; I would not attempt to say.

Q. He was looking at it was he?

A. I don't suppose a man shuts his eyes when he loads a gun.

Q. I am not asking you what you suppose; do you remember his attitude?

A. I couldn't say whether he was looking at it or not; he was loading the gun in the position I have already de-1395 scribed.

Q. Holding the gun in his left hand, and the stick in his right, and standing up is that correct?

A. I think that is correct.

Q. You say that this cartridge was loaded with 120 grains of powder? A. I think about 120 grains.

By Mr. Green:

Q. 110 or 120 grains of powder? A. 120.

Q. That was the number of grains you remember the cartridge was loaded with? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you one of those brass cartridges?

A. I have not here; I had one on a former trial but I did not fetch it along with me this time.

Witness excused.

1396 Mrs. Maggie J. Nixon, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to Direct Interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Please state your name? A. Maggie J. Nixon.

Q. Where do you reside, Mrs. Nixon?

A. In Cloud county, Kansas.

Q. Do you know George A. Nichols? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And W. W. Nichols? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What relation are you to them? A. I am their sister.

Q. Did you at any time live in Jefferson county?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Whereabouts in Jefferson county did you reside?

A. Near Valley Falls.

Q. What time did you leave Jefferson county?

A. About 1875, I think.

Q. Were you acquainted with a family by the name of Hillmon there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long were you acquainted with them?
A. Well, I became acquainted with some of the members of the family in the fall of 1865.
Q. You were then living in Jefferson county at that time?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had you always lived in Jefferson county or had you removed there from some other place?
A. Moved there from Illinois.
Q. Did you know John Wesley Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. Did you know the other members of the family?
A. I did.
Q. Where did you meet John W. Hillmon?
A. At my father's house.
Q. At any other places than your father's house?
A. Yes, sir, I met him at various places.
Q. Did you go to school with him at any time?
A. No, sir, I did not.
Q. Do you remember when you last saw John W. Hillmon?
A. I last saw him when he visited at my brother's house in Washington county.
Q. In what year was that, do you remember? [A.] 1877, was it not? A. Yes, sir.
1397 Q. How did you come to meet him there?
A. We went there visiting on the Sabbath and found him there, not knowing that he was there.
Q. Now, did you meet him frequently while you were residing in Jefferson county? A. Yes, I met him frequently.
Q. Did you go to school with him at any time?
A. No, sir, I never attended school with him.
Q. Did you ever notice the condition of his teeth while he was living there about Jefferson county? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state to the jury what the condition of his teeth was at that time if you remember.
A. His teeth were turned dark and were partially decayed.
Q. About what time was this?
A. They were in that condition when I first seen him.
Q. When did you last see him in Jefferson county, if you remember. A. I could not give the date.
Q. Could you give about the year?
A. Well, it was after my brother's marriage; my brother and his sister.
Q. Do you remember when they were married?
A. March 1870, if I remember right.
Q. Did you observe his teeth at all when you met him there at your brother's house in 1877?

A. Yes, I noticed his teeth.

Q. What was the condition of his teeth at that time?

A. There was at least one broken off, and the rest of his front teeth or the teeth which showed when he talked were dark.

Q. Now, while you lived in Jefferson county, you may state whether you ever heard him make any complaints in regard to his teeth; if so, what did he complain of?

A. I have often heard him say he had the toothache.

Q. In which jaw was it that you observed that this tooth was missing? A. In his upper jaw.

Q. Now, you may state if you know the plaintiff, Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon, now Mrs. Smith. A. I met the lady once.

1398 Q. Where did you meet her?

A. At the Continental Hotel in this city.

Q. Do you remember when that was? A. In June, 1882.

Q. What were you doing in Leavenworth at that time?

A. Came here as a witness on this trial.

Q. Now, was this before or after you had testified that you met her at the Continental Hotel? A. It was before.

Q. Where, in the Continental Hotel, if you remember, did you meet her? A. In our room.

Q. You are speaking of our room; whom do you mean?

A. Well, my brother and his wife and I occupied the same room.

Q. Who was present at the time you met here if you remember?

A. My brother G. A. Nichols and his wife, my brother W. W. Nichols, S. D. Nixon and myself.

Q. Whom did she come there with, if any one?

A. W. W. Nichols brought her there.

Q. Now, did you have any conversation with her at that time?

A. Well, I myself did not have much conversation with her; the conversation was in a measure general.

Q. Was there any conversation had there at that time in reference to this trial, or any matter connected with it?

A. Yes, the trial was spoken of.

Q. Did she state the purpose of her coming there?

A. She said she came to ascertain what our evidence in this case would be.

Q. Now, what was said to her in reply to that?

A. I don't know that I can tell exactly what was said if I tried to.

Q. Who was this addressed to, if you remember?

A. Well, I can't say that it was addressed to any one in particular; says "You folks."

Q. Now, what, if any statement did any of the parties make to her in regard to what they would testify to upon the trial?
A. Why, we spoke of his description.
Q. Well, what description was given.

1399 The plaintiff objects to the question unless the person is indicated who gave the description. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. What was said, if you remember?
A. What was said by whom?
Q. As to what your evidence would be or the evidence of any of you upon the trial?
A. Why, we spoke of his appearance in general, spoke of his hair and his eyes; his teeth also were mentioned.
Q. Now, who spoke about his teeth if you remember?
A. I could not say who spoke first about them?
Q. Did more than one give a description of him, do you remember? A. I think we all spoke of how we regarded him.
Q. What did she say in regard to that matter?
A. She said her husband's teeth were good.
Q. What further was said?
A. Mrs. Nichols said "If your husband's teeth were good, then your husband is not my brother."
Q. What did she say finally in regard to the evidence that you would give?
A. She said, "If that is the evidence you are going to give, I will go back, she says, and dismiss the case and turn him over to the authorities."
Q. How long did she remain there after she had said that?
A. Not long; only a few minutes.
Q. Did you hear any further conversation between her and any of the other members of the party there?
A. No, sir, I heard no further conversation; at least none that I recollect.
Q. Did you observe the condition of Mrs. Nichols at that time? A. Yes, sir. She was very much affected.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as a conclusion. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. What did she do, if anything?
By Mr. Atwood: Who?
Q. Mrs. Nichols.

1400 The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. What she did?

By the Court: You may show what she said.

Q. What reply, if any, did Mrs. Nichols make to that?
A. I don't think she made any reply.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to her by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You first knew John W. Hillmon when, Mrs. Nixon?
A. I first met him in the fall of 1865.
[—] And did you know him more or less from that time on until he went away in 1870? A. I did.
Q. Did you live in the same neighborhood where he did?
A. I did.
Q. When did you first notice that his teeth were bad?
A. From the very beginning; the first time I met him.
Q. They were discolored in front? A. Yes, sir.
Q. All of them?
A. I can't say that all of them were; that was my impression; that would be a person's impression taking just a casual glance at his mouth in conversation.
Q. It is your recollection we want; not your impression, what is your recollection as to the state of his teeth in front at that time?
A. I have stated the appearance of his teeth; they were discolored.
Q. Then they were discolored if they appeared discolored, were they not? A. I presume they were.
Q. Well, weren't they; is not the matter beyond presumption? A. I have stated it.
Q. You said you presumed so, and I now ask you what the fact is, if you will kindly tell me?
A. I have stated that his teeth were discolored in front.
Q. Now, then, that was a fact in 1865. Were any 1401 of them gone at that time?
A. Not that I am aware of.
Q. Well, what is your recollection about it?
A. No sir, I think not.
Q. When did you notice any of his teeth gone or crumbled; I mean gone in part or gone altogether?
A. I don't recollect that I noticed any part of his teeth entirely gone or any part of his teeth gone until I met him at my brother's.
Q. That was in 1877? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, then, in 1870, when he went away, he had no tooth that was broken off in any degree?
A. If he did, I didn't notice it.
Q. You didn't notice it? A. No sir.

Q. How frequently did you see him those three or four years, the five or six years from the time you met him in 1865 until he went away?

A. He came frequently there to our house.

Q. How far apart did you live?

A. The part of the time he was at his father's house he was, I think, about two miles from my father's house.

Q. What is your present age, Mrs. Nixon? A. 48.

Q. Were you married at the time that you knew Mr. Hillmon prior to the time he went away? A. No sir.

Q. You can't tell, I suppose, how often you met him; you simply know that you did meet him, and that his teeth were discolored when he went away in 1870? A. Yes sir.

Q. Then you did not see him again until 1877?

A. No sir.

Q. At whose house was it that you met him?

A. In 1877 I met him at my brother's house.

Q. Which one? A. Qeorge A. Nichols.

Q. There were two Nichols on the stand this morning, which was G. A.? The first one, the first witness?

A. I believe so, yes sir. Yes, G. A. Nichols was the first one.

Q. He is the one whose wife is here and testified?

A. Yes sir.

Q. The other one is W. W. Nichols? A. Yes sir.

1402 Q. It was at the house of G. A. that you met him?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How long were you in his company when you met him at your brother's house?

A. The greater part of the day.

Q. Was anything said about his having visited W. W. Nichols in his home in Jefferson county, or at his home in Jefferson county? A. Not that I remember.

Q. What sort of a beard did he have at that time, if any?

A. He wore a mustache and small goatee.

Q. How about the weight of the mustache, that is, the thickness or thinness of it; was it a heavy mustache or the reverse of heavy?

A. Well, I should not have called it very heavy; still it was not a thin mustache; rather medium I should say.

Q. Did not conceal his teeth at all?

A. Not altogether, no sir.

Q. When he was speaking or laughing you could see the defect in his teeth without any difficulty at all?

A. Very plainly.

Q. Very plain. Do you know of anything that transpired between his visit there, and his visit to W. W. Nichols that would prevent the teeth from being plainly seen at W. W. Nichols?

A. I think he visited at W. W. Nichols before he was there; I think he did.

Q. His beard wasn't in any such shape when you saw it as to conceal this defective tooth when you saw him there at Washington county? A. No sir.

Q. Did his beard have the appearance of being recently cut off or anything of that kind; the mustache?

A. Well, I don't know that I observed him so particularly closely as to notice whether his mustache had been trimmed or not.

Q. Now, in 1882, that was the first time that you ever saw Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. And this assemblage that she came into at the Continental Hotel, consisting of yourself, your husband—

A. No sir.

Q. Yourself and your two brothers? A. Yes sir.

1403 Q. And the wife of one of your brother's?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And another kinsman of yours? A. My uncle.

Q. And at that time, you heard these statements that you have given to the jury? A. Yes sir.

Q. How big was that room, Mrs. Nixon, approximately?

A. It was a hotel bed-room, containing two beds. I will take that back; there was only one bed in it. I couldn't give the size of it; it was not a large bed-room.

Q. Mr. W. W. Nichols was in there, the gentleman who last testified just before lunch?

A. He was either in the room or standing just in the doorway.

Q. Was there anything, so far as you could observe, that would prevent him hearing all or anything that you heard in that room?

A. He might have been interested in something else.

Q. Did you observe who was talking at the time that Mrs. Hillmon made these statements, that you say she made, besides herself, if anybody?

A. I don't recollect that anybody else was talking just at that time, not just when she made that statement.

Q. Was there anybody else present besides this group you have named of your relatives?

A. No, I believe there was a very small child of my brother's present.

Q. No grown person present? A. No sir.

Q. Did you observe that W. W. Nichols was so absorbed in something else that he would not have heard what was said in the room? A. No sir.

Q. You were paying attention to what Mrs. Hillmon said?

A. Partially.

Q. And to what the others said? A. Yes sir.
Q. Who was speaking when Mrs. Hillmon came into the room? A. I could not tell you.
Q. Did you go on and speak of his teeth, of his hair, mustache and other personal peculiarities?
A. Well, I can't say that I gave any especial description of the gentleman.
1404 Q. Did you say anything?
A. I took part in the conversation.
Q. Do you remember what you said?
A. I don't remember exactly what I said.
Q. Do you remember who it was that described the teeth?
A. I did describe the teeth.
Q. Did each of you describe the teeth in turn?
A. No, sir, we did not, but when one party had described them, we all agreed that that was correct.
Q. You are the person who described the teeth on that occasion? A. I don't know that I am.
Q. I understood you to say so?
A. I don't think I said so, I don't recollect.
Q. You don't remember who did the talking?
A. I don't recollect who done the talking.
Q. You think it was some other person in the group?
A. I don't remember that it was myself, and I don't remember who it was.
Q. You don't remember who it was? A. No, sir.
Q. You are positive it was said, all right?
A. I am positive it was said.
Q. Was Mrs. Hillmon introduced to each of yon when she came in? A. I think she was.
Q. She was introduced specially and particularly to you?
A. I think she was; I would not be certain but I think brother Will introduced her to me.
Q. Did you shake hands with her all around?
A. I could not say.
Q. Don't remember that? A. Don't remember that.
Q. How long was that conversation being carried on?
A. I presume she was there probably half an hour; maybe not so long.
Q. What would be your recollection; that would be quite a leeway; was it an half an hour or considerably less, or approximately half an hour?
A. It might be half an hour; I suppose it was, as near as I can say.
1405 Q. It was about that, you think? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, then, when Mrs. Hillmon said that if you were going to testify to that effect, that she would turn Hillmon over to the authorities, did you take her seriously or think i: was serious?

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination. Objection overruled, to which ruling the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

A. Well, I certainly didn't think she was joking.
Q. You thought it was serious?
A. It was intended seriously, I suppose.
Q. That is where you and W. W. differ?

The defendants object to the statement and it was stricken out.

Q. Did she leave the room immediately after that statement was made? A. Very shortly afterwards.
Q. You never heard of the suit being dismissed, did you?
A. No, sir, I did not.
Q. Right here, it is a very live suit ain't it?
A. Seems to be.
Q. And you never heard of his being turned over to the authorities, did you? A. No.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You may look at Exhibit D and state if you recognize that as the picture of any one you have known?
A. I could not say whose picture it was.
Q. Look at the picture marked 11, and state if you recognize that as the picture of any person you have known?
A. That is a picture of J. W. Hillmon.
Q. Look at Exhibit No. 10, and see if you recognize that as the picture of any one whom you have known, and if so, state of whom?
1406 A. It looks like Mr. Hillmon but I wouldn't say it was his picture.
By a Juror: We did not hear what the lady said about the first picture.
Q. What did you say about the first picture shown you?
A. I did not recognize it.
Witness excused.

1407 Thomas Jefferson Schleppy, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination by Mr. Green.

Q. You may state your name, if you please?
A. Thomas J. Schleppy.
Q. Where do you reside? A. North of Valley Falls.
Q. About how far?

A. About three and a half or four miles.
Q. What is your business? A. Farming.
Q. How long have you lived in Jefferson County?
A. I have lived there off and on since 1861.
Q. Where were you living from 1865 on?
A. I lived there from 1865 until 1869?
Q. Were you living there from 1861 until 1869?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know a family by the name of Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was the father's name? A. Benjamin.
Q. How far did they reside from where you were living?
A. About two miles.
A. What relation, if any, was Benjamin Hillmon to you?
A. He was an uncle by marriage?
Q. That family consisted of how many children? A. Five.
Q. What were their names, please?
A. The oldest one was Henry, the next one was John W., the next was Mary E., the next was William G., and Martha.

Q. Did you visit at your uncle's house? A. Yes, sir.

1408 Q. Did you see John W. Hilmon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How often did you see John W. Hillmon during the time that you lived there up until you left in 1869?

A. Well, in 1861 we lived there for a month or so with the family, and then we moved to town after that, and I would see him probably every two or three weeks, until in 1864, I guess it was, he went to the army.

Q. How long was he gone at that time, do you remember?

A. I do not recollect exactly how long, I think it was in 1865, or some place, when he came back.

Q. Then from that time on did he stay there as long as you were living there?

A. No. He was gone part of the time off on the plains; I don't know where.

Q. When he was there, or there abouts, did you see him?

A. Yes, sir, I saw him pretty often.

Q. Now when did you last see him?

A. Either 1869 or 1870; spring or summer of 1870.

Q. Where did you see him at that time?

A. Well the last place I recollect of seeing him, he was boarding at Carey's; that is, after his father was dead he boarded at Carey's a while, and bought cattle around through the country.

Q. As I undestand, after 1869 or the spring of 1870, you never saw him afterwards? A. No, sir.

Q. Haven't seen him since? A. No, sir.

Q. Now you may give a description of John W. Hillmon. Describe his person?

A. He was tall like, square-shouldered, walked straight.

Q. Do you remember the color of his hair?

A. Brown hair, dark eyes, dark brown eyes.

Q. What was the shape of his nose?

A. His nose was rather a large nose, a little Roman nose, little higher in the center.

Q. In regard to his teeth: Do you remember in regard to those?

A. Well, ever since the time I can recollect he had a colored tooth, and the last time I saw him, in 1869 or 1870, it was clear out or else down to the gum. I could not say. I think it was clear out.

Q. What was the condition of his other teeth, if you remember?

A. So far as I know his other teeth might have been colored. I do not know. I could not say whether they was or not.

Q. Did he ever complain of his teeth?

A. I have heard him talk of having the tooth-ache. Yes, sir. I have heard him complain.

Q. What did he complain of?

A. Complained of the tooth-ache.

Q. When was this, if you remember?

A. Along in 1865 and 1866, along there.

Q. Now do you remember whether or not he had any scars? A. Yes sir, he had a scar on his head.

Q. Whereabouts?

A. It was something near where I have a scar, right up on the left-hand side of the back of his head.

Q. Was that plainly noticeable?

A. It was when you could see it; when his hair was cut short.

Q. Do you know how he received that scar?

A. No, I do not.

Q. When do you remember of seeing it?

A. 1862 or 1863.

Q. Did you see it after that?

A. I do not remember now whether I have or not.

Q. Did you learn how he received that scar?

A. Nothing but hearsay.

Q. I will ask how he received it?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay evidence. Objection sustained; the defendants, and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Look at the picture "Exhibit 11," and state if you recognize that as the picture of any one whom you have known and, if so, state who it is?

A. John W. Hillmon.

Q. Look at the picture marked "Exhibit D," and state if you can identify that as the picture of any one whom you have known?

A. No, I would not say that that was his picture. That don't look like him.

By the Court: My memory is to the effect that "Exhibit D," has not been offered in evidence by Mr. Green.

It goes in evidence as an exhibit to a deposition. It has been identified as a picture of Hillmon.

By the Witness: I would call that Hillmon, but it is not, I would not say it was as good a picture as the first one.

Q. That is, as "Exhibit 11"? A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. You say that one of these pictures is a picture of Hillmon and the other is not?

A. No, I did not say it was not. It may be, but it is 1411 not a good picture; that is a good picture of him.

Q. Whose picture is that, Mr. Schleppy, if you know? (showing "Exhibit No. 22 to the witness).

A. It is a picture of John W. Hillmon, but it ain't as good a picture as—

Q. You say that is a picture, in your judgment, of John W. Hillmon? A. I believe it is.

Q. Now what would you say you think that was?

A. I say it favors him some It may be a picture of him.

Q. Now put them side by side and see, would you say that one is not a copy of the other?

A. I should say it may be, but it ain't as good a one as the other.

Q. Didn't you say, when this was submitted to you, it was a picture of John W. Hillmon, I ask what your opinion is?

A. It may be.

Q. I mean, what do you think about it; that is, your opinion? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your opinion of that is that it is a picture of Hillmon too, and that also? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now will you explain to the jury, Mr. Schleppy, why you should, with hesitancy, have said that was a picture of John W. Hillmon but not a good one?

A. I did not say it was not. I said it was a picture, but not a good one.

Q. In 1870 you say you saw him for the last time; is that right? A. Saw Mr. Hilmon in 1869 or 1870.

Q. Where were you residing, for the purpose of refreshing your recollection? A. North of Valley Falls.

Q. Had you been for some years residing there?

A. I had been there since 1861, on that place, right
1412 straight along there up until the time Hillmon went away.

Q. Now can you fix the date any more definitely than 1869 or 1870?

A. He was there when I went up to Doniphan County.

Q. When did you go? A. I went, I guess, in 1870.

Q. Then probably it was 1869 that you saw Hillmon?

A. 1870, I guess it was. It was sometime in the summer of 1870.

Q. That you went to Doniphan? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was [—] the preceding summer or spring that you saw Hillmon, preceding the time you went to Doniphan, or was it the same year? A. I think it was 1870.

Q. You say that at that time one tooth was broken off or gone, was it?

A. It was clear down to the gums, yes sir.

Q. Which tooth was that?

A. It was in the upper jaw, I think.

Q. On the right hand side?

A. I would not say positive which side.

Q. Of course no man can say positively after so many years.

A. But my recollection, one of the front teeth, not the center front tooth but the next one to it.

Q. One of these that showed when the man spoke or laughed? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was to the right side of the center of the jaw?

A. I would not say positive.

Q. I understood you to say that that was your recollection about it? Am I right?

A. I said I would not say positive.

Q. You have been asked about it and I am trying simply to ask you what your recollection is, to see whether it was on the right or the left of the center.

1413 A. It might have been to the right side.

Q. It might have been upon both sides? A. No sir.

Q. I am asking what your recollection would be, your best recollection? A. It was on the right side.

Q. How about the others; that is, what we call the incisor teeth, the front teeth, the flat teeth you know?

A. The big teeth?

Q. The flat teeth, the flat smooth ones in front, how were they for decay? A. They were all right at that time.

Q. Now this is—

A. I would not say positive that they was.

Q. Of course, but wait until I get done with the question. What else do you want to say? I am listening.

A. Ask a question.
Q. Did you get through? A. Yes sir.
Q. Can I say something now?

By Mr. Green: I object to counsel treating the witness that way. The witness only wants an opportunity to answer the question.

By the Court: Go on.

Q. Now this tooth that you spoke of was plainly visible; that is a fact? A. Yes sir.
Q. So that one, in talking with him or seeing him laugh, could hardly avoid seeing the condition of his teeth, is that a fact? A. Yes sir.

1414 Q. And your recoollection is, that in 1870, the last time you saw him, twenty-nine years ago, if your recollection serves you, that this tooth you have described was gone, but that the others were all right? A. Yes sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Green:
Q. Do you remember whether he wore a mustache in 1870?
A. Yes sir.
Q. How heavy a mustache did he have at that time?
A. Light mustache, not heavy.
Q. How was it as to the color?
A. It was lighter than his hair.

Witness excused.

1415 Samuel D. Nixon, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:
Q. State your name please?
A. My name is Samuel D. Nixon.
Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Nixon?
A. In Washington County, this state.
Q. Did you ever live in Jefferson County? A. Yes sir.
Q. About what year did you live there?
A. I believe it was in either 1864 or 1865. I don't remember dates very well.
Q. Did you know John W. Hillmon?
A. At that time I just knew him; that was all, I knew him when I saw him.
Q. Do you know the plaintiff, Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon?
A. No sir, I can't say that I do.
Q. Did you ever meet her? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where? A. At the Continental Hotel in Leavenworth.
Q. When? A. I believe it was in 1882.
Q. What was going on here at that time, if you remember?

A. This same trial was going on I believe.
Q. Who was present when you met her?
A. There was Mr. G. A. Nichols and his wife, Mrs. J. H. Nixon, W. W. Nicholls and myself, is my best recollection.
Q. Did she come to the room where you were?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Whom did she come with? A. W. W. Nicholls.

1416 Q. Now did you have any conversation with her after she came there? A. I did not, no sir.

Q. Did you hear any conversation between her and the others who were there at that time? A. I did.
Q. Now, who was conversing, if you remember?
A. Well I could not say who her conversation, that is, Mrs. Hillmon's conversation was directed to, which one nor whether it was all of us.
Q. What was the subject-matter of the conversation?
A. Well, I can't give the exact words, but it was something like this.
Q. What were they talking about was the question?
A. They were talking about the suit that was going on, and the case.
Q. What did she say her business was there, if anything?
A. I do not know that I can recollect. I don't remember how the conversation commenced exactly.
Q. Do you remember any of the conversation? If so, state it?
A. Mrs. Hillmon, in answer to the conversation or the question that was asked her, I don't know what it was, but her answer was, that if that is what you are going to swear to I shall go and withdraw the case and turn him over to the authorities, as near as I can recollect.
Q. To whom was this addressed?
A. It seemed to be addressed to Mrs. G. A. Nicholls.
Q. Do you remember what she said before that, Mr. Nicholls? A. I don't believe I do.
Q. What had you been talking about before that?
A. They were talking about his teeth, or something like that.
Q. What was said about them, if you remember?

The plaintiffs object to the question for the reason

1417 that the witness has already answered the same. Objection overruled, and the plaintiff excepts.

A. Something about him having decayed teeth, and one tooth was out. I don't remember what Mrs. Hillmon's reply to that was.
Q. Do you remember who said that, Mr. Nixon?
A. I think it was Mrs. G. A. Nicholls.

Q. Was that before or after she made this remark that you have sspoken of about turning him over to the atuhorities?

A. I believe it was after; that is my best recollection.

Q. Which was after, that this tooth question was talked about? A. I don't understand you.

Q. Which part of the conversation took place first, that in regard to the decayed tooth, or that in regard to turning him over to the authorities?

A. In regard to turning him over to the authorities, I believe, is my recollection, that that was spoken of first. I would not be certain.

Q. Now Mr. Nixon, can you give the conversation in the order it occurred?

The plaintiff objects to the question as cross-examination. Objection overruled, and the plaintiff excepts.

[Q.] What was the question?

Q. I ask you if you can give the order of the conversation as it came up? A. I don't believe I could do it.

Witness excused.

1418 Frederick D. Morse, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name Doctor? A. Frederick D. Morse.

Q. Where do you reside? A. Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. What is your business? A. Physician and surgeon.

Q. How long have you been practicing medicine?

A. Thirty-two years.

Q. What college, if any, did you graduate from?

A. Rush Medical College of Chicago.

Q. How long have you been a practicing physician in Lawrence? A. Thirty-one years.

Q. Do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought to Lawrence in the spring of 1879? A. I do.

Q. Did you see that body? A. I did not.

Q. Where was your office at that time?

A. On the corner of Massachusetts and Henry streets.

Q. Do you know where the body was located?

A. I think it was—

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay evidence. Objection overruled; the plaintiff excepts.

A. I think at Smith's undertaking rooms.

Q. Where was that in reference to your office?
A. It was on the opposite side of Massachusetts street, a little south.
Q. Do you know Dr. J. H. Stuart? A. I do.
1419 Q. Where was he living at that time, if you know?
A. He was living on Tennessee street in the city of Lawrence.
Q. Where did he have an office?
A. He had an office in the same building that I had one
Q. You may state if at that time you were asked to examine a portion of that body?

The plaintiff objects to the question because it calls for the conclusion of the witness and is leading. Objection overruled; the plaintiff excepts.

A. I was called to examine a piece of flesh said to have come from a body.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as hearsay.

By the Court:
Q. Is it the piece that Dr. Stuart exhibited to you?
A. Yes, sir.

The court overruled the motion, to which ruling the plaintiff duly excepted.

Q. Now what, if anything, did this piece of flesh that you examined there in Dr. Stuart's office contain?
A. There was a vaccination mark on it, a scar.
Q. About how large was this piece of flesh that you were called upon to examine?
A. As near aas I can recollect it was about two inches or two and a half inches by three.
Q. Who asked you, if any one, to examine it?
A. Dr. Stuart.
Q. When was that, as to the time this dead body was there at Lawrence, if you know?
A. It was about the time that they held the coroner's inquest, if I remember rightly, as near as I remember.
Q. Now you state that you found on that piece of 1420 flesh, a vaccine sore? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How did you determine that it was a vaccine sore?
[Q.] From the looks of the crust that was on it, a scab.
Q. Are you able to tell from the appearance of a scab which you may find upon a piece of flesh of that kind, whether it was a vaccine sore or from some injury or bruise?
A. We can.
Q. How do you determine it Doctor?

A. From the looks of the scab and the surrounding tissue.

Q. Now Doctor is this matter of vaccination a difficult one? A. No, sir.

Q. Who can do it?

A. Most any one can do it if they have the virus.

Q. Now the virus, where can you obtain that from in order that you may vaccinate a person?

A. You can obtain it from a person who has a vaccine sore, at a certain stage, or you can take it from the scab, or you can get it from the place where they procure it from the bovine virus.

Q. How is it done? How is this vaccination made?

A. Why it can be done by simply a little scratch on the surface of the body, enough to bring the blood, and then rubbing some of the virus in, or putting a piece of the scab in and retaining it there.

Q. Now does this vaccine sore have certain stages?

A. It does.

Q. How long after the virus is inserted in the arm do you find any effect of the virus.

A. From twenty-four to forty-eight hours.

Q. What is the first effect that you notice?

A. Usually a little red point.

Q. What does that develop into?

1421 A. It developes into a papule containing a little watery substance, elevated above the surface, and then afterwards into a pustule.

Q. Now about how long after the insertion of the virus, if the virus takes effect, does this first appear, this papule you speak of, usually? A. About five days.

Q. About how long before the pustule forms?

A. About eight days.

Q. Then what is the next stage of that vaccine sore?

A. The inflammation extends around the sore and lasts for three or four days, then the sore gradually dries up and forms a crust and remains there for a certain length of time, and falls off.

Q. Now how does the crust that you find on a vaccine sore differ from that which you find occasioned by a wound.

A. It is generally of a regular size, unless it has been interefered with, and it is elevated above the surface and, after the crust forms, it shows no matter about it.

Q. Is there any difference in the texture of the scab thus formed? A. Usually more solid than one made from a wound.

Q. Any difference in the appearance and color?

A. It is usually brown, rather dark brown, and at first is pretty firmly joined to the tissues beneath.

Q. Now about how long after the virus has taken, after the papule has formed for instance, is it before the scab has dried up so that it falls off?

A. About twenty-one days.

Q. Is that from the time of the insertion of the virus?

A. From the insertion of the virus?

Q. You say the 21st or 23rd? A. The 21st.

Q. Now from the appearance of a normal vaccine sore, you say that you can tell about how long it has been since the party was vaccinated?

1422 A. Generally you can.

Q. Now did you examine this vaccine sore that you found upon this piece of flesh? A. I did.

Q. How long did you determine it had been since the person from whose arm this was taken, or from whose body this was taken, had been vaccinated?

A. I judged it to be about fourteen days.

Q. How did you determine this?

A. Because it was so thoroughly united to the flesh we could not separate it from the flesh without cutting it. It had dried up so that there was no matter there. There was none of the virus there in a liquid state. It had all dried up and it was united with the tissues beneath so thoroughly that it could not be separated unless you cut it with a sharp instrument. There was no sign of its loosening up.

Q. What was the condition of the surrounding flesh?

A. The tissues around, perhaps for half an inch or such a matter as that, were reddened and apparently swollen.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You are an employee of the defendant companies, are you not; The Mutual Life Insurance Company?

A. I examine for them sometimes. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have for many years. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are their regular medical examiner at Lawrence, Kansas?

A. I am for the New York Life Insurance Company and for the Connecticut Life.

Q. You have been for the Mutual Life have you not?

A. Not their regular examiner. I have examined when their regular examiner was not there, 1423 Q. You are testifying as an expert, and receive a special fee for it, do you not? A. I suppose so.

Q. How much do you receive in addition to your ordinary fees? A. There is no set price given.

Q. What have you received heretofore?

A. I don't remember. I think one time I did not receive anything but the regular fees, and one time I think I received $15; I think so.

Q. Now you say a piece of flesh about two and a half by three inches in dimension? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You do not know where the flesh came from except from hearsay? A. Except by hearsay. No, sir.

Q. How many sores were there on this flesh?

A. I do not remember of but one.

Q. Would you undertake to say there were not two sores?

A. I would not undertake, no sir. My remembrance was that there was only one.

Q. Only one sore? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now did you see any appearances of this piece of flesh having been burned with iron? A. No, sir.

Q. When you examined it? A. No, sir.

Q. You say that a professional man ought to be able to distinguish a vaccine mark by its characteristics?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. There would not be any reasonable probability of making a mark on a piece of skin with a red hot iron, that would resemble a vaccination sore would there?

1424 A. No, sir. I think not.

Q. If you should see a vaccination mark on a body you would not have any trouble in distinguishing it from a mark made by a red hot iron? A. I think not.

Q. You say that the age of a vaccine sore can generally be determined by an inspection of it in its different stages?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Sometimes it can. A. It varies sometimes.

Q. And sometimes it cannot.

A. Cannot be told exactly. No, sir.

Q. When is it that it cannot be told?

A. I think it would be difficult to tell just what it was from the 14th to the 21st day, or when it was just ready to fall off. I think it would be difficult to tell then.

Q. It would be in the latter stages of the sore?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then it would be more difficult to determine its age?

A. I think so.

Q. Now you are speaking of vaccine sores so far as your experience is concerned upon live human beings?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You never saw a piece of flesh with a vaccine mark cut out of a dead body? A. No, sir. I think not.

Q. You never did examine a vaccine sore upon a dead body? A. Not that I remember of now.

Q. Did you examine this sore under a glass?

A. I do not remember that we did.

Q. You were making this examination at that time,
1425 I presume, at the instance of the companies?

A. No, sir. Simply for Dr. Stuart. He asked me to.

Q. Dr. Stuart requested you to? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You did not make any notes of the examination at that time? A. No, sir.

Q. You depend entirely upon your memory for what you say? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, if you can tell a vaccine sore by inspection, and determine approximately its age during the stages of incubation up to say the 14th day, you would discover, in such examination, whether the skin was on the sore would you not; that is, what you call the scarf skin or cuticle? You did not see very much of it there?

A. I cannot say positively that the scarf skin was there. It is very difficult to determine after the crust has formed.

Q. Now, as to that part of the sore, if you did see it, you did not see any skin there, did you?

A. No, sir. No. Simply crust.

Q. Dr. Stuart was there at the time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. If the skin had extended from the surroundings of the sore over the top of it, you would have seen it wouldn't you?

A. Yes, sir, I think so.

Q. You had as good an opportunity to see it as Dr. Stuart?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, the incubation of a vaccine sore, the period of incubation, cannot be positively and accurately told? Only approximately? A. Approximately, yes, sir.

Q. That you learn from experience and what is stated in the books? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will get you to state, doctor, whether or not it is well established in your profession, that a vaccine sore may 1426 be prolonged, that is, the period of incubation may be prolonged, by the weather, the health of the person, or some [sceptic] poison coming in contact with it, or injuries to the sore during the period of incubation?

A. I presume it is, yes, sir.

Q. It may be? A. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination by Mr. Green.

Q. Would it be prolonged after this point you speak of, the papule being formed, after the first blister is formed?

A. Yes, if there was an injury to it, it might be prolonged then. It might be prolonged if poison got into it. If the surface was broken so that germs could get in there they might develop a kind of poison and prolong it somewhat.

Q. But the sore would show what for itself, would it not?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

A. Your question was what?

Q. Would the sore show, or would the crust formed over the sore show whether or not the true vaccine sore had been injured? A. I think it would. Yes, sir.

Q. What would be the condition there?

A. It might be larger. It might be irregular. It would not be what you would call a normal scab.

Q. And what would be the condition of the substance of the scab?

A. Well, it would depend upon the amount of the injury.

Q. Well, if it was injured so that it would cause the blood to flow, what would then be the condition of the substance of the scab of a normal vaccine scab?

A. It would probably be larger and the crust would probably be thicker and of softer texture. I do not think it would be quite as solid.

Q. What would you say as to the sore or the scab that you found upon this piece of flesh being a normal vaccine 1427 scab?

A. That is what I judge it to be; a normal scab.

Q. And you judge that from what?

A. From the appearance of it and from the solidity of the scab, and the intimacy with which it was joined to the tissue beneath.

Q. How was it joined to the tissues beneath?

A. It simply seemed to be grown together so that we could not separate it, as I said, without using a sharp instrument.

Q. Now, what would be the condition of this sore at the time this scab would fall off?

A. The scab would be loosened from the tissue beneath.

Q. And by what process would that be brought about?

A. By a process of separation. It produces a condition of separating the foreign substance and the surface of the skin and throws it off gradually, exfoliates it; gradually develops a change of the tissue of the skin beneath it, and the crust falls off.

Q. When this vaccine sore arrives at perfection, you might say, would this scab fall off itself? A. Yes, sir, usually.

Q. Now, would a normal sore show any interference of foreign agencies, [sceptic] or otherwise? A. I think it would.

Q. So that you could discern it from the sore? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now you are asked, Doctor, if you ever saw a vaccine sore on a dead body before? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would there be anything in the fact that the body had died which would change the character or condition of the sore before decomposition had set in?

A. I do not see why there would be.

Q. Have you ever examined any since?

A. I do not remember that I have.

1428 Q. Now, you were in the employ of either the Mutual Life or the Connecticut Mutual at the time that you examined this sore there at Dr. Stuart's office? A. No, sir.

Q. When were you first employed by the Connecticut Mutual, if you remember?

A. I think I examined for them sometime in 1869, possibly 1870; 1869 or 1870. I do not know but I did a little in the fall of 1868. After that I did not do anything more for them for a number of years.

Q. Do you remember how long you were in attendance upon the court at the time you received the magnificent sum or $15 for your services? A. I think about five days.

Q. At what stage of a vaccine sore could you take the virus from the arm of another person and vaccinate another person with it?

A. The lymph is usually taken at the eighth day. You make a little hole in the scab and take the lymph from it, because that is considered the best time.

Q. Is that the way that vaccinating was usually performed heretofore? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In the earlier days? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had this sore, from your observation, developed normally, without any foreign interference? A. I think so.

Q. It did not show any signs of any foreign interference?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

A. Nor, sir. As I testified at first. I called it a normal sore. By a normal sore, I mean one that had not been interfered with.

Q. Who was present at the time you made that examination, Dr. Morse?

A. I do not remember anybody but Dr. Stuart be-

1429 ing present at the time I went. There may have somebody else come in but I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember, while you were there, of other doctors coming in?

A. There may have been, but I can't recollect it.

Recross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. If there was any other piece of flesh with a sore on it, you did not see it on that occasion? You only saw that one piece? A. I only remember one sore and one piece of flesh.

Q. Your recollection is pretty good upon that subject, is it not? A. I think so.

Q. Now you speak of this sore being firmly attached to the underlying tissues, I think that was the expression?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. By underlying tissues, you mean the true skin?
A. The true skin and the sub-cutaneous tissues underneath the fibrous portion of the skin, not to the muscles. It did not include any muscular tissue.
Q. Now after the death of a human body, the tissues, or the flesh, or whatever you call the underlying tissues are changed very materially are they not They lose their elasticity? A. Lose their elasticity. Lose the blood.
Q. Lose the circulation? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And they become pale? A. Usually.
Q. It goes through a process, after death, of hardening, doesn't it, first, called the rigor mortis?
A. That is muscular tissue, not the sub-cutaneous.
Q. The muscular tissue underlies the sub-cutaneous?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That affects the exterior [membrains], the exterior surface? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That tissue that lies outside of the muscular is 1430 affected and displaced or stretched, and loses its elasticity on account of this rigor mortis?
A. It loses its elasticity. Yes, sir.
Q. The flesh has lost its elasticity entirely?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. If you press your finger upon it you do not make a pale spot? A. No, sir.
Q. And if you remove your finger, the blush does not reappear? A. No, sir.
Q. By pressing your finger upon it you do not indent it, but it is firm and dead? A. You may indent it.
Q. But that would be simply a mechanical pressure?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. So that there is a wide difference between these underlying tissues in dead flesh and live flesh, is there not?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. In your examination of vaccine sores before that time and up to the present time, except this instance, you have been examining live, palpitating flesh haven't you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. But in this case it was dead, senseless flesh?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now so far as your experience is concerned, you do not know what effect death would have upon a vaccine sore?
A. I do not remember of ever noticing it.
Q. From experience? A. Not that experience.
Q. As a matter of fact, I will get you to state whether, in the learning of your profession, there is any book or treatise upon that subject? A. I do not remember of any.

1431 Q. Then you neither have, upon the question as to whether a sore upon dead flesh would be the same as a sore upon the live flesh, you neither have exprience nor knowledge from the books? A. No, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. You have had the experience of this one sore have you not? A. Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hutchings: Q. By your experience of this one sore you simply mean this, don't you Doctor, that you saw this sore?

A. I examined it.

Q. And you made certain conclusions? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But these conclusions were neither based upon any experience of examination of sores upon cadavers, or upon any treatise, or upon any book upon the subject?

A. No sir, just my own judgment.

Q. Just merely your own judgment? A. Yes, sir.

By Mr. Green: Q. Would, in your judgment, death affect a vaccine sore so as to change it that you could not tell at what stage it had arrived at at death?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason that the that the witness has said that he has no knowledge upon the subject, either from experience or from books; he is therefore incompetent to express an opinion upon the subject.

The Court overruled the motion, to which ruling the plaintiff duly excepted.

A. I do not think it would make any difference with the vaccine sore at that time, that this was in the vaccination.

Witness excused.

1432 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Dr. Charles V. Mottram, given upon the trial in 1896.

It is admitted that Dr. Mottram is not within the jurisdiction of the Court.

Said testimony was thereupon read to the court and jury and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Chas. V. Mottram, called by defendants, being duly sworn testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name Dr? A. Charles V. Mottram.

Q. Where do you reside? A. Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. How long have you resided there? A. Since 1872.

Q. What is your profession?

A. Physician and surgeon.

Q. How long have you practiced medicine and surgery?
A. 45 or 50 over 50 years.
Q. Did you reside in Lawrence in the years 1878 and 9?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know a person by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. Where did you become acquainted with him?
A. I saw him first at the restaurant of Capt. Johnson, which was located somewhere near the present Journal office on Massachusetts street?
Q. About what time was that?
A. It was in the autumn of that year, and my impression is it was in October; but I can't pretend to locate or fix the definite time of the year, but I state it was in the autumn.
Q. Did you see him after that? A. I did.
Q. Where?
A. I saw him there very often; also saw him after he left there; I might say parenthetically, that he boarded there off and on for weeks after I got acquainted with him, and 1433 then he was married, and then after he was married he went to Mrs. Judson's with his wife, and boarded with Mrs. Judson, on Mississippi street, and in going to Mrs. Judson's would pass my office; or on their way I frequently met them, or saw them on their way to Mrs. Judson's, whether by my office or not.
Q. Did you see him after the fall of 1878?
A. No, not to know him; I might have seen him in the winter or spring probably.
Q. In the spring of 1879?
A. Oh yes, I think I saw him occasionally up to the time of his taking this insurance; I saw him up to the time he completed this insurance arrangement and went away; after that I didn't see him.
Q. Do you remember Dr., of a dead body being brought to Lawrence in the fore part of the month of April, 1879?
A. I do.
Q. Did you see that dead body? A. I did.
Q. Where did you see it?
A. I saw it at the rooms of Smith, the undertaker—the undertaking rooms.
Q. Do you remember who was present at the time you saw the body?
A. I think I can name those present at the time—Dr. Miller, Dr. Stewart, Dr. Fuller, and there was a gentleman or two besides that I can't recollect; it might have been Mr. Wiseman or Selig—It seems to me there was another gentleman, who, I am not positive about their name; I remember the physicians.

Q. Who was Dr. Miller?

A. He was a physician of Lawrence at that time, since dead, in full practice at that time.

Q. Who was Dr. Fuller?

A. He was also a regular practitioner, an elderly practitioner—one of the first Lawrence physicians; an elderly man who lived there at that time; since dead.

Q. Then the other physician was Dr. Stewart?

A. Dr. Stewart.

1434 Q. What was he doing there at that time?

A. Assisting in the examination of the body—the examination of the cadaver.

Q. Do you know whether it was under authority at that time?

A. I do not know as to that, I supposed it was but I had no means at that time of knowing what the authority was; it was carefully investigated.

Q. Do you remember how long the body had been there when you saw it Dr.?

A. Yes sir. It came there on April 3rd, and I was called on April 4th to help make the post mortem examination.

Q. What state of preservation did you find this body in at that time?

A. A very perfect—very good; the weather was cool and the body was remarkably well preserved.

Q. To what extent had mortification set in?

A. There was no mortification.

Q. Any mortification in the bowels? A. No sir.

Q. What portion begins to decay first?

A. The bowels most always begin first; since they are the first means of waste. In this body, the most apparent was in the eye—the aqueous matter of the eye is usually absorbed—that is the watery portion of the eye; and the bowels would indicate blueness. In this case it was more like an orange color, which I would look for in incipient decomposition, but not corruption. It was sound however, and perfect.

Q. What examination was given or had at that time?

A. We examined the lungs, heart, liver, stomach, second stomach and [colan] and looked a little at the spine.

Q. Did you find any wounds on the body?

A. No wounds.

Q. Were there any wounds about the body?

A. No nothing.

Q. Any on the head?

A. O yes! On the body I thought you were speaking of. Yes sir, there was a gun shot wound through the head.

1435 Q. Did you measure that body Dr.? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember how much the body measured?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How much? A. Five feet, eleven and 5-8 inches.
Q. Do you remember the weight of that body?
A. 147 pounds without clothing on.
Q. This measurement,—was the body stripped at the time the measurement was made? A. It was, before.
Q. In what condition did you find the internal organs?
A. They were for the most part in a pretty healthy condition. The lungs which we first examined, were found good, except some adhesions that had resulted from some previous pneumonia, or pleurisy, and otherwise the lungs were in pretty good shape. We found the stomach empty—entirely empty; flabby and empty save a little mucus. Examined the second stomach and it was empty. Examined the [colan] to see if there had been anything eaten for two or three days, and we found the man had not had anything to eat.

Objected to—overruled.

Q. What was the build of this man?
A. He was a tall, lank, flabby long legs, long fingers, prominent nose man, flesh was flabby, and he was pale, and I would say, returning to the examination of the liver, we found the liver was deranged, and the stomach also, which would account for his not having any ability to dispose of food, if any was taken.
Q. Did you examine the features of that man at that time closely? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now you may state whether that was the body of John W. Hillmon whom you had known in the fall and winter of 1878? A. Most emphatically no! It was not.
Q. Did you notice the clothes of this body?
A. Yes sir.
1436 Q. How did they seem to fit the body?
A. The toes, you say?
Q. The clothes? A. They didn't fit him at all.
Q. Wherein were they an unfit?
A. The coat was short and the pants short; they were shorter on the body than these are on me (pulling pants up)—three or four inches short; and the coat was short—didn't fit him.
Q. Did you examine this body for any scars, Dr.?
A. Yes sir, particularly.
Q. Did you find any? A. Didn't find one.
Q. Did you examine the head?
A. Yes sir. Examined the face and head.
Q. Did you find any marks upon him?
A. Found a bullet hole through the head.
Q. Find any identifying mark?
A. No sir, not on the head.
Q. On any portion of the body?

A. Found moles,—two moles.

Q. Where did you find them?

A. One of them was on the backbone; on a line,—put a line, drawn across the bottom of the shoulder blades; it was on a line drawn across the bottom of the shoulder blades, direct on the spine; and to the right of that, and below on the hip was a small one. That was the conspicuous one, on the back—the prominent appearing mole.

Q. Did you find any vaccination marks upon this body?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What did you find there?

A. There was a half vaccination.

Q. What do you mean by half of a vaccination?

A. Well, I mean that,—perhaps I should state that I saw Dr. Stewart before he went into the room, and he had removed one of the vaccination sores, and cut into another—there was half of a vaccination scab on the arm.

Q. Now, did you,—have you had any experience, Dr., in vaccination?

1437 A. Yes sir, a good deal.

Q. Were you in the army Dr.?

A. I was four years.

Q. What, if any hospitals, did you have charge of in the army?

A. The smallpox hospital in Ft. Hudson, and one on Dauphine Island.

Q. Have you had experience while practicing your profession, outside of the hospitals, Dr.? A. Yes sir.

Q. To any considerable extent?

A. Yes sir, I have been vaccinating all my life, and I haven't failed to make what examinations I had an opportunity to make of persons I had vaccinated during the time they had vaccination marks upon them.

Q. So you had charge of these hospitals—was it as a private citizen?

A. It was as surgeon in charge of the hospital. I might say further, that I was on board the Constitution when it sailed from New Port, Massachusetts with Butler's soldiers. There was three thousand soldiers, besides the crew; and after we had been out one day, smallpox broke out. I was senior surgeon on board the boat, and called in same case and whilst it existed, coming from all these exploits, and I took it off way out of the reach of Ship Island, and took charge of these with small pox, and saw them all through.

Q. Now is this operation of vaccination a difficult one to perform Dr.?

A. O no sir, it is very simple, and any old lady can do it as well as I could—you just scrape the skin a little, and put some of the virus in, and it is done.

Q. May a person be successfully vaccinated by taking vaccine from the arm of a person who has already been vaccinated, and vaccinating him?

A. Certainly, certainly—that's the way it was generally done—used to be always done that way generally.

1438 Q. About how long would a person have to be vaccinated before the virus can be taken from the arm and successfully inserted in the arm of another person?

A. About a week or about 8 days—About eight days there would be the lymph would contain enough vesiculous fluid known as virus then to cause a healthy vaccine sore. Sometimes a little earlier—can't rely upon it only to be absolutely certain, before.

Q. Did you examine this portion of the sore you found upon the arm of this body?

A. I examined the piece Dr. Stewart took off and the piece left on.

Q. Now Dr. can you tell by the appearance of a vaccine sore, about the time which elapsed between the vaccination, and the time you examined it?

A. Very nearly, very nearly.

Q. Now from the examination you made of this portion of the sore upon the arm, and the portion which was shown you and the sore which was shown you by Dr. Stewart, you may state how long in your judgment it had been, prior to the death of this individual, before he had been vaccinated?

A. I should say 14 or 15 days—14 to 15 days.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You say most emphatically that was not the body of John W. Hillmon? A. I do.

Q. You were well acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

A. Saw him for a time I said about every day.

Q. Were you well acquainted with him?

A. I don't know whether you can tell that well or not.

Q. Won't you answer the question?

A. No sir, I will not, because I can't answer it better than I have.

1439 Q. That's all the answer you will give to that question? A. Yes sir.

Q. Didn't you testify on the last trial of this case that you were not well acquainted with John W. Hillmon, and never spoke to him in your life? A. No sir.

Q. Didn't you testify at the last trial of this case?

A. I did not I don't believe.

Q. You were sworn and examined as a witness on the trial of this case, and testified in this court room before Judge Thomas? A. Yes sir.

Q. At that time didn't you testify as follows: "Question, You say you knew John W. Hillmon?" and didn't you answer "Yes sir, I knew him but I told you I was not well acquainted with him, but I knew him because he was pointed out to me."

A. I did, and saw him every day afterwards.

Plaintiffs move to strike last part of answer—overruled.

A. I want to say that now.

Q. You say you testified at the last trial of this case, that you knew him, and you said "I was not well acquainted with him, but I knew him because he was pointed out to me?"

A. By that I meant to say I knew him.

Q. Was not the question put, "Did you ever speak to John W. Hillmon in your life?" and didn't you answer "Not to my knowledge?"

A. Might have said that—I mean to say that I saw him every day—saw him as I saw anybody.

Q. Did you ever talk with Mr. Hillmon?

A. I might, and might not.

Q. And you only knew him because he was pointed out to you?

A. I was not introduced to him.

1440 Q. Never introduced to him?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Never had any conversation with him?

A. Might have, and might not.

Q. You never saw him with his hat off? A. I think so.

Q. Who requested you to go to Smith & Bailey's undertaking establishment?

A. It was either Mr. Green or an insurance man who represented the company at that time.

Q. Which of them? A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Didn't you testify before that it was Mr. Green?

A. I think I did.

Q. When did he speak to you about going down?

A. Guess that day the corpse came; about the 3rd.

Q. And you were down there when the body was measured?

A. I was.

Q. Did you assist in measuring it? A. No sir.

Q. What did you measure it with?

A. A ten-foot pole.

Q. How did you make the measurement?

A. A man,—whatever the undertaker's name was, Mr. Smith—we had one man at the foot, and another at the head—put a piece at the head, and a little square at the foot, and then measured from one to another with a ten-foot pole.

Q. Did you measure the pole? A. No sir.

Q. Did you know how long the pole was? A. No sir.
Q. Didn't you know anything except what they said about the pole? A. No sir, nothing,—
Q. You didn't handle the pole at all?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Don't know whether it was ten-foot long, or 9 feet 6?
A. No.
Q. Don't know anything about this measurement except what was reported there? A. That's all.
1441 Q. Have you not heretofore stated, that you set a block at the head, and another block at the foot, and measured the pole with a tape line?
A. I don't remember what I said.
Q. Do you remember what the facts were?
A. I don't remember—
Q. Have you so testified?
A. I might have, but I don't remember now; but I know that we measured him.
Q. Do you know that you measured any other way than I have stated? A. I don't know—
Q. You saw this sore in Dr. Stewart's office? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You saw this flesh there and examined it?
A. I did.
Q. It was covered—for the purpose of ascertaining, to be sure; it was covered with a skin? A. All except the sore.
Q. Didn't you testify at a previous trial that it was covered with skin? A. No, I didn't mean to.
Q. Then the original skin or cuticle was still on top that sore? A. O no, I didn't say so.
Q. You didn't?
A. No man with any sense would so testify.
Q. Did you hear Dr. Stewart testify? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You think, then, that Dr. Stewart,—

By the Court. Well, well, we'll not go into that.

Q. What did you say, no man with sense would say it was covered with skin?
A. I mean to say no true skin would cover a vaccine sore.
Q. What did cover any of that sore?
A. It didn't have any at all because it was all,—it was a scab, and then come the true skin.
Q. Did you not testify on a previous trial that the sore was covered with the original skin that had settled down and adhered to it?
A. That might have been, I don't remember.
1442 Q. I ask you if you didn't testify that the covering of the vesicle which you said was caused by the action of the vaccine matter, had settled down and adhered firmly, and was still covering the sore?

A. I don't think I said all that.

Q. Now was this sore higher or lower than the surrounding tissue?

[Q.] It was lower in the middle than the surrounding tissue. Every vaccine sore is after the 8th day.

Q. Well, I didn't ask you about every one.

A. This is the case with every one.

Q. You are certain of this—this being raised above. Then it was settled below the surrounding surface?

A. The outer edge would be higher than the middle—than the center.

Q. The question is, was the sore lower than the surrounding tissue? A. O, no.

Q. Didn't you so state at a previous trial of this action?

A. I didn't so mean if I did. I meant to say that the center of the sore; the depression of the sore itself would be lower than the skin, that the outer side would be higher than the center.

Q. Tell the jury whether the center is lower or higher?

A. The center of the sore would be lower than the surrounding tissue, but the sore itself, the sore as it would raise up, like a body that would raise up, and the center of that,—

Objection by plaintiff—

By the Court: That's all right Dr.

A. I was only making an explanation.

Q. Again, was not this sore covered with the original cuticle, and did not that extend from the sore, continuous with the surrounding parts?

A. Judge, will I be allowed now to make an ex-
1443 planation?

By the Court: Can you answer it yes or no?

A. No, perhaps, no, if he means to know that the cellulous tissue,—

By the Court: They wish you to answer it yes, or not. They don't want it any other way, so you can stop.

A. They need not be afraid of what I will answer as correct.

Q. Did you make any experiments there to find whether the skin was continuous over that sore, running out into the surrounding parts?

A. I think some of the physicians attempted to pick up the scab?

Q. Who? A. Dr. Miller and Dr. Fuller.

Q. Was the scab cut through while you were there?

A. No, sir.

Q. Could you see on the outside?

A. That's all—and the others attempted to remove it—it was cut through.

Q. What was cut through?

A. One of the sores was cut through. I saw both of them; one was this one with the scab on it in the center.

Q. Didn't you testify at the previous trials of this case that you never saw below the surface of the sore—didn't you state that at the last trial of this case?

A. I don't recollect about being asked to testify if it was cut through the sore; I couldn't help but see below it, and my testimony would show that I stated that the sore was cut through.

Q. I want to ask you from the questions at a prior trial—were you not asked this question: "Now when you saw this sore in Dr. Stewart's office you say the scarf skin or epidermis which had been the covering of this vesicle, had settled down, and was firmly adhered to the tissues beneath?" and didn't you answer, "I did so state," and then was not this question put to you: "Was that true?" and you answered "No, sir." Then this question was put to you "What had become of this scarf skin which constituted the top of the vesicle?"

1444 Did you not say, "It was there yet with the tissue or true skin." Do you remember whether you so stated?

A. I do not know—I want to state as I said then, and as I say now,—

Q. The object of this examination was to ascertain the facts—what you said?

A. The object as I understand is to know whether there is such a thing as a scarf skin separate from the scab; I will say there ain't.

By the Court: Answer yes or no, or you don't remember.

A. I will say I don't know what I said at that time.

Q. Were you not asked, "It was intact was it?" and did you not answer "It was there with the virus beneath it and the true skin?" A. I might have.

Q. Were you not then asked, "It all adhered together?" and did you not answer, "It was part of the scab, which ultimately detached itself?" A. I say so now.

Q. And were you not asked afterwards to testify about raising up this skin, and you said you couldn't prize it up with a knife? A. That's what I say now.

Q. That's what you said then? "Couldn't prize it up with a knife—It, the indurated pus adhered to the cuticle and I couldn't lift it up."

A. I might have said so.

Q. Were you not then asked,—I don't care to go into it in length,—"Was not the covering or scarf skin which was the top of the vesicle and settled down, was continuous with the skin surrounding the sore?" and you answered, "Yes, sir."

A. It would be continuous, and I couldn't separate it.

1445 Q. I asked you a while ago if it was not continuous?

A. Yes, sir, you couldn't separate it; it was part of the scab.

Q. And you endeavored to seperate it?

A. Yes, sir, and couldn't do it.

Q. And were you not then asked "Was the sore part lower or higher than the surrounding,—than the surrounding skin?" and you answered "Lower." A. The center lower?

Q. Did you not answer in that way—"Was the center part higher or lower" and you answered "Lower."

A. I can explain that.

Q. Did you so answer?

A. I can so explain it now—

By the Court: What do you remember—what you answered them at the other trial?

A. What I meant to say was this, that the center,—

By the Court: Answer yes or no, or that you don't remember.

A. I don't remember just exactly, but I know what I meant.

Q. Was any sliver cut off while you were there?

A. Not to my recollection.

Q. Did you examine this body at Bailey & Smith's very carefully? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You had a magnifying glass? A. Yes, sir.

Q. See any scars on it? A. No, sir.

Q. Take the clothes off and examine the limbs?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you examine the back part of the legs?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. There was no scars on the legs of that body?

A. Not to be found.

Q. If there had been you would have noticed them?

A. Yes, sir, most assuredly.

Q. And you are as emphatic about as anything—that there were no scars on the legs of that body?

A. Saw none.

1446 Q. About these clothes. Did you notice the coat was slit down the back?

A. No, I did not notice; it was too short — too small in every way.

Q. Is it not a fact Dr., that the coat was ripped clear down the back and put onto the body in that way and hardly on the

A. That is not a fact; no, sir, that is not a fact; they put it on.

Q. Were you there when the clothes were taken off and put back on? A. I was.

Q. And you say it was not slit in the back?

A. It might have been ripped on the back, but not slit.

Q. Was it not ripped from the collar here (indicating)?

A. I think not.

Q. The arms were too short? A. Much too short.

Q. How did the sleeves lay?

A. I raised the cadaver and put the coat on.

Q. Put the coat on? How did you,—

A. Suppose I was on my back, and you put a coat on me.

Q. Was his coat any more too short than your coat—just about as much too short as your coat is?

A. Four inches at least shorter.

Q. As my hand hangs down there, my coat sleeve comes down on my hand; now as they are stretched out this way; was his coat any shorter than mine (indicating)?

A. It would be like pulling mine up that way (indicating) it would be much shorter.

Q. The body was lying on its back?

A. No, we raised the body up to put the coat on.

Q. Do you remember the color of the coat?

A. No, I can't tell.

Q. Do you know whether the body was afterwards buried in the same coat? A. I don't know.

1447 Q. Didn't you insist,—?

A. I can't say of my own knowledge—I know the coat was taken off and we weighed the body without the clothes. The clothing was on and these things I observed, and then we took it off, and whether,—I suppose it was buried with that coat on, but I don't know.

Q. In what length of time is a scab of a vaccination sore shed after the virus is inserted, ordinarily?

A. 21,—about 20 or 21 days.

Q. It frequently runs longer? A. Not much longer.

Q. Didn't you testify at the last trial that it sometimes runs four or five weeks?

A. No, sir, I don't think I did. It sometimes runs a little longer, but not that long—sometimes runs a little longer.

Q. You testified at the previous trial it was from 20 to 25 days? A. I might have, but that's very rare.

Q. And you also stated in some cases it was four or five weeks?

A. No, sir, I don't recollect any such statement as that. Somebody has written that to suit,—

Q. Referring to the character of virus used in vaccination, will animal virus usually prolong the time of shedding the scab?

A. We were taught so, but latterly I have had some experience and have decided for myself that it is not true. Since the last trial here I have tried it from the cow—took it right from the heifer and vaccinated with it, and have taken it from persons from whom the virus had been taken 3 or 4 times, and it did not.

Q. Then you can?

A. I am inclined to think that we had to do this that way.

Q. That was after you had all this experience with 1448 the smallpox?

A. Yes, sir; it is my opinion, and it is received as such; but since that I have tried this; it does not lengthen it materially.

Q. Did you at the previous trial of this case,—Do you remember testifying as follows: in relation to the length of time that the scabs were sometimes retained after vaccination, before they were cast off, were you not asked this question: "Now is it not a fact that in a great many cases the scab stays on 3 or 4 weeks?" and did you not answer "It may do so sometimes."

A. That is,—three times seven is 21.

Q. Four times seven are 28.

A. That would be very rare.

Q. The question is whether you testified at the previous trial? A. I wouldn't say.

Q. What do you say now?

A. I say it is possible it might, but it would be very rare.

Q. You say now it is possible, but rare that the vaccination scab would be carried four or five weeks before it would be cast off?

By the Court: Was that three or four?

A. Perhaps what you want to know briefly, it is cast off about the 20th day; it might stay on a little longer, but not very often—some times it might 3 or 4 or 5 days longer.

Q. And some times I guess it extends five weeks?

A. I might have said so, but I don't believe it.

Witness excused.

1449 Isaac Johnson, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination by Mr. Barker.

Q. State your name in full? A. Isaac Johnson.

Q. Where do you live? A. Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. In what business are you engaged and what position do you hold in Douglas County, Kansas?

A. Jailer of Douglas County.
Q. Are you also Deputy Sheriff? A. Also.
Q. How long have you held the position of Jailer of Douglas County and Deputy Sheriff?
A. Altogether nearly six years.
Q. How long have you resided in the City of Lawrence?
A. Thirty-seven years.
Q. Were you residing in the City of Lawrence in 1878 and 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember in what business you were engaged, or what you were doing at that time?
A. I was driving a grocery wagon and worked in a grocery store?
Q. For whom were you working?
A. George Fuller Ford.
Q. In what capacity? A. Driving a grocery wagon.
Q. How long did you work for him?
A. Something over five years.
Q. During that time, say 1878, did you become acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir, I knew Hillmon.
Q. Where did you see him?
1450 A. I have seen him pass the store and have seen him in the store.
Q. Did you see him on the streets of Lawrence?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. During the fall and winter of 1878?
A. During the fall and winter of 1878, yes, sir.
Q. [During] you know whether or not he transacted some business at your store; I mean by "your store," the store of George Ford?
A. He bought some groceries there soon after he was married.
Q. Do you remember seeing him afterward times enough so you became resaonably well acquainted?
A. I never was introduced to him but I knew him. Well, seen him at the store.
Q. Could you recollect about the last time that you saw him, or could you remember in regard to that?
A. It was either in the winter of 1878, late in the winter of 1878, or early in the winter of 1879, along in January, 1879.
Q. That was the last time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where did you see him at that time?
A. I saw him along passing the store.
Q. Whereabouts was the store of George Ford?
A. It was in the building of Ridenour-Baker, known as the old Ridenour-Baker building.
Q. On what street was that situated?
A. On Massachusetts street.

Q. Was Massachusetts street the principal street in Lawrence then, as it is now? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where the undertaking establishment of Bailey & Smith was at that time? A. Yes, sir.

1451 Q. Do you know where the undertaking establishment of Bailey & Smith was in the spring of 1879?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was it, with reference to the store of George Ford?

A. It was two doors south on the same side of the street.

Q. About how far would that bring it from Mr. Ford's store?

A. I think the buildings were twenty-five foot buildings; about fifty feet I think.

Q. Do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought to Bailey & Smith's in April, 1879?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see that body? A. I did.

Q. Did you go in to view the remains more than once?

A. Only once.

Q. Do you remember who was with you?

A. There were several went in.

Q. I will ask you if you remember who went in with you when you went in to see the remains?

A. I think Mr. W. W. Smith was there and I think a fellow by the name of E. E. Moll.

Q. Where were these remains when you saw them?

A. Back in the undertaking place where they kept the hearse.

Q. You may state whether they were Hillmon's remains, John W. Hillmon whom you had seen there the last of 1878 or early in 1879 in Lawrence, Kansas?

A. To the best of my knowledge I should say they were not the body of Hillmon.

Q. As a means of identification, do you know the plaintiff in this case, Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The same man who was married to Mrs. Hillmon?

1452 Cross-Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Did you know any other Hillmon there at that time, in 1878? A. I did not.

Q. Never knew another man by that name?

A. No, sir.

Q. You say you had been introduced to him, or had not?

A. Had not.

Q. Had not been? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you did not have any talk with him?

A. I don't remember ever talking with him.
Q. Don't think you ever spoke to him in your life?
A. I don't think so. I might have.
Q. Do you know who it was that pointed him out and told you who he was?
A. He was not pointed out at all. I just knew him by being in the store. He bought thinge there at the store.
Q. Who in the store told you who he was?
A. I was driving the grocery wagon and they told me things were for Mr. Hillmon.
Q. And you delivered them in that way? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many times did you deliver things at his house?
A. Not very many times.
Q. Well, approximate as near as you can, Mr. Johnson?
A. I would not be positive.
Q. I understand you can't be positive, but your best remembrance, whether it was once or twice, or less or more, or how?
A. Well, it was several times any how.
Q. Does that mean, in your parlance, two or three times?
A. It means three or four times.
Q. Something like that? A. Yes, sir.
1453 Q. Now at whose house did you deliver? Where was the house?
A. Well, it was in the 600 block on Massachusetts, up over or near the place called Hart's grocery; upstairs.
Q. That is where you delivered these groceries, was it, upstairs on Massachusetts Street?
A. Right over Hart's, or right next somewhere.
Q. Hart had a drug store?
A. A grocery, a kind of grocery store and lunch counter.
Q. It was not a block containing private houses?
A. It was upstairs.
Q. Of course it was private enough, but instead of being an ordinary dwelling house it was a block? A. Yes sir.
Q. That is right? A. Yes sir.
Q. More than one of those blocks here on Shawnee Street and persons living upstairs, and having rooms up there?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That was in the fall or winter of 1878?
A. It was in the early winter of 1878, no the last part of the winter, just before 1879.
Q. Will you please repeat that?
A. Just before 1879, along in there.
Q. Shortly before you heard of the body being there and that it was claimed that Hillmon was killed etc?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That was on Massachusetts, I think you said; between what streets? Where was it?
A. Between Pinkney and Winthrop.

Q. On Masssachusetts Street?
1454 A. Yes sir.
Q. In Lawrence, Kansas? A. Yes sir.
Q. Which side of the street?
A. On the east side of the street.
Q. That runs north and south?
A. Massachusetts Street runs north and south.
Q. And it was upstairs?
A. Upstairs in any event, but it might not have been directly over the store but near it.
Q. Mr. Hart's store was either beneath it or next to it?
A. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. Could you tell in what portion of the year that was, whether it was in the summer or 1878 or the fall of 1878, that you delivered groceries at the place you have mentioned?

The plaintiff objects to the question as cross-examination. Objection overruled. Plaintiff excepts.

A. It was either in the winter of 1878 or the fore part of the winter of 1879.

By Mr. Barker: I want to inquire more definitely how early in the season?

By the Court: Ask him if he can state more definitely?

Q. Can you tell more definitely how early in the season it was, of 1878, that you delivered groceries at this number stated to-wit: over Hart's grocery store?

A. I think it was along towards the last of November or along in December.

Q. Do you think it was the last of November or the first of December 1878 that he lived there?
1455 A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know the mother of Mrs. Hillmon, Mrs. Quinn?

A. I did not know her.

Q. When you delivered groceries there over Hart's, did you see the plaintiff there; I mean by the plaintiff, Mrs. Hillmon?

A. I did.
Q. You saw her there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you acquainted with her at that time?
A. No. Only when I saw him.
Q. You knew her by sight? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see Mr. Hillmon when you delivered groceries?
A. I don't remember of seeing him.
Q. Don't remember of seeing him over Hart's?
A. No, sir.

Q. As I understood the matter, there would be an order left at the store.

Objection.

Q. How did you come to deliver groceries? How did you tell them?

A. There would be an order on the book and they would put the things up and put them on the floor to take out in the wagon, and I would go and look on the floor and deliver them.

Q. It was under these circumstances that you took groceries to this particular place? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But as I understand, you saw Mr. Hillmon at other places, but you are not positive of having seen him there?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. No answer.

1456 By Mr. Atwood:

Q. It was after the marriage, I believe you said, Mr. Johnson? A. Yes sir.

1457 Henry Clay, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination.

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name? A. Henry Clay.

Q. Where do you reside? A. In Lawrence.

Q. How long have you lived in Lawrence?

A. About seventeen years.

Q. Were you acquainted with one Levi Baldwin?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember about when you became acquainted with him? A. I do.

Q. I will ask you if you ever worked for him? A. I did.

Q. Where did he live when you worked for him?

A. He lived west of Tonganoxie about five miles.

Q. How long did you work for him?

A. I worked for him about three months and a half.

Q. What did you do; that is, in what capacity were you employed?

A. Fixing up fences, feeding cattle, and doing farm work.

Q. Worked on the farm? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you ever know one John W. Hillmon? A. I did.

Q. Did you know him when you were working at Levi Baldwin's? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you know him before that time? A. I did.

Q. Where were you living when you knew him before that time?

A. I was working for E. A. Smith, out on the California road.

1458 Q. Where would that be with reference to the city of Lawrence? A. That would be west of Lawrence?

Q. In Douglas County?

A. In Douglas County, yes, sir.

Q. At the time you were working for E. A. Smith, where was John W. Hillmon working?

A. He was working for Baldwin's father out there.

Q. Baldwin's father; what Baldwin do you mean?

A. I mean Levi Baldwin.

Q. Was that the same farm that was at one time occupied by Levi Baldwin? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did you work there at Smith's and he work at Baldwin's?

A. I worked at Smith's nine months. I put up hay at Baldwin's.

Q. At the time you were working putting up hay at Baldwin's, where was John W. Hillmon?

A. He was working for Baldwin.

Q. Now do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought to Lawrence in the spring of 1879? A. I do.

Q. At the time that body was brought to Lawrence, where were you, and what were you doing?

A. I was at Baldwin's at that time.

Q. At what Baldwin's?

A. At Levi Baldwin's west of Tonganoxie, five miles west of Tonganoxie.

Q. Was you at that time working for Levi Baldwin?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had you seen John W. Hillmon at Levi Baldwin's the fall or winter before this body was brought to Lawrence?

A. Yes, sir.

1459 Q. Will you state, as definitely as you can, when you last saw Hillmon at Levi Baldwin's?

A. I last saw John W. Hillmon at Levi Baldwin's in 1879, the winter or the fall of 1879.

Q. Fall of 1879? A. Yes, sir. In October.

Q. Fall of 1879 or fall of 1878?

A. Well, the fall of 1878.

Q. That is, before the body was brought to Lawrence?

A. It was before the body was fetched to Lawrence. Yes, sir.

Q. What was he doing out there?

A. He was working for Baldwin on the range.

Q. At that time you were well acquainted with John W. Hillmon? A. I was.

Q. Now I will ask you if you knew in 1878, the fall or winter before this body was brought to Lawrence, Kansas, in regard to the condition of John W. Hillmon's teeth? A. I do.

Q. You may state, in a general way, what was the condition of his teeth, whether good or bad?

A. Yes, sir. The front teeth, or some of them, was decayed. One of them were right out, were broke off.

Q. Do you know about the time that John W. Hillmon went away? A. I do. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you know in regard to that?

A. I were in town that day.

Q. With whom did you go in town?

A. I was in town with him that day.

Q. You were in town with whom?

A. With Mr. Baldwin that day. I drove the team in town.

Q. The day that John W. Hillmon went away?

A. Yes, sir.

1460 Q. Now you have stated you were in town while these remains were in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where they were? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were they?

A. They were at the rear end of Ford's building.

Q. That is Bailey & Smith's?

A. Yes, Bailey & Smith's; at that time it was called the Ford building, and it was at the rear of the building where they kept their hearse.

Q. You said that you went in there to see those remains?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were those remains which you saw there at that time, the remains of John W. Hillmon?

A. No, sir. They were not.

Q. How did it happen that you came to town or went to Lawrence on that day?

A. I got a letter from my mother. My mother was sick.

Q. Where did you go to on that day before you went to Lawrence? A. I went to Tonganoxie.

Q. Was that your post-office then? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say you received a letter? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then what did you do?

A. Then I reported to Mr. Baldwin that I wanted to go down to Tonganoxie to do some business and he said it were all right, and when I got to Tonganoxie I got into the wagon with a young man and came to Lawrence?

Q. Was that the same day on which you looked at those remains?

A. Yes, sir. That was the day I looked at the re-

1461 mains; the day I came in.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. What Baldwin was it, Mr. Clay, that you were working for at that time; I mean at the time the body was brought there?

A. That was old man Baldwin, father of Levi Baldwin.

Q. Do you know his name?

A. His name; I have forgot the old man's name: I was not working with Hillmon himself. I was putting up hay on shares; that is, for Smith and Baldwin; working on the farms.

Q. When did you first know John W. Hillmon?

A. That was in 1874.

Q. Where was it that you met him?

A. I met him on Baldwin's place, was the first acquaintance I had with him.

Q. What was he doing there?

A. He was working for Baldwin, doing farm work.

Q. And you were also working for Mr. Baldwin?

A. I was working for Smith, putting up hay on shares.

Q. Is Smith's place close to Baldwin's place?

A. No, sir. It is three miles away.

Q. You were working on Smith's place and Hillmon was working on the Baldwin place in 1874? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did he work there at that time, if you know?

A. I was there three months haying, and he was there all the time I was there.

Q. When did you next see him?

A. I next seed him after I left there. I left Smith's in 1875 and went to Ben Acker's and stayed until 1876.

Q. What time did you go, in the spring of 1875 to Ackers?

1462 A. In the fall of 1875.

Q. Where was Hillmon then?

A. I don't know where he was, after he was at Baldwin's or at that time.

Q. What I am asking you is, he was working for Baldwin and you were working for Smiths, that was in 1874?

A. Yes sir.

Q. When was the next time you saw him?

A. The next time I saw him was in 1876.

Q. Where was it?

A. It was west of Tonganoxie about five miles.

Q. At whose place, on Baldwin's?

A. Levi Baldwin's, yes sir.

Q. And what were you doing there? Were you working for Mr. Baldwin?

A. I was working for Baldwin at that time— I was not working for Baldwin just at that time. I was working for Hollingsworths.

Q. You worked at Baldwin's place? A. Yes sir.

Q. What was Hillmon doing?

A. On the range; on the cattle range taking care of cattle and preparing fences.

Q. On the Baldwin range? A. Yes sir.

Q. At what time in 1876 was that?

A. It was along near the fall, in September.

Q. Then when next did you see him?

A. I next seed him in 1878.

Q. Let me ask you this question: How long did he work at Baldwin's place after September, 1876, if you know?

A. He was working there for quite a while. I do not know just how long. I left there then myself.

1463 Q. What time did you leave?

A. I left there—

Q. Later in the fall?

A. Yes sir. I left there along in December, the latter part of December.

Q. And he was there all the time you were there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Then, when next did you see him?

A. I next seed him back there in 1878, seed him in 1878.

Q. That is, what time of year?

A. That was along in the spring.

Q. Did you see him more than once in 1878, do you remember? A. Why I seed him frequently, yes sir.

Q. I did not catch your answer?

A. Yes sir, I seed him very frequently.

Q. In 1876 you were working there, I think you said?

A. I was working for Ben Ackers. I went in 1875. I went to Ben Ackers in 1875, you understand.

Q. Let me see if I get it right. I will put it in another way. When you saw Hillmon the last of the summer or the first of the fall of 1876, where were you working?

A. I was at Hollingsworths.

Q. What time did you go to Hollingsworths to work that year?

A. I went to Hollingsworths along in June.

Q. And worked there from sometime in the month of June down into sometime in December? A. Yes sir.

Q. And in what time was it that Hillmon came to Baldwin's to work, if you know, during that time? I speak of from that June until that December?

A. I could not tell you that.

1464 Q. What time did you first see him there?

A. I seed him there along about the time that I went to Baldwin's, along in September.

Q. Do you remember what you went there for? Is there anything that fixes it in your mind?

A. I went there to work. He hired me in Tonganoxie.

Q. From Ackers you to Baldwin's place?

A. Oh no. I went to Hollingsworths.

Q. From Hollingsworths then, you went to Baldwin's place? A. Yes sir.

Q. But Hillmon had been working for Baldwin some time when you came there?

A. I don't know how long he had been working there. I didn't ask that question.

Q. Nothing was said about that?

A. No sir.

Q. Was that early in September?

A. Yes sir. It was in that month.

Q. What was the work you were doing?

A. I was preparing fences. I went there to cut corn and to get up the winter's feed.

Q. When you went there Hillmon was there?

A. Yes sir.

Re-Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker.

Q. How far was Hollingsworths from Levi Baldwin?

A. It was just five miles.

Q. How far was he from Tonganoxie, Mr. Baldwin?

A. He was five miles.

Q. It was five miles from Hollingsworths to Levi Baldwin's? A. Yes sir.

Q. Hollingsworth's was also in Leavenworth County? Yes sir.

1465 Q. Now at the time you saw those remains in Lawrence, how long had you been working for Levi Baldwin?

A. I had been working for him then about two months and a half, near three months and a half?

Re-Cross Examination

By Mr. Atwood.

Q. Working for Levi Baldwin? A. Yes sir.

Q. You will have to set me straight. I understood you to say that you were working for old man Baldwin?

A. No sir. You understood me to say I went from Hollingsworth's to Levi Baldwin's and remained there until Hillmon left.

Q. Now the question I got into my head you were working for old man Baldwin at the time the body came there?
A. No sir. That was wrong. You got that wrong.
Q. You were working for Levi Baldwin at that time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And when you spoke of saying to Mr. Baldwin that you wanted to do your business in town, you had reference to Levi Baldwin?
Q. That is what I meant exactly.
Q. Did you go there the same day the body came there?
A. I don't know. The body was there when I got there.
Q. You heard talk around there about the time the body came in? A. Yes sir.
Q. Heard talk that the body had come in the same day that you saw it?
A. No, no. I don't know whether it had or not. It might have been a day before I got there.
Q. It was the day that it came in or the day after?
A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

1466 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of William T. Faxon, given upon the trial of 1885.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Faxon is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence and is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Wm. T. Faxon called for the defense and after being duly sworn testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:
Q. State you name. A. Wm. T. Faxon.
Q. Where do you live? A. In Lawrence.
Q. How long have you lived there?
A. About thirty years.
Q. Were you living in Lawrence in 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know Sallie E. Quinn? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember of her working in your family?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When was that, if you remember—state what year?
A. I think it was in 1878.
Q. About how long did she work there?
A. I think she might have worked three to five months. I don't recollect the time.
Q. Do you know John W. Hillmon?
A. I knew him at that time.

Q. Do you remember of his being at your house during the time that Mrs. Hillmon was there? A. I do.

Q. Do you remember of hearing a conversation between Mrs. Hillmon and anybody in regard to the condition of Mr. Hillmon's teeth when Miss Quinn was working there?

A. I do, yes.

Q. Between whom was it?

[—] Between Miss Quinn and my wife.

1467 Q. It was not the Mrs. Paxon who testified?

A. No, my wife was sick and she died.

Q. It was between Mrs. Hillmon and your deceased wife?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. State when that was as near as you can recollect?

A. That was in the fall, at the time when Hillmon came home. That was the first time I ever saw him to know him.

Q. State what that conversation was that you heard between your wife and Mrs. Hillmon?

A. I went home and there was a horse and carriage hitched to the yard fence. My house is on the corner. I went in and went in the back way; came in the front room, where my wife was and as I went in Mrs. Hillmon—Mrs. Hillmon that is now —she was coming in and the gentleman had gone out. There was nobody there but Mrs. Hillmon, my wife, and myself. Mrs. Hillmon came in and she asked my wife how she liked her fellow. My wife said, very well, but it was a pity that he had lost that tooth. I made the remark that he could get a new set for fifty dollars. Why I made that remark and why I shall always think of it—

By Mr. Riggs: You needn't state.

Q. When your wife told Mrs. Hillmon that it was a pity that he had lost that tooth, what did Mrs. Hillmon say?

A. Mrs. Hillmon said he could have one put in.

Q. Then you made some remark?

A. Then I made this remark.

Q. Was there any circumstance there which fixed this matter in your mind?

A. My wife was having a set of teeth from Dr. Wheeler at that time, and sometimes Dr. Wheeler would come to my house and when she was well enough she would go to his office.

Q. Your wife was having a set of teeth made at that 1468 time, was she?

A. Yes, sir. This conversation had already taken place at that time. That was what I said. My wife asked me at the time if I was willing to pay the fifty dollars for the teeth, and I was always sorry since that I said anything about the teeth, and I am sorry to-day that I did.

Q. That was the first time you saw Mr. Hillmon?

A. Yes, that was why I recollect anything about it.

Q. So far as you are concerned you just knew Mr. Hillmon, that is all?

A. I saw Mr. Hillmon several times and have talked with him.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Riggs:

Q. When did this conversation occur?

A. I think it was in the fall.

Q. What year? A. 1878, I think.

Q. The reason you remembered it was because you were sorry?

A. Yes, sir; I am sorry to-day for saying what I did to my wife.

Q. That is the only reason you have for remembering it?

A. That is the only reason. I have always thought of it?

Q. Did you ever give that reason before?

A. I don't know as I was ever asked for it.

Q. Don't you know that you didn't?

A. I don't think I did.

Q. That was a perfectly indifferent matter to you—about Hillmon having a tooth out? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You remember indifferent conversations of that kind, do you, after a lapse of five or six years' time?

A. I have a pretty good memory.

Q. You remember all sorts of indifferent matters of 1469 that kind?

A. I can remember most of that conversation.

Q. You can remember, I say, all sorts of indifferent conversations of that kind over a lapse of seven or eight years?

A. I don't know whether I could or not; I know I recollect that.

Q. Was any body present besides your wife, Mrs. Hillmon and yourself. A. Nobody that I know of.

Witness dismissed.

1470 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of George Lewis, given upon the trial of 1885.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Lewis is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence, and is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

George Lewis, called for the defense, and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name? A. George Lewis.

Q. Where do you live, Mr. Lewis?

A. In Valley Falls.

Q. How long have you lived there?
A. Thirteen years on the 4th of last April.
Q. What business have you been engaged in there?
A. Barbering.
Q. During all that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you acquainted with one John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you first become acquainted with him?
A. In 1872.
Q. Where did you become acquainted with him?
A. In Valley Falls.
Q. How long did you know him?
A. I believe he left in 1873.
Q. You were acquainted with him then about a year?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have you seen him since that time? A. I have not.
Q. Do you remember cutting his hair? A. I do.
A. More than once? A. Several times.

Q. You may state whether or not you observed any scar upon his head?

A. Yes, he had a scar upon his head.

1471 Q. Whereabouts was it?

A. I could not say exactly whether it was on this side (indicating) or whether it was on the back of his head.

Q. How large a scar was it?
A. I do not suppose it was over an inch and a half.
Q. State whether or not it was visible when you were cutting his hair? A. Yes sir, it was.
Q. Do you know from anything he told you how that scar came there?

By Mr. Wheat: We object as incompetent and hearsay.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with him about that scar? A. Yes sir.
Q. You may state if you also shaved him? A. Yes sir.
Q. Frequently? A. Yes sir.
Q. You may state whether or not you observed any peculiarity or defect in his teeth?
A. I don't know as I would want to say. It seems to me, though, that he had two teeth that were decayed or defective in some way.
Q. Do you remember where they were?
A. Indeed I don't.
Q. Were they upper or lower teeth?
A. I think they were upper teeth.
Q. If I understand you you have not seen him since '73?
A. No.

Q. Do you know where he was living then?

1472 A. He was living north of town somewhere, but I was never at his place.

Cross Examination.

By Mr. Wheat:

Q. How long had he been living there?

A. I couldn't tell.

Q. State as near as you can?

A. I couldn't tell you that, for I don't know that I ever asked.

Q. How long did you know of his having lived there?

A. I got acquainted with him in 1872 and he left in 1873.

Q. Was he there all the time?

A. He was, and in town.

Q. How often did you see him?

A. Sometimes once or twice a week.

Q. Would it average once a week all the time?

A. I don't know whether it would or not.

Q. What time in 1872 did you commence seeing him?

A. I think the first time I saw him—I got there on the 4th f April, Wednesday night, and went to work Thursday morn-ng—I think it was the latter part of April when I got ac-uainted with him, and knew who he was.

Q. April, 1872? A. Yes sir.

Q. And you saw him continuously from that time to what me in 1873?

A. Every once in a while, just the same as farmers coming o town.

Q. To what time in 1873? A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Give it to me as near as you can.

A. I don't believe I would want to, from the simple fact at I do not know what time in 1873 he did leave.

Q. Can you tell me anything about what time in 1873 it was? A. No. It was some time in 1873.

73 Q. Can't you give this jury your best judgment as to whether it was spring, summer, or fall?

A. I would not want to say either one. I paid no attention it. There were men leaving every day and coming every y.

Q. Give your best judgment, or haven't you any?

A. I have judgment, of course.

Q. That is what I want.

A. I think he left in the latter part of summer.

Q. Of 1873? A. Yes sir.

Q. What was his business while he was there?

A. He claimed to be farming. I never saw him do a min-'s work in my life.

Q. You saw him, did you not—saw his hands lots of times?
A. Yes, I saw his hands lots of times.
Q. What appearance did they present as to what he was doing with them?
A. They looked like he was working with them.
Q. The balance of his person—how did that accord with farm labor?
A. It looked like he was out of doors a good deal of the time.
Q. He looked like a man who was working pretty hard?
A. I could not say as to that.
Q. What kind of clothes did he wear during that period?
A. He wore ordinary clothes. I can't tell the color.
Q. With reference to the appearance of them, whether they appeared like a man's who was laboring in them on a farm?
A. He didn't come to town in what we would call laboring clothes.
Q. Such as farm laborers wear? A. Yes sir.
Q. With reference to the wear and tear on these clothes?
A. I have seen him with overalls on.
Q. When overalls were not on?
1474 A. His clothes looked like he wore them sometimes.
Q. I mean did they look like they were sustaining the wear and tear of farm labor? A. Yes sir.
Q. They presented the appearance of being used in farm labor? A. Yes sir.
Q. They didn't present the appearance of being used by a horseman, did they?
A. Yes; he rode a great deal; I know that myself—back and forth to town.
Q. How far was it?
A. Indeed I don't know the place where he lived. I know he always said he lived north. I don't know how far the place was.
Q. Could you not approximate?
A. No, I could not. It was somewhere between five and twelve miles, I should think.
Q. Then did the clothes present the appearance of having been worn a good deal in riding?
A. That depends upon what he had on. Sometimes they would and sometimes they would not. Sometimes he had on a pair of spurs.
Q. Did he usually have spurs on? A. No, not usually.
Q. Did he ever come to town in a farm wagon?
A. I don't know whether I ever seen him riding in a wagon or not.
Q. What did you say your name was?
A. George Lewis.

Q. How long did you say you lived there in Valley Falls?
A. Thirteen years the fourth day of last April.
Q. You stated it was two teeth; what was the matter of two teeth? A. I said I thought they were defective.
Q. Which two teeth? A. I couldn't tell you.
Q. Can you tell whether in the upper or lower jaw?
A. I think it was the upper jaw.
Q. Can you state which side? A. I could not.
Q. Can you tell whether front or back teeth?
A. They were front teeth. I see them when I blackened his mustache.
Q. Were they the two very front teeth or on one side?
A. I couldn't say.
1475 Q. Were those two teeth together or separate?
A. I think they were together.
Q. About how black were they?
A. They looked to me like if I was a dentist I would strike for a job of filling them.
Q. Decayed some? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were they decayed, each one of them, enough to look very black?
A. Not so very black. They were decayed some.
Q. Was it not three teeth,—two on one side of the mouth and one on the other?
A. I couldn't say anything about three.
Q. Can you say it was not so,—not two on one side and one on the other?
A. No, I couldn't say there was not. I can only state that there was two teeth that was decayed.
Q. And then on the under jaw was not there a black tooth also? A. I don't remember.
Q. Don't you remember a black tooth in the lower jaw?
A. I do not.
Q. Do you remember anything about one of these lead colored fillings being in one of the under teeth?
A. No, sir, I don't.
Q. You don't remember anything of that sort?
A. No, sir.
Q. Mr. Lewis, how many Hillmons were there there?
A. I never saw, as I know of, or knew any but two.
Q. That was Hank and what was the other one's name?
A. John Wesley.
Q. Which was the older?
1476 A. I couldn't tell you that. I think John Wesley was, but I don't know. I have seen cases where the daughter looked like she might be older than the mother, and I would not say.
Q. In this case you think John was older than Hank?

A. That is just merely my opinion.
Q. Do you know where Hank is now? A. I do not.
Q. Do you know when he left there?
A. No, I don't believe I do.
Q. You know he has left?
A. He was going. I don't know whether he left or not.
Q. You haven't seen him for some time?
A. I haven't seen him for some time.
Q. And they had some uncles of the same name?
A. Uncles?
Q. Of the same name? A. I don't know.
Q. Some that lived up in Nebraska formerly?
A. I don't know that at all.
Q. You don't know where this Hank Hillmon is now?
A. No, sir, I do not.
Q. You don't know where he went to? A. No, sir.
Q. Are you as sure that there was as many as two black teeth in this man's mouth?
A. I will tell you I am pretty certain of it. It was quite a while ago, and I think a man is foolish to swear to anything of the kind positively. I am sure of the scar. It was on the back part of his head.
Q. Please locate that scar? Describe that scar.
A. It just looked like a scar he had [gor] from some lick on the head.
Q. How long was it?
A. An inch or an inch and a half. I have cut his hair and he would always tell me not to show that scar.
Q. How wide? A. I don't exactly know.
Q. Was this wide enough to affect the thickness of 1477 the hair?
A. Yes, sir, if I would cut it as as short around it would show.
Q. Did it look as though the wound had been a wound from a sharp or a dull instrument, with regard to the width of it?
A. It looked to me like it might have been some not exactly sharp instrument or dull one; I couldn't tell.
Q. How would the width of this scar compare with the width of the cut of an ordinary pen-knife?
A. It is wider than that.
Q. And so you cut the hair so that the scar would not show? A. Yes, sir.
Q. On how many occasions did you cut that hair?
A. O, I couldn't tell you. I have cut it quite often. Sometimes he would have it cut oftener than others. I probably cut it four or five times?
Q. What was the first time you cut it? A. In 1872.
Q. You remember cutting it four or five times?

A. Yes, sir, I do, because every time he would come in town he would come and see me.

Q. Tell the nearest time that you can to the first time you cut it?

A. I cut it between the fourth of April and the first of June

Q. Why do you know that?

A. I got acquainted with him during that time and I know I worked on him.

Q. Do you remember cutting his hair? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember the circumstance of the first time you cut his hair?

A. No, not particularly, only the time of the year and when I got acquainted with him.

Q. Who was in the shop?

1478 [Q. Who was in the shop?]

A. I was working then for Mr. .....

Q. Do you remember what kind of a day it was?

A. No, I don't. That is a little too far back for me to remember the day.

Q. Have you cut a good many heads that had scars on them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many in your lifetime? A. I couldn't say.

Q. A hundred?

A. I would not say that I had cut a hundred or a thousand.

Q What would be your best judgment?

A. How many I have cut with scars on the heads?

Q. Yes. A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Can you make an estimate of the proportion of the number of heads of hair you must have cut with scars on the head?

A. No, I don't know as I can.

Q. Is it a common thing to find scars on men's heads?

A. Yes, quite common.

Q. Quite common? A. Well, not quite common.

Q. You cut a man's hair every few days who has a scar on the head?

A. Yes, sir. I will bet there is not a week goes by without I cut one or more.

Q. There was nothing peculiar about this scar, was there?

A. Nothing very peculiar. Just a scar as I told you.

Q. What other person's hair did you ever cut that had a scar on the head? A. I have cut lots of them.

Q. I want you to please be kind enough to name one of them? A. Frank McCoglin.

Q Where does he live?

A. I think he is an engineer on the Santa Fe road.

1479 Q. Where is the scar—on the top of his head?

A. On the top of his head.

Q. Name some other person who has a scar on the head.
A. Frank Cregg.
Q. Where does he live?
A. At Valley Falls, about five or six miles west of town.
Q. What sort of a scar is it?
A. It is a scar right here (indicating). He was kicked by a mule—not by a mule either; I think he was throwed off a reaper or a mule. He has a scar there.
Q. Another person?
[—] Harris Shafer, our county attorney.
Q. What sort of a scar?
A. I don't know which side of the head it is on, but he has quite a big one. He always combs his [head] down over it.
Q. This last scar is not in the hair?
A. No, sir, it is right at the edge of the hair.
Q. Name another person?
A. O, my goodness! I don't know as I can name all of them. I could name all of them if I could think of them, but I don't know that I can.
Q. Can you think of any more?
A. I probably could.
Q. I would like to have you.
A. O, I can't think of none of the boys now.
Q. That ends those, then, that you can name. One was below the hair and the man had the hair cut to comb over it; another was hurt by being thrown off a machine, and the other man was a railroad engineer? A. Yes, sir.
Q. This scar of Hillmon's if I understand you was all in the hair? A. Yes, sir.

1480 Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:
Q. You stated that you blackened Hillmon's mustache?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. About how long did you blacken his mustache?
A. I could not say. At one time there he was quite a hand to keep his mustache black, but as to that I could not say.
Q. In regard to his dress—the clothes he wore. Was your attention called to him by anything else he wore?
A. Yes, he used once in a while to come to town with a great big navy or Remington, or whatever you would call it?
Q. You mean that he wore a pistol sometimes?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Your attention was called to him by that? A. Yes, sir.

Witness dismissed.

1481 William J. Buchan, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name and residence?
A. W. J. Buchan, Kansas City, Kansas.
Q. What is your profession? A. Lawyer.
Q. How long have you resided in Wyandotte county, Kansas? A. Wyandotte has been my home since 1867.
Q. Were you living there in 1878 and 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you engaged in the practice of your profession?
A. I was.
Q. Were you acquainted with one John H. Brown?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you acquainted with his family, that is, with his father? A. I was acquainted with the whole Brown family.
Q. You knew his brother Reuben Brown? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember of seeing John H. Brown sometime in the spring of 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. State to the jury about the first time you say at that time, that is, in the spring or summer of 1879 and where you saw him, and under what circumstances?
A. I think it was in the month of July; however, I won't be positive. I saw him at Lexington, Missouri.
Q. How did you happen to see him on that occasion and at that place?
A. His brother Reuben Brown came to my office in Wyandotte and said that he wanted me to go with him to Lexington to see John, that John wanted to see me.
Q. Had you had any conversation or correspondenc with Reuben Brown in regard to that matter before, the matter of your seeing John Brown?
A. I think I had written to Reuben once to know where he was some time before that.
Q. And Reuben came to the office?
A. Reuben came to my office in Wyandotte.
1482 Q. Where did you and he go then?
A. We went to Lexington, Missouri.
Q. Anybody with you on that occasion?
A. Nobody but Reuben.
Q. Now, did you see John H. Brown at that time?
A. Why, we first saw him as the train got into the depot at Lexington; he met us at the train.
Q. At Lexington? A. At Lexington, yes.
Q. Now, when before that time, had you seen John Brown, if you remember; John H. Brown?

A. I hadn't seen John before that for some years, possibly a couple of years. They lived just north of Wyandotte but he had been away for some time and I don't think I had seen him for possibly a year or two.

Q. Did you have a conversation with him at that time?

A. I did.

Q. At Lexington? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At that time did you know or had you heard or read about there having been a coroner's inquest at Lawrence over the body of a man?

A. In a general way as I got it from the newspapers, I had.

Q. Were you at Lawrence during the time of that inquest?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have any personal knowledge of the inquest or of what took place there but what was derived from the newspaper accounts and what you had heard?

A. Entirely from newspaper accounts, and some conversation with John Brown's father I think is all I knew about it.

Q. Now, you may state what took place between you and John H. Brown at that time, stating the conversation as it occurred?

A. John met us at the train at Lexington, about twelve o'clock, possibly a little after and we went directly up to the hotel to dinner; I don't recollect any conversation that we had on the way up except as to why he hadn't met us at Orrick some time previous to that.

Q. Now, in that connection, you may state what he said in regard to why he hadn't met you at Orrick?

A. He said—I asked him why he hadn't met his father and me at Orrick quite a while before this and he said he was a little afraid. He was a little afraid that somebody 1483 would arrest him and he didn't show up there. We then went directly to the hotel and sat down to dinner, had our dinner, and John and Reub and myself then walked out from the hotel quite a little ways and sat down upon a rock overlooking the bluff. I says, the substance of it was: "Well, John, what is there about this business; what is it about this affair at Lawrence?" He replied, "Well, Bill, it is bad business, it is a bad affair, and I sent for you, I want to turn state's evidence; they are hunting me; that wasn't Hillmon that was killed down there; it was another man; Hillmon has got away and they are hunting me and I am left here in trouble and I want to get out of it; I want to turn state's evidence; I want you to see the attorneys for the insurance companies, Mr. Barker of Lawrence, and see if they will let up on hunting me if I will go on the witness stand and tell the truth about this whole affair." That is the substance of it. He then went on—I asked him something about it. I said to him they couldn't prosecute him at Lawrence for a crime alleged to have been committed in Barber county; that he would have to be taken to Barber county and tried before a jury of that county, and then I asked him something about the coroner's jury down there; he said they were his friends. I said, you are innocent and they would not convict you down there; it is not necessary to do that, but he said he had worried over this thing and he wanted it cleared up. He wanted it off his mind, wanted to get out of it, and wanted I should go up to Lawrence and hunt up somebody connected with the insurance companies and tell them that if they would cease their attempts to prosecute him and follow him, in case any suits were brought to recover on those policies, that he would go upon the witness stand and tell the truth, and the truth was that it was not the body of Hillmon that was brought to Lawrence.

Q. Now, up to that time had you ever urged, or said anything to him about turning state's evidence?

A. Nothing.

1484 A. I don't remember as to what was said; I explained to him—Had I said anything to him about it?

Q. Yes.

Q. No sir, I hadn't said anything more than I had merely asked what the affair was, the trouble he was in; he was very anxious to talk about it and to get it off of his mind.

Q. Did he tell you, go into the details of the transaction, how it had taken place; did he state what he claimed to be the facts with reference to the transaction?

A. He recited to me the whole story, the whole transaction, of the trip from Wichita and back, two trips I think they went from Wichita out there and back.

Q. Did he tell you whose body it was that was brought to Lawrence?

A. I asked him particularly about that, tried to find out whose it was and he either didn't know, or didn't want to tell me; I don't know. He said it was, I think he said that it was a man by the name of Berkley, Joe Berkley, I think they called him; as to where he was from, I learned what we could about it; he said he had at one time been about Fort Scott, but didn't seem to be positive as to the man's name.

The plaintiff asks that the answer of the witness be stricken out where the witness says, "He didn't seem," etc. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

A. At that time, did he tell you, did Brown tell you who had killed the man whose body was brought to Lawrence?

A. Yes sir.
Q. You may state.

The plaintiff objects to the counsel's method of examination.

By the Court: The better way is to let him state the entire conversation, and if he omits anything the counsel may call his attention specially to it.

Q. You may go on and state the conversation, so much of it as you remember.

A. He said that he and Baldwin, who was a brother-in-law of Hillmon, and Hillmon, had put up this job on the insurance companies, he said, to get Hillmon's life insured for an 1485 amount of money, and that the intention was to go off in the southwest somewhere and find a body, a dead man whom they could pass off as the body of John Hillmon; that Hillmon was to have, to get out policies, that Baldwin was to furnish the money to pay the premium, and that in pursuance of that scheme they left Lawrence and went to Wichita and in the winter they started out with that intention, and made a trip from Wichita down southwest and ran up to Hutchinson, I think, and Sun City he mentioned, in hopes of finding somebody frozen to death on the plains as they passed over, but they failed in that and finally returned to Wichita; that Hillmon went back to Lawrence, and he remained in Wichita; Hillmon went to Lawrence to get more money; they were out of money; that Hillmon was gone some time there, and when he came back, then they organized and got ready for another trip and went off southwest; that after they had left Wichita, the first day out they met and overtook this person on the road and they asked him to get in and ride with them and he did and he was with them during this entire trip from that time. He said that when Hillmon was at Lawrence he had been vaccinated and that as they were riding along in the wagon Hillmon told this fellow he ought to be vaccinated and he vaccinated him, taking the virus from his own arm, and vaccinated this man; that after a few days out this vaccination or something made this man sick; he was sick and stupid and dull, stayed in the wagon most of the time, would not get out of the wagon; he said that Hillmon had during the trip traded coats with him, and I think he said gave him a suit of underclothes and they finally got down about Medicine Lodge, telling me that this man was in the wagon all the time sick, and they went out from there to some place where they camped and that he was taking care of the horses and Hillmon was unloading the wagon, I believe, that this man Berkley, or whoever he was, was sitting in front of the fire with his face in his hands and he heard the report of a gun. He looked around and he saw Hillmon pulling this man around

1486 out of the fire; he had fallen over in the fire; that Hillmon said to him, "It is all right now; you go off over here to that house, quite a ways off, and have them come over and I am going north," and he took a valise, I think this man's valise, if I recollect right, put some things into it, took a memorandum out of his pocket and put it in the pocket of this man that was shot, and took this grip and started north to the railroad. He says, "My name will be Marshall, and you will hear from me from time to time." He told Hillmon that he thought he had better not hear from him at all. He got on his horse and rode off to some of the neighbors there and told him he had shot his partner Hillmon, and he was over there dead, and wanted them to come over, which they did, had a coroner's inquest, and he said that that was Hillmon, he had shot him, and the body was buried. That, in a general way is what he told me.

Q. Now, at that time did you have any talk, what talk, if any, did you have with Reuben Brown in regard to John's turning state's evidence?

A. None whatever. Reuben stood—that is, we were all there close together. I don't recollect that Reuben said anything; he simply stood there and listened to the conversation between John and myself.

Q. But the question was in regard to your asking Reuben Brown to urge John to turn state's evidence?

A. No, I did nothing of the kind; the fact is I was inclined to think John ought not to do that unless there was a reason, that he should not be governed by his fear of being arrested; I explained to him, as I said before, that he could not be taken—if he was taken, if they brought him back to Lawrence, he could not be tried there.

Q. Do you remember anything about letting John have some money, whether there was any such transaction, if so, state what there was to it?

A. I don't recollect that I did; I don't think I gave him any money; I am quite sure I did not; I don't think I did; I don't recollect it now.

1487 Q. Will you look at this paper which is marked Exhibit B, and state when and where if at all, you ever saw that paper.

A. This is the paper, the note, that John gave me to give Mrs. Hillmon; or for his father to take to Mrs. Hillmon at Lawrence.

Q. When and where did you—

A. I might say, if I am permitted, the final outcome of the interview was it was arranged that John's father and myself should go to Lawrence and find the attorneys for the insurance company and say to them that if they would cease their prosecution of him, that in case any suits were brought to recover the money on these policies he would go upon the witness stand and tell the truth, and he wanted to see Mrs. Hillmon; he said he—

Q. Who wanted to see Mrs. Hillmon?

A. John. I asked him whether he had seen her; whether he hadn't seen her over at Lawrence, and had a talk with her; he said he had no conversation with her there at all; he had stayed during the coroner's inquest there, he was in a room off of the court room, and Mrs. Hillmon passed through and he said to her, "Where is John," and she made some remark back to him, I don't now recollect.

Q. Now, I want to call your attention again to this exhibit.

A. Well, this paper—after we had gone down to the train, we had gone into the cars, and John was talking about seeing Mrs. Hillmon. He says, "I will write a note and I would like to have father or you take it up when you go up there." He went out and went across the way, across the street to some little room there, saloon or a little hotel or something, and came back with this paper. He says, "You take that to Mrs. Hillmon at Lawrence."

Q. Well, now, were you present when he wrote it?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you give him the paper on which it was written?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you dictate the contents of the letter to him?

A. I did not; it was not written in my presence at all.

Q. Did you talk with him anything about what there should be put in the paper?

A. Not a thing, sir; not a word.

1488 Q. Where was this Exhibit B, this letter given to you; this paper to which I have just called your attention?

A. John brought it into the car and gave it to me.

Q. Where was Reuben at that time?

A. Reuben was sitting right there, possibly in the same seat with me.

Q. Did you and Reuben return from Lexington at the same time? A. We did.

Q. Do you remember what time you left Lexington?

A. No, I should think along about the middle of the afternoon; we got to Kansas City before dark.

Q. Did Reuben Brown go to your office after you returned from Lexington?

A. No, I think Reuben left me at the union depot and went off home to Parkville.

Q. Well, now, you may state what was the next thing you did with reference to this matter that you remember.

A. Within a day or two from that time, John's father and I went to Lawrence in pursuance of this agreement and I think I hunted up Mr. Barker who was connected with the insurance company and old Mr. Brown went to see Mrs. Hillmon and brought back word that Mrs. Hillmon would meet us at—

By Mr. Atwood: Who brought this word?

A. Mr. Brown, the old gentleman—Would meet us at the office of Mr. Borgolthaus; old man Brown brought back word that Mrs. Hillmon would meet us that afternoon at the office of Mr. Borgolthaus her lawyer.

Q. Did you see Mrs. Hillmon on that occasion at her house?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you go to her house on that occasion?

A. No sir.

Q. Go on and state what took place there.

A. We met her in the afternoon at the office of Mr. Borgolthaus.

Q. Was Mr. Brown, the old gentleman with you at Mr. Borgolthaus' office?

A. I think he was; I think we both went there; there was very little conversation had there; Mrs. Hillmon said that if John wanted to see her, he would find her at the office; that if John wanted to see her, he could come to Lawrence. That was about the purport of what took place; I don't re-1489 member; there was very little talk about it there.

Q. And you and Mr. Brown went back to Wyandotte? A. Yes, went back to Wyandotte.

Q. Did you and Brown go up together and return together?

A. Yes.

Q. I mean by Mr. Brown, the father of John Brown?

A. Yes sir, Robert.

Q. Now, when did you next hear or do anything in regard to this matter after you were at Lawrence at Mr. Borgolthaus' office?

A. You mean with reference to John Brown or the whole transaction?

Q. You may state the whole transaction.

A. I don't think anything further was done about it for quite a while. I didn't learn that there was anybody in Lawrence authorized to talk for the insurance companies and we sort of dropped the matter and went back home; I don't recollect then of seeing John until possibly August or September, quite a while afterwards.

Q. Where did you see him on that occasion?
A. I saw him at or near Parkville.
Q. At whose place? A. His brother Reuben's.
Q. Who went with you on that occasion?
A. A Mr. Ward.
Q. Who was Ward?
A. Mr. Ward was an old acquaintance, officed in the same building with me, a deputy sheriff; he had a team and I got him to drive me over there.
Q. Now, where did you find John Brown on that occasion?
A. I found John at the sawmill near Reuben's house loading lumber.
Q. Did you have a conversation with him there?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you remember about the first conversation that you had with him on your arrival there?
A. Well, the first conversation I had with him was at the saw mill there; I told him I had come over to see him about that Hillmon matter, the insurance matter, that I had been informed by some of the people representing the insurance companies—came to see me and said that he was about to sign proofs of death or had signed them, or something, and they thought it was very funny after what I had told 1490 them in Lawrence and that I said I would go and see him to know what he meant, and I had come to find out about it, what he meant, and what he had done, and intended to do. He said to me, "Yes, I did sign some paper." He said they had told him if he signed that paper that would be the last of it, that Mrs. Hillmon would get the money and it would be all over.
Q. Did he tell you at whose instance he had signed, or who had got him to sign that paper?
A. Yes, I think I am a little ahead on that. I saw John once before that; I recollect it now. I had met him at Parkville in company with Baldwin.
Q. Do you know which Baldwin, Alva or Levi?
A. Levi. I saw him about the train; Baldwin was there and took the train as I got off. John was there, and I asked him what he was doing there, and he told me what he had come for, he said that Baldwin was there wanting him to sign some papers and he had refused to do it.
Q. Can you fix the date of that?
A. That was prior to the time I saw him at Reuben's house, not a great while; sometime prior to that. He said he had refused to sign those papers, and he didn't intend to; he proposed if anything came of this thing to tell the truth. I turned and went back home then. I had a very short conversation. Then the next time I saw him was at the house after I had been told that he had signed some papers.

Q. Now, I want to draw your attention to the conversation that took place at Reuben Brown's house near the saw-mill, the time that you and Mr. Ward went over there.

A. That is the conversation on I was relating a minute ago; and he said that he had signed some papers; that Baldwin, and I think he said Mr. Riggs, Mr. Samuel Riggs had come to see him, and got him to go down to Kansas City and sign some papers with the belief or understanding that that would end the whole matter and she would get the money. He said they had told him, Baldwin or some of them, Levi Baldwin had told him that the insurance companies had thought it was a man by the name of Nichols who had 1491 been killed and he knew where Nichols was and if they ever did anything about it he would produce Nichols and show them he was alive, that it was not him at all and they were off the scent.

Q. Where did that conversation take place?

A. At the saw mill near Reuben's house.

Q. Who was present at that conversation, if you remember?

A. Nobody was present; Mr. Ward was sitting in the buggy off somewhere waiting for me.

Q. Did you have any further conversation with him?

A. We then went to Reuben's house for dinner and there I met Reuben. John and Reuben had some talk and then Reuben and John and myself had some talk.

Q. Did you hear the talk between Reuben and John?

A. No, I did not, that is, not the first one, not all of it. Afterwards we were together, the three of us, and had some talk. I repeated practically what I had said to John and then Reuben said to John——

Q. You may state as near as you can what you said to John in Reuben's presence after you had this talk down by the saw mill?

A. I said to Reuben that I had been telling John I had come over to see him to see about this affair; the attorneys for the insurance companies had come to me and said that John had made some statement or signed some papers which was contrary to what he had told me to say to them and that I thought it was very queer and I wanted to know about it; I wanted to know what he was going to do; which was the true story; that I either wanted to quit the whole thing or know what he was going to do; wanted to have him determine what he would do. He said he told the truth when down at Lexington, that was the facts about it and he had no intention of telling anything else; that he signed this paper under the belief that this was the end of the thing. I told him that was only the beginning of trouble; that with the papers they would 1492 bring suits; that the matter would be in court and then he would have to appear and go on the witness stand, and I wanted to know what he was going to do.

Q. What, if anything, did you say to Reuben Brown in regard to urging John to turn state's evidence on that occasion?

A. I didn't say anything at all about it. I said to him after he had said that was the fact and if he had to go into court he would tell the truth, I says, "John, there is all sorts of stories about this thing and if that is what you propose to do I want you to put it in writing," and said that to Reuben.

Q. What did he say in regard to that?

A. Reuben said that was the thing to do, to put the statement in writing and stand by it and that he had better do it.

Q. Now, have you stated the substance of the conversation that took place between John H. Brown, you and Reuben Brown at Parkville? A. I think so.

Q. I mean Reuben Brown's farm? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was Mr. Ward during this time; was he present and hear any part of this conversation.

A. No; he was about the place somewhere visiting with Reuben's family; he was an old acquaintance of the family; I don't think he was—I know he was not present at any of the conversations or within hearing distance.

Q. Was there anything said on that occasion by you or in your presence about Mr. Ward being there to arrest him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you tell Reuben Brown at that time or any other time for that matter, that Ward was there for the purpose of arresting John H. Brown?

A. Reuben knew Ward longer than I had; they were old acquaintances.

Q. Now, you have stated the conversation; now, you may state what you did?

A. After we concluded to put this statement in writing, we went up on the porch and Reuben and John brought a table out on the porch and pen and ink. Reuben went away then with Ward and looked around the farm and John sat
1493 down and told me that story practically as he had told me at Lexington and I put it in writing. He told the story and I put it in writing practically using my own language, and facts and details just as he had stated them to me.

Q. When that statement was written, what was done with reference to reading it over and talking it over, or talking it over with John at the time it was being made?

A. It was talked over and read over and discussed; that is, it was read over afterwards.

Q. After it was completed?

A. After it was completed. John simply sat down and told me the lates and time and what was done, recited the story to me and I put it in writing.

Q. And you say that after it was written——

A. We read it all over and I said we had better go to a justice of the peace if he didn't object, and go down town. John got on his horse and we went down to Parkville.

Q. Do you know who went with you on that occasion?

A. Ward went down with us; that was on our way home.

Q. Do you remember whether Reuben went along or not?

A. No, Reuben didn't go; John went on horseback, Reuben didn't go at all.

Q. John went over?

A. John went over. John and I went to the office of a justice of the peace by the name of McDonald. He said he wanted to swear to an affidavit and he swore to it there.

Q. Then, what did you do?

A. Why, I had this conversation; John said then he thought if he saw Mrs. Hillmon, he could get up these policies, get them to be surrendered and that he thought that he would just go at that.

Q. Do you remember where he made that statement?

A. I think he talked about it up at the house; I am not so positive about that. That was the conclusion of it, if he could get to see Mrs. Hillmon some way, that he knew if he saw her he could get a surrender of these policies and that, he was sure, would end it, and he gave me some authorization or some paper right there in the justice of the peace office, I think.

Q. Will you look at Exhibit number 18 at this pres-
1494 ent trial and state what that is and when you first saw it and by whom it is signed?

A. That is the paper John gave me in the justice of the peace's office in Parkville; I wrote it and he signed it.

Q. That was signed at Parkville? A. Parkville.

Q. Missouri?

A. Missouri—Parkville, September 4th, 1879.

Q. Does it bear the date in your judgment of the day on which it was signed?

A. It was dated the day it was signed, the same day the affidavit was made, September 4th, it was written in the office of the justice there and signed by John there and given to me.

Q. Whose signature is there to that paper?

A. That is the signature of John H. Brown.

Q. What was done with it after it was signed?

A. I took it.

Q. After this paper was signed and the other paper was signed, what did you do? A. Went home.

Q. Do you remember of having any further conversation with him in regard to this transaction after the signing of this paper in McDonald's office. I mean, by this paper, Exhibit number 16?

A. Why, we did. We talked a while there around town, half an hour possibly, or a little while, and went on down the road towards Kansas City on the way home, and John went along with us until the road turned off and he went up to the house.

Q. And you and Mr. Ward returned to Kansas City or Wyandotte? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Leaving John?

A. Leaving, John turned up the road towards his house.

Q. What was the next thing that was done in regard to this matter after this affidavit was signed and this authorization signed by Brown; what was the next thing that you did, if you remember?

A. A short time after that I went to Lawrence and had an interview with yourself and Mr. Green, I think, and Mr. Munn, representing the insurance companies, some agent or general agent or something.

Q. Where was that interview, was it in my office or 1495 Mr. Green's office?

A. I think it was in Mr. Green's office.

Q. Do you remember my being present?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state now what took place there on that occasion?

A. Well, I don't know that I could in detail. I had this paper and I had that affidavit and I said that I was authorized by Brown to negotiate with them to get up these policies; that he would get the surrender of these policies provided they would give him immunity from disturbance, from arrest.

Q. Before you go into that matter, I want you to look at Exhibit number 15 at this trial and state when, where and under what circumstances you first saw that exhibit?

A. This is a paper that was given to me at that time in Mr. Green's office in Lawrence by Mr. Munn, dated the 6th of September, 1879.

Q. Is that the time of your being at the office there?

A. Yes, sir, I think it is.

Q. You may state briefly what occurred there at the office on that occasion?

A. I had this affidavit with me and, as I recollect it, I started to read it and my recollection is after Mr. Munn had read that affidavit he began to say, "Brown ought to be prosecuted for murder," etc. I felt somewhat outraged, and I took the paper away and put it in my pocket and said, "If you propose to prosecute John Brown, you cannot do it with any evidence I can furnish and we will end this interview." I think I left the room and went over to the hotel, and I think you came over to the hotel saying that—censured Munn for making a statement of that kind, that there was nothing of that kind would be done and I think that is when that paper was drawn and given to me after I had assurances—

Q. What, if anything, was said at that occasion about your getting up these policies?

A. I said that I was authorized by John Brown to say he thought he could get up these policies and would attempt to.

Q. Do you remember whether or not you showed 1496 Mr. Munn or Mr. Green this paper which is marked Exhibit 18?

A. Yes, I showed them I had authority from John Brown to act on that matter and I wanted something from them on the other side.

Q. What did they give you then, do you remember?

A. They gave me this paper that is signed by Munn.

Q. Will you look at Exhibit number 26 and state when and where you first saw that, if you remember?

A. I don't recollect about that whether I got it at this time or not. It was a paper I got from Mr. Munn.

Q. Now, you may state what took place; you have stated what took place at Lawrence. Did you return to Kansas City?

A. Yes, I was at Lawrence, I think I was there a couple of times.

Q. You were there on both the 5th and 6th, do you think?

A. I think I was there two days. I think I returned at night. I am not sure about that, but think I came back home.

Q. When did you next see John Brown?

A. I was there a couple of times.

Q. After seeing John Brown at Parkville, Missouri, on or about September 4th, 1879, when and where did you next see him?

A. The next time I saw him was at my office in Wyandotte sometime after that, I don't know when; quite a while possibly.

Q. What was his business there then?

A. He came to my office and said he was going up to Tonganoxie, he was on his way to Tonganoxie to meet Mrs. Hillmon; he was to meet her at Baldwin's house and he was going up there to get these policies and bring them back.

Q. How was he traveling at that time, if you know?

A. On horseback.

Q. He left your office, did he? A. He left my office.

Q. When did you next see him. That is to say, did you see him after his return from Baldwin's?

A. Yes, sir, he stopped at my office on his way home from Tonganoxie.

Q. Do you remember when that was?

1497 A. A couple of days after that. He stopped at the office and said that he had been there, he had seen Mrs. Hillmon and that he wanted me—I was to meet them, Baldwin and Mrs. Hillmon, at Leavenworth on a date fixed, I think Monday; I think possible on Saturday he came back—that they were to be over there with the policies, had given the policies to Mr. Wheat of Leavenworth and that the policies were there and they were going over there and they were going to get the policies and surrender them and I was to meet them up there. Pursuant to that on the day fixed, I came to Leavenworth here and found John here, I think when I came. He had come up on the other side of the river.

Q. Do you remember of John coming over with you on that occasion or whether you found John here?

A. No, I found him here; I think he was here when I got here, if I remember. Mrs. Hillmon and Baldwin had not arrived. We waited around a while and then went down to the train coming from Tonganoxie and met Mrs. Hillmon. John wanted to know where Levi was and she said that Levi had got mad and backed out and said she had ought not to do this, but she had made up her mind to do it and she had come herself.

Q. That is what John said or Mrs. Hillmon?

A. Mrs. Hillmon said in answer to John's question.

Q. Where did that conversation take place, as near as you can remember? A. Down at the depot here.

Q. That was before or after you and Mrs. Hillmon and John Brown went to the Planters house?

A. That was just before her arrival here from Tonganoxie.

Q. Then you may state what you did?

A. We went up to the Planters hotel in this city.

Q. Do you remember in what room?

A. In a room off of the office. The office was then on the second floor and it was in, I think, the traveling men's room, just off of the office towards the river.

Q. Now, do you recollect the conversation, can you give the substance of the conversation that took place be-

1498 tween you and Mrs. Hillmen on that occasion?

A. They wanted me to—they talked something about giving me an order to go to Mr. Wheat and get the policies.

Q. How long after that order was given were the releases signed?

A. I was trying to state the conversation on the subject which was about my going up there. I said, "no, they will not give the policies to me." Mrs. Hillmon says, "Well, John, let us go," and wanted to go, but John backed out, said he didn't want to go, and then Mrs. Hollmon says, "If you will go with me, Mr. Buchan, I will go up and get those policies."

Q. Did she go with you to Mr. Wheat's office?

A. Yes, sir, she went with me.

Q. What I now want to direct your attention to is to state the substance of all that was said that you recollect of the conversation which took place between you and Mrs. Hillmon and between you and John Brown in the presence of Mrs. Hillmon from the time you went to the Planters House until those order and releases which have been offered in evidence, were signed?

A. These releases and the order were not written until after Mrs. Hillmon and I had come back from Wheat's office. I am sure of that.

Q. You think the first paper written was the order for the policies?

A. I don't recollect about that. As I recollect it now, these papers were all written after we had failed to get policies from Mr. Wheat.

Q. You mean the releases? A. The releases, yes.

Q. What I want to get at is what you said, what inducements, if any, you held out to her or what you said to her to get her to sign that order?

A. Oh, I didn't hold out any inducements; he was to come with her and get the policies and she had complained about Baldwin not coming over; that he had given the policies to Wheat and he was the one that ought to have come and got them; but, as he didn't come, if John Brown would go with her she would go and get them.

1499 What if anything, was said by you about having taken her best witness away from her; about having taken her best and only witness and she could not recover?

A. No conversation of that kind took place; nothing of that kind; there was no talk of that kind, it was a question of how to get those policies, nothing about that.

Q. Well, now, what, if anything, was said by you to her about the companies having millions and they would spend it to defeat the policies and that they never intended to pay?

A. Nothing of the kind; there was no hesitancy on her part about going and getting them; the only thing was the manner of getting them, or who would go with her; she was ready to go herself at any time; she had determined that before; there was no hesitancy on her part; there was no argument needed or used to induce her to come here, but the question was simply who would go with her to Mr. Wheat to get those policies.

Q. You have spoken about a certain order. Look at Exhibit 17 and state whether or not that is the paper to which you refer?

A. That is the paper which was given to me, I think, after we had returned from Mr. Wheat's office about the time these other papers were signed. This is the order Mrs. Hillmon gave me on Clough & Wheat for these insurance policies at the Planters House in this city.

Q. In whose handwriting is it? A. It is my handwriting.

Q. Whose signature is it? A. Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon's.

Q. Is it witnessed? A. No, it is not witnessed.

Q. Now, in connection with this paper, I will ask you what was done after the signing of this order?

A. It was given to me.

Q. What did you do?

A. Then she—I wrote up the releases of the policies.

Q. What did you do after you got the order; did you go to Clough & Wheat's office?

A. I think, I am not certain as to whether that order was given before or after; my impression is it was given after [after]we had failed to get them; she did then sign the 1500 releases and also gave the order for the policies: That is my recollection now. I don't recollect of any paper having been written before we went there; I don't now.

Q. Did you go down to Clough & Wheat's office with her?

A. I went down with her.

Q. Do you remember what time it was in the day you went down there? A. No, I don't.

Q. It was the same day? A. It was the same day.

Q. This all occurred in one day?

A. All occurred on one day.

Q. You and Mrs. Hillmon went to Clough & Wheat's. Whom did you see there? A. Saw Mr. Wheat.

Q. Was there a conversation between Mrs. Hillmon, yourself and Mr. Wheat in regard to the policies?

A. Mrs. Hillmon said that she had come to get those insurance policies; that Baldwin left there. Wheat started to get them, started towards the safe, at least, stopped on the way and he says, "I don't know about this. I believe this is a kind of a fraud on me; I believe we have got a lien on those policies and I don't believe I will give them up."

Q. Then he didn't [gove] them up?

A. He didn't give them up.

Q. What did you and Mrs. Hillmon do?

A. Mrs. Hillmon and I came away, went to the hotel and as I recollect it now, then Mrs. Hillmon signed the releases of the insurance and also signed that order for me on Clough & Wheat for the policies. Now, that is my recollection of it now.

Q. Look at Exhibit number 17 and state whose signature that is and when and where it was signed?

A. That is a release for one of these policies, signed by Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon, signed at the Planters House down here and her signature is witnessed by me and John H. Brown.

Q. The same John H. Brown concerning whom you have been testifying?

A. Yes, sir. That release was made and signed there at the Planters hotel on the day it was dated.

1501 Q. Look at Exhibit number 16 and state what that is and whose signature?

A. That is the same for another policy; there were three or four of those policies.

Q. By whom is it signed?

A. Signed by Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon, and witnessed by myself and John H. Brown.

Q. Did you see her sign it? A. I did.

Q. Did you see John H. Brown sign as a witness?

A I did, it was all done right there.

Q. Look at Exhibit I and state if the signature thereto is the signature of the plaintiff and if you saw her sign it?

By Mr. Atwood: Is that the New York Life?

By Mr. Barker: Yes, sir.

By. Mr. Atwood: We object to it as immaterial; the New York Life is out of the case.

The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. That is signed by Mrs. Hillmon and witnessed by myself and John H. Brown, signed at the same time.

Q. Now, after these releases were signed and after this order was made, where did you go?

A. The train came along and Mrs. Hillmon and I went to Wyandotte and John Brown went over to Parkville on the other side.

Q. Now, have you stated all the inducements or representations or arguments, if any, that were used to induce Mrs. Hillmon to sign these papers?

A. There were no arguments or inducements of any kind to get Mrs. Hillmon to sign these papers for me at that time. She came over there for the purpose of getting these policies by appointment with me made by herself and John Brown to come here to get those papers; they were here, given to Mr. Wheat by Mr. Baldwin; there was no time during that conversation that Mrs. Hillmon wanted to do otherwise. I don't recollect anything of the kind. It was purely a voluntary matter.

1502 Q. Will you look at Exhibit number 24 and state if the plaintiff's signature is affixed to that paper?

A. Yes, sir, that is Mrs. Hillmon's signature. That was not signed here, however.

Q. Will you look at the date of it and state whether or not it was signed at the time it purports to bear date?

A. It bears date September 25th. This was signed in my office, I presume, on that day.

Q. You may state the circumstances under which Exhibit number 24 was signed.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and because it is no part of the transaction under consideration.

The Court overruled the objection to which ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Q. I will ask you to state the circumstances under which this Exhibit number 24 was signed?

A. After I returned home I learned that some mistake had been made in one of the releases or something, I don't remember what it was but I remember the circumstances, and I wrote to Mrs. Hillmon, then at Ottawa, and she came to my office then a third time and this release was signed there. I explained to her what it was and that was signed in my office in Wyandotte, I presume on the date fixed here; that would be about right, September 25th.

Q. Who was present at the time that was signed?

A. I don't—remember anybody but Mrs. Hillmon and myself.

Q. Did you have a conversation with her at that time explaining to her why this was necessary?

A. I explained to her, I have forgotten now what the reason was; I had either left the number out or there was some one of them was not satisfactory, was not right, and I wrote to her to come up from Ottawa and she came and I explained to her what the reason then was, I don't recollect, and she signed it.

1503 Q. Was there anything said; any further conversation?

A. I don't recollect what the conversation was; I talked to her--

Q. For the purpose of refreshing your recollection, I desire to exhibit to you another exhibit, which I ask to have marked Exhibit J. Look at Exhibit J and state in whose handwriting that is, by whom it was signed, where it was signed and the date of it?

A. This was written by me at the Planters house. I think I did not have the number of the policy, of one of the policies, and she authorized me to insert that in the release. That was signed by Mrs. Hillmon at Leavenworth.

Q. Can you explain how it happened that Exhibit number 24 was signed on the 25th?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court overruled the objection to which ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. It seems by the note that I didn't have the number of the policy or one of them. Of course, it is indistinct to me now. I recognize that letter as having been written here to make some correction which she authorized me to do. She had then gone to Ottawa and came up to my office. That is as I recollect it now.

Q. You supplied that omission? A. Yes, sir.

By Mr. Barker: We now offer in evidence Exhibit J.

There being no objection, the said exhibit was read in evidence and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

EX. J. Nov. '99. W. C. H. Judge.

Leavenworth, Kansas, ..., 18..

W. J. Buchan: I hereby authorize you to procure the numbers and dates of the policies on my husband's life and insert the same in the blanks left in my satisfaction of claim signed to-day.

Sept. 15, 1879. S. E. HILLMON.

1504 By Mr. Barker: We now offer in evidence Exhibit number 24 identified by the witness.

By Mr. Atwood: We think it is proper for your honor to say that this is not to affect the others at all, but is simply admitted as a part of this general transaction and that it does not affect the cases now pending.

By the Court: It will be admitted as a part of the transaction the witness has testified to. It is not contended by defendants that the New York Life Insurance Company dropped out of this transaction pursuant to that paper.

By Mr. Barker: It is not.

Said paper was, thereupon, read to the jury and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1505 EXHIBIT No. 24. Oct. 99. W. C. H. Judge.

"Wyandotte, Ks., Sept. 25th, 1879.

In consideration of one dollar to me in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, I hereby release, surrender and acknowledge satisfaction in full of all claims against the New York Life Insurance Company of New York by reason of policy number 134418 dated on the 30th day of November 1878, and policy number 134548 dated on the 10th day of December 1878, and for five thousand dollars each, issued on the life of my husband John W. Hillmon, and I hereby enter satisfaction in full and order the dismissal and discontinuance of any and all suits or proceedings commenced or that may hereafter be begun by any person or persons in my behalf for the collection of the same.

SALLIE E. HILLMON.

Attest: W. J. BUCHAN."

1506 Q. Now, do you remember of seeing Mrs. Hillmon and John Brown in your office shortly after you returned from Leavenworth on the 15th of September, 1879; that is, I mean shortly after that date, September 15th, 1879?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When were they in your office?

A. Well, it was a very short time after we returned from Leavenworth on the 15th of September.

Q. After this transaction of September 15th?

A. Yes, sir, within the next day or two.

Q. You may state what took place there?

A. Possibly one or two days afterwards. John came over before Mrs. Hillmon had gone away. They were in the office there quite a while; they were there most of the day in the little room off from my main office talking together.

Q. Could you hear and did you hear the subject of conversation between Brown and Mrs. Hillmon?

A. Very little of it.

Q. Now, you may state what took place in your presence between Mrs. Hillmon and Mr. Brown in regard to any paper being destroyed or anything of that sort?

A. I don't recollect the conversation; it seemed to be the general talk about this thing being closed up; it was all over; that this would settle it and while we had not got the policies, still this would settle the whole matter. I had the statement that John had made and I says, "I guess this is all over and I will tear this up." John says, "Yes." And on my own motion I tore it up and threw it into the stove. I used my stove as a waste basket. There was a lot of other stuff in there. I don't recollect the conversation, but that was in the line of it. I don't recollect any other thing, but I remember that.

Q. Was that the last time you had a conversation with Mrs. Hillmon and John Brown together?

A. Yes, sir, I think it was.

Q. Did you see them together after that that you remember of?

A. No, I don't recollect seeing them together unless at the time of one of the trials of this case.

1507 Q. I mean outside of this case?

A. I don't think so; John was there a very short time and he went home and I don't think I saw him again.

Q. Who first spoke to you about looking after and protecting John Brown's interests and defending him?

A. John's father, Robert Brown.

Q. Do you remember when that was?

A. It was quite early in the spring, possibly the last of March or the first of April.

Q. Do you remember of making a trip with him to see John? A. Yes.

Q. Do you remember when that was?

A. It was during a term of our court, either the last of March or in April along early in the spring. Anyway, he came to me in the court house and Old Robbie said that he wanted me to go with him and Colonel Walker from Lawrence over to Orrick on the north Missouri road to see John; that he had agreed with the colonel that if he would not arrest him or molest him, he would let him have a talk with John and he wanted me to go along as a sort of guaranty that he would not interfere with John.

Q. Did you go with the old gentleman and Colonel Walker?

A. I went down to Orrick on the north Missouri road.

Q. Did you see him?

A. We did not see John; he would not come; we remained there until the train came up to see him, but came home, having failed to see him.

Q. How was it in reference to point of time; before you went to Lexington?

A. Yes, this transaction was before I had seen John at all.

Q. You have spoken about securing these releases and this order and going to Mr. Wheat's office for the policies. These releases were turned over to some representative of the company, were they? A. Yes.

Q. And the order for them. Do you remember to whom they were delivered by you? A. I presume it was Mr. Munn, either Mr. Munn or Mr. Green.

Q. Have you any distinct recollection in regard to which one?

1508 A. No I don't; I understand they were turned over to whoever represented the insurance companies.

Q. Now, I will ask you if for your services in securing these releases, these satisfactions, you were paid by the insurance companies? A. I was.

Q. Do you remember the amount that you received in that respect?

A. Why, I think I received five hundred dollars fee and some expense money, I don't know what it was.

Q. At the time you were securing these releases and getting up these policies, did John Brown know what you were doing?

A. He did.

Q. Did he make any objection or take any exception as to what you were doing? A. None whatever.

Q. I want to ask you if you at any time told John Brown—threatened John Brown with arrest, if you threatened to have John Brown arrested if he did not sign this confession, if he didn't sign or make this confession?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court overruled the objection to which ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. No sir, I did not in any way.

Q. You have stated you saw Mrs. Hillmon after these releases were all signed, did you not?

A. Yes, sir; I did, anyway.

Q. Did you see her more than once?

A. Yes, sir, she was at my house for a week or two.

Q. I will ask you if she at that time or any other time, ever complained or criticized you for getting her to sign these releases?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and calling for the conclusion of the witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. She never did, even after suit was brought—Objection. Never at any time I saw her.

1509 Q. I will ask you if you ever had any conversation with her in regard to these suits, or the bringing of them, and what, if anything, she said to you on that subject?

A. Yes, she came to my office in Wyandotte there after the suits had been brought or were about to be brought, at least, after something was being done with them, and wanted to employ me on her side of the case.

Q. To employ you as an attorney?

A. As an attorney, yes.

By Mr. Hutchings: If he had any further communications with her, we object to his disclosing it.

By the Court: It may stand, as far as the fact is concerned that the witness testified that she attempted to employ him. That is all he has testified to so far.

Q. Do you remember when that was?

A. Why, I think it was after the suits had been begun, quite a while. It was after this thing that I had looked after was all up.

Q. Look at the paper purporting to be dated January 3rd, 1880, and state in whose handwriting that paper is and by whom it is signed.

A. It is in Mrs. Hillmon's handwriting and signed by her.

Q. State whether you received that paper, and if so, how?

A. I received it by mail.

Q. Do you remember from what place?

A. I think she wrote me that from Tonganoxie; yes, from Tonganoxie; it is dated Tonganoxie.

Q. When did you receive it with reference to the date?

A. Well, about that time, January 3rd, 1880.

Q. Will you look at the letter marked Ottawa, Kansas, September 20th, 1879, and state in whose handwriting that letter is, and by whom it is signed, and when it was received by you if at all.

A. It was written to me by Mrs. Hillmon, from Ottawa, signed by her.

Q. Is that letter in her handwriting? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you receive it? A. I did.

Q. By mail? A. By mail

Q. What time with reference to the date of the letter?

A. In the usual course of mail; in a day or so.

1510 The letter in question is marked by the court Exhibit H.

By Mr. Barker: We offer in evidence Exhibit H and in connection with it we will offer in evidence Exhibit J.

By the Court: That has been offered.

Mr. Barker here reads in evidence the said Exhibit J, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit: (See third page following.

1511 Mr. Barker here reads in evidence Exhibit H, identified by the witness W. J. Buchan, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

"EX. H. Nov. 99. W. C. H. Judge.

"W. J. Buchan Esqr.

Dear Sir: On behalf of the Mutual Life, New York, Connecticut Mutual Life I hereby authorize & employ you to procure the surrender of the policies of insurance on the life of John W. Hillmon. H. B. MUNN."

Kansas City, Sept. 5, 1879."

1512 Q. I will ask you if you remember when and where you received this paper, the paper dated Kansas City.
A. I remember about the paper very distinctly, but whether I got it—I presume I got it at Kansas City, it was dated there about that time.

And in answer to cross interrogatories, propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Mr. Buchan, you were the attorney of John Brown?
A. Yes.
Q. When did that employment begin?
A. I presume it began the first time that his father came to me in Wyandotte and asked me to go with him and Colonel Walker out to see John.
Q. That was in the spring of 1879?
A. In the spring of 1879.
Q. How long did that employment continue?
A. Well, I presume it continued during all of this transaction.
Q. You were also an attorney for the insurance companies?
A. I received my pay from the insurance company.
Q. Answer my question, yes or no, were you attorney for the insurance company?
A. Not at that time, no sir.
Q. Did you ever become an attorney of these companies?
A. I become—I presume I did.
Q. Answer the question, yes or no. You know, Mr. Buchan, whether you were ever their attorney.
A. Well, I stated the fact.
Q. Please answer the question, yes or no, you knew whether you were attorney for either company?
A. I presume I was in this transaction. I was in this transaction.
Q. When did that employment begin?
A. It began after I went over to John Brown's.
Q. Will you please name it as near as you can?
A. I presume it began on September 4th, 1879, the day that John Brown gave me this order.
1513 Q. How long did your employment continue?
A. Until this thing was closed up, this particular matter.
Q. Were you ever the attorney of Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon?
A. No.
Q. You have seen this, Mr. Buchan? (showing witness a paper.) A. Yes sir.
Q. You know its contents? A. Yes sir.

Q. Its contents are as follows, are they not? "W. J. Buchan: I hereby authorize you to procure the numbers and dates of the policies on my husband's life and insert the same in the blanks left in my satisfaction of claim signed to-day, September 15th, 1879. S. E. HILLMON."

A. Yes sir.

Q. In what capacity were you acting at the time that you were authorized by Mrs. Hillmon to insert in her behalf those numbers?

A. Well, I don't know, I could not say, Mr. Atwood, I was authorized by her—

Q. You need not make any speeches, Mr. Buchan. If you will kindly answer my question and reserve them until they are called for by your own counsel, I will be infinitely obliged. Mr. Buchan did you ever act as Mrs. Hillmon's attorney in any manner?

A. No sir, I don't think I did, sir.

Q. Did you ever have any business with her in the way of collections or anything of that kind during the early part of 1880 or the latter part of 1879?

A. I acted as Mrs. Hillmon's friend in several matters.

By Mr. Atwood: I ask that that be stricken out as not responsive to the question.

The Court sustained the motion to which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. Is that your letter, Mr. Buchan? That is signed by you and written in your hand? A. Yes sir.

1514 By Mr. Atwood: I now offer this letter in evidence. Said letter is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

"Wyandotte, Kansas, March 4th, 1880.

"Mrs. Hilmon: I enclose herewith your notes as per request just received from you. Have sent them to-day.

Yours, "W. J. BUCHAN."

Q. You were not acting as her attorney at the time you wrote that, is that a fact? A. No sir.

Q. Now then, when—

A. I can explain all about that if you want me to.

Q. Your explanation may come from the other side. When did you first see Robert Brown, in this connection I mean?

A. I think it was in March, the last of March or the first of April, 1879.

Q. Do you know whether or not it was after the inquest that was held at Lawrence? A. I think it was.

Q. Where did you see him?

A. At the court house in Wyandotte.

Q. How long after that did you go to Lawrence?

A. I don't think that I went to Lawrence after that—you mean on this business?

A. Yes, or on any business after your interview with Robert Brown.

A. I don't recollect that I was in Lawrence at any time until after I had seen John Brown in Lexington.

Q. Without reference to John Brown at Lexington, will you kindly tell me, as your recollection serves you, when you first went to Lawrence after seeing Robert Brown?

A. No, I have no recollection of being at Lawrence; although I might have been there; it is a long time ago and I have no recollection of being at Lawrence until after I had seen John Brown at Lexington.

By Mr. Atwood. I ask that the answer be stricken out.

A. I have no recollection of being there at that time; although I might have been.

Q. You did go to Lawrence sometime?

A. I went to Lawrence, I remember, after having seen John at Lexington.

1515 By Mr. Atwood: I ask that the answer be stricken out.

By the Court: The latter part of the answer should be stricken out as not responsive to the question. The question was whether you did go to Lawrence some time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, as near as you can, state the month that you went there. A. I can't even state that I did go there.

Q. I understood you to just say you had been there?

A. I just said that I didn't recollect having been there until after I had seen John at Lexington; although I might have been.

By the Court: Mr. Buchan, can't you answer the question? You said you were at Lawrence at some time. He asked you if you can fix the date?

A. I say the only time I can fix is after having been to Lexington.

Q. That is not it, I mean fix the date; that means the day, month and year. If you can't fix it, tell me so.

A. I can only fix it by the paper.

Q. Can you name the month you were there first after the interview with Robert Brown? A. No.

Q. You can't? A. It was after these papers were signed.

Q. You say that it was after these papers were signed?

A. I remember that.

Q. That was in the month of September?
A. That was in September.
Q. Then you do remember you were there in September?
A. I was there before that, yes.
Q. Name the month that preceded that visit?
A. I think it must have been in July, 1879. I am fixing that by the date——
Q. I am not asking you to fix the date, if you will just kindly confine yourself to the question. You say you think you went there in July, 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see Mr. Barker there on that occasion?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see Mr. J. W. Green on that occasion?
A. I don't think I did at the time I refer to in July.
1516 Q. I am simply asking you as to the July visit. Were you there more than once in July, 1879, what is your best recollection?
A. I have no recollection as to the dates. My recollection is only as to the instances or what occurred. The dates I have no recollection of.
Q. Do you remember of being there more than once in July, 1879? A. I have not.
Q. At that time, I understoodd you to say you saw Mr. Barker? A. Yes, I saw Mr. Barker.
Q. Did you see Mr. Green at that time?
A. I don't think I did.
Q. Did you see Mr. H. B. Munn at that time?
A. Not at the time I refer to.
Q. Did you ever have any conversation with Mr. Barker?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you tell him you were there in behalf of John H. Brown as his attorney? A. The substance.
Q. Please answer yes or no?
A. I can't say yes or no. I can state the substance, what was said, what I told him.
Q. Did you tell him you were there in behalf of John H. Brown as his attorney? That is the question and that can be answered categorically, and we ask your honor to direct the witness to answer it so. If, later on, he desires to make an explanation his own counsel will give him every opportunity to do so. A. From John H. Brown, I did.
Q. Did he tell you, inform you, that he was attorney for one or another of the defendant insurance companies?
A. He told me whether he did not know whether he was or not. He had no authority to act or accept for them.
Q. You say that you did not see Mr. Green at that time?
A. I don't think I did.
Q. How long was your interview with Mr. Barker at that time as your recollection serves you?

A. Very brief. I don't recollect, sir. I have no recol-
1517 lection now as to the length of it.

Q. When did you next see Mr. Barker either at Lawrence or anywhere else?

A. I don't know where I next saw him. I saw him after that in Kansas City.

Q. Where in Kansas City. A. At the Coates House.

Q. Was Mr. Munn present at that time? A. He was.

Q. Mr. J. W. Green present at that time?

A. I think not.

Q. Were Mr. Munn and Mr. Barker together in your presence there in Kansas City there at the Coates House?

A. Yes.

Q. What time of year or when was it that that interview occurred?

A. I can't fix the time. I can fix it by the incident.

Q. Was it in August, 1879?

A. Possibly it might have been. It was between September and July. I would say it was in August.

Q. August, 1879. A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did that interview last?

A. It was a part of an evening.

Q. Did you know that Mr. Barker at that time was attorney for the insurance companies? A. I assumed that he was.

Q. Did you know that Mr. Munn was a representative or attorney of the insurance companies.

A. I knew that he was an agent of the insurance companies.

Q. You say that interview last part of an evening?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you inform both Mr. Munn and Mr. Barker then or did they know that you were attorney for John H. Brown?

A. I think so; I represented him.

Q. You represented him? A. Yes.

Q. And did you state then and there that if they agreed to not press any prosecution against John H. Brown that you would obtain from him a statement that would be of assistance to the insurance companies? A. I think—

Q. Please answer the question, yes or no. A. I think not.

Q. Was any statement made to you by Mr. Green, Munn or Mr. Barker that they would pay you or pay Brown 1518 any sum of money if the policies were obtained by him?

A. At the same interview——

Q. Please answer that question, yes or no, if you can?

A. I can not answer it yes or no.

Q. Either yes or no, now. A. No, sir.

Q. I will ask you if before that interview you had seen your client, John H. Brown, that interview when Mr. Munn and Mr. Barker were present?

A. I had already seen him at Lexington.
Q. You had had a conversation with him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. He had made certain statements to you?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you repeat this statement in substance or effect to Mr. Barker or Mr. Munn or both?
A. I think neither of them.
Q. Did you tell them he had made a statement to you?
A. Possibly I might, I don't recollect now.
Q. What is your best recollection, that you did or did not tell them he had made a statement?
A. Well, my recollection is that I said to them——
Q. I didn't ask you that, I am simply asking you whether or not you told them he had made a statement to you?
A. I think I probably did; I think undoubtedly in some way; as to how—I have no doubt I told them.
Q. Did you tell them any part or portion of the statement or what it consisted of?
A. It is a mere reminiscence to me, I can't say as to what I said.
Q. It is very important to us.
A. I think it is quite possible that Brown had said something——
Q. I didn't ask you what he told you. I asked you whether you gave them any portion of the statement Mr. Brown had given to you? A. I don't recollect that I did.
Q. Do you remember whether the name of John W. Hillmon was mentioned in the interview? A. I presume it was.
Q. And the name of Sallie E. Hillmon?
A. I expect all of them.

Q. Were you invited to go there and meet them or 1519 did you invite them to meet you?
A. No, I was invited to meet them.

Q. From whom did the invitation come to you?
A. As I recollect it by letter, either from Mr. Barker or Mr. Green to meet them and Mr. Munn at the Coates house in Kansas City, by letter.
Q. You think Mr. Green?
A. I don't think it was Mr. Green.
Q. That interview was subsequent to your interview with Barker in Lawrence preceding? A. Yes sir.
Q. At the July interview you had told him you were attorney for John Brown?
A. I told him I was representing John Brown.
Q. Representing him as attorney?
A. I don't think I put it in those words. That was the inference.
Q. You were a practicing attorney?

A. Oh, I certainly was representing John Brown.
Q. You were practicing your profession at that time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And you professionally were representing John Brown?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you at the July interview say to Mr. Barker or ask him whether or not he had any proposition to make with relation to the Hillmon matter in connection with John H. Brown? A. As I recollect—
Q. Please answer that yes or no.
A. As I recollect that that interview was simply to this effect—
Q. I did not ask you what the effect was. I simply asked you—

By the Court: That question can be answered either in the affirmative or in the negative.

A. No, I think not. I had no such conversation as that.
Q. He told you at that time that he was not a representative of the insurance companies?
A. He did not know whether he had authority to act or not. My recollection is that he did not know whether he was or not. He had appeared for the insurance companies—
Q. You have answered the question. Did you ask him if he represented the insurance companies?
A. I expect I did; that is what I went for, to find out if he did.
1520 Q. You went from that interview with Robert Brown who employed you to look after his son, John H. Brown?
A. I went from my interview with John H. Brown.
Q. You went from the interview with one or the other to Lawrence and asked him if he represented the insurance companies and he told you that he did not know whether he did or not; he had no authority to negotiate with you?
A. He did not know whether he represented them or not.
Q. Did that terminate the interview?
A. As I recollect it it did; it was a very short interview.
Q. Then, having received a letter from Mr. Barker or Mr. Green asking you to meet them at the Coates house in Kansas City? A. Yes sir.
Q. And in pursuance of that invitation did you meet them?
A. Yes sir.
A. And you had a talk with them. You did not tell them about the statement you say John had previously made to you?
A. I don't recollect whether I did; have no recollection as to what the conversation was.
Q. Is there any reason why you should not?

A. I think they knew or inferred from my conversation that I had a statement from John Brown that that was not the body of Hillmon brought to Lawrence?

Q. That Mr. Brown had made a statement to you as his attorney? A. Yes sir.

Q. How did they come to know what he had said if you did not tell them?

A. I presume they inferred from my conversation possibly that it was not the body of John W. Hillmon.

Q. When was it you told them this portion of the alleged conversation?

A. I don't know; possibly at that interview.

Q. Then if you did you did tell them some portion of the statement you claim Brown had made to you?

A. None in July.

Q. What was said by them when you told them this 1521 portion you have repeated of the alleged statement that Brown made to you? A. I don't recollect.

Q. How long did you say that interview lasted?

A. Part of an evening, I don't know how long.

Q. You said that Brown had told you, accepting you as his attorney, that was not the body of Hillmon?

A. I could not say, Mr. Atwood, any detail, any conversation, I could not do it.

Q. I understood you to say that your recollection serves you that you did tell them that much?

A. They knew from my conversation; might have known from my positive statement for all I know, that John Brown had made a statement to me and in that statement he had said that the man over whom the inquest was held at Lawrence was not the body of John W. Hillmon but another person whom John W. Hillmon had killed.

Q. Now, as a matter of fact, Mr. Buchan, does not your recollection serve you that you did practically tell them the whole statement you claim Brown made to you?

A. No, I think not, only part of it; I may have told them more.

Q. Now, at that interview what was said by Mr. Barker or Mr. Munn to you?

A. I don't remember. I don't even remember that I said what I have now; that I conveyed that information to them.

Q. You have no recollection, then, of the conversation other than you think probably you told them what your client had told you, is that a fact?

A. No, I don't say that; I said that I thought I had conveyed that information to them that my client, as you may put it, John Brown, had told me.

Q. Now, will you please answer if you have a recollection of any other part of the interview there, except that you told them what you have stated?

A. I have no recollection in detail of the conversation either by myself or by them at that interview.

Q. Have you any recollection of the substance of any statement made by Mr. Munn to you?

I cannot at this time recollect.

1522 Q. Have you any recollection of the substance of any statement made at that time by Mr. Barker?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What did Mr. Barker say, if you remember?

A. I would not be positive as to it being Mr. Barker; it may have been Mr. Munn; at all events—

Q. Well, give us the man, one way or the other?

A. It was either the general agent of the insurance company, Mr. Munn or Mr. Barker whom I assumed at that time was representing the insurance companies as attorney.

Q. What did Mr. Barker say?

A. One or the other or both of them said to me John Brown had made proofs of death or was about to make them—I think had made them; that they had information that he had gone to Kansas City with Mr. Riggs and had made proofs of death or statements contrary to the intimations I had given them and they wanted to know what he was going to do about it, what it meant and what they were to understand by his action.

Q. That is the substance of Mr. Barker's statement?

A. That is the substance of the statement either by Mr. Barker or Mr. Munn. I replied to them—

Q. No matter; I didn't ask for your reply. Was that statement made to you by Mr. Barker before you had made the statement you have described at that time or subsequently?

A. My recollection is that that was before; that they sent for me for an interview.

Q. It was pursuant to this statement and when you got there they told you he had made statements, proofs of death, contrary to your intimations and asked for an explanation?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Then you must have told Mr. Barker in your July interview what Mr. Brown previously said to you?

A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. Do you know where he obtained the information that Brown had made a statement different from the proof of death?

A. Now, to get that in connection. I went with old

1523 Bobbie Brown the next day after having seen John at Lexington to Lawrence to hunt up the attorneys for the insurance company and say to them—

Q. Excuse me, Mr. Buchan, I am endeavoring to find out how Mr. Barker or Mr. Munn secured information of Brown's statement prior to the Kansas City meeting?

A. That is what I was trying to get at. I saw Mr. Barker; what I said to him I don't now recollect; it is possible that I intimated to him something of the statement or something to that effect, but the interview terminated pretty shortly for the reason Mr. Barker says, "Well, I don't know whether I represent the insurance companies or not; I appeared for them on this inquest, but I have heard nothing from them since."

But I understood you to say—

A. I may have at that time, I may have intimated to Mr. Barker, or may have said—

Q. Was this the July meeting with Barker, or a third meeting between the July meeting and the meeting at the Coates House.

A. It was the meeting I saw Barker after having seen John at Lexington. I think it was in July.

Q. Then, at that interview with Mr. Barker, your recollection is that you told him in substance, at least, what your client had told you?

A. No, my recollection is not whether I told him anything or not; possibly I may.

Q. What is your recollection?

A. I am trying to give it as near as I can. I have no recollection of any conversation with Barker there at that time except his stating to me the fact in some way that he was not, or didn't know whether he was attorney for the insurance companies or not. Now, what I said to him, I don't know; I don't [recollection]; it is possible I may have said to him then—

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as not responsive to the question. Motion overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. Now, when you met at the Coates House, was that the first time you saw Mr. Barker after your July meeting in Lawrence, which you have just described?

1524 A. It is the only meeting I recollect of now.

Q. As your recollection serves you, you saw Mr. Barker not at all between the meeting at Lawrence in July and the Coates House meeting?

A. I do not now recollect whether I did or not. It is possible I might have seen him frequently.

Q. But your recollection is that you did not at this time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you met them there, they had met you with a view of ascertaining why Mr. Brown should have made a different statement in the death loss than what he had made to you?

A. I think I stated prior to that time—

Q. Will you please answer the question yes or no?

A. I was trying to give the chronology of that matter.

Q. Is it a fact that when they met you there at the Coates house it was as you understood it for the purpose of ascertaining what explanation you had to make for Brown having made a different satement from that which he had made to you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. So it is a fact, is it not, that you must have told Barker what Brown had told you when you met Barker in Lawrence in July?

A. No, I think Mr. Barker came down to Wyandotte and saw me once or twice between that time and I talked with him about it.

Q. We will drop Barker and take up Green. When did you first see Green? A. I don't recollect.

Q. Now, will you please tell me when it was your recollection serves you as the time of your first meeting with Green?

A. It was after I had seen Barker in Lawrence.

Q. Did you go to Lawrence? A. No.

Q. Did you see him in Wyandotte?

A. It occurs to me in Wyandotte at my office.

Q. Did he go there as representative of the defendant insurance companies? A. I think he did.

Q. He came to see you after your interview with Mr. Barker in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

1525 Q. Give the month; can you fix that interview with Mr. Barker at Wyandotte; in July or August?

A. I would not like to say.

Q. Was it between the Barker-Lawrence meeting and the Coates house meeting? A. Yes, I am quite sure it was.

Q. Did you tell Mr. Green any part or portion of the statement that you got your client, John Brown, to make to you?

A. I don't recollect; I think it is possible that I did.

Q. Avoid possibilities. What is your recollection? Do you remember telling him anything about what you say Brown had told you?

A. In the conversation I said something about it; gave him to understand it.

Q. You think you did tell him something of it?

A. I think he understood from me that Brown had said that it was not the body of Hillmon, but what I told him I don't recollect.

Q. It was at this interview that he became possessed as you remember it, of the information that Brown had told you that this was not Hillmon; that Green became possessed of that information?

A. Yes, I think he came to inquire where he was.

Q. That information that Green got came from you, is that a fact? A. I must have talked with him about it.

Q. Did you see Green from that time when you met him and talked with him in Wyandotte before the Coates meeting?

A. It seems to me that Green was two or three times in my office within a short time there.

Q. Between the Coates house meeting and the Barker-Lawrence meeting? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At those interviews you talked about this matter?

A. Something.

Q. Talked about Brown? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And Hillmon? A. About the cases, I presume.

Q. And the result of these things was that you were written by either Barker or Green by letter to meet them and Mr. Munn at the Coates house in Kansas City?

1526 A. Why, I presume so.

Q. And at that meeting you were asked to explain why it was that your client Brown had made up in a death loss, proofs of death, a different statement from what he had made to you? A. Yes, in that nature.

Q. I will ask you again if you when there in the presence of Munn and Barker told them the substance of this story that you had told to Green about what Brown had said to you?

A. I don't think I told them any of that in detail, the story that Brown gave me, but I had said to them that Brown had said that that was not Hillmon and he would swear to it whenever suit was brought.

Q. That is the meat of that statement of his?

A. I have no doubt that is a fact.

Q. And the substance of it you gave to them?

A. I presume so.

Q. Of course, you didn't attempt to clothe it in his phraseology but your own? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the result of the meeting between you and Munn and Barker at the Coates house; did they employ you to do anything? A. The result of it was—

Q. Answer yes or no. Did they employ you to do anything?

A. I think they wanted me to go and see John and find out about it and what he was going to do about it. I said I would go and see him; one or the other—

Q. Did they employ you to go and see Brown?

A. Well, I can't recollect anything about—

Q. You were not running around for the insurance companies for your health, were you?

A. I was not running around for anybody. I don't remember about any employment; it was understood—

Q. I didn't ask you what was understood. I asked you whether or not you were employed, and you say you don't remember. Is that a fact?

A. I don't know as there was any specific employment.

Q. Did they promise to pay you anything for what you might do in pursuance of their request?

1527 A. I don't recollect as to when they promised to pay me.

Q. I am asking at this Coates house meeting. What time in August did you fix that; the middle of August or the first or last? A. No, I would not atempt to fix it at all.

Q. You think it was in the month of August?

A. I think it was.—

Q. They asked you to see John H. Brown, did they not?

A. I fix it by documents.

Q. They asked you to see John H. Brown?

A. They wanted to know what I was going to do and what John was going to do and what the facts were.

Q. Did they ask you to see John H. Brown?

A. I think so.

Q. And did you say you were—

A. Yes, sir. I don't know whether they asked me or whether I volunteered to go and see him.

Q. Did they promise to pay you anything for any services you might perform for them in seeing Brown at that time?

A. I don't know.

Q. You don't know?

A. No, sir, they simply promised to pay me.

Q. They did? A. They did pay me.

Q. They paid you whether they paid Mrs. Hillmon or not?

A. They paid me, yes, sir.

Q. When did you next see Mr. Barker after this interview at the Coates house? A. I can't fix the next interview.

Q. Did you see him prior to the time you went to Lawrence with the written statement you have told about?

A. I don't recollect about that.

Q. What is your best recollection, if you have any at all upon the subject?

A. I don't now recollect of having seen him.

Q. Did you see Mr. Green at any time getween the Coates house meeting and the time when you went to Lawrence with this statement that you got from Brown?

A. Mr. Green was in my office as I recollect two or three times during those two or three months and it is possible that 1528 one of his calls might have been after the Coates house meeting and after I had gone to see John. That is quite possible.

Q. At each of the calls he made upon you during that time, did he come as representative of the insurance companies in connection with these cases?

A. We communicated back and forth.

Q. Did you see Mr. Munn at any time between the Coates house meeting and the time you went to Lawrence with this alleged statement of Brown's?

A. I don't recollect that now.

Q. Was the Coates house meeting the first time that you met Mr. Munn? A. Indeed I don't know.

Q. What is your recollection?

A. I am under the impression it was, but I don't like to say so. I don't recollect having seen him before that.

Q. When you went to see your client, Mr. John H. Brown at Lexington, he there made to you the statement that you have in substance repeated on the stand? A. He did.

Q. Didn't he also say to you and haven't you always claimed heretofore that in addition to the statement you have already made, that this was a fact: That Hillmon told Brown some time before he killed this man Berkley or Burgess—whatever his name was—what he was going to do and that Brown remonstrated with him but consented to go on with him; that finally he was killed after some time, after Hillmon had communicated to Brown this statement that he intended to kill this man Berkley?

A. I think Brown made some statement like that; something like that.

Q. Your client made that statement to you then and you went and repeated it in substance to Mr. Green; is that a fact? A. I went over there—

Q. You told him the meat of it?

A. Yes, sir; I didn't tell him the details of it.

Q. You told him the substance; the main points?

A. I presume I did.

Q. And also Mr. Munn?

1529 A. I presume that I told all of them, in our talk that Brown had said to me that this was not the body of Hillmon.

Q. That was the substance of your statement?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You told it to them? A. I have no doubt I did.

Q. At the time he made this statement to you, did you believe that your client was telling the truth? A. I did.

Q. Then you believed he had entered into a conspiracy to obtain money from these insurance companies under false pretenses and by false pretenses, you believed that?

A. I did.

Q. And you knew and he told you he had made a certain statement relative to this matter before the coroner's inquest at Medicine Lodge, didn't he? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You knew— A. He told me all about it.

Q. You knew also all about the coroner's inquest at Lawrence? A. I know he testified there, yes, sir.

Q. You knew what his statement was in substance there before those two coroner's inquests, didn't you?

A. I knew what he had sworn to.

Q. That it was the body of Hillmon?

A. At Medicine Lodge; that it was the body of Hillmon, and that he had also sworn to that in Lawrence which he said was a lie.

Q. Then you believed that when he made that statement he had committed perjury, once at Medicine Lodge and once at Lawrence—John Brown? A. I thought so.

Q. You knew from the statement that had been made, so far as you knew, there was no evidence against your client except what the client had told you. Did you know of any other evidence against him?

A. Why I don't know, I don't think I did. I don't recollect that there was.

Q. Knowing then and believing that your client was guilty of perjury twice and of the crime of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses and knew that in your breast was the only knowledge of his guilt, you went and told the insurance companies' lawyers, is that a fact?

A. I went from John Brown to—

1530 Q. Please answer that question yes or no, Mr. Buchan? A. I can't answer that yes or no.

Q. We submit he can? A. I can state the facts.

By the Court: He has practically answered that in the affirmative. He went to the companies' lawyers.

Q. When did you see him in Lexington? About what time? A. Time of day?

Q. Time of year, as near as you can recollect?

A. It was the time of that letter he gave me there.

Q. That is the "Where is John" letter?

A. I went down to Lexington whatever the date of that letter was.

Q. That he gave you to be given to Mrs. Hillmon?

A. Whatever the date of that letter is; there was only one trip to Lexington.

Q. This, you say, is the leter you have reference to?

A. I presume it is the one I had a while ago, is it not?

Q. I think it is, but I want you to be sure?

A. I think that is the letter. There don't seem to be any date to it either.

Q. That you say was given to you to give to either Mrs. Hillmon or to John Brown's father, is that a fact?
A. Through the old gentleman.
Q. Will you answer that question yes or no?
A. It was given to me to be conveyed to Mrs. Hillmon.
Q. Did you deliver it to Mrs. Hillmon?
A. I don't think I did.
Q. Did you give it to the insurance agents or lawyers?
A. I presume I did; I give up to the lawyers of one side or the other whatever I had.
Q. But you gave this letter—I understood you received—and to convey it in some way to Mrs. Hillmon, but gave it to the insurance companies' lawyers?
A. I don't know now whether I gave it to the insurance companies' lawyers or to Mrs. Hillmon's attorneys. I gave all the papers I had.
Q. What is your recollection, if you have any recollection, whether you gave that letter to Mr. Wheat or Mr. Riggs?
A. If that was the paper that the insurance lawyers
1531 wanted, I probably give it to them; if it was a paper Mrs. Hillmon's attorneys wanted, I probably gave it to them.
Q. What is your recollection? That is what I am asking for.
A. I have no recollection at all about it, Mr. Atwood.
Q. You recollect giving it to Mr. Green or Mr. Barker. It is a fact you gave it to Mr. Green?
A. I gave some papers to Mr. Hutchings, who was formerly in the case; whatever he wanted.
Q. I am talking about this one, don't you know that paper dropped into the hands of Mr. J. W. Green, one of the attorneys? A. It is quite possible it did.
Q. That is the manner in which you delivered it to Mrs. Hillmon?
A. I didn't deliver it to Mrs. Hillmon; didn't have any occasion to.
Q. These other letters; did you recognize them?
A. The two communications from Mrs. Hillmon?
Q. Yes. A. I identified those as Mrs. Hillmon's letters.
Q. Now then, these were received by you from Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes.
Q. And you gave them to the insurance companies?
A. I presume I did; quite sure I did.
Q. That was a part of your employment for which you were hired, to receive and deliver a lady's letters to these people?
A. That was a long time afterward, Mr. Atwood.

Q. Will you answer the question? Was that part of your employment that you were paid for; handing these letters over to them?

A. No, sir, I say it was a long time after that transaction was settled.

Q. The question was whether you were paid and did it voluntarily?

A. I did it voluntarily undoubtedly, after these suits had been brought and depositions taken.

Q. Now then, Mr. Buchan, when you saw him in Lexington. what was the month, if you remember?

A. We fixed it in July I think it was.

Q. The Lexington interview?

A. Yes, I think it was then.

1532 Q. Then after this Coates house meeting you went to see John Brown again? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, when was it you wrote to Reuben Brown. You say you wrote to him?

A. Why, I am not sure whether I wrote to Reuben Brown at the solicitation of Mr. Green or Mrs. Hillmon or both; possibly both; Mrs. Hillmon came to my office—

Q. I am not asking about Mrs. Hillmon; I am simply asking you when you wrote Reuben Brown?

A. I don't know when I wrote to him.

Q. Does your recollection serve you that you wrote to him after the Coates house meeting?

A. Well, I don't know about that, Mr. Atwood.

Q. You don't remember whether you did or not?

A. I don't rememeber now when it was I wrote to him.

Q. Did he come to your office after the Coates house meeting? A. John Brown?

Q. Reuben Brown? A. No, sir.

Q. What was the time when he came to your Coates house meeting? A. Who came there?

Q. Mr. Reuben Brown.

A. He never came to the Coates house.

Q. I say when after the Coates house meeting was it that he came to your office, if at all?

A. I don't think Reuben was at my office.

Q. Did he come to your office at all?

A. He came to my office the day before he and I went to Lexington.

Q. That was in July?

A. It was when we went to Lexington.

Q. Did you see Reuben Brown between that time and the time you went to his house in Parkville?

A. I saw him the next day or two after he came to my office at the time we went to Lexington. He came there to make an appointment and then I saw him at the time we went there. I don't remember of seeing him after that.

Q. You didn't see him after that until the Parkville meeting? A. I don't recollect that I did.

Here the court took a recess until 2 P. M.

1533 Afternoon session. W. J. Buchan, on the stand. Cross-examination continued by Mr. Atwood.

Q. Referring to the interview at the Coates house. Mr. Buchan, to refresh your recollection, I will ask you if you didn't have an interview at the Coates house with some of these gentle men on the third day of September, the day before you went over to Parkville to see your client Mr. Brown?

A. I think I did.

Q. At that interview the question as to what Mr. Brown had said in the proof of death was mentioned, was it not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was then stated there by you or them that you should or would go over to Parkville and see Mr. Brown, your client; is that a fact?

A. I think I said I would go over and see what he had to say about it.

Q. You volunteered that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the next day you did go over to Parkville?

A. If that was the third I should say that I did.

Q. On the fourth of September following you went there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you go, please; I mean what conveyance, by rail or wagon or how?

A. I went once by train; the first interview that I had with John I went on the train.

Q. Did you see him twice at Parkville? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the next time?

A. It was the second time that I got his statement.

Q. That would be the fourth of September? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the other time? A. It was before that.

Q. Can't state exactly? A. No, sir.

Q. This time that you went over there to get the statement Ward was with you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You went there with a team owned by the sheriff
1534 of Wyandotte county? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Ward drove for you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Ward was an officer of Wyandotte county?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Known by Mr. Brown to be such? A. I guess so.

Q. He knew all the Brown family? A. Yes, sir.

Q. As you did? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You had known the Brown family for many years?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was a friend of the fathers. Your relations were pleasant and intimate? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You had known Old Robbie Brown as you call him, for a long time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you knew the boys, Reuben, Tom and John?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was the situation when with the deputy sheriff, Mr. Ward, you drove to Parkville? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Following the interview at the Coates house on the third of September with Munn and Barker? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Mr. Green present at that last third of September interview at the Coates house? A. I don't recollect.

Q. But you remember that Barker was there and that Munn was there?

A. I remember at one of these interviews Barker or Munn and possibly both of them were present. I don't recollect of Green; he might have been.

Q. Do you remember of his being at any of the Coates house interviews? A. I can't now say that I do.

Q. Is it not a fact that you had at least three interviews at the Coates house with some one or some of these gentlemen?

A. I don't recollect but two.

Q. The one that you were talking of this morning was in August. I think that was your recollection this morning.

A. At Lawrence?

Q. No, the one at Lawrence was in July you said this morning.

A. I said it was immediately—early after I came from Lexington, I think it was July. I think at another time
1535 I stated I was in—I suppose that it is a mere slip of memory. It was immediately after the interview with Brown at Lexington.

Q. Your interviews with these gentlemen at the Coates house were two in number? A. Yes, sir, I think so.

Q. The last of which was on the third of September, am I right? I think that is the day before you went to Parkville?

A. Yes, the fourth the statement was signed.

Q. This was the second interview of the two interviews?

A. I think the second interview was just a day or two before; that was when they wanted to know what he was going to do and I said I would go and see.

Q. That was on the third of September? A. Yes sir.

Q. There was an interview earlier than that in point of time was there not?

A. I am not sure whether that first trip to Parkville was caused by an interview with these gentlemen at Kansas City or whether it was the result of an interview with Green at my office; I am mixed about that; one or the other.

Q. Both trips were the result or outcome of certain interviews you had with the insurance men? A. Yes sir.

Q. And you went over there with that purpose, taking pen, ink and paper with you? A. I think so.

Q. With a view of getting the matter in the form of a statement in writing if you could do so, and you took pen, paper and ink for that purpose? A. Yes sir.

Q. And after you got there you did take down his statement in writing? A. Yes sir.

Q. And that afterwards you say you tore up?

A. Yes sir, originally.

Q. What became of those pieces that were torn up?

A. I gave them to some of the attorneys here; I think Mr. Barker or somebody.

By Mr. Atwood: Mr. Barker, will you produce those?

By Mr. Barker: I haven't got them.

1536 Q. When did you give them to Mr. Barker?

A. I gave them to Mr. Barker I think at the time they took the deposition of John Brown after this suit was commenced, and I gave to Mr. Hutchings—

Q. I am not asking what you gave to Mr. Hutchings.

A. Mrs. Hillmon's attorneys—

Q. Please confine yourself to answering the question, Mr. Buchan. You say you gave them to Mr. Barker at the time Brown's deposition was taken? A. Yes sir.

Q. That was in 1881?

A. It was when his deposition was taken.

Q. You have seen the pieces of paper that you tore up on that occasion in this court room since that time?

A. I saw them on one or two trials. Yes sir.

Q. But you don't know what has become of them?

A. They have never been in my possession since.

Q. You made a copy of it, did you not?

A. I had a copy.

Q. Was it not made in your own handwriting and certified to by you and J. W. Green?

A. Whether it was in my handwriting, I don't know.

Q. You say there was such a copy made?

A. There was a copy.

Q. That was left in the hands of these gentlemen?

A. No, I gave that to Mr. Hutchings, Mrs. Hillmon's attorney.

Q. Did you give a copy of it to Mr. Green?

A. I think that is the copy Mr. Green had if I recollect right.

Q. Whose handwriting is this in, if you know? (showing paper to witness) Is that your certification?

A. No it is not. This must be a copy of the copy; that is not my handwriting.

Q. Did you ever make a copy that you left in the hands of the insurance people? (No answer.)

By Mr. Atwood: Have you got that copy, Mr. Barker?

By Mr. Barker: I don't know whether we have or not. I have not charge of the papers.

1537 By Mr. Atwood: Mr. Green, have you a copy of that paper?

By Mr. Barker: That is in Mr. Riggs' handwriting.

By Mr. Atwood: We want that paper.

By Mr. Barker: If you call for it in a proper manner and give us a little time we will produce it. I want to state I haven't that paper.

Q. That statement was made in writing at Parkville and was made in your handwriting, that is a fact?

A. Yes sir.

Q. The phraseology, I think you said to Mr. Barker this morning, was largely your own? A. I think so.

Q. You took the statement from Mr. Brown and formulated it in your own language and wrote it down?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And that statement was in substance what you have already stated he at the time told you?

A. As near as I can recollect.

Q. Now, the date of that paper on which it was made was the fourth of September, 1879? A. I believe so.

Q. That is correct, is it not? A. I believe so.

Q. When did you next go to Lawrence after that?

A. I think by some of these papers I was there on the sixth; it might have been the fifth and sixth both.

Q. You were there two days? A. Possibly so, yes sir.

Q. In other words, as soon as you obtained this written statement from your client, prepared in your handwriting—I think you said it was sworn to? A. Yes sir.

Q. At which place did he swear to it, at Parkville?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You then took this paper; he entrusted it to your keeping? A. Yes sir.

Q. And then on the fifth, the following day, you went to Lawrence? A. The fifth or sixth, yes sir.

Q. And on that trip in Lawrence you saw Mr. Barker, did you not? A. Yes sir.

1538 Q. And Mr. Green? A. Yes sir.

Q. And Mr. Munn? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, this paper, will you kindly look at it, dated the sixth of September and signed by H. B. Munn. Is that one of the papers that was executed on this trip; I mean that was written up and signed on this trip that you made to Lawrence following the getting of this statement from Brown at Parkville? A. Yes sir.

Q. That is in the handwriting of Mr. Munn, is it not?

A. I presume it is.

Q. It was placed in your possession at that time on that trip at Lawrence [Q.] Yes sir.

By Mr. Atwood: I don't think this has been read, if it has, I desire to call the attention of the witness to it and I will read it again.

"The undersigned attorney representing the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, The New York Life Insurance Company of New York and the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company hereby stipulate and agree, so far as said companies are concerned, to desist from any further pursuit and prosecution of John W. Hillmon, John H. Brown, or any other parties in connection with the Hillmon case, provided the respective policies are surrendered and an order for their delivery executed and all claims under the same released to said companies by Sallie E. Hillmon, wife of said John W. Hillmon, beneficiary under said policies, and in so doing represent their officers and agents everywhere. H. B. MUNN."

Q. That is the paper that was signed and delivered to you at that time? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, prior to the securing of this paper, state whether or not you had shown to Mr. Munn or Mr. Barker or Mr. Green or all of them this statement that you obtained from Brown?

A. My recollection is now that I did afterwards.

1539 Q. Did you show it to them on that trip at Lawrence? A. I think so.

Q. Did you show it to all?

A. Well, I don't remember about that. My recollection is that I—

Q. I will change the question if it embarrasses you.

A. It don't embarrass me at all. I was trying to think which two; I think I showed it to Mr. Green and Mr. Munn; I don't think Mr. Barker was there.

Q. Well now, what was that this morning about Mr. Barker going over to the hotel to you when you got in a durgeon and sort of apologized to you. Wasn't it this very matter?

A. Mr. Munn after he had read this statement gave me this paper and after he gave me this I let him read this statement and showed it to him and then he flew up and said that this man ought to be prosecuted and all this. I felt as though he was going back on his agreement and his arrangement and I took the paper out of his hands and says, "You can't have anything more to do with me," and I went, I think, to the hotel.

Q. It is a fact that Mr. Barker came afterwards to you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And sort of apologized for the way Munn had talked?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And induced you to go back again?

A. Yes, possibly, something like that.

Q. Before this sixth day of September and before they handed you this paper you told them the substance of the statement that Brown had made to you?

A. No, I don't think I told them anything more than what Brown told me.

Q. Then you had prior to this sixth of September told them some portion of what Brown had said to you; that is a fact, is it not? A. Something about it.

Q. Now, when you went there on the fifth or sixth of September, did you tell them that you had that statement formulated in writing or that you had a statement from Brown in writing? A. Why I presume I did.

Q. Wasn't that stated by you, Mr. Buchan, before any paper was handed to you by Mr. Munn? A. I think not.

1540 Q. Wasn't it done before Mr. Munn wrote this paper out? A. No I think not.

[—] Wasn't it done in pursuance of a suggestion by you or him that you should get these policies?

A. No, the suggestion that I get these policies—

Q. I am not asking that. Will you answer the question?

A. I will say no.

[—] It was not done in pursuance of a suggestion that you get the policies? A. No, I will say—

Q. Now then, this paper is the result of that interview whether it was on two days or one day or whether on the fifth altogether, or the fifth and sixth together; the result of that was that you placed in Mr. Green's hands a copy of the statement, did you not? A. I presume I did.

Q. And you received from Mr. Munn this paper that you have just heard read? A. I received that paper first.

Q. Well, during that interview? A. Yes sir.

Q. You got the paper; they gave you that? A. Yes sir.

Q. At the time that you received this paper from Munn was Mr. Barker present? A. Well, I don't know.

Q. Was Mr. Green present?

A. I don't think I saw Mr. Munn except in company with one or the other of those gentlemen.

Q. And he said that that man ought to be prosecuted for murder, did he not? A. He made some remark of that kind

Q. And you were offended and left? A. Yes sir.

Q. And Mr. Barker then came to your hotel and apologized for the idea of prosecuting Brown for murder; that is a fact is it not? A. I don't know what he came for.

Q. You went back with him in any event? A. Yes sir.

Q. You believed at that time that this statement was true, did you not? A. Brown's statement?

Q. Yes. A. Yes, I believe it now.

Q. You believed he was guilty of murder, didn't you.

A. No.

1541 Q. You didn't believe he had participated in a conspiracy that resulted in the death of this man?

A. He didn't say he killed this man.

Q. He told you, however, that on the way out from Wichita they overtook a man by the name of Burgess who got into the wagon and that Hillmon suggested the idea of killing him?

A. Yes sir.

Q. He protested against it? A. Yes sir.

Q. He continued in his company? A. Yes sir.

Q. He knew the killing was going to take place, didn't he?

A. I don't know what he knew.

Q. Didn't he state that to you; didn't he state to you that he knew Hillmon was talking of killing this man?

A. Yes, I think he said they had talked about it.

Q. He said to you that he thought Hillmon was going to kill a man; didn't he tell you of it?

A. I don't recollect that he told me that.

Q. Didn't he say also that he kept out of the sight of the man fearing, thinking, believing and knowing that Hillmon was going to kill him; didn't he say that? A. I think so.

Q. Do you mean to say that as a lawyer that would not make him a conspirator with John W. Hillmon if that statement was true? A. I am not giving my opinion.

Q. I am asking what is your belief. Do you believe him guilty of murder or not? A. No, I don't.

Q. You believed him guilty of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses? A. Yes sir.

Q. And you believed him guilty of perjury? A. I did.

Q. Now, when this paper was made, this agreement, I presume you knew the nature of this business? A. Yes.

Q. Did you know of the statute against compounding a felony? A. Yes sir.

1542 Q. You knew you were guilty of compounding a felony? A. Oh, no.

Q. Didn't you know at that time of the statute on this subject that if any man prevents or aids or abets in the prevention or prosecution of a crime that has been committed, is guilty of compounding a felony and that is a felony?

A. I was probably looking at it as you have done many times.

Q. It is not a question of what I have done. I am not on the stand; you are and you will please answer my question; did you know that that was a fact?

A. I don't recollect that I discussed that proposition.

Q. I will ask you if you did not know that that was the compounding of a felony; do you know or did you know?

A. I don't know whether I had read the statute or not.

Q. You are a lawyer? A. Yes.

Q. A member of the bar? A. Yes.

Q. You took the same oath as every other lawyer is supposed to when he enters the bar? A. I presume so.

Q. Among those oaths is one to uphold the laws and constitution of this state, is there not? (No answer.)

Q. Now, as a matter of fact, was Mr. Green there at this time? A. Where?

Q. The time this talk was going on which resulted in the obtaining of this paper? A. Part of the time he was, yes.

Q. Mr. Barker was there was he not?

A. I think one or the other was there at every interview I had.

Q. They knew as much as you knew what was being done, didn't they? A. Yes.

Q. Both Green and Barker; that is your understanding?

A. I think it is.

Q. And they gave their consent to it?

A. They acquiesced in it.

Q. You were not acting in antagonism with each other?

A. No sir.

Q. You and Munn didn't? A. No sir.

Q. And the result was the receiving of this paper by 1543 them from you. Whose handwriting is that paper?

A. That is my handwriting.

Q. Will you look at the back and see whether or not that is a certified copy of this statement that Brown gave to you?

A. The certificate seems to be in the handwriting of Mr. Munn, and the certificate at the bottom here my own and I think Mr. Green's.

Q. Will you just look it over enough so you can say whether in your opinion it is the copy that you delivered to them of this statement?

A. I think it is. I gave this to them or Mr. Hutchings. I don't know which.

Q. It is in their possession now?

A. These papers have been all around.

Q. But it is in their possession now?

A. I gave them a copy.

Q. This is your writing? A. This is my writing.
Q. The balance of it is your writing? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is that the signature of J. W. Green, do you know?
A. I think it is?
Q. Is that dated on the day that copy was made?
A. I presume it is.
Q. That would be your recollection?
A. I believe it is. I don't know anything about it.
Q. Now, then, I will ask you whether or not this paper which you have already identified this morning which reads: W. J. Buchan, Esq., Dear Sir: On behalf of the Mutual Life, New York Life and Conecticut Mutual Life, I hereby authorize and employ you to procure the surrender of the policies of insurance on the life of John W. Hillmon.

"H. B. MUNN."

Now, when was that delivered to you—on the day that it was made and where?

A. It was delivered to me I presume on that date, on the day it was made; I don't know about it. It was delivered to me shortly after, probably the next day after I made the trip to Parkville, in which John Brown authorized me—

Q. I am not asking anything about what John Brown did. I asked you if you didn't receive this on the fifth or sixth day of September? A. I presume I did.

1544 Q. This was received prior to the time that this was executed; this was the sixth of September, is that right?

A. I presume so.

Q. The order of these papers would be: The execution of this statement or writing in your handwriting by Brown on the fourth of September? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then the employment to get the policies from Munn to you on the fifth of September and this immunity from prosecution from these people if the policies were surrendered, on the sixth?

A. On the sixth; I presume so. The authority from Brown—

Q. I haven't asked you anything about authority from Brown. The fact remains as I have stated it, does it not, with reference to the time these papers were delivered?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, after this paper was delivered to you, what did you do with it? A. This copy?

Q. This original statement, what did you first do with it, where did you first take it? A. I took it home.

Q. From there did you take it to Lawrence?

A. From there I went to Lawrence.

Q. And there the copy was made that I have already shown you?

A. Well, I presume so. As to when those copies were made I have no recollection.

Q. You have no reason to doubt it was made on the date indicated at the bottom?

A. No, it might have been; that certificate might have been on the day before; I think not, though; probably all done on those two days.

Q. Well, now then, when you went there on the sixth or fifth and these transactions were had, then was [was] it that you had your interview with Mrs. Hillmon with a view of obtaining the policies?

A. That was on the fifteenth. You mean, up here?

Q. Yes, at Leavenworth?

A. I think it was on the fifteenth.

Q. At that time then you had already given to Mrs.
1545 Hillmon or Barker or both, this copy dated the thirteeth? A. I presume so.

Q. That is your recollection of it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, then, after you went from Leavenworth to Wyandotte on the morning after this Leavenworth interview, Mr. John Brown and Mrs. Hillmon came to your office; that is a fact; is it not?

A. After this interview here?

Q. After the Leavenworth interview on the fifteenth of September when you claim to have gotten these satisfactions, etc.

A. It might have been the next day or the day after.

Q. Would not your best recollection be it was the next day; it don't matter whether it was or not?

A. It was very shortly after.

Q. And this paper was torn, this same paper of which this is a copy? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You told Brown at that time that there was a copy outstanding of the original that was torn up, didn't you?

A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. You say you don't remember whether you told him there was a copy in existence when you tore this one up?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you put them in the stove? the original in the stove; the torn pieces in the stove? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Some of the torn pieces you have since seen at some of these trials? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then you fished them out of the stove?

A. Along afterwards.

Q. How long afterwards?

A. I don't know when. When I found that the suits were brought; when I found that John Brown was making counter statements.

Q. Was that at the time that John's deposition was being taken.

A. No, I don't think so. I think I heard that.

Q. Did you hear of his making counter statements about the time the deposition was taken? A. Yes, I think—

1546 No matter what you think? Did you hear he had made counter statements when his deposition was taken here?

A. I don't recollect. It seems to me I did.

Q. How long was it before the deposition was taken?

A. I don't know.

Q. Would it be about the time—

[A] The deposition was taken—

Q. Answer my question. Do you know how long it was before the John Brown deposition was taken that you took it out of the stove? A. I don't know.

Q. Was it a long time before?

A. I have no recollection.

Q. Would it be a month, as your recollection serves you?

A. Oh, I would not attempt to fix the time. I can only—

Q. Is it a fact that you heard of his making counter statements before the deposition was taken?

A. I heard that he had—

Q. Prior to the time the deposition was taken?

A. He had gone back on his statement.

Q. When was the deposition taken, if you remember?

A. I coudn't say.

Q. You don't know, but you say until you heard he had made counter statements you left it in the stove? A. Yes.

Q. And you say that was long after? A. Yes.

Q. What is your best recollection as to how long after?

A. I don't know.

Q. You said along after. What did you mean by "along after," Mr. Buchan? A. I mean it was afterwards.

Q. Of course it was afterwards, but what did you mean when you said "along" afterwards? Did you mean a week, a month or two months? Does your recollection serve you it was more than a month?

A. I have no recollection about it.

Q. But it was along after that you fished these pieces out of the stove? [—] It was along after.

Q. How many pieces was it torn into? A. I don't know.

Q. A great many?

A. Yes, sir, I just threw it into the stove among other

1547 papers, I used the stove as a waste basket.

Q. There was a good many pieces, was not there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was a piece of paper originally nearly as big as this (illustrating).? A. It must have been.

Q. It was in your handwriting?
A. It was in my handwriting.
Q. Consumed considerable paper in the construction of it?
A. I think so.
Q. Consequently, to tear it up so as to be destroyed it required it to be torn into a good many pieces? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You picked all these pieces out, did you?
A. I think I took them all.
Q. You say you used your stove as a waste basket?
A. I was then, yes, sir.
Q. You did then use it as a waste basket? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And when you had papers that you desired to throw away you threw them in there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you piled them in there and along afterward you took those same pieces out and you think you got the whole of them? A. I think I did.
Q. And then you took these pieces along after the time they were put in there from this place you had used as a waste basket and put them in an envelope, did you?
A. I believe so.
Q. And gave them to the insurance companies' lawyer?
A. No, I gave them—
Q. Did you give them to the insurance companies' lawyer?
A. Not when I took them out, no, sir.
Q. How long after that time?
A. When taking the deposition.
Q. That you say was along afterwards?
A. I didn't say when it was.
Q. You won't say when it was, but you will say that you gave it to them when taking Brown's deposition?
A. I won't say that; it might have been a good while before, but I gave it to them—
Q. You do say you gave it to the insurance men?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, how much did they pay you? A. Not anything.
Q. Not a cent? A. No, sir.
1548 Q. That was included in your original employment?
A. No, sir, that was all settled.
Q. Then you just did it gratuitously?
A. I gave it to Mr. Hutchings.
Q. This statement that showed your client had been guilty of attempting to obtain money by false pretenses, this paper that showed he was guilty of perjury, this paper you believed did show that he was guilty of perjury, didn't you?
A. I don't think there was any doubt about that.
Q. And knowing that, you protected your client by turning it over to these people, that is a fact, is it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you not say to him, Mr. Buchan, that you had a guaranty of the company against further prosecution of him; didn't you say that to Brown?

A. I think I showed him the paper.

Q. And didn't you tell him that that was a guaranty; that the companies would not prosecute him, could not prosecute him? A. I presume that I did, I don't know.

[A.] You knew that was not true when you told him so?

A. No, I didn't.

Q. You knew that wasn't of no more effect in law than a blank piece of paper?

A. That didn't prevent others from prosecuting him.

Q. Did you tell him it would prevent them from giving any evidence against him? A. Prevent them?

Q. Yes.

A. I probably said it was an agreement for them not to do it.

Q. Did you tell him whether it was binding upon them?

A. I don't think I did; I don't know whether I did or not. I took that paper for just what it was worth.

Q. You were his lawyer? A. I was.

Q. And you explained to him the legal import of the paper, did you not?

A. I explained to him that it was a little better than word of mouth; that with that written statement they would 1549 not voluntarily furnish evidence against him. I did what you would have done.

Q. I am asking you if you knew when you told your client that this was a guaranty against the insurance companies furnishing evidence, that it was not true?

A. No, sir, I don't think I did.

Q. You don't think you told him?

A. I told him they would not furnish evidence to prosecute him.

Q. It is a fact that you did tell him they would not prosecute after they had agreed not to do so in writing, is that not a fact? (No answer.)

Q. Didn't you then know it to be a fact, that the authorities, Mr. Green, or any person else who was an officer of the law, caused a prosecution that the companies would be obliged under a subpoena of the law to disclose all the evidence they had against this man?

A. I told John Brown that there would be nobody interested in Douglas county in following up this prosecution.

Q. Did you give him that information? The question is this, Mr. Buchan, whether or not you told your client, John Brown—

A. I will have to answer my questions.

Q. Answer yes or no. That question is so disconnected I will withdraw the question.

Q. Did you know at the time you showed him this statement and told him the import of it, advising him of its import in law as his attorney, that if anybody choose to institute a prosecution against him that the insurance companies or anybody else would be obliged to give, be obliged to disclose all they knew against him; didn't you know that?

A. I probably knew that, yes, sir.

Q. At the time you told him that and knew that—at the time you destroyed this original paper by tearing it up and then picking it out of the stove you knew that there was 1550 in existence a certified copy of that original [existed], didn't you? A. I presume so.

Q. And you knew if any prosecution was instituted against him that in the absence of the original statement that certified copy could be instituted against your client to prosecute him, didn't you? A. Now—

Q. Please answer that question yes or no?

A. I will answer that question both yes and no.

Q. You can do it if you wish; I simply want your answer.

A. If you will allow me—

Q. No, I want your answer yes or no.

A. I will answer that both yes and no.

Q. Very well if that is your answer. You told your client, did you, of his real situation under the law in connection with this paper and this copy, did you not? A. I think I did.

Q. You told him at the time you destroyed the original in his presence that there was in existence a certified copy, did you not? A. I don't remember whether I did or not.

Q. That it was certified to by you, did you; did you tell him that? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. And it was a fact and you knew it to be a fact that there was a certified copy in existence at the time you destroyed the original? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You destroyed the original in his presence?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you do it with the idea of deceiving him and making him believe that it was destroyed? A. I did not.

Q. After it was destroyed it was put in the stove and Mr. Brown went away? A. Mr. Brown went away.

Q. Mr. Brown was not in your presence when you fished those pieces out of the stove? A. No, sir.

1551 Q. Having fished them out you finally gave them to the insurance people? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is a fact, is it not?

A. Yes, sir, if the court will allow me to finish that answer.

By the Court: That will probably come on re-examination.

Q. I will ask you if you knew there was a warrant out against Brown? A. No. I don't think I did.

Q. When you went to Orrick—

A. That Hillmon business had all passed over before the early stages of this matter.

Q. Well, with whom did you go when you went to Orrick to look after John?

A. I went with John Brown's father and Mr. Walker.

Q. Was Mr. Walker an officer of the law?

A. I don't know whether he was or not.

Q. You understood him to be that; you understood the fact to be that be was? A. No, I don't think I did.

Q. Haven't you stated at every trial of this case that you didn't know that Walker was in the insurance employ but that he was an officer of the law?

A. I know that he had been an officer or marshal of Lawrence.

Q. Did you believe he was a representative of the insurance companies?

A. Why I don't recollect that he was, no I don't; I understand now from—

Q. You have answered the question that you didn't understand he was an insurance representative. Did you understand him to be there acting as an officer?

A. Well, I don't know that I could tell what I did understand.

Q. Was it as an officer you understood he was there?

A. That is not my recollection.

Q. He was not there as a representative of the insurance companies nor as an officer of the law, that is a fact?

A. I don't think I did know.

Q. It is a fact he had been sheriff or marshal?

A. I knew he had been, yes.

1552 Q. And with him old man, William Brown, or whatever his name was— A. Robert.

Q. You went over to Orrick to find John?

A. Yes, sir; he went on his own account.

Q. You didn't find him? A. No, sir.

Q. When you went to Parkville, September 14th, you took another officer, Ward? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you say to your client John Brown that he was liable to be arrested? A. I did not.

Q. Have you ever stated any reason why you should have taken an officer with you to see your client when you went to Parkville? A. Have I ever stated?

Q. Yes, have you ever made any explanation of it?

A. I think I have explained that two or three times in the trial of this case, how it came about. Do you want me to do it now?

Q. No. I will ask you whether this is a fact: At the previous trial of this case in 1895, I think it was, whether this question was propounded to you and this answer made: "Q. Did Walker to your knowledge have a warrant for the arrest of Brown? A. I understood he had; I don't recollect now, I am not positive that he did."

Q. Do you still state that it is your understanding that he had a warrant for Brown?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and not proper impeaching question.

The Court overruled the objection to which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

A. I never went to Orrick but once.

Q. Is it a fact that refreshing your recollection from 1553 what I have just read to you that you do not remember your understanding was that Walker had a warrant for Brown? A. I don't recollect that he had now.

Q. What is your recollection?

A. I don't know, I won't undertake to say the language that I testified years ago.

Q. It is probably a fact; it would be more apt to be true?

A. I haven't read it since, I don't remember.

Q. I will ask you if in answer to a question whether or not in substance you said that Brown was liable to be arrested at the time you were at Parkville, September 4th, 1879; that that question was not asked you at the last trial and you didn't say, "I might have been talking the matter over and I might have said he was liable to be arrested." A. I don't think I intended to make such a statement as that.

Q. Did you ever hear there was a warrant out?

A. Yes, I think I did.

Q. Didn't Brown tell you there was a warrant out against him?

A. I think he talked about they were going to arrest him or had a warrant or was going to get one.

Q. Didn't you at the time you were there at Parkville on the fourth of September say to him that he was liable to be arrested? A. I don't remember.

Q. Didn't you assure him if he made out this statement you could use it with the insurance companies as to prevent a prosecution?

A. No, sir, I don't think I made any such statement as that.

Q. Didn't get it; wasn't it gotten for the purpose of preventing prosecution? A. It was gotten for the purpose—

Q. Please answer that question yes or no.

A. In a measure it was.

Q. It was gotten by you as his attorney to prevent prosecution? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then when you got this other statement, this other paper, which promised that they would not prosecute him then you had discharged your duty had you not; is that a fact?

A. They wanted and I gave them a copy of that as 1554 a sort of guaranty as I wanted myself. He had made apparently two statements. I said to him, "I want you to put it in writing."

Q. And he did put it in writing, in your writing?

A. I put it in writing for him. He authorized me to take it to them.

Q. He signed it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then you took it to the insurance people?

A. Yes, sir, with his knowledge and consent.

Q. And with that paper you got him to sign which was written in your handwriting you had accomplished what you believed was the compounding of a felony, had you not?

A. Oh, I don't know about that.

Q. But the fact remains that the result of all this intercourse between you and the companies was that Munn signed this paper and that you told Brown it was in some degree a protection to him?

A. I will tell you, Mr. Atwood. I will waive the statute of limitations if you want to prosecute me.

Q. No, this cross-examination is bad enough. You went to the interview at the Coates house on the third of September in pursuance of a telegram sent you by Mr. Green, did you not? A. Telegram, letter or something.

Q. State whether or not you knew from any source that the statement made by Brown in what is called the Proof of Death was in conformity with his statement made at the coroner's inquest in antagonism to the statement you had written out?

A. I knew it was in antagonism with the statement I had written out; or that he had told me; it was not in writing yet.

Q. Did I understand you that this paper, so far as you know that was torn up—the scraps of paper of the original statement—is in the possession of the lawyers on the other side? A. The last I knew of it.

(A paper is here handed to Mr. Atwood by Mr. Green.)

By Mr. Atwood: Without reading this over, I have no doubt this is the original paper that you fished out of the stove signed by John Brown at Parkville.

1555 By Mr. Atwood: We now offer this in evidence.

Said paper was admitted in evidence without objection and by consent of the defendants was read to the jury from a copy certified to be correct over signatures of W. J. Buchan and J. W. Green.

Q. This is the paper that was prepared in your handwriting at Parkville? A. That is a copy of it.

Q. This is also in your handwriting? A. I believe so.

Said paper is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1556 State of Missouri,

County of Platte—ss.

John H. Brown of lawful age being first duly sworn according to law deposes and says: My name is John Brown. My age thirty years. I am acquainted with John W. Hillmon, also Mrs. Sallie E. Hillmon, and Levi Baldwin of Douglas County, Kansas, have known John W. Hillmon for about five years have been with him a good deal for the past two years, was out with him last March at Wichita, and on the trip from there to and around Medicine Lodge in Barbour County, Kansas, where it is claimed that I killed him on the 17th of March 1897. Along about the 10th of December 1878 John W. Hillmon, Levi Baldwin and myself talked about and entered into a conspiracy to defraud the New York Life Ins. Co. and the Mutual Life of New York out of some money to be obtained by means of affecting a policy or Policies on the life of said John W. Hillmon. Baldwin was to furnish the money to pay the premium and to keep up the policies in case they had to be renewed. Our original arrangement was to get Hillmon's life insured for Fifteen thousand but it was afterward changed to Twenty-five thousand Dollars. Hillmon and myself were to go off Southwest from Wichita Kansas ostensibly to locate a stock ranch but in fact to in some way find a subject to pass off as the body of John W. Hillmon for the purpose of obtaining the insurance money aforesaid we had no definite plan of getting the subject but to in some manner get one, the final termination of the matter was the last idea thought of. our first trip out from Wichita the last days of December while the snow was on the ground we expected to find a subject that would appear to be Hillmon frozen to death and that could not be identified only by the clothes and papers found on it, and so I could pass off as Hillmon. We went from Wichita to Medicine Lodge then direct to Sun City, from there to Kinsley from there to Great Bend on the Santa Fe road then

1557 to Larnard and on to Wichita Via Hutchinson. Hillmon and myself were entirely alone on this trip. Isliff of Medicine Lodge saw Hillmon on this trip we put up at his stable. I then stayed at Wichita until the 4th of March Hillmon in the mean time went up to Lawrence to see his wife and get some more money he returned about the first of March and on the 5th we left on our second trip. We went due west to Cow Skin Creek then west to Harper City then to Medicine Lodge on by Sun City and beyond some miles then we turned North east down Medicine River to a camp on Elm Creek about 18 miles North of Medicine Lodge where Hillmon is claimed to have been killed. We got there about an hour before sun down, and stayed in camp until the next evening. We overtook a stranger on this trip out from Wichita about 2 or 2 1.2 miles from town, who Hillmon invited to get in and ride, and who he (Hillmon) proposed to hire to herd and work for him on the ranch as proposed to be located. This man was with us during all this trip. Hillmon proposed to me that this man would do for a subject to pass for him. I told him and contended with him that the man would not do to pass off for him, giving him various reasons why the man would not answer his description, and complained and objected because his proposition was to take the man's life, and I protested and said that was goin beyond what we had agreed and something I had never before thought of an was beyond my grite entirely. But Hillmon seemed to get more deeply detemined and more and more desperate in the matter. Pains were taken not to have more than two of us seen together in the wagon. Sometimes one an dthen the other would be kept back out of sight. On this trip up to Lawrence Hillmon was vaccinated, his arm was quite bad. Hillmon kept at the man until he let him vaccinate him which he did taking his pocket knife and using virus from his own arm for the purpose. He also traded clothes with him. Hillmon first giving him a change of underclothing, then traded suits, the one he was killed in was a suit Hillmon traded with Baldwin for. This man appeared to be a stranger in the 1558 country, a sort of an easy go long fellow, not suspicious or very attentive to anything. His arm became very sore and he got quite stupid and dull he said his name was either Berkley or Burgess or something sounding like that. We always called him Joe. He said he had been around Ft. Scott a while and also had worked about Wellington or Arkansas City. I don't know where he was from nor where his home or friends were. I did not see him at Wichita that I know of. I had but very little to say to the man, and less to do with him. He was taken in charge by Hillmon and yielded willingly to his will. I dreaded what I thought was to be done and kept out of having any more to do with him than possible. I frequently remonstrated with Hillmon and tried to deter him from carrying out his intentions of killing the man. The next evening after we got to the camp last named the man Joe was sitting by the fire I was at the hind end of the wagon either putting feed in the box for the horses or taking a sack of corn out when I heard a gun go off. I looked around and saw the man was shot and Hillmon was pulling him around to keep him out of the fire. Hillmon changed a day book from his own coat to Joe's and said to me everything was all right and in shape just as he wanted it and that I need not be afraid but it would be all right. He told me to get a pony and go down to a ranch about three-quarters of a mile and get some one to come up. He took Joe's valise and started North. This was about sun down. We had no arrangements about communicating with each other, he first proposed to do so but I told him I did not want to know where he was, that in case I should I might find out some other way. I have never heard a word from him since. At Lawrence Mrs. Hillmon gave me to understand that she knew where Hillmon was, and that he was all right. The man over whom an inquest was held at camp afterwards at Medicine Lodge and at Lawrence Kansas was the man Joe Burgess or Berkley killed by Hillmon as related above and John W. Hillmon I believe to be still alive at least he left our camp and 1559 went north as stated above after Killing Joe. Hillmon said he would assume the name of William Marshall. Baldwin's wife and Mrs. Hillmon know all about this. In my testimony at Lawrence I stated the route taken as above described but the man who I described as being in camp with us and who I said went off with some wagons was Joe the man killed. I afterwards sometime in August 1879 made four affidavits under great importunities from Baldwin who came after me three different times the last time pursuading me to go with him to Kansas City where Hon. Saml Riggs insisted on me signing them. I don't think Mr. Riggs is aware of the facts in this case nor the other counsel in the case.

I make the above statements in the Hillmon case as the full and true facts in the case regretting the part I have taken in the affair.

(Signed) JOHN H. BROWN.

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 4th day of Sept. A. D. 1879. My term expires on the 3rd day of April 1883.

[Seal] FRANCIS M. McDONALD,
Notary Public.

This is to certify that we have this day compared the above with the original and that the same is a true and correct copy of said original.

W. J. BUCHAN,
J. W. GREEN.

Lawrence Sept. 13" 1879.

1560 Q. These signatures I think you said were yours and Mr. Green's? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, when you met Mrs. Hillmon in Leavenworth did you tell her you were attorney for the insurance company?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Your best recollection would be that she did not know that you were an attorney for the insurance company at that time?

A. I don't think that matter was spoken of at all. I have no recollection that it was.

Q. This letter, this copy, was written at Lawrence, wasn't it, Mr. Buchan? A. I don't know about that.

Q. What is your recollection?

A. I haven't any recollection. I can't recollect when that was made; it might have been done then.

Q. What would your best recollection be; that it was?

A. It would be a presumption; I presume it was.

Q. The original was there at the time; you had the original there at the time that you were leaving this copy; is that a fact?

A. I presume so. I recollect the circumstance.

Q. That is your best recollection of it? A. I presume so.

Q. Your best recollection is that when you met her at Leavenworth you didn't state that you were an insurance agent or attorney? A. I don't think so, no sir.

Q. Did you tell her that you were Brown's attorney?

A. I don't think so.

Q. Did Brown in your presence tell her that you were his attorney? A. I don't remember about that matter.

Q. Did you know whether she knew you were Brown's attorney? A. I don't know anything about it.

Q. It was a fact you were Brown's attorney at that time?

A. I considered myself his attorney.

Q. And it is also a fact that you were attorney for 1561 the insurance companies at that time?

A. I presume so.

Q. Under this authority that you had to get these policies?

A. Yes sir, under the employment that I had to get the policies.

Q. Then, so far as you know, Mrs. Hillmon had no knowledge that you were acting in the capacity that you actually were acting in, namely, as attorney for the insurance people at the time you had this interview with her at Leavenworth? Is that a fact?

A. I don't know whether she did or not. It was not discussed at all. She came from Tonganoxie over here for the purpose of getting these policies.

Q. Did Brown know that you were acting for the insurance companies at that time? A. Yes sir.

Q. Brown knew that you were acting as insurance agent but Mrs. Hillmon didn't; is that a fact?

A. Why I presume.

Q. The whole interview was carried on without disclosing your real identity to her, the real capacity in which you were acting? A. Nothing mentioned about that at all.

Q. When you got these releases you have told about you took them to the insurance people? A. I did.

Q. And they paid you for it? A. Yes sir.

Q. How much did they pay you?

A. Five hundred dollars, I believe.

Q. Is that the only money you have been paid for all these things you have done for them? A. Yes sir.

Q. Cheap.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by George J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. That statement that you were examined in re-
1562 gard to; calling your attention to this statement signed by John Brown which has been read to the jury. I will ask you how you became possessed of the facts which are contained in that paper? A. How I became possessed of them?

Q. Yes. A. From John H. Brown.

Q. Did you have any means of information except what Brown told you in regard to the matters contained therein?

A. None in the world.

Q. Had you ever heard of this man whose name is mentioned in that paper before John Brown told you in regard to the matter? A. Had I ever heard of him?

Q. Yes. A. No sir.

Q. Now, in that statement there is a route described which they had taken; a trip which he claims they had taken. Did you have any knowledge of that trip, that he and Hillmon had taken such a trip as that until you were so informed by Brown?

A. Brown told me practically this same story verbatim at Lexington.

Q. What I want to get at is whether you had any other means of information in regard to the matters contained therein? A. I never had.

Q. You could not have gotten any information from the newspapers because Brown had testified had he not at Medicine Lodge and at Lawrence that the body brought to Lawrence was the body of Hillmon? A. I understood so, yes sir.

Q. Now, in regard to the delivery; you said that you delivered this paper to either Green or myself, I believe?

A. One or the other I think.

Q. Did you state when that was; if not, I will ask you to state when it was?

A. I think it was when you were taking the deposition of John Brown.

Q. Will you look at this paper and state in whose handwriting that is if you know?

A. Well, I don't know that I know; it looks something like Green's. It would be a mere guess.

1563 Q. You don't know whose handwriting this paper is? A. No, I would think it was Green's.

By Mr. Atwood: Is that the Riggs paper?

By Mr. Barker: Yes.

Q. Now, at the time you delivered that paper to Mr. Green or myself what did you do with reference to furnishing Mr. Riggs then with a copy of the statement?

A. I furnished Mr. Hutchings, Mr. Riggs' associate.

Q. Mr. Hutchings?

A. John Hutchings, who was Mrs. Hillmon's attorney with Mr. Riggs.

Q. Mr. Riggs and John Hutchings were at that time attorneys for Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes, I gave them, I think, this copy.

Q. At that time you gave them a copy?

A. Yes sir, I think I gave them this copy. That is a copy of a copy. I think that was taken from this.

Q. They have called your attention to this paper designated "Where is John?" letter. I will ask you if you remember when was the first time that you showed this Exihibt B. I think it is, to any one connected with the insurance companies or said anything in regard to it?

A. When they were taking the deposition of John Brown at Kansas City, Kansas, or Wyandotte, I gave to both sides whatever papers I had, whatever letters I had that they wanted. That is the time I think I gave this to some of you.

Q. Prior to that time had you said anything to any one in regard to having that letter in your possession? A. I don't think I had to anybody—any of these papers.

Q. Did you show it to any one that you have any knowledge of?

A. No, I understood that Brown was making a deposition and that he was telling an entirely different story, saying that this—

Q. You gave it at the time Brown was giving his deposition? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where was his deposition being taken with reference to your office?

1564 A. Right below, down stairs; same building.

Q. I will ask you to state whether or not it was during his cross-examination that you let Mr. Green have this paper?

A. Well, it was during the taking of that deposition, when he seemed to be telling two different stories. I don't know whether it was cross-examination or examination in chief.

Q. They have called your attention to what is called the Munn paper, the indemnity paper? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now then, I will ask you to state what you said to John Brown in regard to that. You were only allowed to answer the definite questions. You may state fully what you did state to him on that subject?

A. I think I stated in my examination in chief that I told Brown that the insurance companies had no right and could not prevent the authorities from prosecuting him and they probably would have to furnish any testimony they might have. But in Barber county they thought he was innocent and that if this thing was settled up nobody in Douglas county would have any interest in prosecuting him and the chances were there never would be any prosecution. I discussed that pretty fully with him and took that paper as an additional—the best security that I could get that they would not prosecue him voluntarily.

Q. Was it explained in that way to Mr. Brown?

A. Yes, sir, I talked with him about it down at Parkville. It was his own suggestion. It was John Brown's suggestion for getting up the policies.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the last part of the witness' answer as not responsive to the question.

The Court sustained the motion to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. Now, in regard to you and Colonel Walker and 1565 old gentleman Brown going down to Orrick to see John Brown. You said that you didn't know whether Colonel Walker was an officer then or not?

A. I don't know whether I ever have been examined on that question. My recollection now is—I know that Old Bobbie Brown came to me and wanted me to go with him.

The plaintiff objects to the answer as not responsive to the question.

The Court sustained the objection to which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. Is that a fact? A. I said I don't recollect.

Q. You say now you don't know whether he was or not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. They have asked for your knowledge as a lawyer. You would know that an officer from Kansas had no jurisdiction in Missouri, would not have any power to make an arrest in Missouri?

A. I presume so. I went at the request of Bobert Brown to see—objection.

Q. Now, in regard to Mr. Ward. If he was an officer at all of what county was he an officer?

A. He was one of the deputy sheriffs of Wyandotte county. The sheriffs office was in the same building with my offices and he had a very nice team, and therefore had—objection.

Q. I say if he was an officer he was an officer of Wyandotte county?

A. He was one of the deputy sheriffs of Wyandotte county.

Q. Now you may explain to the court and jury how you happened to go there with Mr. Ward or how Mr. Ward happened to go over with you.

The plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent irrelevant and a repetition.

The Court overruled the objection to which ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. As I said, his office was in the same building with my own; and he had a very good team that this deputy always drove. And therefore didn't use it much and it was liable to run away, and I said to him that I was going over to 1566 Parkville and I would like to have you take your runaway team and drive me over there if you have nothing to do and he says "If Ryan says so, all right, if he don't want me for anything." I asked Ryan if Ward could go over with me and he said it is all right to drive me over. He knew Barnes; knew them as long or longer than I had.

Q. Now, had Mr. Ward ever claimed to have or was it represented to John Brown that Mr. Ward had any papers for him? A. Why no; that was never thought of.

By the Court: Were you then county attorney of Wyandotte county?

A. No, sir; I never have been, never was. It is a mere accident that Mr. Ward went along. No, sir, I never was county attorney.

Q. Now, I want to call your attention to another matter, which I meant to inquire about on direct examination, and that was in regard to your advising Mrs. Hillmon to change her name. I want to draw your attention to that matter. State whether or not you have had any conversation with her on that subject.

A. About changing her name?

Q. About changing her name after the transaction there at Leavenworth on the 15th day of September, 1879.

A. Nothing of the kind.

Q. I want to ask you if you have punished or threatened to punish your little boy—he was a little boy then, the captain now—for calling her Mrs. Hillmon at your house.

A. He was not over three years old. No sir, I never did.

Q. Did anything of that sort take place?

A. Nothing of that kind ever took place.

Q. For the purpose of refreshing your memory now I will call your attention to Exhibit H. The date of that is September 5th, 1879, is it not? A. September 5th, 1879.

Q. I will ask you to state if prior to that time you
1567 you had any employment whatever from either of these companies? A. None whatever.

Q. Then I will ask you to state whether or not the compensation which you received was for services which you performed after that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you, Mr. Buchan, whether you had any other employment or connection with the insurance companies except in regard to this particular matter?

A. Never had any other employment.

Q. You were not in their general employ? A. No, sir.

Q. Referring to Exhibit number 31. State what that letter has reference to?

A. Do you want me to make an explanation of this?

Q. Yes, I want you to state all there is to it.

A. When Mrs. Hillmon—after she had signed the releases of these policies here she, by her statement, had quarreled with Baldwin over at Tonganoxie; that he had gone back on his agreement to come over here and get the policies and she was very angry with him. She was at my house a short time waiting for her trunk to be sent, she did not want to go to Lawrence—waiting for her trunk to be sent to Ottawa, and she had some notes, a lot of notes that Baldwin had given her or her husband, and she left them with me; said that she some time in the future would tell me what she would do with them and what she wanted done with them or something. It seems she wrote me from Tonganoxie after she had got back with with Baldwin and asked me to send the notes to her and I sent them.

Q. Is that the letter you sent enclosing the notes?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the date? A. Dated March fourth, 1880.

Q. I want to ask you, Mr. Buchan, whether there had been any talk between you and Mr. John H. Brown in regard to getting up these policies prior to the fourth day of September, 1879 at the time this letter or authorization was given?

A. No; as I recollect it, coming down from Reuben's house to Parkville John said if he could see Mrs. Hillmon he would get those policies and he knew that would end it.

1568 Q. When did that conversation occur?
A. At Parkville at the date of this September sixth statement.
Q. I want to know if there had been any conversation between you and him on that subject before that time?
A. Oh, no; it was his suggestion.
Q. Who suggested getting up the policies?
A. John Brown did.
Q. Then what followed after the suggestion; where did you go?
A. We talked about it and I wrote this paper then authorizing—
Q. Is that the paper? Look at that exhibit?
A. Yes, I wrote this at the office there in pursuance of that conversation and suggestion I wrote this, "I hereby authorize you, etc." and he signed it authorizing me to go and do—
Q. Did he give any reason or make any statement to you as to when he desired these policies taken up; if so, you may state what he said, if anything on that subject?
A. The burden of his talk was that John Hillmon got away and there was nobody to stand a brunt of this thing but him and he wanted to get out of it, he wanted to close it up some way and his excuse to me for signing the proofs of death was that he—
Q. The question I am asking you is what he said with reference to getting up these policies; why he desired to get them up?
A. He wanted to end this whole thing, this transaction.
Q. Now, you may state what he said in regard to that matter, I mean by that matter, about getting up these policies at Parkville at the time or before this paper was signed?
A. Why, he stated he was going to see Mrs. Hillmon; he would get up these policies if he could see her; he could get them up and would see her; he was going to do it or something of that purport.
Q. I will ask you, Mr. Buchan, if you have any knowledge of Mr. John H. Brown ever having been arrested in regard to this matter? A. No, sir.
Q. To your knowledge has he ever been arrested?
A. No I think not.
1569 Q. He never was arrested?
A. I don't understand he was.

In answer to recross interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. When were these notes mentioned in this letter, Mr. Buchan, placed in your possession?

A. Sometime when she was at my house.

Q. And they remained in your possession until they were enclosed in this letter? A. I presume so.

Q. There seems to be a little misunderstanding among my associates that I want to make clear. This copy that I read here of that statement, that was made as your recollection serves you as I understood you to say at the time you were at Lawrence; is that right? A. I think so.

Q. And the Riggs copy; the one in Riggs' handwriting must have been made long after that, wasn't it?

A. As I recollect it, I think the one I gave Mr. Hutchings, the copy which was the copy, at the time of the taking of the deposition of John Brown.

Q. That was nearly two years after that?

A. Yes, the copy of that was.

Q. The copy of that copy was made by Riggs?

A. That is what I think.

Q. That is, between the two copies, the original copy and the copy of the copy, something like two years intervened?

A. I think it was about that time, whenever the depositions was taken.

Q. What about this copy that you say you gave to John Hutchings? A. That is what I am speaking of.

Q. This is the Riggs copy?

A. As I understand it, as I recollect it, I had this copy, this copy in my handwriting, when I returned the policies I got it from Green, and I had it in my possession until 1570 the taking of John Brown's deposition.

Q. Either whole or in pieces?

A. No, I had the original and I had this copy that I got from Lawrence and I had it in my possession also, and at the taking of John Brown's deposition there I gave it to Mr. John Hutchings, now dead, who was then in the case. This is the copy that I made and my understanding is that from that copy Mr. Riggs then made this copy. That is the way I understand it.

Q. What copy was it John Hutchings got?

A. The original copy in my handwriting.

Q. The one that has been introduced in evidence?

A. Yes, I think the other is copied from it.

Q. Do you know how it got into the hands of the insurance companies if you gave it to John Hutchings?

A. No, I don't know, but it might have been bandied back and forth when taking that deposition. They were several weeks at it.

By the Court: That is very clear. He says the copy that Green has was produced at the time of the taking of the deposition and at that time the witness gave it to John Hutchings, one of the counsel for the plaintiff, and at that time Mr. Riggs made this copy.

Q. So Mr. Riggs and Mr. Hutchings had two copies between them?

A. That is the way I understand it, Mr. Atwood.

Q. As a matter of fact what copy was in the hands of the insurance people at the time that deposition was taken?

A. They had none until that deposition was taken. After I returned the surrendered policies I took up this copy.

Q. You say at the time of the taking of the deposition that there was no copy in the hands of the insurance people?

A. I don't understand that there was.

Q. Do you know where it was when they got their long quotations from it that they put in the questions they propounded to John H. Brown at the taking of that deposition?

A. Both sides had that copy. As I say, I gave it to Mr. John Hutchings but I think it was used by both sides.

1571 Q. You say it was the property of John Hutchings; you gave it to him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The one that has been read here to-day. You don't know how it passed into the possession, became the property of these gentlemen?

A. No, I don't know how it came into their possession.

Q. While it is a fact it was the property of one of the lawyers of Mrs. Hillmon, another lawyer, Mr. Riggs, goes to work and makes another copy; is that a fact?

A. That is as I understand it.

Witness excused.

By Mr. Hutchings: I desire for John Hutchings to disclaim that he ever had that paper.

By Mr. Barker: You haven't been in the case all the time.

By Mr. Hutchings: I have been attorney long enough to know that that paper never was given to him.

1572 Frank Woodruff, a witness, produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. Frank L. Woodruff. I reside in Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Q. How long have you been residing there?

A. About eighteen months.

Q. Where were you residing prior to your going to Guthrie?

A. Why just prior to going to Guthrie I was at Joplin, Missouri.

Q. Did you ever reside in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you living in the years 1878 and 1879?

A. In Lawrence.
Q. What was your business at that time?
A. I was engaged in selling clothing.
A. What is your business at the present time?
A. In the same business.
Q. For whom, if any one, were you working in 1878?
A. I was working for William Bergman.
Q. Where was his store located?
A. In the same block as the Eldridge House. I have forgotten the numbers. About the middle of the block, on the west side of the street.
Q. What line of goods was Bergman carrying?
A. Clothing, furnishing goods, hats, etc.
Q. Did you, at any time, know a man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. When was it that you knew him?
A. Knew him in the fall, well rather winter of 1879, fall and winter of 1879.
1573 Q. Do you remember how early in the fall you met him?
A. No, I do not. I met him. Well, he was in the store quite a number of times that winter. Came in to see [him] whenever he was in town, and had promised to buy a bill of goods of me.

The plaintiff objects to the answer as not responsive.

Q. How often do you think you met him at that time?
A. Well, it is hard to say. I met him possibly, he may have been in the place twelve or fifteen, or possibly twenty times.
Q. Would he remain there long?
A. Sometimes he would remain for an hour or two, if it was a bad day, and sit around and seem to make himself at home at the store.
Q. Now, did you meet him at other places than there at the store? A. No, I don't think I ever did.
Q. Only when he came into the store then, that you met him? A. I saw him most always at the store.
Q. Did you have any business transactions with him?
A. Yes, sir. I sold him a suit of clothes.
Q. About when did you sell that suit of clothes?
A. It was the early part of March, 1879, just previous to his taking a trip.
Q. Now, do you remember the occurrence of a dead body being brought back, claimed to be the body of said Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. About how long was that after that time, if you remember?

A. I sold him this bill of goods some three or four weeks previous to that; somewhere in that neighborhood. It was not long.

Q. Did you become well acquainted with him during these visits at the store?

A. Yes, sir; I knew him pretty well. Sometimes he was in in the evening for an hour or two, and I had numerous conversations with him, in which he told me that he—

Q. Never mind what he told you, Frank. Did you
1574 go to see that body? I did.

Q. Whom did you expect to see when you went there?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled. Plaintiff excepts.

A. I expected to see the body of Hillmon.

Q. How many times did you go to see that dead body?

A. Just one time.

Q. Do you remember how long it was after the body had been brought there before you went down?

A. Yes, quite early in the morning. I know the body had been there then. It was quite early in the morning. I was taken down there along between eight and nine o'clock in the morning, as near as I can recollect. I understand it was as soon as the body was prepared.

Q. Was it the same day that the body was brought back there, if you know?

A. Yes, sir. It was the morning the body arrived at Lawrence.

Q. In what state of preservation was that body at that time?

A. It was in a fair state of preservation. It seemed to be a little discolored about the neck and where the wound was, a little about the nose, and the eyes were a little sunken. That was about all.

Q. You may state whether or not that was the dead body of John W. Hillmon, whom you had known there?

A. It was not.

Q. At whose instance, do you remember, did you go down there?

A. I should say the only man I am certain of, I was told by Mr. Charlie Smith for one; when I was there there were several others present at the time; I think I walked down the street with Ollie Walker and Mr. Levi Baldwin. I think was in Smith's rooms where the corpse was, a little building back of their store.

Q. Were there other people there that you saw?

1575 A. Yes. There were two or three in the room at the time.

Q. Did you have any difficulty in getting into the room where the corpse was?

A. No. I was taken right to the body, and the cloth was taken off the face for me to identify.

Q. Were there people coming and going there all the time?

A. There were quite a number of people outside. There were some two or three persons inside. They were not letting everybody come in, but there was quite a crowd between the store building and this building in which the body was shown.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You were clerk there in a clothing store? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you first see Hillmon? When did you first see the man?

A. Along that fall sometime. I do not just remember when.

Q. What fall?

A. The fall of, well rather to sell him this suit of clothes. That would be the fall, I think, possibly, in November or December, possibly December, 1878.

Q. That is the first time you saw him, in 1878?

A. That I knew who he was.

Q. About what time in the month of December?

A. I could not fix the first time I met him.

Q. You think it was in December?

A. Yes, sir; I think it was in the early part of December.

Q. You say he was there in your store frequently in December?

A. No. I don't know whether he was in there frequently during December. He was in there frequently between that and March.

Q. I am just asking you about December. Was he in there frequently during December?

1576 A. No. I could not answer that. I don't know whether he was there frequently in December.

Q. Was he there frequently in January? A. I think so.

Q. How frequently in January?

A. I could not state just how many times.

Q. You testified in your direct examination, he was in there frequently. Was he in there frequently?

A. I have testified in my direct examination he was in there ten or [or] fifteen, or possibly twenty times.

Q. In the month of January?

A. No. During the season between the fall and the time I sold him the suit of clothes.

Q. The first time you saw him was in December?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You do not remember how often he was in there in December? A. No, sir.
Q. Your recollection is, he was not there frequently in December? A. No. I don't think he was.
Q. Don't think he was there frequently in December?
A. I don't know about that though.
Q. If he was there frequently, then it must have been in the month of January?
A. I think I became acquainted better with him later.
Q. Well what do you mean by later?
A. Some time, it must have been in January or February.
Q. He was there how many times, would you say?
A. A dozen or fifteen, may be twenty times. I could not tell you.
Q. During the month of January and February?
A. December, January and February.
Q. He was in there that many times?
A. I think that many different times.
1577 Q. When was it you sold him the suit of clothes?
A. It was in the early part, early in the month of March I think.
Q. Early in the month of March?
A. I think it was. Yes, sir.
Q. About what time in the month of March?
A. The only means I have of fixing it exactly is, just previous to the time he went away. He bought that suit of clothes just before he went away.
Q. When did he go away?
A. I don't know just exactly when; I think the early part of March.
Q. Do you know he left in February? A. No, I don't.
Q. Don't you know he was not in Lawrence ten days during January and February, 1879?
A. No, sir. I do not know that.

By Mr. Green:
Q. How long was it prior to the bringing back of this dead body that you sold the clothes to him?
A. I don't think it was over possibly three weeks, possibly four weeks; not to exceed that, I don't think.

Witness excused.

1578 Lemuel Evans, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:
Q. State your name and residence?

A. My name is Lemuel Evans. My residence is Tonganoxie.

Q. In what county?

A. Leavenworth County, Kansas.

Q. How long have you lived in Leavenworth County?

A. Since about 1867 or 1868, I ain't positive which.

Q. In what business are you engaged?

A. I am in the real estate business at present.

Q. In what business were you formerly engaged?

A. Farming and stock raising.

Q. Where?

A. Well, let me see, in Tonganoxie township, and I have been in business in different parts of the state, generally Leavenworth County.

Q. Did you live on a farm? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you live before you removed to Leavenworth County? A. Lived in Douglass County.

Q. How far from Lawrence?

A. Part of the time I lived about six miles, and part of the time about two miles and a half.

Q. Did you know the father of Levi Baldwin?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did he live one time?

A. He lived up on the California road, Douglas County.

Q. How far did you live from him, when you were living in Douglas County?

1579 A. I lived about six miles from him when he lived on the California road.

Q. Did Levi Baldwin ever live in Douglas County?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he live there at the same time that you were living there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you acquainted with him when he was living there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know about the time he removed from Douglas County to Leavenworth County?

A. Why I do not know as I can fix the year exactly.

Q. Well he did remove to Leavenworth County?

A. About 1876 I should judge.

Q. What year did you remove to Leavenworth County?

A. It was either 1867 or 1868.

Q. When Levi Baldwin removed to Leavenworth County, how near did he live to you? A. About two miles.

Q. Were you upon a farm then? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did you continue to live there in that neighborhood, and he?

A. I lived there until he sold out and went to Mexico.

Q. I will ask you if— A. On the same farm.

Q. You [are] acquainted with one John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you become acquainted with him?
A. I think the first time that I recollect of meeting him to know him was at my house.
Q. When was that? A. About 1868.
1580 Q. That was at your house in Douglas County?
A. That was at my house in Leavenworth County.
Q. Well, did you become acquainted with him then?
A. Yes sir, we had some talk. That is the time I met him.
Q. Did you see him after that? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where did you see him?
A. I have seen him on the road, and I have seen him at Levi Baldwin's.
Q. How many times did you see him at Levi Baldwin's?
A. Oh, I could not tell you the number of times.
Q. Frequently or only seldom?
A. Probably, in all, as much as half a dozen or a dozen different times from one year to another.
Q. Now at other places besides Levi Baldwin's, where did you see him?
A. I think I seen him in Tonganoxie, and I have seen him on the road with Levi, and rode with him and Levi Baldwin together.
Q. You travelled with him, did you? A. I have.
Q. From what point to what point?
A. Well, going or coming from Lawrence, him and Baldwin would be going to Tonganoxie.
Q. In going from your place did you pass Baldwin's farm?
A. No. He generally passed mine.
Q. Your farm was nearer to Lawrence than Baldwin's?
A. Nearer Tonganoxie.
Q. But what about Lawrence?
A. Well, to go to Lawrence I would not go past Baldwin's unless I had business with Baldwin.
Q. But you say you did ride with him?
A. Yes, rode with both of them.
1581 Q. On what other occasions did you see him?
A. I saw him in Lawrence. I have met him on the road between Levi Baldwin's and Lawrence.
Q. Do you remember about the last time you saw Mr. John W. Hillmon?
A. The last time that I ever seen him that I know of I met him, I was going from my place to Lawrence, met him coming from Lawrence.
Q. Can you tell about when that was?
A. No, but I think it was directly after he came back out south, from the southwest.

Q. Did you hear of the fact or the circumstance of his being married? A. Yes sir.

Q. What would you say about seeing him after you heard that he was married?

A. I think I met him after he was married.

Q. Now over what period of time did your acquaintance with John W. Hillmon extend, about how long?

A. Well, I didn't see Mr. Hillmon every year.

Q. I say over what period of time?

A. From about 1868 to 1878.

Q. About ten years? A. Yes sir.

Q. During that time did you become acquainted with him?

A. Well, ordinarily I did. He was not there all the time.

Q. Were you associated in business with Mr. Levi Baldwin?

A. Yes sir.

Q. During any time, was Mr. Hillmon working for Mr. Baldwin? A. Not at that time.

Q. I mean during any time that you was acquainted with him?

A. Oh, yes, I seen him often with Mr. Baldwin, but, now, whether he worked there as a laborer or not I could not say, but he would be with him around after stock before Mr.
1582 Baldwin and me went into business together.

Q. Do you remember the fact of a dead body being brought to Lawrence in 1879, and being at Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see that body? A. I did.

Q. Do you know when you saw it, with reference to the time that it was brought there?

A. I think it was brought there in the morning, as I understood it, and Mr. Ollie Walker came after me.

Q. I am not asking in regard to that. Do you know what time it was with reference to the body being brought there, that you saw it?

A. I think it was the morning of the second day after it came.

Q. Where was it?

A. It was in Smith's undertaking establishment.

Q. Do you remember about what time of the day you saw the body?

A. I should suppose it was about nine o'clock. We drove from my place over there, which was about ten miles.

Q. I am only asking you in regard to the time you saw it there. You say you saw it about nine o'clock?

A. I should take it to be.

Q. You saw it at Bailey & Smith's undertaking establishment? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember the condition of the body, whether it was in a good state of preservation or not? A. I called it so.

Q. What was the condition of the body, so far as being dressed and lying in a coffin?

A. It was lying with the head to the west, and was dressed with a full suit of clothes on.

Q. It was not nude? A. No sir.

1583 Q. Now you may state whether that was the body of John W. Hillmon or not? A. It was not.

Cross Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You say you now live in Tonganoxie? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say you lived near the Baldwins?

A. Yes sir; both in Douglas County and Leavenworth County.

Q. You say you knew Hillmon between 1868 and 1878?

A. I think I did.

Q. During that time, will you tell the jury, what proportion of the time he was here?

A. I could not tell what years he was here, but he was here off and on. The first year he was here, after I seen him in the summer or fall here, I think he was here most of the time until cold weather, and probably during a part of the winter too.

Q. That is, 1868 and 1869?

A. I think it was 1868, from 1868 to 1869. It was the next year after I moved from Douglas County.

Q. After 1869, was John W. Hillmon here all together six months? A. I should think he was.

Q. How much would you say he was here from 1869 up to the time when he came back in 1878?

A. Well now, I didn't keep track of just the time I met him, the number of different years.

Q. Don't you know that almost continuously from that time he was out in the west hunting buffalo or engaged in some other business in the west?

A. I knew he was gone a great deal of the time.

1584 Q. Gone most of the time, wasn't he?

A. A greater part of his time.

Q. You have been in the employ of the defendants, haven't you? A. I have, some.

Q. In this case? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are one of their detectives?

A. I don't think I have ever been a detective.

Q. Were you not employed by the defendants in this case as a detective?

A. No, sir, I would not call it that.

Q. You were in their service, hunting up witnesses for them, were you not? A. They asked me to go and see—

Q. Just answer my question. A. I will all right.

Q. Were you employed by them in the business of hunting up and getting their witnesses?

A. I don't think I was. I didn't understand it that way.

Q. You were employed by them?

A. I have done some work for them.

Q. You have been in their employ at every trial of this case, have you not? A. No, sir.

Q. You have been present at every trial of this case, haven't you? A. No, sir.

Q. How many trials of this case have you been present at?

A. I think this is the third one, as near as I can recollect.

Q. On each one of these occasions you were employed by the defendants? A. I was not, sir.

Q. You were in the service of the defendants were you not?

A. No, sir.

1585 Q. You were not here as a witness?

A. I was subpoenaed as a witness.

Q. They never put you on the stand? A. They never did.

Q. You have been here three times, and they have never put you on the stand until this term?

A. That is correct, I think.

Q. When you went down to see John W. Hillmon you went at the request of Ollie Walker? A. I did.

Q. Ollie Walker was the son of Col. Sam Walker, wasn't he? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He was in the employ of the companies??

A. I suppose he was afterwards.

Q. You understood at the time that Ollie Walker requested you to go down there to see the body, that he was in the employ of the companies, did you not? A. I did not.

Q. You understood that his father was? A. I did not.

Q. When did you first know that?

A. I did not know it until after the coroner's inquest.

Q. But each time that you have been here in attendance upon the court during the trial of this case, you came at the request of the defendants? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And at one of the terms you were in their employ?

A. I was subpoenaed to come.

Q. Were you in their employ at one of the terms?

A. I don't think I was.

1586 Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Didn't you state a little while ago that you were in their employ? A. I said I had done some work for them.

Q. Who employed you to do the work?

A. Why, I think Mr. Barker and Mr. Green asked me to see and to tell them, give them the names of some different parties that were wanted, to see whether they knew Hillmon or not.

Q. They knew that you had looked at that body at the request of Ollie Walker, didn't they?

A. I don't know whether they did or not.

Q. You were subpoenaed as a witness on three trials and claimed your fees? A. Yes, sir.

Q. They never put you on the stand? A. Never did.

Q. How long have you been acquainted with them; that is, Mr. Green and Mr. Barker?

A. I have seen them before the coroner's inquest but I have never had very much of an acquaintance with either of them.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. In regard to this employment, I want you to state to the jury what there was to it. Weren't you simply requested by us to give us the names of parties who were acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

Plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection sustained. The defendants, and each of them duly except.

Q. Go on and state the nature of the employment, what there was to it?

A. The first employment was by one of the companies' agents, Mr. Wiseman I believe his name was, who wanted me. He came to me and he said—

1587 Q. You are not asked in regard to that. I want to know the nature of your employment?

A. He wanted me to give him the names of parties that I knew that was acquainted with Mr. Hillmon, and I did. I seen some parties and told him that I had sent some parties to see the remains upon request of Mr. Wiseman.

Q. That was at the corner's inquest? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now the entire employment? I want you to state the nature and character, and by whom, at any time since that, if there has been any employment by any one connected with th companies, attorneys or any one else; state what it was? What was the nature of it?

A. I was sent word one time to appear the first [time] of court. I was over here at the courthouse, and there was a question raised about the identification of a picture of John Hillmon, and Mr. Barker or Mr. Green, one, wanted me to go and bring some witnesses from Tonganoxie or near there to identify the small picture that was denied by the other side.

Q. When was that? A. I do not recollect what year.

By Mr. Hutchings: I move to strike out the answer of the witness because there has never been any picture presented here that has been denied by the plaintiff. No ruling.

Q. Well, was that the nature and extent of your employment?

A. I think that was the most of it, that I can recollect of now.

Q. That was during which trial of the case?

A. That was during the trial before Judge Brewer at the court house; I think the first trial.

Q. I will ask you if, since that time, you have had any connection with this case on behalf of the defendants in any way? If so, state what?

1588 A. I have not, any more than being in attendance on a subpoena.

Q. You were subpoenaed, and why you were not put upon the witness stand I suppose you do not know?

A. No sir.

Re-Cross Examination

By Mr. Hutchings.

Q. You mean to tell us you were employed by Wiseman?

A. Mr. Wiseman.

Q. To work in relation to the coroner's inquest?

A. To tell him anybody that I knew that knew Mr. Hillmon.

Q. He was going to put you on the stand?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And at another trial of the case you were employed by Green and Barker to hunt up witnesses for them?

A. In that respect.

Q. That was the first trial of the case, wasn't it?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And the subsequent trials of the case you had been present as a witness, subpoenaed by them? A. No sir.

Q. I wish you would state which one of these trials you have attended?

A. I think only one, I have attended, except the first one. That was at Topeka once. I might have been there twice.

Q. Were you not there in both 1895 and 1896, when this case was tried before?

A. Twice, and when it was tried before Judge Williams.

Q. Did you not stay there in the court house during the entire time of both of these trials? A. No sir.

Q. You say you were there. Do you remember the judge who tried the case at that time?

1589 A. I don't remember.

Q. Don't remember his name?

A. No sir. I was there.

Q. You were there during the entire trial were you not?

A. No sir.

Q. How long were you there?

A. I think I was there part of the two days and one night. I was excused without being put on the stand.

By Mr. Barker:

Q. On this cross-examination; did I understand you to state why you did not want to go on the witness stand at the coroner's inques?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason that the witness has not said why.

By the Court: He did not state.

Witness excused.

1590 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Dr. V. G. Miller given upon the trial of 1885.

It is admitted by the parties that Dr. Miller is dead.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Dr. V. G. Miller called for defendant, and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. My name is V. G. Miller, Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. State where you lived in 1879? A. In Lawrence.

Q. What is your profession? A. That of a physician.

Q. How long have you practiced your profession?

A. Ever since 1852.

Q. Were you engaged in the practice of your profession in 1879 in Lawrence? A. I was.

Q. How many years have you practiced in Lawrence?

A. Since 1872.

Q. Were you acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

A. I was.

Q. When did you become acquainted with him—state as near as you can remember.

A. It was in 1878, probably in December.

Q. State if you ever measured John W. Hillmon?

A. I didn't measure him when he first presented himself. I took his word for it, as I often do.

Q. When was that?

A. It must have been a few days before the 17th of December.

Q. In connection with an application for life insurance?

A. Yes sir.

Q. On that occasion you didn't measure him but took his word.

1591 A. Yes sir.

Q. After that did you measure him correctly—accurately?

A. No, I can' say that I measured him accurately, yet I think the measurement was pretty accurate. I had him stand up beside the door and I measured him.

Q. When did you measure him and under what circumstances?

A. I measured him on the 17th day of December, 1878. Hillmon came into my office and said that he had made a mistake as to his height, that he was five feet nine inches in place of five feet eleven. That was the way he put it.

Q. Then what did you do?

A. He wanted to know if it would make any difference. I told him I didn't think it would, but he made a statement at that time and I took it down. That was the reason I remember the exact time. Then after that he stood up by the window and I measured him. His height was five feet nine inches.

Q. Did you make any record of that?

A. No, I made a record of the fact that he had stated it.

Q. How did the measurement which you made correspond with his statement as to hight?

A. It corresponded with his last statement.

Q. You may state if you were living in the city of Lawrence in April, 1879, at the time a dead body was brought there?

A. I was.

Q. State if you examined that body? A. I did.

Q. State the first time you examined it, who was with you, and what examination or investigation you made of the body at that time.

A. I know that Dr. Stuart was with me, and at that time we investigated the body and the character of the wound and the hight of the man, etc.

Q. What time in the day was that?

A. I think in the fore part of the day.

1592 Q. Do you remember of anybody being with you except Dr. Stuart, on that occasion?

A. There must have been three or four in the dead house.

Q. Was the body stripped on that occasion?

A. No, the body was not stripped except that we took it back and Dr. Stuart cut the sleeve and we examined the arm as to vaccination.

Q. Afterwards did you make further examination of the body?

A. Yes, sir, I was present when it was made. I didn't make very much of the examination.

Q. When did you make further examination?

A. That must have been three or four days afterwards; I don't know when it was. It was when the post-mortem examination was held. Then I made a still further examination after the body was taken up.

Q. I want to know if you examined it in reference to the coroner's inquest? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was present on that occasion—what doctors?

A. Dr. Fuller, Dr. Stuart, Dr. Miller, I think, and myself.

Q. Do you remember on what day that examination occurred? A. I do not.

Q. Now, state how complete that examination was?

A. I think most of the internal organs were examined.

Q. After that did you make a further examination?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the [semitary] A. I did.

Q. And then you examined that body how many times?

A. I was there in the presence of Dr. Stuart in the first place, and then in the presence of those doctors I have named, three or four of them, and then at the [semitary;] there were two or three doctors there, but I had borrowed a magnifying glass, such a one as watch makers have— that was at the [semitary].

1593 I want to call your attention now to the examination which you made of the arms of this person. When was the first examination that you made of the arms?

A. It was the morning that the man was brought in, or the next morning ,—the day the first examination was made. Dr. Stuart and I was present, and I think Mr. Bailey, and perhaps three or four others,—there were several others in the room.

Q. Now, will you state what you found on the first examination upon the arm of the dead body when it was brought in there?

A. We found two scars or scabs; they looked like scabs where the man might have been vaccinated.

Q. Did you examine sufficiently so you are positive in regard to the number?

A. Yes, I am, because sections were taken out, and those sections were carried over to Dr. Stuart's office and Dr. Fuller and I think some other physician and myself were there.

Q. Did you examine these scabs that were taken from the arm, at the office of Dr. Stuart afterwards? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Explain briefly to the jury the process of vaccination; that is, state the regular stages, what those stages are?

A. In the first place the matter is inserted and then there is a slight irritation, a little itching and irritation.

Q. How many days is it from the time the virus is inserted until the lymph is formed?

A. Well, I think four or five days.

Q. From that time how long is it until the scab is 1594 [it until the scab is] complete and falls off, usually?

A. I should think from that time it would be from eighteen to twenty days.

Q. I am speaking now from the time the vesicle is formed?

A. Eighteen to twenty days until the scab falls off.

Q. Then how long would that be from the time the virus is inserted until the scab would fall off?

A. Usually about twenty-five days.

Q. Did you examine this scab so that you were able to tell about how long this person had been vaccinated?

A. I did. I examined it especially with that view.

Q. So you are able to tell? A. I think I am.

Q. How long should you say this man had been vaccinated from the time the vesicles had formed?

A. I should think that it had probably been ten days.

Q. What would you say in regard to its being more or less than that?

A. It may have been less, and it certainly could not have been more.

Q. So that this body that you saw brought threre in your judgment could not have been vaccinated more than fifteen days.

A. Not more than fourteen or fifteen days.

Q. Were you present when this body was measured?

A. Yes, sir, I was present when it was measured.

Q. Do you know how long this body was?

A. It was five feet eleven inches and something. I don't recollect the exact length. It was five feet eleven inches and something.

Q. Did you make or was the body examined with reference to scars—particularly the face of the body?

A. I was called upon some how or other to go and see
1595 the body; it was reported that there were scars upon it, and that was the reason that I took that magnifying glass that I borrowed from the watch-maker. I went out to the grave yard and run it over his hands thoroughly and also examined his face when at the grave yard.

Q. Now, what would you say in regard to their being any scars upon his face? A. There was not any.

Q. State whether or not there was a callpus upon the face as large as a ten cent piece? A. There was not.

Q. You are positive in regard to that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Calling your attention to the hands, particularly to the little finger; state whether or not there was any discolored skin upon that, or anything of that sort? A. There was not.

Q. Any scar or marks whatever?

A. None except a little scar probably an eight of an inch long on the little finger.

Q. Such as a ring mark?

A. There was nothing of that kind that I saw.

Q. Do you remember who was present at the time you measured this man?

A. Well, Dr. Stuart was I know, and Dr. Fuller.

Q. I mean at the office.

A. I don't think that anybody was present. There was nobody present the morning that Hillmon came in; I was in the office alone. He had a brother-in-law living in the same building on the same floor, and he came from his brother-in-law's door into my office made that statement that I have given you.

Q. Did you see the body dissected—open the stomach?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state what was the condition of the 1596 stomach so far as being full or empty?

A. I don't think there was anything in it.

Q. State whether there was any appearance of food?

A. No, I can't say that there was.

Q. You can state whether it was empty or not.

A. It was empty.

Q. You stated that you were acquainted with this man Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In regard to his brother-in-law's living near you—

A. That was probably the reason I saw Hillmon oftener than I would have seen him otherwise.

Q. There was only one dead body brought there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was at Bailey & Smith's? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, will you state whether or not that was the body of John W. Hillmon? A. I know it was not.

Q. You may state if you know anything in regard to John W. Hillmon's teeth?

A. I know that as well as I know anything.

Q. What was the condition of his teeth?

A. On the left side there was either a tooth broken off or out; the left of the first front incisors.

Q. Now, I will call your attention to the condition of the teeth of the dead body?

A. They were a very perfect set of teeth.

Q. State [when] any of those teeth were gone or not?

A. They were not.

Q. You haven't got that book with you?

A. No, I have not. I had it here before, but I haven't it at this time. I examined it yesterday. I have it at my office.

Cross-Examination.

1597 Questions by Mr. Hutchings:

Q. When did you first see Hillmon?

A. I can't tell. I may have seen him before, but I didn't know [—] until he came to me to be examined for life insurance.

Q. What day was that?

A. Prior, not very many days, however, to the 17th day of December, 1878.

Q. About how long prior?

A. I don't know—perhaps ten days.

Q. That was the first time you ever recollect seeing him?

A. To know him, yes, sir.

Q. He came in to be examined for life insurance, did he?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. In making out these applications you generally read the questions off of your blank, and write down the answers?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is about the extent of the examination you usually make?

A. No, sir; we always take the respiration, measure the chest, and all that kind of a thing.

Q. Then you are very particular to do everything except measure the height? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And that you take a man's word for. You are very particular to do everything except measure the body?

[—] Yes, sir. If a man does not know his h-ight, I measure him. I am particular about that.

Q. Why don't you take his word as to the size of his chest?

A. That is one of the things that a man don't usually know.

Q. You take a man's word for his h-ight, and everything else is a matter of examination? A. Yes, sir.

1598 Q. That is the way you do it? A. Well, yes.

Q. Then, after he came there how long was he in your office when he made that examination?

A. The first examination?

Q. Yes.

A. Well, I suppose it would take an hour to make the examination—perhaps longer.

Q. Was there anybody present?

A. I don't know whether there was—I think Major Wiseman was present.

Q. Now, when he left your office when did you next see him? A. I perhaps seen him the next day.

Q. I don't want any perhaps, if you don't remember When do you remember next seeing him?

A. Well, I can't answer that direct, but it could not have been more than two or three days.

Q. Can you tell when you next saw him?

A. Not to the day or hour.

Q. Can you tell any time you saw him?

A. Yes, one time.
Q. When was that?
A. On the seventeenth day of December, 1878.
Q. How did you come to see him at that time?
A. That is the time he came in and told me he had made a mistake as to his h-ight.
Q. Now, can you tell any other time that you saw him?
A. Not to give the exast date, but I saw him frequently.
Q. Can you remember definitely any other time that you saw Hillmon so as to name the time?
A. So as to name the time? No, I can't.
Q. Can you tell any other time as to the place?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When was it?
A. On the stairway leading up to his brother-in-law's and my office.
1599 Q. He was just going up and you were going down?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was that all there was of it?
A. I met him four or five times.
Q. On that occasion was that all there was of it?
A. No; when I got acquainted with him we stopped and talked.
Q. When did you stop and talk with him after that?
A. Some time between the 7th day of December for a few days and perhaps before that. I am sure I see Hillmon a dozen times.
Q. That is, you saw him?
A. Yes, and talked with him four or five times.
Q. Whereabouts did you talk to him?
A. Right about my office and the floor his brother-in-law worked on.
Q. The last time you say that you saw him was on the 17th day of December?
A. No, I didn't say that. I think I saw him afterwards. But I said I thought it; I know certain.
Q. Can you say certain that you ever saw him after that day? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When and where?
A. I can't, if you are going to confine me to the hour and day.
Q. I am not confining you to the hour and day.
A. Then I saw him two or three days afterwards at his brother-in-law's office.
Q. Can't you remember when it was the first time—when you saw him first?

A. To know him, yes; I think I can remember within four or five days.

Q. Tell us when it was.

Q. I think it was about ten days prior to the 17th of December, 1878—very close to that 1600 Q. Did you ever see him in the year 1879?

A. I don't know that I did.

Q. Do you think that you did? A. I don't know that I did.

Q. What do you think about it?

A. I don't know that I do; I don't believe I did. I may have done so, but I don't know.

Q. Then your acquaintance with him was between the seventh day of December and the seventeenth day of December?

A. No, I didn't state that. I say that on that time and about that time Hillmon came to me to be examined for life insurance.

By the Court: The witness said he saw him two or three days probably after the 7th; now you ask him if it was not between the 7th and 17th.

By Mr. Riggs: There is a purpose in this examination.

By the witness: I say that on the 17th of December I examined him and that prior to that time he was examined for life insurance and his policy written; it was some time I think in that month, and that is the reason I am putting it now somewhere about ten days before; and I think if you examine the policy you will find that is so.

Q. Then as I understand you, your acquaintance with John W. Hillmon dated exclusively about between the 7th day of December and about the 17th day of December, and that included the whole period of your acquaintance with that man?

A. No, I may have known him even after the 17th.

Q. Now then, you say that you measured him, but not very accurately? A. Well, I didn't accurately.

Q. And you measured him—where was it?—up against the window? A. Yes sir.

1601 Q. Was there anybody in there?

A. I don't know that there was.

Q. Was Wiseman in there? A. I don't think he was.

Q. What did you measure him with? A. A tape line.

Q. I want to ask you if that tape line that you had there hadn't been broken? A. No sir.

Q. Hadn't there been a piece broken off of it? A. No sir.

Q. Do you swear that? A. Yes sir.

Q. Is it not a fact that that tape line was broken and you had to double it together in one place, bring the inches together, so as to make an accurate measurement of the inches of it? A. I say that is not a fact.

Q. When you made that measurement didn't you double up one end of the tape line and hold it against the floor and Wiseman hold the other? A. No sir.

Q. Did you hold both ends of that tape line—one at the bottom and one at the top? A. No, I didn't.

Q. Didn't you tell me about the time of the other trial that that was a broken tape line? A. No sir.

Q. Do you say you didn't? A. I say I didn't.

Q. What did you do with the other end of the tape line, the end that you didn't hold?

A. I could get at that with the jury by telling them what I did. I took it up this way (illustrating) and held it up.

Q. Didn't you tell me about the time of the other trial that that measurement was so uncertain that you would no swear to it? A. I said it was not very accurate.

Q. Then you told me repeatedly in my office that that measurement was so uncertain that you would not swear to it?

A. No, I don't know that I told you that.

Q. Didn't you say that now?

A. I said I measured him and I stated that, and I
1602 now state it, that I measured him in that way. I measured him so that it came out five feet nine inches.

Q. But haven't you told me repeatedly since then that that measurement was so incorrect that you could not swear to it?

A. I don't think I have.

Q. Haven't you said that substantially today?

Objected to.

Q. Now, I want to ask you about that memorandum: When did you make that memorandum?

A. I made that on the 17th day of December, 1878, with John Hillmon standing no further than Judge Barker is from me now.

Q. You say it is a general rule of practice for you to take a statement of men's heights? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you always find that a candidate for life insurance knows his exact measurement—is it not a fact that you seldom ever find a man but that gives you an estimate of his height?

A. Very often; if they don't know I measure them.

Q. Did you ever make such a memorandum as that in your book before—men frequently make incorrect statements?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And it frequently turns out so? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you ever before when you found out an error of that kind had been made, make a memorandum of it?

A. Not in life insurance.

Q. What kind of a book did you put it in?

A. In the back part of my ledger.

Q. Is it a book that you use for such purposes, your account book? A. Yes sir.

Q. You wrote it in the back part of your ledger?

A. Yes sir

Q. You took particular pains on that day to go write
1603 right in that book that he had come in and told you that there was a mistake in his height? A. Yes sir.

Q. But you didn't put down the measurement that time you claim you measured him? A. Yes sir I did.

Q. Now sir, did you put down with that memorandum that he came in there and made that statement, the fact that you had measured him? A. I didn't make the statement.

Q. You didn't put it in your book? A. No.

Q. You didn't put down what he measured?

A. No, I didn't.

Q. Did anybody put down what he measured? A. No.

Q. Then his height is not in your book? A. No.

Q. Only what he said? A. Yes.

Q. Is the height that he gave put down in the book, or simply a memorandum that he said there was a mistake in his height? A. That is it exactly.

Q. Your memorandum don't, then, state what he said his height was? A. Yes sir.

Q. What does it say?

A. It says "I made a mistake in my height; I am five feet nine inches instead of five feet eleven inches as I stated in my policy."

Q. You had measured him then? A. Yes sir.

Q. And never made any statement of his measurement?

A. I had given you precisely and absolutely the statement of what I put down.

Q. What particular object had you in putting that down?

A. Just simply because the man came to me and wanted to know if it would make any difference. He came in there and said he had made a mistake and wanted to know of 1604 me if it would make any difference. I made a record of that kind of things so that I could present the facts if anything came up.

Q. You regarded that a presentation of his statement that he had made a false statement was going to help him?

A. The man was living yet.

Q. You made a record of it for Mr. Hillmon's benefit in case anything came up in regard to his policy, you made a record there in that book for his benefit?

A. No, that he had been mistaken simply. I told him I didn't think it would make any difference, and I so stated it and then put it down.

Q. What company was it that you made the examination or? A. The Mutual Life of New York.
Q. That was the company you acted for? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you send the correction on it to the Mutual Life
'ompany?
A. No, sir, I didn't do anything. I told him I thought it would make no difference. Never heard of it until this case ame up.
Q. In the morning [what] that body arrived there did you all on Dr. Stuart to go down there or did he call on you?
A. I don't believe it was either. I think that Mr. Smith old me about it.
Q. How did you and Dr. Stuart come to go there?
A. I don't know whether we went together or met there.
Q. When you and Dr. Stuart were first there, was there nybody else there?
A. The man that let us into the dead house.
Q. Was there anybody else?
A. I don't know. I think there was, but I don't recollect.
Q. At that time were you the examiner for the Mutual Life and Dr. Stuart the examiner for the other two companies? A. So I understood afterwards.
1605 Q. Did you notify any of the parties, Mrs. Hillmon or anybody that represented her, that you were going down there to examine the corpse?
A. I can't tell whether I did or not.
Q. You think you did, don't you?
A. No, sir, I don't think I did; but I will tell you what was said.
Q. You needn't mind that? A. I don't think I did.
Q. Well, was Dr. Fuller there? A. The first morning?
Q. The first morning? A. I think not.
Q. Was there any other physician there besides you and
Dr. Stuart? A. I don't believe there was.
Q. Were you there when that vaccination mark was cut out of the arm? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who did it? A. I think Dr. Stuart?
Q. What did he do it with?
A. He did it with a knife.
Q. What did he do with it after he cut it off?
A. He took it over to Dr. Stuart's office.
Q. Then afterwards other doctors came in there and saw it? A. Yes, sir; and then we examined it.
Q. State if there was anybody present but you and Doctor
Stuart when it was cut? A. I don't think there was.
Q. Was anybody besides Smith?
A. I don't know. There might have been others.

Q. I ask you if there was any other physicians present when you cut that out? A. There was not.

Q. Was there any vaccination marks on the arm when the coroner's jury had the body under consideration?

A. I don't think there was.

Q. Those marks were taken from the body before the coroner's jury had an opportunity to examine the body?

A. I think so.

1606 Q. You said you recollected noticing his teeth?

A. I did.

Q. You made no examination of the teeth for the purpose of insurance? A. Nothing at all.

Q. Then your observation of the teeth was just as a mere accident? A. Just as it happened.

Q. Your eye-sight is pretty poor, is it not?—has been for a number of years? A. No, not very long.

Q. It has been before the time this happened,—it was pretty poor—is not that a fact?

A. I couldn't say that exactly. I could read then without glasses.

Q. Is not it a fact that your eyesight has been pretty poor for some time before you examined Hillmon—you have had ever since before that to use your glasses whenever you do anything? A. No, sir, that is not a fact.

Q. How long have you been wearing glasses?

A. Off and on for ten, twelve or fourteen years.

Q. Now, where was it that you observed his teeth,—on what occasion was it?

A. It was on the occasion when Hillmon came in and made the statement to me that he had made a mistake.

Q. In his height? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was that the only time?

A. That was the only time that I noticed that specially.

Q. How long did Hillmon remain in your office that time?

A. Anyhow from half an hour to an hour.

Q. It took him an hour to an hour to state to you that he had made a mistake, did it? A. No, that isn't so.

Q. What did he do?

A. We talked about cattle ranches and sheep and all such things.

1607 Q. You know Samuel A. Riggs? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How are his teeth in front?

A. I don't know, but I think my attention was called to them on the other trial, and I think I know something about it. I think there is a shortage on one side of his jaw.

Q. Is there any teeth out? A. I don't know.

Q. In front? A. I don't know.

Q. You have talked with him a great many more times than you ever did with Hillmon, haven't you? A. Yes, sir.

[—] Jacob House,—you know him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many years have you been acquainted with him?
A. Six or eight years.
Q. You see him every day, several times a day for that matter? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you have talked with him a great many times?
A. Yes.
Q. Tell me how his front teeth are? A. I don't know.
Q. Do you know anything about his teeth?
A. I don't.
Q. Do you know whether he has a mustache or not?
A. I don't know as I have examined his as to that.
Q. Do you know Joseph E. Riggs? A. Yes, sir,
Q. Have you ever examined his teeth? A. No.
Q. Do you know anything about his teeth? A. No.
Q. Do you know whether any of them are out or not?
A. No.
Q. Do you know whether he wears a mustache?
A. I think he does.
Q. There is a little scientific experiment that you inaugurated, doctor, that I want to converse with you about; that is, taking a red-hot iron and trying to make a vaccination mark on a dead man's arm? A. I did that.
1608 Q. You saw Hillmon, you knew it was not him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was a pretty plain thing to you?
A. Yes, it was to me.
Q. And you saw those vaccination marks on there—you understood about that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What was your object in burning that arm?
A. Because Dr. Stuart had stated to me that that vaccination had been done for a certain length of time, twenty or twenty-odd days, and I knew this condition of things [didn't] existed that long and the tissues beneath hadn't been broken down, and that was the reason that I suggested that the same thing would come out by a burn, that the tissues would not be broken down, and I suggested the matter just simply from that fact, that I wanted to know that fact, and the doctors gratified me; but we could not bring about anything of the kind.
Q. That was all with the assumption that the body was Hillmon's? A. No, it was just the opposite.
Q. You stated that Dr. Stuart said that that vacination had been on that arm for twenty-five days. And you thought you had some doubt about it?
A. I was satisfied that this vaccination hadn't been there twenty-five days.
Q. What was the purpose of the experiment, then?

A. To show that it hadn't been there twenty-five days.
Q. Who did you want to satisfy?
A. I wanted to satisfy myself I guess.
Q. Then you had some doubt about the vaccination having been on for a certain length of time?
A. Not as to its being Hillmon and as to the vaccination.
Q. You had some doubt as to the time it had been 1609 there? A. I hadn't, no.
Q. Put on your glasses, doctor, and see whose signature that is? (Handing witness paper.—Rep.)?
A. That is mine.
Q. Whose is that?
A. I expect that that was Hillmon's.
Q. Now look at the body of this and see whose writing it is—whose writing is that in the medical examination?
A. It is mine.
Q. There is your signature to it again—this? A. Yes, sir.
Q. This date, is this—read it to the jury?
A. That is December 5.
Q. What year? A. 1878.
Q. That is your writing, too, is it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now then, look right there. Here is the answer and the question, "What is your h-ight? Five feet eleven inches," You wrote that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you made it out on this day?
A. Yes, sir, it must have been so.
Q. And wrote it into the policy? A. Yes, sir, I did.
Q. You were paid for your services on that occasion, were you not—the post mortem examination?
A. I got nothing for the post-mortem.
Q. For your attendance on the inquest?
A. For giving testimony before the inquest I was paid.
Q. How much were you paid? A. I don't know.
Q. Didn't you state before?
A. No, I don't think I did. If I did I have forgotten it now.
Q. Who paid you?
A. I believe I go my money from Dr. Morris, the coroner.
Q. Do you swear to that?
A. No, I don't swear positively, but I think so.
1610 Q. You don't know how much you got? A. No

Redirect Examination.

Questions by Mr. Barker:
Q. You observed the wound through the head of this person? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I want you to state now from the nature of that wound, what would be your judgment in regard to that, what effect it would have? whether a person injured in that way would fall instantly or not?

A. I think he would, sir, without a doubt.
Q. Another question: in regard to the age of this body?
A. That is something that I don't know anything about. It was comparatively a young man, I know, but I didn't examine him as to that point, and I don't know.
Q. Do you remember the clothes on that corpse—whether they fit or not?
A. They didn't fit very well. They were short in the arms and short in the legs.
Q. Did you notice in regard to their being loose in the chest?
A. Yes, they were plenty large enough, at least about the chest and sleeve, and the pantaloons were too in the leg.

Questions by Mr. Hutchings:
Q. The fit of a suit of clothes put on a man would depend something about how they were pulled around and fitted on, would it not?
A. Yes, but these were too short.
Q. It would be a question of adjustment, would it not?
A. Yes, except—
Q. You want to put in the exceptions all the time. Suppose a corpse had been ridden eighty or ninety miles in 1611 a wagon, would you expect the clothes to be fitting all around like a dude's? A. No, I don't know as I would.
Q. Are you a tailor? A. No, sir.
Q. Are you an expert on a suit of clothes?
A. No, I am not.

Questions by Mr. Barker:
Q. Do you recognize that picture? A. Yes.
Q. Is that the picture of the person you have been speaking of? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you recognize that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is that a picture of the same person? A. No, sir.
Q. Don't that look like him?
A. No, sir, and it aint him, either.

Questions by Mr. Hutchings:
Q. Did you say that you didn't recognize that last picture? A. No, I didn't say that.
Q. What did you say?
A. I said that was not the picture I looked at first.
Q. Do you recognize it?
A. Yes, sir; I think that was the man that was buried out there.
Q. The remark you made out there was that you thought it was the picture of the man that was buried there?
A. Yes, sir, at Lawrence.

Q. The man that was buried at Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Examine it closely. After you have examined it closely we wish you to state to the jury wherein the resemblance to that dead body that was buried at Lawrence exists?

By Mr. Riggs: He said that he thought he recognized that as the body of the man that was buried.

1612 By the witness: I didn't say that exactly, but I say this. I think I see a resemblance to the man that was buried there across the maler bones, and then I think I see a resemblance across the jaws here.

Q. Then is there any other point of resemblance, doctor, to the man that was buried in Lawrence?

A. No, I don't think that there was.

Q. In the length of the face for instance?

A. That I couldn't tell.

Q. There is a pretty strong resemblance between the two—between this and the man that was buried in Lawrence?

A. There is in some things, but the picture of the man that was buried at Medicine Lodge I never saw that man.

Q. I mean the man that was buried at Lawrence, A say this picture is a strong resemblance to him?

A. In some things it does not look so strong, and in some things it does. I would say this, that the coat and the character of the goods the coat was made of looks very much like it, but otherwise I can't see very much resemblance. Across the maler bones it looks some like the man they brought here.

Q. And the lower part of the face?

A. Well, I think the jaw is pretty heavy, but that man I think had a pretty heavy jaw.

Q. Then you think the jaws have a striking resemblance?

A. Somewhat.

Q. Compare the two pictures.

A. This is the picture of the dead man as it was taken out at the grave yard.

Q. Now then, I would like to have you state if the clothes were the same or anything like it, in the two pictures?

A. They don't show, but I am satisfied clothes the 1613 man had on.

Q. You think this picture shows the clothes more plainly? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, then, the resemblance in the jaws?

A. Nothing about it except the chin.

Q. In the chin you think there is a resemblance?

A. Yes, somewhat.

Q. Across the maler bones

A. This picture is broader, and it looks as though the man that was brought here had a broader space across the maler bones than this one.

Q. See if this picture don't show the broadest across the malar bones? A. No, I don't think it does.

Q. What other resemblance did you see between the two?

A. Not much as it is presented here. I don't see so much after looking at it a while; I only see that this coat resembles the coat that I saw in Bailey's shop.

Q. You stated it was your recollection, did you not, before you compared these pictures, that the picture of the coat of this man was the picture of the kind of the coat the body had on? A. That was the first impression I had.

Q. That was the way your recollection run?

A. Yes, but now I don't see so much resemblance.

Witness dismissed.

Dr. V. G. Miller recalled for defendant.

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. You spoke the other day, that at the time you made the measurement of Mr. Hillmon you put it down in a book? Have you the book here present?

A. Yes sir, the book is here.

1614 Q. Will you turn to the entry? A. Here it is.

By Mr. Green: We offer this in evidence.

By Mr. Hutchings: We object to the introduction of that memoranda. It is a mere matter for him to refer to. His memorandum is not evidence.

By the Court: It can be admitted.

By Mr. Hutchings: We except.

By Mr. Green: I will read the entry.

(The plaintiff objected to the reading of said entry in evidence as hearsay. Objection sustained; defendants and each of them duly except.)

Cross examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. What is this book? A. An old ledger.

Q. An account book? A. Yes sir.

Q. You never made any such entries as that in that book before did you? A. I made other entries.

Q. What other entries?

A. There is one (indicating)

Q. That is your account with the Presbyterian church?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you ever make any other memoranda in this book of that character before?

A. Yes sir—not of that character—no.

Q. Did you ever make any other memoranda of that character in this book before?

A. I think not. The book is there you can look at it.

Witness dismissed.

(At the request of the defendants the book identified by the witness is marked Exhibit K by the Court.)

The plaintiff admits that the book Exhibit K is the book shown to Dr. Miller and that it contains the entry concerning which he testified.

1615 The defendants offer the book in evidence and offer to read the entry upon page 328.

Plaintiff objects to the admission of the book or to the reading of said entry in evidence as hearsay.

Objection sustained; the defendants and each of them duly except.)

1616 Charles J. Webb, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Ware:

State your name? A. Charles J. Webb.

Q. Where do you live Mr. Webb? A. Topeka, Kansas.

Q. What is your occupation?

A. It includes that of Chief Clerk to the Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Co.

Q. I will ask you whether, as such chief clerk, you have in your custody any of the time tables and files of the Santa Fe Railroad? A. I have.

Q. I will ask you if you have the time tables or schedules back in 1879? A. I have.

Q. March, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you if you have got a schedule or time table of that date in your possession now? A. I have.

Q. Will you please produce it?

(Witness does so.)

Q. I will ask you where this time table, or schedule, comes from?

A. It came from the official files in the Superintendent's office of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad Company at Topeka.

Q. In your custody and control? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you why these time schedules are printed?

A. This time schedule is printed for the information

1617 government, and instruction of the railway employees of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company.

Q. Does the railroad, as far as possible, run trains on the time of this schedule? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you look at this schedule of Mch. 30th, 1879, and state when a person leaving Lawrence, Kansas, after dinner, between twelve and one o'clock, at noon, would arrive at Hutchison, Kansas?

By Mr. Hutchings: We object to that as secondary evidence. The paper itself is the best evidence of what it shows. I do not know what the purpose of it is unless it is to show that the train was on time.

By the Court: The bearing would be this: Alva Baldwin testified that he arrived in Hutchinson and made inquiries of an undertaker as to the removal of the corpse and was advised that the body ought not to be removed at that time of night. I suppose the purpose is to show that he arrived there too late to transact such business. You will notice that this time table is of March 30th.

By Mr. Ware: We have not got the time of Mr. Alva Baldwin's visit exactly.

The plaintiff withdraws her objection.

A. The time schedule shows that a train was due to leave Lawrence at 12-44 p. m.; that is, 44 minutes past noon, past twelve o'clock; that a person taking that train would arrive at Hutchinson at 10:45 p. m. of the same day.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Were you in the employ of the company in 1879?

A. No, sir.

Q. All you know about it is this paper? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have no actual knowledge as to when any 1618 train left Lawrence that day, or when it reached Hutchinson? A. No, sir.

Q. You do not know when the connecting mail coaches or stages that left Hutchinson would go south to Medicine Lodge either? A. No, sir.

Q. There is a train register kept, is there not, at Hutchinson? Does not every train, when it gets there, register the time of its actual arrival? A. I think there is at this time.

Q. If you desired to show what time this train or any train reached Hutchinson that day, there is a register kept down there of the arrival of each train? A. There was.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Ware:

Q. As a mater of fact, trains do not generally run ahead of time, do they? A. No, sir, not scheduled trains.

Q. You may state what further trains left Lawrence and arrived in Hutchinson; that is, passenger trains?

A. Train No. 53 is scheduled to leave Lawrence at 1-11 a. m., arriving at Topeka at 2-27 a. m. and connecting at Topeka with train No. 3, leaving Topeka at 3 a. m., arriving at Hutchinson at 11-56 a. m.

Q. That is four minutes before noon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. These were the only two passengers trains at that time on the Santa Fe? A. The only two shown on this schedule.

Q. At that time the Santa Fe did not go through to California?

1619 A. This schedule only shows as far as Pueblo, Colorado and south of LaJunta as far as Otero, Mexico.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Huchings:

Q. There was one train that left Lawrence at what hour, you say; that you read in your last answer?

A. One train scheduled to leave Lawrence at 12-44 p. m. and scheduled to arrive at Hutchinson at 10-45 p. m. of the same day.

Q. That would be just after noon?

A. Forty-four minutes past noon.

Q. And the train would get into Hutchinson at 11-45?

A. 10-45.

Q. And the other train left Lawrence when?

A. Scheduled to leave Lawrence at 1-11 a. m.

Q. That is, just after midnight?

A. Yes, sir, and arriving at Hutchinson at 11-56 a. m.

Q. That is just before noon? A. Yes, sir.

By the Court: Are there, in these time schedules, notes calling attention to specific changes in time?

A. The rule is, simply to call attention to any important change which may have been made from the issue of the current time table.

By Mr. Ware: (Producing bound volume of newspapers.)

Q. Will you admit that these are the files of the Hutchinson News? I want to show the published time tables in the weekly newspapers of the Santa Fe Road?

The plaintiff make no objection.

Mr. Ware reads as follows: "Hutchinson News,
1620 Thursday, March 27th, 1879, railroad time table, No. 1, express and passenger, going west 10-45 p. m.; No. 3, Dodge City express, going west 12-30 p. m.; No. 3, Immigrant, 1-36 p. m.; No. 5, freight, 12-5 p. m."

The reason I call attention to this is, that this time table shows the same 10-45 going west as the time card does, and this is Mch. 27th, 1879.

Witness excused.

1621 The defendants and each of them next offered to read in evidence the diary found upon the dead body, already offered in evidence by the plaintiff.

By Mr. Hutchings: We offered the diary because it was found upon the body and because it had some bearing on the question of identity, but as to particular matters written in this diary, while we have no objection to their reading it, they read it as their own evidence. The statements made in the diary I apprehend would be incompetent, immaterial and irrelevant to anything here.

By Mr. Ware: When Mr. Hutchings introduced the book, I asked him if he introduced the book or the book and contents and he said the book and contents.

By Mr. Hutchings: I introduced it so far as to show it was his diary, but if it is introduced for the purpose of proving anything that is stated in the diary, they make it their own evidence, I apprehend. I think we would have the right to show that Hillmon's jack knife was found in the pocket of this dead body, his wife's picture, his wife's letter, his discharge and other papers, going to the question of its identity, without introducing the particular contents. I want to make this point, that so far as the contents is concerned, further than the identity of the book, it is objected to as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay.

The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court, the plaintiff then and there duly excepted.

Mr. Green thereupon read said dairy in full to the jury. It is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

1622 "John W. Hillmon's Book. Residence, Lawrence, Kansas. Mrs. S. E. Hillmon, corner Henry and Alabam St., Lawrence, Kan. Traveling Companion, J. H. Brown; Residence, Wyandotte, Kan.

My first memorandum I lost after I had been out a few days, so I replaced it with a new one. Could not recall all that I had in my first, but placed my dates correct. I lost it the second day from Wichita, togeather with some cough medicine. I had caught a severe cold at Wichita and provided for it. Colds are numerous through this part. Prescription, Bone Bay Root.

I left Lawrence on the 18 of Dec., 1878, for the purpes of looking up a stock ranche in the southwest. Went by way of Atchison, Topeka and Santafee to Wichita—Arrived at Wichita at 12 at night, found snow about 3 inches deep. On the morning of the 19 looked around town during the day. Wichita is a lively town. Streets are full of teams; every day they will face the storm to go to the city. 20 rather warm overhead, the snow melted some, wrote a letter home and one to Baldwin, looked around some for a team, did not get any up to this evening. 21st received a letter from Sallie, bought a team at auction from old 4 eyes, the rest of the day was spent around town. Sunday 22 at Wichita, the day passed by slow and tedious wrote home in the evening went to bed early. 23d had some blacksmithing done, very cold and stormy. Tuesday 24 cold and disagreeable, did not start, thought would remain until Christmas. Christmas comes and a dry and lonesome one it was. On- dry turkey made the roast for about 20 boarders. 26. Started earley for the west, turned cold and begun to storm, drove all day, nearly faceing the storm, the country is dotted with houses all over the prairie, no timber and no

1623 accommodations to amount to anything. Stoped at night about 25 miles from Wichita, their principal fuel is corn stalks. 27. Cold, a long drive through rather an unsettled country. Jack frosted his feet, had to break the road most of the way—snow drifted pretty bad—horses as well as us very tired, stoped for the night with some Hossiers, though the made us very confortable—28 drove 35 miles and arrived at Medacine Lodge, about 4 in the evening, the weather has been so cold and the scarcity of fuel has prevented us from camping out there is no timber from here to Wichita, about one hundred miles. Setlers have to haul what timber they use 40 or 50 miles, received a letter from T. Seleg, Lawrence, Kan., did not receive any word from home—29 at Medacine Lodge snowed during the past night to cold to travel, remained in town, wrote a letter home, went to church at night—Medacine affords a very good congregation for a new and frontier town—30 had some work done, snowed some during the day, pretty cold weather, do not like to start out while the bad weather continues. Had a little excitement in town, a party being tried for killing his neighbors ox, could not do without some excitement once in a while. 31st morning did intend to start, but storming so I think it will prevent us from starting. the weather has been so bad I could not look over the country to any advantage, we will have to abandon our trip until spring if the weather does not get better. the weather moderated in the forenoon and we continued our journey as far west as Sun City Kan. we traveled through a splendid stock country up the Medicine River, so very nice farms Stock generaly looks very well considering the rough weather—we put up at what I call a rare chance the night of the 31st in my estimation and so thought Jack. Our stock well cared for we had nothing more to look after for the night except take items everything in readiness a few whispers around the fam-1624 ily bride and groom then a scatering Jack and I left alone the parties to be made happy retired to a back shed, 3 or 4 followed and then out of sight of all spectators a little old man pronounced them man and wife using his own langague the child was born for we could hear a part of the cermony shortly after the parties both expressed their anxiety to retire the bride pulled off her shoes and said she was going to bed—but preparations had not been made for the night and she had no gown she sent for one to a neighbor it was brought into the seting room waded up and passed to the Bride then I guess she was hapy for she was not seen any more until morning the 1st of Jan 1879—Shortly after Jack and I was up we was alone the young bride came in looking as sweet as ever Barefooted and asked Jack if he knew where her shoes was and was informed they had not been seen she was about seventeen years of age I guess the scissors was on the window This morning blew up cold and snowing I think by far the coldest day I have experienced this winter. We are compelled to remain in shelter until the storm abates Our accommodations are a little better than camp. in this country though timber is plenty and people do not have to resort to corn stalks for fuel as they do in Kingman County. New Years day passed out dry for me, though a drunken crowd around all day. I never was so tired of a drunken outfit in my life. 2nd Cold and frosty, the wind blew cold. We did not take our team out of the barn. Wrote a letter to Sallie this evening. I have not heard from home since I left Wichita I have caught cold and do not feel much like doing anything. My bones ache like I was going to chill. things are not quieted down here

1625 yet, some of the sports of the past day are hanging around with black eyes, did not go to bed until very late, have got cold and about past traveling. Morning of the 3d. rather mild in the morning. I am sick this morning, do not feel able to do anything, sick all night, got up the morning of the 4th sick. Could not eat any breakfast, have not any thing since yesterday morning, snowed some during the day. Very cold not much trade around town, I call this a dull place for one to stop at, the town is made up of curious people. Sullivan and myself put in most of the time laughing at the odity of some of the inhabitants. I guess they think us about as odd as we do them. The city furnished a dance Saturday night. Went over and looked on a short time, the people seemed to enjoy themselves very well. Mostly married Laydyes attended, snowed about two inches during the night 5—Waited until near noon and started. Would rather camp out in a storm than stay in a place like Whitikers. I don't think the cooks wash more than once a week at most, did not go but a short distance until it began to snow again. We went into camp on the Medicine River. We have plenty of timber and shelter there. Neither Jack or myself is hardly able to travel on account of cold, think we will remain here two or three days. 6th. After looking around we find that we have broke our wagon. Will have to go back to Sun City to get it fixed, the wind is blowing very hard and cold I think something very strange will happen soon, it has not snowed any since yesterday, have just had a good time after our horses, they got loose and seem all over the country. Think they are done running for a while except they are hiched up—last night was very cold and blustry—this morning the 7th threatens snow, wind cold from the north, 1626 we are in camp on the Medicine River at Myers Ranche about 12 miles west of Sun City. Jack is complaining with cold, nothing to do today except set by the fire and it smokes so we can hardly see at times, this kind of weather will make one almost curse camp life and himself for being so silly as to start on a trip of this kind during the winter months. I have prophesied a cold winter this winter but so far it has overreached my expectations. My opinion was formed by the extra quality of all kinds of furs both small and large. Muskrats in the north built higher than they was known to for years. The sun goes down tonight dark with snow and wind. I think it has been about as blustry afternoon as I have ever witnessed. This kind of weather is what will condemn this part of the country for stock, it will be almost impossible to save near all the stock in the country. Admitting it a good country, why was man made to drift in the world like wild animals. I gues the intent was good and one lives what we can make them. I would freely give fifty dollars if I had postponed my trip until one month later at least. I think then a man would have some show to travel with safety, while now he has but very little. 8th rather pleasant over head. Old man Myers came down to camp and talked until we both had the headache, he thinks himself the pioneer of Kansas, and has only been in the country about 4 years—he says woman is a swindle and that every one knows. At least his for they look worse than H-l sewed for murder. We have concluded that we will set in camp a day or two longer and see what the weather is going to do. A fair prospect for a good day tomorrow. 9th. Clear and rather cold. Most to cold to look around the country. Jack and I amused ourselves by keeping a good fire and seeing it burn down. I am getting very tired of keeping batch. Think I will have to get a camp russler if I stay out much longer. 10, looked 1627 around over the country some, was down to Sun City received some mail from home. Seen considerable cattle scattered over the hills, they begin to look as though they would soon require something more nourishing than pasture to keep them alive until spring, the weather looks gloomy again though it is not very cold the wind is very calm. Jan. 11. My birthday, snowing again if I had a sleigh think I could travel with ease, I begin to think that this trip is money throwed away when it might as well been saved by a little prudence, besides the rough weather has made double the expense I had calculated when I started. I made calculations that the trip for three months and see all the country that I care to see would not cost me to exceed three hundred dollars, including rig, it being light and cheap, but express this kind of weather when we have got to lay up so much more than double traveling expenses while out with a team. The last few days I have been in camp over a smoke until we are both about as black as Indians—evening faired off warm and clear thawed some sun sets clear I think it would require a weather clerk to keep track of the weather anything like accurate. 13th. We left Medicine River early in the morning it had every appearance of being a beautiful day traveled northwest crossed the head of Spring Creek near Banister's ranche. We found the road very rough and tiresome. The sand hills numerous, snow badly drifted in many places. We put up for the night at Smith's ranche 14 miles southeast of Kinsley. I should like to own all this country if I had it on a big hill or mountain where I could roll it down by sections. I think then I could save many from living out a miserable life and existence which they are trying to do here on 1628 these bald prairies without wood or coal to keep themselves warm, if the country afforded such many of them are not able to buy but burn corn stalks and hay. 13th drove over a very rough road to Kingsley on the Arkansas River it is a very nice little town and situated on Corn Creek within a half of a mile of where we had a fight with the Indians the 19th of Nov. 1868 now surrounded with a fine farm country then the heart of the Indian depredations we lost one of our boys and was buried near by. 14 a very cold and uncomfortable travling we started down the river in the morning thing if the weather did not moderate we could go home. We passed Garfield a very nice little town as yet an infant a morral reprisentation—Arrived at Larnard in the evening so cold we could not camp out so we put up at the Larnard house and our horses in the barn we never put up ourselves and leave our stock to the weather if our stock must have rough fare we share it with them. 15 Stormy remained at Larned had broke our wagon and had to stop to get it repaired did not get through until noon and would not start for half days travel wrote a letter home the 14—16 Started early clear but cold until night blew up cold and ugly at night our winter still holds good every one complains with cold tonight at Great Bend City. Morality seems to predominate in all of these little towns at least they will hold that idea to straingers they show up well in the moonlight but you must not look sideways. 17 sick and unable to travel so I conclude to remain at the bend the day was clear and warm—I think by far the warmest day since I have been on the trip—18 did not feel very well but started on my trip passed through some very fine country two or three small towns put up for the night at Sterling 33

1629 miles east of the Bend. I do not feel very well have got the headache have had it all day—

Sunday the 19th we put in a very tiresome day we traveled about 43 miles it was late when we put up for the night we drove further than we wanted to on account of not being able to find a stopping place. We would have camped but the ground was covered with snow and nothing for fuel, the roads this afternoon has been very rough the snow melting some makes considerable slush. We have good accommodations to-night furnished by a farmer 22 miles northwest of Wichita. I think when I leave Wichita again I shall adopt a camp life the rest of my trip. if the weather will possibly admit of it. last night we put up at the Green Mountain house in Sterling, I think the poorest fare that I ever got at any hotel in my life. I told the proprietor when he offered me one of his cards that I had no use for it. That I would rather put up with a granger if he fed me on parched corn than patronize him again. 20. Warm and pleasant overhead roads very bad mud and ice. Arrived at Wichita in the afternoon think we will wait a few days and see if the traveling will get better. think will go south to the nation line next time—21st Another thawing day farmers in town by the wholesale marketing produce hogs wheat and corn. The rodes are so muddy that teams cannot take much of a load. I have been walking around town most of the day as tired as if I had been hard at work. Jack puts in the day smoking and walking around town—22nd At Wichita waiting for the roads to get a little better, they are very muddy, the weather looks some like a storm again — Cloudy and dark Wichita is blocked with teams in the streets. I think it the boss town of Kansas for business, hogs seem to be in great demand, buyers are quarling over them to-day, they are bring about $2.60 for good ones—wheat 54 cts Corn is selling about 18 cts
1630 Wichita is having a glorious time, that is the praying portion of the city 22d went to church in the evening

I thought it would last all night. They have several mourners fish for the preachers.

23d Weather fair Mud in the streets about 3 in deep passed the most of the day at the hotel, Jack and I went to the revival again, went to bed at nine, one of our horses sick, I guess we drove him too hard that last few days out—24" at Wichita geting kind of tired of this place, nothing to do, that makes it very lonesome and the time pass slow. I think while I am idle here I will make a trip down home. I will not be able to continue my journey for a short time and I might as well go home as to remain here. We went to the revival in the evening, was about the first to church stayed until 10 went to the hotel and left church before they dismissed—25th Started home morning at 5 o'clock arrived at Lawrence at half past three evening. Met Mr. Wiseman of the Mutual Life at Topeka—26 & 27 at home—28—left Lawrence 12-40 by A. T. & S. fe for Wichita, weather damp and cloudy—Arrived at Wichita 10 in the evening.

29 Our team was not in a traveling condition so I had to remain in town—Wrote a letter home—weather damp and cloudy—30—rained all day streets very muddy, not much doing in town, went to church at night—31—drizled rain most of the day—streets very muddy almost impossible to get around, the prospect for going west very soon is not very good —time passes very slow, I am lonesome and hardly know what to do to spend the time.

Feb. 1st Morning clear and warm during the day, the roads muddy the river is broke up at this place. I have remained pretty much all day at the hotel finished a letter and mailed it for home this morning Went to church in the even-1631 ing. the revival is holding out well—2nd Sunday. Everything quiet met Hartman an old friend of mine from west Texas he just returned from a trip south along the nation line does not speak very favorable for that part as a stock country, thinks the settlers is close on the north and the territory not suitable for a perminent location, thinks in the corse of time the government would be liable to give one trouble if he attempted to hold stock on the Indian land—3d—rather warm and clear, went to church 4—stormy snowed and blew like winter had just begun 5 snowed and thawed roads very bad every thing quiet around town.

6 snow mostly disappeared, we changed boarding houses went to church think I am attending pretty regular the last few days. don't think I am a very good Christian yet—7 wrote a letter home, done nothing all day except walk around town, we are regular at our hotel for our meals and lodging to-day is very warm for the season of the year, farmers are turning out in numbers with produce of all kinds some stock and buying machinery getting ready for spring work low prices of farm production does not discourage them but only makes them buy more farm tools to enable them to raise corn and wheat in greater abundance, they think that the only was to catch up with hard times—8—Still I remain in Wichita waiting for the roads to get in a passable condition they are very bad I think I never did as hard work in my life as I have done in the past six weeks, it is killing me almost by inches to loaf around and do nothing as I have been doing of late. I think I will leave here within a day or two if I have to go home—9—Sunday went to the office early received a letter from home to-day is another tired and lonesome day for me, time seems to pass so very slow, noth-

1632 ing but mud from morning until night—10—Wrote a letter to Sallie—11-12-13. Stormy and very cold, horses facing the wind gathered great icicles on their nostrils.

14—started for home cold with snow in the fore part of the day—afternoon rather pleasant Arrived at home in the evening—15—at home pleasant until evening began snowing about sundown. 16—Sunday morning about five inches of snow on the ground still and warm—17—cloudy and cool I am at home at Lawrence. 18, 19, 20 at home. 21st 22d at Levis 23d came home in evening very warm I don't see as there is any good to grow out of me trying to keep track of my misdeeds. While I am as apt to err as any one and that I would be sure not to make a memorandum of and only show up the best part as others have done before me I do not want to be an exception to the rule or make any new ones so to keep from answering any hard questions if any one would want to know where I spent my evenings I will say I have forgotten to make a memorandum of the time and my memory is bad as I never charge it with anything and of course cannot answer promptly.

So ends this part at Lawrence.

Feb. 23—79

(Signed) J. W. HILLMON.

Received a letter from home the 14 at Medicine Lodge.

1633 The defendants and each of them next offered and read in evidence the deposition of W. H. Lamon, taken on the 22nd day of August, 1892, at Los Angeles, California. It is as follows, to wit:

W. H. Lamon, of lawful age, being by me first duly examined, cautioned and solemnly sworn to testify the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth, deposeth and saith as follows:

Direct Examination,

By James W. Green, Esq.:

Question. You may state your name, age and place of residence?

Answer. W. H. Lamon. Age 52 years. Residence, Pasadena, California.

Q. How long have you lived in Pasadena, Mr. Lamon?

A. Six years this coming fall.

Q. Where were you residing in the years 1878 and 1879?

A. At Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. What if any business were you engaged in at that place?

A. In the photographing business.

Q. You may state whether or not you are acquainted with Sallie E. Hillmon, the plaintiff? A. I am.

Q. You may state whether or not you were acquainted with John W. Hillmon? A. I was.

Q. When did you first meet John W. Hillmon and where?

[—] In the spring of 1878 at my gallery at Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. When did you last meet him?

A. In the spirng of 1879.

Q. Can you designate the month?

A. February or March. I would not like to say February or March because I am not positive whether it was the latter part of February or the fore part of March.

Q. Do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought from the South West to Lawrence which purported to be that of John W. Hillmon? A. I do.

Q. About how long prior to that circumstance was it that you last saw him? A. About one month.

1634 Q. What if any business did Hillmon have at your gallery? A. He came to have some pictures taken.

Q. You may state whether he had pictures taken at that time? A. He did.

Q. You may state if at any time you took pictures of this dead body which was brought to Lawrence and which was claimed to be the body of John W. Hillmon? A. I did.

Q. Look at the picture now shown you and which J. W. Green, one of the attorneys for the defendant, asks J. K. Urmston, the Notary, to identify by placing his name on the back and mark number one, and state if you ever saw the picture before, and if so, where? A. I did. At my Gallery.

Q. Of what is that a picture?

A. It is a photograph of a dead body.

Q. Did you take the Negative from which this is taken?

A. I did.

Q. Where did you take that?

A. At Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. You may state if that picture or photograph is a true impression from the Negative as you took it at Oak Hill Cemetery? A. It is.

Q. Now will you look at the picture now shown you by J. W. Green, one of the attorneys for the defendant, and which he requests the Notary, Mr. J. K. Urmston, to mark number two (2) and identify by his signature as Notary, and state of what that is a picture?

A. That is a different view of the same body.

Q. Did you take the Negative from which that impression is taken? A. I did.

Q. And where did you take that?

A. At Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. At what time in comparison as to the time the picture was taken? A. A few minutes afterwards.

Q. On the same day? A. Yes, on the same day.

Q. Is that a correct impression from the Negative which you took at that time? A. It is.

Q. You may state whether or not the body which you saw at Oak Hill Cemetery and of which you took two Negatives was the body of John W. Hillmon? A. It was not.

1635 Q. You may state if at any time in the months of April or May, 1879, you were employed to take the picture of a dead body at Oak Hill Cemetery, Lawrence, Kansas. A. I was.

Q. You may state what you did in regard to that matter whether you took the pictures or not? A. I took the pictures.

Q. You may state if at any time you examined the features of this dead body? A. I did.

Q. You may state whether or not that was the dead body of any person whom you had known in life? A. It was not.

Q. You may describe the face of John W. Hillmon, stating generally the shape, etc.

A. The face of John W. Hillmon was rather short and broadest across the forehead, tapering gradually to the chin, making what we would call a triangular face.

Q. As to the shape of the chin was it what you would call broad, pointed or medium? A. Pointed chin.

Q. You say you saw Hillmon last the latter part of February or the fore part of March, 1879. State how he wore his whiskers if he had any at that time, the last time you saw him?

A. He wore a moustache and chin whiskers, shaving the side of his face, not to his mouth, but where his moustache and whiskers united on either [—]

Q. Look at the Photograph now shown you by J. W. Green and which has been before marked "Exhibit Z. Geo. Heerman. Notary public" and which I now ask J. K. Urmston, Notary Public, to mark with his name as Notary Public and mark number three, and state of whom that is a picture or photograph? A. That is a picture of John W. Hillmon.

Q. Can you, as a Photographer, state whether that is taken from the original or whether it may be a copy of some other photograph of Hillmon? A. That is a copy from a Tin Type.

Q. Do you know who took the tin type from which that is taken? A. I do.

Q. Who took it? A. I did.

Q. When and where?

A. In the Spring of 1878 in my Gallery at Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. You may state whether that is a good, bad or indifferent picture of Hillmon? A. A good picture.

1636 Q. Referring again to the way in which Hillmon wore his whiskers the last time you saw him, how did it compare with the way he wore them as represented in this picture marked number three?

A. It was the same. He wore his beard the same.

Q. Which of the pictures marked number one and two was first taken by you? A. Number one took first.

Q. What was the condition of the nose of the body at the time you took that picture?

Guthrie: Objected to as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial there being no testimony to show that this witness had sufficient knowledge of Anatomy to testify as an expert.

Green: Withdraw the question.

Q. What was the condition of the nose as to its being in shape or out of shape at the time you took the first picture?

A. It was pressed somewhat out of shape. I mean the end of the nose.

Q. Can you state whether or not the nose at that time had so far decomposed that the tissues had been broken on the outside? A. Yes. They had not.

Q. How many years have you been engaged in the business of Photography? A. About twenty years.

Q. During that time you may state whether or not you were accustomed to closely examine the face and features of parties who desired to have their pictures taken? A. I was.

Cross Examination,

By F. B. Guthrie, Esq.:

Question. How long did you reside in Lawrence, Kansas? And during what period? Answer. From 1857 until 1886.

Q. How long were you engaged in the Photograph business there and during what years?

A. About twenty years. I began the picture business in Lawrence in 1864.

Q. And continued till when?

A. And I discontinued business there in 1884.

Q. And have not been in business since?

A. Not in Lawrence, but elsewhere.

Q. Then you lived in Lawrence until 1886? A. Yes sir.

Q. Then moved to California? A. Yes sir.

Q. And resided where since? A. In Pasedena.

1637 Q. You said that you took a tin type of John W. Hillmon? A. I did.

Q. When? A. In the spring of 1878.

Q. Where is that tin type? A. I do not know.

Q. Who were present when you took that tin type?

A. Mr. Hillmon and myself.

Q. How and where did you first get acquainted with John W. Hillmon?

A. I got acquainted with him on that occasion in my gallery at Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. How do you know then that it was John W. Hillmon?

A. I have since learned the fact that it was John W. Hillmon.

Q. When and from whom did you since learn it.

A. In the spring of 1879 I learned the name from Mr. R. J. Borgolthaus.

Q. What time in the spring of 1879?

A. I think it was in April.

Q. Before you took the photographs number one and two?

A. After.

Q. What time in 1878 was it that you say Hillmon was at your gallery, or the person that you suppose was Hillmon?

A. In February or March.

Q. Did any person come with him there?

A. There did not.

Q. Was there any person in your gallery at the time he was there? A. There was not.

Q. What time of day was it that he was there?

A. In the forenoon.

Q. Will you describe the man that you now say was Hillmon as to height, weight, color of his eyes and hair, mustache and goatee that you say he had?

A. Height, about five feet eight or nine inches. Probably he would weigh one hundred and sixty pounds. Gray eyes. I am not used to describing the color of hair, but his hair was I should say light, perhaps light brown. His moustache was light colored and whiskers light colored, but bleached by the weather or showing signs of exposure to light.

Q. How old a man was he?

A. I should say he was about twenty-eight or thirty years old.

Q. You never saw him but that one time, did you?

A. That was the first time I saw him, not the last.

Q. Did you make more than one tin type at that time?

A. I did.

Q. What did you do with them?

1638 A. I finished them.

Q. What did you do with them when they were finished? A. He took them.

Q. And he took all of them? A. Yes.

Q. Did you finish them and did he take them away the same day that you took the tin type? A. Yes. He did.

Q. How long was he at your gallery?

A. Perhaps an hour.

Q. How was he dressed upon that occasion?

A. He was dressed in rather a light suit.

Q. You mean light clothes, light fibre, or light color?

A. Light colored business suit.

Q. Sack or frock coat? A. I cannot say.

Q. Was the suit of the same material? A. It was.

Q. Did he have on an overcoat?

A. He did not when the picture was taken.

Q. Did he have one on at the time he came to your gallery?

A. I cannot say.

Q. Did he have a hat on?

A. Yes. A soft felt hat.

Q. What color?

A. It was a color that matched pretty nearly with his suit.

Q. Were his clothes apparently new or had they been worn considerable A. Slightly worn.

Q. Did you learn his name at that time? A. I did not.

Q. Did you know where he lived from your own knowledge?

A. No, I did not except that he told me where he lived.

Q. How did he come to tell you where he lived?

A. That is a pretty long answer, but I will give it. He told me he was trading in Western Texas. He left his teams down there to rest while he came up to his old home near Lawrence on a short visit.

Q. Then you did not see him again until when?

A. The fall of the same year, 1878.

Q. What month? A. August or September.

Q. Under what circumstances?

A. There was a party of young persons came up the stairs to have a group picture made remarking that there were others of the party who would be up in a few minutes. Soon the remainder of the party came up and Mr. Hillmon was 1639 among them.

Q. What month was that?

A. In August or September, I am not positive which.

Q. Did you take the photograph or tin type of the group?

A. I did.

Q. Which was it, a photograph or tin type? A. Tin type.

Q. How many of them did you take? A. I took two.

Q. What was done with those?
A. They were finished up and taken.
Q. By whom? A. By the party.
Q. Who took them? Whom of the party?
A. I do not know.
Q. Who comprised that party whose tin types you took at that time? A. They were friends of Mr. Hillmon.
Q. Can you give the names of any of them?
A. I can give the name of his sister and his sister was one of the party.
Q. How do you know it was his sister?
A. Because I afterwards learned that it was his sister.
Q. How did you learn that and from whom?
A. From herself.
Q. When and where?
A. After this dead body was brought to Lawrence.
Q. After you had taken these photographs number one and two? A. Yes.
Q. Who was present when you had a conversation with her? A. I think she was alone.
Q. Where did it occur? A. It occurred in my gallery.
Q. What was her given name? Her Christian name?
A. That I do not know.
Q. How do you know then that it was his sister?
A. She told me she was his sister. That is all I know. I suppose that is evidence enough.
Q. Then these were the two only times that you ever saw the person that you designate as Hillmon?
A. No, sir. It is not.
Q. Well, when again? A. In the spring of 1879.
Q. Where?
1640 A. At the office of Dr. Morse, over Woodward's drug store in Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. State the circumstances connected with the interview, how you came to see him there and then.
A. I should have said that I saw him once before in my gallery, he came in a few days after this group was taken and had some more tin types taken.
Q. Of himself? A. Yes. Alone.
Q. Then the next time you saw him was at Dr. Morse's office? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Well, how did you come to see him at Dr. Morse's office and under what circumstances?
A. I was sitting in the office talking to the doctor when Mr. Hillmon opened the door and looked in and asked "is this Dr. Stewart's office? Dr. Morse told him it was the second door east. I then said to the doctor that I recognized that face.

Q. Well, what then? A. He then closed the door.
Q. Who closed the door?
A. Mr. Hillmon. And when I left the office he was standing at the foot of the stairs. I there had some conversation with him and he told me he was up again from Texas and expected to start back again in a few days.
Q. Well, is that all? A. Yes.
Q. Now, were the persons that composed the group those tin types you took residents of Lawrence?
A. They were not.
Q. Did you know any of them? A. I did not.
Q. Were they ladies or gentlemen or both? A. Both.
Q. How many of each? A. I think three of each.
Q. Including the one you took to be Hillmon?
A. I think Mr. Hillmon was an old one, he was simply a visitor.
Q. Well, that made seven in all?
A. They were friends of him where he formerly lived.
Q. Was Hillmon's picture taken in the group?
A. It was not.
Q. Then, the only tin type you ever took of Hillmon was in the spring of 1878?
A. No, I said that he came up a few days after the group was taken and had had tin types of himself made alone again.
1641 Q. Yes. Well, how many of them? A. Two.
Q. Did he take them away with him? A. He did.
Q. How long did he stay at that time?
A. Perhaps a half hour.
Q. Was any one with him? A. No.
Q. Or during the time we has there in the Gallery?
[—] No.
Q. Nobody but yourself and he were present?
A. That's all.
Q. And during all of these occurrences you did not know his name? A. No.
Q. Nor did you ask it? A. No.
Q. And it was not until after the burial of this corpse that you say was not Hillmon's that you learned what Hillmon's name was? A. Yes.
Q. When you took the Tin Type of him was his hat on or off? A. He had it off.
Q. At the time the group was taken was his hat on or off? A. He did not have his picture taken in the group.
Q. Well, did he have his hat on or off while in the Gallery?
A. I cannot say as to that.
Q. How was he dressed at the time the group was taken?
A. He was dressed in a light suit. Thin light goods.
Q. That was in the summer season?

A. Yes, sir. They were light color and light goods too.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him at that time as to ever having seen him before? A. I did.

Q. In whose presence? A. In the presence of the group.

Q. And where?

A. In my Gallery on that occasion. I called him, not knowing his name, my Texas friend. When we were first in the Gallery I told him that I was formerly in Texas myself, and at the time the group came up I called him my Texas friend and saluted him as such, not knowing his name.

Q. Where did you get the Tin Type from which you made this copy to-day marked number three?

A. I did not make that copy.

1642 Q. Then how do you know it is a copy of any Tin Type that you took?

A. I know that I took the Tin Type and I know that that is a copy of it.

Q. Well now state how you know that that is a copy of the Tin Type that you took?

A. I know that the original picture that I took of him was a Tin Type.

Q. Well, how do you know that "Exhibit Z, Geo Neuman" is a copy taken from that Tin Type?

A. I stated that the original picture was a Tin Type and that I took the original; that this is a photograph and not a Tin Type.

Q. Well, I am not asking anything about that, I ask you how do you know that this photograph is taken from that Tin Type rather than from any one hundred others which he might have had taken?

A. I took the original picture, but I do not know whether I can explain it to you or not.

Q. Well that is just exactly what I want you to do. Look at the photograph marked Exhibit Z, Geo. Herrman and state whether it is a photograph of a person or taken from some other photograph?

A. It is taken from another picture.

Q. How do you know that?

A. Because I took the original Tin Type and saw it afterwards when it was in that condition. (Witness showing the scratches, rubs and nitches from being carried in the pocket.)

Q. Did you ever see the Tin Type that you took of the person that you say was Hillmon after you delivered the two of them to him? A. I did.

Q. When and where?

A. After this dead body was brought to Lawrence and at my Gallery.

Q. Who brought them to you? A. Mr. R. J. Borgolthaus.

Q. Where did you first see the photograph marked Exhibit Z, Geo. Herrman?

A. When did I first see the photograph?

Q. Yes; this one that I hold in my hand?

A. That is a hard question to say, when I first saw it. I have seen it a hundred of times. I do not know as I can say when I first saw it.

Q. Your deposition was taken in this case gefore Geo. Herrman, a Notary Public at Pasadena, was it not? A. It was.

Q. When?

A. To the best of my recoilection it was the summer of 1887.

Q. Was that the first time your deposition was ever taken in any of the cases brought by Sallie E. Hillmon against this or any other insurance company?

A. It was not the first time.

Q. Well, it was the first time your testimony was 1643 ever taken out of Court? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many times have you testified in this case?

A. Three different times, before three different Courts and this is the second time my deposition is being taken.

Q. When was the last time that you testified in Court in this case? A. Four years and a half ago.

Q. It was after your deposition had been taken in Pasadena? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the time that you saw Hillmon at Dr. Morse's office, had he his hat on or off? A. He had it on.

Q. You went to Kansas for the purpose of testifying in this case from Pasadena? A. I did.

Q. How much were you paid by the defendant or its agents or attorneys for so doing?

A. My mileage fees amounted to about one hundred seventy-five dollars.

Q. Now, will you answer the question that I have asked you? I have not asked you how much your mileage fees came to, I have asked you how much you were paid?

A. One Hundred Seventy-five Dollars, I do not know the exact amount, now.

Q. By whom was it paid?

A. Well, Mr. Green sent me a check for a portion of it and the balance of it was paid me in Court-room at Topeka.

Q. By whom was the money paid?

A. I do not know whether it was the Clerk of the Court or not. The party who paid all the rest paid me. There was a check for Ninety dollars sent me here by Mr. Green and the balance was paid there.

Q. How much balance?

A. Well, I do not know. About Eighty-five dollars was paid there I cannot get the exact figures because I haven't them with me.

Q. How much were you paid and by whom at any other time?

A. I cannot give the amount during the attendance at the other Courts. I do not remember the number of days I served nor the exact amount of mileage. I could approximate it I suppose. No, I do not remember the exact amount.

Q. Can you give any other amounts that have been paid you for testifying in this case?

A. You mean for testifying before the Courts?

Q. My question is plain is it not?

1644 A. Well, I might infer the Court or the Affidavit that I made.

Q. I mean just what I say, for testifying.

A. I think it was Five dollars I was paid for my time at Pasadena.

Q. Well, what other sums of money have been paid you?

A. I could only approximate the amount.

Q. Well, give it as near as you can?

A. I think at the first trial, it was Ten or Twelve dollars. The second trial about the same. The mileage was a little more. I was then at Baldwin City. I should say probably Twelve or Fifteen dollars for the second trial.

Q. Now, what other amounts have you been paid by this defendant, The Connecticut Life Insurance Company or New York Life Insurance Co.? A. That is all.

Q. Were you furnished a railroad ticket or pass to Kansas when you went there to testify A. I bought my own ticket.

Q. Out of the money that had been sent you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you been promised any money for testifying in additional to that that has been already paid for?

A. I have not.

Q. When you saw Hillmon in August or eSptember, 1878 at the time the picture of the group was taken, how did he wear his beard at that time if he had any?

A. He wore it as he did in the Spring, moustache and goatee. What I mean by goatee is the chin whiskers.

Q. Well then, you mean that he had whiskers from each side of his mouth down? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And how did he wear his beard at the time you saw him at Dr. Morse's office in February or March, 1879?

A. The same way.

Q. Now, will you tell us how it is that you recollect so minutely occurrences that took place fourteen years ago, not knowing the name of the party at the time you took the Tin Type?

A. The circumstances of the case would help me to remember. I would not remember the name now nor the face but for the circumstances of the case.

Q. When and where did you become acquainted with Sallie E. Hillmon, the plaintiff?

A. At the time the dead body appeared at Lawrence.

Q. Did you take these photographs numbered one and two before the body had been buried? A. I did not.

Q. How long after its burial were they taken?

1645 A. I do not remember the number of days. It was buried several days before.

Q. Had the body been buried or simply put in a vault?

A. It had been buried.

Q. At whose instance did you make these photographs?

A. At the instance of the agent of the Insurance Companies.

Q. Was you present at the burial of the person alleged to be John W. Hillmon? A. I was not.

Q. Did you know where he was buried? A. I did not.

Q. How did you know then that this was the same person that was alleged to be John W. Hillmon? whose photographs are represented by numbers one and two?

A. I do not know as it was.

Q. Had the corpse been taken out of the ground before you went there?

A. It was taken out of the ground while I was there.

Q. Do you know whether or not it had been embalmed before burial? A. I do not. I think not.

Q. At the time was it very much decomposed?

A. It showed signs of decomposition.

Q. Where are the negatives from which numbers one and two were taken?

A. I am not positive as to where they are.

Q. Did Sallie E. Hillmon, the plaintiff, or any of the friends of the plaintiff get any notice that this corpse was to be exhumed and the photographs taken?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. What date in May were these photographs taken?

A. I cannot give the date as to when they were taken.

Q. Well, as nearly as you can?

A. Well, I should say the latter part of April. My impression is that it was the latter part of April.

Q. What persons were present when these photographs were taken at Oak Hill Cemetery?

A. Mr. Chas. W. Smith, Mr. A. L. Selig, Doctors Miller and Stewart and other parties whose names I did not learn.

Q. Then you were employed by the agent of the insurance companes, who was that? A. Mr. A. M. Selig.

Q. Then you were employed by Mr. Selig to take the photographs of a corpse [corpse] that they would produce at this grave yard, were you? A. Yes.

1646 Q. And you went to the cemetery? A. Yes.

Q. In how many different positions did you take photographs of the corpse? A. Two.

Q. Did you take it more than once in each of these posi? tions?

A. I first took an impression of the first position which was a failure on account of the coffin being slightly jarred and gave a blurred picture. We then made the coffin more firm and you see the result in number two.

Q. The one marked number two, did you raise the head?

A. Yes, we raised it to come above the top of the coffin.

Q. It was an open coffin?

A. Yes, I think it was made of inch or seven-eighths lumber.

Q. Now, the appearance of a photograph can be very much changed in the finishing of it can it not?

A. Not very much.

Q. After photograph number one was taken and before number two was taken, was the nose straightened any?

A. It was.

By whom? A. I think it was Doctor Miller.

Q. What was done to change the appearance by Dr. Miller, if anything?

A. Nothing but simply straightening up the nose.

Q. Did he apply anything to keep it in position?

A. No; he did not.

Q. Did you notice at the time you took the Tin Type whether or not the hair of Hillmon curled?

A. I think it waived slightly right here in front.

Q. Were the ends curly? A. They were not.

Q. You remember that distinctly, do you? A. Yes.

Q. Was his mustache curled? A. It was not.

Q. Was his hair long or short at the time you took the Tin Type?

A. It was fairly long. It was so as not to give the impression of its being very long.

Q. Had he been recently shaved? Or his hair cut?

A. He was recently shaved.

Q. Well, had he his hair cut recently?

A. I could not tell in regard to the hair.

Q. The corpse, the photographs of which you took, could you tell whether it had been shaved after death?

1647 A. It was shaved very soon before death or just after, I would judge.

Q. About [—] long [as] his beard at the time you took the photographs of the corpse?

A. It was very short. Very close to the face.

Examination in Rebuttal

By J. W. Green, Esq.:

Q. You state that you learned that this was John W. Hillmon from R. J. Borgolthaus, will you state the circumstances under which you learned from him that this was Hillmon?

A. He came into my gallery and showed me the original of that Tin Type which I took and asked me if I had taken that. He then asked me if I believed that was the picture of a dead man that I had photographed. I told him it was not. He then requested me to say nothing about it.

Q. Who was R. J. Borgolthaus?

A. He was an attorney, of Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. Do you know whether he was representing Sallie E. Hillmon at that time?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendant at the time duly excepted.

A. I think he was.

Q. You were asked by counsel in regard to several sums which you have received as compensation at the several times you have given evidence in this case. Were you ever given by either the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, the New York Life Insurance Company or the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company anything more than your mileage and per diem for attending and giving your evidence at any time?

A. I was not.

Q. Did you ever ask of them anything more than that which you were entitled to for attending and giving evidence in the case? A. No.

Q. Do you remember how many days you were present at either the first or second trials of this case? A. No, I do not.

Q. You say that Sallie E. Hillmon or her representatives was not notified of the taking of those pictures you took of that corpse at Lawrence to your knowledge. Do you know whether she was or not or anything about it? A. I do not.

Q. Was the corpse of which you took the Negative at Oak Hill Cemetery in the summer of 1879, the corpse of the person whose Tin Types you took in the Spring of 1878, whom you afterward learned to be John W. Hillmon?

Guthrie: Objected to as not rebutting, incompetent, irrelevant, leading and asking for a conclusion of the witness and for the further reason that the question has already 1648 been asked and answered and the answer was "no."

Green: I will withdraw the question.

Q. State whether or not the corpse of which you took two negatives at Oak Hill Cemetery in the spring of 1879 was the corpse of the person of whom you took the two Tin Types in the spring of 1878 and who you afterwards learned to be John W. Hillmon? A. It was not.

Examination in Sur-Rebuttal

By F. B. Guthrie, Esq.:

Question. You state that you received a check of Mr. Green for ninety dollars, was that acompanied by a letter from Mr. Green. Answer. It was.

Q. Have you that letter? A. Possibly I have at home.

Q. Will you produce it next Wednesday when you come to look over your testimony and sign it?

A. If I have it, I will.

Q. In case you do not find it, I will ask you if you remember the contents of it and if so, give it to us?

A. It stated that I would find the amount enclosed and that I should appear at Topeka as a witness on the 6th of March, 1888.

Q. When did you last see that letter?

A. I have not read the letter for several years.

Q. That is not my question, when did you last see it?

A. Not for several years?

Q. Do you file away your letters? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have communication with anybody else in regard to your going to Topeka as a witness? A. I did not.

Q. Either verbal or written communication? A. No.

Witness: I wish to correct my testimony in regard to mentioning of Mr. Hillmon's sister who was one of the group who came to have their picture taken, I meant to say that it was a sister of Mrs. Hillmon, the plaintiff, instead of Mr. Hillmon's. Where I testified it was the last of April the photographs were taken, I wish to say that it was in the month of April instead of the last of April.

Question by Mr. Green: You cannot tell whether it was the last of April or as late as May can you?

A. I think it was the middle of April.

Q. Question by Mr. Gutrie: Has not your recollection been refreshed now by the conversation that has taken place here in this room since your deposition was begun?

Answer. My recollection was that the person was killed about the middle of March and when you ask me in regard to

May, I know that would draw it too late. I know that it was not so long as that the body had been dead, but it was nearly three weeks from the time that the body had been dead 1649 to the time it was photographed.

Guthrie: Well, now, will you undertake to fix the time the body was brought to Lawrence and buried?

Answer: I will not.

Guthrie: Do you know whether or not the body had been buried in the Southwestern part of Kansas before being taken to Lawrence?

Answer. I know it had been buried there. I was informed so.

Guthrie: Whom did you learn that from?

Answer. I cannot name the party from whom I learned that. It was the general talk and I heard it, but from who I don't know.

W. H. LAMON.

1650 Martin Metsker, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly affirmed to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You may state your name, please.

A. Martin W. Metsker.

Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Metsker?

A. Marion Township, Douglas County.

Q. About how many miles is that from Lawrence, Mr. Metsker? A. About eighteen miles.

Q. Where were you residing in the year 1878?

A. About the same place I do at present; one mile further west.

Q. In the same township and county? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, did you become acquainted at any time in the year 1878, with a man by the name of Frederick A. Walters, or Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you meet Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. At my place.

Q. What is your business? A. Farmer.

Q. How did you come to meet this man, Frederick Adolph Walters? A. He came there to work for me.

Q. About what time in the year, do you remember did he come there to work? A. In August.

Q. About how long did he remain with you, if you remember? A. About six weeks.

Q. What was he doing during that time, during that six weeks? A. We were making fence.

Q. General farm work?
A. Yes, general farm work, making hay, threshing, etc.
Q. Did you learn from whence he came?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for hearsay.
By the Court: The objection is sustained unless he knows himself; this question involves a statement of what was told him.

1651 To which ruling of the court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. Now, what was the condition of this man's health while he was with you, Mr. Metsker?
A. He was not very well; he had been sick.
Q. Could you give a general description of this man Walters; how tall was he, could you say?
A. Why something like close to six feet, I should think.
Q. Do you remember the color of his hair?
A. His hair was black.
Q. Can you tell the color of his eyes?
A. No, I could not.
Q. The shape of his nose?
A. He had a Roman nose that was a little higher at the center than it was at the end.
Q. What, if any beard did he wear at that time?
A. He had a mustache was all.
Q. Did you ever notice his teeth? A. Yes sir.
Q. What character of teeth did he have?
A. He had good teeth.
Q. What was his build?
A. He was a rather spare built man.
Q. Could you tell about his hand?
A. He had a long slim hand with long bony fingers.
Q. How about his feet; did you notice those?
A. I could not say in regard to his feet.
Q. Where was your postoffice address at that time?
A. Aladdin.
Q. About how far was that from your place?
A. About three-quarters of a mile.
Q. Who was postmaster at that time?
A. Henry Webber.
Q. You may state whether this party received and sent letters? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you notice the postmark of any of those letters as to where they were sent from?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for secondary evidence. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. No, I did not.

Q. Now, where did he make his home during the time that he was in your neighborhood?

A. At my place.

1652 Q. Boarded in your family? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you know where he had his washing done?

A. He had his washing down at Adam Tuttle's.

Q. How often did you see this man while he was there at your place? A. Every day.

Q. Now, Mr. Metsker, I will ask you to look at the pictures now shown you, which have been marked Exhibit 29 and Exhibit 30, and state if you recognize those as the picture of any person you have known in life, and if so, state of whom.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I recognize the side view more plainly than I do the other.

Q. What do you say as to the other?

A. The other one does not show his nose so plain; does not look as plainly to me as the side view.

Q. Now, Mr. Metsker, when did you first see those pictures, or pictures similar to those, if you remember?

A. Sometime before the first trial here in 1882; I could not say positively when.

Q. Who showed them to you at that time, if you remember? A. Henry Webber.

Q. Now, were you present at the first trial of this case?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you been at each trial since?

A. Every one except one.

Q. Where were you at that time?

A. In California.

Q. Do you remember which trial that was, whether one held in Leavenworth or one held in Topeka?

A. The first one held in Topeka.

Q. Now, do you remember, Mr. Metsker, about the time that Frederick Adolph Walters left your place?

A. Why, about the last of September.

Q. Do you know where he went?

A. He said he was going to—

Q. Have you any knowledge of where he went except what he told you?

1653 A. He told me he was going to Lawrence.

Q. Have you ever seen him since that time, since the time he left your place? A. No sir.

Q. Ever heard from him? A. No sir.

And in answer to cross interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. When did you say you first saw this man who called himself Walters? A. In August.

Q. Of what year? A. 1878.

Q. Did he work on your farm? A. Yes sir.

Q. How long did he work there?

A. He was there about six weeks; he did not work all the time.

Q. You never saw him before? A. No sir.

Q. And you never saw him afterwards? A. No sir.

Q. You have been shown a picture here, and the side view, you say that you recognize? A. Yes sir.

Q. You think it resembles Walters? A. Yes sir.

Q. The front view you don't recognize?

A. It does not look so natural.

Q. Well you don't recognize it at all, do you?

A. Nothing but the forehead looks natural as I can see.

Q. You think it looks natural; what do you mean by that? It looks like a man alive that you had seen? A. Yes sir.

Q. Can you point out anything in the forehead of the picture different from the forehead of any other dead man; what is the characteristic about that forehead that you say looks natural?

A. He has got a high forehead, and his teeth show there which makes some resemblance.

Q. He has got a high forehead and his teeth show and that makes it look something like Walters?

A. Yes sir.

1654 Q. There is plenty of men who have high foreheads and who show their teeth, is there not? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say that you have testified at each trial, Mr. Metsker: Didn't you testify at the last trial in answer to my question that you did not recognize this front view at all?

A. I could not say positively about that; I don't know.

Q. Will you say to this jury now that looking at that picture of the cadaver, that you recognize that as a picture of any person you ever saw? A. No more than what I said.

Q. Just simply because the picture has a high forehead and its teeth show, you think it is Walters; that is all, is it not? A. That is all I can see.

Q. You have had a good many men working for you from time to time? A. Yes sir.

Q. Some of them had high foreheads, didn't they?

A. Why, I suppose so; I couldn't pick out any particular one.

Q. There was nothing peculiar about this man more than any other man that worked for you, was there; he had no peculiarities, that distinguished him from either men?

A. I don't know.

Q. When he left there he went to Lawrence, you were told by him, and that is the last you ever heard of him?

A. Yes sir.

Q. The last you ever saw him? A. Yes sir.

And in answer to re-direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You say you had other men at work for you that had high foreheads; if you should meet those men on the streets of Lawrence, would you be able to distinguish one from the of Lawrence, and at the same time meet Walters on the streets of Lawrence, would you be able to distinguish one from the other?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

1655 A. Yes sir.

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You say that if you saw a man walking on the streets of Lawrence, and you were acquainted with him, you would know him; that is what you mean to say?

A. Yes, by his appearance.

Q. If you saw him walking on the streets and you were acquainted with him, you would know him, by his appearance? A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

1656 Mary E. Metsker, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly affirmed to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name, please. A. Mary E. Metsker.

Q. Are you the wife of Martin Metsker who just testified?

A. Yes.

Q. You reside with him in Marion township, Douglas county, Kansas? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember of meeting a young man by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes sir.

Q. In the year 1878? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you meet him? A. Met him at our home.

Q. Where was that at that time?
A. Marion township, Douglas county.
Q Now, you met him at your home under what circumstances and conditions? A. He came there to hire.
Q. How long did he stay there?
A. About six weeks as near as I can tell.
Q. What was he doing there while he was there?
A. He was doing general farm work.
Q. What was the condition of his health?
A. His health was not good.
Q. Was he there continuously during those six weeks, do you remember, Mrs. Metsker? A. Yes sir.
Q. How often did you see him?
A. I saw him every day while he was there.
Q. Boarded at your house, did he? A. Yes sir.
Q. Took his meals there? A. Yes sir.
Q. Slept there? A. Yes sir.
Q. About what time did he leave there, if you remember?
A. About the latter part of September, as near as I can tell.
Q. Now, could you give a description of this man
1657 Frederick Adolph Walters?
A. He was a tall, slim man.
Q. Do you remember the color of his hair?
A. He had dark hair, real dark or black.
Q. Do you remember the color of his eyes?
A. He had dark eyes.
Q. The nose: What was the shape if his nose?
A. He had a Roman nose.
Q. What, if any, beard did he wear?
A. He wore a mustache.
Q. What sort of a mustache was it, if you remember?
A. It was dark.
Q. As to length? A. Not very long.
Q. His teeth: Did you notice his teeth?
A. Yes sir; they appeared to be good.
Q. State whether or not he showed his teeth?
A. Yes, sir, he showed his teeth.
Q. And as to the color of his teeth?
A. His teeth were not as white as some peoples.
Q. As to the size, do you remember?
A. Just medium size.
Q. And as to his hands, do you remember; did you ever notice his hands?
A. Yes sir. He had a long, slim hand, rather bony, and long fingers.
Q. And his feet: Did you ever notice them?
A. I never noticed his feet.
Q. Now, do you know where he came from; where his home was, other than what he may have told you himself?

A. Iowa.
Q. Do you know what part of Iowa?
A. By what I heard him say he came from Iowa.

Stricken out on the motion of the plaintiff, the defendants duly excepting.

Q. Now, did he have his washing done at your house, Mrs. Metsker? A. No sir.
Q. Do you know where he did have it done? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where? A. Mr. Tuttle's.
1658 Q. Now, do you know whether he sent and received letters while he was at your house? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you ever notice the envelopes?
A. No, sir, I never saw his envelopes close by.
Q. You say he stayed there about six weeks?
A. Yes, sir, as near as I can tell.
Q. Did you take letters from the postoffice for him?
A. Indeed, I don't remember.
Q. Now, I will ask you Mrs. Metsker, to look at the pictures marked Exhibit No. 29 and Exhibit No. 30, and state if you recognize those as pictures of the body of any one you have known in life, and if so, please state who it is.
A. Yes, I recognize that more plainly than that.
Q. You recognize No. 30 more plainly than you do No. 29? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Well, what would you say of No. 29?
A. Well, I don't know as I could say very much about that.
Q. Now, as to No. 30; whose picture do you recognize that as?
A. Well, it resembles Mr. Fred Walters as near as I can tell.
Q. You think you see a resemblance in that to this Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember, Mrs. Metsker, when you first saw these pictures, or pictures similar?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Well, about 1882, as near as I can remember.
Q. Were you at the first trial of this case? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When was it as to the first trial of this case?
A. It was just a short time before the first trial; I could not tell exactly just how long.
Q. But it was sometime before that trial?
A. Yes, sir, sometime before the first trial.
Q. Where did you see them? [—] At our place.
1659 Q. Who had them there, if you remember?
A. Mr. Weber.

Q. Henry Weber? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, when and where did you last see this Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. The last time when he left our place; I never saw him after he left our place.

Q. Did you see the body that was brought back to Lawrence in the spring of 1879? A. No, sir.

Q. I think you said the last time you saw him was when he left your place in 1878? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear from him after he left your place?

A. No, sir.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. What is your recollection as to the time that this Mr. Walters came there to work at your place?

A. It was in August, sometime, 1878.

Q. And he stayed about a month?

A. About six weeks.

Q. He went away in September, and you didn't see him any more?

[Q.] No, not after he left, of course; he had gone to Lawrence and got medicine, and came back, and then stayed a short time.

Q. After he left finally, you did not see him again?

A. No, sir, I never saw him any more.

Q. As to this front view picture of the dead body, you say you haven't anything to say?

A. No, sir, I haven't anything to say.

Q. Don't see any resemblance in that to Mr. Walters?

A. Not much.

1660 Q. The other picture, you think, resembles in some respects, Mr. Walters? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What part of it, Mrs. Metsker, do you think looks like him? A. His forehead and his high cheek bones.

Q. The forehead and the high cheek bones? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Those are the features that seem to cause you to think there is a resemblance? A. Yes, sir.

Witness excused.

1661 Adam Tuttle, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name, Mr. Tuttle? A. Adam Tuttle.

Q. Where do you reside?

A. In Marion township, Douglas county, Kansas.

Q. How long have you lived there, Mr. Tuttle?
A. I have been there and in that neighborhood ever since the spring of 1864.
Q. Do you know Martin Metsker? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How far does he live from your place?
A. He lives just about one mile now.
Q. Do you remember where he was living in 1878?
A. Yes, sir, he was living about half a mile nearer to me, I believe at that time.
Q. You may state if you met a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes, sir, I did.
Q. Where did you meet him?
A. I met him at Martin Metsker's.
Q. What were you doing there, if anything?
A. I believe the first time I saw him I went there to help build some fence, fencing in a piece of land.
Q. Who was assisting you?
Q. Mr. Walters, and Mr. Metsker and a man by the name of Huyl, I believe.
Q. About what time in the year was this, do you remember?
A. If I mistake not along about the fore part of August, 1878.
Q. How long did you work there at that time?
A. Oh, I worked there at different times, every few days, I was helping whenever he needed some work he would call and I would go and help him.
Q. You were not working there by the month at the time?
A. No, just by day's work.
Q. Now, how long did you see this young man there if you remember?
A. Well, he was there, around there something near six weeks, I think.
1662 Q. How frequently did you see him during this time?
A. I could not say exactly. I worked there several times and then he was at my place different times.
Q. Do you know where he had his washing done?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where? A. At my place.
Q. How far did you live at that time from Mr. Metsker's?
A. About half a mile.
Q. How frequently did you see him at your place?
A. Well, I saw him every Sunday; as a general thing he would bring his clothes and take away his clean clothes on Sunday.
Q. How long would he stay?

A. Well, he stayed sometimes, he would stay quite a while; he was there one whole Sunday nearly; that is he was not feeling well and stayed there.

Q. What did he carry his clothes in if you remember?

A. He had a kind of a sack made out of what I would call heavy canvass; he had his clothes in that.

Q. Did that sack, as you speak of it, have any marks on it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Any name?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for secondary evidence, and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. Did it have any name on it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What name? A. F. A. Walters was marked on the sack.

Q. Any place, do you remember? A. Sir?

Q. The name of any place on it?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading, and as calling for secondary evidence. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. I don't recollect of there being anything, anything more than Frederick A. Walters; that was in pretty large letters.

Q. Now, did you learn from whence he came in any other way than from him? Answer yes or no.

A. No, sir, I did not.

Q. Now, had this young man any tools with him?

1663 The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. He had some what he called tools for making cigars.

Q. State what he had?

A. He had a piece of marble, I call it a marble slab, not very thick, probably three-quarters or something like that, and probably 12 or 14 inches square and a knife.

Q. What sort of a knife was it?

A. It was a flat blade, probably about three quarters of an inch wide and probably about four long with a handle on it.

Q. Do you know what that was used for?

A. Used for making cigars.

Q. Did you see him make cigars?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Where was that? A. At Martin Metsker's?

Q. Where did he get the tobacco, if you know?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. There was a German man that had worked there and he had raised some tobacco, and they had cut it and hanged it up to cure and he took some of that tobacco and made a cigar from it and showed me how he made it.

Q. Did you see him more than that one time?

A. That was the only time I seen him making any.

Q. Now, in regard to these tools that he had with him, have you seen similar tools at other places?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

[Q.] I saw his tools at my place.

Q. Have you seen tools similar to those at other places?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where?

A. I seen them in the cigar factory at Lawrence.

1664 Q. Now, can you give us a description of this man?

A. Well, he was rather tall, what I call rather slender build man, not very heavy set, slim, pretty tall man.

Q. Do you remember the color of hair?

A. No, I couldn't say exactly the color of his hair.

Q. Do you remember the shape of his nose?

A. Yes, he had a—some would call it a Roman nose; there was a bulge in it here.

Q. Did you notice his teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What sort of teeth did he have?

A. He had good sound teeth.

Q. You may state whether or not he showed them plainly?

A. Yes, sir, he showed his teeth very plainly.

Q. What beard did he wear when you knew him?

A. I think he only wore a mustache; I won't be positive about that.

Q. What sort of a mustache was it? A. I can't tell you.

Q. Can you tell in regard to the heft of it?

A. That is something I can't state—the color of a person's hair; I can't give that.

Q. I am speaking now as to the heft and length of the mustache.

A. Oh, the length of it. Well, I couldn't say in regard to that exactly.

Q. Now, in regard to his hands; did you notice in regard to his hands?

A. Yes, sir, he had a long, slim hand, not as thin a hand as I have but longer.

Q. How about the fingers.

A. His fingers were long; kind of a long, slim hand.

Q. Was he fleshy or raw boned?

A. I would call him rather raw boned.

Q. Did you notice his feet?

A. Why, I couldn't say as I ever had noticed in particular to his feet.

Q. Did you know of his sending and receiving mail while he was there?

A. No, I can't say I did exactly. I heard him talking about getting letters.

Q. If you don't know of your own knowledge—

[—] No, I don't.

1665 Q. About what time did he leave there, if you remember, Mr. Tuttle?

A. I think that he left some place in September and went to Lawrence and was there a week or so.

Q. Did he return again, do you remember?

A. Yes, sir, he was there, came from Lawrence to my place to get his clothes; some that he had left there and went away.

Q. Where did he go from your place at that time if you know?

A. Well, he started off and told me he was going southwest; I didn't ask him where to or anything of the kind; he started off in in that direction.

Q. In what direction is Marion township from Lawrence?

A. Southwest of Lawrence.

Q. About how far?

A. Well, it is about 14 miles to the corner of Marion township, to the northeast of the township.

Q. To where you lived how far was it?

A. 18 miles from my place to Lawrence.

Q. At that time you say he came to your house to get his washing? A. Yes, sir.

Q. His clothes? A. He had his washing done there.

Q. And went away? A. And went away.

Q. Have you ever heard from him since? A. No, sir.

Q. Have you ever seen him since?

A. Never seen him since.

Q. Will you look at these pictures, exhibit 30, and No. 29, and state if you recognize those as the pictures of the body of any one whom you have known in life, and if so, who that person was. A. Yes.

Q. If you recognize them, state.

A. Well, sir, that is Frederick A. Walters.

Q. Do you know when you first saw those pictures or pictures like them?

A. I could not say just exactly the time when I first saw them.

Q. Well, were you a witness at the first trial of this case?
A. I was. I was a witness on the first trial here in 1666 Leavenworth.
Q. Was it before that time?
A. It was before that time sometime; I couldn't say how long but it was a while before the first trial here.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:
Q. You were here at the first trial you say, Mr. Tuttle?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That was before Judge Foster?
A. I don't recollect the name of the judge.
Q. That was in 1882 was it not?
A. Along about that time.
Q. That was some four years after you had seen this young man Walters in your neighborhood, was it?
A. Something like that.
Q. You had only seen this picture a short time before that trial? A. Yes sir.
Q. So that some three years, between three and four years elapsed after you saw this young man out there in that neighborhood when you saw these pictures of the corpse?
A. Yes sir.
Q. I understand you to say you don't remember how he wore his beard or whether he had any beard or only a mustache? A. I said I could not state exactly.
Q. I say you don't remember and you can't state whether when he was out there he wore a beard or only a mustache; is that right?
A. I said I could not state exactly; that was something I could not state exactly.
Q. Now, then, this man that you saw out there, you can't say whether he wore a beard or whether he wore only a mustache? A. I said I thought he wore a mustache.
Q. You said you could not tell, you didn't remember; don't you remember stating that every time?
A. No, I don't think; I could not remember.
Q. What do you say now?
A. I say I can't say what he wore.
Q. You can't say? A. No.
Q. Well, then, you don't remember, do you? Now,
1667 going back to the time when you saw this young man out there, how does your memory operate in that respect; do you see him with a beard on or do you see him without any beard?

A. I see his general appearance the same as I would you; I haven't seen you since the last trial, but I know you when I see you.

Q. I merely, Mr. Tuttle, desire, to learn from you, when you look back, now, at the time this young man was out there in the neighborhood and you saw him often in your own walk about that neighborhood, what is your memory as to whether he wore a beard or not; have you any recollection upon that subject?

A. I told you I couldn't recollect anything about his hair.

Q. Or beard?

A. Or beard, to be positive, I wouldn't say.

Q. You have stated that upon every trial of this case, where you have been a witness, have you not, that you could not remember whether he wore a beard or not?

A. Yes sir, I think I have.

Q. You never saw these pictures here until nearly four years after you had seen him last? A. Yes sir.

Q. That is right, and yet looking at these pictures, and without remembering whether he wore a beard or not, you say you can recognize in these pictures Mr. Walters?

A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

1668 Philip Huyl, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name. A. Philip Huyl.

[—] Where do you reside?

A. In Clinton township, Douglas county, Kansas.

Q. What is your business? A. Farming.

Q. Where did you reside in 1878?

A. I was not residing any place. I was working around then.

Q. Do you know Martin Metsker? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you work for him at any time during the year 1878?

A. Yes.

Q. How were you working? A. By the day.

Q. Did you ever meet a young man by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you meet him?

A. At Martin Metsker's.

Q. About when was that?

A. Sometime the latter part of September 1878.

Q. Where was he living at that time you met him?

A. He was working for Martin Metsker at the same time.

Q. How long did you work there with him?

A. About a week.
Q. How much did you see of him during that time?
A. I worked with him every day I was there.
Q. Did you see him after you left there ?
A. I saw him once after.
Q. When was that?
A. I was building a stable for Mr. Longnecker about half way between Metsker's and Lawrence, and he came along there and got his dinner there while I was working there.
Q. Did you see him afterwards? A. No sir.
Q. About when was that that you saw him at Longnecker's?
A. It was sometime the latter part of October or the fore part of November; I couldn't say which month.
1669 Q. Now, did you learn where he was from from any other source that his own statement? A. No sir.
Q. Did you ever see any letters which were addressed to him? A. No sir.
Q. Can you describe this man Walters?
A. Why, he was a slim, tall man, very near six feet tall.
Q. Do you remember the color of his hair?
A. He had dark hair, very dark hair.
Q. Do you remember the color of his eyes?
A. I don't remember the color of his eyes because I never looked at his eyes.
Q. Do you remember the shape of his nose?
A. He had a large Roman nose.
Q. Did you ever observe his teeth? A. Yes sir.
Q. What character of teeth did he have?
A. He had sound teeth and even.
Q. Did he show his teeth prominently? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you remember his hand?
A. He had a long slim hand, and long slim fingers.
Q. Did you see him have any tools? A. No sir.
Q. You may look at these pictures which are marked Exhibits 29 and 30 and state if those are pictures of any person whom you have known in life, and if so, state who that person was.
A. The front view is the one I recognize.
Q. Whom you recognize it as?
A. Frederick A. Walters.
Q. The same Frederick A. Walters that you met out there at Metsker's? A. Yes sir.
Q. And of whom you have been speaking? A. Yes sir.
Q. Is this the one you recognize? A. Yes sir.
Q. The picture marked Exhibit 30. (Side view.)

1670 Cross Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. When was it that you went to work there, Mr. Huyl?

A. It was in the latter part of September, 1878.

Q. The last week in September?

A. Well, I couldn't tell you; it must have been.

Q. It must have been in the last week of September?

A. It was between the middle and the last of Septembe some time.

Q. When you went there this man Walters was at wor there?

A. He had worked there and there at the time I went ther

Q. How long did he stay there?

A. I could not say how long he stayed there for I left week after I went there.

Q. You stayed there only a week?

A. Just a week, yes sir.

Q. He was working there during that time? A. Yes si

Q. Then he went away and you didn't see see him an more? A. I saw him once after that.

Q. Where.

A. I was building a stable at Mr. Longnexker's.

Q. How long afterwards?

A. The latter part of October or the fore part of Novembe I couldn't remember which.

Q. What was he doing then?

A. He stopped there to get his dinner on his way to go Tuttle's after his clothes.

Q. You are sure it was in October or November you sa him going to Tuttle's?

A. Yes, I am sure it was one of those two months.

Q. About how far was it from Tuttle's?

A. About half way between Tuttle's and Lawrence.

Q. How far was that? A. About nine miles, I suppose.

Q. It was in November or December, you say, this san man you called Walters about half way between Longnecker and Tuttle's?

A. No sir, I said the latter part of October or fore part November.

Q. You just saw him going along the road at that time?

A. No sir.

Q. Where did you see him?

A. I was building a stable there and I was working at t stable and he came to me and wanted me to change him son money.

1671 Q. I am not asking you what he wanted; where we you when you saw him? A. I was building a stab

Q. How long did he stay there? A. Not very long.

Q. That was in the fall of 1878? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you never saw him any more? A. No sir.
Q. You never saw any picture of him for four years did you? A. No sir.
Q. Were you a witness on the first trial of this case?
A. No sir.
Q. When were you first a witness on the trial of this case?
A. The second trial.
Q. In the second trial in 1885; that was seven years after you had seen him? A. Yes sir.
Q. That was the first time you ever saw pictures of this cadaver? A. Yes sir.
Q. You say that after the expiration of that seven years you recognized this as being a picture of a man you had seen a few times seven years before? A. Yes sir.
Q. I will get you to examine a picture here which is marked Exhibit 10, and state whether you ever saw—if you recognize that as a man you ever saw?

The defendants and each of them object to the question as not proper cross examination. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.

A. No sir.
Q. I will show you a picture which will be marked Exhibit No. 33; I will get you to state whether you ever saw that man before.

The defendants and each of them object to the question as not proper cross examination. Objection overruled, each of the defendants duly excepting.

Q. Did you ever see that man before? A. No sir.
Q. Never did? A. No sir.
Q. I will show you a picture which will be marked
1672 Exhibit 34 and get you to state whether you ever saw that man before?

The defendants and each of them object to the question as incompetent, and not proper cross examination. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.
A. No sir.

By Mr. Hutchings: I want to let the jury examine that picture (33) that he says he never saw the original of.

Q. What is your recollection about whether this man Walters wore a mustache? A. He wore a short mustache.
Q. Did he wear any beard? A. No sir.
Q. You say he had a Roman nose? A. Yes sir.
Q. Was his nose turned to one side out of the medium line?
A. No.

Q. You are sure about that? A. Not that I remember.
Q. You remember that he had a large—
A. A large nose, high bridge on his nose.
Q. He had a high bridged nose? A. Yes sir.
[—] In your direct examination you called it a very large Roman nose? A. Called it a Roman nose.
Q. A large Roman nose? A. Yes sir.
Q. Was it thick through the top here or was it sharp?
Q. It was rather a little pointed.
Q. Now, if the nose had been bent a little on the end, you would have noticed it, if it had been a crooked nose?
A. Well, I don't know whether I would or not.

Re-Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. I understood you to say you never saw the person whose picture is represented in Exhibit No. 34?
A. No sir, I don't believe I have ever seen him.

Witness excused.

1673 Henry Webber, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name, please?
A. My name is Henry Webber.
Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Webber?
A. I reside in Overbrook, Osage county, Kansas.
Q. Where were you residing in 1878?
A. Marion township, Douglas County.
Q. In what place?
A. On a farm in Marion township, Douglas county.
Q. Did you know a postoffice there by the name of Aladdin? A. Yes sir, it was my residence.
Q. Who was postmaster? A. I was.
Q. Now, did you ever meet a young man by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where did you meet him?
A. I met him at my place, at my residence.
Q. About when was that?
A. It was along in the summer of 1878.
Q. Do you remember what part of the summer, Mr. Webber?
A. I could not say positively but I should judge perhaps it was along in August or perhaps September; I could not say positively.

Q. What was the occasion of your meeting him?
A. He came there for letters and to mail letters.
Q. State whether or not he received letters there at your place? A. Yes sir.
Q. At your postoffice? A. Yes sir.
Q. Mailed letters also? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you ever observe from what place he received letters? A. He received letters from Medicine Lodge.
Q. Medicine Lodge?

By Mr. Hutchings: What State A. Iowa.

1674 Q. You mean Medicine Lodge?
A. I think it was Medicine Lodge.

By Mr. Hutchings: We object to the question as to where they came from. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. Let me ask you to refresh your recollection, do you say Fort Madison?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. No ruling.

A. Excuse me; I was mistaken.

By Mr. Hutchings: How can this witness testify to that, your Honor?

A. I saw the postmark of the letter.

By the Court: My recollection is that I allowed similar evidence on behalf of the plaintiff with reference to a letter that was delivered to John W. Hillmon by the postmaster at Medicine Lodge. I thought it was competent then and I think it is now.

Q. About how long did he receive letters there, Mr. Webber?
A. Well, I should judge—I couldn't say positively, but I suppose it was six weeks or perhaps two months; I could not be positive with regard to the length of time.
Q. Did you meet him at any other place than your office?
A. Not at that time, sir.
Q. Now, how often was he at your place?
A. Well, he came there sometimes some two or three or three or four times a week for mail and left letters, but after that he was there pretty near every day when he was sick and stayed sometimes very near all day.
Q. Do you know where he was living at the time he was receiving letters at your postoffice?
A. He was living at Martin Metsker's.
Q. How far was Martin Metsker's from your place?
A. About three-quarters of a mile, sir.

Q. Do you remember about how many people received mail at your office?

A. Well, I could not say positively, but I suppose there was perhaps 25 or 30 families received mail there.

Q. Will you please describe this man Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. He was about 5 feet, 11, or 6 feet built in proportion with dark curly hair and dark mustache.

1675 Q. Was it long or short?

A. Now, I could not say with regards to that.

Q. How about his teeth?

A. As far as I could see—I never examined his teeth but only when he would speak his upper lip would curl somewhat and show his teeth.

Q. How, as to his nose, do you remember in regard to his nose?

A. Yes, sir, it was rather high, rather prominent here.

Q. Had a bridge? A. Had a bridge, yes, sir.

Q. His hands, do you remember his hands?

A. No, I don't.

Q. Now, do you remember the time he left there?

A. I think it must have been in October, sir.

Q. What year? A. 1878.

Q. Did you see him afterwards? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you see him?

A. I saw him on Massachusetts street, Lawrence, right north of the Eldridge House.

Q. About how long after that was you saw him?

A. I should judge it was a month after he left our neighborhood.

Q. When was the last time you ever saw him?

A. That was the last time I ever saw him, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear from him afterwards? A. No, sir.

Q. Did any letters come to your postoffice for him afterwards?

A. I don't think there was any letters that ever came after that; I don't remember that there was.

Q. Did he leave any direction to which you were to forward letters? A. Not to my recollection, sir.

Q. Did you ever see him in any other position than erect?

A. Yes.

Q. Where was that?

A. I saw him one day lying on my porch as I came up to the house on the north side of my door reclining with his coat under his head for a pillow.

Q. What was the condition of his health, do you remember at that time?

A. It was very poor, sir; the man had been sick a long time and was sick then.

1676 Q. How was he built, Mr. Webber, his form?
A. I could not say; I supposed pretty near perfect for a man of his height; he stood very straight.
Q. What was his condition as to flesh?
A. He was poor, sir, at that time; very thin in flesh.
Q. Look at the pictures numbers 29 and 30 and state if they are photographs of a body you have known in life, and if so, state who that person was? A. Yes, sir, I saw that—
Q. Whom do you recognize it as?
A. As Walters, the very man that was lying on my porch in that same position.
Q. In which picture? A. The front view.
Q. No. 29? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What do you say of No. 30?
A. Well, that don't look so natural to me, the side view, for I never saw him in that position; I saw him in that front view, you know.
Q. Where were you when you saw him in that position, Mr. Webber?
A. I had been away from home and was returning, and as I opened my gate—I suppose my gate was about two rods from my house—
Q. Never mind the gate.
A. I am only explaining if you please.
Q. How far was your gate from your porch?
A. I guess about two rods.
Q. When you saw him what were you doing?
A I was walking up to the house.
Q. How high was the porch?
A. I should judge the porch was perhaps two feet from the earth. I had a gravel walk from the gate up to the porch and as I came up the gravel walk I saw a man lying there, and I thought he was a stranger.

The plaintiff moves to strike out what the witness thought. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepted.

Q. Did you know John W. Hillmon? A. No, sir.

1677 Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:
Q. You say you saw Mr. Walters once after he went to Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When was that?
A. That was in October, about the last of October, I think.
Q. Of 1878? A. 1878, yes, sir.
Q. You never saw him any more? A. No, sir.
Q. You were a witness in the first trial of this case and all the subsequent trials, were you not?

A. I think so, that is with the exception of one, I was in California at that time.

Q. At the time you saw the postmark on letters he got, did you make any memorandum of it?

A. I made no particular memorandum, sir, but handed him the—

Q. You handed him the letters? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You claim you took particular notice of the post mark?

A. Yes.

Q. You remembered that some four years afterwards when you were first called upon the witness stand in this case?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. There were other persons who received letters at your office? A. Yes, sir, a good many.

Q. Can you remember the postmark on any other letter you ever delivered? A. I think I can.

Q. Give us the postmark on any other letter you ever delivered in the year 1878?

A. I have delivered letters to several of my neighbors with postmarks that I remember.

Q. Well.

A. I have delivered letters to Martin Metsker with postmarks from Lawrence.

Q. In what year? A. Oh, I don't know.

Q. You know that because Martin Metsker lived there in the neighborhood and did business in Lawrence; you remember his getting letters from Lawrence?

A. Certainly I remember.

Q. This man was a stranger when he came to the post-office there the first time, was he not? A. Yes, sir.

1678 Q. And he came there how many times?

A. I couldn't say; he was there some three or four times a week for the mail at the time he was working but after that he was there very nearly every day at my place.

Q. You got some of these pictures of this cadaver and took them out in that neighborhood and exhibited them around?

A. I had them there.

Q. And you were about the neighborhood showing those pictures?

A. Only to people that I knew was acquainted with him.

Q. You did that at the request of the insurance companies?

A. At the request of Mr. Barker.

Q. Now, you remember testifying at the last trial of this case? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You remember that some photographs were shown you other than these two? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You remember being shown a picture of Mr. Walters in his life, do you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you did not recognize it?
A. I told you I thought it was—
Q. When you were shown a picture that was represented to be Mr. Walters in his life, you did not recognize it at the last trial of this case? A. I think you are mistaken about that.
Q. Will you swear that you were not shown a photograph of Mr. Walters at the last trial of this case and said that you did not recognize to be a picture of any one you had ever known? A. I could not say.
Q. I will ask you if you did not say that you did not recognize that as a picture of any person you had ever seen?
A. I don't remember.
Q. You remember several pictures being presented to you, do you not, as being pictures of this cadaver? A. I do not.
Q. You don't remember that even?
A. Not that I remember.
Q. I thought you said in answer to a question put to 1679 you a little while ago that you did remember several other pictures were shown you?
A. No, I don't know as I did. I don't remember.
Q. Your memory is not very good, is it Mr. Webber?
A. Well, it is pretty good.
Q. You think it is pretty good? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have testified in this case six times? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you don't remember of ever having been shown a picture of Mr. Walters in his lifetime? A. I presume I have.
Q. What is your recollection? I will get you to state whether or not at the previous trials of this case you have not been shown pictures of Walters, and have testified that you did not recognize them as being the man you saw out there?
A. I don't know.
Witness excused.

The defendants and each of them move to strike out all the testimony of the witness with reference to pictures exhibited to him on other trials, as being incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and because the pictures have not been exhibited to him upon this trial. Motion overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

1680 The defendant next offered in evidence the testimony of Mrs. Matilda C. Gilmore given upon the trial in 1896. It is admitted by the parties that Mrs. Gilmore is not within the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereupon read to the court and jury and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Mrs. Matilda C. Gilmore, called on behalf of the defendants, being sworn, deposes and says:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your full name Mrs. Gillmore?

A. Matilda C. Gilmore.

Q. Where do you reside Mrs. Gilmore?

A. In North Topeka.

Q. Where were you residing in 1878?

A. Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. What was your name at that time? A. Mrs. Gilmore.

Q. You was? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were married before 1878? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you residing in 1878?

A. At the Central Hotel.

Q. Lawrence? A. Yes, sir, I was.

Q. Who was proprietor of that hotel?

A. My father, John Anderson—my step-father.

Q. Do you know how long he had been keeping the hotel at that time?

A. It seems to me about a year probably; I am not quite certain; I was not at home at the time he moved there.

Q. Do you remember a young man coming to the hotel there in the summer of 1878, by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you ascertain his name?

A. Well I was told there was such a person, and then I walked out and met him in the hall, and asked him if he was the person.

1681 Q. About what time in the year was it, Mrs. Gilmore, that this young man was at your father's hotel?

A. Well he was there twice.

Q. He was? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did he first come there, if you remember?

A. I am not positive; he was there in the spring and in the fall, but it has been quite a while ago and it is pretty hard to tell.

Q. What was the condition of his health at the time he was at your hotel? A. Well he was sick there.

Q. Do you know whether or not he was in the Dr's care at the time? A. I think he was.

Q. So he was there in the spring you think, and afterwards in the fall? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where he went to when he went in the spring? A. One time he went out in the country.

Q. Do you know whereabouts in the country?

A. No, sir, I have forgotten.

Q. And can you tell about the time he was there the second time?

A. Well it seems as though it was rather cool; it was a cool day when I saw him.

Q. The weather had become cool?
A. Yes, sir, and the first time the weather was very warm and the doors were open.
Q. Do you remember about how long he was there the first time?
A. No, sir, I didn't know anything about the boarders at all.
Q. And the second time? A. No, sir.
Q. And how often did you see him there, do you remember?
A. Well I saw him several times, but only two times that I recognized him or was interested in him.
Q. Did you have any conversation with him?
A. One time.
1682 Q. Did you notice anything in regard to his teeth at that time.
A. Yes, sir, I saw his teeth, more prominently than anything else.
Q. What was the character of his teeth?
A. They were good, large, yellowish white teeth, or rather creamy.
Q. Did you learn from him in any way where he was from?
A. He told me, but I couldn't tell whether I remember more than by what I heard afterwards so much.
Q. What is your recollection as to where he was from?
A. Well, it was somewhere east.
Q. Do you remember what state?
A. Well, I do not. He never mentioned any state; it was only the city, or whatever place he came from; I remember his mentioning a city or two.
Q. Do you remember the name of that city?
A. Not distinctly; I don't think I ever remembered it very distinctly, or paid any attention to it..
Q. Have you attended each of these trials, Mrs. Gilmore?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. The first one in Leavenworth? A. I think I did.
Q. Now you may look at these two exhibits C. and D. and state if you recognize these as pictures of anyone you knew in life? (Handing photographs to witness.)
A. I recognize the side view better than I do the front view --the mouth is more like—here I recognize the teeth in the front view; the side view is more the whole features or shape of the face.
Q. Whom do you say that is?
A. Well, it resembles Mr. Walters.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:
Q. That is, you think the side view does?

A. Yes, sir, I should recognize the side view quicker
1683 than the front view.

Q. And you say he came there first in the spring of 1878?

A. It was in 1878, and he was there twice; as to the exact time I couldn't be positive.

Q. What is your best recollection as to the season of the year that you first saw him?

A. Well it would be, it seems to be the first would be—it was windy I know and very hot and extremely windy, because he was not strong enough to go out anywhere.

Q. When he first came do you think it was spring—March or April?

A. May have been; on account of the weather I should judge.

Q. Early, about April; it was windy and somewhat inclement? A. No, sir; it was warm.

Q. Windy and warm weather? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And he at that time was sick? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did he stay there? A. I don't know.

Q. About how long?

A. I haven't any idea, because I never paid any attention to the boarders that came to the house?

Q. Do you remember how long he was gone before he came back? A. Might have been four or five months.

Q. Was he apparently in the best of health?

A. Well, may have been. He was better when I saw him the last time.

Q. You only saw him in the spring once?

A. That one time to recognize him.

Q. You don't remember now to have seen him, but one time when he was there? A. Two times.

Q. When he came there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He was gone and then came back?

A. Yes, sir.

1684 Q. Do you remember how long he stayed the last time. A. I do not.

Q. Do you remember seeing him the second time?

A. I only remember seeing him as he was sitting at the table.

Q. You only remember seeing him twice. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't see him any more after that? A. No, sir.

Q. The first time you saw these protographs was on the trial of this case at Leavenworth, in 1882? A. I think so.

Witness excused.

1685 Charles A. Walker, a witness, produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to-wit:

Q. State your name and residence.
A. Charles A. Walker, Kansas City, Missouri.
Q. In what business are you engaged?
A. I am engaged in the insurance business.
Q. How long have you lived in Kansas City, Missouri?
A. Since last May.
Q. Where did you reside prior to that time; where were you living in 1878? A. Wichita, Kansas.
Q. In what business were you engaged?
A. Banking business.
Q. In what capacity? A. Cashier.
Q. Of what bank? A. The Wichita National Bank.
Q. How long did you continue to occupy that position?
A. Ten or twelve years.
Q. Did you go from Wichita to Kansas City, Missouri?
A. I did.
Q. Did you in the spring of 1878 become acquainted with one Theodore Wiseman, familiarly known as Major Wiseman?
A. I don't think it was 1878; I think it must have been 1880; no, it was 1879.
Q. You became acquainted with him in 1879?
A. I think it was it.
Q. Where? A. In Wichita, Kansas.
Q. Were you then in the banking business? A. I was.
Q. Where did you meet him? A. In the bank.
Q. During that time, say, 1879, did you meet him at Wichita, Kansas, more than once? A. Yes, several times.
Q. At any time in the spring, summer or fall of 1879, did you see him at Wichita when he had certain pictures with him of a dead body?

1686 The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I did; I saw pictures that he showed me.
Q. Did he ever show you pictures of more than one dead body? A. I think he did.
Q. I do not mean more than one picture but whether they were not pictures of one body?

Objection.

Q. Do you think you would recognize those pictures?
A. Well, I don't know whether I would or not; I might, possibly.
Q. I will ask you to look at Exhibits G29 and G30 and state whether or not you recognize those as pictures you may have seen before?

A. I think they are the same pictures he showed me.

Q. Will you state as definitely as you can when you first saw these pictures or pictures similar to them?

A. In 1879.

Q. Who had them? A. Theodore Wiseman.

Q. I will leave that subject now, and ask you if you were at that time connected with any of the so-called secret orders and if so, in what capacity?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. I will ask you if you know of any letters being received either by you or any one else from Iowa?

Same objection, ruling and exception as last above noted.

Q. Were you acquainted with the coroner of Douglas county in 1880? A. I was not.

Q. Do you remember of having any correspondence with the coroner of Douglas county, in 1880?

Same objection as last above noted; overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I had.

Q. What, if anything, did you forward to the coro-
1687 ner of Douglas in 1880?

Same objection as last above noted. Overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. What, if anything, did you enclose to the coroner of Douglas county besides your own letter?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. A letter.

Q. Do you know from what place that letter was received originally?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for secondary evidence; objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. My recollection is that it was Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. Did you at the time that you forwarded that letter give any instructions, or make any request of the coroner of Douglas county as to whom he should deliver it to?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. I instructed the coroner of Douglas county to turn the letter over to Major Wiseman.

Q. At that time were you acquainted with the coroner of Douglas county? A. I was.

Q. Were you acquainted with Theodore Wiseman?

A. I was.

Q. Are you able to state about the date of this transaction, that is, about the time that you forwarded this communication or this letter to the coroner of Douglas county?

A. My recollection is that it was in the spring of 1880, early part of 1880.

Q. You may state why you directed this letter to be turned over to Major Wiseman.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendant and each of the defendants at the time duly excepting.

1688 Q. There are two or three other questions that I would like to ask with the consent of the Court. I want to ask the witness at the time that Major Wiseman was in Wichita with these pictures, what he was doing, or what inquiries he was making; I do not mean what was the subject of his inquiries, or the matter of his business there at the time he showed the pictures.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. He told me that he was trying to get information in regard to the disappearance of one Hillmon who had been in Wichita.

Q. Do you remember anything in regard to his inquiry about any missing man in Wichita?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason last stated. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. He exhibited these photographs to me and asked me if I had ever seen any one that they looked like.

Q. Well, the question was whether there were any inquiries made in regard to any man being missing, whether he inquired about any man being missing from Wichita?

A. Oh, I could not say as to that; he asked me a good many questions; I don't know whether he did or not; he possibly might have done so. I would not want to be positive about that.

Q. Now, I desire to renew my question, whether you requested the coroner of Douglas county to deliver the enclosed letter to Theodore Wiseman?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. Was there at any time any inquiry made of you as to one Frederick Adolph Walters who had disappeared and who had last been heard from from Wichita?

Same objection, ruling and exception as last above noted.

Witness excused.

1689 The defendants read in evidence, in succession, the depositions of Henry W. Howe, W. N. McKamey, H. B. Marshall, Julius Draves, which said depositions as read, are respectively in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1690 Deposition of Dr. Henry W. Howe taken before me W. T. Crittenden Consul General of the United States at the City of Mexico in the Republic of Mexico on the 31st day of August A. D. 1893, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m. of said day at said city in said Republic pursuant to the annexed notice to be read in evidence on behalf of the Defendant in said action. Dr. Henry W. Howe of lawful age being by me first duly examined, cautioned and solemnly sworn to testify the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth deposeth and saith in answer to the questions:

Ques. 1. State your name, age, place of residence and profession.

Answer. My name is Henry W. Howe, age 51, residence City of Mexico, profession, dentist.

Ques. 2. Where were you residing the year of 1878 and spring of 1879? Ans. In Lawrence, Kansas.

1691 Ques. 3. Did you know a man by the name of John W. Hillmon?

The plaintiff objects to the reading of that part of the answer to the above question beginning with the word "I think," because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and indefinite. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. I knew a man named Hillmon, I think his name was John W. or J. W. Hillmon I will not swear to it—that is to his initials.

Ques. 4. Where did you first meet this man Hillmon?

Ans. I first met him at or in my office in Lawrence, Kansas. My office was then over New Market Store.

Ques. 5. What was your business at that time?

Ans. I was a dentist.

Ques. 6. Did this man Hillmon come to your office?

Ans. He did.

Ques. 7. Did any one accompany him, if so state if you know who it was?

Ans. He was in company with another man whom I had seen before—a farmer over the river, if I remember aright—My impression he was a farmer from over the river.

Ques. 8. Did the man Hillmon inform you as to his place of residence and business, if so state what he said.

Ans. He told me he was a ranch-man from South Western Kansas—from near Medicine Lodge.

Ques. 9. Can you give a description of this man Hillmon?

Ans. From the best of my recollection he was about as tall as Mr. Green, I judge five feet 8 or 9 inches high—dark eyes, dark moustache and dark goatee, not blond.

Ques. 10. Do you remember anything as to his nose?

Ans. I do not.

Ques. 11. Do you remember anything as to his teeth?

Ans. I do.

Ques. 12. State what there was about his teeth that you remember?

Ans. There was missing the left lateral and central incisors, also first or second bicuspids, also on left side, all upper teeth.

Ques. 13. What was the purpose of Hillmon's coming to your office if you know?

Ans. To have a plate made and to have either a stump of one of his front teeth extracted or one filled, I do not remember which, but either one or the other, because I remember that was all he ever paid for.

Ques. 14. What work of any did you do for him at that time?

Ans. I took an impression and made a plate of three teeth, a rubber plate.

1692 Ques. 15. When did he next visit you if at all, after you did the work of taking the impression.

Ans. He never came back to the office again, he never received his plate.

Ques. 16. Can you state the year and about the time of the year he came to your office?

Ans. Think it was January or February, 1880, not positive.

Ques. 17. Do you remember whether you went to Colorado in 1879 or 1880? Ans. I do not.

Ques. 18. Witness here asked what year was it that President Garfield was killed.

Ques. 18. Do you remember the circumstance of a body of a man being brought to Lawrence from near Medicine Lodge, Kansas, which body was claimed to be that of one John W. Hillmon, who had been accidentally shot near that place. Said body being placed in Bailey and Smith's undertaking establishment on Massachusetts street? Ans. I do.

Ques. 10. About how much time had expired between the time you had made the plate for this man Hillmon and the time that that body was brought to Lawrence?

Ans. A few weeks—do not remember the exact time as it has been a long time ago.

Ques. 20. Did you see that dead body? Ans. I did.

Ques. 21. Was that the body of the man who had introduced himself to you as Hillmon and for whom you had prepared the rubber plate above mentioned a short time before?

Ans. It was not the body of the same man I had made the work for.

The witness here states he wishes to make a correction, which is as follows: I think I made the plate for him the latter part of the year, the last of the year, he had not come for the plate. In two or three months after that I met Hillmon on the streets of Lawrence with another man, whom I did not know. I called his attention to the plate waiting for him at my office, he promised to call for it, which he never did. It was a few weeks after that that body was brought to Lawrence.

Ques. 22. You stated that the man who introduced himself as Hillmon had lost certain of his upper teeth from the left side of his mouth; do you remember any circumstances why you state it was from he left side of his jaw?

Ans. I know it was his left side because I stood or worked from the right side of the chair on the opposite side of his jaw. It is further impressed in my mind it being fresh in my memory at that time. I naturally looked on the left side of the jaw of the corpse for the missing teeth.

Cross Examination

By S. A. Riggs:

1693 Ques. 1. Doctor, in what year did you remove to Lawrence, Kansas?

Ans. I moved there on the sixth or eighth day of June, 1875.

2 Ques. When after that did you first remove from Lawrence?

Ans. I went to Colorado in '79 or '80 I do not remember what year.

3 Q. In what month of the year did you go to Colorado?
Ans. I think in May, am not positive.
4 Q. To what place did you remove from Colorado?
Ans. To Lawrence, Kans.
5 Q. In what year did you return to Lawrence, Kansas from Colorado?
Ans. I think in November of either '82 or '83.
6 Q. How long did you continue to reside in Lawrence, Kansas after that time? Ans. Until May '87.
7 Q. To what place did you then remove?
Ans. To Mexico.
8 Q. You mean the City of Mexico then do you in the republic of Mexico? Ans. Yes sir.
9 Q. Have you resided here ever since? Ans. No sir.
10 Q. To what point did you remove from the City of Mexico?
Ans. I went to the mines in the state of Quetretaro, before that I lived in Colorado for a while.
11 Q. Was that the second time you had lived in the state of Colorado? Ans. Yes sir.
12 Q. Where in Colorado did you live the first time you were there and where the second time?
Ans. The first time I lived in Georgetown, Breckinridge, Ko Konio, Robinson, and a short time in Idaho Springs, and at the mines on the Chicago range. The second time I was up at Denver and Las Animas.
13 Q. What year and what month of the year did you live in Georgetown?
Ans. I don't remember, I was in Georgetown when Garfield was killed.
14 Q. In what year and what month of the year did you live in Breckenridge?
Ans. I don't remember, I was there twice.
15 Q. In what year and what month of the year.
Ans. I do not remember the months.
16 Q. Can you state the year you lived at Ko Komo?
Ans. No sir.
17 Q. Can you state the year you lived at Idaho Springs?
Ans. No sir. I was there but a short time about two weeks with my brother who was practicing medicine there at that time.
18 Q. Can you state the year you removed from Mexico to Colorado? Ans. I think it was in '89.
1694 19 Q. Are you sure of that?
Ans. No, sir, I am not.
20 Q. Did you testify at the Coroner's inquest in Lawrence held over the body of the person what you have spoken of in your examination in chief? Ans. No, sir.

21 Q. That inquest occupied several days time did it not?
Ans. I do not remember.
22 Q. Where in Bailey and Smith's undertaking establishment was this body lying at the time you saw it?
Ans. As I went into the door of the room it was on the left hand side as I went in.
23 Q. Of what room?
Ans. I do not remember, nor do I remember how many rooms I went through.
24 Q. Was it in the main store-room?
Ans. No, sir, I think not.
25 Q. Are you certain of that?
Ans. Yes, sir, because I went through at least one door besides the front door.
26 Q. For what purpose did you go in to look at that body?
Ans. To see if it was Hillmon I had fixed the teeth for. Partially through curiosity.
17 Q. There was a great deal of excitement and general interest in Lawrence at that time was there not, as to the identity of this body?
Ans. Yes there was some interest in it.
28 Q. Were not the insurance companies that had issued policies on the life of John W. Hillmon, denying that the body there was the body of John W. Hillmon?
Ans. I understood it so.
29 Ques. Did you not at that time understand that the question of identity was the principal question investigated by that coroner's jury? Ans. Yes, sir.
30 Ques. Did I understand you to say that body was brought to Lawrence a short time after you had last seen the man Hillmon for whom you had made the plate?
Ans. Yes, sir, a few weeks.
31 Q. The inquest that was held over the body, was begun and partially held while the body lay in Bailey and Smiths, was it not? Ans. I do not know.
32 Q. At whose request if at anybody's did you go to see that body?
Ans. No ones request. For my own satisfaction and curiosity.
33 Q. How long did you preserve the plate you had made for the man Hillmon?
1695 Ans. I do not remember. I destroyed it to use the teeth on other work.
34 Q. What was your charge for that plate?
Ans. I do not remember, I think about $10.00.
35 Q. Did you make a charge of it on your books?
Ans. I think I did.
36 Q. Have you now the book on which you made that charge? Ans. I have not.

37 Q. What became of that book? Ans. I do not know.
38 Q. Had you that book at the time of the coroner's inquest of which you have spoken?
Ans. If his name was on the book I think I had.
39 Q. Did you ever examine to see if his name was on the book? Ans. I never did.
40 Q. Did you not know that one of the important facts urged by the insurance companies to prove that the body there was not the body of John W. Hillmon, the insured, was the condition of Hillmon's teeth and the condition of the teeth of the body, as to whether or not any were missing?
Ans. Yes, sir.
41 Q. Did you at that time know Dr. J. D. Patterson, a dentist in the city of Lawrence?
Ans. I did but we were not friends, we were competitors.
42 Q. Did you at that time know of the circumstance of Dr. J. D. Patterson making a plaster cast of the teeth of that body? Ans. I heard that he had done so.
43 Q. When did you first hear it?
Ans. I do not remember.
44 Q. Was it about the time he made the cast?
Ans. I judge it was after he had made it.
45 Q. About how long after? Ans. I do not know.
46 Q. Was it within a few days? Ans. I think so.
47 Q. Were you at that time personally well acquainted wath James W. Green who conducted the coroner's inquest over that body? Ans. No, sir, I was not.
48 Q. Were you at all acquainted with him?
Ans. I think not: I knew he was Mr. Green when I met him on the street but that was all.
49 Q. Were you at that time personally acquainted with George J. Barker at Lawrence?
Ans. I knew hm about as I had known Mr. Green at that time.
50 Q. Had you at the time of this inquest the plate
1696 that you had made for the man Hillmon in your possession? Ans. I don't know.
51 Q. Your only purpose of destroying that plate was to get use of the materials used in the construction, was it not?
Ans. To get the teeth perhaps to match some others.
52 Q. At the time that body lay in Bailey and Smith's establishment, did you make any examination of your office to ascertain whether or not you then had in your possession the plate made by you for the man Hillmon, or any memorandum of that work on your books?
Ans. I don't remember that I did.
53 Q. Did you make any examination of the teeth of that body which you saw at Bailey and Smith's?
Ans. I looked at them, yes, sir.

54Q. Were the teeth in that body corresponding to the teeth of Hillmon which you say were missing, all present in that body?

Ans. The teeth in the body in front of the mouth were intact, there were none missing.

55 Q. You did not answer my question and I ask the notary to read it again to you for further answer?

Ans. In the front of the mouth they were.

56 Q. What tooth that was missing in the mouth of the man Hillmon for whom you made the plate as you say, was present intact in the mouth of that body?

Ans. The left central and left lateral incisors that were missing in the mouth of the man named Hillmon that I made the teeth for, were not missing in the body.

57 Q. When you made the teeth for the man Hillmon were his left central and left lateral incisors missing from his mouth?

Ans. They were. But I will not swear as to the stump, possibly there was a stump there which I extracted, but I am not sure.

58 Q. He paid you for all the work you did for him except the making of the plate which he did not get, did he not?

Ans. Yes, sir.

59 Q. Were the left central and left lateral incisors in the mouth of the body which you saw in Bailey and Smith's, the natural teeth of that body? Ans. I think they were.

60. Q. You so thought when you saw that body did you not? Ans. I thought so.

61 Q. You lived in the City of Lawrence at the time of the first two trials of this case did you not?

Ans. I think not.

1697 62 Q. You returned to Lawrence from Colorado in November, 1882, did you not?

Ans. In '82 or '83 I do not remember which.

63 Q. You remained there then until May, 1887, did you not? Ans. Yes, sir.

64 Q. From the time you left Lawrence in 1879 or 1880 until you returned in 1882 or 1883 you lived in Colorado did you not? Ans. Yes, sir.

Q. During that interval, I mean the interval which you lived in Colorado where did your family reside?

Ans. They lived in Lawrence.

67 Q. Lawrence, Kansas? Ans. Yes, sir.

68 Q. You were in frequent correspondence with them were you not during that time?

Ans. Not very frequent, we were not on pretty good terms.

69 Q. They were advised of your whereabouts were they not? Ans. Yes, sir.

70 Q. Have you ever before at any trial of this case or any other case testified to any of the facts of which you have testified in this deposition? Ans. Not that I remember.

71 Q. If you had so testified you would not have forgotten it would you Doctor? A. I think not.

72 Q. When did you first communicate to any one the fact that you had made a plate for a man at Lawrence who called himself Hillmon and who said that he was on a ranch near Medicine Lodge, Kans.?

Ans. Did not say he was on a ranch, said he was a ranchman. But I said it [publically] in front of the corpse in the presence of several people.

73 Q. Can you state the name of any one who was present when you made that statement? A. No, sir.

74 Q. You knew at that time that the memorandum in your book if you had made one of the work you had done for the man Hillmon, and the rubber plate containing three teeth which you had made for the man Hillmon were if they were in existence, absolutely conclusive as to the fact that the body you saw there, was not the body of the man Hillmon for whom you had done this work, did you not?

Ans. I did not realize the importance of the case at that time.

75 Q. You don't answer my question and I ask the notary to read it to you again for further answer?

Ans. I don't understand that question clear yet.

1698 (Witness after reading the question over.) Answers. Yes, sir.

76 Ques. Why then did you not make search in your office to find if possible the plate you had made for the man Hillmon and the charge upon your book if you had made one?

Ans. Because Patterson was doing the dental part of that and it was none of my business. I was given to understand so by some one, I don't remember who.

77 Ques. Why did you destroy the plate you had made for the man Hillmon, when you knew of its great value in determining in the pending controversies between Mrs. Hillmon and the insurance companies conclusively her right to recover on the policies?

Ans. I had probably destroyed it before I knew the value of it.

78 Ques. Doctor, how many times did you see this man who called himself Hillmon.

Ans. I saw him twice, once in my office; once on the street.

79 Ques. How long a space of time was there between these two occasions?

Ans. I do not remember exactly, but judge it was some weeks.

80 Ques. Was any one with him when he came to your office? Ans. Yes, sir.

81 Ques. Were you acquainted with that person?

Ans. No, sir.

82 Ques. Was any one with him when you saw him on the street? Ans. Yes, sir.

83 Ques. Were you acquainted with that person?

Ans. No, sir; it was not the same man that was with him in my office.

84 Ques. Have you ever seen either of the men who were with Hillmon on these occasions since?

Ans. Not to know them, or not that I know of.

85 Ques. How long was the man Hillmon in your office at the time you speak of. Ans. I do not remember.

86 Ques. What was the general character as to the soundness of the teeth that the man Hillmon had in his head?

Ans. They appeared to be good.

87 Ques. What was their appearance as to color?

Ans. What was their appearance as to color?

88 Ques. In order to make the plate for him did you make a plaster impression of his mouth?

Ans. I probably made a wax one.

89 Ques. What was the color of the man Hillmon's eyes?

Ans. It seems to me they were dark.

90 Ques. Describe the color of his hair as nearly as 1699 you can? Ans. I can not.

91 Ques. Was his moustache and goatee the same color as his hair. Ans. I do not remember.

92 Ques. Was his mustache the same color as his goatee?

Ans. I think so.

93 Ques. In what language or words did the man Hillmon state to you his name.

Ans. I do not remember the exact words except that he said his name was Hillmon.

94 Ques. Give his language as near as you can in which he stated to you his name and occupation?

Ans. It has been too long ago; I can not remember the conversation exactly.

95 Ques. Had the man Hillmon any black teeth when he was in your office? Ans. Not that I remember of.

96 Ques. Did the missing teeth of which you have spoken seem to have been lost by decay?

Ans. That I do not know. One, I judge, yes.

97 Ques. Was the man Hillmon a stout or a slender man?

Ans. It appears to me that he was neither stout nor slender, nearer slender than stout.

98 Ques. Had he high or low cheek bones.

Ans. That I do not know.

99 Ques. What in your judgment was his weight at that time?

Ans. I judge he was a man of 155 or 160 pounds. That is if I remember correctly.

Re-Examination

By James E. Green:

1 Ques. Did you examine the back teeth of the body you saw at Bailey and Smiths? Ans. I did not.

2 Ques. Doctor, what is the cause of what is commonly called a black tooth?

Ans. It is generally caused from the nerve having died from a blow or decay.

3 Ques. Will a tooth, the nerve to which has died, decay sooner than it would had the nerve lived? You may state from your knowledge and experience?

Ans. Yes, sir; I would judge that it would, although I have seen black teeth remain in the mouth many years. Make that dark, I never have seen black teeth in the mouth.

4 Ques. When the nerve in a tooth decays or dies will that tooth assume a dark color from that cause. Ans. Sometimes.

5 Ques. You may state if you were absent from Lawrence in the year 1877 or 1878, and if so in what direction were 1700 you?

Ans. In April or May of 1877 I went to Hays City, Kansas, at the solicitation of some army officers to do some dentistry for them, by request I went from there to Fort Wallace, from there back to Hays City and Fort Hays. I was sent across from there to Dodge City by ambulance and government escort. I remained there some weeks, was given government conveyance to Camp Supply, Indian Territory, with escort, where I remained some weeks; from there to Fort Elliott, Pan Handle, Texas, where I remained some time. I do not remember how long. From there to Fort Sill, about 200 miles east, with government escort, government conveyance and escort with letters of introduction to Gen. McKenzie from Gen. Hatch, where I remained two or three months in the practice of dentistry and hunting. From there I went north to Fort Reno, where I remained some weeks. From there horseback to Winfield, Kans., and from there to Lawrence, not horseback. I was absent nearly a year.

Recross Examination.

1 Ques. During this journey of yours of which you have spoken, in your last answer, you were largely engaged in hunting, were you not?

Ans. Not largely; I hunted some, my principal business was dentistry.

2 Ques. How long have you been acquainted with James W. Green, an attorney for the defendant in this cause?

Ans. I do not know.

3 Ques. State as near as you can?

Ans. Probably a year of two before I came here in '87.

4 Ques. How long have you been acquainted with George J. Barker, an attorney for the defendant in this action?

Ans. I do not know.

5. Ques. State as near as you can.

Ans. Perhaps a year longer than I have known Mr. Green.

6. Ques. When did you first learn that these gentlemen were the attorneys for the defendant, the insurance companies?

Ans. I first learned that Mr. Green was through a letter from him of not more than two or three months ago, and for Mr. Barker I have just learned that he is now. I have not heard his name mentioned in the connection before, that is, as I remember.

7. Ques. When you were in Lawrence did you read the Lawrence daily papers? Ans. Some times, not always.

8. Ques. How long have you known S. A. Riggs, one of the attorneys for the plaintiff in this action?

Ans. More or less for 17 or 18 years.

9. Ques. Did you ever make any attempt to communicate with either of the insurance companies that issued policies on on the life of John W. Hillmon, or to either of the at-
1701 torneys whose names I have mentioned or to any person connected with or representing either of such insurance companies or the beneficiary under the policies, the facts to which you have testified in this disposition or any of such facts? Ans. No, sir.

Witness here states that he desires to make a correction in his evidence as follows: In regard to the length of time that I have known Mr. Green was connected with this case, when N. J. Stevens of Kansas City, Mo., was down here three years ago he told me of it, and I had forgotten it.

10. Ques. This N. J. Stevens is a brother-in-law of Mr. Green, is he not? A. Ans. Yes, sir.

HENRY W. HOWE.

1702 Depositions of W. N. McKamy, taken before me, Geo. R. Harvey, a Notary Public in and for El Paso County, Texas, on the 27th day of July in the year 1896, between the hours of nine o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m., at the office of the Vendome Hotel in said county, pursuant to the annexed notice, to be read in evidence on behalf of the defendant in said action.

1703 W. N. McKamy of lawful age, being by me first duly examined, cautioned and solemnly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, deposeth and saith that:

Question. You may state your name?
Answer. W. N. McKamy.
Q. Where do you now reside?
A. In Guadalupe Calve, State of Chihuahua, Republic of Mexico.
Q. What is your business?
A. I am a mining superintendent.
Q. Where were you residing in January, 1878?
A. At Fort Griffin, Texas.
Q. What was your business if any at that time?
A. I was selling goods and buying buffalo hides.
Q. Where were you doing this business?
A. In Fort Griffin, Texas, and at a store on and at the head of the Pease river at the foot of the Staked Plains.
Q. Do you know a man by the name of John W. Hillmon?
A. Yes.
Q. When and where did you first become acquainted with him? A. At Fort Griffin, Texas.
Q. Did you know a man by the name of John H. Brown?
A. Yes.
Q. Where did you first become acquainted with him?
A. At Fort Griffin, Texas.
Q. Did you see these two men together and if so, when?
A. At Fort Griffin many times and at my store on Pease river; they were inseparable for about a year and a half that I knew of.
Q. When did you last see these two men and where?
A. At my store on Pease river in the month of June or July, 1878.
Q. Did you ever have any business transaction with these two men and, if so, where?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. I had business transactions with them first in selling them goods and supplies for buffalo hunting at Fort Griffin. Afterwards I sold them a train of oxen and wagons, consisting of nine wagons and thirty-three yoke of oxen, and sold them goods at various times after that up to July following this transaction.
Q. What was the date of this sale of the cattle and wagons?

1704 Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. January 10, 1878.

Q. What did they agree to pay you for these cattle and wagons?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. They agreed to pay me thirty-six hundred and twenty-three dollars and ninety cents ($3623.90).

Q. Was this a cash transaction or how did they agree to pay the consideration?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. They gave me three notes, one for $900.00 and two for $1361.95 each and secured these notes by a mortgage on the oxen and wagons which I sold them and certain buffalo hides which they represented that they had on Croton Creek in the Panhandle of Texas.

Q. Were these oxen and wagons your individual property?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. They were not; they belonged to the firm of McKamy & Anderson, of which firm I was a member.

Q. What was Mr. Anderson's full name?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. His name was L. B. Anderson.

Q. Where is he, if you know, at the present time?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. The last account I had of him, about six months ago, he was near Tuscon, Arizona.

Q. Look at the three notes now shown you by J. W. Green, the attorney here present representing the defendant, and which notes said Green requests the notary taking this deposition to attach his name and mark Exhibits A, B and C and also to attach his notarial seal, and state in whose handwriting the names of the payors of said notes is.

1705 Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. The names were written by John W. Hillmon, in the presence of John H. Brown and in my presence.

Q. Look at the notes marked Exhibits A, B and C and state if those are the notes which you have heretofore stated were given in consideration of the oxen and wagons sold by you to John W. Hillmon and John H. Brown?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelvant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. They are the same notes beyond question.

Q. Are these the notes given by John W. Hillmon and John H. Brown in purchase of the oxen and wagons sold by you to them?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted. A. They are.

Q. Look at the notes marked Exhibits A, B and C, and state whose notes they are and for what they were given?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. They are the notes of John W. Hillmon and John H. Brown and were given to me and my partner in payment for thirty-three yoke of oxen and nine wagons.

Q. Have those notes been paid, or any portion of them?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. Not one dollar of them.

Q. What arrangement, if any, existed or was made between Hillmon and Brown and yourself in the matter of paying these notes?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. The $900.00 note was to be paid from the sale of the buffalo hides that are expressed in the mortgage; and the other two notes wre to be paid from the proceeds of their freighting and hunting, and were to be paid at maturity.

Q. You may state whether or not the amount of the consideration of the three notes marked Exhibits A, B and C is still due and owing from Hillmon and Brown to the 1706 firm of McKamy and Anderson?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. It is; the entire amount.

Q. Look at the paper now shown you by J. W. Green, and to which he requests the notary taking the deposition to attach his name and notarial seal and mark Exhibit D, and state in whose handwriting the signatures of J. W. Hillmon and Brown are?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. I think the signatures are in the handwriting of John W. Hillmon. I know the signatures to the notes are, as they were signed in my presence.

Q. State what the paper marked Exhibit D is?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. It is the mortgage given to secure the payment for the thirty-three yoke of cattle and nine wagons sold to John W. Hillmon and John H. Brown.

Q. Did John W. Hillmon or John W. Brown ever transfer these oxen and wagons to you and Mr. Anderson in satisfaction of these notes?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action [action] and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. No, and no portion of them.

Q. Do they, John W. Hillmon and John W. Brown, owe you anything over and above these notes?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. Yes; somewhere from one thousand to fifteen hundred dollars; it has been [been] a long time and I have not access to my books, and I speak from memory.

Q. How did this indebtedness arise?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. The greater portion of it arose from my furnishing them supplies to go out to the western edge of the Staked Plains to exchange them for Buffalo hides, they representing to me that the hunters were killing large numbers of buffaloes there at that time, they bringing to me a man by the name of W. H. West, who had just come from there, to confirm their statement.

Q. Where were these goods furnished them?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled
1707 the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiffs at the time duly excepted.

A. At my Pease river store.

Q. Did they ever return to that place after you had furnished them these goods?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. No, they never did.

Q. Was it a fact that at that time the hunters were killing buffalo in the region in which they stated they were?

Counsel for he plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

A. No, there were no buffalo in that section of country, and there were no hunters in that section of country at that time, as I afterwards ascertained from personal observation and inspection.

Q. What did Hillmon and Brown do with the oxen and wagons which they purchased from you, if you know?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay.

By Mr. Barker: We offer this testimony for the purpose of showing not only the financial condition of John W. Hillmon, but to rebut the testimony offered tending to show that he was going down into Southern Kansas in 1878 for the purpose of buying a cattle ranch; that instead of that he was fleeing from the justice of Texas.

By the Court: It would have no bearing if he was trying to avoid arrest by the authorities of Texas. It runs in my mind that John Brown was asked in reference to this matter and this may be offered by way of impeachment of his testimony; but I think that whatever might be contained in the deposition of John Brown, beginning at the bottom of page 4, all of page 5 and the first line on page 6 should not be read.

To which ruling of the Court, the defendants at the time duly excepted.

(*4.) A. About two months after I had furnished Hillmon and (*5) Brown with these supplies I learned that they were pulling out with the teams for the Pecos River with the intention of beating me out of these teams and supplies. The boy came into the Pease River store and told my clerk to notify me immediately that Hillmon and Brown were pulling to the other side of the plains; that one of the drivers of Hillmon and Brown had told him to leave word at the Pease River store that Hillmon and Brown were pulling to the other side of the plains with the oxen, wagons and supplies with the intention of beating me out of them, and that the drivers were virtually their prisoners, as they had threatened 1708 to kill any one of them who attempted to leave them or give them away.

Q. What, if anything, did you do towards attempting to recover these oxen and wagons?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants at the time duly excepted.

(*5) A. As soon as I heard of their running away I wrote to the Chief of Police at Lawrence, Kansas, to look out for them there, knowing that Hillmon was correspondinig with a young lady there, and I figured that he would go there. Then I went to my Pease river store and struck out on the trail and followed the trail to near the Pecos river. It then became evident to me that they were going up the Pecos river, and I then left the trail and went up to Las Vegas, New Mexico. At Las Vegas I received notice from the Chief of Police at Lawrence that the men were there, and also found a lot of the supplies that I had furnished them at my Pecos river store, in possession of a person to whom they had sold them. I also learned that they had traded off a portion of the oxen at Las Vegas, New Mexico, for a span of horses. I then went up to Trinidad, Colorado, and on the road to Trinidad I found four yoke of the cattle which they had sold to a man who was working on the grade of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad. At Trinidad I learned that they had sold the oxen and wagons in every direction. I stopped at Trinidad, Colorado, and wrote down to Texas to have papers sent to me at Trinidad so as to have Hillmon and Brown arrested in Kansas. Before the papers reached me I read a notice in the papers of the killing of John W. Hillmon in Barber Coun- (6.) ty, Kansas, and presuming that this was correct I returned to Texas.

Q. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, and to which he requests the Notary to affix his name and notarial seal and attach the same to this deposition, and state if it is a photograph of any one you have heretofore known, and if so, whom?

A. It is the photograph of John W. Hillmon as I knew him in 1877 and 1878 at Fort Griffin, Texas, and on the plains hunting buffalo.

W. N. McKAMY.

1709 (The exhibit referred to is the small picture of Hillmon.)

*The defendants now offer in evidence the three notes and the mortgage identified by the witness. Said notes are marked respectively Exhibits U and N and Exhibit L, and the mortgage is marked Exhibit O. The plaintiff makes a separate objection to each and every one of said papers for the reason that they are incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial to any issue in the case, and objects specially to the mortgage because it adds nothing to the debt shown by the notes.

The Court overruled said objections, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Said notes and mortgage were then read in evidence to the jury and are, respectively, in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1710 $1361 95/100.

Fort Griffin, Tex., Jany. 10th, 1878.

Four months after date, for value received, we promise to pay to the order of McKamy and Anderson thirteen hundred and sixty-one 95/100 dollars.

HILLMON & BROWN, [Seal]

McKamy & Anderson.
[Seal] GEO. R. HARVEY,
Notary Public.

Exhibit B.
Exhibit "L" Nov. 99 W. C. H., Judge.

$1361 95/100.

Fort Griffin, Tex., Jan'y 10th, 1878.

Six months after date, for value received, we promise to pay to the order of McKamy and Anderson thirteen hundred and sixty-one 95/100 dollars.

HILLMON & BROWN, [Seal]

McKamy & Anderson.
[Seal] GEO. R. HARVEY,
Notary Public.

Exhibit C.
Exhibit M, Nov. 99. W. C. H.

$900 00/00.

Fort Griffin, Tex., Jan'y 10th, 1878.

Two months after date, for value received, we promise to pay to the order of McKamy & Anderson nine hundred dollars.

HILLMON & BROWN, [Seal]

McKamy & Anderson.
[Seal] GEO. R. HARVEY,
Notary Public.

Exhibit A.
Exhibit N. Nov. 99. W. C. H.

The State of Texas,
Shackleford County.

1711 Know all men by these presents that we J. W. Hillmon and J. H. Brown, doing business under the firm name of Hillmon and Brown, in consideration of the sum of Two dollars to us paid by W. N. McKamy and D. B. Anderson, doing business under the firm name of McKamy and Anderson, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain, and sell unto the said McKamy and Anderson, the following described property viz: Nine wagans, thirty-three yoke of oxen branded H on left horn said wagons and oxen are better known as the "Billy Rhoades Train," Twenty-five hundred (2500) Buffalos, Bull, Cow and Kip hides, now piled on the banks of Croton Creek, near head of said Creek, to have and to hold all and singular the said goods and chattels unto the said McKamy and Anderson, their executors, administrators and assigns, to their sole use forever; and we the said Hillmon and Brown, for ourselves, and our executors and administrators do covenant to and with the said McKamy and Anderson, their executors, administrators and assigns, that we are lawfully possessed of the said goods and chattels as of our own property; that the same are free from all incumbrances, and that we will, and our executors and administrators shall, warrant and defend the same to the said McKamy and Anderson, their executors, administrators and assigns, against the lawful claims and demands of all persons; Provided, nevertheless, that if the said Hillmon and Brown their executors or administrators, shall on or before the date of maturity well and truly pay unto the said McKamy and Anderson, their executors administrators or assigns, the sum of the following promissory notes: One note for nine hundred dollars payable two months from date, One note for thirteen hundred and sixty-one 95 1-100 dollars, payable four months from date, one note for thirteen hundred and sixty-one 95 1-100 dollars, payable six months from date, then this deed, as also our said promissory notes, bearing even date herewith, signed by said Hillmon and Brown, whereby we promised to pay the said McKamy and Anderson the said sums at the times afore-

1712 said, shall be void; otherwise shall remain in full force and virtue: And provided, also, that until default by us the said Hillmon and Brown, our executors and administrators, in the performance of the condition aforesaid, or of some part thereof, it shall and may be lawful for us and them to keep possession of the said wagons and oxen and to use and enjoy the same; and to hold and keep possession and control over said buffalo hides, until a sale of same is effected when the proceeds of same shall be by us paid on the aforesaid promissory notes; but if said property or any part thereof shall be attached at any time before payment as aforesaid, by any other creditor or creditors of us the said Hillmon and Brown, or if we the said Hillmon and Brown shall attempt to sell the same, or any part thereof, without notice to the said McKamy and Anderson, their executors, administrators or assigns, and without their assent to such sale in writing expressed, then it shall be lawful for the said McKamy and Anderson their executors, administrators, or assigns, to take immediate possession of the whole of said granted property to their own use.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this the 10th day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight.

J. W. HILLMON & BROWN.

The State of Texas,
Shackleford County.

Before me, B. R. Webb, a Justice of the Peace in and for said County, personally came J. W. Hillmon, to me made known, and to me acknowledged that he executed the foregoing instrument of writing, dated 10 day of January A. D. 1878, and that he signed, sealed and delivered the same for the purpose, uses and considerations therein stated.

In testimony whereof, I hereby sign my name & affix my seal of office at office, in Fort Griffin, this the 15 day of January A. D. 1878.

B. R. WEBB J. P. & Ex officio Notary Public.

[Seal] S. C. T.

1713 The State of Texas,
County of Shackelford.

I, J. N. Masterton, Clerk of the County Court in and for said County and State, duly qualified and commissioned in terms of the law, do hereby certify that the within and foregoing attached Mortgage from J. W. Hillmon and J. H. Brown to W. N. McKamy and L. B. Anderson dated the 10th day of January, A. D. 1878 together with its certificate of authentication, was filed in my office for record the 14th day of January 1878 at 1 o'clock p. m., and was duly recorded on the 29th day of January, 1878, at 3 o'clock p. m., in book A on pages 339 and 340,

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the impress of the Seal of said Court, at office in the town of Albany in said county, this, the day and year last above written.

[Seal] J. N. MASTERTON,
[Seal] Clerk County Court, Shackelford Co. Tex.
By THOMAS HALL, Deputy.

Exhibit O Nov. 99 W. C. H. Filed for Record Jany 14 1878 at 1 o'clock p. m. J. N. Masterton, Clk. Exhibit D. Geo. R. Harvey, Notary Public.

By Mr. Green: The three notes marked respectively Exhibits L M and N. W. C. H., and the mortgage Exhibits marked Exhibit O. W. C. H., are the four papers shown and exhibited to William Hillmon and the signatures to which were identified by him as having been written by John W. Hillmon.

By Mr. Green: We next offer in evidence Exhibits P
1714 and Q which are notes signed by John W. Hillmon. "P" being a note dated at Lawrence, Kansas, October 31, 1876, payable six months after date to the bearer, for $60.70, and Exhibit "Q" being a note dated Oskaloosa, Kansas, July 10th, 1871, to Keeler & Johnson for $50. The signatures to both of these notes have been identified by William Hillmon.

The plaintiff objects to the admission of Exhibit "Q" in evidence as having no bearing on the case by reason of the date.

By the Court: Is it not objectionable on another ground: There is nothing shown about the note except that Hillmon signed it. It may have been paid. The fact that it is produced here is not sufficient to show that it has not been paid.

By Mr. Green: The presumption of law would be that inasmuch as the note is not in the hands of Hillmon that it has not been paid.

By Mr. Atwood: Let it go in; we don't care; if you can fish up any other outlawed note we will let that in.

By Mr. Barker: I desire to have the remarks of counsel taken down and excepted to.

By the Court: The jury will pay no attention to remarks of counsel.

Said notes were thereupon admitted in evidence and read to the jury. They are respectively, in words and figures as follows, to wit:

"EXHIBIT P. Nov. 99 W. C. H. EX. R. C. H. N.
$60.70

Lawrence, Kansas, Oct 31 1876.

Six months after date value received, I promise to pay to the order of Bearer at Douglas County Bank Sixty and 70-100 Dollars, with interest at 12 per cent. after ..... until paid, to be paid annually interest in default to draw interest same as principal. Appraisement waived.

The drawers and endorsers hereof jointly and severally waive demand, protest and notice of non-payment of this note.

JOHN W. HILLMON.

No..... Due....."

"EXHIBIT "Q". Nov. 99, W. C. H. EX. Q. C. H. N.

Oskaloosa, Kansas, July 10th, 1871.

One day after date for value received I promise to pay Keeler & Johnson or order the sum of fifty dollars with 10 per cent interest. The same being for work & labor done at the request of said John W. Hillmon. JOHN W. HILLMON."

1715 The defendants offered in evidence Article 797 of the Criminal code of the State of Texas in connection with the deposition of W. N. McKamey, for the purpose of rebutting the claim that John W. Hillmon went to Southwestern Kansas in the winter of 1878-9 for the purpose of establishing a cattle ranch and for the purpose of showing that he was a fugitive from the justice of the State of Texas.

The plaintiff objected to the introduction of said statute in evidence as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court sustained the objection to which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Said statute is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

"Art. 950—(797). Fraudulent Disposition of Mortgaged Property.

If any person has given, or shall hereafter give any mortgage, deed of trust or other lien, in writing, upon any personal or movable property or growing crop of farm produce, and shall remove the same or any part thereof out of the state, or shall sell or otherwise dispose of the same with intent to defraud the person having such lien, either originally or by transfer, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years."

1716 Be it remembered, that on this 7th day of Sep. A. D. 1887, at 10 a. m. in the City of County of Los Angeles, State of California, before me, W. H. Seamans a Notary Public in and for the State and County aforesaid and duly commissioned and qualified under the laws of the United States to take depositions for use in the Circuit Courts of the United States, personally appeared H. B. Marshall witness of sound mind and lawful age, witness for the ..... in a civil suit now pending in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Kansas, wherein Sallie E. Hillmon is plaintiff and the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is defendant, and the said witness being by me first carefully examined and cautioned, and duly sworn to testify the truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth, did thereupon depose and say:

Q. State your name, age and place of residence?

A. H. B. Marshall, age 46 years, place of residence 835 Grand Ave., Angeles, Cal.

Q. Where were you residing in the winter of 1878 & 9?

A. Wichita, Kansas.

Q. What business are you engaged in now?

A. Contracting—grading.

Q. Were you acquainted while residing in Wichita with a man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you make his acquaintance?

A. At the Globe Hotel, Wichita.

Q. About when did you first meet him?

A. Latter part of February or the 1st of March; must have been [the] somewheres near the first of March.
Q. Were you living at the hotel? A. Yes sir.
Q. About how long were you acquainted with him?
A. Must have been about two weeks near that.
Q. Was any one in company with him there at the hotel? A. Yes sir.
1717 Q. What was that person's name?
A. He registered his name as Brown; I have forgotten the initial.
Q. How often did you see Hillmon during your acquaintance with him?
A. From three to a half a dozen times a day and evening together.
Q. What was your business at that time at Wichita?
A. Veterinary and Sale Stable business.
Q. Will you describe this man Hillmon, giving his height &c.?
A. Hillmon was about five feet nine 1-2 or ten medium size, straight, whiskers and the mustache, light color, medium in heft, he shaved his cheeks down pretty well to his chin and left fair size chin whiskers; chin whiskers was a dark auburn or light brown.
Q. Can you give the color of his hair?
A. His hair was rather brown, darkish brown, between a brown and a black.
Q. What was the shape of his face?
A. Well, his face was a little bit on the picked order.
Q. How was his forehead, high or low, the shape of it?
A. Hard to remember so long ago.
Q. Did you notice the teeth of Mr. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state whether or not they were perfect?
A. They were not.
Q. In what respect were they defected?
A. He had one tooth out.
Q. In the upper or lower jaw? A. In the upper.
Q. When and under what circumstances did you observe?
A. Well, we played checkers in the Hotel in the evening and I noticed in his laughing over the victory of the game he showed his teeth very plain.
Q. Did you observe his hands? A. I did.
Q. What kind of a hand would you say he had its size or shape? A. Rather a very neat, small hand.
Q. Did you observe whether or not there were any scars on his hands? A. Yes sir.
Q. State whether or not there were scars on his hands?
A. There was.
Q. Whereabouts on the hands?

A. The scar running through the inside of his hand and back through between his thumb and finger.

Q. Was it on what you would call the ball of the thumb?

A. Yes sir.

1718 Q. How far back did it extend between the thumb and finger? A. About an inch and a half.

Q. On which hand was this scar?

A. I think the left, I am not positive.

Q. Did you notice his feet? A. Yes sir

Q. What kind of a foot did he have?

A. He had a very neat, small foot wear about a five and a half or six boot.

Q. What was Hillmon's business in Wichita if you know?

A. Well I don't know what it was.

Q. Who was keeping the Globe Hotel at that time?

A. It was either Draves & Bittell or Renolds; I don't remember which it was. I now remember it was Draves & Bittell they bought Renocas out in the fall.

Cross Examined

By S. A. Riggs, for plaintiff:

Q. How long have you lived in Los Angeles?

A. About two years.

Q. Where did you live next before you lived in Los Angeles? A. Pomona.

Q. How long did you live at Pomona?

A. About one year.

Q. What was your business there?

A. Ranching and teaming.

Q. Where did you reside before you came to Pomona?

A. Wichita, Kansas.

Q. How long did you reside at Wichita, Kansas?

A. Somewhere near five years.

Q. Where did you reside before you lived at Wichita, Kansas?

A. Well, I was on the road traveling some two or three years then my home was in Illinois prior to that.

Q. What were you traveling for?

A. I was traveling in the horse training and Veterinary business, principally horse training.

Q. Were you giving exhibitions in horse training?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What was your business when your home was in the State of Illinois?

A. It was kind of mixed, I was doctoring horses, teaming and anything to make bread and butter.

Q. Whereabouts in the State of Illinois did you reside?

A. Rock Island County.

Q. At what town or village if any?

1719 A. They called it Illinois City.

Q. From what time to what time did you live in Illinois City?

A. I believe I went to Illinois about '70. It is getting beyond my memory it has been so long I can't tell where I have been; I can come near telling where I aint been.

Q. Are you a married man? A. I am.

Q. When were you married? A. Married in '70.

Q. Where? A. San Diego, California.

Q. Were you living there at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where is your family now? A. City of Los Angeles.

Q. At what place or building did you first see John W. Hillmon?

A. I think it was at the Globe Hotel, Wichita, Kansas.

Q. There was no special intimacy between you and Hillmon was there?

A. In a few days after he came there he found out that I was a horse man and understood catching wild horses he made me a proposition to go out on the Range Western Kansas; he wanted to know how much I would take and go with him and show him the secret of catching wild horses. I believe I offered to take five or six hundred dollars; it was about that amount he told me that [that] he could pay me about three hundred dollars down. I told him that was no object to me; I also helped him to buy a pair of horses, wagon and camping outfit. I sold him part of it and helped him buy the balance.

Q. Does your answer to the last question indicate the character of the intimacy between you and Hillmon?

A. I think though the question I answered prior to that will be sufficient with regard to playing checkers, etc.

Q. I ask you again was there any special intimacy between you and Hillmon?

A. Well nothing more of any importance that I can remember of.

Q. He was simply a casual acquaintance with whom you were associated as you have indicated only for a few days was he not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have given testimony in this case at two trials heretofore had have you not?

A. Yes, sir; I believe it is two trials I'll be plagued if I can remember I think only one.

Q. You have been interrogated heretofor in relation to the same matters to which you have testified to-day have you not?

A. Only on the witness stand at Leavenworth.

1720 Q. When were you last examined as a witness in this case?

A. I don't think I ever was examined but once only at Leavenworth as I can remember of.

Q. When were you examined at Leavenworth as a witness in this case?

A. I believe it was in 1880 or '81 it might have been '82 I am not very good at keeping the dates.

Q. Who was the presiding judge on the trial at Leavenworth when you testified as a witness?

A. I don't remember, I don't know as I ever heard his name.

Q. Describe the appearance of the presiding judge at that trial.

A. I can't remember it, it appears to me like a man between forty and fifty with a light mustache if I ain't mistaken, pretty hard to remember only seeing a man about fifteen minutes.

Q. Do you mean to be understood that you were in the court room only about fifteen minutes while that trial was in progress?

A. Well, I said fifteen minutes, it was part of a half a day [it] might have been in the court room an hour or hour and a half.

Q. Which of the attorneys for the plaintiff in this action conducted your cross-examination on that trial?

A. I don't remember as I ever heard his name unless it was this gentleman here (pointing to Mr. Riggs). I think it was you.

Q. Do you know and can you tell whether the Mr. Riggs who is now examining you has any front teeth missing?

A. I have not noticed him close enough to see or tell.

Q. At the time you knew John W. Hillmon and were associating with him, there was no special reason why you should observe his teeth, was there?

A. Well, I can't say that there was.

Q. Was there any special reason why you should have observed his foot?

A. Nothing particular that I know of. I used to observe him walking up and down the street with me and I noticed he had a very pretty foot.

Q. Are you as observant of the teeth and feet of all your acquaintances as you were of Hillmon's?

A. Well, not generally, he was a man of rather fine appearance and who would attract attention; he was well dressed and made rather a fine appearance, his clothes look neat, fit him neatly, and a person would naturally notice him more than some people. I noticed him more particularly than some on account of the inducements that he held out to me to go with him.

Q. Why should the inducements he held out to you to go with him have made you notice him more particularly than you would others?

A. Well, it's natural for any one to notiice a party that he has any idea of doing any business with when he is with him ten days or two weeks or such a matter.

1721 Q. It was because you had an idea of doing business with Hillmon that you noticed his feet and teeth was it?

A. Well, [—] person naturally would notice them more than any other person.

Q. Why?

A. Well, that is a hard question to answer. I have answered that before, it is natural for a person to notice one who throws out inducements to him to do business where he has the money to put up for it.

Q. You have stated then the only reasons you had for noticing Hillmon's teeth and feet have you?

A. Well, I put another answer in there if you want it in regard to his teeth he used to eat at the same table at the hotel with us and I had to notice his teeth more than I would some probably.

Q. When did you first notice that Hillmon had a missing tooth?

A. It might have been three or four days or a week before I noticed it, it is pretty hard for a man to remember the exact date after seven or eight years.

Q. What circumstance first called your attention to the fact that he had a missing tooth? A. I can't remember now.

Q. Do you know Geo. J. Barker, one of the attorneys for the defendant in this case? A. I don't remember him.

Q. Do you know James W. Green, Esq., one of the attorneys for the defendant in this case?

A. I recognize [—] as the gentleman here in the room.

Q. You have had several conversations with him about this case, have you not? A. Well, nothing very particular.

Q. But you have had several conversations with him about the case, have you not?

A. No, sir. I asked him yesterday if he wanted my deposition in this case after I found out who he was and he said he did, and that is all the conversation we had in regards to the case. We talked about other matters.

Q. Had you never before yesterday had any conversations with Mr. Green about this case?

A. I answered no, sir, thinking he meant yesterday. Oh, yes.

Q. Have you at Los Angeles heard read or read yourself or heard stated your testimony given at any trial of this cause or any portion of such testimony?

A. I don't think I have, not here.

Q. Do you know, and can you state, whether or not J. W. Green, the attorney for the defendant here present has any front tooth out? A. I couldn't say.

1722 Q. You spoke of a scar on Hillmon's hand, on which hand was that scar?

A. I don't remember. I think on the left. I ain't positive.

Q. Can you state any special reason why you observed that scar? A. Yes, sir, I can.

Q. State it?

A. In moving the checkers on the checker board is how I noticed the scar in playing at the hotel.

Q. Can you state when you first noticed that scar?

A. Not the exact date.

Q. Was it a deep scar?

A. Well, so as to show a white streak.

Q. How long was that scar on the back of his hand?

A. About an inch and a half from the forks of his thumb and finger.

Q. Was the shape of his hand anywise affected by the injury which produced the scar?

A. I think the skin was drawed or contracted a very little.

Q. Have you any special reason for remembering the size or shape of Hillmon's foot?

A. I have answered that before plain as I can.

Q. Have you no other reasons than those stated by you heretofore? A. Not that I remember.

Q. Have you any other reasons for remembering the appearance or descriptive features of Hillmon than those you have stated in this deposition?

A. I should rather think I had.

Q. State them?

A. Well, after the occurrence came up of this man being murdered and knowing that Hillmon was trying to get me into the same trap it is natural for one to suppose that they would remember something about him more particular than others. I was also placed on the detective department to look after such matters to a certain extent, consequently I keep it more on my mind.

Q. Who placed you on the detective department?

A. Iowa Detective Association. I have still my credentials at the house to show for it.

Q. When were you placed on the detective deparament?

A. In Utah four years ago. Salt Lake City.

Q Who paid you for your services in that capacity?

A. No regular pay except in rewards; rewards were divided between the detectives and the association.

Q. Why should your being placed on the detective department of the Iowa Detective Association four years ago afford you any reasons for remembering the descriptive features of John W. Hillmon whom you last saw in March, 1879?

1723 A. Well there were photographs and descriptive lists forwarded to detectives in different parts of the country.

Q. Did you while in that service have a photograph and a description of John W. Hillmon? A. I had his photograph.

Q. Did you have any description of him?

A. No, sir.

Q. From who did you receive his photograph?

A. I think his photograph was sent to me from Lawrence from whom I don't know.

Q. Was this prior to your testifying at Leavenworth in this case?

A. Must have been two or three years after I testified in this case.

Q. Where was your home at that time?

A. I was traveling at that time between Colorado and this country and New Mexico also.

Q. For whom were you traveling? A. For myself.

Q. On what business?

A. I was selling books, medicines, and operating on horses, veterinary work.

Q. Were you also looking for John W. Hillmon?

A. Not particularly so.

Q. Were you at all looking for John W. Hillmon?

A. Not particularly.

Q. Why did you have the photograph of John W. Hillmon at that time?

A. It was sent me along with a number of others.

Q. Were they all sent from Lawrence? A. No, sir.

Q. Were any others sent from Lawrence? A. No, sir.

Q. Who sent you Hillmon's photograph?

A. I don't know, it just came in an envelope to me.

Q. Did you write for it? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have a photograph of one Frederick A. Walter of Fort Madison, Iowa?

A. I did have a photograph of what was termed the dead body the name I didn't know.

Q. Where did you get that?

A. I got it from Theodore Wiseman.

Q. When did you get it from Wiseman?

A. In April, 1879.

Q. Was this photograph the photograph of a dead body or was it the photograph of a living person?

1724 A. The photograph of a dead body I should call it.

Q. Was it a body lying in a box or coffin?

A. I think it was in a coffin.

Q. While you were in Utah, New Mexico and Colorado did you make any search or inquiry for John W. Hillmon?

A. I never made any search or particular inquiry I always had a lookout if I could see any such man.

Q. Who secured your appointment in this Iowa Detective Association?

A. I don't remember his name he was a special agent of that company.

Q. Where were you when that appointment was made?

A. In my room at the Cliff house in Salt Lake City.

Q. Did you solicit this appointment? A. No, sir.

Q. How long after you received the appointment was it that you received the photograph of Hillmon from Lawrence?

A. Some two or three months while I was at Salt Lake and I was there five months.

H. B. MARSHALL.

1725 United States of America in the District of Kansas.

State of Kansas,
County of Sedgwick.

Be it remembered that on this 18th day of May, A. D. 1881, at the office of H. G. Ruggles, in the City of Wichita, County of Sedgwick, State of Kansas in the District aforesaid before me A. T. Owen a Notary Public in and for the County and State aforesaid and duly commissioned and qualified under the laws of the State of Kansas to take depositions for use in the Circuit Courts of the United States personally appeared Julius Draves of sound mind and lawful age witness for the defendant in a civil suit now depending in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Kansas wherein Sallie E. Hilmon is plaintiff and the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York is defendant and the said witnesses being by me carefully examined and cautioned and duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth did thereupon depose and say.

Julius Draves being called and duly sworn deposes and says.

Julius Draves:

Ques. 1. State your name age and residence.

Ans. 1. My name is Julius Draves my age is 26 years; my place of residence Wichita, Kansas.

Ques. 2. State where you lived in the winter of 1878 & 9? and what business you were engaged in?

Ans. 2. During the winter of 1878 I was farming in Iowa and came to Wichita, Kansas, in the winter of '79.

Ques. 3. Who kept the Globe Hotel when you came here in 1870? Ans. 3. Adam Bittel and H. C. Draves.

Ques. 4. State as definitely as you can the month and day of the month on which you arrived in Wichita in 1879?

Ans. 4. I will not be positive but it was somewhere along the 2d or 4th of January.

Ques. 5. How soon after your arrival at Wichita did you go to the Globe Hotel to board? Ans. 5. Right off.

Ques. 6. State that if in the winter of 1879 after your arrival in Wichita you became acquainted with one John W. Hillmon?

Ans. 6. It was the 20th of January the first I saw him.

Ques. 7. Where did you first see him?

7 Ans. At the Globe House in Wichita.

8 Ques. Did he board there?

8 Ans. He came there to board.

9 Ques. Were you boarding there at that time?

1726 9 Ans. Yes, sir.

10 Ques. During the time you and him were boarding at that hotel did you see him frequently?

10 Ans. Yes, sir.

11 Ques. State as definitely as you can how tall a man this man Hillmon was?

11 Ans. From 5 feet 8½ in. to 5 feet 9 in.

12 Ques. You may state who was present at the time Hillmon was measured?

Objected to by plaintiff as leading and as assuming that the witness has testified to that to which he has not testified and therefore incompetent. The defendant withdraws the last question for the present.

13 Ques. How did you happen to ascertain or find out Hillmon's height?

13 Ans. There were several of us outside of the Globe House and [go] to arguing about the height which was the tallest.

14 Ques. State what was done?

14 Ans. There were six of us that measured.

15 Ques. On what did you measure?

15 Ans. We stood up against a post in front of the Globe House.

16 Ques. Who was present at that measurement at that time?

16 Ans. Brown, Nichols, Bowman, Campbell, Hillmon and myself is all that I can remember.

Cross-examined

By Plffs Counsel S. A. Riggs:

17 Ques. Did you use any rule to measure with?

17 Ans. No, sir.
18 Ques. What was Brown's full name?
18 Ans. John Brown.
19 Ques. Did he live in Wichita?
19 Ans. He came with Hillmon.
20 Ques. Did you make a memorandum of the heights of the various parties? 20 Ans. No, sir.
21 Ques. What was Brown's height?
21 Ans. Brown's height was about 5 feet 8¼ in.
22 Ques. Did you use any tapeline or any other measure?
22 Ans. No, sir; not at the time.
23 Ques. Does the post you speak off stand on a pavement or on a board walk?
23 Ans. It stands on the pavement in under the porch.
24 Ques. Is that pavement of wood, brick or stones?
24 Ans. Wood.
25 Ques. Does the post by which you measured rest on the wood or has it some other foundation?
25 Ans. It rests on the wood.
26 Ques. What plan did you take to ascertain the height of the man standing against the post?
26 Ans. Had a straight piece of wood to hold across 1727 and made a mark with a knife.
1727 27. Ques. Who held the piece of wood over Hillmon's head?
27. Ans. If I am not mistaken it was Bowman.
28 Ques. Did he make the mark with the knife also at the time Hillmon was measured?
28. Ans. No Sir I made the mark.
29. Ques. Did you make all the marks?
29. Ans. No Sir.
30. Ques. What marks did you make?
30. Ans. Hillmon's Browns & Nichols.
31. Ques. What is Bowman's full name and where does he live?
31. Ans. Charley Bowman I can not tell you where he lives; the last I heard of him he was in Denver.
32. Ques. What was his height at that time?
32. Ans. I can not say exactly the mark was not made; he was the smallest man in the ought fit and we did not make his mark.
33. Ques. When did you first measure these heights?
33. Ans. I am not positive but I think it was in May.
34. Ques. Did you at the time you made the marks write the names of the persons opposite the marks? (Objected by Defendants' Counsel on the grounds that the Question has already been answered by the witness.)
34. Ans. No Sir.

35. Ques. Who requested you to make these measurements?

35. Ans. Really no one requested me to make the measurements.

36. Ques. What was your height on that day?

36. Ans. A little over 5 feet 8 in.

37. Ques. What was Nichols' height?

37. Ans. I have not measured his correct it is some over 6 feet.

38. Ques. You say you measured these in May. May in what year?

38. Ans. In the year 1879.

39. Ques. Is that the only time you ever measured them?

39 Ans. Yes sir, until I tried to measure them to-day and it is painted over.

40. Ques. You could not measure them to-day?

40. Ans. No sir.

41. Ques. At the time you marked the heights on the post was the post an old one or a new one?

41. Ans. It was not new but had never been painted. I will not be sure whether it was painted but if it was it was a drab color.

42. Ques. It was an ordinary awning post was it not?

42. Ans. Yes sir.

43. Ques. When you made these measurements in May what kind of a rule did you use?

43. Ans. A wooden two-foot rule a pocket rule.

1728 44. Ques. Whose was it?

44. Ans. I am not positive, but I think it was Campbell's.

45. Ques. Did you apply the rule to the post yourself?

45. Ans. Yes Sir.

46. Ques. State all the persons who were present when you made that measurement.

46. Ans. A detective Munn H. C. Draves Campbell and several others but I do not recollect their names.

47. Ques. Do you swear that Munn did not furnish this rule (objected to by the Defendant on the grounds that the question has already been asked and answered by the witness).

47. Ans. I would not because Campbell started upstairs after his rule and that was the only rule I saw there at the time.

48 Ques. Do you swear positively that Munn did not furnish the rule you used on that occasion.

48 Ans. I do not.

49 Ques. Did you make at the time you made these measurements any written memorandum of them.

49 Ans. No. sir.

50 Ques. Then you only testify now from your recollection of measurements made two years ago, do you?

50 Ans. Yes, sir.

51 Ques. This Mr. Munn was a stranger in Wichita wasn't he?

51 Ans. I don't know that he was in Wichita, he was a stranger to me.

52 Ques. Now [all] you mean to swear positively that John W. Hillmon's height at the time you have stated was not over 5 feet 9 inches.

52 Ans. It was not over that as near as I could get it.

53 Ques. Now do you mean to swear positively that John W. Hillmon's height at the time you have stated was not over 5 feet 9 inches.

53 Ans. That is a pretty hard question to answer; he was not taller than that according to what we measured him.

54 Ques. You are not willing then to swear to the accuracy of your measurement, are you?

54 Ans. I swear it is correct by the way we measured him at the time he was measured.

55 Ques. And you swear positively to the accuracy of your memory do you? 55 Ans. Yes, sir.

56 Ques. How is it then that you can not fix his height any nearer than to say 5 feet 8½ or 5 feet 9 in.

56 Ans. Well, it might not [—] been measured as particular as that but it is between that.

57 Ques. State whether or not one of the front teeth of John W. Hillmon was missing when you saw him in Wichita at the time stated.

1729 58 Ques. State what kind of teeth John W. Hillmon had at the time spoken of, whether good or defective in appearance.

58 Ans. They were good in appearance as far as I know.

59 Ques. How long did John W. Hillmon board at the Globe Hotel while you were boarding there?

59 Ans. I would not be positive, but all of two weeks though.

60 Ques. How frequently did you converse with him?

60 Ans. About every day more or less.

61 Ques. How long at a time state the extent and character of your association with him?

61 Ans. Sometimes two or three hours at a time.

62 Ques. Who started away from Wichita with John W. Hillmon when he went if you know.

62 Ans. Brown is the only one that I know of.

63 Ques. By what kind of a conveyance did they leave Wichita?

63 Ans. They had a double team with provisions.

64 Ques. What kind of a wagon and what kind of a team describe both as near as you can?

64 Ans. As far as the team I can not describe the color of the team, just saw the team as they went out, they were horses. They had a lumber wagon I think, a small size light.

65 Ques. State whether or not it had springs or cover; both, or either?

65 Ans. Can't say if it had springs, I don't think it had; there was bows on it for cover, the cover was not up.

66 Ques. State how they came to Wichita, by what kind of conveyance?

66 Ans. I did not see them as they came until they came into the door of the hotel.

67 Ques. State the date when you saw them come into the door of the hotel referred to?

67 Ans. It was the 20th day of January, 1879, I think.

68 Ques. On what date did they leave in the wagon as you have stated?

68 Ans. I do not know because I did not pay any attention.

69 Ques. State the month and the day of the month as near as you can.

69 Ans. I would not be positive what month, but I think about the first of March.

70 Ques. By what road did they leave town?

70 Ans. When I saw them they started west.

Redirect Examination

71 Ques. When you made the measurement of the post when Mr. Munn was present had it then been repainted.

71 Ans. No sir.

72 Ques. Did Mr. Munn produce a rule at that [—] or did he call for a rule?

1730 72 Ans. I think I spoke about a rule first.

73 Ques. What was done when you spoke about a rule by any of the persons present?

73 Ans. Campbell went up-stairs after one at the Globe house.

74 Ques. What did you do while he was gone if anything?

74 Ans. I went into H. C. Draves and waited on customers.

75 Ques. When you returned again was the rule present?

75 Ans. Yes, sir.

76 Ques. Was it the same rule with which you made the measurement?

76 Ans. I made the measurement after I came out of H. C. Draves waiting on customers I made the measurement with that rule after I came out.

77 Ques. What was Mr. Campbell's business?

77 Ans. Carpenter, by trade.

78 Ques. Where was Mr. Campbell the first time you knew of him?

78 Ans. I do not recollect the place he was in I heard of him last winter.

79 Ques. Has Mr. Campbell been in Wichita for some time past? 79 Ans. No, sir, not that I know of.

80 Ques. State to the best of your knowledge and recollection when he left Wichita?

80 Ans. He left Wichita the summer of 1879, I judge about the middle of the summer.

81 Ques. Do you remember who you gave this rule to when you got through measuring?

81 Ans. Yes sir, I gave it to Campbell.

82 Ques. You never noticed the teeth of Hillmon particularly, did you while you were boarding there?

82 Ans. Not particularly.

83 Ques. From any observation or examination which you made of Hillmon's teeth would you swear that the tooth next to the eye tooth on the left-hand side in the upper jaw in front in his mouth was not a broken or defective tooth?

83 Ans. I could not.

JULIUS DRAVES.

1731 P. V. Healey, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truthand nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. W. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Where do you live, Mr. Healey? A. Wichita, Kansas.

Q. What business are you engaged in?

A. Real estate business.

Q. Where were you living in 1878 and 1879?

A. Wichita.

Q. In what business were you engaged at that time?

A. In the real estate business.

Q. Do you know such a place as the Globe Hotel?

A. Yes, I did know such a place.

Q. There was such a place in Wichita at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far was your place of business from what was known at that time as the Globe Hotel, in Wichita, Kansas?

A. About 200 feet.

Q. I will ask you if in the winter of 1879 you became acquainted with a young man by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. I did.

Q. About what time in the winter did you first make his acquaintance? A. I think in January or February, 1879.

Q. Did you have any business with him during that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I did.

Q. State if in addition to your real estate business you did any other business? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the nature of that business?

A. I bought and sold railroad tickets.

Q. Now, you may state generally the character of the business which you had with Frederick Adolph Walters.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial; objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

1732 A. He sold some railroad tickets for me.

Q. Up to what time did you see him in 1879? Up to about what time?

A. Up to somewhere about the last of February or the first of March.

Q. About how often was he in your place of business, about how many times did you see him from the time you made his acquaintance until the first of March, 1879?

A. Not less than half a dozen times, maybe more.

Q. Could you give a description of Mr. Frederick A. Walters so far as height and color of his hair?

A. He had dark hair and I remember he was very near my height.

Q. What is your height?

A. I don't know as I ever measured, but I am 5 feet 10 and over.

Q. You say he had dark hair? A. Dark hair.

Q. Did you observe his teeth?

Q. Well, I don't remember as to his teeth; I don't remember anything peculiar about his teeth.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as not responsive to the question. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

[A.] Did you during that time become acquainted with two men in Wichita by the name of Hillmon and Brown?

A. I did not become acquainted with them.

Q. Did you see them there in Wichita?

A. I saw two men that Mr. Walters told me were—

The plaintiff objects to the answer as not responsive to the question and hearsay, and moves to strike it out. Motion overrules, the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. You can answer the question.

A. I saw two men that Mr. Walters told me was Hillmon and Brown.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as hearsay. Motion overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. Where did you see those men; I am speaking of the men called Hillmon and Brown?

1733 A. The first time I saw them on the street; passed them on the street with Mr. Walters.

Q. Do you remember about when that was with reference to the time Mr. Walters went away or you last saw Mr. Walters? A. It was a very few days before.

Q. Had you seen these men before that time? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember of seeing them after that time?

A. Yes, twice after that.

Q. I am speaking now about the men called Hillmon and Brown; where did you see them; you have spoken of seeing them once in company with Walters. I am asking you for the other occasions on which you saw them.

A. The other time they went by the office with Mr. Walters, and then one morning I went into the Globe Hotel or restaurant where they were, and they were shooting either coppers or dollars, I disremember which.

Q. Where was Mr. Walters at that time?

A. He was in the same room.

Q. What room was that, or what building?

A. I am not positive whether it was the Globe Hotel or the restaurant right alongside of it.

Q. You say the restaurant was close to the hotel?

A. Yes, sir, right on the east side adjoining. The three men were together there; they were all in the same room.

Q. About how many times would you say you saw the three men together in Wichita; I mean by the three men, Walters and the men called Hillmon and Brown?

A. I think only three times.

Q. You have stated that you saw Mr. Walters about the first of March the last time, did you?

A. Somewhere I think about the first of March, after the first of March.

Q. That would be March, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state if at that time he told you or said anything to you in regard to what he was going to do?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

1734 A. He did.

Q. You may go on and state what he said in regard to that.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. He said he was employed by these two men to go west to superintend a cattle ranch, either in Barber county, or if they did not get a satisfactory location in Barber county, they might go on to New Mexico.

Q. Was anything else said by him in regard to that matter at that time; do you remember any further conversation?

A. Well, nothing only that—

Plaintiff objects to the statement unless it involved a declaration of intention.

By the Court: You mean anything respecting his plans for the future?

By Mr. Barker: That is what I mean. Did he make any statement in regard to what he intended to do?

A. No, I think not.

Q. Did you ever see him after that; did you ever see Mr. Walters after that statement? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long after that did you see Mr. Walters?

A. Well, it might have been the next day or it might have been the same day.

Q. Under what circumstances did you see him?

A. He brought back a railroad ticket and he told me he was—

Q. He brought back a railroad ticket, did he?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he say anything in that conversation about his intentions of going away or what he would do?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. He said he was about ready to go away; was going away.

Q. Anything further that he said in regard to his intentions at that time?

A. No, there was nothing in regard to his intentions only that he was going with these men.

1735 Q. Did you ever see him after that?

A. After that last time, after that day?

Q. Yes. A. No.

Q. Did you ever hear from him after that?

A. No, I did not.

Q. I will ask you to state if at that time you were acquainted with any party in Medicine Lodge? A. I was.

Q. I will ask you if at that time you were having business, doing business with any one at Medicine Lodge in Barber county?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I wasn't exactly doing business with them; I had an acquaintance--

Q. Were you having any transactions, was there any one in Medicine Lodge who was doing business for you?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. Really he wasn't doing business for me; he was hauling—

Objection.

Q. You may state with the permission of the Court what he was doing that is, the nature of the work, if any, he was doing for you; I mean by he, the party in Medicine Lodge, Barber County, Kansas?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrevelant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. He was freighting between Wichita and Medicine Lodge; sometimes I helped him to sell some posts when he hauled them into Wichita.

Q. You need not state what the message was, but I will ask you if the last time you saw Frederick Adolph Walters, you sent any message by him to this party in Medicine Lodge?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I did.

1736 Q. That was a verbal message, was it? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was an oral message, was it? A. Yes sir.

And in answer to cross interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Your name is Healy? A. Yes sir.
Q. Live in Wichita? A. Yes sir.
Q. Ever live anywhere else in Kansas? A. No sir.
Q. Where did you live before you went to Wichita?
A. Illinois.

Q. When did you go from Illinois to Wichita?
A. March, 1876.
Q. Lived in Wichita ever since?
A. Yes, with the exception of a few months in Kansas City.
Q. Have you any [any] acquaintance with anybody connected with this trial, beyond the attorneys that have been questioning you?
A. Nothing, only I recognize Mr. Wheat as a man that I used to know when I was a boy.
Q. Are you acquainted with the jurors? A. No sir.
Q. Were you engaged in conversation with any of the jurors this morning? A. Not that I know of.
Q. When did you first testify in this case?
A. At the last trial at Topeka.
Q. That would be in 1896? A. Yes sir.
Q. 1896 and these occurrences were in 1879? A. Yes sir.
Q. You never testified relative to these matters until 17 years after they transpired? A. No sir.
Q. Did you make a memorandum or any note of any kind of this transaction at the time it occurred? A. No sir.
Q. Did Walters, Hillmon or Brown owe you any money at the time they went away? A. No, sir.
Q. Can you give us any reason why you should have 1737 remembered all these things so definitely for 17 years?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, let me ask you this: You say that you knew Walters and saw him on five or six different times; is that your statement? I want to get it correct. I understood you to say you met him 5 or 6 different times?
A. I said not less than six different times.
Q. Not less than six different times?
[—] Not less than that.
Q. Some of them might have been on the same day?
A. Yes, sir. It may be that I met him quite a number of times more.
Q. I understood you to say that he came to you to sell a ticket? A. No, sir. He was in my employ.
Q. Did he come to you to buy a ticket?
A. He came in my—
Q. Answer my question. Did he come to you to sell a ticket the first time you saw him? A. No, sir.
Q. You were a ticket scalper at the time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did he come there to buy a ticket the first time?
A. I don't think he did.
Q. Did he come to you to make inquiries relative to buying or selling of a ticket?
A. I don't know; he was in the office when I was trying to sell a ticket.

Q. Did he come to your office for the buying or selling of a ticket when you first saw him. A. No.

Q. Did he buy a ticket of you at any time?

A. I let him have a ticket without the money and he took it to the Occidental Hotel.

Q. Do you mean to sell to somebody else? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long had you known him?

A. He had been in the office a few times before that.

Q. A few times means two or three or four or five or what?

A. May be more than that.

Q. Did he come [ti] you the first time with any letter of introduction? A. No, sir.

Q. You knew nothing as to who he was except what he told you? A. No.

Q. After you had met him in this way a few times,
1738 you entrusted him with a ticket to sell? A. Yes, sir.

Q. From what point to what point was the ticket and on what road? A. It was on the Santa Fe.

Q. From what point to what point?

A. It was the return portion of a ticket I think from Wichita to Bloomington.

Q. Bloomington, Illinois? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the value of the ticket?

A. Well, I wanted $10 for it and I got $10.

Q. And you gave him this ticket? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he come to you and tell you he knew of a customer and could probably sell it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So you think the first time he came into your office, you were trying to sell a ticket to somebody?

A. No, sir, he had been in the office before that.

Q. You say he did not come to buy a ticket?

A. The first time I saw him?

Q. Yes. A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't come to sell a ticket? A. No, sir.

Q. He didn't come to buy real estate? A. No, sir.

Q. Didn't come to sell real estate? A. No, sir.

Q. He just came in the office? A. He came in the office.

Q. Where was your office with relation to the Globe Hotel?

A. It was about 200 feet east.

Q. Was it on the ground floor or second floor?

A. Ground floor.

Q. In a store room by yourself or with other persons?

A. It was in a store room by [iyself].

Q. You occupied this room? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And there was being conducted, the business of a real estate man and the business of a ticket scalper?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And a little insurance thrown in?

A. I disremember whether there was any fire insurance at that time or not.

Q Have done insurance business in there?

A. Yes, sir, since.

1739 Q. Are you engaged in that business now?

A. Yes sir, I am.

Q. Are you a real estate man? A. Yes sir.

Q. Are you still a ticket scalper? A. No sir.

Q. What else have you done except scalping tickets, selling real estate and being in the insurance business?

A. I was in farming and the cattle business; had a farm.

Q. During the last 17 years? A. Yes sir.

Q. Farming, cattle business, real estate man, insurance and ticket scalper; now, what else?

A. Owned a farm; had both cattle and sheep.

Q. You didn't farm in a real estate office, did you? A. No.

Q. Have you kept up this real estate business all the time?

A. Nearly all the time, yes sir.

Q. Have you followed any other avocations beyond these five or six? A. No. During that time?

Q. Have you carried on any other business than the ones you have named, cattle farming, real estate, ticket scalping and insurance? A. No sir, I have not.

Q. Now, then, you say at the time we have been speaking of, you were only carrying on the business of real estate man and ticket scalper? A. Yes sir.

Q. When Mr. Walters came in the first time, he came neither to buy nor sell real estate nor to buy or sell a ticket; that is a fact? A. Yes sir.

Q. He had no letter of introduction to you? A. No sir.

Q. You had never seen him before and had no previous acquaintance with him; that is a fact?

A. That is a fact.

Q. How long after that did he come in again?

A. I can't remember; to the best of my recollection I saw him the next day.

Q. Of course, it might have been never; what do you think about it? A. It was a few days after.

Q. The next time did he come to buy or sell real estate?

A. No sir.

1740 Q. Did he come to buy or sell a ticket?

A. The next time he came there?

Q. Yes, after the first time; the second time?

A. The second time I don't think he came for that.

Q. The next time; how long a time intervened between the second and third visit as your recollection serves you?

A. I could not tell you.

Q. Of course you can't tell us to a day; you can give us some idea?

A. It might have been a day or so.

Q. That time did he come to buy or sell real estate?

A. No sir.

Q. To buy or sell a ticket? A. I think not.

Q. How long a time intervened between the third and the fourth visit? A. I could not tell you exactly.

Q. Of course not, but your best recollection, sir.

A. It is very hard.

Q. About the same length of time, do you think?

A. Maybe a day or two.

Q. At that time, the fourth visit, did he come there to buy or sell real estate? A. No, he never did.

Q. Did he come to buy or sell a ticket?

A. I don't know whether—

Q. Did you buy a ticket from him? A. No sir.

Q. Did you sell a ticket to him? A. No sir.

Q. Was there a fifth visit after that?

A. I think you said you saw him at least 5 or 6 times?

A. Not less than that; may have seen him more.

Q. The next time did he come there to buy or sell real estate, that is, as indicated by what he said?

A. I don't know as to that.

Q. You don't remember that he came to buy or sell real estate?

A. No, he never came to buy real estate.

Q. We can eliminate the real estate proposition?

A. Yes sir, he never came to buy real estate.

Q. Did he sell the ticket at that time?

A. The first time he came in?

1741 Q. No, the fifth time. Four times he has been there without buying or selling anything, as near as you can make out; how about the fifth time?

A. He never came there to buy or sell anything.

Q. Never came there to buy or sell? A. No sir.

Q. When was the last time that he was in your place as your recollection serves you?

A. Well, just before he departed, he came in to tell me he was going and brought back a ticket that he had.

Q. Now, won't you fix that date, Mr. Healy?

A. It was right about the first of March or after; it may be a day or two after.

Q. How was Mr. Walters dressed?

A. Well, he was dressed pretty fair for a working man; always dressed neat.

Q. He was dressed as a working man?

A. Well, he was dressed, not as a common laboring man, that you would meet every day on the street.

Q. In this country there is no distinctive dress for the laborer, and the office man, the insurance man, the real estate man and the ticket scalper, and so on?

A. He wore dark brown clothes.

Q. Were they fresh and new and evidently expensive or the reverse?

A. They were medium, he always dressed when he came around there, he always dressed, well, with the exception of once I seen him with overalls on; he was helping a carpenter; he was always dressed very neat.

Q. He was rather well dressed? A. Pretty well dressed.

Q. What was there about him that made you say he was dressed like a working man?

A. He was dressed like a working man.

Q. I understood you to say so.

A. He wasn't dressed like a dude; he was dressed pretty fair.

Q. What was there about his garments that caused you to say he was dressed like a working man; what was there in the dress of Mr. Walters that would distinguish him as a working man from a real estate agent, say?

A. I don't know that there [—] anything.

Q. Can you tell us why you said he was dressed like a working man?

1742 A. He was dressed pretty fair; that is all I can say.

Q. That is not quite the question?

A. What is the question?

Q. The question is: why you have stated to the jury that said that; I knew him to be a workingman.

say that?

A. No, I don't say I didn't say it; I don't know why I said that; I knew him to be a warkingman.

Q. By what he told you? A. Yes sir.

Q. That was the only means you had of knowledge?

A. Yes sir.

Q. He was not working in your office? A. No sir.

Q. He was not hired by you? A. No sir.

Q. You say on none of these occasions he came there to buy any ticket from you?

A. No sir, he never bought any ticket directly.

Q. The ticket with which you entrusted him, after you had seen him two or three times, valued at $10, he returned to you, I understood you to say? A. No, he sold it.

Q. Do you know what he was doing; was he following any trade or employment during those few days; was he following any trade during those days that you knew him there; I don't know that you stated how many days?

A. No, he told me he was out of a job; he was looking for a job.

Q. Was he out of money?

A. No he didn't say he was but he said he didn't have ten dollars.

Q. He said he was out of a job? A. Yes sir.

Q. How many days did this acquaintance extend over?

A. My acquaintance with him?

Q. Yes.

A. I think I had met him, I had seen him or met him several times during two months; that is my best recollection at that time.

Q. Your best recollection would be that, beginning at the end, to speak, early in March, 1879, your acquaintance would run back a couple of months?

A. That is as near as I can tell; I might be mistaken in that; it is a long time for me to remember.

1743 Q. That is just what we think; it is a long time to remember. You made no memorandum or note of these transactions? A. No sir.

Q. Now, when did you call upon the insurance people, and give information to them, either personally or upon the witness stand? A. In 1896.

Q. Who was the fortunate man who discovered your information? A. Well sir—

Q. Which one of the insurance agents or attorneys? Do you know his name?

A. The first intimation that I had that I was wanted as a witness was a man by the name of Dent; he told me that A. W.—

A. No matter about Dent or what he told you. I am asking [to] which one of the insurance agents or attorneys you first told this tale to? A. None of them.

Q. When was the first time you talked, so far as you know, telling what you knew of this matter to any insurance agent or attorney? A. In 1896.

Q. Who was that insurance agent or attorney, what was his name? A. Baker, I believe.

Q. He was an insurance agent? A. Yes sir.

Q. Which one of the companies did he represent, if you know? A. I disremember now.

Q. He was an insurance agent though? A. Yes sir.

Q. You knew that? A. I was informed so.

Q. You recognized him as a member of the craft?

A. No sir, I was told to go and see him by Mr.—

Q. You went and saw him? A. Yes sir.

Q. You found him an insurance agent?

A. I think he was.
Q. Representing some of these companies? A. Yes sir.
Q. And that was in 1896, seventeen years after these things occurred? A. Yes sir.
Q. You told them to him just as you have here?
A. Told him what I know about the case.
1744 Q. Did he ask you about any memorandum you had made or anything of that kind? A. No sir.
Q. You saw Hillmon too; the man that was pointed out for Hillmon? A. Yes sir.
Q. The man whose death is involved in this controversy?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You saw that scar on his hand, didn't you? A. No sir.
Q. Didn't you see that his teeth were gone in front?
A. No sir.
Q. Did not? A. No sir.
Q. You saw him on the street? A. Yes sir.
Q. How many times?
A. I saw him twice on the street and once in a building.
Q. In what building?
A. Either in the Globe Hotel or restaurant adjoining it.
Q. How long were you in his presence on that occasion?
A. Very few minutes.
Q. Talk with him? A. No sir.
Q. Was he talking in your presence?
A. I don't know whether he talked in my presence or not.
Q. Well, the group; were you in the group of which he was one? A. I stood very close to him.
Q. As close as you and I are to one another?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Closer perhaps?
A. Well, maybe as close and maybe a little closer.
Q. Were you talking with this man Walter?
A. No sir, I talked with the landlord.
Q. They were close by you? A. They were close by.
Q. Did you go in there with a view of seeing Walter?
A. I went in there with a view of having Walter introduce me to have those two cattlemen.
Q. And he did do it didn't he? A. No sir.
Q. You went in there knowing who they were by sight?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And you saw them again when you went in there?
A. Yes sir.
1745 Q. You were in their presence some time?
A. Well, a very short while.
Q. You think they might have been talking to somebody at the time you were there?

A. They were engaged in throwing in some kind of a game, crackloo or something.

Q. What was that game?

A. I don't know just exactly; I have engaged in different games throwing coppers myself, called crackloo.

Q. You have been engaged in a number of games; this is not one of them you are engaged in now?

Question objected to and withdrawn.

Q. What was this game, Mr. Healy, as your recollection serves you; you remefber there were dollars or coppers?

A. There was dollars or coppers, and they were throwing them to see who could strike nearest a crack in the floor.

Q. Did you take a hand in the game? A. No sir.

Q. Do you mean to say that you as an insurance man would let a game go by involving dollars or coppers?

The defendants objected to the question as improper Objection sustained, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. How long were you watching them engaged in this game? A. A very short while.

Q. Did you see Mr. Hillmon engaged in it?

A. I couldn't tell which was engaged in it.

Q. Is it your recollection that Hillmon was engaged in it?

A. My best recoilection is that he was.

Q. That game involved the use of the hand in the throwing of the copper or dollar? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were they pitching at a mark to see how close they would come?

A. They were throwing them up and letting them fall down on the floor.

Q. Heads or tails? A. Something of that character.

Q. And this man was indulging in it too?

A. At the time I think he was.

1746 Q. You didn't se any scar on his hand? A. No sir.

Q. Did you see him laugh there during the course of this game? A. I don't remember that I did.

Q. You think he spoke to the other man; he talked some?

A. I presume he did.

Q. You didn't see anything wrong with his teeth?

A. No, I didn't notice anything wrong.

Q. Well, you and the man were so close together that you would have had an opportunity to notice if he had, wouldn't you? A. I might; I don't know.

Q. Don't you rather think you would?

A. No, I don't hardly think I would.

Q. You remember what Walters said to you on these different occasions?

A. Very well; I was paying attention to that.

Q. When you were watching the game, you were not paying attention to that? A. No sir.

Q. When you were listening to Walters you were paying attention paying such attention that you remember it after 17 years and finally told it to an insurance man?

A. Yes sir.

By the Court: Do I understand you to say that Walters claimed to be a carpenter?

A. No sir, he did not; he worked a day or two with a carpenter; a day and a half.

By Mr. Atwood: Mr. Hutchings desires me to ask another question as to the length of time you were acquainted with Walters. I understood you to say it was two months, that it concluded the first part of the month of March; am I right about that?

A. I am not positive as to the length of time.

Q. You did not fix your attention upon that?

A. A great many would drop into my office, and I wouldn't know just when the time was.

Q. The fact is that you did quite an extensive business there at that time, did you not; things were pretty active in Wichita in that year? A. Yes, sir.

1747 Q. Your office was on one of the main streets of the city and a great many people would visit you in one day?

A. A great many people.

Q. You did a great deal of business? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, having refreshed your recollection in the way you have, how long would you say your acquaintance, extended, over how long a period of time?

A. Well, my recollection is that he was in my office once or twice, and then after he came and took the ticket he was in there frequently, and stayed there; he wrote letters in my office, and we had conversations about those letters.

A. The question is how long you knew him, in days, weeks or months? A. Well, that I could not—

Q. Do you think you were right when you said a few moments ago that you knew him two months; what is your best recollection as to the time intervening between the first time that he came into your office to buy or sell either real estate or railroad tickets, from that time until you last saw him, what would be your recollection as to the length of time?

A. My recollection is that it was,—that I seen him in January, and got better acquainted with him; got better acquainted with him—

Q. Won't you tell us about— A. February.

Q. A couple of months? A. About two months.

Q. That would be your best recollection?

A. Yes, sometime.

Q. Do you think your recollection is fairly accurate upon that point?

A. Well, it may not be on that point.

Q. It is or is not?

A. I say it may not be on that point.

Q. Of course, I don't know anything about it; you have to tell me; it may or it may not be entirely inaccurate.

A. That is my opinion that I knew him in January.

Q. When you say your opinion, that is what you believe to be the fact? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is your best recollection of the occurrence?

A. Yes, sir.

1748 Q. And your recollection extends over the months of January and February; is that right?

A. That is true.

Q. Embraced enough of those months to make it practically two months? A. Well, no.

Q. How long?

A. That would not be what I mean; I think I met him in January, and then again he was there in February; he might have been gone from there; I can't say, while I didn't see him, he might have.

Q. What time in January was it that you first met him?

A. I could not say as to that.

Q. What is your recollection as to its being early or late in the month?

A. It may have been about the middle of the month.

Q. What would be your best recollection; of course, it might not have been at all.

A. My recollection is that I met him in January, the first time I ever met him at all. That is a long time ago for me to state.

Q. It is not too long for you to remember these things. Do you remember the circumstance of meeting him the first time?

A. No, I don't.

Q. I thought you said something to the jury about his coming to [you] your office?

A. That was not the first time.

Q. Now, the first time he came, he didn't buy or sell anything.

A. The first time I remember of speaking to him—

Q. I am not asking you that. I am asking what your best recollection is as to the first time you saw him. Now, Mr. Healy, as intelligent a man as you are certainly knows what that question is. Please be so good as to answer it.

A. I could not tell you as to that.

Q. I do not ask for the exact date, but your best recollection, whether it was the 1st or the 15th of December, the end of December or from the 1st to the 15th of January, or so on.

A. It was somewhere from the first to the last of January; maybe the 6th to the last; I could not tell.

1749 Q. Why do you think it was in January at all?

A. It was quite a while from the time that he came in until I got real well acquainted with him.

Q. Your mind runs back, as you say, but why do you fix it as January that you first met him?

A. I know it was after Christmas.

Q. Do you think it was much time after Christmas?

A. Might have been two or three weeks.

Q. What is your best recollection as to whether it was two or three weeks?

A. I haven't got any definite recollection.

Q. You have no recollection as to how long your acquaintance lasted, then, whether it was a week, or two weeks or three weeks or six?

A. I think this, that he came into my office first in January and then I got better acquainted with him the last of February.

Q. I did not ask you that. Won't you go back—you have the intelligence to know, with your remarkable memory, to find out when was the first time, as your recollection serves you, you first got acquainted with him; you must have some recollection of having met him the first time?

A. It was in January.

Q. That is as near as you can fix it?

A. That is about as near.

Q. Why do you fix it in January?

A. I know that I met him quite a while before he came into the office and took this ticket.

Q. How long is "quite a while" in your vocabulary?

A. What I mean by that is it was two or three weeks.

Q. Before you got so well acquainted with him?

A. Got acquainted with him, yes sir.

Q. How long did this intimate acquaintance with him last?

A. That didn't last more than eight or ten days.

Q. Possibly two weeks? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You knew him then about five weeks; is that right?

A. That would be very near the length of time I knew him.

Q. That acquaintace terminated early in the month of March? A. About that.

1750 Q. And the acquaintance extended backward from that time about five weeks? A. Yes, sir.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You have said that you were in the insurance business among other things. What is it, fire or life insurance?

A. Fire insurance.

Q. They asked you if there was any circumstance or anything happened that fixed this matter upon your mind, that is, the matter of having seen Walters, and you said there was. You may state what that circumstance was, now.

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. What was that question?

Q. I undestood you were asked if there was any circumstance or anything that happened which made you remember your acquaintance with Mr. Walters, which made you recollect the fact that you were acquainted with him, and I understood you to state that there was; you may state what that circumstance was.

A. That circumstance was my sending word by him to Tom McKnight to Medicine Lodge to bring in—

The plaintiff objects to the answer and moves to strike it out as hearsay and immaterial. Motion overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. I will ask you if you received any reply to the message which you sent by him?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial, and as a repetition. Overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. No, sir.

Q. You may state; if you remember, when you heard of the circumstance of a man being killed out there in Barber county?

1751 The plaintiff objects to the uqestion as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Do you remember when you first heard of that matter?

A. Why, yes.

Q. About when was it?

A. It was only two or three weeks after Mr. Walters left.

Q. I will ask you about hese transactions about the tickets; they have ask you concerning them. You may state the first transaction you had with him in regard to a ticket and the character of it, what it was?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. You may go on and state what it was?

A. I was trying to sell a ticket to a man that dropped into the office and Mr. Walters was there and after the party went out—he didn't take the ticket; he told me that he thought he could sell the ticket to a man at the Occidental Hotel who was going back east. I told him that he might have it for $10, and sell it, and have what he got over that; he told me he didn't have ten dollars.

Q. Then what did you do?

A. I let him take the ticket; trusted him with it until he could sell it, and he sold it, and brought back the money.

Q. How long was it from the time he took the ticket until he sold it, and brought the money? A. It was not an hour.

Q. You have spoken of other transactions in regard to tickets; you may state briefly what they were, from that time on?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Well, after he sold, well, two or three tickets, I let him go to the drawer and take tickets out any time he wanted.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the latter part of the answer as not responsive to the question. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them duly except.

1752 Q. You may state if he sold tickets? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state what he did in reference to paying for them? A. He always paid for them.

Q. Do you remember when you had the last transaction with him in regard to a ticket, when it was with reference to the last time you saw him?

A. The last time he brought a ticket back and bade me good-bye.

Q. Was that a ticket he had had to sell? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, in regard to this St. Louis matter; who do you say was the first party who [say] you in regard to this matter of your testimony? A. Robert Dent.

Q. How did you happen to see him?

A. I met him on the street.

Q. Were you acquainted with him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him in regard to this matter? A. He told me—

Q. You may go on and state what was said in regard to it; I want to know how you happened to be a witness in this case?

A. He told me that A. W. Oliver had a telegram for me and to go to his office and see about it.

Q. That is the first time you have ever conversed wit any insurance man except Wiseman in regard to this matte

By the Court: He never said anything about Wiseman.

Q. I will ask you if that was the first time you ever talke with any one in regard to this case?

A. No, I had talked before to parties in regard to th case ten years before.

Q. I will ask you now just to state what took place dow there at St. Louis, and how you happened to come up here t testify on that occasion?

A. Well, I went up to see Mr. Oliver and there was a tel gram from C—

Objection.

Q. There was a telegram there?

A. Yes, and for me to come and testify in the Hillmo case.

Q. You came up and testified, did you?

A. Mr. Oliver told me to go and see an agent for the in surance company; told me who they were and I wen

1753 and told Mr. Baker all I knew about the case and Mr Baker took me to an attorney and I made the state ment to him and he thought that there was—

Q. What did they do? A. What did the attorney do

Q. What did you do?

A. I left, not intending that I was to come—

Objection.

[—] I left and I went away and attended to me—

Q. You went away, did you from there?

A. I went away in two or three days.

Q. Go on and state the next thing that took place in r gard to it?

A. Two or three days, a couple of days afterwards, the were hunting me up again, and Mr.—

Objection.

Q. Go on and state what was done?

A. Mr. Baker then found me and had me to come up t Topeka to testify in the case.

Q. And you testified in 1896? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, I will ask you if you hunted anybody up or the hunted you up for the purpose of coming here?

A. I didn't hunt anybody up I didn't want to come.

Q. Did you know Mr. Marsh Murdock? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with him in rega to this transaction?

The plaintiff objects to the question as hearsay. Objection sustained, the defendants duly excepts.

And in answer to recross-interrogatories propounded to him by Jno. H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Whom did you say Mr. Oliver was?
A. Mr. Oliver used to be president of the Wichita National Bank.
Q. Well, what was he when you were told to go up to his office in St. Louis?
A. Why, his office was in the Wainwright building
1754 in St. Louis and dealing in stocks and bonds, I think and mortgages maybe.
Q. What was he doing there at this time in 1896?
A. He is the one I spoke of to whom Bob Dent sent me.
Q. He sent you to Oliver's office? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had you any business with Bob?
A. No, just met him on the street.
Q. Had you any business with Oliver? A. No, sir.
Q. When you got to Oliver's office, where did he send you?
A. He sent me to Baker's.
Q. Baker a lawyer?
A. No, he is an insurance agent.
Q. Don't remember which one of these companies he represented?
A. I believe it is the Connecticut; I am not sure; I would not be positive.

By the Court: In St. Louis?

A. Yes, Baker Brothers.
Q. Mr. Barker asked you where Mr. Baker took you?
[—] Mr. Baker took me to an attorney; I think he was the insurance company's attorney.
Q. That was on the same day? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you next see Baker again; the next day?
A. No, not the next day. The next day I was busy at the stock yards.
Q. How many days intervened between?
A. It was inside of three days, I think; I think so.
Q. Did you go anywhere with Mr. Baker after you met him on this third day? A. When I met him the last time?
Q. Yes. A. No, he came down—
Q. You have answered the question. Did you see anybody else in connection with this business besides Baker in St. Louis on this third day? A. No, sir.
Q. From Baker, at St. Louis, you came to Leavenworth for the purpose of— A. To Topeka.

Q. For the purpose of testifying? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You said you didn't want to come? A. I did not.
Q. Any subpoena served on you? A. No, sir.
Q. What made you come? A. Well, he asked me.
1755 Q. If you didn't want to come, I mean, of course, you had a perfect right to come if you wanted to.
A. I didn't want to come.
Q. But not wanting to come, you came? A. I came.
Q. When you got to Kansas City who met you?
A. There was a fellow met me there; I think Mr.—
Q. Whom of these gentlemen on the other side, or were then on the other side, met you; lawyers or agents?
A. I believe I met either on the train or at Kansas City, Mr. Ware.
Q. Mr. Eugene Ware, one of the lawyers in the case?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. He came down with the idea of meeting you?
A. I don't know.
Q. Didn't he say he did? A. No.
Q. Did you know him before that? A. Oh, yes.
Q. You knew him? A. Knew him well.
Q. You knew he was connected with this case?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Knew him well, and knew he was connected with the Hillmon case? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did he mention the Hillmon case to you when he met you on the train? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was the trial in progress at that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Instead of being in the court-room attending the trial, he was down there on the train with you; is that a fact?
A. I think he told me they had adjourned the court and was waiting for me to get there.
Q. He came down to Kansas City where you were and met you?
A. In Kansas City probably or on the train; I think I got right on the train as soon as I got into Kansas City, and he got right on the train.
Q. Did you know whom you were going to meet there?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you know you were going to meet any of the insurance people there? A. No, sir.
Q. But when you did meet him, of course, you talked this matter over? A. Yes, sir.
1756 Q. How many days intervened between that and the time you testified? A. A few hours.
Q. Now, is it not a fact that you received a communication by telegram that Ware or somebody for the insurance company would meet you at Kansas City? A. No, sir.
Q. But as a matter of fact he did meet you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you know of any other purpose that Mr. Ware had except of meeting you? A. No, sir.

Q. You talked this case over and went right up and within a few hours you testified. Mr. Ware overcame your disinclination so far as to induce you to do so?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I am not positive that we even talked anything about the case only that they wanted me to come.

Q. Is it not your recollection that you did not talk about the case other than the mere fact that you were going up there to testify; is that your best recollection?

A. No, my best recollection is I was surprised why they had me to testify in the case.

Q. Well, eliminate your surprise; the only thing I want to know now is whether or not it is not a fact that you simply told Ware whom you had known a long time, that you had been requested to come up to Topeka to testify for the insurance people, that you did not want to come, but you had come and that you were going up there to testify; is not that substantially what you told him? A. No, I don't think it was.

Q. Did you tell him what you were going to testify to?

A. I don't think I did.

Q. That is your best recollection of that and that is only back here three or four years; that was in 1896?

A. My recollection is that it was in 1896.

Q. Only three years ago? (No answer.)

1757 Q. Did you go directly upon the witness stand when you arrived at the court house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Barker didn't talk this case over to you before you got to the court house? A. No, sir, I don't think so.

Q. Nor Mr. Green? A. I don't think so.

Q. The fact is you went upon the witness stand, Mr. Healy, without these gentlemen having been told by you what you knew about the case? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is it also a fact, is it not, that you remember these occurrences between yourself and Mr. Walters because shortly after he went away, he didn't deliver your message, and that there was somebody killed at Medicine Lodge? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You associated that death with your acquaintance with Walters? That is a fact? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You had this connection between the two, the fact that he had gone away as he did, telling you with Hillmon and Brown, in your mind from the time that you heard that somebody had been killed at Medicine Lodge; that is a fact, is it not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But you never informed the insurance people interested in this matter until 1896, that is a fact, is it not?
A. I tried to.
Q. Kindly answer the question; is that a fact?
A. I tried to.
Q. Is that a fact, that you, until 1896, never informed the insurance people, their agents or attorneys, or anybody helping them in this conection, of this matter you have just stated? A. I tried to tell—
Q. Will you kindly state whether you did or not. Please answer the question yes or no. The question is this: Is it not a fact that while you associated in your mind the disappearance of Walter and the going away with Hillmon after hearing of the killing at Medicine Lodge, you never imparted this information to any representative of the insurance company until 1896; is not that a fact? A. No.
Q. Who was the representative of the insurance 1758 company that you imparted this information to?
A. Major Wiseman.
Q. You met Wiseman, did you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You did not mention that, did you, to-day? A. No, sir.
Q. Your acquaintance with brother Wiseman: Where did you meet him; at Wichita? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You met him there in 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When he was down there trying to find out about this business? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You knew that that was his mission down there?
A. I was informed.
Q. He informed you? A. No, he did not.
Q. Didn't he tell you? A. No, sir.
Q. Didn't you talk with him?
A. Well, just a few words.
Q. Didn't he show you some pictures? A. No, sir.
Q. Didn't you talk with him? A. No, sir—
Q. Didn't you tell him—
A. Just a minute. I just talked to him—I was introduced to him and shook hands with him and started to tell him—about Mr. Walters and he turned—
Q. You told him, didn't you? A. No, I did not.
Q. Didn't you say a moment ago you knew what his mission was? A. Yes.
Q. And you told him?
A. I did not; I started to tell him.
Q. That is paradoxical; which way is it, you did or did not?
A. A man might start to tell something and not get through and he wouldn't tell it.
Q. You did start, did you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How much of it did you tell Wiseman before he refused to listen to you It was not polite of Wiseman, was it? How much did you tell to Wiseman; did you tell him you knew Walters? A. Yes.

Q. Did you tell him you had given a message to him to take down to Medicine Lodge? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you tell him you had seen Hillmon? A. No.

1759 Q Did you tell him that Walters told you he was going off with Hillmon? A. No.

Q. How much of it did you tell Wiseman?

A. I told him that I knew a man that had disappeared from there by the name of Walters and I thought he was the man.

Q. You told Wiseman that?

A. Yes sir. And he told me he was, they were after the right man; he was after the right man.

Q. That Wiseman was after the right man? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he tell you which one it was, whether Berkley or Nichols?

A. I don't know as I understood from him it was Nichols.

Q. You found it out somehow?

A. Yes, I found it out right away.

Q. You told Wiseman back in the spring of 1879 that you had known Walters, that Walters had gone away with Hillmon, and that you thought the man that was killed down in Barber county was Walters; you told him that?

A. No, I didn't get that much told.

Q. I misunderstood you then. You were introduced to him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Shook hands with him? A. Yes sir.

Q. Then you told him you knew Walters?

A. I don't know as I mentioned the man's name.

Q. You told him you knew a man? A. Yes sir.

Q. That is probably right; you knew a man? A. Yes sir.

Q. And that man had gone off with Hillmon? A. No.

Q. The man had gone off?

A. The man had disappeared.

Q. And you believed that the man who had disappeared was the man who had been killed in Barber county?

A. I don't know whether I even got that far; he straightened up in his dignity and walked off. I felt kind of insulted and never bothered any more with him.

Q. You told him you knew somebody? A. Yes sir.

Q. And that somebody had disappeared? A. Yes sir.

Q. You think that was as far as you got?

A. That is as far as I got, he whirled and went away.

1760 Q. Leave that out. Then the fact remains that Wiseman was down there in search of Berkley, or Burgess or Nichols, or Walters, whatever his name was, whoever the person was, and that you told him that you knew a man who had disappeared that you believed was the man that was killed in Barber county, and he rather rudely left you; if I get it straight, that is about the substance of it?

A. I didn't get half that much told when he whirled around.

Q. Let me find out again how much you told Wiseman before he was rude to you. You told him you knew a man who had disappeared? A. Yes sir.

Q. And you thought that that was the man killed in Barber county. Did you get that much told to him?

A. About that much.

Q. Before he got discourteous and went away from you? That is a fact?

A. He just whirled around; he didn't go away; he said he had the right man.

Q. You told him that much? A. Yes sir.

Q. What was the date of that as near as your recollection serves you?

A. Well, it might have been, I believe somewhere along about April.

Q. That is your recollection, when you say it might have been. That is, of course, your best recollection. That would be April, 1879, of course?

A. 1879; it was not very long—

Q. After the occurrence in Barber county?

A. Not very long.

Q. Would you think it as late as May; of course, no man could be positive, but I want your best recollection?

A. It might have been as late even as May.

Q. When you say as late as May, do you mean as late as any time in May or only the early part of May?

A. It would be pretty hard for me to tell.

Q. I know, but I want your best recollection?

A. I think it was in April.

Q. It possibly might have been in May?

A. Might possibly.

1761 Q. But if it was in May, it was probably the early part of May? A. I should judge.

Q. After telling this to Wiseman, the part you have related to the jury, to wit, that you knew a man who had disappeared, that you thought was the man killed in Barber county, from that time, you never told the insurance men,—I don't mean that,—you never told anybody connected with the defendant companies, anything about these occurrences until 1896; that is a fact, is it not? A. Well, there was—

Q. Please answer yes or no? Until 1896?

A. I don't think I did, with the exception that—

Q. You said, I think a little while ago that you had lived in Wichita practically all the time since 1876; that you were absent a little time. Do I get that right or am I wrong about it? A. Yes sir.

Q. How long were you absent, continuously, I mean?

A. Continuously, I mean.

A. Continuously about eight months.

Q. Was Wichita your home during those eight months?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You were simply temporarily absent? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where were you during those eight months?

A. Part of the time in Kansas City and the balance in St. Louis, Mo. I was from the 25th of August, until the 7th of January near Centralia, Missouri.

Q. All this absence at that time embraced a period of eight months? A. Yes sir.

Q. The balance of the time you have resided in Wichita, Kansas, continuously with a few days' absences that a man occasionally is from home? A. Yes sir.

1762 By Mr. Barker:

Q. You spoke about a man who lived in St. Louis who formerly lived in Wichita, who was connected with a bank; I don't remember his name A. A. W. Oliver.

Q. Did you know Mr. Oliver when he lived in Wichita?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You knew him also in St. Louis? A. Yes sir.

Q. There is one question I omitted to ask you. You spoke about going up to the Globe Hotel and seeing these men Hillmon and Brown and Walters there; you may state your purpose in going to the Globe Hotel at that time, what you wanted to see them for?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Why, I wanted to be introduced to them learning that they were wanting to buy a cattle ranch; I didn't know but what I could sell them something; I waned to be introduced to them; I told Mr. Walters to bring them to the office but he didn't do it, and I thought I would go up and he would give me an introduction.

Q. But you were not introduced to them? A. No sir.

Witness excused.

1763 George Edward Harris, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination by Mr. Barker.

Q. Where do you live, Mr. Harris? A. Wichita.
Q. What is your business?
A. I am a park commissioner.
Q. How long have you resided in Wichita? A. 28 years.
Q. Were you living in Wichita in 1878-9? A. I was, sir.
Q. You may state what your business was at that time?
A. Well, I was in the ice business, and manufacturing aerated waters, and soda waters, agent for the Philip Best Brewing Company; I had all those things at that time.
Q. Were you acquainted at that time with a man by the name of Holsnider? A. Yes, sir.
Q. In what business was he engaged?
A. Manufacturing cigars.
Q. Whereabouts was his place of business in 1878 and 9?
A. On the corner of 2nd and Main, in the building known as the Occidental Hotel.
Q. What was his business? A. Cigarmaker.
Q. Was there a saloon close to his place of business?
A. Yes, sir, the store adjoining south.
Q. His cigar manufactory adjoined the saloon, did it?
A. Yes, sir.
[—] I will ask you if in 1879 or about that time [—] became acquainted with a young man by the name of Fred or Dolph Walters? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state where and under what circumstances you became acquainted with him?
A. I became acquainted with him in the saloon that was kept by Nugent; we used to call him the old man; Nugent and his son John kept the saloon.
Q. Was that the same saloon that you have described as being situated next to Holsnider's cigar factory? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember about what time in the year it was that you became acquainted with him?
A. Well, I think it was in the winter. I should judge in February, of 1879, the latter part of January and Feb-1764 ruary.
Q. Do you know what he was doing at that time. I mean at the time you made his acquaintance?
A. Working for Holsnider I believe at that time.
Q. What means have you of knowing for whom he was working at that time?
A. Holsnider introduced me to him as one of "our boys"; "this is one of my boys," he said; "Mr. Walters, one of our boys, Mr. Harris.
Q. What did you understand by that?
A. I supposed it was a young man that was working for him.

The plaintiff objects to the statement as to what he supposed. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepted.

Q. You may state by what name he was called at that time, whether it was Walters or whether it was Dolph Walters?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

Q. State by what name?
A. Walters; he introduced him to me.
Q. Did you hear him called by his name after that?

The plaintiff objects to the question as hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. Yes, sir, Dolph.
Q. What was he called? A. Dolph.
Q. Do you remember at the time you made his acquaintance how he was dressed, in what garb?
A. No, dressed naturally like an ordinary mechanic, dark clothes, sack coat, I believe.
Q. Do you know from what place he came, that is, when you saw him; from what building or room, or anything of that sort?
A. He came from the room where the cigars were made.
Q. How often do you think you saw him?
A. Oh, I don't know, five or six times, perhaps more; I don't know; I don't remember.
Q. Do you remember about the last time you saw him, and where it was, Mr. Harris?
A. I don't remember to have met him any other place but at this saloon.
1765 Q. Did you meet him more than once? A. Oh, yes.
Q. About how many times would you say you met him there?
A. I could not remember, probably five or six or seven or perhaps a dozen times; I was in there often on my business and saw him occasionally in that way.
Q. You are not able to state when was the last time you did see him?
A. No, the 16th of February I remember to have seen him; I don't remember whether I saw him after that; I might have done so.
Q. Do you recollect having seen him since that time?
A. No, sir.
Q. You have lived in Wichita during all those years have you not?

A. With the exception of six months, I was in Europe in 1886, I have been there ever since.

Q. You know he went away from that place out there?

A. I don't know; I haven't seen him since.

Q. I say, you have not seen him? A. No, sir.

Q. I understood you to say you were a park commissioner?

A. Yes.

Cross-Examination by Mr. Hutchings.

Q. When did you go to Wichita?

A. I went there in 1871, sir.

Q. In 1879 you were an agent for a brewery? A. Yes, sir.

Q. There was a saloon there in Wichita? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Several saloons were there not?

A. Yes, quite a number.

Q. You sold beer to all those saloons? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you sell beer to this particular saloon?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were in that saloon frequently? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You saw a man in the saloon there every time you went there, did you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Twenty years ago? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say you remember seeing a man by the name of Walters in that saloon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In what month of 1879?

A. February, sometimes, and in January, but February I remember more particularly.

1766 Q. Can you give me the name of any other man who was in that saloon in February, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who else was in the saloon 20 years ago when you saw Fred Walters there? A. Mr. Holsnider.

Q. Who? A. Joseph.

Q. He was the proprietor of the saloon, was he?

A. No, sir.

Q. Who else was there? A. John Nugent.

Q. Who else? A. Ed. Ascott. (?)

Q. Who else? A. I don't remember; quite a number.

Q. That was the first time that you saw him in there was it? A. The first time that I remember.

Q. Now, who was in there the second time that you saw him in there? A. I could not tell you.

Q. Who was in there the third time you saw him in there 20 years ago? A. Nugent was there; I don't know who else.

Q. Now, the fourth time he was in there, do you remember?

A. No, sir.

Q. That is in '79? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It was in the spring of 1879? A. Early spring.

Q. More than 20 years ago? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You remember the first time that you saw Mr. Walters in there and you remember these three persons that you saw in there after these 20 years? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were in the saloon every day, were you not?

A. No, I couldn't say I was every day; I was in there frequently.

Q. Several times a week? A. Sometimes.

Q. Every time you were in there you would see men in there? A. Men in there.

Q. These men in that saloon?

A. Oh, yes, it never was empty.

Q. And now after the expiration of 20 years you remember of seeing Walters in there and the other persons who were there on that particular day, do you? A. Yes, sir.

1767 Q. Who do you say was the cigar-maker that you knew there, the manufacturer?

A. Holsnider. Joseph Holsnider.

Q. You were in his factory one day and were introduced to Fred Walter? A. No, sir.

Q. Where were you introduced to Mr. Walters?

A. That was in the saloon.

Q. Every time you would be in there Walters would be in the saloon? A. Oh, no.

Q. Didn't you say he was in there eight or ten times when you were in?

A. I said five or six times [of] not more.

Q. How long was he in Wichita altogether?

A. I could not tell you.

Q. What month was it you say you first saw him in the saloon? A. Either January or February.

Q. He was introduced to you by Mr. Holsnider?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Holsnider said, "This is Mr. Walters, one of our boys?" A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then whenever you would be in the saloon after that you would see Walters in there?

A. I didn't say so. I saw I have seen him, I saw him in there some times afterwards; I didn't say every time.

Q. Didn't you say in your direct examination that you never saw him any place else except in the saloon?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the only place you ever did? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the place you were introduced to him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the man who introduced you said simply, "This is Mr. Walters, one of our boys?" A. Yes, sir.

Q. You didn't know anything about what his first name was? A. Not at that time, no sir.

Q. He didn't say anything about what his first name was; Mr. Holsnider didn't say anything about what his first name was? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever learn his name except Walters?

A. No, sir, I don't know any more than they called him Dolph.

1768 Q. Who called him Dolph?

A. When they would come up to drink; the boys would come up. It was customary when I would go to make my collections to call everybody to come up and take a drink; and he was there and among the rest was Dolph.

Q. You remember that from 20 years ago? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You noticed this particular man? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did they call them, the men that came up to drink 20 years ago? A. By their names, Harry, Jim, etc.

Q. Now, do you remember any other man that they called by him name?

A. Well, it wasn't necessary; they used to come up pretty quick when they were asked.

Q. They always called him Dolph?

A. I have heard them call him that; I don't know whether they always called him that.

Q. How many times do you think you heard them call him Dolph, 20 years ago? A. I never kept track of it.

Q. Do you think you did more than once?

A. I think likely, yes.

Q. Probably twice? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was on those occasions when as a brewer's agent you would go in there and somebody would say, "Come up and take a drink?" A. Yes, sir.

Q. On those occasions, they said to him, "Dolph, come up and have a drink? That is the language they used?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you remember somebody else that was in there that they called by his name and asked him to come and take a drink? A. No, there might be lots of them.

Q. That was a common occurrence for years was it not, Mr. Harris? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In going into a saloon, being the brewery agent, the whole crowd would be asked to come up and take a drink?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you remember that they called him Dolph nearly 21 years ago you remember that circumstance?

A. Yes, sir.

1769 Recross-Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. They have asked you in regard to this man being called up to drink; I wil ask you if there was any peculiarity in regard to Mr. Walters that attracted your attention; you may state what there was in regard to that?

A. I noticed that this young man—he seemed a very quiet man, nothing like the rest who drank; he would say, "I will take a cigar." That is what I particularly noticed of him.

Recross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You remember that 21 years ago that this young man whom you never saw anywhere else except in a saloon, when the crowd were asked to come up and take a drink, was temperate, and said, "I will take a cigar?" A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have remembered that 20 years? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the man you remember they called Dolph. It was peculiar? A. Yes, sir, it was peculiar.

Witness excused.

1770 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the deposition of D. E. Sheldon, taken at Medicine Lodge Kansas, Oct. 27, 1881. Said deposition was read to the jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

D. E. Sheldon deposes and says:

Question 1. State your name, age, residence and occupation?

Answer 1. D. E. Sheldon, residence Medicine Lodge, Barbour county, Kansas; occupation merchant, age 38.

Ques. 2. Where were you residing in the months of March, April and May, 1879, and in what business were you engaged?

Ans. 2. Residing in Medicine Lodge, Barbour county. Engaged in mercantile business.

Ques. 3. You include in the mercantile business the keeping of lumber for sale? Ans. 3. Yes, sir.

Q. 4. Did you, during the months last above mentioned, keep a lumber yard and lumber for sale in Medicine Lodge?

Ans. 4. Yes, sir.

Q. 5. Do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought to this place and buried, and afterwards taken up and removed in that spring,—to wit, the spring of 1879?

A. 5. I remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought here, buried, and afterwards removed, of the exact time I am not positive.

Ques. 6. Do you remember the circumstance of the alleged friends or relatives of deceased coming here to Medicine Lodge after the body was buried, and being here at the time of its removal? Ans. 6. I do.

1771 Ques. 7. Do you know who those persons, or any of them, were? Ans. 7. Only from report.

Ques. 8. Do you remember their names?

Ans. 8. I do not.

Ques. 9. Would you remember the names, you you think if you should hear them? Ans. 9. I don't think I would.

Ques. 10. Do you remember the names of any of those persons? Ans. 10. I do not.

Ques. 11. Do you know where it was reported they came from? Ans. 11. I do not.

Ques. 12. Did you have any conversation with any of those parties? Ans. 12. I did.

Ques. 13. Where was it?

Ans. 13. At my store in Medicine Lodge.

Ques. 14. Did you have a conversation with more than one of them?

Ans. 14. I had a conversation with the one who had remained there from the time of burial of body until its removal, and with two who came here at or about the time of the removal of the body.

Ques. 15. State if either of the persons last above mentioned said anything to you about obtaining or purchasing from you lumber with which to fence the grave where the body was buried?

Ans. 15. To the best of my recollection they did.

Ques. 16. State which one it was, or if they all were present at the time of this conversation?

Ans. 16. I think it was the party that was here at the time of the burial of the body; I am not positive whether the others were present, but think this was before they arrived.

Ques. 17. Did you have more than the one conversation about lumber? Ans. 17. I am not positive.

Ques. 18. What is the best of your recollection?

Ans. 18. My recollection is that they came to see me about the lumber, and then afterwards concluded to remove the body.

1772 Ques. 18. Was this conversation last mentioned on the day on which the body was removed?

Ans. 18. I could not say.

Ques. 19. When was it with reference to the removal of the body? Ans. 19. I am not positive.

Ques. 20. State as near as you can?

Ans. 20. My best recollection is that it was the day before the removal of the body.

Ques. 21. Now you may state what was said about purchasing the lumber; state that conversation as near as you can?

Ans. 21. Firstly, to see if they could obtain the material for a fence around the grave of the deceased; lastly they didn't need it.

Ques. 22. Did this conversation occur the same day?

Ans. 22. I think not.

Ques. 23. When did the first one occur?

Ans. 23. The first, it is my impression, was a day or two after the burial of the body; I don't recollect how many days they were here.

Ques. 24. Was this first conversation while the alleged friends of the deceased were here from abroad?

Ans. 24. I am not positive.

Ques. 25. Did you not have a conversation with the tallest of the three men who were here claiming to be the friends or the relatives of the deceased, being a tall, spare-faced man, with dark hair, known or called as Levi Baldwin, in regard to the purchase of lumber with which to fence the grave, where deceased was buried?

Ans. 25. To the best of my recollection you have described the person, but I could not say as to the name.

Ques. 26. Now you may state what was said between you and the person above described as to the purchase of lumber?

Ans. 26. He wanted to ascertain whether they could get material to build a fence around the grave of the deceased, and the cost and expense of the same.

1773 Ques. 27. Now state if the same person did not come to your store the next day and tell you in substance that they did not want the lumber as they had concluded to remove the body?

Ans. 27. I could not say whether it was the next day or not. It might have been the same day.

D. E. SHELDEN.

1774 The defendants and each of them next read in evidence, the deposition of Jacob Frazier, taken at Medicine Lodge, Kansas, Oct. 27, 1881. Said deposition is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination of Jacob Frazier.

Ques. 1. State your name, age, occupation and residence?

Ans. 1. Jacob Frazier, residence Elm Creek, Barbour County, Kansas; aged 57 years [old]; occupation farming.

Ques. 2. State if you were present where a dead body was found the 18th or 19th day of March, 1879, in the vicinity of the residence of P. B. Briley, in this Barbour County?

Ans. 2. I was present on one evening, and also the next morning.

Ques. 3. Do you remember the date? Ans. 3. I don't.

Ques. 4. Do you know of more than one occasion where a dead body was found in that neighborhood?

Ans. 4. None except the body of my child.

Ques. 5. About how far was this body found from the residence of P. B. Briley?

Ans. 5. About 3-4 of a mile.

Ques. 6. Any stream in that vicinity?

Ans. 6. There was a small stream running close by where the body lie.

Ques. 7. Are you familiar with the locality where the body was found and the country immediately surrounding?

Ans. 7. I am.

Ques. 8. You may state how far this body was from any traveled road?

Ans. 8. I think it was about half a mile from any traveled road.

Ques. 9. What road was that?

Ans. 9. A road leading from Medicine Lodge to Hutchinson.

Ques. 10. You may state if at the place where this body was found there was a camp consisting of a team and wagon?

Ans. 10. There was a team and wagon.

1775 Ques. 11. Was there any timber in the vicinity of this camp, if so state how close?

Ans. 11. There was timber three or four hundred yards south from the camp.

Ques. 12. You may state if this camp could be seen from what you called this road running from Medicine Lodge to Hutchinson?

Ans. 12. It could not be seen from the road.

Ques. 13. You may state the condition of the country between this Hutchinson road you have described and this camp where the body was found?

Ans. 13. It was very rough.

Ques. 14. You may state if there was any traveled road in the vicinity of this camp from which a person traveling thereon could see this camp?

Ans. 14. There was not any road in that vicinity in any direction from which the camp could be seen.

Ques. 15. You may state if you know whether or not the timber growing along this stream you have described could be seen from this Hutchinson and Medicine Lodge road, and if it could not be seen state the reason why?

Ans. 15. The timber closest the camp could not be seen. The timber by P. Briley's house could be seen. The ground about the upper timber was very rough and about the camp

Ques. 16. State why the timber closest the camp was not observable from this Hutchinson and Medicine Lodge road?

Ans. 16. It was in low bottom on the creek, and in a kind of a bend of the creek, and the hills hid the timber.

Ques. 17. Describe briefly the character of these hills between this Hutchinson and Medicine Lodge road and the camp?

Ans. 17. Well, they were rough hills, very broken from the road to the creek; there was no way you could drive down from the road with a wagon until you got opposite P. B. Briley's coming south, down the road.

1776 Ques. 16. Do you remember the kind of weather we were having in March, 1879, at this time, the time the body was found?

Ans. 18. I remember the kind of weather the evening we found the body. It was cold, northwest wind blowing.

Ques. 19. You may state if you were used to camping out?

Ans. 19. I have been used to camping out.

Ques. 20. You may state if there was, in your judgment, in that vicinity, a more suitable place for camping out, particularly at that season of the year?

Ans. 20. There was a more suitable place, or would have been for me, three or four hundred yards down the creek, as there was plenty of timber there, and good water.

Ques. 21. How would this place have been with reference to Briley's house, would it have been nearer to or more remote from Briley's house than the one where the camp was?

Ans. 21. It would have been closer to Mr. Briley's house.

Ques. 22. Do you know who was living nearest to this camp where the body was found at that time?

Ans. 22. Mr. P. B. Briley.

Ques. 23. State in what direction P. B. Briley's house was from this camp?

Ans. 23. I should judge it was south or near south.

Ques. 24. You may state how far you reside from this camp where the body was found, and how far you live from Mr. Briley's, and how long you have resided there?

Ans. 24. I lieved about a mile and a quarter from Briley's; a little west of south; it would be about two miles from the camp. I have lived at that place four years last spring and still reside there.

Ques. 25. You may state who was living nearest this camp in a northerly direction from the camp?

1777 Ans. 25. I could not tell who was. It was 15 miles in that direction to the nearest settler.

Ques. 26. You may state who was living nearest this camp, in a westerly direction from the camp and how far from the camp?

Ans. 26. Ambrose Denton; about two miles in a westerly direction from the camp.

Ques. 27. You may state who was living nearest this camp in an easterly direction from the camp; and how far from the camp?

Ans. 27. I could not tell in an easterly direction how far it would be; it would be twenty miles any way; I don't know any names.

Ques. 28. You may describe the condition of the country lying in a westerly direction from this camp?

Ans. 28. It is broken, rough with the exception of a small bottom near the camp.

Ques. 29. You may describe the condition of the country lying in a northerly direction from this camp?

Ans. 29. In a northern direction it would be very rough, that the hills extended farther west than the camp was located.

Ques. 30. You may describe the condition of the country lying in a southerly direction from this camp?

Ans. 30. I would consider it all rough. There is some bottoms south; the creek is so crooked you cannot see more than three or four hundred yards in any direction.

Ques. 31. You may describe accurately as you can this stream, known as Crooked Creek, its course, the width of the valley through which it runs, particularly in the vicinity of this camp?

Ans. 31. Where it empties into Elm Creek, the valleys are tolerably wide; it comes from a northern direction. From the camp down three-fourths of a mile the camp is very crooked; the valleys are narrow. The valley is from 50 to 100 yards wide, while the broadest places would not be over two hundred yards wide.

Ques. 32. Now on either side of the valley are there 1778 bluffs?

Ans. 32. There are bluffs on both sides of the valley.

Ques. 33. In your description of the country in the various directions from the camp where the dead body was found, do you include the country surrounding that camp and in its vicinity? Ans. 33. Yes, sir; I do.

Ques. 34. Taking into consideration the character of the country surrounding the camp, how would you regard that spot as a camping place at that season of the year?

Ans. 34. Well, I should not consider it a proper place to have camped, at least for me to have camped.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and as calling for the conclusion of the witness. Objection overruled; plaintiff excepts.

Ques. 35. You may state from your knowledge of this country, and that portion of it where the camp was, whether that camp was in an ordinary place for camping or in a secluded position?

Ans. 35. I would not consider it an ordinary place to camp, when there were much better places near by.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and as calling for the conclusion of the witness. Objection overruled; plaintiff excepts.

Ques. 36. You may state briefly how this camp was situated with reference to the hills immediately surrounding it?

Ans. 36. Well, the hills on the north and east and southeast all hid the camp from any view; from the west the camp could be seen from the top of the bluffs on the west side. On the northeast and southeast the bluffs were near by the camp. The hills on the north of the camp extended west of the camp. The hills on the east are directly up to the camp, and the hills on the south extend west of the camp to the bottom; then the ground west of the camp is a small bottom with the creek running through it; then the hills on the west extend near the creek, I suppose 100 yards from the camp.

The camp was on the east side of the creek.

1779 Ques. 32. You may state what opportunity you had for observing the body of this dead person which was found at the camp?

Ans. 32. I was there about dark in the evening; stayed there until 12 o'clock that night; I saw the body lying there by the camp fire that night.

Ques. 33. When did you next see the body?

Ans. 33. I saw it the next morning about eight o'clock.

Ques. 34. How long did you remain there on that occasion?

A. 34. I think I remained until about eleven o'clock that day.

Ques. 3. During that time was the body in plain sight where you could see it?

Ans. 35. Yes, sir; it was where I could see it.

Ques. 36. Was an inquest held during this time?

Ans. 36. Yes, sir; it was in the morning. I was one of the jurymen.

Ques. 37 You may state if during the time you have mentioned you did see and examine this body and its features?

Ans. 37. I did examine the body. I didn't observe the features very much.

Ques. 38. Did you see the face of the body?

Ans. 38. I did see the face, I examined the face and whole body. I saw where the wounds were; I saw the face of the body on the evening when I got there, and saw it several times during the next morning. You could not look towards the body without seeing the face.

Ques. 39. Examine the photograph here handed the witness by George J. Barker, one of the attorneys for the defendant, and which photograph he asks to have the notary identify by writing on the back his name and the date, and state whether or not that is the photograph or picture of the person whose dead body you saw at the camp or place you have described?

Ans. 39. It doesn't look like the face of the person; my judgment is that is not the picture of the person I examined.

1780 Ques. 40. After you returned to this camp the next morning, did you see and examine a gun at that camp; was it loaded, or was there an empty shell in it; state the condition of the gun in that respect?

Ans. 40. I saw a gun there; I examined the gun; there was no shell in it or no load at the time I examined it.

Ques. 41. Did you see more than one gun or rifle there?

Ans. 41. I did not see but one gun there.

Cross-examination of Jacob Frazier, by J. W. McNeal, Esq., Attorney for Plaintiff.

Question 1. How far from Medicine Lodge is this camp?

Ans. 1. I should consider it betwixt 12 and 15 miles. I could not tell you the exact distance.

Ques. 2. State in your judgment the entire length of the stream called Crooked Creek?

Ans. 2. I should judge it to be something near four miles.

Ques. 3. How far was it from Mr. Briley's to Elm Creek, at the mouth of Crooked Creek?

Ans. 3. I should guess it to be about a mile and a half.

Ques. 4. In what business was Mr. Briley engaged at that time?

Ans. 4. I suppose the cattle business, more than anything else.

Ques. 5. How many crooks were there in that creek between this camp and Mr. Briley's?

Ans. 5. I could not tell how many.

Ques. 6. State as near as you can?

Ans. 6. We crossed it only twice in going up from Mr. Briley's, but I could not tell you how many crooks,—probably a dozen.

Ques. 7. How far were these crooks apart? State as near as you can? Ans. 7. I couldn't give you any idea.

Ques. 8. Were they a rod apart?

1781 Ans. 8. Well I should think they were a rod or more than a rod; some were four or five. It would be hard to tell the distance, I could not.

Ques. 9. Were any of them more than five rods apart?

Ans. 9. I couldn't say.

Ques. 10. Was there any springy or marshy ground where this camp was?

Ans. 10. There was a kind of springy, marshy ground.

Ques. 11. Had the grass commenced to grow on that ground? Ans. 11. I did not see any green grass.

Ques. 12. What was the condition of the range at that camp? Ans. 12. It was dead grass, there was plenty of it.

Ques. 13. Was the range eaten off close?—close to Mr. Briley's?

Ans. 13. I don't think it was. It might have been close to the house.

Ques. 14. Did Mr. Briley's cattle range close to his house?

Ans. 14. I don't think they did.

Ques. 15. In which direction from Mr. Briley's house did his cattle range?

Ans. 15. They ranged most of the time in an eastern direction, on the head of Spring creek.

Ques. 16. How far from Mr. Briley's was this camp?

Ans. 16. I should think it to be about three-quarters (3-4) of a mile.

Ques. 17. Could you see Mr. Briley's house from this camp?

Ans. 17. I could not see it from the camp.

Ques. 18. If the wind was blowing in a southerly direction, could not the report of a gun such as you saw in that camp have been heard at Mr. Briley's house?

Ans. 18. Yes, sir, I think it could have been heard.

Ques. 19. Was the wind cold enough to induce a camper to seek shelter behind a bank on that evening?

1782 Ans. 19. I should think it was.

Ques. 20. Could the wind strike that camp from the direction in which it was blowing that evening?

Ans. 20. It did strike it, for I found it very cold while I was there.

Ques. 21. How far was the camp from the hill north?

Ans. 21. Well, I suppose it was north or northwest four or five rods from the foot of the hill.

Ques. 22. Did you see the team these campers had?

Ans. 22. I did see the team.

Ques. 23. What was their condition in regard to flesh?

Ans. 23. They were rather thin in flesh.

Ques. 24. Was the grass any better between that place and Mr. Briley's than it was at the camp?

Ans. 24. I don't know that it was any better.

Ques. 25. How far was it from this camp to the foot of the hills on the east?

Ans. 25. It was right at the foot of the hills. I don't know that it was a rod.

Ques. 26. Do corpses always present the same appearance as a person in life? Ans. 26. I don't know that they do.

Ques. 27. Could you identify, ordinarily the photograph of a living person by having seen the corpse?

Ans. 27. I could not say that I could identify it positiv to be the man or not the man.

Ques. 28. Might you not very easily be mistaken about identity of a corpse by only having seen the photograph of person when living?

Ans. 28. A person might be mistaken, but that pict didn't look like the man who lay there dead.

1783 Re-examination of Jacob Frazier, by George J. Bark one of the Attorneys for the Defendants:

Question 1. State if from the peculiar circumstances und which you first saw the dead body, the oportunities which had for seeing and observing its features and appearance, a your connection with the inquest you would be likely to mistaken in regard to the features and appearance of th person?

Ans. 1. Well, sir, I don't think I would be mistaken. looked natural for a dead man. His face was not drawn changed in any way.

JACOB FRAZIER.

1784 W. R. Smith, sworn for the defendants.

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. William R. Smith; I live in Kansas City, Kansas.

Q. What, if any, official position do you hold?

A. I am one of the justices of the Supreme Court.

Q. I will ask you if you were formerly one of the attorne in this case?

A. For two trials I represented—helped to represent—t defendants in these two cases.

Q. Were you present at the trial of this case before Jud Thomas in Topeka? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you also present at the trial of this case bef Judge Williams in Topeka, in 1895? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you if, during that time, to await the trial these cases, you became acquainted with one Levi Baldwin?

A. Yes sir, I met him several times during the trial of t cases.

Q. I will ask you if he was examined as a witness on ea of those occasions?

A. I think he was; I think he was present both times.

Q. Do you remember of seeing, or measuring Mr. L Baldwin, seeing him measured or measuring him someti in the spring of 1896 during the trial before Judge Willian

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state where that measurement took place?

A. The measurement took place in the Throop Hotel at Topeka on the second floor, I think it was room 12.
Q. Did you see him measured on that occasion?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You may state what his height was?
A. From the measurement there he was 5 feet, 8½ inches, about; a little short of that.
Q. You may state whether there was any mark made there of his measurement, that is if, his measurement was marked on the door?
A. Yes, sir, the measurement was marked on the wall; on the wall paper.
Q. After his measurement what words or letters ap-
1785 pear? A. "Bal" right after the mark.
Q. Since that time have you verified the measurement which was then made?
A. Yes, sir, I went down there the other day and looked at it; the mark is still in room 12 of the Throop Hotel.
Q. What is that measurement?
A. It is 5 feet eight inches and a half; a little bit short of half an inch.

Excused.

1786 Samuel W. Jones, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:
Q. You may state your name and residence?
A. Samuel W. Jones, Wichita, Kansas.
Q. How long have you lived in Wichita, Kansas?
A. Since the 11th day of May, 1874.
Q. What official position, if any, have you held?
A. Just now I hold no official position except that I am one of the Regents of the University of Quindaro, Kansas.
Q. What other official positions have you held?
A. I was for two years a constable at Wichita, and for two years on the police force; and then I served as a captain in the 23rd Kansas Infantry in the war in Cuba.
Q. Where were you living in 1878 and 9?
A. On Main street, Wichita, Kansas, opposite the Occidental Hotel.
Q. What was your father doing at that time?
A. Father was porter at the Occidental Hotel.
Q. For how many years did he act as porter of the Occidental Hotel?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial; objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. As near as I can remember, about eight years.

Q. When should you say his connection with the hotel ceased?

A. I think it was along in the latter part of 1883.

Q. Did you know a man in Wichita by the name of Holsnider? A. I did, yes sir.

Q. In what business was he engaged?

A. He was in the cigar making business; ran a cigar store and manufactured cigars.

Q. How far was his place of business from the Occidental Hotel in 1878 and 9?

A. It was in the southwest corner of the Occidental Hotel.

[—] On the ground floor, corner of 2d and Main streets.

Q. Did he carry on that business for some time, Hol-
1787 snyder? A. Yes.

Q. I will ask you if in the winter of 1878 or 9, you became acquainted with a man by the name of Walters?

A. I did, yes, sir. I became acquainted with him; it was along I think about the latter part of October or November; that was the first time I saw him; I learned his name a short time after that.

Q. Where was he at that time?

A. He was standing in front of the cigar parlor or store at that time.

Q. What were you doing at that time?

A. I was going to school at that time and helping my father at the hotel.

Q. Did you perform any duties about the hotel

A. Yes, the hotel was lighted entirely with coal oil lights at that time, and I assisted father in filling the lamps and filling the water pitchers in the bed chambers.

Q. Did you spend much or little of your time about the hotel?

A. I spent all of my time, that is, during the day except what time I was at school.

Q. Now, from that time on how long did you know this Frederick Adolph Walters?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason that the witness has not given the name.

Q. I will ask you by what name he was known.

A. Dolph Walters, but around the cigar factory they called him Fritzey.

Q. I say about how long did you continue to know him?

A. Until as near as I can tell about the latter part of January or first of February 1879.

Q. During that time, from the time you made his acquaintance until that time, what was he doing so far as you know?

A. Working at the cigar trade making cigars; I have seen him at work there at the south window in Mr. Holsnider's factory many a time because that was on my way to school.

Q. How many times do you suppose during that 1788 time, that is from the time you first saw him until you saw him last, how many times do you suppose you saw him?

A. I guess there were very few days that passed by but what I saw him once or twice because as I said I went by there on my way to school, and I passed there at least two or three times a day going to school.

Q. You spoke about the last time you saw him. I will ask you if you can give a general description of Adolph Walters at that time so far as height, color of hair, etc.?

A. I couldn't say just to his height, but I should judge he was a man that I should judge would stand about between five feet six and five feet eight inches high; his hair I remember as being a very dark brown, almost black and slightly inclined to curl; his mustache was just starting out at that time; he was very proud of his hair because he used to take a great deal of pains in combing his hair. I have seen him at the barber shop in the hotel many a time combing his hair, and the beard if it had grown, if it had been allowed to grow would have grown thin back on the cheeks and thick along on the chin.

Q. How old were you at that time?

A. I was in my 12th year at that time.

Q. As to his height, you never saw him measured?

A. No, sir.

Q. It is just an estimate in regard to that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have any conversation with him about the time he went away in regard to his leaving, where he intended to go? A. No, sir, I didn't.

Q. Of your own knowledge, you don't know what his intentions were in regard to that?

A. All that I know of him going away, I heard him telling other parties he was going away but I didn't hear him say where.

Q. From that time, that is, from some time in February, 1879, up to this time, have you seen or heard from Adolph Walters?

A. No, sir, I have not since along about the latter part of February, 1879.

1789 Q. Do you remember him well enough to state his nationality, whether he was a German or whatever his nativity might be; could you say in regard to that?

A. No sir, I could not.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. What is your name? A. Samuel.

Q. At the time that you knew him, that is, Walters we are talking about, of course, as I understand, he was working in this cigar factory; what is the man's name that ran the factory? A. Joseph Holsnyder, a German.

Q. And this young man worked in there as a journeyman cigarmaker, I suppose? A. Yes sir, as a cigarmaker.

Q. You saw him in the window as you went by?

A. Yes sir.

Q. When was it that you last saw him as your recollection serves you?

A. About the latter part of January or the first of February, 1879.

Q. Now, at that time, and up to that time you last saw him, was he in that employment? A. Yes sir.

Q. How long had he been in that employment prior to the time that you last saw him the last of January or the first of February? A. Close onto a year.

Q. This cigar factory was not in the hotel that you worked in, was it? A. It was part of the hotel.

Q. So that in going back and forth to your school from your home and to the hotel, between those places, you would go right past the window where this young man worked?

A. Yes sir, unless I went over the street.

Q. That would be out of your way? A. Yes sir.

Q. That would not be the way that you would naturally go? A. No sir.

Q. That necessitated your going by this window and in that way it becomes fixed in your memory that you saw him as you have explained to the jury? A. Yes sir.

1790 Q. You think he was working in a room in this building; it was all under one roof? A. Yes sir.

Q. You were in and about the hotel assisting your father, and he worked in a room covered by the same roof as the hotel was, but in a separate room, as a cigarmaker? A. Yes sir.

Q. You think his employment there extended over as much as a year? A. About a year, yes sir.

Q. Would your recollection carry you clear black— Let us see; the last of January or the first of February, 1879—the year preceding would be the last of January or the first of February, 1878?

A. Yes, sir, because the first time that I ever saw [—] in the neighborhood of the cigar factory was in October or November, 1878; I didn't know his name at that time but I learned that rather than less? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was not a year that you saw him there; January, then the preceding December would be two months, and November three months; so that if you first saw him in October, 1878, it was only three months that you knew him?

A. I saw him the first time the latter part of October, or the first of November, 1878; the last time I saw him was about the latter part of January or the first of February, 1879.

Q. Then it was not a year that you knew him there; it was only the time intervening between the latter part of October and the fore part of February?

A. I used to pass there every day.

Q. Yes, I understand, but I understood you to say Mr. Jones, that it was something like a year that he was working there? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, the last you saw of him was, we will say, the last of January or the first of February, 1879? A. Yes sir.

Q. January, 1879, would be one month? A. Yes sir.

Q. And then the preceding month would be December, 1878? A. Yes.

Q. And then the month preceding that would be November, 1878; that bring you to October, when you saw him first?

A. Yes sir.

Q. That was only three months? A. Yes sir.

1791 Q. Well, then, it was not a year that you knew him?

A. Well, now, let me see. Yes, I am wrong in that; I am wrong in that.

Q. It was 1877?

A. No, it was not in 1877; the first time that I saw him was about as I said in October, or November, 1878; it was in 1878 that I saw him.

Q. Well—

A. I will tell you, what fixes it in my mind was the opening and closing of the school.

Q. Then it is a fact that it was about three months that you knew him rather than a year?

A. Yes, sir, three months or more that I knew him.

Q. Your recollection serves you that it [—] more than that rather than less? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That would carry it back into the early part of October or September that you first saw him?

A. Yes, it was October or November.

Q. Were you working with your father there in the hotel during the summer vacation of 1878? A. Yes sir.

Q. That would be one way of getting at it. To refresh your recollection was he working there at the time you were working at the hotel during your vacation, which concluded, I suppose, in August, didn't it?

A. School took up in September; school began the second week in September.

Q. Now, for the purpose of refreshing your recollection, what is the fact as to whether or not he was working there at that place at the time you worked there during vacation time?

A. He was not there during that time at all.

Q. He was there after school took up?

A. Yes sir, after school took up.

Q. How long after school took up, would you think; shortly or a long time?

A. Well, it was a short time after school took up that I saw him. The first time that I ever saw him he was standing on the corner talking to some young men that I associated with.

1792 Q. Who were they?

A. One of them was Dick Dimes; he lived just across the alley from me; he—

Q. No matter about that. Then you began school there at that time about the second Monday in September?

A. Yes sir, second Monday in September.

Q. Would your recollection be that it was within a month or six weeks after school took up? Of course, you can only approximate it at this distance of time; what I want is your best recollection?

A. My best recollection would serve me that it was a month or possibly more than a month.

Q. That would bring it down in the latter part of October that you first saw him?

A. Yes, sir, just about the latter part of October that I saw him.

Q. From that time he was steadily employed in the cigar factory until at least the last part of the following January and possibly the first of February? A. Yes sir.

Q. And at that time you say you heard him say to some persons that he was going away? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did he go away?

A. I guess he did because I have not seen him since.

Q. You never saw him there after that? A. No sir.

Q. Where was the Globe Hotel with relation to the Occidental; you know what I mean; what relative position did they occupy in the town? A. The Globe Hotel?

Q. Yes. A. I don't know any Globe Hotel in the town.

Q. At that time?

A. No Globe Hotel there; none that I know of.

Q. You were connected with one of the hotels yourself?

A. Yes sir.

Q. The Occidental? A. Yes sir.

Q. That naturally gave you [come] knowledge of the other hotels in the town; you knew what other hotels there were in the town?

A. I knew of four hotels in the town at that time,
1793 the Occidental Hotel, the Douglas Avenue Hotel, the Ritchie House and the Valley House; there was the Elks Hotel directly opposite the Douglas Avenue on the corner of Water and Douglas street; it was called the Elks Hotel. Those are the five hotels that I knew of at that time.

Q. What would your opinion be as to whether or not there was a hotel called the Globe Hotel?

A. I would not know anything about it. I don't know of any such hotel in the city.

Q. What I am getting at is this: If I were asked what hotels there are in Leavenworth, I should say that I knew them all. What I mean to get at, do you think you knew all the hotels in Wichita at that time?

A. Oh, there might have been—No, I don't think I knew all of them; those five were the prominent hotels that I stated; I knew of them.

Q. But you never heard of any Globe Hotel?

A. No, sir.

Q. Neither at that time nor any subsequent time?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you know a man at that time named Healey?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. P. V.? A. Patrick V. Healey, yes, sir.

Q. He is here to-day and you may have seen him?

[—] I saw him on the street.

Q. Did you know where his office was? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At that time A. Yes, sir, as near as I can—

Q. Where was his office?

A. On Douglas Avenue, I think on Douglas Avenue between—It was on Douglas Avenue, but I don't now remember whether between Main and Market or whether it was further east.

Q. I don't care much about it; I want to know its relation to the Occidental?

A. As near as I can remember, it was two blocks from 2nd street down to Douglas avenue, and his office was on Douglas avenue.

Q. Do you know where his place of business was?

A. Not exactly, no, sir.

Q. You knew about where it was?

A. Yes, sir, it was on Douglas avenue.

1794 Q. Did you have occasion to go there at any time? He was a ticket scalper then among other things.

A. No, sir.

Q. Never had anything to do with him in that way?
A. No, sir.
Q. Now, at the time you last saw him or about he time you last saw him, which you fix as late in January or early in February, as I understood, you expressed the intention of going away? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was he a well-behaved steady workman? A. He was.
Q. A decent sort of a fellow A. Yes, sir, he was.
Q. Did he quit of his own accord, or was he discharged, if you know? A. I don't know.
Q. Never knew of any differences between him and his employer? A. No, sir.
Q. You know, however, that he did cease working there, and that he expressed the intention of going away and disappeared, and then you did not see him any more? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That you think was late in January or early in February, 1879?
A. Yes, sir, and I remember that I asked Mr. Holsnider if he had gone away and he said he had.
Q. That was about the time?
A. Yes, sir, a short time afterward.
Q. The man who told you he had gone away was his employer, the cigar manufacturer? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is it not a fact, Mr. Jones, that that was as late as the first of March, 1879? A. No, sir, it was not.
Q. You are quite sure about that?
A. I am quite sure and I can give my reasons for being sure.
Q. That is the best way?
A. Because Dolph Walters had a habit of throwing water on me when I went by, he would throw water on me; and among other things, the first cigar that I ever smoked in my life Dolph Walters gave to me; I remember how sick it made me. I stopped there at the cigar factory and talked with him and Dolph Walters promised to give me a watch on my birthday in March; he promised to give me a birthday present; he was to give me a watch for a birthday present and I 1795 was looking out for that watch and I never got it.
Q. So that makes you very sure that he left there considerably before March, as early, you say, as early as February? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, as to his description which you have given quite clearly, I didn't quite understand what you said about the color of his mustache?
A. His mustache was a lighter brown than his hair.
Q. And his hair was about what color?
A. Very dark brown, almost black.
Q. Almost black? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And his mustache would be lighter than that, or was lighter than that? A. Was ligher brown.

Q. Well, now, of course, it was quite perceptibly, was it, or you would not have remembered it; can you give us some idea whether it was considerably lighter or only a little lighter?

A. My opinion would be,—Well, I know it was quite a good bit, quite a few shades lighter than his hair.

Q. In other words, there was a contrast between his mustache and his hair? A. Yes, sir, somewhat of a contrast.

Q. No man would call his mustache black, while they might call his hair black? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, as to his height. Will you kindly stand up, Mr. Jones, down on the floor with me. What is your height?

A. Five feet 10¾ inches in my bare feet.

Q. You would not undertake to say that that man was as tall as you, would you?

A. He was not as tall as I am, no, sir.

Q. You are pretty confident of that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then there was enough difference between his height and mine—I am five feet ten, I think, exactly five feet ten; there was enough difference between his height and mine for you to remember that there was a difference?

A. Yes, sir; because I remember the size of Dick Dimes; I remember the difference between his height and Dick;
1796 there was some difference between his height.

Q. Was Dick shorter or taller? A. Dick was taller.

Q. What was Dick's height? A. I don't know his height.

Q. Walters was shorter than Dick? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And Dick was shorter than you or was he the same height or somewhat taller or how? A. I don't know just.

Q. You are 5 feet 10¾ I think you said?

A. Five feet 10¾, yes, sir.

Q. You say he was not as tall a man as you are?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You know that?

A. I know that because I have been measured and I know I have seen men of my height.

Q. In fact, you know it. You have been a police officer, Mr. Jones? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And as such you were obliged to pay some attention to the descriptions of men, more perhaps than a person who had another kind of business?

A. Yes, sir, I was a uniformed policeman for one year and an ununiformed detective for one year.

Q. As a detective, as such officer, you were frequently called upon in the course of your duty to read descriptions of men who were fugitives from justice? A. I was.

Q. Looked at men with a view of seeing how they compared with descriptions? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And in that way you skilled yourself so that you are able to form a tolerably accurate idea of a man's height by looking at him? A. Well, I could in some cases.

Q. You feel very confident he was not as tall a man as you and I? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You would fix it between 5 feet 6 and 5 feet 8 inches?

Q. About that; as near as I can remember.

Q. You are pretty positive not to exceed 5 feet 8. Might not be 5 feet 9?

A. He might have been but I would not have guessed him at that.

1797 Q. Might he not have been five feet nine?

A. No sir.

Q. You are very positive on that point, that he was not 5 feet, 10? There is no use bandying words with you.

A. It would be of course simply a matter of guess work with me but my opinion would be he was not over 5 feet, 8 inches; between 5 feet 6 and 8.

Q. Your memory seems to be pretty good; you have distinct recollection of him? A. I have, yes sir.

Q. As your mind goes back to that time, you can see him in your mind's eye, so to speak, quite clearly, can you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You are quite positive he was not as tall as you and me? A. Yes sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. After Walters left the Occidental Hotel, did you continue to work there? A. I did.

Q. For how long?

A. Until the spring of 1883; until March of 1883.

Q. Do you know whether he merely left the hotel or whether he left the town; do you know in regard to that?

A. Mr. Holsnider told me—

Q. I am not asking you what Mr. Holsnider told you; I want to know if you have any knowledge of his going away from town or simply that he was not there at the Occidental Hotel after that.

By the Court: That is leading, Mr. Barker.

Q. I am asking what you mean by going away from there; what do you have reference to?

A. I had missed him; did not see him around there at the hotel where I had been accustomed to see him.

Q. Do you know where he went when he left there?

A. I do not, no sir.

By Mr. Atwood: You only knew that he said what he was going to do and what Mr. Holsnider said he had done?

A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

1798 E. B. Good, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name? A. E. B. Good.
Q. Where do you live, Mr. Good? A. Topeka, Kansas.
Q. How long have you lived in Topeka?
A. About ten years.
Q. Where did you live before you moved to Topeka?
A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long did you live in Lawrence, Kansas?
A. From 1866 until about 1890.
Q. In what business were you engaged in Lawrence?
A. Grocery business.
Q. Were you engaged in that business during all the time that you lived in Lawrence? A. Yes sir.
Q. Then of course you were living in Lawrence in 1878-9?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you remember the fact of a dead body being brought to Lawrence claimed by some to be the body of one John W. Hillmon? A. I do.
Q. Do you remember of an inquest being held over that body? A. I do.
Q. Were you a member of the coroner's jury? A. I was.
Q. Do you remember where that body was situated; what place in the city of Lawrence?
A. Smith & Bailey's undertaking establishment.
Q. Whereabouts? I mean by that where was their undertaking establishment, on what street?
A. On Massachusetts street.
Q. You said you were a member of the coroner's jury that held the inquest over that body? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you remember the fact of Mrs. Hillmon testifying at that coroner's inquest? A. I do.
Q. The plaintiff in this case? A. Yes sir.
1799 Q. Do you remember of her being asked in regard to the height of [—] husband at that time of the coroner's inquest? A. I do.
Q. Do you remember what reply she made to that question? A. She said she didn't know; couldn't say.
Q. Do you remember of her being asked in regard to the condition of her husband's teeth at that inquest? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did we inquire in regard to the character of her husband's teeth and what did she say?

A. She said she couldn't say.

Q. Do you remember of her being inquired of at that inquest in regard to the kind and color of her husband's hair? A. Yes sir.

Q. To that question what reply did she make?

A. She said she could not say.

Q. Do you remember of her being asked whether that was the body of her husband, and what reply did she make to that question? A. Yes sir.

Q. What did she say in regard to that?

A. She says, if it is not my husband, who can it be; who is it then?

Q. Do you remember in regard to her demeanor on that occasion? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you what her demeanor was on that occasion, whether it was light and trifling or whether she appeared serious and sad?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. You may state what her demeanor was on that occasion?

A. Well, it was trifling; she didn't seem to feel the loss of her husband; she was very trifling and jolly, laughed at jokes that occurred during the trial.

Q. Were you acquainted with one Arthur Judson?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How long had you known him at that time?

A. Oh, I couldn't say how long I have known him; he had traded at my store there a good deal; have known him a good many years.

Q. When I asked you how long you had known him,
1800 I meant how long had you known him in 1879?

A. I had known him several years in 1879.

Q. Do you remember of his being examined as a witness on that occasion? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you if he was inquired of as regards the height of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Did you crack any jokes with Mrs. Hillmon?

A. No sir.

Q. Who did?

A. Mr. Barker and her had it back and forth.

Q. Mr. Barker and she indulged in jocularity? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you remember any of the jokes?
A. Yes, when Brown was testifying; questions asked Brown.
Q. Was he sitting beside Mrs. Hillmon? A. Mr. Barker?
Q. Yes. A. No.
Q. Was this proceeding had in the court room?
A. Yes sir.
Q. It was to determine the identity of that body?
A. Fact.
Q. The inquest was held for the purpose of determining the identity of that body? A. Yes sir.
Q. You say that Mr. Barker was there? A. Yes sir.
Q. In what capacity?
A. He was there with Mr. Green investigating as to who was the body.
Q. In what capacity; one of the attorneys of the insurance companies? A. I don't know.
Q. Do you know as whose attorney? A. No sir.
Q. Mr. Green was there all the while? A. I think so.
Q. And Mr. Barker was there all the while? A. Yes sir.
Q. And during the course of those proceedings, Mr. Barker attorney for the insurance companies and Mrs. Hillmon exchanged jokes; is that a fact?
1801 A. Well, didn't exchange jokes particularly, but something would occur; there was always something occurring at the inquest, some question asked a witness, and she was mirthful.
Q. It was some question that excited her risibility; will you tell one?
A. Mrs. Hillmon was asked about the quantity of hair he wore, and she made the remark that she didn't know but that he had more hair on his head than Mr. Green has got there; kind of jocular and laughed over it.
Q. Who laughed over it? A. All of us.
Q. You? A. I guess so.
Q. How about the other jurymen?
A. I couldn't tell you about them.
Q. You were right there and heard and saw it all?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is what you mean by her light conduct?
A. Kind of mirthful. It was a rather cute remark, kind of joke, and Mr. Green seemed embarrassed, and he turned around and smiled and she did with the rest.
Q. That is what you mean by her light conduct?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. What else was said and done there?
A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. You remember what she said about her husband's height? A. I do, sir.

Q. And you remember what she said about her husband's teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you remember what she said about her husband's hair? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What other jocular remark did she make?

A. She didn't make any more jocular remarks that I know of.

Q. Do you remember any other jocular remarks?

A. No, sir.

Q. So the jocularity was all confined to Mr. Barker?

A. Not at all.

Q. Was Mr. Green engaged in being funny there?

A. I don't remember him laughing at all.

Q. I thought you said you all laughed. Now, what else?

A. In the examination of Mr. Levi Baldwin, I remember.

Q. Who examined him? A. I think Mr. Barker did

1802 Q. Mr. Barker made some jokes with Mr. Baldwin didn't he?

A. He questioned him pretty seriously about his financia condition and Mr. Barker, says, "You are enough to provok a saint," or something of that kind.

Q. Is that your notion of a witticism? A. Part of it.

Q. Mr. Barker's utterance that the witness was enough t provoke a saint is a witticism? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You laughed?

A. I don't know that I laughed; I probably smiled.

Q. The others did?

A. Well, some of them; I couldn't see all over the room I was sitting facing the witness. I couldn't say they a laughed.

Q. What other witty thing did Mr. Barker say?

A. I don't know that I can recollect any more.

Q. What other funny or witty thing did anybody else say

A. I don't remember now.

Q. Now, then, Mrs. Hillmon smiled or laughed, which wa it, when Mr. Barker said that Levi Baldwin was enough to pr voke a saint.

A. I don't know as she laughed at all.

Q. Don't know that she laughed at all? A. No, sir.

Q. Then what other joke was there beside the one relati to the hair that caused Mrs. Hillmon to laugh?

A. I don't know of anything else at all.

Q. Then, that is the sum of the lightness of conduct on h part, that Mrs. Hillmon, when she was asked about the qua tity of her husband's hair, she said he had more than M Green had, who was nearly bald; is that it?

A. That was the most; I remember her laughing more than anything else.

Q. What other thing did she laugh at [all]?

A. I just told you about Baldwin's conduct.

Q. Yes, but you said she didn't laugh at that.

A. I said she might have smiled.

Q. You say she smiled on that occasion?

A. You can call it what you please.

1803 Q. Do you say she smiled on that occasion?

A. Well, yes, she smiled.

Q. You remember that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you remember it well about the hair?

A. Yes, sir, I remember that distinctly.

Q. What other thing is it that occasions your calling her conduct light and frivolous?

A. Just her look and manner; I didn't see her weep any; she seemed to be kind of lively.

Q. Your idea was that she had to be drow-ed in tears, in order to have her conduct not denominated light?

A. She didn't show any seriousness.

Q. You were sitting as a juror in the inquest over that body? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you were indulging in laughter and jokes?

A. Well, we didn't indulge in jokes.

Q. Mrs. Hillmon was the only one that indulged in jocularity?

A. I didn't say so; it was not necessary to be joking all the time; she just made that remark; she appeared to be lively.

Q. She didn't seem dead; I suppose that is the antithesis of lively. A. You can call it what you please.

Q. It is not what I please; it [—] what you please; what is the truth, that is what we want?

A. I am telling the truth.

Q. So, we have your assurance. Will you kindly give us the names of some of the other jokers there. Mr. Barker seems to have been the head joker on that occasion.

A. We were there about four days, if I remember, five days I think; there was a good many things that excited a little mirth during that five days; some answers to questions the witnesses wouldn't understand exactly and would answer awkwardly and make us smile.

Q. Give us an instance.

A. I can't give you one; not the name.

Q. But you remember the circumstances?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the consequences of it? A. Yes, sir.

1804 Q. That laughter came every time?

A. I saw smiling around the room, but I couldn't tell you after ten minutes who did the smiling.

Q. But you could tell what the occasion of the smiling was if you remember the fact that there was laughter?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You remember the fact that there was laughter; now, give us the occasion of that laughter?

A. I have, all I remember of.

Q. I have asked you for an instance where some witness answered awkwardly? A. I couldn't tell you of any.

Q. How many witnesses were examined?

A. I couldn't tell you that.

Q. Well, do you know approximately; was it more than one?

A. Oh, yes, probably, I don't know, probably 25 to 50 to 100; I don't know in the five days.

Q. What would be your best recollection?

A. I wouldn't pretend to say.

Q. Mr. Good— That is your name? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have a very acute recollection of various of these transactions. A. Yes, sir.

Q. Try and exert it so as to help us in these other particulars. Now, I will ask you to strain your recollection and give us your best knowledge as to the number of witnesses that [there] examined there? You were there as jurors?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were there for the purpose of listening to the witnesses? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And of weighing their testimony, and of determining the verdict; that is right? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, what is your best recollection as to the number of witnesses that were there?

A. Well, probably between 25 and 50; I wouldn't try to give it any closer than that.

Q. Your best recollection in that particular is that you can make sure of between 25 and 50, as to the number of persons that were sworn and testified?

A. No, I couldn't say; I have seen all the witnesses here to-day but I couldn't tell you the number because—some 1805 of the witnesses are prominent, that I could remember, but there are others that I never seen before or since that I know of.

Q. How many times have you testified at the Hillmon trial? A. Every time it has been tried; six times, I guess.

Q. Where have you resided in the last ten years? In Topeka, I think you said? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your business? A. Broker business.

Q. Whom do you break? I beg your pardon.

A. I break anybody I can find green enough to break.

Q. You as one of the jurors, of course, observed closely the transactions of that inquest? A. Well, yes.

Q. The testimony was taken down, was it not, in shorthand? A. I think it was, yes.
Q. Do you remember the name of the man who took the testimony down?
A. I think his name was Baldridge; I think that is the name.
Q. Do you know who occasioned his being there?
A. No, I don't.
Q. Did he seem to be under the direction of Mr. Green the county attorney, or Mr. Barker?
A. No, I think the coroner had more charge of him than any one else.
Q. Those notes were taken down during the trial?
A. I presume they were.
Q. During the time that Mrs. Hillmon testified?
A. I presume so.
Q. When you speak of their being taken down, you mean by the stenographer? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Just as these people are engaged in the work now?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You think your recollection is quite good about these things you have testified to, but you would not think it as good as shorthand extended notes, would you? A. No.
Q. In other words, Baldridge's notes, if they had been produced, would be more accurate than your recollection, wouldn't they? A. Yes, sir.

1806 Q. Is it not a fact that a part of your business is the discounting of witness and juror's fees?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And have you a little side business in that connection with this case? A. Oh, no, no sir, I only came yesterday.

1807 And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:
Q. I will ask you if you were acquainted with one R. J. Borgolthaus? A. Yes, sir, well acquainted with him.
Q. What was his business at that time, I mean in the city of Lawrence; what was he? A. He was an attorney.
Q. A practicing attorney? A. Yes, a practicing attorney.
Q. Living there in 1878 and 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember of his being present at the time of the coroner's inquest?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I do, yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember what he did, so far as asking que tions and objecting to them is concerned? A. Yes, sir.
Q. From his conduct on that occasion, what would yo say for whom did he appear?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrel vant and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendan and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. You may state what he did so far as objecting to que tions is concerned, if you remember?
A. He objected to questions and I—
Objection.
Q. Do you remember whether or not he asked any que tions of the witnesses? A. Yes, sir.

Witness excused.

1808 O. D. Pickens, a witness produced by the defendan being duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:
Q. State your name? A. O. D. Pickens.
Q. Where do you live, Mr. Pickens?
A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long have you lived in the city of Lawrence?
[—] About 33 years.
Q. Do you live in the city of Lawrence now? A. Yes. s
Q. What business are you engaged in?
A. I am a coal dealer and wood dealer.
Q. Were you living in the city of Lawrence in 1878 and
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember of a body being brough: to Lawre at the undertaking establishment of Bailey & Smith's in t spring of 1879 claimed by some to be the body of John Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see that body? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you if you were one of the coroner's jury?
A. I was.
Q. On the occasion of the inquest held over it?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you acquainted with the plaintiff in this ca during that time, Mrs. Hillmon?
A. Not acquainted with her, merely saw her.
Q. At what time did you see her with reference to the quest?
A. From the start until the trial was through, I rememb
Q. Did she testify as a witness on that occasion?
A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember a question being asked her at that coroner's inquest in regard to her husband's height, and what answer she made to that question? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What did she say in regard to her husband's height?
A. She said she did not know; she never measured him.
Q. Do you remember of her being inquired of at that time concerning the teeth of her husband?
A. I have some remembrance of it, yes, sir.
1809 Q. What did she say in regard to his teeth?
A. She could not tell.
Q. Could she tell what kind of teeth he had?
A. She did not.
Q. Do you remember of her being inquired of in regard to the character, color and texture of her husband's hair?
A. It was spoke of but I don't remember the answer she made.
Q. Do you remember substantially what was said?
A. I remember she pointed to the attorney and said he had more hair than you have got.
Q. That is the only portion you heard of the answer to that question that you remember? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know at that time one R. J. Borgolthaus?
A. Simply acquainted with him.
Q. In what business or profession was he engaged in Lawrence at that time? A. Attorney at law, I believe.
Q. Do you remember of his being present at that occasion, I mean the occasion of the coroner's inquest?
A. He was there, I think.
Q. Do you remember of his being present at the time Mrs. Hillmon testified? A. I am not positive.
Q. Do you remember of his asking questions or making objections to questions at that time, I mean at the time of the coroner's inquest?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason the witness has already stated that he did not know that he was there. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Yes, sir, I remember his asking questions during the trial.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:
Q. What is your business, Mr. Pickens?
A. I am a coal dealer; coal and wood.
Q. Over in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long have you been engaged in that business?
A. 12 or 14 years.

Q. And incidentally came to these trials and testified in the meantime?

1810 A. No, sir. Haven't ever testified but have been subpoenaed twice; I don't think I have been on the stand since the inquest. Well, I don't think I have ever been a witness on the trial of the case.

Q. Never have testified at these Hillmon trials?

A. No, sir; I am not positive but what I was called, but hardly a question was asked me at one time; I am not positive [—] that; I have not been a witness in the case right along at all.

Q. These trials have all been since the inquest?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say that you don't remember of having been a witness before this time?

A. I have been subpoenaed but bot—

Q. I understand; but you don't remember being a witness before?

A. It seems to me that I was called on in Topeka, but there wasn't hardly a question asked me.

Q. I will ask you if, as a matter of fact, you did not testify in 1896 in this case, as a witness in this case on behalf of the insurance companies?

A. That was at Topeka it seems to me I was called on the stand at the time, if I was; it seems to me I was called on the stand but hardly questioned.

Q. I will ask you if you don't remember of testifying in substance as follows: That you were a member of the coroner's jury; that you remember the inquest; that Mrs. Hillmon was examined as a witness; that the question was asked her as to whether or not that was the body of her husband and she said that she said if it was not the body of her husband, who could it be; you also said that you remembered an interrogatory that was directed to her as to his height and that she answered that she did not know his height; that there was something said within your hearing about a measurement but you didn't recollect the exact words; you said there was something said about hair but you couldn't remember what; you also said that she said at that trial that his hair was brown, and that she didn't say she didn't know the color of his hair, and you remember that there was 1811 something said about his having been measured but you could not remember exactly what? Did you not among other things, testify in substance to that?

A. I guess that is correct; I think I did.

Q. This thing occurred three years ago? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You could not remember it until I read it, could you?

A. It had escaped my mind.

Q. And yet you undertake to tell this jury what Mrs. Hillmon said 20 years ago?
A. My impression was as I stated, sir,—
Q. I understand, sir.

By Mr. Barker:
Q. Do you now remember of her being asked if that was the body of her husband, and what answer she made to that question? A. I do.
Q. What did she say in regard to that?
A. She said "If it is not him, who can it be?"

By Mr. Atwood:
Q. You remember that well?
A. Yes, sir; I will remember that to the day of my death.

Witness excused.

812 Charles C. Emery, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Questions on Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:
Q. State your name? A. Charles C. Emery.
Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Emery?
A. I reside now in Lawrence, 504 Louisiana.
Q. How long have you resided in Lawrence?
A. I am on my 5th year.
Q. Where were you residing in 1879?
A. I was residing on my farm three-quarters of a mile north of the California road and about five miles west.
Q. Did you know a person by the name of Alva Baldwin?
A. I have known him ever since he has been in Kansas; a near neighbor.
Q. Where was Alva Baldwin living in 1879 in reference to your place?
A. I could not say whether he was living at home at that time or not; I could not say.
Q. What do you mean by at home?
A. At his father's place.
Q. Now, where was his father's place; how far distant from yours?
A. The south end of my place is about two or three feet over and above three-quarters of a mile from the California road, and theirs is south of the California road, I couldn't say just the distance south.
Q. Do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought back to Lawrence in the spring of 1879 claimed to be that of John W. Hillmon?
A. I heard of it; I didn't see it.

Q. Now, did you see Alva Baldwin at or about that time?

A. I saw him shortly after; I think the body was brought back when he came from the south.

Q. Do you know what, if anything, was being done in reference to that body at that ime you saw Alva Baldwin?

A. I think a trial or coroner's inquest was going on in the court house.

1813 Q. Where did you see Alva Baldwin at that time?

A. I saw him on Henry Street, I should judge just across Vermont street on the crossing on Henry street on the east edge of Vermont street.

Q. About how far was that from the court house where the inquest was being held?

A. Just across Vermont street, probably 80 or 100 feet.

Q. Did you have a conversation with him there at that time? A. I did.

Q. You may state if you asked him at that time how he reconciled the difference between the man's height, his hair and his teeth and if he answered you at that time that he could not?

The plaintiff objects to the question because no proper foundation has been laid. Objection overruled; the plaintiff excepts.

A. He said he could not account for it; the height and the hair or teeth.

By the Court: The answer should be yes or no.

[—] Your question to him was how he accounted for the difference between the height, the hair and the teeth, and he said he could not. He answered the question that Mr. Baldwin said as you recited it in your question.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. This is your first time as a witness in this case, Mr. Emery? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you been subpoenaed as a witness at any time?

A. No, sir; I could not be.

Q. Could not be? A. Not in this case.

Q. Why? A. Because I cannot give hearsay evidence.

Q. Would that prevent you from being subpoenaed?

A. That would prevent me being a witness.

Q. I asked you if you had been subpoenaed, you know.

A. No, sir.

1814 Q. To whom did you first relate the conversation that you claim you had with Alva Baldwin?

A. I could not say; I think it was to a—I could not say positively but I rather think it was—a certain friend casually asked me the question.

Q. When? A. Some time afterwards.
Q. How long afterwards? A. I could not tell you.
Q. A year? A. I could not tell you anything about it.
Q. Two years? A. I would not say.
Q. Three years? A. I cannot give dates?
Q. Four years? A. I think it was less than that.
Q. Now, will you kindly locate the place where this conversation occurred again for me as you did for counsel, in feet, etc.?
A. It was across the walk, the east side of Vermont street about 25 feet from the corner of the east side near the Fuller lot.
Q. 25 feet? A. 20 or 25 feet.
Q. You would not think it was 50? A. No sir.
Q. You are positive it was not?
A. I know just exactly where it was; it is probably just outside of where the curb is now.
Q. It is not less than 20 nor more than 25 feet?
A. I should think it was not over 25 from the lot; it was on the cross walk at that time.
Q. When did you first talk about the matter of which you have spoken to anybody representing the insurance companies?
A. I told Mr. Barker; he has been a neighbor of mine; I think I told him once.
Q. When? A. That was a year or so ago, I think.
Q. A year or so ago?
A. I think it was more than that; it was four or five years ago; it must be.
Q. You told this to George Barker about four years ago?
A. Yes sir, I think so.
Q. And did you tell it to any other representative or attorney of the insurance company before that time?
A. I think not; I have told Mr. Green since.
1815 Q. Four years ago would bring it back to 1895; that was some 25 years after these occurrences? A. 25?
Q. Yes; what is the length of time?
A. I could not tell.
Q. How long after these occurrences was it that you first told any attorney or representative of the insurance company?
A. I couldn't say.
Q. When as your recollection serves you was the first time you told this tale to an insurance agent or attorney representing the company?
A. I never told it to an insurance agent.
Q. Or to any other attorney than Mr. Barker, and Mr. Green? [Q.] I have no recollection.
Q. You think the first time you did that was in 1895?

A. I could not tell.
Q. That would be 16 years after these occurrences.
A. I could not say as to that; I don't think I have spoken of it to a lawyer.
Q. Between the time that it occurred and 1895?
A. I don't remember.
Q. And then you did tell it to George Barker?
A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

1816 G. W. E. Griffith, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name and residence?
A. G. W. E. Griffith.
Q. Where do you reside? A. Kansas City, at present.
Q. Where were you residing in 1878 and 1879?
A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long did you live in Douglas county at that time?
A. About fifteen years.
Q. In what business were you engaged?
A. I was engaged at that time in the banking business.
Q. Any other business in connection with it?
A. Well, I was doing some loaning business and business of that nature.
Q. Representing any insurance companies?
A. I was acting as local agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York.
Q. Whereabouts was your office at that time?
A. It was in the banking building belonging to Mr. Theodore Poehler on the corner of Massachusetts and I don't know whether that is Quincy or—
Q. On Massachusetts street in the city of Lawrence?
A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you if during that time, that is, in 1878, you became acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where did you meet him and under what circumstances?
A. He came into my office and asked me about insurance.
Q. What kind of insurance, fire or life?
A. Life insurance.
Q. Was any one with him on that occasion?
A. I think not.
Q. Do you remember the conversation which you had with him on that occasion the substance of it?
A. Well, I remember that he came in and asked me about life insurance and I immediately referred him to Mr. Theodore Wiseman who was then in my office at the same time, and introduced him to Mr. Wiseman, who was the general agent of the insurance company and I left them talking.

1817 Q. Did you hear the conversation between them?

A. Only in a general way, that they were talking about life insurance, he wanted life insurance.

Q. Did you see him after that? A. Yes sir.

Q. When?

A. Well, I think it was the same day, or a day or so afterwards.

Q. Where? A. He came in there again to my office.

Q. Was any one with him on this occasion, the second occasion?

A. I think Levi Baldwin was with him at that time.

Q. I meant to have asked you whether Levi Baldwin was with him on the first occasion of your seeing him?

A. I think not.

Q. What was the substance of their conversation at that time, that is, the time that Levi Baldwin and Hillmon came in together.

A. Well practically the same, on the life insurance question, and on the question of collecting the life insurance in case of death.

Q. Do you remember what was said by either of them on that subject; what questions, if any, they asked in regard to the manner of collecting?

[—] We were arguing, of course, in favor of insurance, and they were raising the question—

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as not responsive to the question. Motion sustained, each of the defendants duly excepting.

Q. State the substance of what was said?

A. The substance of the questions was to ascertain the method of collecting the insurance.

[Q.] The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as not responsive to the question. Motion overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. Go on and state the substance of what was said on that occasion?

[Q.] Mr. Wiseman and myself were assuring him that there was no difficulty to collect the insurance.

Q. Did you explain to him how it would be done?

A. Yes sir.

1818 A. He was raising objections and pointing out questions that might arise; there was a good deal of conversation on that point.

Q. Mr. Wiseman was present on that occasion?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see them after that, either one of them?

A. You have reference to Mr. Hillmon.

Q. Mr. Hillmon and Mr. Baldwin on the subject of life insurance?

A. Yes, I think I saw them three or four times, but I don't remember distinctly in regard to the subject only that the conclusion was to take out a policy of ten thousand dollars, and he made an application.

Q. Of course, it is already shown that he did take out a policy. Did you deliver that policy? A. I did.

Q. To whom? A. To Mrs. Hillmon.

Q. When was it, as near as you can recollect? Let me put the question a little differently. How long was it after Hillmon and Levi Baldwin were in your place of business talking in regard to the manner of making proofs?

A. Well, I think it was two or three weeks afterwards that I received the policy and delivered it.

Q. Was the premium paid by her, or had it been paid before? A. It had been paid at the time.

Q. You may state if after that you saw Mrs. Hillmon and had any talk with her, or she with you, in regard to life insurance?

A. Yes, sir, some time after that she came into my office.

Q. Can you tell about when it was, when Mrs. Hillmon came to your office?

A. I could not only that it was after Mr. Hillmon had gone south and returned, and gone a second time.

Q. What was the subject of her conversation; what did she want you to do?

A. She said she had received a letter from her husband, Mr. Hillmon, asking her to call and see me in regard to his vaccination and inform me that he had been vaccinated, that his arm, that the vaccination had taken, and requested me to inform my company of that fact.

1819 Q. What reply did you make to that?

A. I told her that she had her insurance policy delivered, the matter was all closed up and it was not necessary to do that.

Q. When, and on what occasion, did you next see her?

A. As near as I remember, I saw her next after the reported death of her husband.

Q. Where was she on that occasion?

A. She was in my office; that I remember now at any rate; and I think that I saw her at her house; I wouldn't like—I don't know positively about that, I think I did.

Q. You remember seeing her at your office?

A. Yes sir, distinctly.

Q. When was that with reference to being before or after the body had been brought to Lawrence?
A. It was just before the body arrived; I think perhaps in the afternoon and body arrived that night.
Q. Do you know how she came there? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you drop her a note to call at the office?
A. Yes sir, I did.
Q. Do you remember about what time in the day it was she came there? A. I think it was afternoon.
Q. Was there anybody present at that occasion except Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes, I think Mr. Selig was present.
Q. Mr. A. L. Selig? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you have a talk with her then in regard to the appearance of her husband, ask her to give a description of him? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you ask her in regard to the height of her husband?
A. Yes, I believe I did.
Q. You may state what she said in regard to the height of her husband? A. She said she couldn't say.
Q. How? A. She could not state.
Q. Was she inquired of in regard to the character of her husband's teeth? A. Yes sir.
Q. What did she say in regard to that?
A. She could not state definitely.
Q. Do you remember what reply she did make when 1820 she was asked concerning the character of her husband's teeth?
A. Yes, sir, she said she thought he had good teeth; then she said she didn't know certainly, but he might have had some defective ones, she wasn't certain.
Q. Do you remember of asking her in regard to the color of his hair, either you or Mr. Selig, in your presence?
A. I remember that question was asked.
Q. What did she say in regard to the color of his hair?
A. She said she thought it was black or brown; she wasn't certain which.
Q. Did she know the color of his hair?
A. Didn't appear to, no, sir.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as not responsive to the question. Motion susained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. Did she tell you the color of his hair at that time?
A. No sir.
Q. How long did she remain there?
A. Well, it might have been 15 minutes or it might have been half an hour; I think it was half an hour at least.
Q. Was Mr. Selig present during all of this conversation?
A. Yes sir.

Q. Was that the last conversation you had with her?
A. I think so.
Q. I will ask you if on that occasion she stated that her husband was five feet, 11½ inches high?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

By the Court: It is leading. I think on your objection I excluded everything that was asked Mrs. Hillmon on this subject.

Q. By Mr. Barker: I think the Court is correct; I will withdraw that question.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by Mr. Wheat, counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

1821 Q. Mr. Griffith, did you write this letter to the plaintiff? A. I guess I did.
Q. I don't want a guess; are you certain about it?
A. I should say I did.
Q. Put it in the mail and delivered it to her, did you?
A. I have no recollection now specifically in regard to it.
Q. Will you read that letter now; I want to ask you some questions about it.

"Lawrence, Kansas, April 1st, 1879.

Mrs. S. E. Hillmon:

If you will call at my office to-day or as soon as you receive this, I will make out your application. Bring that paper and your letters along. Yours truly,

G. W. E. GRIFFITH."

Q. What was referred to here as that paper?
A. My recollection is that I had been at her house previously and she had shown me a copy of a newspaper and a letter that she had received; that is as near as I can remember; I don't know what letters I could have reference to.
Q. Did you leave word at her house for her to call and see you? A. Probably I did.
Q. Was that on the same day you wrote this letter?
A. I don't remember.
Q. You don't know whether you wrote the letter first or went there? A. No sir.
Q. State whether she called at your office the same day that you wrote this letter?
A. That I could not remember either.
Q. Who was in your office at the time she called?
A. Mr. Selig.
Q. Mr. A. L. Selig? A. Yes sir.
Q. He is an insurance agent there? A. Yes sir.

Q. At that time? A. Yes sir.

1825 Q. State whether Mr. Selig was there by appointment with you or not?

A. That I don't remember, whether he was there accidentally or whether it was by my request.

Q. Did you not testify on the last trial of this case, on this occasion—Haven't you testified at every trial of this case?

A. I think so.

Q. Did you not testify at the last trial of this case that he was there by accident?

A. That Mr. Selig was there by accident?

Q. Yes?

A. If I did, that was probably correct, but I say now I don't remember it.

Q. What do you remember now about it after refreshing your memory, what you swore at the last trial?

A. I don't remember a word about it, Mr. Wheat.

Q. In this letter, with reference to these words, "I will make out your application," what do you have reference to by those words; what did you mean by the use of those words?

A. I wanted to make out a preliminary affidavit for her to sign to send on to the company, and in that affidavit I desired—

Q. I want to know what you meant by "application."

A. I intended to make out an affidavit and send it to the company.

Q. You knew that the corpse was on the road at that time, did you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You knew that?

A. Yes, I supposed it was; I didn't know it.

Q. You so understood? A. I heard it was.

Q. Hadn't Theodore Wiseman sent you a telegram that you had received before you wrote this letter?

A. He sent me a telegram and I think I must have received it before I wrote that letter, but I don't remember.

Q. Have you that telegram with you? A. No, sir.

Q. Will you please state to the jury the contents of that telegram?

A. Well, as I remember it, it was for me to make some inquiry in relation to the description of Mr. Hillmon, and especially as to his teeth.

1823 Q. Didn't he ask you to see Mrs. Hillmon on that subject?

A. He might have done so but I can't remember that distinctly now, whether it was to see Mrs. Hillmon or some one else.

Q. He wanted you to get a description of her husband, of Hillmon?

A. Yes, and I think he wanted me to get Mrs. Hillmon's description.

Q. There wouldn't have been any object in getting a description from anybody else, would there, that you can think of? A. I might argue the case with you on that score.

Q. I say, that you can think of; I want to know if you can think of any one? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Wiseman; it was Theodore Wiseman, was it not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The same Wiseman you have spoken of before?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You knew he had gone down to Medicine Lodge to see the corpse, did you not? A. I knew he said he was going.

Q. How long before the time that you wrote this letter was it that he said he was going?

A. I don't remember; I have no recollection as to whether one day or five, but it must have been five or six days.

Q. You were both of you agents for the Mutual Life Insurance Company, the defendant here, at that time?

A. Well, I wasn't much of an agent; I was simply taking applications when anybody wanted to be insured; he was the agent of the company.

Q. You were taking the money to pay for them?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And delivering policies; you took the money for this insurance, didn't you? A. That is my signature.

Q. You took that $121. odd dollars and some cents?

A. Whatever that says I took; I don't remember how it states.

Q. And turned it over to the company?

A. Well, perhaps I kept it.

Q. I want to know if you didn't turn it over to the company? A. I expect I did, settle with them.

Q. In due time? A. They haven't made any claim to it.

Q. Did you turn it [—]?

A. I will admit I turned it over to the company.

1824 Q. Can you tell me whether you had turned the money over to the company that you received that was mentioned in the receipt, whether you turned that over to the insurance company before the time of this interview with the plaintiff that you spoke of?

A. I settled with the company the first of every month for all the business done during the previous month.

Q. So that now you can recollect you must have turned it over to them before that time?

A. I recollect nothing only that I settled with the company the first of every month; and of, course, I had settled with them at that time.

Q. There was nothing said about returning her this money?
A. No, sir.
Q. You don't know of the money having been sent back?
A. No, sir.
Q. It has never been returned through you? A. No, sir.
Q. The company has kept it so far as you know?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. This telegram that you received from Mr. Wiseman, how long after you received that telegram before you went to the place where she lived?
A. Well, now, Mr. Wheat, I don't know.
Q. Wasn't this just the very day before the corpse got there?
A. I think it was.
Q. The very day?
A. The day before. The corpse got there the next morning.
Q. It got there in the morning? A. Yes, sir.
Q. It got there the next morning? A. I think so.
Q. At the time of this interview, you used a pen and ink, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. In writing down something? A. Yes, sir.
Q. On a piece of paper? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you sitting down or standing up during this interview?
A. I don't remember, but of course I think I was sitting down, because I wouldn't stand up to a desk like that, or table.
Q. Did you do the writing on a desk? A. Yes, sir.
1825 Q. Where was the desk situaed? A. In my office.
Q. How was your office; did you have a part of the room railed off from any other part of the room, or was it—
A. No, sir, we were all in common.
Q. Was this in front of the bank or back of it?
A. In the back.
Q. In the back part of the bank? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was in there besides you, Selig and the plaintiff, in the room at the time of this interview?
A. I stated that it was Mr. Selig.
Q. Mr. Selig, yourself and the plaintiff? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who else, if anybody?
A. I don't think there was anybody else.
Q. Was Mr. Selig in there when the plaintiff came in, or did he come in after she came in?
A. No, I don't remember that; I simply remember of his being there.
Q. You took a piece of paper and you wrote down, put writing down on it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say she said about the hair, I believe, and she said he had good teeth?

A. I said she said she thought he had good teeth, and th she said subsequently that she wasn't certain about it; the might have been some of them defective, or some of them lo out, she didn't know; that was the substance.

Q. Can you tell me what you wrote down on that paper?

A. No, I can only—I can't tell you that.

Q. If you can, tell what you wrote down on that paper?

A. No, sir.

Q. Can you tell me a single line that you wrote down?

A. No, sir; I can't.

Q. Did you at the time write down what she said at t time?

A. I think I commenced to write down what she said.

Q. You can answer yes or not whether you wrote dow what she said?

A. No, sir, I didn't write down all she said.

Q. So far as you wrote anything, did she say what y wrote? A. Of course she said, or I wouldn't write.

1826 Q. I want to know if so far as you wrote, she sa what you wrote? A. Yes, sir, I should say she di

Q. Did you show her the writing?

A. I don't know whether I did or not.

Q. Don't you know you did not? A. No, sir, I don't kno

Q. How much writing did you do; what was you writi on, on what sized paper? A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Can't you tell? A. No, sir.

Q. Can't you tell whether it was legal cap or fool'scap letter paper?

A. No, sir, I could not tell whether it was legal cap letter paper or anything about it.

Q. Can't tell anything about what kind of paper it wa

A. No, sir.

Q. Can you tell about how much writing you put on th paper? A. Very little to the best of my recollection.

Q. How many lines.

A. You have got it, Mr. Wheat; if you will show it to I will tell you all about it.

Q. I ask you how many lines you wrote?

A. I don't know.

Q. Can you tell anything about it? A. No, sir.

Q. Can't approximate it?

A. No, sir, I think, my recollection is it was a very fe very small, very little.

Q. What did you do with that paper?

A. I don't know; I gave it to some of you lawyers.

Q. Do you pretend to say you gave me that paper?

A. I [dinnt] say I did.

Q. Do you mean to carry the most remote idea that you ever gave me that paper?

A. I don't know, Mr. Wheat, whom I gave it to; I gave it to the attorneys I think about the time of the coroner's inquest; I turned over everything I had in every shape, manner or form; I did so, and that is the last that I knew about it.

Q. To whom? A. I don't know who it was.

Q. Why did you intimate that I had it?

A. I didn't say that.

Q. You knew I never lived in Lawrence?

A. I did not intend to intimate—

1827 Q. Don't you know I was not in Lawrence at that inquest? A. I didn't see you, Mr. Wheat.

Q. Now, you didn't see me in Lawrence about that time?

A. Not that I know of.

Q. Then, why did you include me in the delivery of that paper?

A. You are a lawyer; I think it was some of the lawyers; that is all I mean to say; I don't know who; I didn't intend to include you personally.

Q. Mr. Griffith, did you deliver it over to the lawyers of the insurance companies?

A. Mr. Wheat, I really [donwt] know what became of it.

Q. I want to try to refresh your memory and see if you can't tell what became of that paper?

A. No, sir, I can't; I have thought of it a great many times.

Q. You have been asked at every trial why you didn't save that paper, and to bring it to show what she really said there haven't you by the plaintiff's attorneys? A. All I know—

Q. Haven't you been asked that at every one of these previous five trials why you didn't save that paper so as to show what she said, so far as you wrote? A. I don't know.

Q. Don't know whether you have or not? A. No, sir.

Q. I will ask you again now why didn't you save that paper so as to show as to what she said?

A. I turned it over to somebody working in the coroner's inquest; that is all I know about it.

Q. Did you ever say that before at any previous trial?

A. I don't whether I did, or whether I was ever asked the question or not.

Q. Did you give it to Mr. Green? A. I don't know, sir.

Q. He was at the inquest? A. I think he was.

Q. Did you give it to Mr. Barker?

A. I can't say. There is no use of asking me the question, because I positively don't remember; I feel certain that somebody got the paper, and the telegram also.

Q. Did you not testify in relation to this particular piece of paper at the trial in 1882?

A. If I was asked about it I did.

1828 Q. See if you cannot refresh your memory?

A. I don't remember that.

Q. Would you say that you tore it up or threw it in the waste basket? A. I don't know what I did with it.

Q. You knew at the time you were writing down there that the matter of description was important, didn't you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You had been asked by Wiseman to get a description?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. From her; you had been asked by Wiseman to get a description from her, didn't you?

A. I answered that question that I was not certain about it.

Q. And you thought you ought to get it from her in pursuance of the request? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And in pursuance of that you were examining her there at that time; is that right? A. That part of it, yes, sir.

Q. You did get a part of what you say she said on that occasion down in writing? A. Yes, sir, but very little.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the last statement of the witness as not responsive. Overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. Mr. Griffith, there was a difference between you and her on that occasion in regard to the description of her husband, wasn't there? A. No, sir.

Q. Mr. Selig talked some about the description, didn't he?

A. Doubtless he did, for he was present.

Q. Didn't you claim he had decayed teeth on that occasion?

A. No, sir, I didn't, for I didn't know.

Q. Didn't you claim he had a scar on his hand?

A. I did not.

Q. On that occasion? A. I did not, sir.

Q. Did you not on that occasion claim that he had false teeth? A. I did not.

Q. Did you not on that occasion say that he was a short man? A. I did not.

Q. You stopped writing before you had written very m-ch, you say? A. Yes, sir.

1829 Q. What did she say at the time you stopped writing; what was she saying at the time you stopped writing?

A. She said a good many things; she wanted me—she would not say anything definite.

Q. Mr. Griffith, wasn't it something unusual,—didn't you say to her that you wanted to get an application to send on to the company so that she could get her money?

A. I don't remember what I said to her.
Q. Let me ask you if this question was not asked you at the last trial: "You may state what your conversation was. I asked her to give me a description of her husband."
Wasn't that question asked you and that answer made to it at the last trial in 1896, in March, 1896, at the courthouse in Topeka, when Judge Williams was presiding?
A. You ask me if that question was asked?
Q. Yes.
A. I presume so; I should think it must have been.
Q. Did Mr. Selig ask her questions on that occasion?
A. He was present and took part in the conversation.
Q. Did you get a description from her on that occasion?
A. Nothing definite.
Q. Your real object in quizzing her about a description was to catch her in some mistake, was it not?
A. No, sir, I did not wish to catch her in any mistake at all.
Q. Wasn't that your real object?
A. No, sir. My object was to find out the truth.
Q. Did you ever before ask anybody to come and give a description of a dead person before they came to apply?
A. No, sir, I did not.
Q. You never did before?
A. No, sir. Never had a similar case to this.

The plaintiff moves that the last part of the answer be stricken out as not responsive to the question. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

1830 Q. I will ask you if at the time I speak of, this question was not asked you: "Didn't you say to her, 'If I remember right, your husband had false teeth'—
A. No, sir, I never said anything of the kind.
Q. And before she could answer, Mr. Selig said, 'Why, Griffith you are mistaken; don't you know his teeth were all jagged in front?' Didn't Mr. Selig say that then?
A. I have no recollection of Mr. Selig—
Q. Then, didn't she say, "You are both mistaken, my husband had good teeth."
A. No such conversation that I heard.
[—] You certainly were not reading from my testimony.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the last statement of the witness as not responsive to the question. Motion overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. When did you first see Mr. Hillmon, did you say?

A. When he came into my office and introduced himself.
Q. Walked into the bank or into your office?
A. He came in through the bank into my office.
Q. You stayed in the bank, did busines in the bank at the time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. He came in the front door? A. I think so.
Q. He came in alone?
A. That is my best recollection, that he came in alone at first.
Q. You have always so testified, have you not?
A. I meant to.
Q. Were you in the front room or in the back room at the time? A. In the back room.
Q. He came in through the front room, and came into the back room? A. That is as I recollect.
Q. And came in alone? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did he introduce himself to you in the front room or in the back room, that is, where were you when you first saw him after he came in?
A. I think I was in the back room.
1831 Q. Who else was in there with you?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Was there anybody in there at that moment when he came in? A. I am inclined to think there was.
Q. Who?
A. I don't remember; some man on business, I think.
Q. Was Mr. Wiseman there at that time?
A. He was in the bank; I think; I don't think he was in the room; I think he was outside in the banking room.
Q. Then if I understand you right, you think Mr. Wiseman was not in that room at that time when he came in?
A. That is so immaterial that I could not fix the matter definitely; but I have a kind of indistinct recollection that I had to step out in the door to introduce him to Mr. Wiseman.
Q. You had to step out of the door to introduce him to Mr. Wiseman? A. Yes, that is the way it occurs to me now.
Q. Ain't you quite sure that that is so, or are you not?
A. That is a long time ago, and so simple a matter as that I could not fix in my memory at all.
Q. It happens in this case that it is a very important matter, therefore, I want you to state to the best of your recollection.
A. I have stated to the best of my recollection that Mr. Wiseman was there six or eight feet or ten feet outside of my office in the banking room.
Q. He was in there?
A. That is my best recollection; I might not be right.
Q. He introduced himself to you, if I understand you right?

A. Mr. Hillmon, yes, sir.
Q. What did he say to you?
A. Just what he said would be very difficult to remember. I can give the substance as it now occurs to me.
Q. I would like to have you give us just what he said to you as near as you can?
A. I could not undertake to give his language, but I think it was that he had seen an advertisement of the Mutual 1832 Life Insurance Company signed by Theodore Wiseman, requesting persons to call at my office to see about it, and he had called to make some inquiries about insuring his life.
Q. Did you introduce him to Mr. Wiseman on that occasion? A. That is my recollection that I did.
Q. How long was it before he came into your office again: First, did Levi Baldwin come into your building, either this room where you were, at all during this interview and before Hillmon went away? A. No, sir.
Q. You are sure of that?
A. I think not; that is my recollection.
Q. Your recollection is that Levi Baldwin was not there at all during that interview? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, the next interview occurred when; how long after this one you have spoken of?
A. I could not remember, Mr. Wheat.
Q. As near as you can remember?
A. It might have been that afternoon of the same day, it might have been the next day. There is two or three days there—
Q. Who did you say came with him then?
A. In one of his visits to us, Mr. Baldwin came with him.
Q. Since this matter has been spoken of, can't you—Don't it call up to your mind to whom you gave that paper?
A. No, sir, I can't remember anything connected with it any further.
Q. You know you gave it to one of the attorneys: Did Borgolthaus, Sam Riggs or John Hitchings, either one of those gentlemen, ask you for any paper?
A. I don't remember but I don't believe they did. That is all.
Q. Well, according to your best judgment, best opinion, if you have any opinion, on the subject, which one of the different parties which have had anything to do in any shape with the case, did you give this paper in which you say you wrote down her answers as far as they went?
A. I can't remember.
Q. What other papers do you think you gave over with it?

A. I have no recollection except the telegram.

1833 My recollection is that the coroner's inquest wanted those papers; somebody wanted them.

Q. What could they want of the telegram at the coroner's inquest? Are you not mistaken about their wanting them there?

A. I might be but that is my recollection.

Q. Mr. Griffith, going back to the matter of the dispatch; I will ask you if at the last trial of this case, this question was not asked you, and you didn't make this answer to it:

"That dispatch said, 'See Mrs. Hilmon immediately and get a description of her husband.' A. That dispatch read as near as I can tell, to see Mrs. Hillmon and get a description of her husband, and especially with reference to a lost tooth."

A. I should say that was probably it.

Q. You say now that you think that is the fact, that this dispatch was, that that was the general tenor of it. Was not this question asked you at the last trial of this case, in March, 1896, before Judge Williams, when this case was being tried in Topeka, with reference to the paper we have been talking about: "Didn't she sign it," and you answered, "I couldn't state whether she did or not."

A. I don't remember anything about that.

Q. Then, was not the next question: "Didn't you so testify upon the last trial of the case that she signed the paper that you wrote, and that you gave that paper to Mr. Wiseman?

A. I believe that I did; I believe that is the case now but I am not positive about it."

A. You ask me if I didn't testify to that?

By the Court: Yes, the question is whether that question was asked you, and you gave that answer?

A. I don't remember what question was asked me at all.

[—] Ain't that a fact?

A. Well, I think perhaps it is.

Q. You think probably the fact is she did sign the paper there? A. No, I don't believe she did.

Q. Wasn't this question asked you at that trial by Mr. Hutchings:

1834 "Q. Didn't you so testify upon the last trial of the case that she signed the paper that you wrote, and that you gave that paper to Mr. Wiseman? A. I believe that is the case now, but I am not positive about it." Wasn't that question asked you and that answer made in 1896?

A. I don't remember whether it was or not, and I don't remember whether—

Q. What is the fact?

A. I say I don't remember now, I have an impression on both sides, that I wrote some things down and that they were very indefinite and I just abandoned, and then again, I have an impression sometimes that she signed it; I don't know just the truth.

The next question: "It is your best recollection now that you did so testify at the last trial, and it is still your belief that that is true," and to that, you answered, "Yes, sir."

A. I could not state positively, for I don't remember what I said.

Q. What do you think about the question, that you wrote down something that she signed, now.

A. I have an impression that she did and I have an impression that she did not; I don't know which is the correct one.

Q. Didn't you give the paper, whatever it was, to Mr. Wiseman? A. Perhaps I did; I would think—

Q. I ain't asking perhaps; I don't want perhapses.

A. I don't know.

"Q. Did you write down at the time that Mrs. Hillmon was there, certain matters which she signed in your presence?"

"A. I commenced to write—"

Q. Wasn't that question asked you at the last trial?

A. I don't remember.

"Q. By the Court: Answer the question."

"A. No, sir, I didn't write what she said—"

Q. Wasn't that question asked you by the court, and didn't you make that answer:

"Q. By the Court: Answer the question." Here is the first question:

1835 "Q. Did you write down at the time that Mrs. Hillmon was there, certain matters which she signed in your presence? A. I commenced to write—"

Q. Wasn't that question and answer made there?

A. I don't know.

Q. What is your best recollection?

A. I don't remember anything about the question asked me.

Q. Then immediately following that, didn't the Court say, "By the Court. Answer the question," and then you answered, "No, sir, I didn't write what she said."

A. I don't remember that, no sir; I don't remember that the court asked me a question at all.

Q. Then, wasn't this question asked you by Mr. Hutchings: "When Mrs. Hillmon was in there, you wrote down certain things, that Mrs. Hillmon signed them or signed the paper, and that you delivered that paper to Mrs. Wiseman; you believe still that that is true, do you not?" To which you answered, "I wrote something and I believe she signed it; I wouldn't state positively, but if I did I gave it to Mr. Wiseman." Was that question asked you and that answer given at the last trial in 1896? A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Now, what is your recollection about that fact, as to whether you wrote it down and she signed it, and you gave it to Mr. Wiseman?

A. I commenced to write down some things that she said, and I did partially, but not being able to get anything definite I quit. I stopped; did not continue.

Q. Then, did she sign what you wrote?

A. I can't remember definitely, as I said before.

Q. Were not this question and answer substantially true; didn't this occur at the last trial of the case that I mentioned; ain't the substance true, the facts stated in that answer. I will read it over again: "I wrote something I believe and she signed it; I wouldn't state positively, but if I did, I gave it to Mr. Wiseman."

A. Well, I state now that I wrote something, but I 1836 don't remember definitely whether she signed it or not.

I have said that three or four times, and I believe that I [have] it to Mr. Wiseman since you speak of it; I believe I did, but I don't know.

Q. Wasn't this question asked you on that trial:

"Q. What was the color of his hair?" A. I don't think I could state except it was dark."

A. I don't remember whether it was asked or not.

Q. What is the fact?

A. That is my general recollection that he had dark hair.

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination. Objection overruled the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. State what colored hair this man Hillmon had that you were talking to?

A. All I can state is that he had dark hair.

Q. State with reference to his teeth, whether you noticed anything about his teeth or not?

A. I couldn't state anything about it.

Q. Don't remember of seeing any missing teeth, or his teeth at all? A. No, sir.

Q. If he had any missing tooth, you didn't know it; is that right? A. I don't know anything about his teeth.

Q. With reference to any scar on his hand, if he had a scar on his hand did you know anything about it?

A. I wouldn't know anything about it for I never examined his hand.

Q. With reference to how many times you saw him: If I understand you rightly, he was in there several times?

A. Two or three times.

Q. No more than that?

A. Then and once afterwards when he came back from the south.

Q. That was the fourth time probably: Was that the fourth time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He was there two or three times the first day?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then the fourth time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever see him measured? A. No, sir.

1837 Q. Were you there when Mr. Wiseman was taking the application, in the room right there with him?

A. I think so.

Q. Sure? A. I am not sure.

Q. I want a little more than "think;" I want to know if you remember?

A. I believe I was but I would not be positive about it.

By the Court: I think, Mr. Wheat, that those questions, regarding the color of his hair, the scar and teeth, since you confined him, are not for the purpose of raising a question as to whether the man that he met there that day was Hillmon or some other man.

By Mr. Wheat: I want to see whether it was Hillmon or whether it was some other man; I want to show whether, in his judgment, he was the man that was dead, that he insured.

By the Court: Ask him how he knows it was Hillmon: If you confine the inquiry to just those few things, the condition of his teeth, the scar on his hand, and the color of his hair, it ought to be stricken out.

Q. How do you know it was Hillmon?

A. I know it because—I only know it because he said it was, and because he was the man that signed the application for the insurance policies and talked with me and paid me the money; that is the only evidence I have and because other people said it was, who talked to him and recognized him as Hillmon.

Q. Could you give any further description of the man than what we have had here; if you can, do it?

A. Well, he was a young man.

Q. How old?

A. Well, I guessed him about 25; I think, however, that he gave his age as 30 years; but he didn't look over 25 to me.

Q. Well, can you give any other description of him?

A. Medium size man, medium height; otherwise rather an ordinary man. That is about all I recollect.

By the Court. In that view, I think his answers as to whether he noticed the color of his hair, or the scar on his hand or the teeth should be stricken out.

To which ruling the plaintiff duly excepted.

Witness excused.

1838 A. L. Selig, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Selig?
A. At Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long have you resided there?
A. Off and on since 1859.
Q. What is your business? A. Insurance.
Q. What was your business in 1878 and 1879?
A. Insurance, fire, life and accident.
Q. Where was your place of business at that time?
A. At the corner [if] Massachusetts and Winthrop streets [in] with the express company.
Q. How long at that time, do you remember, had you been carrying on that business? A. Since 1874.
Q. Did you ever know a man by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. Where and when did you become acquainted with him?
A. At my office.
Q. About when, if you remember?
A. The latter part of October, 1878.
Q. Did he have any business at your office? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who came with him?
A. A gentleman by the name of Peter DeVries who was a special agent of the New York Life Insurance Company.
Q. For what life insurance companies at that time did you take applications, if any?
A. For the New York Insurance Company and the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company.
Q. You say that was about the latter part of October, I think, 1878? A. 1878, yes, sir.
Q. You may state what he did that day there if anything?
A. Made out an application for $5000 life insurance in the New York Life Insurance Company.
Q. Look at he paper marked A, and state what that is, Mr. Selig?
A. That is an application for $5000 of life insurance in the New York Life Insurance Company, made by John W. Hillmon.
1839 Q. On what date?
A. On the 31st day of October, 1878.
Q. When after that day did you next see Mr. Hillmon?

A. I can't state the exact time, possibly two or more weeks, possibly not so long.

Q. Where did you see him on this occasion?

A. At my office.

Q. Who was with him at that time if any one?

A. No one that I remember.

Q. Did he have any business there at that time?

A. He came to inquire whether a policy had been issued on his application.

Q. Did you see him again? A. I did.

Q. When did you see him the next time?

A. At this time when he made the inquiry I suggested to him the advisability of carrying accident insurance, when he came after the application had been made.

Q. What, if anything, did he do?

A. I took his application for accident insurance in the Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford.

Q. Now, the next time that he came to see you, was that after he had taken this accident policy or applied for it?

A. After he made application for it.

Q. Do you remember about how long after that it was?

A. A very few days.

Q. Was any one with him at that time?

A. I think not at that time.

Q. Did he get his accident policy on the occasion of his visiting your place the second time?

A. Not at that time.

Q. When did you next see him?

A. Some days later; at this time, at the first visit after the application for the accident insurance had been made, he said that—No, I am wrong about it; I will withdraw that. The next time he came in with Mr. Levi Baldwin for the accident policy which had arrived.

Q. Did you deliver the accident policy to him?

A. I did at that time; showed it to him.

Q. What was done with it?

A. He and Mr. Baldwin examined it.

Q. Did he receive it? A. He did not.

1840 Q. What did they do with it?

A. He objected to some of the clauses that was in the policy; we discussed it, and then he asked leave to take the policy to Mr. Shannon, Osborn Shannon, who was a practicing attorney there, and consult with him about the objectionable clause, objectionable to him.

Q. Did they return to your office?

A. No, I went to Mr. Shannon's office where I found them.

Q. What was done with the policy, if anything?

A. It was not accepted; Mr. Shannon concurred in the opinion that if the company would grant him leave to carry firearms and do fast riding after stock, that he would accept it, that it would be acceptable. I wrote to the general agent of the Accident Company and the reply was that they could not change the printed portion of the policy. Therefore, the policy was not accepted by Mr. Hillmon.

Q. Now, you may state whether he came to your office again? A. Yes.

Q. About how long after this time that you went up there to Shannon's office with them?

A. Pending the time that we heard from the general agent in regard to the accident policy, he called to know whether I had received a reply, and then stated if they would not accept, approve of a permit such as he wanted, that he would take another policy of $5000 in the New York Life. I then telegraphed for a copy of his original application to Mr. Tillinghast, and on its receipt, it came in a day or two, on receipt of the copy I made out his second application to the New York Life.

Q. Look at the paper now shown you which has been marked Exhibit B and state what that paper is?

A. That is the second application to the New York Life Insurance Company for $5000 on Mr. Hillmon's life.

Q. You may state what if any other applications, he made at that time? A. He made an application—

By Mr. Wheat: I object to the question as calling for written evidence.

By Mr. Green: I will obviate the objection. This 1841 paper, which has not been introduced, I will have marked as an exhibit. (Exhibit 5.) Look at the paper which has been marked Exhibit No. 5 and state what that is?

A. That is an application for $5000 life insurance in the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. This part of it is the medical examination part, and this is the application part. This is the medical examination that accompanied it, was one sheet, originally made at the same time that the second application was made to the New York Life Insurance Company.

Q. Now, you may state if you [—], whether policies were issued on the two applications to the New York Life?

A. There were.

Q. Was a policy issued on the application, Exhibit 5, just shown you? A. There was not.

Q. When did you next see Mr. Hillmon?

A. I cannot positively state as to the date.

Q. Can you state why a policy was not issued on the application, No. 5?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I was informed by the general agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life, about which you have reference, that the application was made on an old blank, not then in use by the company, and I was requested to make out a new application on a form then sent me, or forms sent me.

Q. Look at the paper now shown you which has been marked Exhibit No. 7, and state what that paper is?

A. This is an application for $5000 in the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company on the life of Mr. Hillmon.

Q. What is the date of that? A. December 24th, 1878.

Q. Was Mr. Hillmon at your place of business at that time? A. Yes, sir; he was.

Q. Now, when did you next see him after he was at your place on December 24th, 1878?

A. I am not positive on the dates; sometime afterwards.

Q. Do you know whether he had been in Lawrence
1842 all the time from the time that you saw him on December 24th, and the next time you saw him?

A. I think he had been away at Wichita.

Q. Will you look at the paper marked Exhibit No. 8 and state what that is?

A. [The] is the application of John W. Hillmon for $5000 life insurance in the Connecticut Mutual Life, dated the 24th of February, 1879.

Q. Was he at your place of business on that day?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Who was the medical examiner for the Connecticut Mutual at that time? A. Dr. J. H. Stuart.

Q. Where, if to any place, did you and Hillmon go from your office? A. Went to Dr. Stuart's office.

Q. For what purpose?

A. Of making the examination on the application.

Q. Now, was any policy issued on that application to the Connecticut Mutual Life on December 24th, 1878?

A. No sir there was not.

Q. Can you tell the jury why?

A. In the original application to the Connecticut Mutual, what they called the old form, the question was asked, "Have you ever been successfully vaccinated", or language to that effect. It did not call for a date. I had copied that from the original application, as far as I could, made to the New York Life, where it was answered, "Yes." This application calling for the date brought the subject up as to whether he had been vaccinated, and he answered he had not. The application was rejected on account of his not being vaccinated.

Q. This was on the 24th of December?

A. This was on the 24th of December.

Q. Do you recollect now whether you saw him again before the 24th of February, the time that he made this last application?

A. I have no recollection of seeing him, but he was in and out of my office at times; I saw him on the street several times, but had no particular business on the street with him.

1843 Q. Now, had you informed him of the rejection of the application made on the 24th of December?

A. Yes sir, I had.

Q. What, if any, conversation, did you have with him in February in regard to his being vaccinated?

A. I urged him to be vaccinated; he said that he had a friend who was vaccinated and died in consequence of having contracted some infectious disease from that vaccination, and that he was opposed to being vaccinated, but in conversation then between the three of us, that is, Mr. Hillmon, Dr. Stuart and myself, he finally consented to be vaccinated, and Dr. Stuart telegraphed for fresh virus, assuring him there was no danger.

Q. Now, at the time of this last application, the one dated the 24th day of February, 1879, I think you said you went with him to Dr. Stuart's office?

A. Yes, my recollection is that I went with him to Dr. Stuart's office previous to the 24th of February, and talked over this vaccination.

Q. Do you know how tall John W. Hillmon was?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How do you know, how did you come to know how tall he was?

A. By seeing him measured, and by standing up beside him.

Q. Where did you see him measured?

A. In Dr. Stuart's office.

Q. On what occasion?

A. When the application dated February 24 was made.

Q. How much did he measure at that time?

A. Five feet, nine inches.

Q. Was a policy afterwards issued, do you know, upon this application of February 24th? A. Yes sir.

Q. How did he come to be measured at that time, if you remember?

A. When the examination was being filled out by Dr. Stuart, Dr. Stuart filled it out principally from the other examination on the other applications, as there had been no change. Mr. Hillmon then called attention, said that a mistake had been made in the measurements given in his application, that Dr. Miller had measured him and that he was five feet nine.

Q. Then he was measured; was that verified?
A. Yes, Dr. Stuart stood him by the side of the door or against the door or casing on which there was a scale, a measuring scale.
1844 Q. Measured him there?
A. Yes, and pronounced it five feet nine inches. I then stood up by the side of him and saw he was not as tall as I am.
Q. How tall are you?
A. I am five feet ten and three-quarters inches with my shoes on.
Q. Do you remember the circumstance of a dead body being brought back to Lawrence? A. I do.
Q. About when was that, do you remember, Mr. Selig?
A. Early part of April, 1879; I think it was on the 3d day of April.
Q. Did you see that body? A. I did.
Q. Where did you see it?
A. At the undertaking establishment of Bailey & Smith, on Massachusetts street.
Q. How long had the body been at Bailey & Smith's when you saw it? A. I judge not more than an hour.
Q. Did you see that body more than once? A. I did.
Q. Now, you may state whether that was the body of John W. Hillmon for whom you had taken these several applications? A. I did not recognize it as such.
Q. Now, are you acquainted with the plaintiff, Mrs. Hillmon? A. I am.
Q. When did you first meet her?
A. Some time in February, 1879.
Q. Where did you meet her? A. At my office.
Q. Did she have any business there?
A. Yes, she called for the Connecticut Mutual policy to see whether it had arrived.
Q. Had it arrived? A. It had.
Q. That is the first time you remember of seeing her?
A. That is the first time I remember, yes sir.
Q. Did you see her after that? A. Yes sir.
Q. About when was that, if you remember?
A. In March, 1879; latter part of March.
Q. Did you ever write any letters at her request?
A. Yes sir.
1845 Q. To whom did you write a letter?
A. To the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York.
Q. How did you come to write that letter?
A. This seems to have been about February—March 18th. Considerable had been said in regard to the vaccination, and she asked me, she told me she had been to see the agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, to inquire as to what answers had been given to the question in the application relative to Mr. Hillmon being vaccinated, and she got an unsatisfactory answer, she said, from him, and she asked me what to do. I advised her to write to the Mutual Life Insurance Company and request it to answer, to let her know what answer was given in that application, relative to the vaccination. She asked me whether I wouldn't write it for her, and I said I would and I did, and signed her name to it.

Q. Is that the letter which you wrote?

A. That is the letter.

By Mr. Green: We now offer the letter in evidence. The same was marked Exhibit R, was read to the jury, without objection, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

"Lawrence, Kansas, March 19th, 1879.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company,
140, 146 Broadway, New York,

Gentlemen:

Please let me know by return mail what answers were written to the question about vaccination in the application for policy No. 195,132 of your company, on the life of John W. Hillmon, my husband, date of policy, December 10, 1878. By giving this your immediate attention, you will greatly oblige

Mrs. SALLIE E. HILLMON, per L."

Q. Now, did you meet Mrs. Hillmon after that?

A. Yes sir.

Q. When next did you meet her?

A. I think the next time was the latter part of March, 1879, along about the 25th or 27th, somewhere along there.

1846 Q. Where did you meet her at that time?

A. At the house where she was rooming, at Mrs. Judson's house.

Q. Now, after that, did you meet her again?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you meet her at that time?

A. At my office.

Q. About when was that?

A. The same day, in the afternoon, towards evening.

Q. What, if any, business did she have at your office at that time?

A. To know what further was necessary in the matter; we had been talking about bringing the body—

Q. I do not ask for the conversation that happened there. Was the report that John W. Hillmon had been killed down near Medicine Lodge known to Mrs. Hillmon and yourself at the time that she came to your office on this occasion?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. About how long before that had the report come to Lawrence, if you remember?

A. I think about two days; two or three days.

Q. Two or three days?

A. When I first heard of it.

Q. Did you hear of it as soon as the report came to Lawrence? A. I could not state that; I think I did.

Q. Now, what was her business, if any, at your office on that occasion?

A. To know whether there was anything further necessary for her to do in the premises, preliminary to making her claim, I suppose.

Q. What conversation did you have with her there at that time, if you remember?

A. I told her nothing further was necessary except bringing the body, until the body was brought there and identified.

Q. Now, did you see her again immediately after that?

A. Soon after that, yes, sir; several days afterward.

Q. Where did you meet her on that occasion?

A. At Mr. Griffith's office.

Q. What time in the day, do you remember?

A. It was in the afternoon.

Q. Who was present?

A. Mr. G. W. E. Griffith, Mrs. Hillmon and myself.

1847 Q. Now, do you remember how you came to be there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you come to be there?

A. Mr. Griffith either showed me or gave me the contents of a telegram he had received from Major Wiseman to the effect—and he said that he had arranged with Mrs. Hillmon to come to his office that afternoon to give a description, and he invited me to be present.

Q. Now, what conversation took place there at that time. Who carried on the conversation. first?

A. Mr. Griffith principally.

Q. What was the subject-matter of the conversation?

A. He said to her that as a preliminary matter to making application for life insurance, or claim, making out her claim, he wished to take a description of her husband, and asked her to give a description of her husband.

Q. Now, state what she said?

A. Mr. Griffith asked her to state his height.

Q. What did she answer to that?

A. She did not know, as to the color of his hair, color of his eyes, questions that would go to make up a description of her husband, she did not know.

Q. What did she say, if you remember?

A. She did not know.

Q. Now, was there anything asked her in regard to his teeth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What did she say to that? A. She did not know.

Q. Did she make any further reply to that, do you remember?

A. Not that I remember; she did not know; she could not answer any question.

Q. Did Mr. Griffith state to her there, in answer to any question, that her husband had false teeth, and did you then state, "No, Griffith, you are mistaken, he had jagged teeth?"

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Mr. Griffith did not ask that question and I did not make that statement.

Q. Did you make that statement there at any time?

A. I did not; I took very little part in the conversation; I asked only one question.

1848 Q. What questions did you ask her, if any, Mr. Selig, and what did she answer thereto.

A. I asked her what was the color of Mr. Hillmon's mustache, whether it was the color of mine or some other color.

Q. What answer did she make to that?

A. She said, "Mr. Selig, I don't know; he was a man I was not much acquainted with."

Q. Did you ask her any further questions on your part?

A. I did not.

Q. Do you know Charles W. Smith? A. I do.

Q. What business was he engaged in at that time at Lawrence?

A. He was a member of the firm of Bailey & Smith, furniture dealers and undertakers.

Q. You may state whether you saw him about the time that body arrived in Lawrence?

A. I saw him the evening before the body arrived, first. I saw him also on the morning that the body arrived.

Q. What, if anything, did he show you on the morning the body arrived?

A. He did not show me anything that morning.

Q. What did he show you, if anything, the night before?

A. As I was going home, he called me across the street, and said he had received a telegram that he said I might wish to see. He showed me the telegram.

Q. What did you do, if anything?

A. I made a copy of it.

Q. Look at the paper marked Exhibit S, and state what that paper contains, if anything?

[—] This is a copy somewhat abbreviated of the telegram that Mr. Smith showed me on the 2nd day of April, 1879.

Q. Will you state what those abbreviations are.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By Mr. Green: I will now offer this in evidence, and will show the loss of the original by Mr. Smith.

The Court overruled the objection, to which ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

1849 Q. Now, you may state how that copy is abbreviated, Mr. Selig? A. In the names.

Q. State what names?

A. B. & S. stands for Bailey & Smith, Mrs. J. W. H. stands for Mrs. J. W. Hillmon.

Q. Who were Bailey & Smith?

A. They were the undertakers.

Q. And the Smith being Charles W. Smith whom you have just mentioned? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will read it if there is no objection.

No objection was made.

"Received 5:50 p. m. April 2d, 1879. Bailey & Smith, See Mrs. J. W. Hillmon have lot secured and grave dug immediately. Be in six a. m.

LEVI BALDWIN."

By Mr. Atwood: Any date on it?

By Mr. Green: "Hutchinson, Kansas, received 5:50 p. m., April 2nd, 1879."

Q. When and where did you make that copy, Mr. Selig?

A. In Bailey & Smith's furniture store.

Q. At what time?

A. In the evening of April 2d, 1879, about six o'clock.

Q. Do you know who delivered the Connecticut Mutual policy? A. I delivered it.

Q. To whom did you deliver it?

A. To Mrs. [Mrs.] Hillmon.

Q. What if any objection did she make to receiving that policy at that time? A. None.

Q. What, if anything, did she say to you at that time in regard to her husband directing her not to take up the policy but to receive the money which had been paid as premium therefor? A. Nothing.

Q. Was there any conversation of that kind took place there between you? A. There was not.

Q. Where were you when the policy was delivered?

A. At my office.

Q. Do you know how she came to come to your place
1850 to get the policy?

A. I presume she was directed to call for it. She was entitled to it.

Q. Did you send her word that the policy was there?

A. It is possible that I did.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by L. B. Wheat, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Were you present at the last trial of this case, and another with them?

A. I have testified at each trial of the case.

Q. Each of the five previous trials of this case?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Another case tried with them?

A. Yes sir, they were joined.

Q. I care nothing about that; I want to identify the case. Will you look at this paper marked at this trial Exhibit No. 8, M. L. J. and look at Exhibit 7, C. H. N. the upper part, right here? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you notice that "Ex. 7."

A. I see "Ex. 7, C. H. N."

Q. You see that? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, you notice on the inside of that that the application is signed by—

A. Sallie E. Hillmon by John W. Hillmon. John W. Hillmon.

Q. Who wrote that? A. Mr. John W. Hillmon.

Q. Wrote those three names? A. Yes sir.

Q. The date of that application is what?

A. The 24th day of February, 1879.

Q. Now, on the next page, you see it is dated, "above examination at place, Lawrence, Kansas, on the 25th day of Feb. 1879 and that is signed by— A. J. H. Stuart, M. D.

Q. Is that in his handwriting?

A. That is in Dr. Stuart's handwriting.

Q. Is this the paper you referred to in your examination here to-day as the application dated the 24th of February, 1879? A. Yes sir.

1851 Q. Is that the only application that bears date the 24th of February, 1879, that you know anything about, in connection with Hillmon?

A. I am not certain, Mr. Wheat, but what there is an application for $10,000 which may bear the same date, that was never sent to the company.

Q. There was another application for $5000 on that date, was there? A. No sir, not to my knowledge.

Q. None other? A. No sir.

Q. So far as you know? A. So far as I know.
Q. You were present when that application was made?
A. I wrote the first half of it; this part of it.
Q. You wrote the part that was signed by Hillmon?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And Stuart— A. Wrote the other.
Q. Were you present when that was written?
A. Yes sir, I was in the room.
Q. He wrote it, and filled it up?
A. It is principally a copy of his former examinations.
Q. I will ask you to look here at this 5 feet, 11, on the side that he wrote. You see that? A. I see that.
Q. At the present time what is your judgment as to who wrote that five feet, 11?
A. I have no knowledge, positive knowledge as to that.
Q. I will ask you if you did not testify at the trial of this and that other case that I mentioned that was tried with them, at the trial in Topeka, in the federal courtroom in 1895, sometime in February, that you gave your testimony, at any rate, at that trial, you testified, did you not?
A. I testified in every trial of the case that has been tried.
Q. That application was shown you on that trial, was it not? A. I think it was, yes sir.
Q. Now, that, you say is the same one; that is No. 7, C. H. N. I will ask you if this same Mr. Nettels, who sits 1852 here now at this table didn't take the testimony as stenograher at that trial?
A. Well, I couldn't identify the gentleman as to that; I think I have seen him before.
Q. At several trials. Wasn't this question asked you on that occasion. "'Look at Exhibit No. 7, and state what that is," to which you answered, "That is an application for a $5000 policy in the Connecticut Mutual Life on the life of John W. Hillmon." Look at that No. 7 again. Wasn't that same exhibit shown you on that trial? A. I think it was.
Q. That same application was shown you on that trial?
A. I think it was.
Q. The fact is, that application has been shown you on every trial has it not that you have testified at?
A. I am not absolutely certain whether it was at the first trial or two; my recollection is not certain as to that, but I am quite certain that this application was shown me at the last trial.
Q. I ain't asking you about the last trial. I am talking about the trial of 1895. A. Was there a trial?
Q. Yes, that was before Judge Thomas.
A. Wasn't that the last trial?
Q. No, the last trial was in 1896. I am only trying to get your memory straight. The case was tried in 1895 before Judge Thomas; it was commenced in January and it ran through January and February and into March; you remember the long trial? A. Yes sir.

Q. The long trial before Judge Thomas? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you if at the trial before Judge Thomas, you were present at that time? A. I testified at that trial.

Q. Wasn't that question asked you at that trial, and didn't you make that answer: "That is an application for $5000 in the Connecticut Mutual Life on the life of John W. Hillmon."

A. I have no doubt.

Q. That is the same paper? A. That is the same thing.

"Q. What is the date of that," to which you answered, "24th of February, 1879."

A. My recollection is I qualified it, that the first part
1853 of it was the 24th of February 1879, and the examination on the 25th of February, 1879.

Q. Now, we are talking about what you swore to at that time; we are talking particularly about the application, and didn't you in answer to that say, "24th of February, 1879."

A. The application is dated the 24th of February, 1879.

Q. Didn't you make that answer at that time?

A. This application is dated—

Q. I want to know whether you didn't make that answer at that time, "24th of February, 1879."

A. Please read the question again.

Q. "What is the date of that."

A. The 24th, yes, that is correct.

Q. Wasn't this question asked you next: "Now I wish to call your attention, Mr. Selig, as to these applications, which were written by you, caling your attention particularly to the descriptive part of Exhibits 8, 7 and T; I will ask you to state in whose handwriting that is. I will inquire first as to Ex. No. 7. Look at the descriptive part, where it says, 'Height, 5 feet, 11.' Whose handwriting is that," to which you answered, "Dr. J. H. Stuart's.

A. I have no recollection of being questioned as to whose handwriting that part was, that particular part.

Q. Haven't you been examined at every one of these trials, and at the trial of 1895, as to whose handwriting that was?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Including the trial of 1895? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you wish to see it? I will let you read this. You can see Mr. Nettels' signature right there at the bottom. Let me read again that question I have just read to you:

"Now, I wish to call your attention, Mr. Selig, as to these applications, which were written by you, calling your attention particularly to the descriptive part of Exhibits 8, 7 and T. I will ask you to state in whose handwriting that is. I will inquire first as to Ex. No. 7. Look at the descrip-1854 tive part where it says, 'Height, 5 feet, 11.' Whose handwriting is that." "A. Dr. J. H. Stuart's."

A. I may have said that in 1895, yes, sir, but there is a change.

Q. You didn't notice any change at that time?

A. My attention was not called to it until after I had testified.

Q. You hadn't previously noticed any change, had you?

A. I think not.

Q. You testified on that trial in 1895 before Dr. Stuart, did you not?

A. I am not positive about that, Mr. Wheat, I would not say one way or the other; I don't remember.

Q. You agree that you did answer that Dr. Stuart wrote the 5 feet 11 in the application?

A. Dr. Stuart wrote the medical examination.

Q. And that he wrote the 5 feet 11; at that trial you said he wrote it, didn't you?

A. I am not positive; I don't know whether the 5 feet 11 was there at that time.

Q. Wasn't the 5 feet 11 at that trial?

A. I have no recollection.

Q. Let me read that question again: Now, I wish to call your attention, Mr. Selig, as to these applications which were written by you, calling your attention particularly to the descriptive parts of Exhibits 8, 7 and T. I will ask you to state in whose handwriting that is. I will inquire first as to Ex. No. 7. Look at the descriptive part where it says, 'Height, 5 feet 11 in.' Whose handwriting is that." "A. Dr. J. H. Stuart's." Didn't you make that answer to that question?

A. I might have made that answer, yes, sir.

"Q. Were you present when that was made," to which you answered, "I am not certain about that." Wasn't that question and answer made at that trial before Judge Thomas? I am talking simply, I am giving you what you testified to. I am asking you about the trial in 1895.

A. I understand.

Q. When Judge Thomas was presiding? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In this case?

1855 By the Court: The question is, whether that question was asked you and you made that answer at that trial.

A. In reference to what? That is what I want.

Q. That is the very next question: "Were you present when that was made." "A. I am not certain about that."

A. I was present when this application was made.

Q. When the medical examiner, when Stuart filled up the medical examination? A. In part, I was.

Q. You were present? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Look at exhibit No. 8, second page. Whose handwriting is that? A. That is Dr. J. H. Stuart's.

Q. I will skip a little. You were asked on that trial of 1895, "How tall was he," to which you answered, "Five feet, nine inches." A. Yes, sir.

"Q. You may state if you ever saw him measured. A. I did."

Q. Is that correct? A. That is correct.

Q. You testified at that trial the same as this.

"Q. Where? A. At the office of Dr. Stuart."

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember that question and answer?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was correct? A. That was correct.

"Q. Who by? A. By Dr. Stuart." [—] That is correct.

Q. Next question. "When was this? A. On the 26th or 27th of February, 1879." Was that question and answer asked you?

A. My recollection is that I said about the 26th or 27th.

Q. Didn't you answer square to that question: "When was this," your answer, "On the 26th or 27th of February, 1879."

A. I have no definite recollection whether I have the exact dates; it was about that time.

Q. I am [not] asking you when it was, about; I want to know if you made that answer on the trial of 1895?

A. Well, my best recollection would be that I said about the 26th or 27th of February.

Q. Didn't you say on the 26th or 27th of February, 1879; I want yes or no to that?

1856 A. Well, I wouldn't swear positively to that; I think, Mr. Wheat I said on or about.

Q. I understood what you said, but I wish you would answer yes or no? A. That is my recollection.

Q. Whether you said the 26th or 27th of February, 1879.

A. It was about that date; I am not positive.

Q. I am not asking when it was; I am asking whether you did not say on that occasion it was on the 26th or 27th of February, 1879?

A. I might have said that, but I think I qualified it by saying about.

Q. The next question: "Who was present at this time?"

"A. The three of us." A. There was three of us present.

"Q. Now, I will ask you if he was ever measured more than once when you and Hillmon and Stuart were present? A. Not to my knowledge, no sir." A. Not in my presence.

"Q. When you were present, he was not measured more than once? A. No, sir."

Q. Next question: "How did it come about he was measured at that time?" Then the next question, "State what was said at that time in regard to his height." "Objection. No answer." "Objection sustained."

"Q. State what was said in regard to having him measured." "Objection."

"By the Court. He may state not what was said but the circumstance that brought about the measurement. It is not necessary to give the conversation."

"Q. I am now asking for the circumstance as to how it came about that he was measured."

"By the Court: He may testify as to the circumstance or occasion how he came to be measured."

"Q. You may state what Mr. Hillmon said at that time in regard to his height." "Objection."

"By the Court: State."

1857 By the Court: Can't you get down to the question that was answered that you claim is contradictory of his statement now? It is unnecessary to read further.

Q. (Reading).

"By the Court: State what Hillmon said. A. He said"—

By the Court: The question to this witness at present is whether at that trial in 1895, the Court directed this witness to state what was said, and whether in response to that, he made the answer you will read, is that it?

By Mr. Wheat: Yes; I want to see—

By Mr. Barker: It seems to me it should be stricken out of the record, all that was said by Mr. Wheat previous to that question.

By the Court: Some of it was proper a few minutes ago, but this other is not, the last four or five or six questions and answers.

By Mr. Wheat: It is necessary to read them to show the connection.

By the Court: I don't know how much to strike out. Considerable ought to be stricken out, if you will point it out.

By Mr. Green. All those questions to which there is no response.

By the Court: They should be stricken out of this record.

By Mr. Wheat: Now, the next question of Mr. Selig, in the trial of 1895:

"By the Court: State what Hillmon said."

By the Court: That is with respect to the measurement.

"A. He said that a mistake had been made in his height as given in the application, and that Dr. Miller had measured him, and that he was not as tall as given in the application."

By the Court: The question is, Was that direction given you by the Court, and whether you made that answer thereto.

A. I am not certain whether that direction was given by the Court, but is a true answer.

By the Court: That is not the question, and it seems to me you ought to be able to understand it by this time.

1858 [—] The question is whether you made that answer.

A. I am quite certain that I made that answer at the time, because that is a true answer.

"Q. Now, was he measured there at that time?

A. He was."

By the Court: You mean to ask this witness whether that question was asked him, and that answer made at the trial in 1895?

By Mr. Wheat: Yes.

By the Court: Your questions are calculated to lead the witness into the error that he makes.

Q. Was that question asked you at that time before Judge Thomas in 1895? "Now, was he measured there at that time?

A. He was."

The defendants object to the question for the reason that it does not tend to impeach the witness.

By the Court: You asked him questions that appear in the transcript. Ask him the questions now, and if he answers them differently, then ask him if he did not at a certain trial, make contrary statements.

Q. Look at this paper and tell me whose signature that is; who wrote that? A. J. H. Stuart; that is J. H. Stuart.

Q. To the medical examiner's certificate dated the 31st of October, 1878? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who wrote that 5 feet, 11, in there?

A. I presume Dr. Stuart did.

Q. Do you know his handwriting?

A. That appears to be the same handwriting as the balance, yes, sir.

1859 Q. Do you know his handwriting?

A. I know his handwriting.

Q. Know his signature?

A. This was written in my office, I didn't see him write it.

Q. Was there anybody else around the paper when it was written?

A. Yes, sir, this Mr. DeVries, special agent.

Q. Who wrote the 5 feet, 11, according to your belief?

A. I believe that Dr. Stuart wrote it.

Q. Now, look at this, that is, the application in the New York Life? A. That is the medical examination.

Q. That has already been shown to the jury, the 5 feet, 11, in that one, of the 31st of October. Now, this one dated of the 4th day of something of December?

A. The 4th of December I believe.

Q. It is changed there? A. I think it is the 4th.

A. That is the one you have called of the 4th?

A. Yes, the 4th.

Q. Who wrote the signature, J. H. Stuart, M. D., to that?

A. Dr. Stuart.

Q. That is his handwriting is it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is not the date, is it, the 4th day of December?

A. It appears, it seems to have been changed from perhaps the 2nd or the 3rd; I think it was; I think it has been changed from the 3d to the 4th.

Q. That is the one we have always referred to as of the 4th day of December?

A. Yes, sir, it is the 4th of December here.

Q. Now, state in whose handwriting the 5 feet, 11, is?

A. I believe that to be Dr. Stuart's.

Q. Handwriting? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will take this one of the 24th of December, 1878, in the Connecticut. Whose signature is this here, J. H. Stuart, M. D.? A. That is Dr. Stuart's.

Q. The same man? A. The same man.

Q. Who wrote the 5 feet, 11, in that?

A. I believe Dr. Stuart did.

Q. You believe that to be in his handwriting?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is— A. The 24th day of December, 1878.

[—] This one dated the 4th of December, 1878, over
1860 the signature of John W. Hillmon: That does not seem to have been filled out?

A. No, sir, that application never was sent in.

Q. Was not filled out? A. No, sir.

Q. Was 5 feet, 11, in that? A. No, sir.

Q. The description is left blank? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, look at this application of the 24th, the medical examination on the 25th. Who wrote that signature?

A. Dr. J. H. Stuart.

Q. He wrote that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You see the 5 feet, 11, in there. Can you tell me who wrote that?

A. I am not certain about that; that seems to have been changed.

Q. The 11 there, you say that is fixed?

A. Yes, it seems to have been.

Q. If I understood you right, you say you couldn't tell me who wrote that? A. I am not certain about that.

Q. You sent all of these applications on to the insurance companies? A. All but the one for the $10,000.

Q. You mean all except the one that is not filled up?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The one where the description is not filled out?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is dated the 4th of December in the Connecticut Mutual? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Here is one of the Connecticut Mutual which is filled up, I see, here on the 4th day of December, over the signature of J. H. Stuart, on the 4th of December to the Connecticut Mutual. Whose signature is this? A. Dr. J. H. Stuart's.

Q. He wrote the 5 feet, 11, in there?

A. I believe he did.

Q. Were these several papers written in your presence?

A. Not all of them; I wrote the application part, but the medical examination was not all written in my presence.

Q. Wasn't it written in all these? A. No, sir.

Q. In which ones was it not written

A. I think the first one.

Q. To the New York Life, and the second to the New York Life?

1861 A. I think all of them were not written in my presence except the last one.

Q. The last one, you think, was not filled up in your presence? A. The last one, I think was.

Q. You think the last one was filled up in your presence?

A. I was in the room; I didn't watch him.

Q. You think you were there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. As I understand you, I think on your examination in chief you claimed that was the occasion on which he was measured? A. That is my understanding, yes, sir.

Q. Did you send these applications on? A. I did.

Q. All of these applications on? A. I did.

Q. To the Connecticut Mutual? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you send the two that are in the New York Life on to the New York Life?

A. The first one I did not; that was sent—

Q. That is the one dated the 31st of October?

A. Yes, sir; that was sent by Mr. DeVries.

Q. You sent the one?

A. It is possible I mailed it; he put it in an envelope.

Q. You sent to the New York Life the one that is dated of the 4th of December, did you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was to the New York Life? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You sent all these, all that were sent?

A. I sent three; one was not filled up.

Q. Wasn't the height mentioned the same in all the applications you sent out to the Connecticut Mutual?

A. I don't know whether it was or not.

Q. When did you first notice the erasing or scratching in that one, where the medical examiner's certificate is the 25th of February? When was your attention first called to that?

A. In 1896, at the time of the trial.

Q. That is right; your attention was called to it in 1896?

A. Yes, sir, that is, if the trial was in 1896; it is the last trial.

1862 Q. It was the last trial; it was at the trial before Judge Williams? A. I think it was Judge Williams.

Q. Your atention was called to that in 1896. Now, you had always before testified that the 5 feet, 11, was written by Dr. Stuart, had you not?

A. On general principles I took the application to be in the handwriting of Dr. Stuart.

Q. You always testified to that?

A. I think I did, yes, sir.

Q. You testified at each trial?

A. I have testified at each trial of this case.

Q. In 1882? A. 1882.

Q. You were then asked who wrote the 5 feet, 11, in the application of the 24th, the medical examiner's certificate dated the 25th of February, 1879?

A. I have no recollection of having been asked the question in particular about the 5 feet, 11, at that time; I have no recollection of it.

Q. All these applications were in evidence at every trial, were they not?

A. I think so, yes, sir—no, sir; not all of them.

Q. Which one was not?

A. The one for $10,000 was not in evidence until two or three trials back.

Q. The one for $10,000?

A. Yes, sir; that has not been in evidence every time.

Q. That is the one that is dated—

A. I think it is December 4th.

Q. But all the others have been in evidence at every tri[illegible]

A. That is my recollection, yes, sir.

Q. You have been asked at every trial who wrote the 5 feet, 11 in there?

A. I don't know as to that, Mr. Wheat, whether the 5 feet, 11 was called to my particular attention or not; I can't say; it is possible that it was; I am not certain.

Q. You remember that it was in 1895, don't you?

A. I think that it was, yes, sir.

Q. Did you not on that trial testify that it was in the handwriting of Dr. Stuart?

A. I presume I did, yes, sir; on general principles—

1863 Q. I am not asking about general principles. I move to strike that out.

By the Court: The question was whether you testified on that trial that the figures were in the handwriting of Dr. Stuart.

By Mr. Wheat: I understand that you did?

A. I think I did, yes.

Q. I understand that you sent all of these applications on to the company?

A. Yes, sir; that is all except perhaps the first of the New York Life; that may have been sent on by Mr. DeVries.

Q. There has always, at each of these trials—you know there has been a contention between the plaintiff and defendants as to the height of John W. Hillmon, don't you?

A. Yes, sir; I think there has.

Q. And the first time you ever noticed any scratch about it was at the trial in 1896?

A. Yes, sir; that is, the last trial.

Q. You didn't notice it at the trial in 1895?

A. I think not, no, sir.

Q. You testified in 1895 before Dr. Stuart did, didn't you?

A. I am not certain about that; I did not keep run of the witnesses.

Q. Look at this date here, and see if that will help you in fixing the time; see if it creates any impression. It is not your writing?

A. No, sir; I have nothing to fix the time, because as soon as I testified I left the court room; I don't know who testified before me.

Q. So that at all the trials previous to 1896, you testified unreservedly that the handwriting, 5 feet, 11, in this application, in the medical examiner's certificate, dated February 25th, 1879, was unreservedly 5 feet, 11?

The defendants object to the question for the reason that the witness has answered the question at least three times before.

By the Court: He has testified that he has sworn that he testified at the previous trial that it was in the handwriting of Dr. Stuart.

By Mr. Wheat: At the trial in 1895?

1864 By the Court: Yes.

Q. Now, you would not, of course, have testified to the handwriting of anybody in the application unless you had looked at it at the time you were testifying, would you?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Q. That application, with the 5 feet, 11, in it was shown to you at the time you testified to its being written by him, at the trial in 1895? A. I did not catch the question.

Q. Here is this medical examiner's certificate, where it is written 5 feet, 11, in this paper dated the 25th of February, 1879; wasn't that shown to you, the 5 feet, 11, therein, at the time when you testified in this case in 1895?

A. I presume it was, sir; I am not certain about that, but I think it was, yes, sir.

Q. You have no doubt upon that point, have you?

A. Well, I can't say that I am absolutely certain.

Q. You would not have testified to whose handwriting it was unless it had been shown to you?

A. I took the application to be in Dr. Stuart's handwriting, that is what it is.

Q. You wouldn't have testified without looking to-day to the 5 feet, 11; you wouldn't have testified without looking at it?

A. I testified to the application and the 5 feet, 11, I presume was in there, and on that ground I would testify that it would be in his handwriting, yes, sir.

Q. But you wouldn't have done that without looking at the 5 feet, 11, when you were asked in whose handwriting that was, would you?

A. I am not certain about that, whether I would.

By the Court: The question was, whether the 5 feet, 11, was shown you?

A. I presume it was but I am not certain just what question was asked me.

Q. You testified to the 5 feet, 11, at that time?

A. I think it was shown to me, yes, sir.

Q. You know that at that time you believed the 5
1865 feet, 11, was in his handwriting, didn't you?

A. I presume I did.

Q. Don't you know you did? A. No answer.

Q. Is that your best recollection?

A. My best recollection, yes, sir.

By the Court: I think you have pursued that far enough.

Q. Now, this Travelers Insurance Company matter, the one that you spoken of here in your examination in chief; this Travelers Insurance Company matter, when did that arise?

A. I think it was in the early part of December, 1878; I am not certain as to the dates.

Q. You said, if I understood you right, that he did not take that accident policy? A. He did not accept it, no, sir.

Q. What was that; an accident policy?

A. An accident policy.

Q. For what amount? A. $5,000.

Q. And he refused it because you could not get leave for him to carry firearms and to ride fast after stock?

A. That is correct.

Q. That is the way; I understand you right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was the point of objection? A. Yes, sir.

Q. To be sure on that point, whether the policy would answer him, I think you said he took it to Mr. Shannon to look at? A. Mr. Shannon, yes, sir.

Q. And then you consulted your company to take it out?

A. The company declined to give the permit and the policy was returned to the company.

Q. What else did he say, about riding after stock. Did he say where he wanted to ride after his stock?

A. He said in his business it might become necessary to do fast riding after stock.

Q. And he wanted permission to do it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You said you were with Mr. Tillinghast at [her] home on one occasion, on last Saturday, did you not?

A. I haven't testified at this trial to that effect.

Q. Didn't you on Saturday?

A. Yes, I did; that is right.

Q. Where did she reside?

A. She resided at the house of a lady by the name of Mrs. Judson.

1866 Q. Where did Mrs. Judson live, on what street?

A. It was either on Henry or Warren street; I am not certain; I think it was on Henry street.

Q. Massachusetts street also?

A. No sir, it was away over west from Massachusetts street.

Q. Was it anywhere near Pickney or Winthrop?

A. If it was Henry it would be within one block of Winthrop, yes sir.

Q. Now state what time of day it was when you called with Mr. Tillinghast at her home?

The defendants object to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

A. Afternoon.

Q. What were Tillinghast's initials? A. C. E.

Q. He was a resident of where? A. Leavenworth.

Q. You said he was your superior officer?
A. He was general agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, yes sir. I was local agent.
Q. At Lawrence? A. Yes sir.
Q. Who was present at your interview between Tillinghast, you and Mrs. Hillmon?
A. The three of us, Mrs. Hillmon, Mr. Tillinghast and myself.
Q. Wasn't Mrs. Judson there?
A. She was in the house but not in the room.
Q. Wasn't she in the room part of the time?
A. She was not.
Q. State whether Mrs. Quinn was there or not?
A. She was not to my knowledge, not in the room.
Q. Did you say anything Saturday about what she said on that occasion? A. I think not.
Q. I believe you said what purpose you had in calling on her on Saturday? A. I think not.
Q. I was engaged in reading and I might have missed it. Didn't you say what purpose you went there for?
A. I think not, no sir.
1867 Q. When was it you called there?
A. It was soon after dinner.
Q. Well, I mean.— A. As to date?
Q. Yes, as to date.
A. I think it was in the latter part of March, possibly about the 27th, along there.
Q. Of March of what year? A. 1879.
Q. That was after you had heard that Hillmon was killed?
A. After the reported death, yer sir.
Q. And was before Tillinghast went down to Medicine Lodge? A. Yes sir.
Q. You had a conversation with her?
A. Yes, Mr. Tillinghast did most of the talking.
Q. You did some of the talking with her too?
A. Very little.
Q. There was a conversation between the three of you?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You stated on Saturday, if I remember right, that you had a talk with Baldwin? A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you another question before I get to that Baldwin business. This talk between you, Tillinghast and Mrs. Hillmon, at her home, that was at Mrs. Judson's, was it not? A. Yes sir.
Q. Mrs. Judson's place? A. Yes sir.
Q. Whether that was on the same day that you had the interview with Griffith, her and you at Griffith's office?
A. No sir.

Q. It was several days before? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, you said you had a talk with Levi Baldwin?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That was the only time you had any talk with Mr. Baldwin about this matter, just at that time?
A. I think that was, yes sir.
Q. Now, at Griffith's office, how came you to be at Griffith's office? A. On Mr. Griffith's invitation.
Q. Did he tell you he had seen Mrs. Hillmon?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And he expected her to come? A. He did, yes sir.
Q. And he wanted you to be there?
A. He asked me to be there; he didn't insist on my being but he invited me to.
Q. Invited you to be there? A. Yes sir.
Q. Mr. Griffith did some writing whilst you were there, didn't he?
1868 A. He appeared to be.
Q. He appeared to be writing? A. Yes sir.
Q. Could you tell on what kind of a piece of paper?
A. My impression is it was either, well, I would say it was the size of legal cap, I would say.
Q. Do you remember anything said on that occasion about proof of death? A. He said to her that—
Q. I am asking you [—] know if anything was said about proof of death?
A. To make a claim, but whether the words, proof of death were used, I would not be positive, but it meant perhaps the same thing.
Q. He mentioned something to her about making a claim?
[Q.] Yes, preliminary to making claims.
Q. He said something about making claims?
A. Yes sir.
Q. For her death? A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you if the substance of that was not with reference to a claim for the amount of her policy in the insurance company?
A. Yes sir, the Mutual Life Insurance Company.
Q. It was with reference to the amount of her claim against it? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, in writing this paper down, what kind of paper did you say it was written on?
A. I think it was the size of legal cap. I was sitting opposite.
Q. Could you tell me about how much he wrote?
A. I could not, Mr. Wheat.
Q. In your judgment, how much, as near as you can?
A. I don't know.

Q. Can't you call the paper up in your mind?
A. No sir, I didn't look over it; I was sitting opposite.
Q. Now, when you were sitting opposite, you would see something about how much he wrote, wouldn't you?
Q. What is your best recollection as to whether she signed it or not?
A. My recollection is that she did not sign anything.
Q. That is your recollection?
A. That is my recollection.
1869 Q. What is your recollection of what was done with that paper at that time?
A. I don't know, for I left there; I took Mrs. Hillmon home.
Q. You took Mrs. Hillmon home? A. Yes sir.
Q. Well, then, was the paper left there with Mr. Griffith when you left? A. Yes sir.
Q. What was done with it, after that, you don't know?
A. No sir.
Q. I will ask you if there wasn't a controversy there between you, Mr. Griffith and herself, with reference to a description of her husband?
A. No controversy; questions were asked and she could not give—
Q. I am not asking you what she said; I am asking if there wasn't a controversy there? A. No sir.
Q. You don't mean that you all agreed to a description of him, do you?
A. No, I don't remember any controversy.
Q. You said that you did not recognize the corpse?
A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you, do you remember anything about the teeth of John W. Hillmon? A. No sir, I do not.
Q. Do you remember anything about seeing any scar on his hand? A. I do not.
Q. Did you look for any scar on the hand of the corpse?
A. I was at the cemetery.
Q. I will take it when it was at Bailey & Smith's?
A. No sir, I did not.
Q. You didn't then look for any scar on Hillmon's hand?
A. No sir, I did not.
Q. If I understand you right, you don't remember of any scar on Hillmon's hand?
A. There was no [—] on the— I have no recollection of there being any on Mr. Hillmon's hand at all.
Q. You were with Hillmon a good many times?
A. Possibly eight or ten times.
Q. Eight or ten times? A. Yes, or possibly more.

1870 Q. Didn't you walk with him along the street?
A. It is possible that I did, yes, sir, meeting him going in the same direction I would—
Q. Don't remember of going along the street with him?
A. Oh, yes, I have a recollection of that.
Q. How high are you?
A. I am 5 feet, 10 3/4 inches in my shoes.
Q. You were present with him in a room several times, when these applications were made out?
A. At my office and at Dr. Stuart's office.
Q. Saw him both standing up and sitting down?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Saw him walking? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Don't you regard the height of a man, and didn't you at that time when these applications were made out, and the medical examiner's certificate, regard the height of a man as a matter of some considerable importance in a description of the person in the application?

The defendants object to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.

A. I think I would, yes, sir.
Q. Did you, after this time that you claim you measured him, did you send on any word to the companies about any difference in the height? A. It was not my business.
Q. I didn't ask you—
A. It was the business of the doctor.
Q. I asked you whether you did it?
A. No, sir, I did not.
Q. You knew he was in the applications you had sent on—
A. I don't think I examined it; I had nothing to do with the doctor's certificate whatever.
Q. This application of the 24th of February, will you look at this application of the 24th—25th of February,—signed by John W. Hillmon, you said? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And signed Sallie E. Hillmon?
A. Yes, by John W. Hillmon.
Q. And in his name? A. John W. Hillmon.
Q. Some place in there, where other insurance is mentioned—
A. "Is there any other insurance on your life?" "Answer. Yes."
1871 Q. I ask you to read the answer.
A. "Is there now any insurance on your life?"
Q. The answer is: "Yes."
Q. "If in this company, state number of policy and amount.
A. The answer is "No."

Q. "If, in other companies, state the amount of each policy and amount insured in each. In the New York Life Company, for $10,000 in the Mutual Life of New York Company, $10,000." A. I did.

Q. Who wrote those two sums, "$10,000" A. I did.

Q. You wrote them yourself? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was on the — A. 24th of February.

Q. 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you knew at that time that he had $20,000 of insurance in other companies at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You took this application for $5000? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the policy now in suit was issued on that application? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You sent this same application on to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company to procure that policy, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Knowing that he had $20,000 of life insurance, $10,000 in one of these other companies, and $10,000 in the other?

A. Yes, sir.

For the purpose of saving the point, the defendants object to the above testimony for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and has no bearing on the ultimate question at issue whether the defendants knew at that time of the amount of insurance John W. Hillmon was taking. The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. You have already answered that you wrote those figures, the two amounts of $10,000

A. They are in my handwriting.

Q. That is the insurance that you knew of his having on his life? A. Yes, sir.

1872 Q. You knew the travelers matter had faded out?

A. Had been dropped.

Q. And all the other applications had been dropped that did not result in this insurance that you spoke of?

A. Yes, sir.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Mr. Selig, what did your agency consist of; what was the charcater of your agency?

A. Fire, life and accident insurance.

Q. No, that would be your business; you say you were local agent? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What was the character of your agency; what were your duties?

A. My duties were to take applications for insurance, life insurance and accident insurance, and to collect permiums and remit them to the company, less my commission.

And in answer to re-cross interrogatories propounded to him by Mr. Wheat, counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. I did forget one thing I would like to refer to, with reference to the time of this measurement. If I understood you right, you claimed that this measurement, in your evidence in chief, was on the day that the application was made, dated.

A. The day of the examination, the 25th, I think.

Q. The 25th of February, You said you only measured him once. A. I saw him measured only once.

Q. That was the only time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When you saw him measured, did you yourself make the measurement? A. No, sir.

Q. All you know about how high he measured, was by what Dr. Stuart said at that time, ain't it?

1873 A. That is all.

Q. As to the exact measurement? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is all you know? You had no better opportunity to look at him then and to judge of his height [then] you had had many times before had you? A. Well, I did,—

Q. Wait a minute. I say you had no better opportunity; you were right in the room with him oftentimes before?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you had walked beside him oftentimes before?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you say you are 5 feet, 10—

A. And about three-quarters.

Q. Had walked along the street, too? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you ever present when any other person measured Mr. Hillmon except Dr. Stuart?

A. No, sir.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

A. Now, at this time of the measurement in Dr. Stuart's office, you may state whether or not your attention was especially called to his height? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did it come to be specially called to his height at that time?

A. He made the statement that an error had been made in his measurement and that Dr. Miller had measured him.

Q. Now, prior to that time, had your attention been specially called to that feature? A. No, sir.

Q. What was Mr. Hillmon's bearing, if you remember, his carriage? A. Erect.

Q. State as to his shoulders, whether he had high or sloping shoulders? A. He had rather high shoulders.

Q. That would make him look taller than what he actually was.

Q. You were asked if you saw any scars on his hand. I will ask you if you ever examined his hands for scars?

A. I did not.

1874 Q. While he was in life? A. I did not.

Q. Now, about his teeth: Did you ever examine his teeth? A. I did not.

Q. You neither noticed scars on his hands nor that he had defective teeth? A. I hadn't noticed any of them, no, sir.

Q. Calling your attention once more to the measurement; at the time you saw him measured there, was he measured in his boots or shoes? A. Yes, sir, he did not take them off.

Q. Now, did Dr. Stuart at the time he measured him, did he announce his height?

A. Five feet nine, yes, sir.

Q. Did Mr. Hillmon demur thereto? A. He did not.

Q. What height did Dr. Stuart announce at that time.

A. Five feet nine.

By Mr. Wheat:

Q. You understand that Dr. Miller claims to have measured him on the 17th of December, don't you?

A. I don't know as to the date, Mr. Wheat; I don't know as the date was stated.

Q. You say now that when this measurement took place in your presence, that Hillmon said Dr. Miller had measured him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You understand Dr. Miller says he measured him on the 17th of December, don't you? A. I don't know that.

Q. You don't know what was said about that?

A. No, sir.

Q. Were you present when this medical examiner's certificate of the 24th of December was written?

A. I don't think I was.

Q. Were you present when this application of the 24th of December, 1878, was made?

A. Yes, sir, that is all in my handwriting except Mr. Hillmon's signature.

Q. The signature of Sallie E. Hillmon and of John W. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. This whole page is in your handwriting? A. Yes, sir.

Q. We are talking about the paper dated—

A. The 24th of December, 1878.

1875 Q. You wrote that yourself? A. Yes, sir.

Q. All except the signatures there of the Hillmon's?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You wrote it all? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you when you wrote it?

A. In my office. I know it by that ink; I was using that kind of ink at the time.

Q. Did you go with him to the medical examiner at the time?

A. I think not; I simply handed it to Mr. Hillmon and he took it down; he knew where Dr. Stuart was.

Q. You say this 5 feet, 11, in this application, in this medical examiner's certificate, dated the 24th of December, 1878, is in Stuart's handwriting? A. Yes, I believe it to be.

Q. This application you sent on immediately after that?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Of course, you looked to see if the Medical Examiner's report was filled out when you got it?

A. I have nothing to do with the medical examiner's report, Mr. Wheat.

Q. Did you take it and look at it to see that it was there and in shape?

A. To see that his signature is there?

Q. Didn't you look it over?

A. No, I don't criticise the medical examiner's reports; it is not my business.

Q. I will ask you this question: Do you believe that Hillmon, having said to Miller on the 17th of December, 1878, that there had been a mistake made in his measurement and was then measured and found to be two inches shorter than in the application, would go just seven days after to Stuart, and on the 24th make the one you did. Now, is it not more reasonable that you made a mistake with regard to the time when you claim the measurement took place?

The defendants object to the question as simply a matter of argument. Objection sustained, the plaintiff duly excepts

Witness excused.

1876 Charles W. Smith, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by George J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. Charles W. Smith, Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. How long have you resided in the city of Lawrence?

A. A little over 45 years.
Q. State in what business you are engaged?
A. Undertaking business now.
Q. Where? A. In Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. I will ask you in what business you were engaged in 1878-9? A. Furniture and undertaking business in Lawrence.
Q. Did you have a partner or associate in business?
A. I did.
Q. What was the name of the firm?
A. Bailey & Smith.
Q. Whereabouts was your place of business then?
A. On the east side of Massachusetts between Henry and Warren streets.
Q. Were you acquainted at that time, in 1878, 1879, with one Levi Baldwin? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you acquainted or did you about that time become acquainted with the plaintiff, Mrs. Hillmon?
A. About that time, I did.
Q. Do you remember the fact of a body being brought to Lawrence from Hutchinson, Kansas, on or about the first day of April, 1879? A. I did.
Q. Do you know on what date that body arrived?
A. The morning of the 3rd of April, 1879?
Q. Before that, had you received any telegrams concerning it?
A. I received a telegram the night before, the evening of the 2nd of April, 1879.
Q. From whom did you receive it and from what place?
A. Levi Baldwin; it was dated at Hutchinson, Kansas.
Q. From Levi Balwin and to whom addressed?
1877 A. Bailey & Smith.
Q. I will ask you what you did with that telegram, so far as showing it to any one is concerned?
A. I went over to the house on Henry street, corner of Illinois, or near the corner of Illinois street, and called for Mrs. Hillmon; she came to the door where I was and I showed her the telegram.
Q. Did you have any conversation with her then?
A. I did, sir.
Q. State what she said.
A. I asked her in regard to the body and she said to follow Mr. Baldwin's instructions.
Q. Did you take the telegram back with you? A. I did.
Q. I will ask if you showed that telegram to any other person?
[Q.] I showed it to Mr. Selig also, but I don't know for certain whether I showed it to Mr. Griffith. I think not, though.

Q. Do you remember Mr. Selig taking a copy of that telegram? A. He did so.

Q. I will ask you what has become of that original telegram?

A. I am unable to state. I put the telegram in my safe and when I came to look for it at the first trial of this case I could not find it.

Q. It would be how many years since you saw that telegram? A. Seventeen or eighteen years.

Q. I will ask you if at these various trials, or before these various trials, you searched for that telegram?

A. I have once or twice.

Q. Have you looked where you ordinarily keep such papers?

A. Yes, sir, I did.

Q. Have you been able to find the telegram?

A. Never found it.

Q. Is the telegram lost? A. It is lost so far as I know.

Q. You spoke of seeing Mrs. Hillmon. Now, the next morning, what did you do?

A. I took my team that we used in our business and driver with me and proceeded to the Santa Fe depot in the east bottoms, and when the train came in, I received the body. The body that was brought in from Hutchinson.

1878 Q. Who was there at that time?

A. Colonel Walker, Levi Baldwin and possibly two or three others; I could not state positively about the others.

Q. Where was the body taken from and to what place?

A. It was taken from the train and taken to my store, my shop.

Q. Your store where; on Massachusetts street?

A. On Massachusetts street, or at the back end of the store. I used two lots, one facing on New Hampshire and one on Massachusetts, and the shop that we took the body to was on New Hampshire street right back of the store.

Q. Do you remember who rode with you on the wagon from the depot to your undertaking establishment on that occasion? A. Levi Baldwin and Colonel Walker.

Q. I will ask you if before you took that body down to your undertaking establishment, if any one requested you to take it anywhere else? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you remember one Arthur Judson?

A. I knew a man by that name.

Q. Did you see him there that morning?

A. Possibly he might have been there.

Q. I will ask you if he made any request of you to take that body over to Mrs. Hillmon? A. No, sir.

Q. Did Mr. Levi Baldwin make any objections to your taking that body? A. He did not.

Q. You say he rode with you?
A. He rode with us in the wagon up to the store.
Q. After you got to the undertaking establishment what was done with that body?
A. The box was opened; the box was of pine fence boards, not right boards, and the coffin was taken into the shop.
Q. Besides the box, what was the body enclosed in?
A. In a coffin, plain coffin.
Q. What kind of a coffin?
A. My recollection is it was a plain walnut coffin; I can't say certain.

Q. Now, what was the condition of the body when 1879 the coffin was opened there at your undertaking establishment?
A. Well, it was in fairly good condition for a body that had been buried for several days.
Q. Did you see the body when the coffin was first opened?
A. I did.
Q. Who performed the act of opening the coffin?
A. Myself and Mr. Stanley; my assistant.
Q. I will ask you to state how the body was dressed at that time, if you remember.
A. Dressed in a suit of brown checked, as I remember it, brown checked goods.
Q. Did you observe at that time about the fit of the clothes, whether they properly fitted the body?
A. They looked as though they were too small for him.
Q. What would you say in regard to the sleeves?
A. The sleeves were something like that; two or three inches too short.
Q. Did you notice the trousers?
A. The trousers were short also.
Q. Now, what, if anything, did you do in regard to embalming the body?
A. I didn't do anything about embalming the body at that time, that I recollect of; I closed the coffin—

Objection.

Q. You may state what you did do?
A. I closed up the coffin, locked up the shop and went to my breakfast.
Q. When you came back, then what was done?
A. As I came back I met the coroner of the county, Dr. Morris, at the front door of the store and he told me—

Objection as hearsay. Objection overruled, to which ruling of the court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Q. Only generally what the instructions were, if any.

A. Dr. Morris, I knew to be coroner of the county; he told me at the door of the store that there was to be a post-mortem examination under the coroner's directions.

Q. You may go on and state what was done after 1880 that?

A. I went to the shop and unlocked the door and not a great while after, I could not say how long, Dr. Stuart, Dr. Mottram and Dr. Fuller came there.

Q. Who were they? A. They were physicians of the city.

Q. Practicing physicians there in Lawrence?

A. Practicing physicians there in Lawrence; I think Dr. Miller was also along; there was three or four physicians came there and told me that they had come to make a port-mortem examination of the body under the direction of the coroner.

Q. You may go on and state briefly what was done; I don't care to go through the autopsy.

A. The body was taken out of the coffin, after I had taken the cover off; the body was taken out of the coffin and laid on a cooling board and stripped.

Q. Now, at that time, or any other time, did you measure the body? A. I did.

Q. When was it?

A. My recollection is it was about four hours, from two to four hours after it was received.

Q. In what maner was the body measured

A. As I said, the body was stripped and laid out on the boards; then I took a carpenter's square or tongue square and set it up at the head with the tongue up and took a tri-square at the foot; the squares both touch; I took a measure spaced off in feet and inches and I measured between the two squares as they stood.

Q. How much did the body measure?

A. Five feet, 11⅝ inches.

Q. After that what was done with it?

A. The body was dressed again, the clothing was put on and it was left in the store there for the balance of that day and the next.

Q. The same clothing put upon the body that was upon the body when it came there? A. Yes, sir, the same clothing.

Q. Now, do you remember of the coroner's inquest being held there at Lawrence? A. There was.

Q. I will ask you if, during the time that this body was lying there, in your undertaking establishment, if people came to see it? A. Yes, a great many people came to see it.

1881 Q. State whether you allowed all people to come who desired? A. I did.

Q. I want to ask you again: Perhaps it is a repetition, whether there were few or many people viewed those remains while they were lying thre?

A. Yes, sir, there was quite a large number.
Q. Now, at any time, during the time the body was there, did you use preservatives?
A. I used preservatives after the coroner's inquest, after the physicians examination was completed so as to be sure to keep the body in condition as the coroner had told me to take care of it until further orders.
Q. Now on what day was the autopsy held?
A. On the forenoon of the third day of April, 1879. It remained there some two days or a day or two days after that and it was buried on the afternoon of the fifth.
Q. What was the condition of the body at the time it was buried as compared with the condition it was in at the time it was received? A. It was about the same.
Q. Did you take the body to the cemetery? A. I did.
Q. And it was buried there, was it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you out there at any other time when the body was taken up?
A. I was out there the next day, the sixth.
Q. Were you out at the cemetery at the time the body was taken up?
A. Yes, I was out there at the time the body was taken up.
Q. You said that was on the 5th? A. The 6th.
Q. 6th of April, 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was present at that time?
A. I think Dr. Stuart, Dr. Miller and Mr. Lamon the photographer.
Q. What was done with the body at that time?
A. The body was taken from the coffin.
Q. Of course, the coffin was removed from the ground?
A. Yes, sir, the body was taken from the coffin and after it was removed from the grave, it was raised in the 1882 coffin and photographs or pictures were taken of the body in two different positions.
Q. Do you remember what photographer took [thse] photographs? [Q.] Mr. Lamon, William Henry Lamon.
Q. Who was he; a photographer there in the city?
A. A photographer in Lawrence at that time.
Q. Then the body was buried again, was it?
A. Yes, sir, after re-arranging the—
Q. At the time the body was taken up and these photographs taken, do you remember in regard to the appearance of the body at that time?
A. I don't think there was any change practically from what it was when it was buried the day before; I don't remember of any how.

Q. Now, I will ask you if, at any time during the time that this body was at your undertaking establishment, if Mrs. Hillmon was denied access there by you?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for a conclusion. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Mrs. Hillmon came to the store in the forenoon of the third and wanted to see the body; I told her that the body was stripped and the physicians was examining it, but if she would wait until we could arrange the clothing, she could come in. She drove off and didn't come in at that time.

Q. During that day, that time, the body was stripped and was in the condition you told her? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know how long it was before she came back again? A. I would not say how many hours.

Q. Was it on the same day?

A. I think not—until the next day.

Q. I want to ask you one other question and that is in regard to your custom of taking bodies that were received in that way, that is that came in by rail; whether it was your custom to take them to your undertaking establishment unless you had orders to the contrary.

A. We always do so unless we have orders to take them direct to the home.

1883 And in answer to Cross-Interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Your name is Smith? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Charles Smith? A. Charles W. Smith.

Q. Were you kin or by marriage related to Colonel Walker in his lifetime?

A. My wife is Colonel Walker's oldest daughter.

Q. You have testified at every trial of this case?

A. Yes, sir, several times; I don't remember whether all of them.

Q. What is your best recollection about that?

A. I think there was one trial I didn't testify at.

Q. Do you remember which one it was?

A. I can't tell you now. I say I think it was one trial, because I think at one trial I was called but was sick and could not come.

Q. Did you ever testify before that the coroner informed you that the body was to have a post mortem examination held over it? A. I have always testified at every trial.

Q. And you retained it in your possession because of that fact?

A. Because the coroner told me to do so; because Mr. Baldwin put it in my charge.
Q. It was placed in your charge by him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you took it to your undertaking establishment?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And there you had this talk with Dr. Morris?
A. I did, yes, sir.
Q. When did you next see Dr. Morris after that talk that you had with him at your door that morning?
A. When he came there with the jury to examine the body.
Q. What time was that?
A. I think it was some time in the course of that day. I won't be certain.
Q. That was the same day on which the body arrived?
A. I think so.
Q. This talk was had with him the morning the body arrived? A. Yes.
Q. When you came back to the store after breakfast?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then he came back there with the coroner's jury some time during that day, you think during the forenoon? A. No, I don't think he came in the forenoon.
Q. But sometime during the day?
A. Sometime during the day.
Q. When did you next see him, with reference to this matter, of course; I suppose you have seen him a thousand times since that.
A. I think the next time I saw him he came there to the store about half past four o'clock on the afternoon of the 5th.
Q. With relation to this day, what day was it; the next day? A. Well, he came with the coroner's jury that day.
Q. That is the same day; I am asking when was the next time that you saw him with reference to this matter?
A. I was talking and you interrupted me. I told you he came there at half past four on the afternoon of the fifth, and he told me that he had given authority that the body might be buried.
Q. It lay in your establishment on the 3rd, 4th and 5th?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And was buried on the 5th?
A. Buried on the afternoon of the 5th.
Q. You- employment came from Levi Baldwin in the first place? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were paid, however, by the insurance people for what you did around there, at least for some portion of what you did? A. Partially.
Q. When did they employ you?

1884

A. They didn't employ me at all.
Q. How did they come to pay you?
A. I don't know how they came to pay me, only they did pay me.
Q. They are so disinclined to pay I think that is worth investigating.

The defendants object to the question and it was withdrawn.

Q. Now, Mr. Smith, I wish you would give us the best explanation you can as to why you have been paid by the insurance companies when the only people who spoke to you relative to the body and who could have authority would be the coroner and Mr. Baldwin.

A. I can't tell you how it came that I put a bill to 1885 the insurance companies at this late day, sir.

Q. But this is a matter that you have had your recollection refreshed about at least on four different trials, and possibly five; you have been asked the question as to why the company paid you. You have thought about these things?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. I presume that part of the transaction, I apprehend that payment was as important as any other? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was the most important? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you make out a bill? A. I did.
Q. To whom did you make it out?
A. Mrs. Hillmon, and she paid $14 of the bill.
Q. How much did the bill amount to?
A. The full bill was $37 or $38. I believe.
Q. Did you present a bill to her for more than $14?
A. I presented the whole bill to her and she paid $14, only the first item.
Q. What was the first item?
A. Receiving the body at the depot and paying for the grave.
Q. That amounted to $14? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What were the other items?
A. Embalming the body, and caring for, washing and dressing it.
Q. What was the embalming process; injecting the veins and arteries? A. No, sir, the veins were not injected.
Q. What did the [embaling] process [consit] of?
A. Injecting the cavities of the body.
Q. The direction to embalm it came from the coroner?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When these other items were not paid by Mrs. Hillmon, to whom did you present a bill for it?
A. Didn't present it at all.

Q. They brought you the pay for it?
A. It was paid by the insurance companies' agents in two or three different payments.
Q. Who did?
A. I couldn't tell without looking, there was so many there was two or three credits by the insurance companies.
1886 Q. Now, will you explain to the jury why it is, that not having done any work for the insurance companies, that they should pay a portion of that bill?
A. I don't know why they should pay it only they saw that I got my pay.
Q. The fact is, however, that the insurance companies did pay you for a portion of the work you did to that body?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Then, so far as you did it for them, you were working for them?
A. I suppose so, but I didn't so understand it at the time I done the work.
Q. And you got your money from them? A. Yes sir.
Q. Your statement is that while not working for the insurance companies, and not supposing they would pay you any part of your bill, the fact is that they came forward and voluntarily paid a portion of this bill; that is a fact?
A. I told you—
Q. Is that a fact?
A. Yes sir, the last part of the bill.
Q. No matter, you have answered the question.
A. I was going to say the last part of the bill. When the officer brought me the permit to take up the body again from the grave, an insurance man was with the officer and he told me he would see that the work was paid for, and it was paid for by the insurance companies.
Q. Who said that?
A. One of the insurance men came with the officer that brought permission to take up the body; one of the agents came with that officer, and told me that the taking up of the body and the taking of the photographs would be paid for by the companies.
Q. Did you take up the body? A. I did, sir.
Q. Who was present at the time the body was taken up?
A. Mr. Stanley, Dr. Stuart; I don't know whether Dr. Morris was or not; I can't tell certain about it.
Q. Dr. Morris sent you out there, though?
A. Dr. Morris did not; it was an order from the city clerk to take up the body; he was clerk of the cemetery.
1887 Q. But Dr. Morris sent you out to take up the body?
A. No sir.
Q. Did he tell you—
A. He sent an officer up there—

Q. Just wait a minute. I understood you to say that he did not send you out there?

A. I don't know whether he did or not.

Q. Did he ask you to go out there? A. No.

Q. So far as you personally know, he had nothing to do with your going out there; is that a fact?

A. Personally, I did not see him at all in regard to that.

Q. Then, as a matter of fact, so far as you know, he had nothing to do with your going to the cemetery and disinterring that body? Is that a fact?

A. So far as I know personally.

Q. But you did go out there, however?

A. Yes sir, upon the promise of the insurance people that they would pay that bill, upon the order the officer brought.

Q. Who was the officer?

A. He was one of the officers of the city, I think a deputy sheriff; I wouldn't be certain; I can't tell.

Q. Do I understand you to say that after cutting it up, you disinterred this body under the authority of a mere deputy sheriff or city clerk?

A. I think the coroner sent it there. I think the coroner sent the deputy there.

Q. What makes you think so?

A. It was the same deputy that had been back and forth.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answers of the witness in which he states what he thinks. Motion overruled the plaintiff duly excepts.

Q. Now, you think the coroner sent this officer?

A. Why, it was the officer that had been with the coroner's jury.

Q. Under the direction of the coroner right along all the time? A. He was under the direction of the coroner.

Q. At the time he came to you, he brought the jury there?

A. He came with the coroner.

Q. At the time he came to you to disinter the body, did he come there with authority from the coroner?

A. He came there with authority of the city clerk

1888 to raise the body.

Q. Did he come there with authority from the coroner? A. Not that I know of, no sir.

Q. Well, is it a fact that he did come there with any authority from the coroner?

A. No, it is not a fact that he did come with any authority from the coroner.

Q. So far as you know? A. So far as I know.

Q. So far as you know then, the only authority for disinterring that body was that of this deputy sheriff and city clerk? A. Yes sir.

Q. Is that right? A. The order was from the city clerk.
Q. That is the man whose order you observed?
A. Yes sir.
Q. In disinterring this body? A. Yes sir.
Q. At the time the order for disinterring the body came from the city clerk, did you inform Mrs. Hillmon or Levi Baldwin of the fact that you had received this order?
Q. Did she give permission that it be disinterred?
A. I didn't take the trouble to get it.
Q. Will you answer the question, sir? A. No sir.
Q. Did you go to Mr. Baldwin or communicate with him in any way about the matter after you received this order from the city clerk? A. At no time, sir.
Q. As a matter of fact, did you? A. No sir.
Q. Then in pursuance of some order brought to you by a deputy sheriff issued by the city clerk, and without, so far as you know, any knowledge or permission from Mrs. Hillmon or Levi Baldwin, you went out and disinterred that body?
A. Yes sir.
Q. That is the job these insurance people promised to pay you for? [Q.] Yes sir.
Q. And did pay you for? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, reverting to the time, the morning that the body came You say that Colonel Walker among others, went to your establishment on the wagon with you when you took the body up there? A. Yes sir.

1889

Q. When did Dr. Stuart put in an appearance if at all that morning? A. After the coroner had told me to—
Q. Will you tell me as to the time?
A. I think about half past nine o'clock.
Q. Dr. Stuart was not the coroner, was he? A. No, sir.
Q. The coroner was not with him, was he?
A. No sir, he was not.
Q. Dr. Stuart, however, came there? And came there alone at first didn't he? A. No sir.
Q. Who was with him?
A. Dr. Stuart, Dr. Mottram and Dr. Fuller, and possibly Dr. Miller, but I think Dr. Miller was not the first time.
Q. Then the inquest or post-mortem examination was held right there that morning, was it? A. Yes sir.
Q. The body was cut up that morning by these doctors?
A. The body was not cut up, sir.
Q. There were cuts on it?
A. It was opened, yes sir.
Q. It was done with a knife, wasn't it? A. Yes sir.
Q. Then there was some cutting done upon the body.
A. Yes, but the body was not cut up.

Q. Not according to your understanding, but if your intestines were cut out, you would imagine you were cut up.
A. There was no intestines cut out.
Q. Were they not all removed from the body? A. No, sir.
Q. The stomach wasn't taken out, was it? A. No sir.
Q. Nor the entestines nor none of them taken out?
A. No sir.
Q. Nor no part of the organs of the body at all were taken out of the body?
A. Not taken out of the body, they raised and examined them.
Q. They were not taken out of the body? A. No, sir.
Q. Do you mean they lifted them up from the abdominal cavity?
A. Yes, just lifted them up so they could be examined.
1890 Q. They were lifted up out of the abdominal cavity?
A. No, they were turned up at the sides so that they could examine the sides.
Q. Was the stomach cut open? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was any part of the intestinal canal cut?
A. None that I can tell now.
Q. Was the chest cavity cut open? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was the liver exposed? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was that cut at all? A. I think not.
Q. You say the chest cavity was cut open?
A. Yes, that is my recollection.
Q. And that was poked around? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the stomach and the abdominal cavity was opened?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the organs in there were poked around?
A. Yes, but there was only one opening.
Q. Stomach was cut open?
A. All done through one opening.
Q. Cut open? A. Yes, sir.
Q. A part of the intestinal canal cut?
A. I don't know; I didn't notice.
Q. That body was not cut up?
A. The body was not cut up.
Q. You were the custodian of that body weren't you?
A. I was.
Q. Placed in your charge by Levi Baldwin?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When you were informed that there was going to be a post-mortem did you inform Levi Baldwin of that fact?
A. No, sir.
Q. He was the person who had placed this body in your care? A. Yes.

Q. He was the person, or Mrs. Hillmon was the person to whom you looked for a portion of your compensation, at least?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. They were the ones who employed you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And when you knew that this body was going to be cut up, you didn't inform them of that fact. Will you please answer that yes or no.
A. I was just going to say I did not.
Q. The fact remains that you did not. Will you give 1891 the reason to the jury why, when this body had been placed in your hands by Levi Baldwin, as you have said, at the instance of Mrs. Hillmon, and you were informed that the body was going to be cut open, you should not let Mrs. Hillmon or Mr. Levi Baldwin know of the fact so that some representative of theirs could be present?
A. When the coroner took charge of the body, as he did, by telling me there was going to be a post mortem and an inquest, I considered that the case was entirely in their hands, in his hands, but in my care.
Q. In your care? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the work you did from that time on was work done for the coroner? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And yet you say, the coroner did not pay you?
A. He didn't pay me; I never presented any bill to him.
Q. Did I ask you whether you presented a bill to the coroner? A. You never did.
Q. Is there any occasion for your volunteering what is not called for by the question. Is that part of your employment to be here and answer questions and make speeches?

The defendants object to the question as improper.
By the Court: The question is improper.

Q. You say that after that time you considered yourself in the employ of the coroner, but you never presented a bill to him? A. No, sir.
Q. Did you understand that the coroner was in the employ of the insurance people? A. No, sir.
Q. Will you explain how it is that a bill that was contracted under the direction of the coroner, should have been paid by the insurance people, if he was not in the employ of the insurance company?

The defendants object to the question as repetition. Objection sustained, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I don't know why, I say.
Q. Now, I want to ask you when was it that this 1892 arm was cut and the piece of skin taken away containing the vaccine sores?

A. I don't know when it was cut; it was done in my presence but I did not see it done.

Q. You were the custodian?

A. It was done while I was in the room but I did not see it done.

Q. It was done the day the post-mortem was held?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was the morning the body arrived?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Didn't you at the last trial of this case testify that it was cut out of that arm by Dr. Stuart within half an hour after it arrived in your store?

A. No, sir, I did not, not within half an hour.

Q. Didn't you say it was done before the post-mortem was held? A. No, sir.

Q. You say now it was done at the same time the post-mortem was held?

A. It was done while the physicians were there.

Q. Did you not testify at the last trial of this case that the reason you took the body to your undertaking establishment was to properly prepare it so that it could be viewed by those who might desire to view it?

A. That was why I took care of it.

Q. That is why you took it to the undertaking establishment? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Well, you did finally prepare it for that purpose; is that a fact?

A. Well, I don't know as I got a chance to prepare it, because the physicians took charge of it for the coroner and they had charge of it all the time.

Q. You finally caused it to repose in the coffin, for the purpose of taking the body to the cemetery after a while?

A. I did that, yes, sir.

Q. They let you have it for that purpose? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you from that time make any effort to prepare it so it was proper to be viewed? A. I did.

Q. At the time these doctors held their post-mortem examination over him in the morning, how long did that last?

1893 A. I could not tell; I should think they were there two or three hours possibly.

Q. That was during the forenoon of the day the body arrived. A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see the arm after this piece of flesh was cut off of it? A. I did.

Q. You say you did not see the cutting done? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you see the piece of flesh after it was cut off?

A. No, sir.

Q. Do you know who took it away?

A. Only from hearsay.
Q. You didn't see Doctor Stuart take it away?
A. No, sir, I did not.
Q. Did you authorize him to take it away?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did he say anything to you about having taken it away; if he did, did he tell you afterwards, when he was present, that he had taken it away?
A. I could not tell you whether he did or not.
Q. When did you first learn that that piece of flesh had been cut from the arm?
A. When I was working over the body to arrange it for the post-mortem.
Q. Did you make inquiries about that from these doctors that had been doing the cutting there?
A. I don't know whether I made any inquiries or not; I found out some way that it was done.
Q. Did Dr. Stuart have an order from the coroner at the [the] time that he came there with his knives?
A. He did not.
Q. Or any of the other doctors have such an order?
A. He did not.
Q. The coroner was not with them? A. No, sir.
Q. You say that this cutting business lasted two or three hours?
A. I should judge something like that, two or three hours, before they got through.
Q. When were the clothes replaced upon the body?
A. I can't tell whether it was before dinner or after.
Q. Was that part of your work?
A. That was my work.
Q. And you did it?
A. Yes, sir, I think not until after dinner.
1894 Q. But after dinner, they had got through with the cutting of this body? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you then replaced on the body the clothes that it had on? A. Yes sir.
Q. And restored it to its coffin?
A. It is my recollection it was after dinner.
Q. And you then prepared it for burial? A. Yes sir.
Q. It was buried in the same clothes that you had taken off when it first came there? A. Yes sir.
Q. The clothes that were upon it when it first came there were removed while the doctors were cutting it but after they were through those clothes were replaced upon it?
A. I think I took the clothes off myself for the doctors.
Q. You replaced the same clothes? A. Yes sir.
Q. And it was buried in those clothes? A. Yes sir.

Q. At the time you put those clothes upon it you arranged it for burial and view? A. Yes sir.

Q. When did Mrs. Hillmon first see it that you were present? A. I was not present when she saw it.

Q. Were you the one that went out and interviewed her at the time she came there and wanted to see him?

A. My partner, Mr. Bailey, saw her the first time she came to the front door.

Q. Did you go out and interview her?

A. I did when she came to the rear door where the shop was.

Q. That was at the time the doctors were cutting the body up?

A. That was during the forenoon of the day that the body arrived, yes sir.

Q. And did she come back there during that day?

A. It is my recollection now that it was during the forenoon; I can't say certain whether forenoon or afternoon.

Q. Now, it remained there on the 3rd, 4th and 5th and on the 5th it was buried? A. Yes sir.

Q. And on the 6th exhumed again? A. Yes sir.

1895 Q. You say the body was practically in the same condition at the time it was exhumed that it was during the other days that it was there? A. Yes sir.

Q. That would include the 3rd, 4th and 5th days of April, 1879? A. Yes sir.

Q. By using the preservatives that you spoke of you managed to keep the body in practically the same condition from the time it arrived until it was finally consigned to the grave the last time? A. Yes sir.

Q. The clothes that show in the picture of the cadaver are the clothes that you buried him in of course?

A. I should judge so; I think they were.

Q. You saw the picture taken? A. Yes sir.

Q. You know there was no change of clothes at the grave?

A. Yes.

Q. Mr. Hutchings suggests that at another trial— I will ask the witness if at the last trial of this case, you testified that the coat that body wore at the time it came there was ripped or cut or in somewise split up the back?

A. Yes, it was.

Q. That is a fact, is it? A. Yes sir.

Q. That was the condition when the body arrived there?

A. Yes.

Q. That was the condition of the garments, and of course nothing was done to them except to put them back after they were removed? A. That was, sir.

Q. So that garment was in two pieces?

A. The collar was not cut. I never cut the collar in undressing a body.

Q. State whether or not at the last trial of this case, in describing the condition of that garment you said it was ripped clear from the collar down?

A. From the collar down.

Q. [Than] as a matter of fact it was united at the collar?

A. Yes.

Q. That was the condition in which it arrived at your place? A. Yes.

Q. You did not do that? A. No sir.

Q. So that the custom as to whether you ripped from the collar or cut through the collar would not be a matter of moment here as you did not do it on the body in this 1896 instance? A. No.

Q. When was it that the companies paid you for this work? A. I think in May.

Q. Did you make a bill for the exhuming of the body out at Oak Hill Cemetery?

A. The whole bill was made all in one to Mrs. Hillmon.

Q. Let me ask you, did you include in the first bill that was presented to Mrs. Hillmon, the opening of the grave and the taking out of the body on the 6th day of April?

A. No sir, I did not.

Q. That was a separate bill? A. Yes sir.

Q. And that was paid by the insurance people?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How much did they pay you for that?

A. I think it was $25. I would not be certain.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. You have said that a part of this bill was paid by Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you what part that included, if it included the lot in which he was buried?

A. It included the meeting of the body with the team at the depot and the grave and was—

Q. What do you mean by the grave, the opening and closing of the grave?

A. The opening and closing of the grave and the grave itself, $7 was the price charged for the grave in the Reserve, and that included opening and closing.

Q. Was this grave in the Reserve? A. Yes sir.

Q. Was this a single grave? A. A single grave.

Q. Had you paid for that grave? A. I had.

Q. You paid for the grave and she reimbursed you for that some time afterwards?

A. And the hearse was in her bill too.

Q. They have asked you how much was the entire amount paid by the insurance companies, if you remember?

1897 A. $33 by the insurance company, part by one and part by another.

Q. That was the whole amount paid for your services there, $33? A. Yes, by the insurance companies, $33.

Q. That was in addition to what Mrs. Hillmon paid?

A. Yes sir.

Q. That included your entire services? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, in regard to Levi Baldwin: During the time that the body was at your undertaking establishment was he in there? A. Several times.

Q. Did you see him on the street? A. Yes sir.

Q. State if at that time or any other time he made any objection to you as to what you were doing or permitting to be done there?

By Mr. Atwood: I object to the question because there is nothing to indicate that he had any knowledge of it until after it was done. The body was left there and within two or three hours these cormorants fell upon it and cut it up, and then he asks if Mr. Levi Baldwin objected to something that had been already done.

By Mr. Isham: I ask that the language of counsel be taken down and our exception noted to it. From the beginning of this trial there has been a constant making on his part of remarks of that kind to witnesses before this court and jury. I say that his treatment of witnesses, by the character of questions addressed to them, has been most unseemly. We have not put a witness upon the stand who has not been treated with indignity by counsel, and I ask that his language may be taken down and our objection noted to it, and that that character of thing may hereafter be stopped.

By the Court: Gentlemen of the jury, you will give no heed, pay no attention to outside comments of counsel. Counsel on both sides at almost the slightest opportunity will make speeches outside of the point that is properly before the court and jury for consideration. I think perhaps Mr. Atwood has offended more in that particular than other counsel, but the suggestion applies in a general way to both sides.

1898 Q. Before you disinterred this body, I understand you received an order from some person? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know whether that order was in writing? He gave an order to disinter the body? A. It was in writing.

Q. It was issued by what officer or officers, do you know?

A. It was issued by the city clerk, who was also clerk of the cemetery.

Q. It was issued by him and brought to you by some official?

A. By the official that had been passing back and forth with the coroner's jury and between the coroner and the jury.

Q. And clothed with that you went on and disinterred the body as you have stated? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At that time do you remember whether or not the coroner's inquest was still going on at the court house at the time the body was disinterred? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know of your own knowledge? You know it continued after that?

A. I couldn't say; it was some time the next day or the day after I think.

Q. Now, I will ask you if in this matter of this body you acted differently than you did on other occasions when a coroner's inquest was held?

The question was objected to and withdrawn.

Q. I will ask you if this matter was conducted differently by you than other inquests which were held under like circumstances? A. It was not.

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for the opinion of the witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. It was not; it was just the same.

Q. Were you acting with the insurance companies in any way? A. In no way at all.

By Mr. Atwood: Mr. Smith, do you recollect any other instance where a body was placed in your possession 1899 by any person and acted thereon in the way that this was done without their knowledge, if I have made myself plain? A. I could not recollect any particular instance.

Q. You cannot? A. No, sir.

By Mr. Barker:

Q. Was that body disinterred before the inquest closed?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, you have been engaged in regard to this autopsy Was that conducted in any different manner from what autopsies usually are?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Witness excused.

1900 E. A. Bittell, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. E. A. Bittell, Marysville, Kansas.

Q. How long have you lived in Marysville, Kansas?

A. Since the winter of 1888-1889.

Q. Where were you living in the fall of 1878 and winter of 1879? A. In Wichita, Kansas.

Q. At what particular place?

A. At the Globe Hotel, on Douglas Avenue.

Q. Do you know who the proprietors of that hotel were in the fall of 1878 and winter of 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state?

A. Henry Draves and Adam Bittell, my father.

Q. What time, do you remember, did you come to Wichita?

A. I left Wisconsin on the 31 day of October, 1878, and arrived in Wichita about the 10th of November, 1878.

Q. During that fall or winter did you make the acquaintance of a man one by the name of John H. Brown and the other by the name of John W. Hillmon? A. I did.

Q. Where did you form their acquaintance?

A. At the Globe Hotel.

Q. When did you first see them there if you remember.

[Q.] It was in the month of December, 1878.

Q. About what time in the month if you remember?

A. Well, it was in the latter part of the month.

Q. How long did they remain at that time?

A. As near as I can remember it was over a week; it might have been two weeks.

Q. Where were they staying? A. At the Globe Hotel.

Q. Did they board there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they room there and sleep there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. After that time did one or both of them go away?

A. Both of them went away.

1901 Q. Do you remember when they went away?

A. Well, I can't tell exactly when they went away but it was after they had been there a week or two.

Q. Did they return again? A. Yes, sir.

Q. About what time did they come back the second time?

A. Why, it was about a month later.

Q. Did they continue to board at the Globe Hotel after they returned? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did they room and sleep there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember any other person being there at the same time they were? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you what persons you remember. I will ask you particularly if you remember one Marshall being there, H. B.? A. Yes, sir, I remember him distinctly.

Q. Now, during the time that they were there, did you observe them doing anything, or notice what they were doing?

A. Why, they were not doing much of anything that I saw.

Q. Did you ever see one or both of them measured?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. About when was that? During their first or second stay at the hotel? A. My recollection is a little at both.

Q. Did you see them measured on more than one occasion?

A. Yes.

Q. Where did you see Hillmon and Brown, either or both of them measured?

A. They were measured on the awning posts in front of the hotel.

Q. When you say in front of the hotel what hotel do you mean? A. The Globe Hotel.

Q. How many times did you see them measured there, more than once?

[Q.] I could not say as to that but a number of times.

Q. Were other people measured at the same time they were? A. Yes.

Q. Now, do you remember the height of John W. Hillmon?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state what his height was?

A. 5 feet, 9 and a fraction inches.

1902 Q. Now, did you have an opportunity to observe and did you observe the condition of Mr. Hillmon's teeth during his stay at that hotel? A. I did.

Q. You may state whether he had good teeth or defective teeth?

A. Well, there was a vacancy in the upper jaw on the left hand side. I remember that as one of the distinguishing marks of Mr. Hillmon.

Q. In regard to the measurement, was Mr. Hillmon measured with his boots on or without his boots?

A. No, his boots were on when I saw them.

Q. Who left the Globe Hotel first, you or Brown or Hillmon, that is, when you finally went away from there?

A. You mean when I finally left?

Q. When you went away from there?

A. I went away from there at different times.

Q. The last time you saw them there?

A. The last time I saw them they were there when I went away.

Q. When was that? A. 10th of February, 1879.

Q. You lived there at the Globe Hotel, did you?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long were you gone?
A. I was gone until the latter part of March, 1879.
Q. When you returned from that trip were Brown and Hillmon still at your hotel? A. No, sir.
Q. Was your father still keeping the hotel?
A. Yes, he was still interested.

Cross-Examination by Mr. Atwood.

Q. Did you see Wiseman when he was down there some time in May? A. I don't remember.
Q. Making inquiries in regard to this matter?
A. I don't remember of meeting a gentleman by that name.
Q. Do you remember of meeting anybody who claimed to be an insurance representative the spring or summer following this occurrence?
A. No, sir, not that I remember.
1903 Q. How long did you remain in Wichita after the spring of 1879?
A. Well, I left Wichita finally in October, 1879.
Q. You were absent from the city during the intervening time, were you?
A. I was absent from about the first week in October.
Q. Until the first week in October?
A. Yes, from the first week in June until the latter part of October I was there in the city.
Q. Where did you go from there in October?
A. I went to Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. About a week or ten days.
Q. Simply on a visit?
A. Yes, sir, I had relatives there.
Q. Was it [—] connection with these matters?
A. Oh, no, sir.
Q. Did you see any of the insurance people, agents or lawyers at that time? A. No, sir.
Q. From there where did you go, Mr. Bittell?
A. Kansas City, Mo.
Q. Simply on a trip?
A. No, I went to Kansas City to look for work at my trade.
Q. What is your trade?
A. I am in the marble and granite business.
Q. How long did you stay in Kansas City?
A. Some little time; I remained in Kansas City until the following February; I think I left the 22nd day of February.
Q. Did you see or talk with any of the insurance agents or attorneys during that time? A. No.
Q. Where did you go then?

A. I went to Fort Scott, Kansas.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. I remained there until the latter part of July, 1880; nt to Lawrence and Kansas City in the fall of 1879 and in bruary, 1880, I went to Fort Scott and stayed there until e latter part of July.
Q. Did you talk about this matter with the insurance
ents or attorneys while you were there?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Where did you go then, Mr. Bittell?
A. I went to Appleton City, Missouri, I went to Sedalia d the next day to Appleton City.
Q. Were you there some little time? A. Yes, sir.
004 Q. How long?
A. I was in Appleton City, Missouri, until June 19, believe, 1882.
Q. Did you see or talk with any of the insurance people, gents or attorneys while you were there?
A. No, sir, I don't remember of talking with any attorney bout the case.
Q. Then where did you go then?
A. I was married on the 2nd of June.
Q. Where did you remove to from Appleton City?
A. I went to Lamar, Missouri.
Q. Did you remain there some time?
A. I remained until the fall of 1885.
Q. Did you talk with any insurance agent or attorney there while you were there? A. No, sir, not to my recollection.
Q. You think you would remember it if you had talked with them? A. I do.
Q. Where did you go to from there?
A. I went to Kansas City, Mo.
Q. To stay?
A. Yes, with the idea of staying; I was looking for a place to stay; I remained there just one year until December, 1886.
Q. Did you talk about this matter to any insurance agent or attorneys at that time? A. No, sir, I don't remember.
Q. Where did you go then?
A. I came to Kansas, to Pottawatomie County, where I remained until February, 1887.
Q. Up to that time had you talked with any one of the insurance people about this matter?
A. Not to my recollection.
Q. How long did you stay in Pottawatomie County?
A. Until February, 1887, when I went to Frankfort, Kansas, and from Frankfort to Marysville.
Q. During the time you were in Pottawatomie County did you talk with any insurance agent? A. No, sir.

Q. February, 1887: That would make it 20 years in round numbers. At what trial did you first testify?

A. It was in the winter of 1895, at Topeka.

1905 Q. How long prior to the winter of 1895, at which time you testified, did you talk about this matter with the insurance people or any agent or attorney of theirs?

A. The first time I talked with any I think was in Kansas City in January preceding the trial, to my recollection.

Q. That would be January, 1895? A. January, 1895.

Q. 16 years after the occurrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. With whom did you talk there about it?

A. Stuart Brown.

Q. He was an agent of the New York Life?

A. I don't know; he was connected with the case in some way.

Q. How long was that preceding the time you testified?

A. About one month.

Q. Were you subpoenaed at that trial?

A. No, I was not.

Q. You were sent for and went?

A. Well, Mr. Brown—I also received a letter from Mr. Green prior to Mr. Brown's visit.

Q. The communication that brought you to the trial was a letter rather than a subpoena; is that right?

A. The letter and my conversation with Mr. Brown.

Q. Was that interview the result of accident or was it previously arranged?

A. Mr. Brown came into my place of business at Kansas City. We started a branch in Kansas City in the fall of 1894.

Q. He came in there to see you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And a conversation was entered into between you and him at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And at that time you told him about your acquaintance with these people in Wichita? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long did he remain with you at that time?

A. Oh, I presume 10 or 15 minutes, he was in my place.

Q. You talked the matter over, did you, and then agreed to come to the trial and testify?

A. I told him I couldn't very well leave my businses as I was alone; my partner was in Marysville attending to our other business and I had no one to leave there and I didn't see how I could testify in the case.

1906 Q. Did he then tell you when the trial—how long after that that the trial would probably come on?

A. Why yes, he said if I would go they would just wire me so that I would not lose any more [than] than was possible.

Q. And as a matter of fact he did?

A. I don't remember—well, yes, I did receive a telegram.

Q. And in reponse to that you went there and testified as you have testified? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You said that Hillmon and Brown measured a number of times? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How many times?
A. I kept no track of the times; they carried it on to such an extent that I thought they were hard up for amusement.
Q. You say a number of times; what do you mean by that; you of course, have that in your mind?
A. I should say ten or a dozen times, perhaps.
Q. Did Hillmon and Brown both measure there in your—
A. With others.
Q. But they two?
A. Well, I could not say they were always together when they did.
Q. Did you see either one of them measured ten or twelve times? A. Yes, sir, I did.
Q. Which one was that; that was Hillmon wasn't it?
A. Hillmon.
Q. How many times did you see Brown measured?
A. Well, he was generally around; I don't know that Brown measured as often as Hillmon did.
Q. Do you think he measured oftener?
A. I could not say; it was Mr. Hillmon that I remember particularly.
Q. You say you don't remember any particular reason why they measured more than once except you thought they were hard up for amusement?
A. No, sir, with other boarders in the house.
1907 Q. How many boarders were there in the house at that time?
A. The house was generally full of boarders.
Q. How many of them?
A. There were ten or fifteen then is my recollection.
Q. You said they came there late in December, 1878?
A. That is my recollection.
Q. And they stayed a week possibly and went away?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And came back again when?
A. About a month from that time.
Q. You left the hotel the 10th of February? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long before you went away was it that they came back the second time?
A. It must have been in the neighborhood of a week or ten days.
Q. Let us see if we can get this thing chronologically; as near as your recollection serves you they came there sometime the last part of December? A. The first time.

Q. To refresh your recollection, I will ask you if it was not the 19th or 20th; if they left Lawrence on the 18th, it would be just about a day's journey by rail, wouldn't it, 12 hours or something like that?

A. Yes, sir, at that time, I know the train I went down on came in the middle of the night.

Q. It would not be more than one day? A. Oh, no.

Q. You understood that they came right to your hotel, did you not? A. That was my understanding.

Q. If they left Lawrence on the 18th, they must have got to Wichita about the 19th of December, possibly the 20th; that would be so, wouldn't it? A. I don't know what day.

Q. Of course, I am just speaking for the purpose of refreshing your recollection. There isn't much question about the time when they went. Now, would your recollection serve you that they got there about Christmas time?

A. I could not say that they came there before Christmas.

Q. Don't you think they left before Christmas?

1908 A. I am quite sure they were there on Christmas day, because I remember it was very warm weather, something new to me; I could go around out of doors in my shirt sleeves. I remember that distinctly.

Q. At Christmas time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long after that before it blew up cold; how long did that warm weather continue?

A. We had had cold weather before that.

Q. How long before the warm weather?

A. I don't remember.

Q. What is your best recollection?

A. I know we had bad weather when I went to Eldorado, in February.

Q. You had just come from some place where it had been colder than it had been in Kansas? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the pleasant weather at that time made an impression upon you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long would your recollection serve you that the warm weather lasted?

A. We had little flurries about every two weeks in my recollection, but it turned warm again.

Q. It was tolerably warm until this bad weather that you had in February?

A. I remember we had bad weather in February because I remember on account of my trip.

Q. You took a trip and it impressed it upon your recollection in that way? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And is it your recollection that in the month of January it was tolerably cold?

A. No, there were occasional flurries about every two weeks in January as I recollect it.

Q. What was the character of the weather at that time, altogether; was it mild or pleasant or very cold?
A. Mild weather; nice weather for me.
Q. Now, then, they came there, whatever time they did, sometime the latter part of December, you think about Christmas; you think they were there on Christmas day?
A. I don't say I think before Christmas, because—
Q. Didn't you say thought they were there on Christ-
1909 mas; you think they were there on Christmas day?
A. That is my recollection.
Q. Now, then how long does your memory indicate to you that they stayed there; they stayed a week or two weeks, you think; New Years day had come and gone when they left?
A. Well, it was my recollection just about New Years, or perhaps a few days after when they left.
Q. I think perhaps that is correct too. That was somewhere in the neighborhood of the first of January when they went away. A. 1879.
Q. Then, after they got there, your memory does not serve you any better than that it was possibly two weeks that they were there? A. That is right.
Q. They came back in about a month; that would, of course, be a few days after the first of the February succeeding? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And they remained there until you went away on the 10th; that is right? A. Yes, sir.
Q. So they must have been at the hotel the second time they came there before you went away about a week, possibly a little more? A. Yes, sir, it was a little more than that.
Q. But it could not have exceeded ten days because you were clear that they did not come there until a month after the first of January. Is that a fact?
A. It is my recollection that they were there a week; it might have been ten days or two weeks.
Q. If they were there ten days before you left, they must have come there as early as the first of February and probably before; that is a fact is it not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How old were you at that time, Mr. Bittell?
A. I was in my 23d year.
Q. Were you employed about the house?
A. I helped when they were in a rush; helped about the house.
Q. You were then a journeyman marble cutter?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had served your trade? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were not working at it at that time? A. No, sir.

Q. You were stopping at your father's hotel?
1910 A. Yes sir.
Q. What were your duties?
A. I had no particular duties; I helped generally around the house wherever it was necessary.
Q. Now, you said the hotel was full nearly all the time with boarders; what other boarders were there at the time of the first visit besides Marshall and Hillmon?
A. I remember a man by the name of Jesse Bowman.
Q. What was his business?
A. My recollection is he was a carpenter. And another by the name of Campbell.
Q. He was boarding with you as a permanent boarder?
A. Yes sir, boarding at the hotel.
Q. He was there during the whole time of which you have been talking? A. To my recollection.
Q. During the whole winter he boarded there?
A. My recollection is all of them did.
Q. Who else was there?
A. A man by the name of Campbell; he was also a boarder.
Q. Mr. Marshall and Mr. Campbell. Marshall and Campbell and Bowman all measured with Hillmon?
A. I don't remember whether Bowman measured or not; there was another man named Nichols.
Q. What was Nichol's first name?
A. I don't remember his first name; I believe it was Frank; I wouldn't swear to it; Frank Nichols.
Q. They all measured, did they not, these men you have mentioned Bowman, Campbell and Nichols?
A. I don't remember that Bowman did or Campbell; I don't remember that they did.
Q. Well, that would leave you with Marshall and Brown; eliminating Bowman and Campbell, it left Marshal, Brown and Hillmon; who else was measured? A. Nichols.
Q. That is four? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you remember of their measuring together?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Who else participated in the measurement that you recollect of or did any of these parties?
A. I don't remember of any others now.
1911 Q. They were all living together in the house at that time? A. Yes.
Q. They were all together during the whole of that time?
A. I could not say they were.
Q. Would that be your best recollection about it?
A. I can't tell; they were there at times, I know that.
Q. I understood you to say that Campbell and Bowman were regular boarders and stayed there at the house all winter?

Q. They lived in Wichita and worked somewhere; might have been gone a few days.

Q. But that was their headquarters? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So far as you know they were at the hotel, which was their home. They boarded there during the time that Hillmon and Brown were there? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, when was the first time as your recollection serves you that Nichols, Marshall, Hillmon and Brown measured?

A. It was just a short time after I remember the men being there.

Q. After they first came there? A. Yes sir, short time.

Q. And I understood you to say they came Christmas day?

A. I couldn't say; my recollection is that they were there on Christmas day; I couldn't say just what time they came.

Q. About the time or shortly after the time they arrived, these four men were measured—You don't remember of seeing Bowman and Campbell? A. No sir.

Q. Who else participated in the measuring bee besides these four at any of the times? A. I measured myself.

Q. Well, with these men? Was that done at the time you have just spoken of?

A. I can't say the whole four were together; I know the whole five were measured; when thy measuring was done I saw these different men measured.

Q. Is it not a fact that on Christmas day—that would be a day when there wouldn't be anything done; it was warm at the Globe on the porch that day. Is it not your recollection that the first measuring was done on Christmas day?

A. No, I would not say that at all.

1912 Q. How does your recollection serve you as to the first time measuring was done; you said shortly after they came; how long does that mean; two or three days?

A. It might mean a few days.

Q. You remember distinctly of course, this measuring business? A. Yes sir.

Q. Have a distinct recollection of it? A. Yes sir.

Q. Because you remember the measurements?

A. I measured myself.

Q. You remember the other measurements not particularly Hillmon's is that a fact? A. I have reasons for it.

Q. I simply ask you if that is a fact? A. Yes sir.

Q. You have a distinct recollection of the fact of the measuring? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now then who was measured at this time, this measuring, in which the figures were fixed in your mind so definitely? A. I don't know.

Q. All of them measured together of these five men?

A. There was Hillmon measured, and Marshall measured.

Q. Yes. The posts were all marked up around there with measurements and Nichols measured?

Q. Marshall, Hillmon and Nichols? A. Yes sir.

Q. That was the first time; the time you mentioned as the first time?

A. I do not distinguish between the times, because I can't remember; I know there was measuring made different times.

Q. Hillmon was measured? A. Yes sir.

Q. And at the first measurement he was demonstrated to be five feet nine inches and a fraction? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did you see him measured again?

A. I don't remember as Hillmon measured again; he was there when they were measuring; his height was there; it was noted on the post.

Q. Now, you say you never saw Hillmon measured but one time?

A. Not to my recollection; they were there and would stand up against a post; that I remember, this time I measured them.

1913 Q. This was the first time the measuring took place?

A. I could not say as to that.

Q. The first time you remember?

A. The first time I measured; I did measure with them.

Q. On this day you are now speaking of shortly after they came? A. Because I made the measurement myself.

Q. When you said he was measured a number times, you did not mean he was measured more than once?

A. No, I could not say he was.

Q. And the persons present and participating in that measurement were yourself, Marshall and Nichols?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Is that right? A. Yes sir, I think it is.

Q. Those were the only four measured at that time?

A. Well, I could not say.

Q. And the time, you could not fix it any more than to say it was shortly after they came there?

A. Shortly after they came there.

Q. The measuring took place out of doors under the awning? A. Sometimes they came out—

Q. I am talking about this time that you have just described? A. Yes sir.

Q. That took place out of doors? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was warm?

A. It was a pleasant winter day; something new to me.

Q. All standing around the porch. Who was present besides these four at that time; were not Campbell and Bowman there at that time. A. I could not say that they were.

Q. What would be your best recollection?

A. They were stopping at the house at that time, but they were not altogether there.

Q. I am asking about this occasion; you have remembered that Hillmon was there, and Marshall was there, and that Nichols was there. Now, I will ask you if your recollection serves you as to whether or not Bowman and Campbell were there?

A. I don't remember of their being there at the time I measured.

1914 Q. Then your best recollection would be that they were not there.

A. Not perhaps right present; they were staying at the house.

Q. Couldn't they, so far as you saw, either have observed or participated in that measurement?

A. They may have done so, I wouldn't say they didn't.

Q. I am asking for your recollection.

A. I don't remember of them.

Q. The whole of the three front teeth of Mr. Hillmon were gone were they not? A. I didn't say so.

Q. I ask you if that is a fact? A. No, sir.

Q. How many of them?

A. There was a vacant space right here; I couldn't say whether there was more than one out on the upper left side.

Q. Was it one or more than one?

A. I would say only one.

Q. You have a distinct recollection of that matter after 16 years? A. I have reasons to remember it.

Q. I am trying to get to this point: If your recollection is good it must be definite upon the fact that there was only one tooth gone at that time? A. That is my recollection.

Q. And you think your memory is correct? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It is very clear and distinct to you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are quite positive that only one tooth was gone?

A. That is my recollection.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. At the time they were there, did you wait upon the table? A. I did at times.

Q. Among other things? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You spoke in regard to Mr. Hillmon being measured. I will ask you if various other people were measured after he measured?

A. Why, certainly, people coming and going stopping at the house there.

Q. Did he measure with more than one person?

A. With more than two persons; his measurement
1915 was there.

Q. When other people went out to measure did they go where his measurement was?

A. It was generally through conversation brought by Hillmon and Brown guessing heights, etc.

Q. They would guess on heights and then do the measuring? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And Hillmon would be re-measured?

A. He was not re-measured, not necessarily.

Re-cross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. I will get you to state what you meant by Hillmon being measured a number of times?

A. They did not always measure on the one post; there were other places that they measured.

Q. Did you see him measured more than once?

A. Yes, sir, my recollection is I did.

Q. You spoke about measuring him once? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you measure him at that time? A. I did.

Q. When was that?

A. That was shortly after they were [guess].

By the Court: I understood you to say that Hillmon was measured as many as a dozen times, and also understood you to say he was only measured once. How was it?

A. Well, he measured in different places, around in the house where they had been measuring.

By the Court: You saw him measured?

A. Yes, sir.

Questions by Mr. Barker:

Q. Did you measure him more than once?

A. I don't remember of any other measurement—

By the Court: Probably the witness did not understand the question. His testimony is all mixed up on the subject of the times.

Q. You spoke in regard to Hillmon being measured; how many times do you say he was measured?

A. I don't know how many times the man was measured.

Q. I know, but there is a measuring mark upon one
1916 of those posts? A. Yes, sir, on a post.

Q. After he was measured and the mark was made on the post, what was done after that when other measurements were made?

A. They would measure the other men; that is my recollection of it; they would just talk about it and go out and measure.

Q. So far as Hillmon was concerned, what did he do if anything with reference to verifying the measurement that had theretofore been made when other and different men had been measuring with him?

A. He would show where his measurement was and sometimes they would dispute about it and they would measure there again.

Q. What do you mean by measuring again, standing up against the mark?

A. Yes, standing up against the post and measuring there.

Q. Would his measurement be re-marked when already marked once?

A. I don't remember of measuring him but once myself, at the time I measured myself.

Questions by Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Mr. Bittell, do you say that Hillmon measured on more that one day? A. Yes, sir, I do.

Q. How many different times did you see him measured?

A. I could not say as to that because they were talking about these things frequently.

Q. Will you give your best recollection or impression of how many times you saw him measured?

A. I could not say just how many times different times.

Q. Can you give your best recollection.

A. It was something that would come up occasionally.

By the Court: Don't put so many conclusions to your answers. Try to answer the question and when you have done it, then stop, and then you will probably save some of the confusion in your testimony.

Q. Can you state to the jury what your recollection is now, your best impression, as to how many different times he measured?

1917 [Q.] Well, I should say he measured five or six different times any how.

Q. Now, he measured on different posts?

A. Yes, sir. On those different days I could not say that on one day he measured on one post, and on another day on another one, exactly.

Witness excused.

1918 Michael Mesh, a witness for the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name? A. Michael Mesh.

Q. Where do you reside? A. Turner, Kansas.

Q. What is your business? A. Farmer and fruit raiser.

Q. How long have you lived in Wyandotte county, Kansas?
A. About twenty-eight or twenty-nine years.
Q. Where were you living in 1878 and 1879?
A. Wichita, Kansas.
Q. With whom?
A. With my half-brother. We were partners. We were gardening.
Q. What is his name? A. Ben Helda.
Q. Whereabouts were you living in the winter of 1878 and 1879?
A. We was living just a little ways from the mouth of the Little Arkansas River, where it empties into the Big Arkansas. There is a park there, right close by.
Q. Was it in the suburbs of Wichita?
A. It was in the city limits.
Q. During that time did you become acquainted with two men by the name of Brown and Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where were you at the time you became acquainted with them? A. At our house where we was batching.
Q. Were you acquainted with Brown prior to that time?
A. About thirty years?
Q. You had known Brown for thirty years, John H. Brown?
A. I said thirty years. I know him from that time 1919 up to this time, about thirty years. I know him just from that time on about, well just thirty years.
Q. Then you had known him about ten years before.

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

Q. How long had you known him prior to that time, up here in Wyandotte County?

Objection.

By the Court:
Q. Did you know him in Wyandotte County?
A. Yes, sir.

Objection overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

Q. How long had you known him prior to 1878 and 1879?
A. It must have been about twelve years.
Q. Do you know what time they came to your brother's, or half-brother's to stay?

The plaintiff objects to the question as assuming something not proven.
The objection sustained. The defendants, and each of them, duly excepted.

Q. What time did they come to your brother's house?
A. They came there along about between the 20th and 25th of February.

Q. About how long did they remain there?
A. Very near, Oh, about ten or twelve days.
Q. Had you seen Brown or Hillmon or either of them in Wichita before they came to your brother's house?
A. No, sir.
Q. I wish you would describe the house which you and your brother occupied at that time?
A. It was what we call a shanty, built all one way, and the roof sloped all one way. It was a room where we cooked and slept in. It was all in one room.
1920 Q. Was there more than one room in the house?
A. No, not what we occupied.
Q. Now, during the time they [arrived] there who occupied this room?
A. My brother, myself, Hillmon, and John Brown.
Q. Did they eat there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did they sleep there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you have any acquaintance, or had you had any acquaintance with Hillmon before he came there?
A. No, sir. I was introduced by Brown.
Q. Now, during that time did you have conversations with Mr. Hillmon, during the time he was living there at the house? A. Did I have while he was there?
Q. Yes, sir? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you to state what he said to you in regard to employing you, if anything? State all that was said by him on that subject?

The plaintiff objects to the question as being incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Objection overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

Q. Go on and state, as well as you recollect, what he said to you about that matter?
A. He wanted me to go along with him. He said he was going to buy a ranch, and he wanted me to go with him, and offered me $100 a month if I would go. I told him no; that I had a good home there and was making money, and I did not want to leave Wichita.
Q. Did you have conversations with him more than once on that subject? A. Once after that.
Q. During the time that he was staying there at the house? A. Yes, sir.
1921 Q. State the substance of the other conversation.
A. Why, the night before they went away Brown and him was together. They just came back home from town. Hillmon had went to Lawrence and got vaccinated, and they wanted me to go down and get vaccinated and they would pay for it, and then from the minute we got started and

I went in the wagon why my time was to commence, and he offered me $100 besides for a present if I would go.

Q. You say that was the night before they left?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you have more than two conversations, or they with you, on that subject? A. Not both together, no sir.

Q. Did you have any other conversation except the one you have mentioned, with Mr. Hillmon in the absence of Mr. Brown? A. No, sir.

Q. There were two conversations? A. Yes, sir.

Q. One in the presence of Mr. Hillmon and the other in the presence of Mr. Brown and Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you describe Mr. Hillmon? A. I believe I can.

Q. How tall was he? A. He was five feet nine inches.

Q. Do you remember the color of his hair?

A. It was dark brown.

Q. From the time that Brown and Hillmon had that conversation with you, the morning before they left, have you seen or heard from Mr. Hillmon since that time?

1922 A. No, sir.

Q. At the time they were staying there, did they have a team? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What kind of a team was it?

A. Well, they had a bay team of their own, but the night before they left, their horses kicked one another so bad; they kicked each other so bad, that we traded teams with them the next morning and they gave us $10 to boot, and the team that they drove away was a gray and a sorrel.

Q. What kind of a wagon did they have?

A. A small spring wagon, very light spring wagon. They had bows on it, but no cover.

Q. During the time they stayed there, where was the team kept? A. At our barn, at our stable.

Q. On the place there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How did you live there? I mean what was your sleeping arrangements?

A. They slept on the floor and we slept on the bed.

Q. And in regard to the cooking and boarding?

A. They furnished some meat and stuff, and we had potatoes and things, and just all ate together.

Q. Boarded there together? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You may state who did the cooking? A. I did.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. How old are you, Mr. Mesh?

A. I am forty-four years old; will be soon.

Q. How long did you live in Wyandotte County before you went to Wichita?

1923 A. Why we came here in 1867, to Wyandotte county, from Ohio.

Q. When did you leave to come to Wichita?

A. I was just twenty-four years old.

Q. Well, when was it? What year was it that you left?

A. I went in the fall of 1878.

Q. What had been your business in Wyandotte County?

A. I was working a team with my father on the farm.

Q. Had you ever been away to work from the farm?

A. No sir.

Q. Whereabouts was your farm located in Wyandotte County; your father's place I mean.

A. It is about a mile and three-quarters from the court house, northwest.

Q. How big a place was that?

A. One hundred and twenty-nine acres and a half.

Q. Who was at home there with you at that time; your half-brother, Helda?

A. No sir. At Wyandotte, my right brother was there, and my father and sister.

Q. Where was this half-brother? I think you said his name was Helda? Where was he at the time you were living at Wyandotte? A. He was at Wichita.

Q. Did he send for you to come down there or did you go there? A. I went down there.

Q. Where was his place located? How far from the city?

A. It was in the city limits.

Q. How large a place was it?

A. It was about five acres.

Q. You say you were batching there? A. Yes sir.

1924 Q. The two of you? A. Yes sir.

Q. What other ground did you work? Did you rent it yourself, or your brother rent it?

A. He rented it, and then he rented some more up farther.

Q. You were working in partnership were you?

A. Yes sir.

Q. How much land had you rented during that time, during the summer and fall of 1878?

A. We had, I think, twenty acres up the river, and this five acres.

Q. Twenty-five acres? A. Yes sir.

Q. What were you raising? A. All kinds of vegetables.

Q. Were you on equal shares? A. Yes sir.

Q. You and your brother? A. Yes sir.

Q. How old was your brother? You were twenty-four then you say?

A. Yes sir. Well he is nine years older than I am.

Q. That would make him thirty-three at that time?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You were batching together? He was not married, I take it from that fact? A. No sir.

Q. Neither were you? A. No sir.

Q. But you two were living there together on this land, or whatever you call it. How wide was that house or shanty, whatever it was?

A. I do not know just for right sure, but I think it
1925 was about 12x16.

Q. And divided into how many rooms?

A. Only one.

Q. Now how much did you make as your share of the profits of that business the preceding year?

The defendants object to the question as calling for incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial testimony, and not cross-examination.

Objection overruled. The defendants, and each of them, duly excepted.

A. Why we made as high as $50 and $60 a day there.

Q. How long did that last?

A. Why it would start along about the first of April and keep up until about the last of October.

Q Average about that, you say? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say you never saw Hillmon before Brown introduced you to him there at your brother's house?

A. No sir.

Q. You speak of it as your brother's house; I take it it was as much yours as it was his? A. Yes sir.

Q. You were partners there in this business? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say that they were there about the 20th to the 25th of February? A. Yes sir.

Q. You think they stayed there ten days or two weeks?

A. Somewheres like that.

Q. Do you think it was well into March before they went away? Let us see: The 28th day of February, that would be three days in February, if they came on the 1926 25th, and eight days if they came on the 20th. Now how far into March do you think, Mr. Mesh, it was before they went away. Of course I do not suppose you could tell to a day but I want you best recollection about it?

A. I can almost swear to it they went away on the 4th or 5th day of March.

Q. They had been staying with you about two weeks prior to that time? A. It was not two weeks.

Q. Ten days? A. Between ten and twelve days.

Q. Well, if they went away on the 4th of March, that would bring it back to the 28th day of February; they must have come to your place about the 20th of February, if there are 28 days in February; that is right isn't it?

A. Somewheres like that, the 20th or 21st.

Q. What makes you believe, or what causes you to fix the time as being the 4th or 5th of March? A. Why that was—

Q. Was it that horse trade?

A. No sir, it was not. It was—we was fixing hot beds down. We talked about it afterwards.

Q. And that impressed it on your mind? A. Yes sir.

Q. So that your recollection is pretty tollerably clear upon the point that they left there in the neighborhood of the 4th or 5th? A. Yes sir.

Q. Your recollection is clear and distinct that they must have stayed there ten or twelve days prior to leaving?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You had known Brown at Wyandotte quite a while before? A. Yes sir.

1927 Q. Perhaps had been boys together down there?

A. He was a little older than I.

Q. But you knew him in Wyandotte? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He knew Helda? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Knew him in Wyandotte? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you understand that Helda had met them up town and invited them to come? A. Ben invited them.

Q. You had not seen Brown at any time during the winter preceding—the preceding months or weeks of winter, until he came there about the 20th of February? A. No, sir.

Q. If he had been staying in Wichita during the month of January and the early part of February you had not seen him? A. No, sir.

Q. Your brother, Helda, had never mentioned having seen him there any portion of December? A. No, sir.

Q. In other words, so far as you knew, they had not been in Wichita until they came to your house about the 20th of February, 1879, is that right? A. As far as I remember.

Q. You say Hillmon is five feet, nine? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You measured him of course, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you measure him; against an awning post, or any sort of a post, or against the side of the house, or how? What place did you measure him?

A. We measured him in the room.

1928 Q. You are five feet, nine, yourself, are you not?

A. Not quite.

Q. What is your height, Mr. Mesh?

A. About five feet, seven and a half.

Q. Was your hair the same color then it is now?

A. Very near.

Q. Light brown I take it is, about a right description of it?

A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you wear a beard at that time?
A. I had a mustache.
Q. The same as you have now? A. Not quite as heavy.
Q. But was the color about the same then as now?
A. It was a little more brown.
Q. You mean it was lighter or darker?
A. It was not as red as it is now.
Q. Not quite as red? A. No, sir.
Q. What you call a light brown mustache? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were your eyes the same color then as now?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. They are blue, I believe? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What do you say your height would be?
A. Five feet, seven and a half.
Q. Had you ever been vaccinated before the time that they importuned you to go down and be vaccinated?
A. No, sir.
Q. You were not vaccinated at that time?
A. No, sir.
1929 Q. How much did you weigh at that time?
A. One hundred and seventy-eight.
Q. What do you weigh now? A. Two hundred and six.
Q. How do you happen to remember that you weighed one hundred and seventy-eight?
A. I remember the weights. He weighed one hundred and seventy-six and I weighed one hundred and seventy-eight.
Q. Where did you weigh; at the house?
A. No, we went down town.
Q. Whereabouts down town?
A. At the grocery store.
Q. Went down for that purpose; got to discussing the matter, which one weighed the most? A. We bet on it.
Q. And went down there and weighed down there?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was that before or after you were measured?
A. About the same time.
Q. Didn't your brother Helda measure too, at that time, and Brown and all of you then? A. They wasn't there.
Q. Neither one of them? A. No, sir.
Q. That was in the day time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When you were alone? A. Dan Coy was there.
Q. Didn't Dan measure?
A. No. He was six feet, four in his stocking feet.
Q. So he didn't have to measure? A. No, sir.
1930 Q. Did he ever weigh with you? A. No, sir.
Q. He wasn't either in the measuring or the weighing? A. He done the measuring.

Q. And gave you the results of that measurement did he?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And you marked it on the wall there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You noticed Hillmon's hand? Did you notice a scar?
A. I never seen that.
Q. He was around there ten or twelve days? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You ate in the same room? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Sat at the same table? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Very social?
A. No, sir; he was not talking at that time. No, sir.
Q. Had your work begun at that time in February?
A. The hot beds, yes, sir.
Q. Brown was there, too? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were all friendly and sociable; you were together every evening were you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Spent he evenings at the house?
A. They was down there some evenings; they went down nearly every evening.
Q. But they were there some of the time?
A. Yes, sir.
1931 Q. You were the one that did the cooking?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That necessitated your being around the house with them certainly to prepare the meals? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were they around the house during the daytime or were they down the street all the time during the daytime?
A. They would sometimes be at the house and sometimes down town.
Q. Did they eat at your place at noon time?
A. Well, not every day; mostly breakfast and supper.
Q. Do you know where they were down town?
A. No, sir.
Q. But in those days that you were associating with them in the way you have said, eating supper and breakfast with them, and sometimes dinner, and the portions of the day and some of the evenings. you say you never saw a scar on Mr. Hillmon? A. I never did.
Q. You saw his hands, I suppose? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have a pretty distinct recollection of Hillmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have a distinct recollection of his general appearance as you have described it here? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were his eyes blue, like yours, or dark brown, or black, or what were they?
A. They was dark brown. He had a full keen eye.
Q. I will ask you if you consider that your eyes looked like his? A. No, sir.
Q. The color of your hair was not the color of his either?

A. A good deal.

1932 Q. I thought you said his hair was brown a little while ago? A. Was kind of brownish.

Q. Kind of light brown? A. Reddish brown.

Q. It was dark brown, and light brown, and reddish brown. Now will you please definitely locate that color as near as you can? Was it light brown or reddish brown or dark brown?

A. It was kind of reddish brown.

Q. Then it was not dark brown?

A. It was not red. It was not dark.

Q. You spoke a while ago of dark brown. Now, I am trying to find out whether it was dark or red brown?

A. It was a kind of lightish brown.

Q. A light rather than dark? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You were mistaken when you called it dark brown, is that right?

A. It was not dark, nor it was not light.

Q. You have said it was both. Now you say it was neither. Will you be good enough to give us your best recollection as to whether it was dark; or perhaps it was some other color entirely?

A. It was not much different from my hair now and his was at the time.

Q. You say it was light brown, do you?

By Mr. Parker: He did not say that.

By the Court: Yes, he has said it was dark brown, light brown and reddish brown.

A. It is hard to tell the color of the hair or to describe it. I couldn't tell.

Q. Now, then, you remember about his teeth, of course, Mr. Mesh? A. No, sir, I never saw his teeth.

Q. You were with him there during the time you have described to the jury? A. Yes, sir.

1933 Q. That is a fact, is it not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And when you were with him you talked with him, and laughed and joked, as men do who are together, in a particular way; that is a fact, is it not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now would he, when he laughed, show his upper teeth quite plainly? You know there is a good deal of difference between men. Some men hardly show their teeth when they laugh or speak, and others show them distinctly. Which of the two classes did Mr. Hillmon belong to? Did his teeth show quite plainly when he laughed and talked?

A. He never laughed very much. He kind of grinned a little. That was his laughing qualities. He never laughed

Q. He grinned a little occasionally? A. Yes, sir.
Q. When he would grin a little, or joke, would he show his teeth quite plainly, or didn't he show them at all?
A. I never noticed his teeth.
Q. What do you recollect of his having a mouth of the character which would show his teeth when he grinned or talked, or both? You have a pretty distinct recollection of Mr. Hillmon. You remember that, don't you.
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And remember his eyes? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the color of his hair, and how dark, and how it was dark brown, and reddish brown and light brown, and the color of his eyes, and the fact that he had no scar on his hand; now can't you give some opinion as to whether or not 1934 he was one who showed his teeth plainly, or didn't, when he was speaking or smiling?
A. I never noticed his teeth at all.
Q. He kept his mouth pretty close; he was one that didn't show his teeth much? A. Yes, sir.
Q. He was one that didn't show his teeth? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember that quite distinctly, Mr. Mesh?
A. Yes, sir.
A. That is the reason why you didn't know whether his teeth were snow white or discolored or all gone?
A. No, sir.
Q. Don't know anything about it? A. No, sir.
Q. If he had been one that showed his teeth quite plainly in talking or laughing, you would be able to remember that fact as well as you remember of his hand, his eyes, and all that; that is a fact? A. I believe I would.
Q. And the fact that you can remember makes you very firm in the opinion that his teeth did not show when he was speaking or laughing? A. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination by Mr. Barker.

Q. During the time that you had the conversation with Brown and Hillmon was your brother, Ben Helda, present?
A. No, sir.
Q. You spoke about going to Wyandotte in the fall of 1878, and then you were asked in regard to a partnership between you and your brother, and in regard to your business and the profits of that partnership. When and where was that 1935 partnership made, and where was this business carried on? A. At Wichita.
Q. Had you been down before that time? A. No, sir.
Q. Were you carrying on business up here?

A. I was just working at home.
Q. When were the profits of this business divided? Where was this business carried on?

Question objected to, and no answer.

Q. You say you went to Wichita in the fall of 1878?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And your brother, Ben Helda, was living there?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. About how long had he been down there?
A. About three years.
Q. Before you went down there had you had any business arrangements with him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where?
A. He came up to Wyandotte and asked me if I would not go in partners with him.
Q. Then you went down and went into partnership with him? A. Yes, sir.

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading, and the question is withdrawn.

Q. Then you went down there, did you, at the time you mention? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then you were engaged after that in carrying on the gardening business at Wichita?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

1936 Objection overruled. Plaintiff excepts.
Q. How long did you remain at Wichita?
A. About two years and a half.
Q. Then where did you go to?
A. Wellington, and from there back to Wyandotte.
Q. Now you spoke about the profits of your business. What did you mean by that? The amount of your sales?
A. Yes, sir.

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading.

By the Court: That is leading.

Q. What did you mean by your answer, when you spoke of the profits on your business, how much you divided?
A. We taken in from $50 to $60 a day. Of course our expenses had to be paid out of that.
Q. That was from what time to what time?
A. From about the 1st of April until the last of October.
Q. How extensive was your business?

The plaintiff objects to the question as a repetition.

Objection overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

Q. How many acres of garden did you carry there?
A. About twenty-five acres.
Q. Where was your market?
A. Wichita and Wellington. We would drive to all them towns, to Hutchinson, north, but mostly at Wichita.

Recross-examination

By Mr. Atwood:
Q. You never have testified before in this case, have you Mr. Mesh? A. No, sir.
Q. Would you say you left Wichita when, after this occurrence in 1878 and 1879?
A. About two years and a half.
1937 Q. Didn't you meet Major Wiseman, a man named Wiseman down there in May or June, 1879, following this? A. No, sir.
Q. Didn't you meet any insurance man, or agent, or attorney down there during that year?
A. I met a man by the name of Mr. Graves.
Q. Was he an insurance man?
A. I don't know what he was.
Q. I will ask you if you talked about this matter with any insurance man, attorney or agent, belonging to these companies? A. No, sir.
Q. Did you, during the whole of your stay there at Wichita? A. No, sir.
Q. And from there you went to Wellington?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. I understood you to say? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where you remained two years? A. No, I didn't.
Q. How long did you remain at Wellington
A. About six or seven months.
Q. During that time did you meet or talk about this matter with insurance men? A. No, sir.
Q. Then you went to Wyandotte where you have remained ever since? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know Mr. Buchan? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you know either of the gentlemen who are attorneys of the company, Mr. Barker or Mr. Green, until recently?
A. No, sir.
1938 Q. You have lived there in Wyandotte during this time. When was the first time you talked with the insurance people about your recollections of what transpired down there? A. About a week ago.
Q. With whom did you talk at that time?
A. I don't know what his name is.
Q. Is he here now.

A. He is not here. No sir; that is, he is not in this room.

Q. Have you seen him here since you have been here as a witness? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long have you been here as a witness waiting to be called? A. Since last Wednesday.

Q. You say you do not know the gentleman's name?

A. No, sir.

Q. Will you describe him to us; you say he has been around here? A. He has got white sideburns.

Q. That gentleman with the side whiskers we have seen around here? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You do not know what his name is? A. No, sir.

Q. It was a week ago that you told him about what you know? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You told him about measuring, didn't you, you and Hillmon measuring? A. I don't think I told him that?

Q. Did you tell him about your weighing?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Didn't you tell him how tall Hillmon was?

The defendants object to the question as not proper cross-examination.

Objection overruled. The defendants and each of them duly except.

1939 Q. You talked, of course, frequently about this matter during all this time. Did you ever talk with Mr. Buchan about it, by the way? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever talk with people about what happened down there? A. Not very much. No, sir.

Q. Do I understand you to say that you have not talked a good many times to different people about what transpired down there at Wichita? A. No, sir.

Q. When was the last time that you talked with anybody as you remember it; prior to the time you talked with the man with the side-whiskers? A. Sir.

Q. When was the last time you talked with anybody as you remember it, prior to the time you talked with the man with the side-whiskers, that you talked about this matter? That was a week ago you talked with him; that was, an insurance man; some other time prior to that time you must have, I suppose? Now how long before? Way back about the time the thing happened, or since, or when?

A. I never talked much about it, or particularly.

Q. Had no occasion to talk about it. You left that country after two years and came back, and the things that happened down there were not called to your attention?

A. No, sir.

Q. And that is how many years ago now; that was 1878?

A. Nearly twenty years, about twenty; that would be twenty years in 1898.

Q. And you remember these things quite distinctly?

A. Yes, sir.

1940 Q. Although you have not talked hardly at all since about the time it happened?

A. Yes, sir.

1941 Ben Helda, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Cross-examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and residence.

A. My name is Bernard Helda. I live in Oklahoma, Ponca City, Kay county.

Q. Did you ever live in Wyandotte? A. Yes, sir.

Q. From what time to what time did you live in Wyandotte county?

A. Well I came to Wyandotte county in the latter part of '65.

Q. How long did you live in the county?

A. I lived there about ten years,—ten or eleven.

Q. During the time you lived there were you acquainted with a Mr. Brown? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you know John H. Brown? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you know his father? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far did you live from his father's when you lived in Wyandotte county?

A. When I lived in Wyandotte county I lived in Mr. Brown's house with my mother.

Q. What Brown do you have reference to?

A. Mr. John Brown's father, Robert Brown.

Q. Then you were acquainted with Brown? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where were you living in 1878 and 9?

A. I lived at Wichita.

Q. In what business were you engaged?

A. I was in the gardening business.

Q. Where was your place of residence?

A. In the northwest part of the city limits.

Q. How far would that be from what is known as Douglas Avenue? About how far?

A. About three-quarters of a mile, probably.

1942 Q. During the time that you were living there did you meet John H. Brown? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Under what circumstances?

A. Well, I could not tell you now whether I met him up town or whether he came down to the house. I rather think they came to my place.

Q. By "them," whom do you mean?
A. John Brown and Mr. Hillmon.
Q. About what time did they come to your place, if you remember?
A. They came to my place about the latter part of February or the first of March somewhere along there. I could not tell exactly the dates.
Q. Did they live at your house? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did they sleep there?
A. Yes, sir, part of the time. They would go down in the morning and they probably would not come back for dinner. Be back probably after dinner.
Q. Who was living with you there at that time, if any one?
A. My half-brother, Michael Mesh.
Q. The witness who has just testified? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were there any other members of your family at that time? A. No, sir.
Q. During the time that they were there at your house, did they have a team? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where was the team kept?
A. Well, it was kept on the outside of my stable.
Q. Whereabouts with reference to your place, on your place or somebody else's? A. On my place.
Q. In regard to their sleeping, where did they sleep and where did you sleep during the nights that they stayed there?
A. They had their bed and they made their bed on the floor and we slept in our own bed.
1943 Q. I wish you would give us an estimate about the size of the room that you occupied at that time.
A. I built the house myself. It was twelve by sixteen.
Q. You four occupied the room? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you do your cooking in there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was acting as cook at that time?
A. My brother Mike Mesh.
Q. You mean by your brother, your half-brother?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is he older or younger than you?
A. He is younger than me, about nine years I think.
Q. Now during the time that they were staying there at your house did either Hillmon or Brown have any conversation with you in regard to your working for them or going with them?
A. Yes, sir, I had a conversation with Mr. Brown.
Q. What did Brown say to you during that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

Q. State as near as you can the substance of his conversation.

A. Well the subject of conversation,—he askew me if I would not like to go out West with them and I told him—

Q. What else did he say if anything?

A. He said they would like for me to go along, for me to sell out and go along with them. He says, you can make more money than you can staying here in this business. I told him I was satisfied there.

Q. Did you have more than one conversation with him on the subjects?

A. Oh, I don't know. I think he talked to me frequently.

1944 Q. About what?

A. About going along. Trying to get me to sell out and go with him.

Q. What, if anything, was said about what he and Hillmon were going to do?

A. He told me they were going into the catttle business and he said "We have got plenty of money," and he says, "The old man will stock the ranch." I do not know, I could not be positive what old man he meant, whether it was Hillmon, but that was the conversation. He says, "The old man has got plenty of money and will stock the ranch.

Q. You know Brown? A. Yes sir.

Q. You knew Brown's father? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you have any acquaintance with Hillmon before he came there? A. Never.

Q. That is the first time you havemet him?

A. Yes sir, the time when I saw him with Mr. Brown.

Q. Did you have more than one conversation to that effect, that is, in regard to where they were going, and means to start a ranch? A. Yes sir.

Q. How long was that after Brown and Hillmon first came to your place that you had this conversation with John Brown? How long had he been there?

A. Oh, he had been there four or five days.

Q. Did you see them when they started away from your place? A. Yes sir.

Q. How were they travelling?

A. They travelled with a team.

Q. What kind of a team?

A. Well they had one flea-bitten gray, and the other one I am not positive, I think it was a kind of a dun or a kind of a light color.

1945 Q. Do you know where they got either one of those horses or ponies or both?

A. I do not. They got one of me of them. I swapped those flea-bitten gray to them because one of their horses was lame, —got kicked.

Q. Do you know about what time they went away?
A. They went away sometime—of course, I cannot really be positive, but I think some time about the tenth or eleventh of March, somewhere along in there.
Q. Have you seen Hillmon since that time? A. No sir.
Q. How long was it after they went away before you heard, if you did hear, of a party being killed over in Barber county?
A. Well, I could not tell exactly but I think it was about ten days or so. I happened to see it in the paper, when I first heard of it.
Q. What business are you engaged in now?
A. I am fishing a little and gardening.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. You do some fishing, you say. Where is your home, Mr. Helda? A. At present?
Q. Yes. A. Ponca City, Oklahoma, Kay county.
Q. When did you come to Leavenworth this time?
A. I came here last—yesterday a week ago.
Q. Did you ever return to Wyandotte after leaving it to go to Wichita? A. No sir.
Q. Did you ever live in Wyandotte? A. Yes sir.
Q. When did you live there, Mr. Helda?
A. I said I came to Wyandotte the latter part of 1865.
Q. When did you come to Leavenworth this time?
A. I was about twenty or twenty-one, somewhere along there.
1946 Q. How long did you remain at Wyandotte after you went there?
A. Well, I lived there in 1877, I think I lived there in 1877.
Q. Where did you go from there?
A. Went to Wichita.
Q. What time in the year in 1877 did you go to Wichita, spring, fall, summer or when? A. I went in the fall.
Q. Got there in the fal? A. Yes sir.
Q. What did you do when you first went there, if anything?
A. I rented a piece of land to start a vegetable garden on.
Q. You were a farmer or gardener by trade?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Was that the same tract that you had in 1878 and 1879?
A. Yes sir.
Q. How many acres was there in it?
A. On the tract I rented was five acres where I built the house, and then I rented twenty-one acres north of them.
Q. When did you rent that?
A. The twenty-one acres?
Q. Yes.
A. I rented that after my brother came down there.

Q. That would be in 1878? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you send for him or come for him?
A. I went up there on a visit.
Q. And got him to come back with you? A. Yes sir.
Q. Took him into partnership with you? A. Yes sir.
Q. You carried on the business in partnership as you have stated, from the spring, I suppose, of 1878? A. Yes sir.
Q. During the summer and fall and into the early part of 1879? A. Yes sir.
Q. You had known John Brown in Wyandotte county?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And perhaps his family, I think you said so. You do not remember whether you met Brown in the City of Wichita or whether you met him by his coming to your house?
A. No sir, I do not.
1947 Q. Which way from the center of town was it that your rented place was, north, south, east or west?
A. It was on the northwest corner of the city. Of course Wichita is bigger now; what they call Riverside Park.
Q. That, of course, does not mean anything to me. What I want to know is what direction it was from the center of the town?
A. From the center of the town it would be northwest.
Q. How far do you say it was from the center of the town?
A. Well, from the center of the town at that time would have been about three quarters of a mile, I should judge.
Q. The first you recollect of seeing either Hillmon or Brown there in Wichita,—that is you clearly remember,—was their being at your house? A. Yes sir.
Q. You could not say but what you might have seen them before but you do not remember? A. I do not remember.
Q. But you do know they came to your place?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And arranagements were made whereby they stayed there? A. Yes sir.
Q. You knew Brown quite a while, I think you said?
A. Yes sir, we were intimate friends.
Q. Consequently you have a distinct recollection of these occurrences connected with him, because you knew him so well. Is that a fact? A. Yes sir.
Q. What is your best recollection as to the time he came there?
A. My best recollection is, I think, about the latter part of February or first of March. I could not just come right down to the date.
Q. Does that mean, Mr. Helda, any time after the middle of February? In one sense any time after the midle is late.
A. The last part, yes sir.

1948 Q. Your brother thought it was in the neighborhood of the twentieth or thereabouts, or perhaps a little later. What would your recollection be?

The defendants object to the question as an improper method of examination. Objection overruled. Defendants and each of them duly except.

1949 Q. As near as you recollect, it would be some time along the first of March that they came there?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Then the month of February had passed before they came there, and it was into the month of March before they came to your place at all?

A. I think between the last and the first, I would judge.

Q. Between the last and the first of what?

A. As near as I know, because we always commenced making hot-beds the first of March there and I know it was just at that time.

Q. See if I get it right. You would fix the time that they came there some time into the first of March, that is, the early days of March? A. Yes sir.

Q. You would not be of opinon that they came there as early as the 20th or 25th of February?

A. No sir, I would not.

Q. Now how long did they stay there, Mr. Helda?

A. They stayed there, I should say, about ten days anyhow. Somewheres in that neighborhood.

Q. What were they doing during that time that they stayed there? Were they doing any work of any kind?

A. Not doing anything only going up town and back.

Q. They had not any work or business particularly?

A. No sir.

Q. They contributed their share of the provisions to the general stock, and you lived in that way? A. Yes sir.

Q. No regular board was paid, as I understand it?

A. No sir.

Q. You were with them and talked with [—] frequently?

A. I never run around with them any—of course, Mr. Brown, I was well acquainted with him, and me and him had a good deal of talk about old things.

Q. What did your outfit consist of at that time? How many horses and wagons had you?

A. I had two wagons, I think.

Q. And I suppose some farming tools?

A. Yes sir, and garden tools.

Q. Mr. Brown wanted you to sell out and go with them?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Hillmon talked with you about the same thing, did he?

A. Not Hillmon, never said a word to me. He seemed to be kind of reticent for me.

1950 Q. Didn't they ask you to be vaccinated?

A. No sir.

Q. Well, didn't Hillmon measure you? Ans. No sir.

Q. Do you know his height?

A. Why I don't know, but I would judge about five feet nine,—somewhere along there.

Q. You saw his hand, of course, Mr. Helda?

A. I suppose I did.

Q. Did you notice a scar on his hand? A. No sir.

Q. You have quite a distinct recollection of the man?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember of seeing a scar on his hand?

A. No sir.

Q. Do you remember about his teeth? A. No sir.

Q. Had bad teeth, did he not?

A. Not to my recollection he had not.

Q. Let me ask you this question, you say you have quite a distinct recollection of the way Mr. Hillmon appeared. I will ask you the question that I asked your brother, whether or not he was one of those whose teeth showed plainly, or did not show plainly when he talked or smiled. You know there is a great difference in people in that way?

A. Yes, I know that.

Q. What sort was he?

A. No sir, I do not think he showed his teeth at all.

Q. That is the reason you don't remember what his teeth were like, is it? A. Yes sir.

Q. If he had been one who showed his teeth very plainly, you would have noticed it, and you would have remembered it? A. I should have noticed it certainly.

Q. When did you close out your business in Wichita,—how long after this occurrence?

A. I think I moved to Wellington in 1870.

Q. You and your brother went to Wellington?

A. Yes sir.

Q. You do not mean 1870,—you mean 1880?

A. 1880, yes sir.

Q. Well, you remained in Wichita that would be the summer and fall of '79, and some time into 1880? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you meet a man named Wiseman who was down there looking and asking what had become of Hillmon?

1951 A. No sir.

Q. A man who was a representative of the insurance company? A. No sir.

Q. A man six feet high, with reddish hair and beard?

A. No sir.

Q. Don't remember of seeing any such man as that?
A. No sir.
Q. Did you see any one of the persons representing or claiming to represent these insurance companies while you were in Wichita?
A. There was a man came there one time, and wanted to know if Mr. Brown and Mr. Hillmon had stayed at my place.
Q. You don't know whether he was an insurance man or not? A. No sir, I do not know who he was.
Q. Wasn't that the man your brother spoke of?
A. I rather think it was.
Q. After you went to Wellington, did you see and talk with any of these insurance agents? A. No sir.
Q. That is, anybody you knew was an insurance agent?
A. No sir.
Q. Then where did you go from Wellington,—how long did you stay there?
A. I stayed in Wellington seven years.
Q. While you were there did you talk with any of these agents or people belonging to the insurance company?
A. No sir.
Q. From there where did you go?
A. I moved to Clark county, Kansas.
Q. So you remained in Wellington from '80 to '87, and then in '87 you left Wellington?
A. I left Wellington, yes sir.
Q. And how far was Clark county from there. What part of the state is that in?
A. Clark county is south of Dodge City 80 miles.
Q. How long did you stay in Clark county?
A. I stayed three years.
Q. Did you talk with any of these insurance people about the case while you were there? A. No sir.
Q. Then where did you go?—That would bring it up to about 1890?
A. Well sir, in 1890 I think I came back here to Arkansas City, Kansas, down on the nation border.
1952 Q. How long did you stay there?
A. I stayed there until the opening of the strip, five years ago.
Q. Did you meet and tell this story to any of the insurance agents or attorneys while you were there? A. No sir.
Q. Then you went into the strip when that was opened, did you? A. Yes sir.
Q. Located in Oklahoma City, I think you said?
A. No sir, Ponca City.
Q. And have been there ever since?
A. Yes sir, that is my home.

Q. Who was down there and talked with you about this matter,—what agent of the company did you meet down there? A. I did not meet anybody.

Q. Who was the first one of the attorneys or agents of the insurance people that talked to you about this matter?

A. I have not talked to anybody down there.

Q. I mean anywhere?

A. No sir, I have not talked to no agent.

Q. Or attorney, or anybody representing or whom you understood to represent the insurance companies? A. No sir.

Q. You know what I mean? A. I know what you mean.

Q. I understood you saw no one down there. I will ask you the question again? A. I understood you.

Q. You did not talk to anyone? A. No sir.

Q. You have not talked to anyone? A. No sir.

Q. Not until you got upon the witness stand? A. No sir.

Q. And questions were propounded to you by Mr. Barker just now? A. I have talked to them since I came here.

Q. You were sent for to come here? A. Yes sir.

Q. Communication by letter?

A. Not a letter. There was a letter written to Ponca City to find where any man was by the name of Holda.

Q. You were the man? A. I was the man.

1953 Q. You came up here?

A. They requested me to come here.

Q. How frequently have you talked this matter over? This is the first time you have testified, if I am not wrong about it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You frequently talked the matter over during the time that has elapsed since the time you were at Wichita?

A. Oh, yes, lots of times. A man would talk about the case to somebody. Particularly in Ponca City.

Q. Is that the place where you live ? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You went there what year, did you say?

A. I went there at the opening.

Q. That would be '91? A. '93, it opened in '93.

Q. And you have resided there ever since? A. Yes, sir.

Q. In the city proper?

A. No, sir, five miles east of the city.

Q. Carrying on whatever business you did in the way of fishing, &c, from that point? A. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. At the time Mr. Hillmon was at your place, did he wear a mustache? A. Yes, sir.

Q. By Mr. Atwood: Did he wear any other beard besides a a mustache? A. Yes, sir.

Witness Excused.

1954 The defendant next offered in evidence the testimony of C. E. Tillinghast given upon the trial in 1896.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Tillinghast is not within the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereupon read to the court and jury and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

C. E. Tillinghast, called and duly sworn, on behalf of the defendants, deposes and says:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. C. E. Tillinghast; Cleveland, Ohio.

Q. Where were you living in 1878-9?

A. In Leavenworth, Kansas.

Q. Do you remember what position you occupied at that time—in what business you were engaged in 1878?

A. I was agent of the New York Life Insurance Company.

Q. At Leavenworth? A. At Leavenworth, yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember the circumstances of a dead body being brought to Lawrence, on or about the first of April, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you at Lawrence about that time, or just before the body was brought there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember of meeting the plaintiff in this case, Mrs. Hillmon? A. I did; I called on her.

Q. Do you remember when was the first time you met her, and where?

A. Well it was in Lawrence, and must have been I suppose about the 26th or 27th of March.

Q. 1879? A. 1879, yes, sir.

Q. You may state if you knew the party going to Medicine Lodge, of which Major Wiseman was one? A. Yes, sir.

1955 Q. Did you go with that party? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That was the party of which Col. Walker was one? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You went to Hutchinson by rail? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And from there by team? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember of being at the cemetery shortly after your arrival in Medicine Lodge?

A. I was at the cemetary, yes, sir.

Q. State [the] the jury as definitely as you can how long it was from the time you arrived at Medicine Lodge with these parties, until you were at the cemetery?

A. I think we arrived at Medicine Lodge on Monday, and stayed over night, and it was the next day we went to the cemetery.

Q. Now, up to that time had you met a man called Levi Baldwin, John H. Brown and Alva Baldwin?

A. No, sir; well, I met Mr. Brown before we went to the cemetery; I saw Brown Monday.

Q. I will ask you if you met a party at the cemetery?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know now, or did you know at the time, or have you learned since who they were?

A. Well I was made aware of Levi Baldwin and his brother being there, and as I say, I met John H. Brown the day before. I talked with him. Mr. Wiseman and Col. Walker went with me, and I think there were two or three others there, maybe a doctor.

Q. Do you remember what, if anything, had been done in reference to fencing the grave at that time?

A. I think there was some stuff about there, and possibly partly put up. At any rate I think there was some material there for a fence.

Q. Was the grave opened on that occasion?

A. Yes, sir.

1956 Q. The coffin taken out?

A. I think the grave was opened fairly before we got there, and the parties were ready for the coffin to be lifted out at that time.

[—] Do you remember the coffin being taken out?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And opened? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember the cloth upon the face of the body?

A. It had a cloth over the face.

Q. Do you remember about where you were standing at the time this body was taken out, and the cloth removed?

A. It would be very difficult for me to fix the exact place. I remember we were gathered there all of us, and I remember also that there was quite a strong wind blowing; I think I was on the side against the wind.

Q. Do you know, or do you remember when that coffin was taken up, and the cloth removed, an exclamation, or anything being said there?

A. I remember I think the first word that was said there.

Q. Do you remember by whom it was said—you knew Levi Baldwin and Brown.

Plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and calling for hearsay evidence. Objection overruled. Plaintiff excepts.

A. I think it was said by the brother of Baldwin; the first word that was said. Of course we were all quiet and anxious for that's what we were doing down there, and the first word

I think said, which was,—using some prefix, I don't know that —"That's not Baldwin!"

Q. Baldwin, or Hillmon?

A. O, "That's not Hillmon!" I mean.

1957 Q. Well was that immediately upon the removal of the cloth? A. Yes, sir.

Q. State what, if anything did you see Col. Walker do?

A. Col. Walker immediately, I think, or at least very promptly, put his finger in the mouth of the dead body and felt.

Q. Now you remember the circumstance, do you, of the sleeve being opened there?

Q. Well, you remember the circumstance, do you of the sleeve being opened there?

A. I remember seeing the doctor rip the sleeve, yes, sir.

Q. Now what was done with the body, do you remember?

A. Well, the body so far as I am aware, was left there, and it was arranged, the time to move, —

Q. Was the body afterwards removed? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And taken to Lawrence?

A. I afterwards saw it in Lawrence.

Q. You were agent of the company at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember the fact of the coroner's inquest being held in Lawrence over this body? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you present on that occasion?

A. Most of the time.

Q. You remember when you got back from Medicine Lodge?

A. It must have been the morning of the 2nd or 3rd of April.

Q. State whether or not you returned to Leavenworth, or remained in Lawrence?

A. For some time I remained in Lawrence.

Q. How long did you remain there?

A. Seven or eight days.

Q. How, with reference to the coroner's inquest?

A. Until it was done.

Q. Do you remember the plaintiff testifying at the coroner's inquest? A. She did testify, yes, sir.

1958 Q. Had you observed the teeth of the dead body there at Medicine Lodge?

A. I did, observe them very carefully.

Q. Now I will ask you if you remember Mrs. Hillmon being interrogated in regard to the condition of her husband's teeth at that time or not? A. I do.

Q. Do you remember in answer to what kind of teeth her husband had, what her reply was? A. She did not know.

Q. Was that what she said?
A. Yes, sir; she said she did not know.
Q. Do you remember her being interrogated in regard to the question of height? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember what her reply was to that?
A. That she didn't know—never measured him.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:
Q. Where do you live? A. Cleveland, Ohio.
Q. You came out on purpose to testify in this case?
A. I came because I was asked to come.
Q. You are in the employ of this company yet?
A. No, sir.
Q. This inquest took place in 1879? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You remember now just the questions asked Mrs. Hillmon? A. I remember some of them very carefully.
Q. Do you remember any other questions except the ones you have testified to? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was any question asked her as to the color of the hair of her husband? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have been in the court house and heard Dr. Morris testify?
A. No, sir; I was here, but I didn't hear Dr. Morris.
Q. The same question was asked her in reference to height? A. Yes, sir.
1959 Q. And you have remembered these things 17 years?
A. I remember she didn't seem to know anything about her husband, and I remember several questions.
Q. You have never been a witness in this case before?
A. No, sir.
Q. When did you leave Leavenworth?
A. When did I leave Leavenworth? The summer of 1879.
Q. The summer of 1879?
A. Yes, sir; a few months after this inquest.
Q. Did you go from there to Toledo?
A. From Cleveland? No, sir; I went from there to Chicago.
Q. You went to Ft. Madison, did you not?
A. I was in Ft. Madison.
Q. When was it you were in Ft. Madison?
A. You say what time?
Q. Yes, sir. A. In the summer of 1880.
Q. Summer of '80? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Were you not there before the summer of '80?
A. I don't recollect that I was; couldn't have been.

Q. You are quite sure you were not there until the summer of '80? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What month in 1880?

A. I wouldn't try to give the month.

Q. What time of year? A. Some time in the summer.

Q. Now you were not acquainted with Mrs. Hillmon until you went to her house? A. No, sir.

* * * * * * * * *

1960 Q. You went with Major Wiseman and Col. Walker?

A. To Medicine Lodge, with them?

Q. Yes, sir. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You say when you got there you and Major Wiseman had some conversation with John H. Brown?

A. I don't think I said that.

Q. Didn't you state you had a conversation with John H. Brown?

A. I stated I met him the day before or the same one.

Q. Did you not state to the jury on direct examination that you had a conversation with John H. Brown? time? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you have any conversation with them that time?

A. No, sir; I didn't see them except at the grave—I had no conversation—Mr. Walker and Wiseman was acquainted with them and they talked mainly.

Q. Did you go out to the cemetery with Col. Walker and Mr. Wiseman? A. I think I did.

Q. Is your recollection pretty clear upon that?

A. I don't think I did, but it is a fact that I did.

Q. Major Wiseman was present?

A. He might have been some of the time.

Q. You don't remember?

A. I don't remember; Col. Walker was present; I remember having a conversation when Col. Walker was present.

Q. You never saw Levi and Alva Baldwin before that?

A. Well I am quite clear, but I won't say which parties went out—two or three parties went together.

Q. Did you,—how did you go—ride out?

A. I think we rode out.

1961 Q. In what kind of conveyance?

A. Well, horse and buggy.

Q. Now when you got out to the cemetery this body was partially dug up? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you remember that distinctly? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your recolletion is that Major Wiseman and Col. Walker went along with you, and got to the cemetery the same time you did?

A. As near as I remember somebody went in a wagon, and I wouldn't be quite positive who it was now; we were all at the grave together.

Q. And you couldn't remember now whether you went with Walker or Wiseman, or which went along?

A. Do you mean from the—

Q. From Medicine Lodge to the cemetery?

A. I wouldn't be positive, now, it's a good while ago.

Q. But you say you remember when you got there the body was partially dug up?

A. Yes, sir, I know we had to wait.

Q. Levi Baldwin and Alva Baldwin were there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And John H. Brown was there?

A. Yes, sir; they were; just which was there—which got there first I wouldn't say; they were all there together.

Q. Now when the body was taken out of the grave, and the face exposed, where was John H. Brown—was he there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Close by? A. Close by.

Q. He was as close as any in the group?

A. No, sir, he was not; he didn't seem to have any interest in the affair.

Q. I didn't ask you that.

A. He was not closer to the grave, no sir.

Q. How much farther was he away than the rest?

A. Well, 3 or 4 steps.

1962 Q. Have you read Major Wiseman's testimony?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you read over any memorandum of testimony?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you talked with counsel on the other side?

A. Counsel asked me what I knew about the case.

Q. Has any one read over to you Major Wiseman's testimony? A. No, sir.

Q. Or what purports to be his testimony?

A. No, sir, I remember these facts.

Q. Have you converesed with Major Wiseman?

A. No, sir, I haven't seen him from the time of the coroner's inquest until this day.

Q. Go on and state how far John H. Brown was from the coffin, when it was opened? A. Three or four steps back.

Q. Isn't it a fact he was out holding the team, at some distance? A. No, sir.

Q. Are you clear about that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He was there looking on as the others? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So far as you were concerned he was not?

A. I was paying careful atetntion to Brown at that moment.

Q. You are clear about that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He was there where he could hear what Alva Baldwin said?

A. I don't think that, the wind was blowing the other way; he might have heard it, I couldn't say.

Q. The wind was blowing very hard?

A. The wind was blowing quite hard, yes, sir.

Q. You say there was some material on the ground for building a fence?

A. Yes, sir, stuff about there; scantlings, or something of that sort.

Q. Did you see it taken out there? A. No, sir.

Q. Was it close to this grave?

1963 A. Well, it was not particularly close, perhaps, but laying around about it.

Q. Just how—show what it looked like now?

A. Well, it showed more particularly for its—

Q. Was there any posts?

A. I wouldn't try to tell whether there were any posts there or not.

Q. Any fence boards?

A. I wouldn't say just what it consisted of—my best recollection would be it was what I call sort of scantlings; but I have some faint recollection that possibly there in it was posts—must have been posts, but I don't definitely remember the condition it was in.

Q. Did you notice any wire there?

A. I can't say that I did; I was not there on that business.

Q. How long were you there during the progress of this inquiry? A. Well, most of the time.

Q. Well, how long was that?

A. I don't know how long a time.

Q. How long did you attend the inquest?

A. I was there until it closed.

Q. At the court house or around where it was in progress?

A. I was there most of the time; I couldn't say how long.

Q. How long was that; one or ten days?

A. My recollection is I got out in about 7 or 8 days.

Q. How long was Mrs. Hillmon being examined?

A. Well quite a time.

Q. Well, what time would you say?

A. O perhaps an hour and a half—something like that.

Q. You were there all the time were you?

A. During her examination.

Q. During her examination? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see her at the inquest any other time?

A. I think she was there, yes, sir.

1964 Q. Is your recollection clear about that?

A. Well, I wouldn't undertake to say how long I saw her there; I think she was there considerable time.

Q. During these 7 or 8 days? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Most of the time? A. Well, considerable of the time.

Q. Do you remember any body else there was there?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Major Wiseman there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Selig there? A. I think so, yes, sir.

Q. Was Dr. Stewart there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. All of these persons testified at the coroner's inquest?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You remember that, do you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you testify? A. No, sir.

Q. Dr. Miller there? A. I think so, yes, sir.

Q. Didn't testify? A. I think so.

Q. Did he testify?

A. I think so, yes sir, I wouldn't have remembered the name if you had not called it, I think.

Q. Was Mr. Griffith there?

A. I wouldn't be positive; I couldn't say. Quite a great many there; a good many testified. I wouldn't undertake to tell who they were so much, except the principal ones.

Q. You do remember that Major Wiseman, Dr. Stewart, and Mr. Selig testified? A. I wouldn't say so positively.

Redirect Examination

Q. Have you any connection with any of these companies whatever? A. No, sir.

Q. No interest in them? A. No, sir.

Q. How long since you ceased all connection?

A. I ceased my connection with the New York Life in 1881, about a year after that.

Q. And you never had any connection with the other defendants? A. No, sir.

Excused.

1965 By Mr. Barker: We now offer in evidence, Exhibit T, being a duly certified copy of the enlistment of J. W. Hillmon, to show a description of John W. Hillmon.

By Mr. Hutchings: Any statement in that paper of description of John W. Hillmon is hearsay; it was not made by him, nor by his direction nor with his knowledge, so far as it appears. We object to it as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay.

By the Court: That is, you offer the certificate of the recruiting officer; that is the part of it you claim is material?

By Mr. Barker: Yes, sir.

The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the court, the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

Said enlistment is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1966 No. ....OPS. (Exhibit "T" Nov. 99, W. C. H.)

United States of America,
War Department,
Washington City, February 17th, 1888.

Pursuant to Section 882 of the Revised Statutes, I hereby [1] certify that it appears from the records of the office of the Adjutant General of the Army that the accompanying paper is a true copy of the enlistment paper of John W. Hillmon, Company I, 1st Nebraska Cavalry. [2]

R. C. DRUM,
Adjutant General.

Be it known, that R. C. Drum, who signed the foregoing certificate, is the Adjutant General U. S. Army, and that to his attestation as such full faith and credit are and ought to be given.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the War Department to be affixed, on this 18th day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.

[Seal] WM. E. ENDICOTT,
Secretary of War.

1. Insert title of office.
2. To be signed by the officer in charge of the office. (Form No. 9.)

Copy.

Volunteer Enlistment.

Territory of Nebraska. Town of Omaha.

I, John W. Hillmon born in Montgomery Co. in the State of Indiana aged eighteen years, and by occupation a farmer do hereby acknowledge to have volunteered this twentieth (20) day of September 1864, to serve as a Soldier in the Army of the United States of America, for the period of one year, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. Do also agree to accept such bounty, pay, rations and clothing, as are, or may be, established by law for volunteers. And I, John W. Hillman do solemnly swear, that I will bear true faith and alle-
1967 giance to the United States of America, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies or opposers whomsoever; and that I will observe and obey the orders of the President of the United States, and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the Rules and Articles of War.

Sworn and subscribed to, at Omaha, N. T., this 20th day of September, 1864.

JOHN W. HILLMON.

Before Lieut. S. W. Moore.

I certify, on honor, That I have carefully examined the above-named Volunteer, agree ably to the General Regulations of the Army, and that, in my opinion, he is free from all bodily defects and mental infirmity, which would in any way disqualify him from performing the duties of a soldier.

N. B. LARSH,
Asst. Surgn. 1st Neb. Vet. Cav.
Examining Surgeon.

I, certify, on honor, That I have minutely inspected the Volunteer, John W. Hillmon previously to his enlistment, and that he was entirely sober when enlisted; that, to the best of my judgment and belief, he is of lawful age; and that, in accepting him as duly qualified to perform the duties of an able-bodied soldier, I have strictly observed the Regulations which govern the recruiting service. This soldier has Brown eyes, Brown hair, Dark complexion, is five feet eight inches high.

S. W. MOORE, 2d Lieut.,
1st Regiment of Neb. Cav.
Vet. Volunteers,
Recruiting Officer.

Mustered into the service of the United States, for three years or during the war, from the date of enlistment, in Company —— First Regiment of Neb. Cav. Vet. Volunteers, on the 20 day of September, 1864, at Omaha, N. T.

1968

OSCAR F. DAVIS,
Capt. & Pro. Mar. Dist. Neb.
Mustering Officer.

Declaration of Recruit.

I, John W. Hillmon desiring to volunteer as a soldier in the Army of the United States for the term of one year, do declare, That I am eighteen years and —— months of age; that I have never been discharged from the United States service on account of disability or by sentence of a court-martial, or by order before the expiration of a term of enlistment; and I know of no impediment to my serving honestly and faithfully as a soldier for three years.

Given at Omaha Nebraska Ter. the 20th day of September, 1864.

JOHN W. HILLMON.

Witness:

Josiah Burton, 1 reg. neb. v. v. Co. H.

Consent in Case of Minor.

I ..... do certify, That I am the ..... of .....; that the said ..... is ..... years of age; that I do hereby freely give my consent to his volunteering as a soldier in the Army of the United States for the period of three years.

Given at ..... the ..... day of .....

Witness:

.....

No. 9.

John W. Hillmon, Volunteered at Omaha, N. T., September 20th, 1864, By Lieut. S. W. Moore, 1st Regiment of Neb. Cav. v. v.

one year

.....enlistment; last served in Company (....) .... Reg't. of .....

1969 Discharged .....18....

Note 1.—This blank will be used for both enlistments and re-enlistments—enlistments of veterans, &c., &c., in the volunteer service. They will be made out in duplicate in all cases—one to accompany the recruiting return of the superintendent (not the recruiting officer) to the Adjutant General, and one to accompany the accounts of the officer who pays bounty, &c. The Regiment and Company in which the soldier last served should be given on the back.

Note 2.—An enlistment holds to service. A muster-in must, in all cases, precede payment of pay, bounty, pension, &c. A muster-in roll must, in all cases, be filed in the Adjutant General's Office as evidence of muster-in. The mustering officer, com-issary, or assistant commissary of musters as the case may be, will countersign both enlistments as having mustered the soldier into the service of the United States before either of them is given to the disbursing officer.

Ex. D. D.—1. A. S.

(A. G. O. N. 74 & 76.)

1970 J. Q. Norton, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name and residence?

A. My name is John Q. A. Norton, my residence is Lawrence, Kansas.

Q. What official position do you now hold in Douglas County, Kansas?

[—] I am now probate judge of Douglas County.

Q. I will ask you what official position you held in October, 1878? A. I was probate judge then.

Q. Are you acquainted with the plaintiff in this case, Mrs. Hillmon? A. I knew her; I could hardly say acquainted.

Q. Do you know her by sight?

A. Yes, I knew her by sight.

Q. Did you have any acquaintnace with John W. Hillmon?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you issue to them a marriage license?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. I issued a marriage license to John W. Hillmon and Sadie E. Quinn.

Q. Was there an application for a license made to you?

A. There was. I don't remember whether the law required any sworn statement at that time or not; I did not look to see what the law was at this time.

Q. Have you a certified copy of the marriage license that you issued to John W. Hillmon and Sadie E. Quinn?

A. Yes, sir, I have a certified copy of the marriage license.

By the Court: Was the information upon which this license was based obtained from Hillmon?

A. Well, I cannot say that at this time, the length of time that has elapsed.

197P Q. Did Hillmon get the license himself?

A. Why, I should say I think he did.

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Have you any recollection of Hillmon coming and getting it personally?

A. No, I have no recollection any more than I have the entries that it was issued at that time.

Q. State if it was not a common practice for others than the parties interested to apply for a license?

A. Not a common practice; sometimes the father or some relative would come but very seldom.

Q. You have no recollection of John W. Hillmon applying for that license himself? A. I have not.

Q. Did he make any statement to you whatever in relation to it?

A. No; I have no personal recollection; in the time that has elapsed since I cannot remember.

By Mr. Barker:

Q. But you have no recollection either of any one applying in his behalf, his father or relative or her father or mother or relative have you? A. No, I have not.

The defendants offer the license identified by the witness in evidence.

The [—] makes no objection to it because it is a certified copy, but objects to its admission in evidence upon the ground that it is hearsay, and wholly incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and because the statements contained in it are not based upon any information furnished by John W. Hillmon. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Said license was thereupon read in evidence to the jury and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

"State of Kansas,
Douglas County.

October 3rd, 1878.

1972 To any person authorized by law to perform the marriage ceremony:

You are hereby authorized to join in marriage John W. Hillmon, of New Mexico, age 30, and Sadie E. Quinn, of Lawrence, age 27 years, and of this license you will make due return to my office in 30 days.

J. Q. A. NORTON, Probate Judge.

I, George W. Henning, in accordance with the authority of the within license, did on the 3rd day of October, 1878, at Lawrence, Kansas, join and unite in marriage the within named John W. Hillmon and Sadie E. Quinn.

Witness my hand and seal the day and year first above written.

GEORGE W. HENNING,
Minister of the Gospel.

Witness excused.

1973 The defendants, and each of them, next offered in evidence the testimony of W. O. Hubbell, given upon the trial of 1896.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Hubbell is not within the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence to the court and jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

W. O. Hubbell.

W. O. Hubbell, called on behalf of defense, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination by Mr. Barker.

Q. State your name, Mr. Hubbell, in full?
A. W. O. Hubbell.
Q. Where do you live? A. Kansas City, Kansas.
Q. Where were you living in 1878-9?
A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. How long had you, or did you live in the City of Lawrence? A. From 1874 to '85.
Q. Do you remember the fact of a body being brought to Lawrence in April, 1879? A. I do.
Q. Do you remember the fact of a coroner's inquest being held over that body? A. There was.
Q. You may state whether or not you were one of the jurymen? A. I was.
Q. At that coroner's inquest? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember where it was held?
A. In the courtroom in the city of Lawrence.
Q. Do you know the plaintiff, Mrs. Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember of her testifying before you at that coroner's inquest? A. She did.
Q. Were you acquainted at that time with an attorney by the name of Borgalthaus? A. I did.
Q. Do you remember whether he was with her at that inquest?
A. He was there part of the time, I don't know whether he was there all the time.

1974 Q. Do you know his initials? A. I do not.
Q. You stated you remember the plaintiff testified on that occasion? A. I do.
Q. Do you remember the question being asked her as to how high or tall her husband was?
A. Some question like that, yes sir.
Q. Do you remember her answer to that?
A. That she did not know his height.
Q. Do you remember her being inquired of in regard to the condition of her husband's teeth? Do you remember that inquiry? A. Yes sir.

Q. To the question as to the condition of his teeth what did she say? A. That she didn't know.

Q. Well, the question is, what did she say to that? The question as to the condition of his teeth, or how tall he was, what did she say?

A. Well, she didn't know; she didn't know about the teeth nor height.

Q. Now in regard, when it was asked her in regard to the condition of his teeth, what reply did she make; that she knew, or didn't know? A. She didn't know.

Q. Did she say she didn't know?

A. She said she didn't know.

Q. That is what I want to get at; that was the reply she made? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember her being inquired of in regard to the character or color of his hair, and what reply she made to that inquiry?

Objected to. Overruled.

Q. Do you remember her being asked in regard to that?

A. She was asked that question.

Q. What reply did she make to that?

A. She didn't know the color.

Q. That was what she said? A. Yes sir.

Q. I wish you would state, Mr. Hubbell, the general demeanor and conduct of Mrs. Hillmon during the time of the inquest, particularly the time she was testifying there, as to expression of grief and sorrow upon her part, and whether or not she made any manifestations of grief or sorrow;
1975 state what her demeanor was in that respect?

The plaintiff objects to the testimnoy as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and as calling for the opinion of the witness.

Objection overruled.

The plaintiff excepts.

By Mr. Barker: That was what I asked for.

A. She didn't seem to be grieved at all in any way of looking at it.

Q. You may state what her general bearing was; whether it was light or serious on that occasion?

Same objection—same ruling.

A. Not very serious.

Q. Do you remember her answer in regard to the inquiry as to whether or not that was the body of her husband, John W. Hillmon?

Objected to as assuming such a question was asked.

By Mr. Barker: I will withdraw that question.

Q. Do you remember this question being asked her in substance: "Do you recognize that body" referring to the body at the undertaking establishment "as the body of your husband, John W. Hillmon?" Do you remember that question being asked her in substance?

A. Well, I do not, because she didn't—

By the Court: It is simply a question of whether you remember not?

A. I don't remember at what time that came in.

Q. What I want to know is if it was any time during the coroner's inquest, if she was asked that question in substance—if she recognized that body at Bailey & Smith's as Hillmon's? A. Yes sir she did.

Q. To that, what reply did she make?

A. She said "If that was not John W. Hillmon, whose was it?"

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Can you state to this jury a single question that was asked Mrs. Hillmon before that coroner's inquest?

A. I can.

1976 Q. Put one question in form that was asked there?

A. Well just ask the questions.

Q. I want you to state one question, the form of one single question that was asked her at that time?

A. There was a great many questions asked.

Q. Can you state one of them?

A. I can't, as the attorney asked the questions.

Q. You can't tell this jury the form, or anything like the form Mr. Barker put the questions to her? A. No sir.

Q. When he asked her about the teeth, you didn't know whether he referred to all the teeth, or some of the teeth—What did he ask her about the teeth; did he say 'Were Mr. Hillmon's front teeth gone?'

A. No, he said one front tooth—that's just speaking of the teeth.

Q. You are sure that question was asked as to his front tooth? A. Only simply the teeth.

Q. Including the back teeth and all?

A. Just the teeth; I don't know about the back teeth.

Q. Didn't she say his front teeth were good?

A. She says I don't know.

Q. And she didn't know anything about the color of the hair or mustache? A. No sir, she did not.

Q. Mr. Barker was there, attorney for the company, examining her?

A. Mr. Green; Mr. Barker might have been there.
Q. Was Mr. Barker there?
A. He might have been part of the time.
Q. Was Mr. Barker there at all during the examination?
A. I think he was.
Q. Are you sure of it?
A. He was there part of the time.
Q. Will you swear to this jury that Mr. Barker was there, there examining witnesses before that jury?
A. I wouldn't swear; he might have been there; my recollection is he was there.
Q. That is your recollection; that Mr. Barker was there examining witnesses?
A. No, I don't think Mr. Barker was examining the witnesses.
Q. You don't think Mr. Barker examined several wit-
1977 nesses?
A. I don't know; Mr. Green examined most of them.
Q. As a matter of fact, Mr. Barker never examined a single witness?

Objected to—overruled.

A. I don't know.
Q. How long was Mrs. Hillmon there?
A. Well I don't know; she was there I guess most of the time of the coroner's inquest.
Q. Was she there more than one day?
A. I think she was, yes, sir.
Q. You won't pretend to give the form of any question given Mrs. Hilmon then?
A. No, I wouldn't say the exact form.

Objected to as having repeated several times.

Q. You remember Mr. Green examining Mrs. Hilmon?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You can't be mistaken about that?
A. Mr. Green examined the witnesses.
Q. You are sure about that? A. Yes, sir, sure.
Q. You are just as certain about that as you are that Mrs. Hilmon said that she didn't know the color of her husband's hair—just as sure about the one as about the other?
A. That is my recollection, yes, sir.
Witness excused.

1978 The defendants, and each of them, next offered in evidence the testimony of Frank W. Todd given upon the trial of 1896.

It is admitted by the parties that Mr. Todd is not within the jurisdiction of the court.

Said testimony was thereupon read in evidence to the court and jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Frank W. Todd.

Frank W. Todd, called on behalf of defendants, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. State where you live Mr. Todd? A. Chicago.
Q. What are your initials? A. Frank W.
Q. Where were you living in 1878-9?
A. In Wichita, Kansas.
Q. In what business were you engaged?
A. I was employed in the postoffice.
Q. In what capacity?
A. I had charge of the postoffice.
Q. Who was postmaster at that time?
A. Mr. H. Murdock.
Q. I will ask you if in 1878 you became acquainted with one John W. Hillmon? A. 1878?
Q. Yes sir, or 1879?
A. I don't know; there was a man by the name of Hillmon called for his mail in 1878 and 9.
Q. Well, did you become acquainted with him in that way?
A. Yes sir.
Q. State whether he called for mail often or seldom?
A. Every two or three days I should think.
Q. When he called for mail was he accompanied by any person? A. Usually there was a man with him.
Q. For about how long did he continue to come in often for mail; that is, from what time to what time, if you remember? A. I can't remember exactly, for several weeks.
Q. I will ask you if at any time he gave any order with reference to his mail, and if so what?

1979 Objected to as hearsay and incompetent—overruled.

A. Mr. Hillmon gave me orders to hold his mail.
Q. Well, what, if anything did he say about delivering it to anybody else; state all he said?

Objected to on same ground and as leading—overruled.

A. He came to me and said that he was going out of town a few days, and asked me to hold this mail, and not deliver it over to anyone, not even with an order; he would call for it himself.
Q. Do you remember the last time you saw him?
A. Yes sir.
Q. When,—about when was that?

A. Well, it was near the latter part of February, or the first of March, 1879.

Q. Where was it?

A. At the postoffice; side door of the postoffice.

Q. The postoffice at Wichita? A. Yes sir.

Q. What time of day or night was it when he was [—]?

A. I think about 8 o'clock in the evening.

Q. What was his business on that occasion?

A. He asked if there was any mail for him if I would give him his mail.

Q. Did he state why he came at that time?

Objected to as leading, and same reason—overruled.

A. He stated that he just come in from a trip of 30 or 40 miles, and there was a letter that he expected, and he wanted to leave the city in the morning to go west, and by getting his mail he could get away an hour or two sooner.

Q. Was that after office hours?

A. About two hours after the office was closed.

Q. What did you do in reference to getting the mail?

A. I gave him either one or two letters; I don't remember which.

Q. Did you observe who, if anybody was with him on that occasion?

A. There was a man, but not the same man it was usually before.

Q. Can you give a general description of the man who was with him?

A. Not any more than as to the size; about the size I should think or height of Mr. Hillmon; further than that I can't say.

1980 Q. Did you observe any peculiarity that fixed itself in your mind?

A. Yes sir he had long dark, what I would call curly hair.

Q. When he was in there did he do anything, and was you in any other transaction with him?

A. No more than he asked me to step out and have a cigar—there was a cigar store in the front of the postoffice.

Q. Was it at that time that you observed this man?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Up to that time had you become quite well acquainted with this man who usually accompanied Mr. Hillmon?

A. Well just from seeing him along every day with Mr. Hillmon.

Q. And you say it was not the same man?

Objected to as leading.

By the Court: I don't like to have it repeated.

Q. At the time you say; this time at the postoffice there; this man who accompanied Mr. Hillmon on that occasion, where was he standing?

A. He was standing alongside the cigar case.

Q. Now from that time until this have you seen Mr. Hillmon? A. No sir, I have not.

Q. How long did you remain in Wichita after that time?

A. I remained there until the winter of 1891, or '92.

Q. How long did you continue in the same employment in the postoffice? A. Three or four months after that.

Q. After that, did you go into business at Wichita?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember of hearing of the circumstance of a man being killed in Barbour County about that time?

Objected to as hearsay.

By Mr. Barker: We want to strike out "about that time". I will ask you if you remember of hearing of the circumstance of a man being killed in Barbour County?

Objection pressed—overruled.

Q. Do you remember hearing of it? A. I do.

Q. Can you give court and jury any definite information as to how long it was from the time you saw Mr. Hillmon
1981 and this man at the postoffice, until you heard of this accident in Barbour County?

A. I can't give the exact time; I should think it was,—might have been ten days or two weeks; might be longer.

Q. That's as definite as you can be with reference to it?

A. Yes sir.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You continued to live in Wichita and remained in the postoffice until 1891 or 2? A. No sir.

Q. Until what time?

A. I remained in the postoffice two or three months after that; I remained in Wichita until 1891 or 2.

Q. You heard of the trial of this case three times—1882-5-8? A. Saw accounts of it, yes sir.

Q. You were not a witness in this case at all until the last trial about a year ago? A. No sir.

Q. You live now in Chicago? A. Yes sir.

Q. It was about 17 years after this event before you ever testified or something about that? A. Yes sir.

Q. The Wichita postoffice at that time was quite a large office? A. Yes sir.

Q. A great many strangers coming in from all sections of the country and calling for their mail? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you delivered mail to hundreds in a day?
A. Yes sir, to thousands.

Witness excused.

1982 The testimony of Dr. Phillips appearing on pages 1730 to the middle of page 1733, follows in point of time the conclusion of the proceeding relative to, and the testimony of J. S. Crew ending on page 1752.

E. D. F. Phillips, M. D., a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by George J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. State your name and residence.
A. E. D. F. Phillips, Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. What is your profession?
A. Practicing medicine 27 years.
Q. Are you still engaged in the practice? A. I am.
Q. At what place? A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. Did you ever reside in Tonganoxie in this county, Leavenworth county? A. I did.
Q. I will ask you if you are familiar in your practice with the process of vaccination? A. I am.
Q. I will ask you to state whether or not a a person may be successfully vaccinated more than once? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is it an unusual thing for vaccination to take twice, as we say? A. It very often takes a second time.
Q. Would there be anything unusual in a person being vaccinated say,when he was nine or ten years old, and it taking successfully, and then being re-vaccinated when he was a man 20 or 22 years old and it also taking successfully?
A. Why no, not very unusual.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. What experience have you had in vaccinating persons?
A. Well, I have vaccinated a great many persons.
Q. When did you go to Lawrence? A. 20 years ago.
Q. From what school did you graduate, if any?
A. Kansas City Medical College.
1983 Q. When? A. 1876.
Q. Where is that college situated?
A. Kansas City.
Q. You know, then, all about vaccination?

A. Oh, I don't know that I know all about it.
Q. You know what the result of vaccination is as to subsequent appearance; it leaves a scar, does it not?
A. It leaves a scar, a characteristic scar.
Q. What makes this scar?
A. The pustule that forms as the result of the vaccination.
Q. It is the destruction of a part of the skin?
A. It destroys the skin.
Q. It is a prominent mark, is it not?
A. It is a prominent mark.
Q. Did you ever know of a vaccination mark growing out, or disappearing? A. Not a true vaccination scar.
Q. If a patient was vaccinated and the vaccination took, and made a characteristic vaccination scar, that would remain there until his death, would it not? A. Yes, sir.

Here the witness [witness] was excused, but afterwards being recalled by the defendants, testified in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by Mr. J. W. Green, counsel for the defendants, as follows, to wit:

Q. You have said that you were living in Tonganoxie in 1878, I believe? A. Yes, sir.
Q. In what business were you engaged at that time?
A. I was in the drug business from the fall of 1870 until the fall of 1874.
Q. In what business were you engaged in Tonganoxie in 1878 and '79? A. Practicing medicine.
Q. Were you acquainted with one Levi Baldwin?
A. I was.
1984 Q. About how far did he reside from Tonganoxie?
A. About four or five miles west.
Q. In what business was he engaged at that time?
A. Farming and stock raising.
Q. I will ask you if in the summer or fall of 1878, you were at his residence? A. I was.
Q. You may state if you remember for what purpose you went there? A. He had a boy injured; dislocated elbow.
Q. Did you reduce the fracture or dislocation? A. I did.
Q. After that, did you have a talk with Mr. Levi Baldwin?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection overruled; the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I did.
Q. Now, you may state what that conversation was so far as it relates to any inquiries he made of you of the effect of death upon bodies?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, calling for hearsay and because no foundation has been laid. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. I will ask you this question then: At that time was inquiry made of you by Levi Baldwin in regard to the length of time which would be required for a body to decompose [—] as to become not recognizable?

By the Court: Mr. Barker, the purpose seems to be—I may be wrong,—to get this evidence that is within the objection, before the jury notwithstanding the court has ruled it out.

By Mr. Barker: I wish to disclaim once for all, any such intention.

By the Court: The point you make is preserved adequately and absolutely by the transcript of the evidence of Mr.
1985 Blythe and by the deposition of Mr. Crew, and it seems to me if you add to that, it is not for the purpose of preserving any point but for some other purpose.

By Mr. Barker: I can assure you it is not. The only purpose is to show the court the character of the testimony excluded.

The testimony of this witness at a previous trial is right here and we offer to prove that by the testimony of this witness.

The plaintiff objects to the offer as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, calling for hearsay and because no proper foundation has been laid. The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling the Court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

By the Court: That is the transcript of the trial of 1896?

By Mr. Barker: Yes, sir.

Witness excused.

And thereupon the defendants and each of them offered to read in evidence the written evidence given by the witness, Phillips, upon the trial of 1896, for the purpose of showing what the witness would have testified to if he had been allowed to answer the questions above set forth put to him by the defendants upon his direct examination, and excluded by the court upon the objections of the plaintiff. The court refused to permit said evidence to be read as requested by the defendants to which action and ruling of the court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

The said evidence so offered and rejected is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

1986 Dr. E. D. F. Phillips, called as a witness on behalf of the defendant, being sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name? A. E. D. F. Phillips.
Q. Where do you reside? A. Lawrence, Kansas.
Q. What is your business? A. Physician and surgeon.
Q. Where were you residing in 1878?
A. In Tongamoxie, Kansas.
Q. What was your business at that time?
A. Physician and surgeon.
Q. Did you know one Levi Baldwin at that time?
A. I did.
Q. Do you remember how long you knew him?
A. Since 1870.
Q. Where was he living?
A. Living west of Tonganoxie about 4 or 5 miles.
Q. What was his business at that time, do you know?
A. Farming and stock usually.
Q. Were you at his place any time in 1878? A. I was.
Q. About what time of the year was it you were there?
A. In the fall of 1878.
Q. What was the occasion of your visit to his place at that time?
A. To place a lotion on a cut on the elbow of his little boy.
Q. Did you see Mr. Levi Baldwin there at that time that you visited his place? A. Not that day.
Q. Were you there after that?
A. I was there the next day.
Q. You saw Mr. Levi Baldwin there the next day after you were first called? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember who came for you to go out there?

Objected to as incompetent and immaterial—sustained.

Q. Did you know one John W. Hillmon? A. I did.
Q. Did you see him in the year 1878 any time?
A. I did.
Q. Where did you see him?
A. I saw him at Mr. Baldwin's.
Q. Now on the occasion of your last visit, or second visit, which you spoke of, you may state whether you had any 1987 conversation with Mr. Levi Baldwin on the subject of life insurance?

Objected to as incompetent and hearsay. Overruled. Ex.

Q. You may state Dr. fully what that conversation was.

A. He asked me if I had any insurance, and whether I knew about certain insurance companies, whether they were safe or not. He said he had been thinking about taking out some insurance; and in the same conversation, or at the same time, he asked me how long a dead body would,—how long before a dead body would decompose after it was buried.

Q. What did you say to him?

A. I said it would depend on whether decomposition had set in before the body was buried or not. And it would depend on the condition of the body when buried.

Q. What further conversation, if any, did you have?

Same objection—same ruling.

A. He said wouldn't,—in connection with the conversation of insurance, he said wouldn't it be a good scheme to get a good insurance on your life and go south and get the body of a greaser and pass it off as your body,—wouldn't it be a good scheme to go down south and get the body of a "Greaser," or get a large amount of insurance on your life and go down south and get the body of some "Greaser" and palm it off as your body and get the money.

Q. Have you stated the language, of the substance of the conversation you had with him that time?

A. That is the substance; I can't remember exactly the words, of course it was fresher in my mind then than now.

Q. Did you ever have any further conversation with him in regard to the subject of life insurance? A. Not after that.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. How long had you been acquainted with Mr. Baldwin?

A. The spring of 1878.

1988 Q. He was a large farmer in the neighborhood?

A. Yes, sir, he owned two farms.

Q. He sent for you as a physician? A. He did, in 1878.

Q. What time was this in 1878?

A. In October, I think, the fall; I think it was October.

Q. And you had this conversation with him? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was anybody present?

A. His wife was in the room, part of the time.

Q. Anybody else?

A. And the little boy, the injured one, lay on the bed; we was sitting in the room where it was.

Q. Was his wife present when he said it would be a good scheme to pass of- the body of a "greaser,"—to get a "greaser" and pass it off on the company?

A. I don't remember, she was getting dinner, and was in and out.

Q. He spoke right out—made no effort to conceal any of it?

A. Yes, sir, I didn't notice any inclination on his part to conceal anything he was saying.

By Mr. Hutchings: We would like to ask Dr. Phillips one more question. Dr. Phillips, you have testified at all previous trials of this case? A. Not the first one.

Q. In all but the first? A. This is the third one.

Q. Well, you testified at the last trial had about a year ago? A. Yes, sir.

Witness excused.

1989 The defendants and each of them offered in evidence the deposition of James S. Crew, taken before E. W. Levy, a notary public within and for the city and county of San Francisco, State of California, on the 19th day of August, 1892. The plaintiff objected to the admission of said deposition in evidence, to the entire scope of the deposition, for the reason that it is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, hearsay, a conversation between Levi Baldwin and James S. Crew which has no bearing whatever upon the case, not within any rule of evidence, and certainly not within the definition or meaning of the law concerning declarations of co-conspirators.

1990 And the plaintiff further objected thereto so far as the same related to any statement of Levi Baldwin or conversation with him in the absence of John W. Hillmon or to any mortgage or indebtedness of Levi Baldwin, because the same was incompetent and hearsay, indebtedness not described mortgage not produced, and such statements and conversation not being competent against this plaintiff, not being in the presence of the plaintiff or even of John W. Hillmon, and as to any mortgages, because oral evidence is not competent to prove same without accounting for non-production thereof. And because it has not been shown by evidence competent against said plaintiff that there was any conspiracy between any persons, and defendants have not alleged that plaintiff was a conspirator, but have impliedly alleged that she was not a party to any conspiracy but not alleging she was and by not naming her with the other named alleged conspirators in their answers, they at the time of filing their answers actually knowing her, and therefore she was not to them then unknown, so that she could not have been one of these referred to in their answers as "divers other persons to the defendants unknown," and because the whole matter relating to the alleged conspiracy is immaterial and irrelevant, the real question involved in these cases being whether John W. Hillmon did or did not die in March, A. D., 1879. Practically speaking and when considered with the evidence before the Court and the statements of parties in their opening statements to the Court and jury—the practical question being whether the corpse mentioned by the witnesses as having been brought in the spring of 1879 from Medicine Lodge to Lawrence, was or was not the corpse of John W. Hillmon.

The Court reserved its ruling upon said objection.

The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the written testimony of J. H. Blythe, given upon the trial of the causes in 1896. The plaintiff thereupon admitted that Blythe is dead, but objected to the entire deposition on the ground that it is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, hearsay and not within the definition or meaning of the law concerning declarations of co-conspirators. The Court reserved its ruling upon the objection.

And thereupon, on Friday, November 10, 1899, the Court rendered its decision upon the objections of plaintiff to the deposition of James S. Crew and the testimony of J. H. Blythe in the following words:

As counsel for defendants has said, it is not necessary to plead an element of illegality in a transaction, at least not in every instance, to enable the defendant to avail himself of such illegality. But where it is contended that the 1991 illegality of others attaches to and affects the rights of a party to the suit, I have yet to learn that it is not necessary to connect the plaintiff or other party to the suit with such illegality, so I cannot see wherein the decision of the Supreme Court of Kansas in the tax matter, where the plaintiff confessed upon the witness-stand that he put securities out of his own name in order to defraud the state of its revenue has any application whatever to this case. The answers in these cases are substantially the same in respect of [of] the charge of conspiracy. In the answer of the Mutual Life it is said: Said defendant further answering says, that on or before the 30th day of November A. D. 1878, one John W. Hillmon, John H. Brown and Levi Baldwin, and directs other persons to the defendant unknown, unlawfully and fraudulently confederated together to cheat and defraud this defendant by procuring a large amount of insurance to be taken on the life of said Hillmon, to wit: then mentioning policies—that thereafter and in pursuance of said conspiracy, and with said intent, said Hillmon, Brown and Baldwin, not others—falsely and fraudulently pretended and represented unto this defendont and others that said Hillmon was dead, etc.

It is one of the cardinal rules of interpretation that a pleading must be taken most strongly against the pleader; he is not entitled to have anything ambiguous in a pleading construed in his favor. Now, if it is necessary at all to connect Mrs. Hillmon with this conspiracy, it must be done in more affirmative and more positive language. It is said by Mrs. Hillmon's counsel that the evidence in this case has disclosed that practically all that was known of Mrs. Hillmon's connection with the case was known to the defendant companies at the time of the preparation of these answers. It is not necessary to consider whether that is so or not, because the very pleadings that were filed in this case show that if it had been intended to charge Mrs. Hillmon as a party to this conspiracy everything that was necessary for that purpose to show her connection with the transaction appeared right in her petition; that is to say, the policies that were sued upon were made out for her exclusive use and benefit, she was the sole beneficiary under the policies, and upon the alleged death of Hill-
1992 mon she made out and sent to the companies the purported proofs of loss. Now it goes without saying that no party alleged to be connected with this conspiracy could have touched a dollar of that money without the participation, without the consent and assistance of Mrs. Hillmon. Now, in all candor and in all fairness, with that knowledge before counsel, if it were intended to charge this plaintiff with being a party to a conspiracy that might involve murder, that at least involved fraud, perjury and subornation of perjury, her name should have been mentioned affirmatively as a party to this conspiracy. A conspiracy or a charge of conspiracy is not, as Judge Isham would have it, an ambulatory thing that runs indefinitely and vaguely through the progress of the case, and allows counsel to attach any party to that conspiracy at some indefinite time during the progress of the trial or investigation. If at any time during the course of the investigation that lead up to the trial counsel had then learned that sufficient had been developed that they did not know before that justified them in charging Mrs. Hillmon, counsel could have obtained an order of the court authorizing an amendment of their pleadings.

I have been somewhat curious to know how the other judges who have tried this case look at this question of consipracy. I read last evening and this morning the only three charges I have been able to procure. One was the first by Judge Foster, the next that of Judge Shiras and the last that of Judge Williams.

By Mr. Isham: We have Judge Brewer's.
By the Court: That has not been furnished me.

Judge Foster dismisses it altogether, that is to say, it is referred to but once in his charge, and that in a recitation of the Insurance companies' claim in their answer, and when he refers to it in that way, he simply says that the Insurance Companies' claim that there was a conspiracy to do certain things mentioning them, between Hilmon, Brown and Baldwin. That is all the mention, so far as I can recall, and I read it with that idea in view, that was made of this question of conspiracy.

Judge Williams in 1896, in reciting what the contentions of the parties were as shown by their pleadings, recited
1993 that the defendants claim that there was a conspiracy between Brown, Hilmon and Baldwin—not and others; Mrs. Hillmon's name was not mentioned in connection with the conspiracy, and Judge Williams said that if there was a conspiracy, if the jury found that there was a conspiracy as charged, that the fact of such conspiracy might be considered as evidence tending to determine the identity of the body; in other words, it was what I suggested to counsel perhaps a week ago, that possibly the existence of a conspiracy might have an evidential weight upon the question of identity.

Judge Shiras, in referring to the contentions of counsel as shown by their pleadings did use the word "and others;" that is to say, he said that it was contended by the Insurance Companies in their answers that there was a conspiracy between Brown, Hillmon, Baldwin, and others, but in no [please] is Mrs. Hillmon's name connected with that conspiracy and Judge Shiras's charge; but Judge Shiras says that: if the jury believe from the evidence that there was a conspiracy, and that certain other things, I have forgotten them now, existed, and that Hillmon was alive, then their verdict should be for the defendants; but it all came down to the question whether Hillmon was alive at the time the suits were brought, and the recitation as regards the conspiracy might well have been left out. Now a conspiracy may be an unlawful combination through possible murder, perjury or subornation of perjury to create a pretended cause of action; that, it is charged, was the conspiracy in this case—possibly not that it involved murder in the first instance, but that murder was the result of it. Now, there might be a conspiracy as was contended by counsel for plaintiff in this case and argued vehemently at one time—a conspiracy to prevent the enforcement of a just cause of action; in other words, you will recall that Mr. Wheat contended that there was a conspiracy in this case between Tillinghast, Wiseman, Selig, Munn and possibly Buchan. To do what? By the perjury and subornation of perjury to suppress the plaintiff's evidence and to make it appear that there was a body other than that of Hillmon. They sought to introduce in evidence conversations that occurred at Mrs. Hillmon's house.

Counsel objected to the introduction of that evidence,—as Judge Isham would say,—not that it was not pleaded—because Judge Isham says that it is not necessary to plead 1994 those things—counsel for the defendants objected to the introduction of those things, and the court excluded them because it was thought that they had no place in this case.

Now, you have got to look at this conspiracy question from all views. It is not a thing that can be availed of on one side to the exclusion of the other. Now, if as I believe, the allegation in the answers that there was a conspiracy between Hillmon, Brown, Baldwin and others to do certain things, is not a sufficient allegation to include Mrs. Hillmon, the plaintiff, and if this is a contract between the insurance companies and Mrs. Hillmon, what is the effect of that conspiracy in this case? That perhaps has given me more trouble than all the other questions connected with this case. I believe, as I said perhaps a week ago, that if the jury believe that there was a conspiracy between others than the plaintiff to substitute the body of another than Hillmon, that that might be taken into consideration as tending to show the identity of this body, but that does not authorize the admission of declarations of alleged conspirators. The admission of the declarations of alleged conspirators is upon this point of law; first, the conspiracy is established by extraneous evidence. A conspiracy can never be established by acts and declarations of the conspirators. The acts and the declarations of the conspirators are not admissible for the purpose of establishing the conspiracy; but the conspiracy having been established and a prima facie case made then the declarations of the acts of one conspirator are admissible, not against a party who is not a party to that conspiracy, but as against each other, and that upon the theory that the acts and declarations of one of the conspirators are pursuant to the conspiracy, and they must be within those lines; they must be in aid of the conspiracy; then the acts and the declarations of one conspirator in aid of the carrying out of the conspiracy are evidence against the others, and the application of that would be confined necessarily to a proceeding against one of the conspirators, or a proceeding which one of the conspirators was a party. Consequently I believe that the declarations of Levi Baldwin have no proper place in this case.

I do not desire to put it upon that basis altogether. I
1995 believe that it is objectionable upon the other grounds mentioned by the plaintiff. If counsel will go through these depositions and these transcripts and will eliminate such portions as are within this ruling, then the balance may be read. To which action and ruling of the court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

And thereupon the defendant read in evidence pursuant to the ruling of the court the testimony of J. H. Blythe heretofore offered, which testimony is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

J. H. Blythe, called on behalf of the defendants, being sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. State your name? A. J. H. Blythe.

Q. Where do you reside? A. At Argentine, Kansas.

Q. What is your business? A. I am a lawyer.

Q. Where were you residing in the years 1878 and 9?

A. I was residing in Leavenworth County, at Tonganoxie.

Q. What was your business there? A. Practicing law.

Q. Did you do any other business in connection with it?

A. Yes, sir, I represented a fire insurance company, I believe, or two or three.

Q. Did you know one Levi Baldwin at that time?

A. I did, yes, sir.

Q. Where did he reside?

A. About four miles west of Tonganoxie, four or five miles west of Tonganoxie.

Q. Did you know one John W. Hillmon?

A. I became acquainted with him about that time, yes sir.

Q. Where did you make his acquaintance?

A. I think on the street. I was introduced to him either there or in my office, I don't remember which; I think it was on the street.

Q. Do you remember who introduced you?

A. Yes, sir, Mr. Baldwin, Levi Baldwin.

Q. Now, was Mr. Baldwin and John W. Hillmon at your office at any time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. About when was that do you remember?

A. I can't state exactly, but I think it was in the fall of 1878 sometime; I am not sure but what it might have 1996 been in the spring, but I think it was in 1878.

Q. What business if any, did they have at your office?

A. Well, to answer that I would have to go back a little to explain it. Mr. Baldwin met me on the street—

A. Well they came to my office together on one occasion and asked me concerning life insurance.

Q. What conversation did you have with him, Mr. Blythe, in regard to life insurance?

A. They talked to me a number of times about insurance; how to get it and if I was acquainted with good companies and could recommend a good company to insure in; and how they should make application to get insurance and how payments should be made and whether a person could travel in different countries and different climates without forfeiting the insurance, and various questions of that kind; I don't remember exactly; about such questions as a person would naturally ask who wanted to obtain insurance.

Q. What, if anything, was said about how to collect insurance?

A. They talked to me a number of times about insurance. They asked me if it became necessary to collect insurance what proceedings would be had to get at it, and what time it would take and so on, such questions as a person would naturally ask about such things, business; of course, I can't state the exact words. It is sixteen years ago or more. I could not give the exact words used, but this is the substantial conversation.

Q. Now were you representing any life insurance company? A. No, sir.

[—] Had you had any conversation with either of these parties prior to that time they came in your office in reference to this subject? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Mr. Blythe, had you had any talk with either of these parties prior to that time in regard to the subject-matter of life insurance? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When?

A. Well, a few days before that—I can't say exactly, along probably a week probably a week or ten days.

Q. Where was it?

A. I think on the street. That was the time with Mr. Baldwin, alone, however.

Q. With which of these parties? A. Mr. Baldwin.

1997 Q. What was said by Mr. Baldwin on that occasion.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection sustained, defendants and each of them duly except.

A. Mr. Baldwin on that occasion asked me if I knew anything about life insurance and about the companies; that a friend of his wanted to get some insurance and he wanted to know if I could recommend some good company to him and I told him how to do it.

Q. Did he say a friend?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and hearsay. Objection sustained, defendants and each of them duly except.

A. No, sir, not on that occasion. I think the gentleman said it was a relative of his or connection; I don't know who it was; I didn't know Mr. Hillmon then.

Q. That was a few days before these parties came to your office?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant immaterial and hearsay. Objection sustained, defendants and each of them duly except.

A. Yes, sir.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. You live at Tonganoxie?

A. Yes, sir, I lived at Tonganoxie at that time.

Q. You knew Mr. Baldwin there as a large farmer there in that neighborhood? A. Yes, sir, he was a cattle dealer.

Q. And he and Mr. Hillmon came there and asked you such questions as you would naturally expect such persons to ask desirous of obtaining life insurance? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And no more?

A. Yes, sir, there was other conversation.

Q. I mean about life insurance? A. I think not.

Q. They just asked you such questions as you would expect a man to ask who wanted to get life insurance in a good company?

A. Yes, sir, a little more than that, because Mr. Baldwin was a man of good understanding and asked pertinent questions.

Q. Didn't you state to the jury that they asked such 1998 questions as a man would ask who wanted information on that subject?

A. Yes, sir, a man of ability as he was, I would not expect an ordinary man to ask such questions. He was not an ordinary man.

Q. And as to the time they asked this; what time did you say it was?

A. I can't state the exact time, but I think it was in 1878.

Q. What time of the year?

A. I think it was in the fall; might have been spring, I know it was chilly weather, but whether it was spring or fall I could not state.

Redirect Examination.

Q. You were asked if Mr. Baldwin was not a large farmer residing in your vicinity. I will ask you further if you didn't know at that time that he was heavily involved?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection overruled. The plaintiff excepts.

A. Well, I don't know whether I ought to explain to the court why I should answer that question. Mr. Baldwin in certain business matters at that time was a client of mine.

Q. That is for you to know whether you will answer or not.

A. I knew a good deal about his business and I knew it in a financial way. I knew he was a large farmer and doing a large business.

Q. Well, you may state whether or not he was not largely indebted and in embarrassed circumstances at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. The court overruled the objection, to which ruling the plaintiff then and there duly excepted.

A. He was involved, yes, sir.

The question was read to the witness and he answered further: I suppose he was.

The plaintiff moved to strike out the answer because it is not evidence but a mere supposition of the witness. The court sustained the motion, to which action and ruling of the court the defendants and each of them duly excepted.

Q. Is it a fact that his creditors were pressing him?

No answer.

Q. You were in a condition to know and ought to know in regard to that matter, Mr. Blythe? A. Yes, sir.

1999 Recross-Examination.

Q. You say you were his attorney?

A. In some matters.

Q. In relation to his financial matters what information you had you got as his attorney? A. Yes, sir.

Witness excused.

And thereupon the defendants again offered to read in evidence the deposition of James S. Crew, heretofore offered, whereupon the court said, "The deposition of James S. Crew is excluded as being within the decision of the court yesterday excepting certain preliminary questions, and they become immaterial in view of the exclusion of the remainder."

To which action and ruling of the court in excluding the said deposition of James S. Crew the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted. Said deposition so excluded is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Deposition of James S. Crew taken before me, E. W.
2000 Levy, a notary public within and for the city and county of San Francisco, state of California, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 6 P. M. of the 19th day of August, 1892, at the law office of Lucius S. Solomons, in the said city and county, pursuant to the annexed notice, to be read in evidence on behalf of the defendant in said action. James S. Crew, of lawful age, was by me first duly examined cautioned and solemnly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and being so sworn, testified as follows:

Testimony of James S. Crew, called for defendant—sworn.

Mr. Green:

1 Q. Will you state your name, age and place of residence?

A. James S. Crew, age 49 years, residence Oakland, California, at present.

2 Q. Where were you residing in the spring of 1879?

A. Lawrence, Kansas.

3 Q. What business were you engaged in, if any, at that place.

A. Bookseller and stationery, and I was also at that time the receiver for the Simpson Bank.

4 Q. Do you know the plaintiff in this action?

A. I know her by sight, yes, sir.

2001 5 Q. Are you acquainted with one Levi Baldwin?

A. I am.

Q. Were you acquainted with him in the year 1879?

A. I was and for a long time before.

6 Q. Did you have any business transaction with him in that year, and if so, state in general what it was.

7 A. I was receiver of the Simpson Bank. I had 2 or more notes of Levi Baldwin as receiver of the Simpson Bank for collection.

8 Q. You may state whether those notes were due at that time?

A. They were. They had been due for some little time.

9 Q. You may state what, if anything, you had done towards collecting those notes?

A. My recollection of it is that there were 3 notes, 2 of which were secured by mortgage on real estate, and one chattel mortgage on live stock. I had talked of taking action for the foreclosure of these various mortgages and I had a great many consultations with Baldwin, both by going to his house which was about 12 miles north of Lawrence, and at my place of business, the office of the Simpson Bank. I had been unable to collect either principal or interest.

10 Q. About what time in the spring of that year was this, and what month?

A. Well, it was running through a number of months before the spring of 1879. The notes were due some time prior to that, and it began as was necessary at the time that the notes were due.

11 Q. You may state if you had any conversation with Mr. evi Baldwin as to how his indebtedness with the Simpson ank arose? A. I had.

12 Q. You may state what that conversation was?

A. I cannot give the words of the conversation, nor per- ips all of the items, which made up this indebtedness, but nong others was the statement that a part of this money had een furnished to insure the life of John W. Hillmon.

13 Q. About what time in the spring was this conversa- on?

A. It was near the 1st of March, I would say, shortly after y return to Illinois, which was the 20th of February.

14 Q. Do you remember of the circumstance of the reputed eath of John W. Hillmon? A. I do.

15 Q. Can you state about when you first heard of that rcumstance?

A. It was within a few days of the time of his death.

16 Q. In the latter part of March?

A. Yes, sir, the latter part of March.

17 Q. You may state if you had a conversation with Levi aldwin in regard to this indebtedness of his to the Simpson Bank, after you had heard of the reputed death of Hill- 902 mon? A. I had.

18 Q. State under what circumstances you had at, and the conversation as nearly as you can?

A. It was in the morning. I was in my store, and Mr. aldwin came in [eery] hurriedly, and stated to me to let our atters rest, as he was then on the way west after the body John W. Hillman, that he had arranged for a portion of e life insurance on the life of Mr. Hillman, and that as soon he got that, he would be able to straighten up all his affairs.

19 Q. What amount, if any, did he say he was to have of is insurance on the life of Hillmon?

A. My recollection is $10,000.

20 Q. You may state if you know what Levi Baldwin's nancial circumstances were at this time?

A. I tried to acquaint myself thoroughly with that in my tempts to collect his indebtedness, and I found him in very raitened circumstances, having quite an amount of prop- ty, but all mortgaged, and mostly mortgaged twice—first d second mortgages.

21 Q. You may state if you know whether or not this in- btedness was pressing him at this time?

A. It was severely.

JAMES S. CREW.

2003 The defendants and each of them next offered in evidence the testimony of Alexander Carr given upon the trial in 1896.

No objection was made to the reading of the same upon the ground of Mr. Carr's citizenship or whereabouts, but the plaintiff objected to the reading of said testimony because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The court overruled the objection, to which ruling, the plaintiff duly excepted.

Said testimony was thereupon read to the jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Alexander Carr.

Alexander Carr, called on behalf of defendants, being sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. Mr. Carr where do you reside?

A. Leavenworth county.

Q. How long have you resided in Leavenworth county?

A. About 19 years.

Q. What portion of Leavenworth county do you reside in?

A. In Tonganoxie Township—western part.

Q. Were you acquainted with one Levi Baldwin who lived near Tonganoxie? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember about when you became acquainted with him?

A. I was acquainted with him,—about 1877 I got acquainted with him.

Q. Did you have any business transactions with him?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What was your business along in 1878-9?

A. Farming and feeding cattle and buying stock.

Q. Now do you remember of being with Mr. Baldwin at the time, along say the month of March, 1879? A. Yes sir.

Q. Where did you see him then?

A. Me and him was out buying stock together.

2004 Q. Now do you remember when that was?

A. It was in March—we started about March 10th.

Q. Now did you know Mr. John W. Hillmon?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Now you may state, if you please, what conversation, if any you had with Mr. Baldwin in regard to any business transaction that he and Mr. Hillmon were in?

The plaintiff objected to the question as incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and calling for hearsay evidence. The court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the court, the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

A. I had one or two; he was talking to me a couple of times about his and John Hillmon's business—speaking about John Hillmon as much as a couple or three times.

Q. On that trip? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now you may state what he said?

The plaintiff objected to the question as incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial and calling for hearsay evidence. The court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the court, the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

A. Well, he was talking one day about him and Mr. Hillmon going into a sheep ranch together, talking about going into a sheep ranch together; and one day he was speaking about that he was under "brogue" with John W. Hillmon, and he said him and Hillmon had a scheme "under brogue", and he said if that worked out all right that he was all right.

Q. Now you may state Mr. Carr whether,—Had you at the time loaned Mr. Levi Baldwin any money?

The plaintiff objected to the question as incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, and calling for hearsay evidence. The court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the court, the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

2005

A. I let him have money on that trip, and then after that

Cross-examination

By Mr. Hutchings: I want to ask the witness one question: You testified at the last trial of this case? A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

2006 Each of the defendants ask leave of the Court to amend their answers instanter by charging Mrs. Hillmon with being a conspirator, with Baldwin, Hillmon and Brown, to cheat and defraud the defendants by the procurement of the policies, etc.

By the Court: I cannot do that at this late day.

To which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

2007 The defendants, and each of them, next read in evidence, the deposition of Daniel Walters, taken before Sabert M. Casey, a Notary Public at Fort Madison, Iowa, on May 25" & 26" 1881.

Said deposition is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

2008 Daniel Walters, a witness on behalf of defendant being duly sworn testified as follows:

No. 1 Question. State your name, age occupation and place of residence?

Ans. My name is Daniel Walters; age, 54 years, 55 years; am a gardner; reside at Fort Madison, Lee County, Iowa.

The hour of adjournment having arrived, it now being seven o'clock the taking of further evidence in this case is now adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow morning, Thursday May 26th, 1881, at same place.

May 25th, 1881.

[Seal] SABERT M. CASEY,
Notary Public.

The hour to which the taking of these depositions was adjourned, to wit, 8 o'clock a. m. Thursday May 26th, 1881, having arrived, the testimony of Daniel Walters was resumed. John Hutchings, Esq., appearing for the plaintiff and J. W. Green for the Defendant.

Question 2. What country are you a native of?

Ans. Germany.

Ques. 3. Are you a married man? Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 4. Of what country is your wife a native?

Ans. Germany.

Ques. 5. When did you come to this country?

2009 Ans. In 1849.

Ques. 6. Have you any children, and if so, how many?

Ans. Four children living.

Ques. 7. You say you have four children living, have you lost any by death? Ans. I lost three.

Ques. 8. Give their names?

Ans. The first two I have forgotten, they died as babies very young. The last ones name was Frederick Adolph.

Ques. 9. How old would Frederick Adolph be if living now?

Ans. Well he was born in 1855, twenty-six years old.

Ques. 10. When did you see Frederick Adolph last living?

Ans. It was when he started for the West in March 1877 or 1878. I think it was in 1877, my memory is so poor as to dates and names I can't recollect.

Ques. 11. Where was he when you last saw him?

Ans. At home in Fort Madison Iowa.

Ques. 12. Were you in the habit of hearing from Frederick Adolphus after he left home, and if so in what manner?

Ans. I heard regularly by letters every week or two.

Ques. 13. Up to what time?

Ans. I can't recollect the date, it was the first week in March, 1879 since we last heard from him.

Ques. 14. Where was he when you last heard from him?

Ans. In Wichita, Kansas.

Ques. 15. Will you describe the personal appearance of Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. He was a heavy built man, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, weight about one hundred and sixty (160) pounds, dark wavy hair, hazel eyes, nose heavy, sandy mustache. I think that is all.

Ques. 16. State as to the shape of the nose, as to whether it was of the roman or grecian type, State what the shape of his nose was?

Ans. Roman I suppose you call it.

Ques. 17. State as to his cheek bones whether they were low or prominent? Ans. Prominent.

Ques. 18. State whether or not he was broader through the the cheek bones than he was through the temples, or the broader part of his forehead?

Ans. Broader through the cheek bones.

Ques. 19. You have stated that his hair was wavy, was it slighty wavy or was it very wavy, and if so state the extent and how you know it? Ans. Very wavy, nearly curly.

Ques. 20. Will you describe his teeth; what was the character of his teeth?

2010 Ans. Sound, large white teeth, he took considerable pains with them.

Ques. 21. Will you describe his hands and feet?

Ans. Large heavy and long, like a large man will have. He wore a No. nine boot.

Ques. 22. State whether his fingers were long or short in comparison with the rest of his hand.

Ans. Long.

Ques. 23. What was his occupation?

Ans. Cigar maker.

Ques. 24. You have stated that you last heard from your son in Wichita, Kansas, about the first week of March 1879, what efforts if any have you made since that time to discover his whereabouts and whether living or not?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court sustained the objection to that part of the answer included within parenthesis.

To which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Ans. Since his letters failed to come, we were anxious that something happened to him he was a member of the odd-fellows. We made inquiries through his lodge about him, without any result, and then I made inquiries through my lodge the masonic lodge, to Wichita, Kansas, (which resulted in exchanging letters between the masters of the lodge at Fort Madison and the Master of the lodge there. At the same time the masters corresponded together and exchanged photographs, in which finally we recognized our son, as a dead man).

Ques. 25. Look at the photograph or picture which is now shown you by J. W. Green defts. attorney, and upon which he now requests the notary to place his official signature and seal and mark Exhibit "A," and state whether you recognize it to be the picture of any one you have ever seen, and if so, as the picture of whom?

Ans. It is the picture of my son Frederick Adolph Walters.

Ques. 26. You may state whether or not it is the picture of the person whom you have described?

Ans. It is.

The defendant now offers the picture or photograph marked Exhibit "A," in evidence. (Side view of cadaver.)

Cross-Examination

By counsel for Plaintiff:

Ques. 27. When did you come to Fort Madison, Iowa?

Ans. In 1853.

Ques. 28. Have you resided in the City of Fort Madison ever since? Ans. Yes sir.

2011 Ques. 29. Where did you reside previous to 1853, after you came to this country from Germany?

Ans. In St. Louis, Missouri.

Ques. 30. Were you a married man when you came from Germany? Ans. No sir.

Ques. 31. How old were you when you came from Germany? Ans. Twenty-three years.

Ques. 32. What part of Germany did you come from?

Ans. Grand Duchy of Baden.

Ques. 33. When were you married? Ans. In 1851.

Ques. 34. Where? Ans. St. Louis.

Ques. 35 Is the wife you then married still living?

Ans. Yes, sir, she is now living with me.

Ques. 36. How many children did you say you had lost?

Ans. Three.

Ques. 37. Two of these you say died in infancy, had they any names?

Ans. They had but I have forgotten one of them at least.

Ques. 38. Was the one whose name you have forgotten a boy or a agirl? Ans. A girl.

Ques. 39. What was the name of the other infant?

Ans. Adolph.

Ques. 40. Was it a boy? Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 41. Were these two infants your first children?

Ans. No sir.

Ques. 43. About how long ago did you die?

Ans. Well I could not tell the year, as I told you before my memory is not good as to figures.

Ques. 48. About how long ago did they die.

Ans. About in 1856, one died in 1854, the other I think in 1856. I have my family record and can shown the dates exactly by it.

Ques. 44. What is the names of your other children, the four you refer to as now living?

Ans. Charles Robert Walters; Elizabeth Walters, Fanny Walters; and Anna Walters.

Ques. 45. Are they all unmarried? Ans. No sir.

Ques. 46. Which ones aremarried?

Ans. Elizabeth, my oldest daughter is married, her married name is Reifenach.

Ques. 47. Any of the rest married?

2012 Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 48. Where is Charles Robert Walters?

Ans. In Rich Hill, Missouri.

Ques. 49. Is he your oldest son? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 50. What is his age? Ans. About 28 or 29.

Ques. 51. Is he the oldest of the family? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 52. Was he the first child you had born?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 53. Which one is the youngest? Ans. Annie.

Ques. 54. Which one next to Charles Robert?

Ans. Elizabeth.

Ques. 55. Which was next to Elizabeth? Ans. Fannie.

Ques. 56. You speak of one Frederick Adolph, where was he born? Ans. At Ft. Madison.

Ques. 57. What was his business? Ans. A cigar maker.

Ques. 58. Where and of whom did he learn his trade?

Ans. Of Charles Hinzie, Fort Madison.

Ques. 59. When did he commence learning this trade with Hinzie?

Ans. About 1872-3-or 4. I could not tell exactly.

Ques. 60. During the time he was learning his trade did he board at your house? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 61. Previous to the time he went to learn his trade of Hinzie what did he do?

Ans. He went to school and worked on my farm.

Ques. 62. Where is your farm?

Ans. One mile east of here on the Burlington road.

Ques. 63. How long have you had that farm?

Ans. Well about twenty years.

Ques. 64. Did your son Frederick Adolph ever do anything else or follow any other business but what you have stated?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 65. While working on the farm was he ever in the habit of driving horses? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 66. Did you ever know of his being kicked by a horse?

2013 Ans. Yes, he was either kicked or thrown off of a mule.

Ques. 67. How much was he hurt?

Ans. Nothing at the time, we didn't know it until he told it himself some months afterwards.

Ques. 68. Do you know whereabouts on his body he was kicked? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 69. Do you know whether any mark was left on his body resulting from that kick? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 70. Did you ever know of his being bitten by a dog?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 71. On what part of his body was he bitten?

Ans. On one of his calves on one of his legs I don't know which.

Ques. 72. About how far up on his leg, from his heel.

Ans. Near under the calf. I can't tell whether it was six inches or a foot from his heel.

Ques. 73. When was he so bitten?

Ans. As a boy about eight or ten years old.

Ques. 74. Did you see the wound after he was bitten?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 75. Do you remember of looking at it after it healed up? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 76. Did you see it frequently after it healed up?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 77. Do you remember of seeing the scar after he was almost grown up? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 78. When was the last time you saw that scar, resulting from the bite of that dog?

Ans. I could not tell within five or eight years when I saw it last.

Ques. 79. How long do you think it was before he went away from home.

Ans. Well it might have been five or six years before, since I saw the scar last.

Ques. 80. Was the bite a pretty severe one?

Ans. It was at the time when he was a boy.

Ques. 81. Did you ever know of his having fallen in a barn down from above, at any time? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 82. Did you ever know of his receiving any injury by falling or being accidentally hit by some machinery while he worked at the farm? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 83. While he was at work learning his trade did you ever know of or have any intimation of his having cut his hand by a knife used in making cigars.

2014 Ans. No, sir; not to any importance that I know of.

Ques. 84. Don't you know that he had a scar on the back of his hand that was occasioned by the cut of a knife, on the back side of his hands or fingers.

Ans. No, sir, I do not.

Ques. 85. Mr. Walters do you remember of your son Frederick Adolph Walters being vaccinated at any time when he was a boy? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 85. Do you remember whether it worked or not?

Ans. Yes, sir; it worked well.

Ques. 87. About how old was he when this was done?

Ans. From one to three years old, I suppose.

Ques. 88. Was he vaccinated in more than one place?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 89. Can you tell which arm the vaccination was made on? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 90. You stated that when you last saw him, that it was in March, 1877 or 1878, when he started for the west, was he well, in good health at that time when he left Fort Madison and left your place? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 91. Do you know where he went to when he left here, if so, state.

Ans. I think he went directly to Kansas.

Ques. 92. Can you tell from what point you first received news from him?

Ans. Not exactly, without having the letter on hand.

Ques. 93. Can you tell when you first heard from him after he went away? Ans. The first two weeks after.

Ques. 94. How did you hear from him? Ans. By letters.

Ques. 95. To whom?

Ans. I don't know whether to myself or his sister.

Ques. 96. Do you know where those letters are that you received from him after he went away?

Ans. Some are at home and some are lost.

Ques. 97. Who had charge and possession of these letters after they were received? Ans. My daughter Fannie.

Ques. 98. Does your daughter Fannie live with you?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 99. Do you know where the letters are that were received from Wichita? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 100. Where are they?

2015 Ans. Fannie has one and Miss Kasten has one, that's all.

Ques. 101. Are those all the letters you know of received from Wichita? Ans. They are all.

Ques. 102. Where does Miss Kasten reside?

Ans. Up on Second street in Fort Madison.

Ques. 103. Who was the master of the masonic lodge here you referred to in your direct examination?

Ans. W. C. Hobbs.

Ques. 104. Where does he reside? Ans. St. Louis.

Ques. 105. Where did he reside at the time you said he communicated with the master of the lodge at Wichita?

Ans. Fort Madison.

Ques. 106. Did you ever see any letters that were written from Wichita here in relation to your son Frederick Adolph except the one to your daughter Fannie and the one to Miss Kasten? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 107. Can you now state what month and year it was your son left? Ans. In March, 1876 or 1877.

Ques. 108. It was in the month of March you are sure?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 109. Where are the letters that you received from your son, after he left, before he went to Wichita?

Ans. At home.

Ques. 110. All of them? Ans. No, some are lost.

Ques. 111. Do you know how many are lost?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 112. Do you know how many you have that are not lost? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 113. Do you know how long it was after your son left home, up to the time you say you received the last letter from him from Wichita? Ans. One or two years.

Ques. 114. Can you not state nearer than that?

Ans. No, sir, I have stated he left home in 1876 or 1877.

Ques. 115. Mr. Walters you never made a measurement of your son's height? Ans. Not positive, no, sir.

Ques. 116. Did you ever weigh him at or about the time he left? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 117. When did you weigh him?

Ans. I never kept a record. I don't know. Within the last year or two when he was home I saw him weighed.

Ques. 118. When did you weigh your son Frederick Adolph Walters yourself? Ans. About in 1876.

2016 Ques. 119. What month in 1876?

Ans. I could not tell the month.

Ques. 120. Where did you weigh him? Ans. At home.

Ques. 121. What did you weigh him with?

Ans. With a standard scales.

Ques. 122. What kind of standard scales?
Ans. I don't know the name of it.
Ques. 123. Who did the scales belong to?
Ans. To myself.
Ques. 124. Where are these scales now?
Ans. I sold them to Ed Hoffman.
Ques. 125. How much did your son weigh at that time you weighed him yourself?
Ans. One hundred and some sixty-odd pounds.
Ques. 126. Did you keep any memorandum of that weight?
Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 127. When was your attention first called to the fact of your weighing him in 1876 since?
Ans. I don't understand the question.
Ques. 128. Since you weighed your son in 1876, when was your attention called to the transaction of weighing him?
Ans. Nobody ever called my attention to it.
Ques. 129. Have you ever had any conversation with anybody about his weight since he left Fort Madison?
Ans. Yes.
Ques. 130. Who have you had such conversation with?
Ans. With his brother Robert, with his old comrades and the family generally.
Ques. 131. Have you had a conversation with anybody else in regard to his weight?
Ans. I suppose I did. I could not mention anybody especially.
Ques. 132. In any of these conversations was anything said about your weighing him in 1876? Ans. I don't know.
Ques. 133. You stated that he had a Roman nose as distinguished from a Grecian nose, what do you mean by Roman nose?
Ans. I suppose I mean what everybody else means by a Roman nose.
Ques. 134. What do you understand or mean by a Roman nose?
Ans. It is the bend that we call a Roman nose. The witness here showed that a Roman nose is one that is not straight but bends up a little.
Ques. 135. What do you understand or mean by a 2017 Grecian nose?
Ans. I don't know, I am not much of a judge of noses, there are so many styles of noses.
Ques. 136. Was your son's nose crooked?
Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 137. How was it crooked?
Ans. I could not tell how much.

Ques. 138. How do you mean by crooked, do you mean it wsa crooked sideways or on his face or otherwise?

Ans. It was not crooked sideways, but only bent as stated above, like a Roman nose generally is.

Ques. 139. You stated his mustache was sandy, was his mustache light or dark in color?

Ans. It is a little lighter than his hair was.

Ques. 140. Was his hair sandy? Ans. No, sir; dark.

Ques. 141. Was his hair on his head sandy at all?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 142 Did he generally call his hair black?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 143. What color did you call his hair?

Ans. Dark brown.

Ques. 144. Was it coarse or fine? Ans. Coarse.

Ques. 145. Did you ever examine his teeth after he was grown up? Ans. Not examine them; I saw them.

Ques. 146. You saw them just as you would see anybody's with whom you were talking and saw laugh?

Ans. Not exactly.

Ques. 147. How do you know he wore No. 9 boots?

Ans. Because I just know it.

Ques. 148. Did you ever measure his boots to see what the length of them were? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 149. Do you know who made his boots the last years he lived here?

Ans. Not exactly. It could be found out if necessary.

Ques. 150. Have you stated now all the marks or scars that you knew of on your son's body, marks or scars.

Ans. I think so, all that was asked.

Ques. 151. Do you know of any other marks or scars that were upon your son's body, more than you have already stated? Ans. I do not.

Ques. 152. Mr. Walters, do you remember or did 2018 you ever know of any scar anywhere on your son's forehead? Ans. No.

Ques. 153. When did you first see the photograph marked Exhibit "A" shown to you this forenoon by defendants counsel, and by him offered in evidence.

Ans. This morning.

Ques. 154. How long did you look and examine that photograph before you gave your testimony in regard to it?

Ans. About only one minute.

Ques. 155. Do you read with spectacles or glasses?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 156. Did you have any glasses on when you looked at that picture? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 157. Do you know where and when that photograph was made? Ans. I do not positively.

Ques. 158. Have you any knowledge of your own as to where and when that photograph was made?

Ans. I believe I do, I suppose I have.

Ques. 159. Were you present when that photograph was made? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 160. Did you ever see the man that made it?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 161. Did you ever have any conversation or communication with the man that made it? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 162. Were you ever in Lawrence, Kansas?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 163. Who showed you this photograph the first time you ever saw it.

Ans. Mr. Green, attorney for the defendant.

Ques. 164. Did any one ever show it to you before Mr. Green showed it to you on the witness stand? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 165. Mr. Walters have you had any conversation with anybody about your testimony in this case or about the case since we adjourned to go to dinner? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 166. Have you had any conversation with anybody about this case since March, 1879? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 167. Did those conversations or any of them have any reference to the facts you have testified to?

Ans. No, sir.

2019 Ques. 168. Have you had any conversation with any parties whomsoever since January 1st, 1880, in relation to the facts you have been asked to testify about here today, and that you have testified about?

Ans. Of course I have.

Ques. 169. When did you have the first conversation of that kind. Ans. I could not tell. It was the whole talk.

Ques. 170. Now, Mr. Walters, what business did you follow in Germany before you came to this country?

Ans. Tailoring business.

Ques. 171. What business did you follow in St. Louis before you came to Fort Madison? Ans. Tailoring.

Ques. 172. What business did you follow in Fort Madison when you first came here? Ans. Merchant tailoring.

Ques. 173. How long did you follow that business?

Ans. About fifteen years.

Ques. 174. What did you do next after that.

Ans. Kept a saloon for one year about, then went to farming.

Ques. 175. Which business you have followed ever since?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 176. State whether during last season 1880 or this season previous hereto, you were visited by any of the attorneys or parties representing the defendants, in regard to this matter? Ans. Yes.

Ques. 177. When was that, state as near as you can?

Ans. Well, it was right after the discovery of my son's death. It was soon after the discovery of my son's death from Jan. 1880, ever since.

Ques. 178. The last time you saw your son he was alive and well, was he not? Ans. Yes, sir.

Q. And that was at Fort Madison, Iowa? Ans. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Defts. Counsel:

Ques. 180. You may state whether or not it was after the correspondence had between the master of the lodge at Fort Madison and the master of the lodge at Wichita, that you first had any conversation with the attorneys or parties representing the defendant in regard to the facts about which you have testified. Ans. After the correspondence.

Ques. 181. You may now state whether you have had any conversation or correspondence with the attorneys or parties representing the plaintiff Sallie E. Hillmon in respect 2020 to the facts and circumstances to which you have testified? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 182. You stated in your cross-examination in response to the question as to whether you had any knowledge where the photograph marked Exhibit "A" was made in answer that. I believe I do, state where you first saw a photograph similar to the one marked Exhibit "A" and from whom you received it or by whom was it shown to you?

Question withdrawn.

Ques. 183. You stated in your cross-examination in answer to the question (have you any knowledge of your own as to when and where that photograph was made, answered, I believe I do. I suppose I have). State when if any time you ever saw a picture identical to the one marked Exhibit "A" if so, from whom did you receive it or by whom was it shown to you?

Ans. I received one in January, 1880, it was sent to me, from the master of the lodge in Wichita.

Ques. 184. You stated in your cross-examination in substance that you only looked at the picture marked Exhibit "A" about one minute, state if you ever saw a picture similar to the one marked Exhibit "A" and identical with it prior to the time that the picture marked Exhibit "A" was shown to you, and if so when did you receive it and from whom?

Ans. Yes sir I did. I received it from the master of the Wichita lodge in January, 1880.

Ques. 185. State whether or not you ever saw a picture similar and identical to the one marked Exhibit "A", and if so when did you see it and from whom did you receive it?

Ans. In January, 1880, received from the master of the Wichita lodge.

Ques. 186. What became of that picture.

Ans. I had to send it back.

Ques. 187. When you state that your son's nose bent up, to what portion of the nose do you refer, that which is designated as the end of the nose or the bridge or the middle of the nose? Ans. The bridge towards the middle.

Ques. 188. Look at Exhibit "A" and state whether the curve in the nose of the body there exhibited is the same as the curve which you have described?

Ans. It is the same.

Recross-examination

By Plff. Counsel:

Ques. 189. State who it was you had conversations with or correspondence with representing the plaintiff Sallie E. Hillmon in respect to the facts and circumstances to which you have testified?

2021 Ans. I received a letter—Mr. Clark—

Ques. 190. Can you give his full name?

Ans. I can give it within three or four days.

Ques. 191. Was that letter addressed to you?

Ans. I do not know positively. It was handed to me if not addressed to me.

Ques. 192. If it was handed to you who handed it to you?

Ans. Mr. Munn, our sheriff.

Ques. 193. Have you got that letter in your possession?

Ans. I don't know, I believe not.

Ques. 194. What did you do with the letter?

Ans. Don't know.

Ques. 195. Will you make a search for that letter and find it and produce it here to the Notary Public?

Ans. I will if I can.

Ques. 196. Where is the letter you received with the photograph you speak of, in Janaary, 1880?

Ans. I was looking for those letters this morning but could not find them.

Ques. 197. Do you know whose name was signed to that letter? Ans. I do not remember.

Ques. 198. Can you remember where that letter was mailed?

Ans. I think it was Wichita, but can't say positively.

Ques. 199. Was it addressed to you?

Ans. No, it was addressed to Mr. Hobbs.

Ques. 200. Can you swear that that letter was not mailed at Lawrence, Kansas? Ans. I can not.

Ques. 201. Will you make further search for that letter and try to produce it here to the notary public.

Ans. I will if necessary.

Ques. 202. How long did you retain the photograph you speak of having received in January, 1880?

Ans. About a week or ten days.

Ques. 203. Who did you send it to?

Ans. I think Mr. Hobbs sent them back to Wichita or Lawrence, I don't know.

Ques. 204. Have you seen that photograph since?

Ans. No sir.

Ques. 205. What was the name of the master of the Wichita lodge? Ans. I do not remember.

Ques. 206. Do you know whether there was anything else papers or anything else, that was sent when the photograph was returned in January, 1880?

2022 Ans. I do not know.

Ques. 207. Was there more than one photograph?

Ans. Yes, there were two.

Ques. 208. Were they both returned? Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 209. Do you know of anybody having obtained possession from your house of any of the letters you have spoken of? Ans. Nobody but some of my family.

Ques. 210. Do you know whether Mr. Munn here present one of the attorneys representing the deft., has any of these letters in his possession?

Ans. He has not. I did not give up any of the letters.

Ques. 211. Did you have any knowledge or information that Mr. Munn went to your house and took a portion of these letters into his possession?

Ans. I know he has not to my knowledge.

Ques. 212. Do you remember when your son C. R. Walters was at home last? Ans. Last summer.

Ques. 213. Did Mr. Munn come to your house while your son was home? Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 214. Did you hear any conversation between your son and Mr. Munn in regard to these letters?

Ans. No special conversation took place, we talked all together.

Ques. 215. Was anything said about these letters or any of them? Ans. I do not remember.

Ques. 216. Do you not know that Mr. Munn went back to the house for the purpose of getting some of them?

Ans. I do not.

Ques. 217. If you have never given Mr. Munn any of these letters and he has none as you say you know how do you account for his statement made in your presence a few moments ago that he was able to show us what they contained and that he would do so some time hereafter.

Ans. I do not know.

Ques. 218. You have stated that quite a number of these letters are lost, how did they become to be lost?

Ans. Taken as being of no interest I suppose. I don't keep a letter if it is of no interest to me.

Ques. 219. These letters then written about matters connected with matters relating to your lost and as you supposed dead son, were of no interest to you were they, not sufficient to require you to take care of them?

Ans. I don't know what to answer in that, because all the letters that I received would not alter the case.

2023 Ques. 220. What did you save any of them for then, why didn't you destroy them all?

Ans. No answer to that question.

Ques. 221. You stated that your memory for dates and figures was very poor did you not? Ans. It is.

Ques. 222. You can't remember so as to swear positively when your son left home, can you?

Ans. No, not by one year at least as I stated 76 or 77.

Ques. 223. Didn't you first state 1877 or 1878?

Ans. No sir.

Ques. 224. Now if you can't remember within a year how long your son went away from home how are you able to state that he weighed one hundred and sixty odd pounds in 1876 as a matter of memory?

Ans. Because I weighed the whole family at that time and heard it repeated so often. That's all.

Ques. 225. Didn't you state that you had no conversation with anybody on that subject and that the matter of your weighing him had not been called to your attention from that time up to last summer?

Ans. As I stated before I heard it stated so often in the family.

Ques. 226. Didn't you state that you had no conversation with anybody on that subject, and that the matter of your weighing him had not been called to your attention from that time up to last summer.

Ans. I don't exactly know. I don't know positively whether I stated so or not.

Redirect Examination

By Defts. Counsel:

Ques. 227. State if at the time you speak of when your son was at home, and that Mr. Munn was here, the conversation between Mr. Munn and your son, if any there was, was not mostly held in your absence or not directly in your presence?

Ans. I think the whole conversation took place in my presence.

Not being able to complete the taking of these depositions by reason of the lateness of the hour, it now being six o'clock, the further taking thereof is adjourned until tomorrow morning, Friday morning, May 27th, 1881, at eight o'clock at same place. May 26th, 1881.

[Seal] SABERT M. CASEY, Notary Public.

The taking of these depositions was resumed pursuant to adjournment Friday morning, May 27th, 1881.

Ques. 228. Mr. Walters have you made search for those letters, the one accompanying the photograph received by you in January, 1880, and the one you state you received from Mr. Clark? Ans. I have.

2024 Ques. 229. Have you found them?

Ans. I found one. I haven't found them. I found one of Mr. Clark's letters, addressed to my son C. R. Walters, St. Louis.

Ques. 230. You say of the two letters I referred to you have you not found either of them? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 231. The letter you have found was not sent to you was it? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 232. It was not written to you was it?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 233. How do you come to have it?

Ans. By searching for those letters. It was in a package of letters that my son left here last summer concerning the Hilmon case.

Ques. 234. How many letters have you got of your son's concerning the Hilmon case? Ans. I don't know.

Ques. 235. Did you read all the letters in the package out of which you took this one? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 236. How do you know then that they are concerning the Hilmon case.

Ans. The package is marked as such.

Ques. 237. And out of that whole package of letters you only found one letter from Mr. Clark. Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 238. You mean you only found that.

Ans. Yes, sir, that is all.

Re-examination

By Counsel for Defendant:

Ques. 240. Have you the letter which you state you have in your possession written by H. S. Clark to your son C. R. Walters here present with you? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 241. Are you willing to produce it?
Ans. Yes, sir.

Re-cross examination.

Ques. 242. Who found this letter. Ans. I did.
Ques. 243. Did you take the letter out of the package?
Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 244. Where did you get the package?
Ans. My son left it here I got it at home up-stairs in a little trunk of his own, my son Roberts.
2025 Ques. 245. What time did you find it last night?
Ans. About seven o'clock.
Ques. 246. This trunk contains things which belong to your son, does it not? A. Yes, sir.
Ques. 247. Then you did not find this letter among your own letters and papers. Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 248. Have you shown this letter to Mr. Munn or Mr. Green? Ans. I have shown it to Mr. Munn.
Ques. 249. When? Ans. Last night.
[—] Where? Ans. At the Central Hotel.
Ques. 251. Did you offer to show it at any time to the attorney of or any one representing the plff. in this action?
Ans. No, sir. I will answer in full, as I was to sign. I took that letter along as I was to sign my deposition.
Ques. 252. You knew this was not one of the letters I requested you to bring in didn't you? Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 253. Mr. Walters did you ever receive any other photographs than those you received through the master of the Lodge in Jan. 1880? Ans. No, sir, I think not.

Redirect Examination

By Counsel for Defendant:
Ques. 254. Is it not a fact Mr. Walters that counsel for the plaintiff instructed you to search for any letters which you might have in your possession from H. S. Clark, and especially the letter which you stated Mr. Clark wrote to you and also the letter accompanying the photograph sent you by the master of the lodge at Wichita. Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 255. Now you may state Mr. Walters how you came to go to the Central Hotel last night?
Ans. As I was instructed to sign the deposition and bring some letters which it was requested, that's all.
Ques. 256. Was the signing of the deposition postponed for the purpose that you might search for and produce these letters if you could find them? Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 257. How often did you come to the hotel last night in pursuance of this appointment?

2026 Ans. Twice.

Ques. 258. Did you find either Mr. Hutchings or Mr. Clark there at either of these times you were there?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 259. Did you find the Notary Mr. Casey there at either of these times? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 260. Where did you understand Mr. Hutchings counsel for plff. to be?

Ans. At the Central. I understood he was sick in bed; went to bed.

Ques. 261. How did it come that you did not sign your deposition last evening according to appointment.

Ans. Because Mr. Green nor Mr. Hutchings was there.

Ques. 263. Was not the further reason given to you that Mr. Hutchings was sick and they did not want to disturb him.

Ans. Don't know of any.

Ques. 263. Did not Mr. Munn inform you and the Notary that Mr. Hutchings was sick up-stairs, and that you had better wait until morning and come in and sign the deposition?

Ans. Yes, sir. DANIEL WALTER.

2027 The defendants, and each of them, next read in evidence the deposition of William H. Timpe, taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., May 25, et seq. 1881, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

William H. Timpe, a witness of lawful age being produced by defendant duly sworn, testified as follows:

Ques. 1 State your name, age, place of residence, and occupation?

A. William H. Timpe, age 29 years the 8th day of next August; occupation, cigar making, reside in Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 2. State whether or not you were every acquainted with a man by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 3. State where you last saw Frederick Adolph Walters.

A. I seen Adolph Walters the last in Wichita, Kansas, the middle part of February, from the first to the last part of February, this last February two years ago.

Ques. 4. Where was he when you first became acquainted with him?

A. Fort Madison, Iowa, about eleven years ago.

Ques. 5. What was he doing, if anything, when you saw him in Wichita, Kansas, in February, two years ago?

A. He was back in the shop working at his trade, making cigars.

Ques. 6. Look at the picture now shown you by J. W. Green one of defendant's attorneys and state whether or not you recognize it as the picture or photograph of any one you have heretofore seen and if so of whom is it a photograph?

A. Yes, sir. I recognize the photograph Adolph Walters.

Ques. 7. Is that the person you say you became acquainted with at Fort Madison, and afterwards saw at Wichita, Kansas?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 8. State if you can the name of the father of this Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. The first name I couldnt say; I never took much notice.

Ques. 9. Do you know in what town and state the father of this Frederick Adolph Walters resides, if so please state?

A. Fort Madison, State of Iowa, Lee County.

Cross-examination.

By Plaintiff's Attorney:

2028 Ques. 10. How long have you lived in Fort Madison?

A. Off and on eleven years.

Ques. 11. Where have you been when you were off?

A. I have traveled through different parts of the country.

Ques. 12. State when you first came to Fort Madison, give us the year, month and the day as near as you can?

A. I came to Fort Madison in 1870, on the 14th day of December.

Ques. 12. Where did you come from when you came to Fort Madison? A. From St. Louis, Missouri.

Ques. 13. How long did you live in St. Louis?

A. About three years.

Ques. 14. What did you do while you were in St. Louis?

A. I learned the cigarmaking trade.

Ques. 15. Who with?

A. Alex. Ehler; it was between Barry and Maryon street, 1506 Carondelet avenue at that time.

Ques. 16. Where did you come from when you went to St. Louis? A. Germany.

Ques. 17. How old was you then?

A. About fifteen, a little over.

Ques. 18. From what part of Germany did you come?

A. Brunswick.

Ques. 19. Did your parents come with you? A. No, sir.

Ques. 20. Any relatives come with you?

A. No, sir, I came by myself.

Ques. 21. When you came to Fort Madison, what did you do? A. I worked some time at my trade at Charles Hinze.

Ques. 22. How long? A. About two months the first time.

Ques 23. What did you then do?

A. I went to work at the Metropolitan Hotel, worked there for about nine months as nightwatch.

Ques. 24. What next did you do?

A. After that I went to work for Mr. Hinze again.

Ques. 25. How long? A. About a year.

Ques. 26. What next did you do?

A. After I left him I went four months on the railroad as newsboy and peanut boy.

Ques. 27. What road was that? A. On the C. B. & Q.

Ques. 28. What next did you do?

2029 Ans. From that I went up to Burlington.

Ques. 29. What did you do in Burlington?

Ans. Worked at my trade, cigar making, about a year, for Dempsy and Heitmeyer.

Ques. 30. How long did you remain in Burlington?

Ans. All that time.

Ques. 31. Where did you go to from Burlington?

Ans. St. Louis.

Q. 32. How long did you stay in St. Louis?

Ans. For some time; I can't state how long.

Ques. 33. About how long? Ans. About three months.

Ques. 34. What did you do while you were in St. Louis at that time? Ans. Worked at my trade.

Ques. 35. Did you work at your trade all the time you were in St. Louis, last mentioned? Ans. Yes, sir, up to day.

Ques. 36. Where did you go to from St. Louis?

Ans. Came back home to Fort Madison.

Ques. 37. Who did you work for while you worked in St. Louis, at the last time mentioned?

Ans. William Grenninger.

Ques. 38. What did you do after you came back to Fort Madison? Ans. Worked for Charlie Hinze.

Ques. 39. How long? Ans. About six months.

Ques. 40. Where did you go to then, and what did you do?

Ans. Stayed here in town; worked for Mr. Temmel.

Ques. 41. How long? Ans. About three months.

Ques. 42. Where did you go then, and what next did you do?

Ans. I left, went to Montrose, Iowa, worked at my trade, for George W. Kiel, about nine months, came back to Fort Madison.

Ques. 43. What then did you do?

Ans. I started in business for myself.

Ques. 44. How long did you run it?

Ans. About, some over a year, here in Fort Madison, and about four months in Bloomfield, Iowa.

2030 Ques. 45. Where then did you go and what then did you do?

Ans. I came back home, went to Burlington, worked there about a week, left from there, went to Keokuk, worked there about four months for Mrs. Stebblemen.

Ques. 46. From Keokuk where did you go and what next did you do? Ans. Left Keokuk, went to Chicago.

Ques. 47. What did you do?

Ans. Worked at my trade, for, first went to work for Louis Timpe, who was known here as Temmel, here went under an assumed name. He was no relation of mine. Next worked for Goldsmith & Brothers, Klages, I left them and went to Milwaukee.

Ques. 48. How long were you there in Chicago?

Ans. About seven months.

Ques. 49. What did you do in Milwaukee, who did you work for, and how long?

Ans. Didn't work for anybody, didn't stay there but three days.

Ques. 50. Where did you go next?

Ans. From that time till up to August 17th of last year I traveled through the country, different parts.

Ques. 51. What time was it you left Milwaukee, what year and month at that time?

Ans. Three years ago last 27th day of February.

Ques. 52. Now, just tell us where you traveled to after you left Milwaukee. Give us your routes.

Ans. From Milwaukee back to Chicago. From Chicago to Aurora. From Aurora to Ottawa. From Ottawa to Galesburg. At Galesburg I met a partner of mine named Johnnie Smith, lived in Kansas City, we used to call him Jack Smith, he was an Irishman. From Galesburg him and I went to Quincy. From Quincy to St. Jo. From St. Jo. to Atchison. He went to Leavenworth. I went with him and I left him there. I went to Kansas City. I took work there.

Ques. 53. Was Johnnie Smith a cigarmaker?

Ans. Yes, sir.

2031 Ques. 54. In what were you and Johnnie Smith partners? Ans. Just for company sake.

Ques. 55. Did you and he have any arrangements or business together of any kind in which you were partners?

Ans. Yes, sir. He asked me to go out west with him.

Ques. 56. Was that all the interest or arrangements you had together as partners?

Ans. Yes, sir. He told me we could get work there.

Ques. 57. Did you and he work at your trade any from the time you left Galesburg until you got to Leavenworth?

Ans. I haven't worked any between that time.

Ques. 58. Do you know where Johnnie Smith now is?

Ans. No, sir, don't keep track of him.

Ques. 59. Whereabouts in Kansas City did he live?
Ans. I never was to his house.
Ques. 60. Have you any information as to where he lived?
Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 61. Had you ever seen him before you struck him as a partner at Galesburg? Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 62. Why did you leave him at Leavenworth?
Ans. He got work and I could not get any, that's all the reason.
Ques. 63. Did you have any other reason than simply because you could not get work?
Ans. That's the only reason I left.
Ques. 64. Who did he go to work for? Ans. Wetzel.
Ques. 65. Now about what time and month was it you left Leavenworth?
Ans. It was in the Fall, somewhere around there, the same year I left Milwaukee, 1878.
Ques. 66. About what month was it you left Leavenworth?
Ans. Somewhere about the 1st part of November. It was Fall, there was snow on the ground.
Ques. 67. Now, how long did you stay in Kansas City?
Ans. About till the 1st part of February. I left there in February some time.
2032 Ques. 68. What year? Ans. 1879.
Ques. 69. What did you do while you were in Kansas City? Ans. Worked at my trade.
Ques. 70. For whom? Ans. John Meyer.
Ques. 71. How long did you work for Meyer?
Ans. All that time I was in Kansas City.
Ques. 72. About how many months?
Ans. Well, about three months and a half.
Ques. 73. From Kansas City where did you go?
Ans. I went to the State of Kansas, to Wichita.
Ques. 74. Did you stop any place between Kansas City and Wichita?
Ans. Not at that time. I beat my way and stopped at several places, but didn't know the names of the places and didn't take any work.
Ques. 75. What do you mean by beating your way?
Ans. Don't pay no railroad fare.
Ques. 76. What day of the month did you arrive in Wichita.
Ans. It was the middle of the week, don't know whether it was Wednesday or Thursday. I left the fore part of the week from Kansas City.
Ques. 77. Can you state the day of the month you arrived at Wichita?
Ans. Well, I stated once before I came there the middle of February. It was the middle of the month.

Ques. 78. Where did you go to after you got to Wichita?
Ans. I stayed there a while in Wichita. I staid with a friend of mine from Fort Madison, name of Adolph Walter. That's the only name I know of him.
Ques. 79. Where did Adolph Walter board?
Ans. I didn't find him at a boarding house, I found him where he worked.
Ques. 80. Where did he work?
Ans. He worked for a man named Holdschnieder, he carried on business at that time I was there.
2033 Ques. 81. Did you eat with Walters, at the same place?
Ans. I eat with him where he boarded.
Ques. 82. Where did he board?
Ans. I don't know the name of the house; it was on the same street where the livery stable is on, on the left hand side, when you come from the shop to go to the boarding house, it is above livery stagle.
Ques. 83. Was it a hotel? Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 84. Do you remember the name of the man who kept it?
Ans. No, sir. I only staid there a few days.
Ques. 85. How many days did you take your meals there with Walters?
Ans. I had dinner, supper, lodging, breakfast, dinner and supper.
Ques. 86. That was with Walters, at his expense?
Ans. That I don't know anything about.
Ques. 87. Then you don't know whether your bill was ever paid or not?
Ans. No, sir, he asked me as a friend to stay with him. He gave me $2.00 which he borrowed of his friends.
Ques. 88. Where did you go to board after you left that boarding house? Ans. I left Wichita.
Ques 79. Where did you go to from Wichita?
Ans. I went to Topeka.
Ques. 80. Did you beat your way to Topeka?
Ans. It is no one's business.
Ques. 81. Did you beat your way to Topeka?
Ans. I beat my way, of course. I didn't have any money in the first place except what I got from Walters.
Ques. 82. How long did you stay in Topeka?
Ans. Several days.
Ques. 83. What did you do while there? Ans. Nothing.
Ques. 84. Where did you get your board and lodging?
Ans. I got it from friends.
Ques. 85. Who were your friends at Topeka?
Ans. Cigarmakers.

2034 Ques. 86. Name them.
Ans. Don't keep track of them.
Ques. 87. Give us the name of a single cigar maker friend in Topeka that you met at that time that you had ever seen before.
Ans. The one that asked me, Stavelin—there was none.
Ques. 88. Then the cigar makers in Topeka when you arrived there were all strangers to you, were they not?
Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 89. Where did you go to from Topeka?
Ans. Fort Scott.
Ques. 90. Did you beat your way to that place?
Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 91. How long did you stay in Fort Scott?
Ans. About a day.
Ques. 92. Did you stay over night at that place?
Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 93. Where did you sleep?
Ans. At a boarding house or hotel, whatever it was.
Ques. 94. Just tell us where the boarding house or hotel was situated in Fort Scott. Ans. I couldn't tell you.
Ques. 95. Who paid the bill?
Ans. Cigar makers, I guess.
Ques. 96. Do you know whether it was ever paid at all?
Ans. No, I don't know anything about it and don't care either.
Ques. 97. Where did you go to from Fort Scott?
Ans. Atchison.
Ques. 98. How far was it from Fort Scott to Atchison?
Ans. Don't know how many miles; never counted them.
Ques. 99. About how far?
Ans. Couldn't tell anything about it.
Ques. 100. Did you beat your way from Fort Scott to Atchison. Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 101. About how many days did it take you to make the trip from Fort Scott to Atchison?
Ans. Well, I didn't keep track. I can't do it, it is too long ago.
Ques. 102. It is so long ago that you can't tell how many days it took you to travel from Fort Scott to Atchison, as a matter of memory can you? Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 103. Where did you go to from Atchison?
Ans. Went to Leavenworth.
Ques. 104. Did you beat your way from Atchison to Leavenworth. Ans. Correct. I did.
2035 Ques. 105. How long did you remain in Leavenworth? Ans. For some five or six weeks.
Ques. 106. Did you come across Jonnie Smith while there?
Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 107. What did you do while in Leavenworth?
Ans. Worked at my trade.
Ques. 108. Who for. Ans. Simmons and Staiger.
Ques. 109. How long did you work for them?
Ans. All the time I stayed in Leavenworth, 5 or 6 weeks.
Ques. 110. Where did you go to from Leavenworth?
Ans. To Troy, Kansas.
Ques. 111. Did you beat your way to Troy, Kansas?
Ans. No, sir, I paid my fare just the same as any other person.
Ques. 112. How far is it from Leavenworth to Troy?
Ans. Sixteen miles from Atchison; don't know how far from Leavenworth.
Ques. 113. [redacted] long did you stay in Troy?
Ans. About a week.
Ques. 114. What did you do while there?
Ans. Worked at my trade.
Ques. 115. Who for?
Ans. I know one of them, they was partners, Wilson; don't know the other's name.
Ques. 116. Where did you go to from Troy?
Ans. Tecumseh, Nebraska.
Ques. 117. How long did you remain in Tecumseh?
Ans. About three or four days.
Ques. 118. What did you do while you were there?
Ans. Nothing.
Ques. 119. Where did you go to from Tecumseh?
Ans. Lincoln.
Ques. 120. Did you beat your way up to Lincoln?
Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 121. How much fare did you pay from Tecumseh to Lincoln?
Ans. Five cents a mile. I gave a five dollar bill and got change back and a ticket. I think it is sixty miles. Paid somewhere about $3.00. From Tecumseh to Lincoln, that is, from Troy to Tecumseh. From Tecumseh to Lincoln it is somewhere around 30 odd miles, if I am right. I paid somewhere around $2.00 and over, about $2.00 is as near as I can get at it.
2036
Ques. 122. How much did you pay for your board and lodging while in Tecumseh? Ans. Nothing.
Ques. 123. Who did pay for it? Ans. Nobody.
Ques. 124. How much fare did you pay from Troy to Tecumseh?
Ans. I stated that once before. I gave a $5 bill and got a ticket and change back. I paid about $3.00.
Ques. 125. How much did you pay for board and lodging in Troy?

Ans. I worked there, I paid three dollars and a half a week; only staid one week.

Ques. 126. How much did your wages amount to while you worked at Troy? Ans. Eleven or twelve dollars.

Ques. 127. Did you work by the week or by the piece?

Ans. Worked by the piece.

Ques. 128. How many cigars did you make while at Troy?

Ans. One thousand.

Ques. 129. How much do you get a thousand? What is the usual price?

Ans. I got nine dollars for them, and had to do my own stripping and packing and got extra for that.

Ques. 130. How much extra?

Ans. About three dollars, somewheres around there.

Ques. 131. Did you spend any money in Troy for anything, except three dollars and a half for board and lodging?

Ans. Not as I know of except a little washing.

Ques. 132. How much fare did you pay from Leavenworth to Troy?

Ans. Well, just as I stated before, I did not remember the number.

Ques. 133. Have you any recollection of the amount you paid from Leavenworth to Troy? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 134. How much did your wages amount to at Simmons and Staiger's?

Ans. I made about seven hundred a week there, at $12 a thousand.

2037 Ques. 135. How much money did you receive from Simmons & Staigers for wages?

Ans. I didn't keep account of it.

Ques. 136. Can you state anywhere near the amount of money you received from Simmons and Staigers?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 137. How much did you pay for board and lodging while at Leavenworth at that time

Ans. Four dollars a week.

Ques. 138. How many weeks were you there?

Ans. I stated once before five or six weeks.

Ques. 139. Where did you board?

Ans. At the Wetzel house, the same man whose son kept the cigar shop.

Ques. 140. Will you state about the day of the month you left Leavenworth?

Ans. It was after I came back from Fort Scott, about the spring, the first part, same year when I left Walter, two years ago, in Wichita.

Ques. 141. Did you spend any money in Leavenworth for anything besides paying for your board and lodging?

Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 142. What for, and how much?
Ans. I can't keep count of it.
Ques. 143. What did you spend it for?
Ans. O, for luxury.
Ques. 144. What is luxury?
Ans. Drinking beer, playing pool and billiards; that is all.
Ques. 145. Did you spend any money for any other kind of luxury that you can't remember about? Ans. No.
Ques. 146. Where did you go to from Lincoln?
Ans. Plattsmouth.
Ques. 147. How far is it from Lincoln to Plattsmouth?
Ans. About forty miles.
Ques. 148. How long did you remain in Lincoln?
Ans. About two weeks.
Ques. 149. What did you do while there?
Ans. Worked at my trade.
Ques. 150. Who for?
Ans. A man by the name of Woolenberg, kept [kept] under the opera house.
2038 Ques. 151. What did your wages amount to there?
Ans. Eleven dollars a thousand. I received between $18 and $20.
Ques. 152. What did you pay for board and lodging while there? Ans. About nine dollars.
Ques. 153. Did you spend any money there for anything else? Ans. I spent all my money there.
Ques. 154. Did you beat your way from Lincoln to Plattsmouth? Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 155. How long did you remain in Plattsmouth?
Ans. About a week.
Ques. 156. What did you do while at Plattsmouth?
Ans. Worked at my trade.
Ques. 157. Who for?
Ans. Don't know his name; he was a Jew.
Ques. 158. How did you come to leave Lincoln so soon?
Ans. Didn't want to stay there.
Ques. 159. Please to state the reason why you didn't want to stay there? A. Oh, I wanted to see the country.
Ques. 160. Now state why it was you left Lincoln as you did at the time you did?
A. I stated once before, I can't state any more.
Ques. 161. Do you refuse to state the reasons why you left Lincoln?
A. That is the only reason what I stated before.
Ques. 162. Did you have any trouble while you were in Lincoln?
A. Didn't have no trouble; I just didn't want to stay there, that's all.

Ques. 163. Did you have any trouble or get into any difficulty while in Lincoln?

A. Got a little intoxicated, or was a little intoxicated.

Ques. 164. Now, while you were intoxicated what did you do or attempt to do? A. Leave town, that's all.

Ques. 165. While you were intoxicated, did you do or attempt to do any thing else except to leave the town?

A. I was discharged.

Ques. 166. From Plattsmouth, where did you go to?

A. Across the Missouri river on the transfer.

2039 Ques. 167. To what place?

A. To Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Ques. 168. How long did you stay at Council Bluffs?

A. One day, same day I got there I left.

Ques. 169. Where did you go to from Council Bluffs?

A. Across the Missouri river in a skiff to Omaha, Nebraska.

Ques. 170. How long did you stay in Omaha?

A. Staid until about August, from the time I left Simmon's & Staiger's; I was only four weeks on the road until I got there.

Ques. 171. Who did you work for?

A. Simmons; worked there about three weeks; I left and went to work for a man by the name of Schultz; I worked there until August.

Ques. 172. Where did you go to from Omaha?

A. Came home.

Ques. 173. Where have you been since that time?

A. I came home, and staid here in town; then worked here one week again; left home then and I went out East. I staid out East.

Ques. 174. What time did you get home from Omaha?

A. About latter part of August, or first part of September, in 1879.

Ques. 175. After you worked here a week where did you then go to?

A. I traveled in the state of Illinois, Monmouth, Bushnell, Galesburg, Peoria, Lincoln, Decatur, Champaign, Alabama, Ill., Danville, Mattoon, Pana, Taylorville, Decatur, Decatur to Terra Haute, Terra Haute to Indianapolis, Indianapolis to St. Louis, St. Louis to Alton, Alton to Greenville, from Greenville to Indianapolis again, Indianapolis to Warren, Pa., from there to Coldwater, Mich., struck through Mich. down into Little Rock, Arkansas; from Little Rock right straight to St. Louis, St. Louis to Alton, Alton to Bushnell, Bushnell to Quincy, Quincy to Hannibal, and from there I left in first part of August, 1880; came back home to Fort Madison and took a job in Montrose; worked from August to November in Montrose, 1880; in November, 1880, I came to Fort Madison again and have been there ever since working at my trade.

2040 Ques. 176. Who have you been working for?
A. First I worked for L. B. Reader, I worked there until March, went to work for Charles Johns where I am working now.
Ques. 177. How long previous to the time that you saw Frederick A. Walters at Wichita had it been that you had last seen him?
A. It was two years ago, that I saw him at Wichita, the middle part of February.
Ques. 178. How long before that had you last seen him?
A. In 1876 when I was carrying on business here in this town; he was carrying on business too.
Ques. 179. How often did you see him in 1876?
A. Well I saw him nearly every day, sometimes not for a week.
Ques. 180. You were not here all the year 1876, were you?
A. Yes, sir.
Ques. 181. When did you start business?
A. About April; first part of April.
Ques. 182. What had you been doing before you started in business? A. Worked at Montrose with George W. Kiel.
Ques. 183. Were you on very intimate terms with Frederick Adolph Walters?
A. We always were friendly when we met each other; always met as friends.
Ques. 184. Were you in the habit of staying at his house and he with you?
A. No, sir; I have been to his store many times; he borrowed stamps from me sometimes and I borrowed stamps from him sometimes.
Ques. 185. Where was his store?
A. Between Pine and Market, on Second.
Ques. 186. Was it at his fathers house?
A. Yes, sir; his father kept a grocery store in front and he kept a shop back of it.
Ques. 187. You are a good deal near sighted are you not, and have always been so?
A. Yes, sir; since I was 9 years of age.
Ques. 188. You have to bring things close to your face to get a good look at them? A. Yes, sir.
[—] When did you first see this photograph marked
2041 Exhibit "A" that was shown to you this morning?
A. Last week.
Ques. 189. Who showed it to you?
A. Mr. Green, one of the attorneys for the defendant.
Ques. 190. How many times did you see it before you saw it here in Court? A. Once I reckon.
Ques. 191. How long did you examine it at that time?

A. Oh, about a few minutes; five minutes.

Ques. 192. And didn't see it again until it was shown you after you were sworn? A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 193. How do you know it is the same photograph?

A. The face is a good deal like the face when he was alive.

Ques. 194. How do you know that the photograph shown you this morning by Mr. Green is the same photograph as shown you last week?

A. The photograph shown me this morning had a stamp on the back of it, the notaries seal.

Ques. 195. Is that the only mark by which you recognize it as the photograph shown you last week? A. No, sir.

Ques. 196. Are there any other marks?

A. All I noticed was that seal. I didn't notice any other marks; I just looked at the picture.

Ques. 197. Where was this shown you by Mr. Green last week?

A. At the place where I work; at Mr. John's cigar store.

Ques. 198. What day of the week was it shown you?

A. About Thursday if I am right.

Ques. 199. What time in the day was it?

A. In the forenoon, I reckon.

Ques. 200. Was Mr. Casey, the Notary Public, present when you saw it?

A. I could not say; I did not know who came in with Mr. Green.

Q. Ques. 201. Did anyone come in with him?

A. I didn't see; I work back in the shop.

Ques. 202. Are you sure that it was last Thursday?

A. I guess it was, I didn't take notice of the day.

2042 Ques. 203. And on last Thursday you swear those stamps were on there?

A. No, sir; I said they were on this morning.

Ques. 204. You never noticed those stamps on there until this morning?

A. The first time was this morning.

Ques. 205. If you only saw the stamp on the photograph this morning for the first time, how do you swear that you recognize it as being the same photograph shown you last week by that stamp?

[Ques. 206.] Well the pictures looks the same, that is how I recognize it; because the stamp was on there this morning; I don't look at the stamp; I look at the picture. The picture is the same as I looked at last week.

Ques. 207. Then you don't recognize the picture at all by the stamp as being the picture shown you last week do you?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 208. Was the stamp on the picture when it was shown to you last week? A. I didn't take notice.

Ques. 209. Did you see the stamp on the picture last week?

A. I didn't take notice; I can't say; I recognize the picture.

Ques. 210. Do you remember of seeing the stamp on the picture when it was shown you last week?

A. I saw it this morning.

Ques. 211. You say then do you, that when you get stubborn nothing can be done with you?

A. It is if I don't get abused and don't get a person to bull doze me, I can't do anything more than I have said.

Ques. 212. Do you remember of seeing the stamp on this photograph when it was shown to you by Mr. Green last week?

A. The first time I remember the stamp was when I saw it this morning.

Ques. 213. Then you don't remember of seeing the stamp on the picture before to-day, do you?

A. I didn't take notice of it last week, the first time I saw it was this morning.

Ques. 214. Then you don't remember of seeing the 2043 stamp on the picture before to-day, do you?

A. The first time I remember of seeing the stamp was this morning when I saw the picture, didn't notice it last week.

The notary again requests the witness to answer the question directly just as asked by the plaintiffs attorney, if he can answer more directly than before. In again asking the question, the notary holds that the question may be more directly answered than the witness has done, if he does fully understand the purport of the question.

A. The first time I remember of seeing the stamp on the picture is this morning.

Ques. 215. Will you please to state what marks there are about that photograph marked Exhibit "A" shown you by Mr. Green, defendant's attorney, that lead you to swear that it is the photograph of Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. First is the nose, on account of being crooked which he always had, when alive; when I saw him alive; and the last time I saw him having a mustache, which the photograph shows to me. The color of his hair I can't tell by the picture, the photograph shows to me the same kind of hair what he had the time I seen him, or curly. The jaw-bone is same as he had when I seen him; they were high; the same as what the picture is; his forehead was always thin, just above the eyes; thinner than the jaw-bones even. Well that is about all I recollect or know about the picture.

Ques. 216. Now have you stated all the reasons why you think this photograph is a photograph of Frederick Adolph Walters? A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 217. Did you ever know about his having been bitten by a dog? A. No, sir.

Ques. 218. Did his mustache always look just as it looks in this picture when ever you saw it?

A. No, it didn't look on him like it looks on the picture.

2044 Ques. 219. Did his hair always look as the hair looks in this photograph?

A. Yes, sir; always had his hair combed back.

Ques. 220. Was his nose crooked sidewise on his face?

A. Yes, sir; it was on top here, a kind of Roman nose you might call it.

Ques. 221. Will you please to state how you can tell by looking at this photograph, that the person photographed is thin through the forehead?

A. It looks to me like the same as he looked to me; it looks as if he was fat where the jaw-bones are high.

Ques. 222. Is there any other way you can tell by the photograph whether he was thin through the forehead?

A. He always was poor; the same as the photograph shows me he is in through the forehead.

Ques. 223. Does the photograph show that he was thin through the forehead? A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 224. The photograph is a square side view to you is it not?

A. It is a side view to me; he looks like he always did to me from the side.

Ques. 225. You have seen other people with such shaped noses have you not? A. No sir; not like that.

Ques. 226. You never saw another nose in all your life and travel shaped from the top down to the end like the one in this photograph, have you? Ans. No sir, I have not.

Ques. 227. Are you a pretty observant man of noses?

A. Yes sir.

Ques. 228. Have you a pretty good memory of noses after you have seen them once?

A. Well, I have a pretty good memory of persons I have known, Yes sir.

Ques. 229. Have you ever been engaged in any other business but what you have stated to-day? If so please state what it was.

A. I have been in business besides what I am now; as newsboy and night-watch; in Germany I worked six months for my father at the tailoring business.

WM. H. TIMPE.

2045 The defendants, and each of them, next read in evidence the deposition of Charles Johns, taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., May 25 et seq 1881, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Charles Johns, a witness of lawful age, produced by defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Charles Johns:

Ques. 1. State your name, age, occupation, and place of residence?

Ans. Charles Johns, age twenty-three, occupation cigar manufacturer, residence Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 2. State how long you have resided at Fort Madison?

Ans. My life time.

Ques. 3. State if you knew a young man by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters? Ans. I have known him.

Ques. 4. Where did you know him? Where was he living when you knew him? Ans. In this City.

Ques. 5. How long did you know him?

Ans. To the best of my recollection about 15 years.

Ques. 6. State how intimately you knew him?

Ans. I went to school with him, went in swimming with him, turned with him, slept with him two or three evenings, worked with him on two different occasions.

Ques. 7. When did you last see him?

Ans. I couldn't exactly tell, I think it was about three years ago. I might have seen him occasionally afterwards.

Ques. 8. State whether or not about three years ago he left Fort Madison? Ans. He did.

Ques. 9. Have you at any time seen him since he left Fort Madison about three years ago?

Ans. I have not to my knowledge.

Ques. 10. Has he ever returned to Fort Madison since he left at the time you have mentioned?

Ans. Not to my knowledge.

2046 Ques. 11. Have you resided here continually during that time Ans. I have.

Ques. 12. Look upon the picture or photograph marked Exhibit "A," by Mr. Cesey, the notary public, examine the same carefully and state if you recognize it to be the picture or photograph of any person whom you have heretofore seen living, and if so state of whom it is a picture or photograph.

Ans. I recognize it as the picture of Adolph Walters.

Ques. 13. Can you state the full name of the person you call Adolph Walters? If so state.

Ans. His initials were F. A. Walters, did not know what his first name was, knew it was F.

Ques. 14. State the name he was usually called and known by among his companions in Fort Madison?

Ans. Adolph Walters.

Ques. 15. Can you state the name of his father, if so, state.

Ans. Daniel Walters.

Ques. 16. Where does he reside?

Ans. In Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 17. Will you describe the person whom you call Adolph Walters, as he appeared when you last saw him, and first state his height if you can?

Ans. His height was five foot eleven, when I saw him last measured. His hair was dark, wavy, wore them long generally. He was a raw boned man, what I would call a raw boned man. He had pretty large shoulders and he wore a light mustache which was lighter colored than his hair, he had a thin mustache. His nose was kind of a rounding nose, what they call a Roman nose I guess. He had high cheek bones. He had a large, long hand, it was bigger across the knuckles here the second and third joints, than it was back where his thumb was. That's about all about his hands. He wore a shoe, I should judge No. eights or nines. He was bothered very much by corns. That's about all the features I could give of him, excepting a mole which he had on his back about the size of the end of my little finger, couldn't say
2047 whether it was right in the center of his back or whether under his left shoulder, which was dark in color. That is all the features I would know about him, to the best of my knowledge, at the present time.

Ques. 18. State whether you ever or not observed his teeth and if so describe them.

Ans. I have not, only by hearsay, I heard them say.

Ques. 19. Can you state which of his lips was the shortest, the upper or the lower, and which of them was most protruding, and if so, state. Ans. I could not.

Ques. 20. State, if you can in respect to his arms, whether they were long or short. Ans. They were long.

Ques. 21. Please state in respect to his fingers in proportion to his hand, whether he had long or short fingers.

Ans. They were long.

Ques. 22. Will you state as to his physical development?

Ans. He was well developed.

Ques. 23. Can you state as to his complexion, whether he was light or dark or otherwise and if so state.

Ans. He was slightly dark.

Ques. 24. Mr. Johns, can you state when you last saw Adolph Walters?

Ans. To the best of my knowledge about three years ago.

Ques. 25. Will you please state more definitely, if you can, giving the year and the month?

Ans. To the best of my knowledge it was in the Spring of 1878. Couldn't say what month.

Ques. 26. How frequently had you seen him that Spring before you last saw him? A. Four times a week.

Ques. 27. Where did you see him?

Ans. In the Turner Hall.

Ques. 28. You and he were both members of the Turner Society? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 29. Have you always lived at Fort Madison?

A. I have.

Ques. 30. Have you been here all of the time or away a part of the time?

2048 Ans. I was away twice for one week each.

Ques. 31. Where was it you saw Adolph Walters the last time?

Ans. In my store when he bid me good-by.

Ques. 32. He left your store and that is the last you saw of him? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 33. When was it you saw him measured?

Ans. In the year of 1873.

Ques. 34. Where was it?

Ans. In Mr. Hinzie's cigar shop, where he was workinig at the time.

Ques. 35. Who measured him?

Ans. Myself and Mr. Ellwanger, I think.

Ques. 36. How did you measure him, just state.

Ans. He backed up again a door, by holding a square box on top of his head and against the door and then making a mark beneath the box.

Ques. 37. He had his boots on?

Ans. He had light shoes on, with not much of a heel.

Ques. 38. He was a large man was he? Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 39. What next was done, after the mark was made under the bottom of the box? Ans. I was measured next.

Ques. 40. Who measured the distance then from the floor up to the mark, and what was it measured with?

Ans. Myself, with a foot rule.

Ques. 41. What has become of that foot rule?

Ans. I could not say.

Ques. 42. What kind of a foot rule was it?

Ans. It was a one foot rule that you close up as you do ordinary rules, it was made of wood bounded by brass.

Ques. 43. Was it an old rule or a new one?

Ans. It was tolerably new.

Ques. 44. To whom did the rule belong?

Ans. Charles Hinze.

Ques. 45. Adolph measured, as I understand you to state, by that measurement, five feet and eleven inches?

Ans. He did.

2049 Ques. Did you keep any memorandum of the measurement at the time?

Ans. Only in my mind, being at the time—I did not.

Ques. 47. How many years ago was that?

Ans. That was in 1873, eight years ago.

Ques. 48. State about what month it was in 1873?

Ans. To the best of my knowledge, it was May or June.

Ques. 49. Had you previously measured him or seen him measured when he measured less?

Ans. Not to my knowledge.

Ques. 50. Had you ever seen him measured before?

Ans. Not to my knowledge.

Ques. 51. Do you know how old he was at that time?

Ans. I do not.

Ques. 52. He had a large, broad foot, hadn't he?

Ans. Not that I know of, he had a large foot.

Ques. 53. His foot was not broad then?

Ans. Not to my knowledge.

Ques. 54. When did you last see his feet bare?

Ans. In the summer of 1877.

Ques. 55. Where was that? Ans. While in swimming.

Ques. 56. Do you know of your own knowledge what the size of his boots were? Ans. I did not.

Ques. 57. Will you state when you saw the mole, on his back, you speak of?

Ans. In the summer of 1873, while at work.

Ques. 58. Did you ever see it before that?

Ans. I did not.

Ques. 59. How did you come to see it at that time?

Ans. Having a shirt opened in the back, and his vest off, going by him from the shop into the store, I would frequently pull it when going from the shop to the store.

Ques. 60. You saw it through the opening in his shirt behind?

Ans. I did, being his shirts were opened away down to his pants.

2050. Ques. 61. The opening you refer to is the opening made by the shirt makers, to button it up by?

Ans. It is.

Ques. 62. Please to state as definitely as you can just where that mole was located on his back?

Ans. It was located, to the best of my knowledge, in the center or under the left shoulder.

Ques. 63. About how how far from the neck down?

Ans. It was a foot and a half or maybe only a foot, having not measured it.

Ques. 64. If it was located under the left shoulder, how close would you say it was to the shoulder blade?

Ans. From two to three inches I should judge.

Ques. 65. How old were you in the summer of 1873?

Ans. Fifteen years of age.

Ques. 66. Did you know anything about his having been bitten by a dog? Ans. I did not.

Ques. 67. Had you ever been informed that he had such a bite?

Ans. I have of late, by poor authority, being by a man who did not know him at the time.

Ques. 68. Would you consider his father good authority on that question?

Question objected to by defendant's counsel as calling for incompetent testimony.

The court sustained the objection, to which ruling of the Court the defendants, and each of them, duly excepted.

Ans. I would.

Ques. 69. When you say "by parties who did not know him at that time," to what time do you refer?

Ans. In the last four years.

Ques. 70. When did you first see this photograph, marked Exhibit "A" shown you by the defendant's counsel, since you were sworn? Ans. Here at the present time.

Ques. 71. Mr. Johns, will you please to state what 2051 there is about that photograph which leads you to say that it is a photograph of Adolph Walters?

Ans. The general appearance. His hair, and face in general.

Ques. 72. Does the hair look there as his hair always looked before he left Fort Madison?

Ans. Not altogether, being a little more kinked.

Ques. 73. What particular thing about the hair do you recognize? Ans. The color.

Ques. 74. Can you tell the color of a person's hair by his photograph? Ans. Most generally, when they are dark.

Ques. 75. Can you tell the difference between red hair and black in a photograph? Ans. I can not if they are dark red.

Ques. 76. Can you tell the difference between light red hair and dark red hair in a photograph? Ans. I think I can.

Ques. 77. Will you please to state the difference in the looks in a photograph between light red hair and dark red hair?

Ans. When a dark hair is much oiled they will look light and when not oiled they will look dark.

Plaintiff's counsel moves to strike out the answer of the witness as irresponsive to the question, and asks that the question be again read to the witness for a direct answer.

Ans. One is light and the other dark.

Ques. 78. Please to state what color you mean it shows in the photograph, light red hair or dark red hair?

Ans. Dark red hair shows dark color, black, and a light red would show light brown.

Ques. 79. About how red must a person's hair be to take black? Ans. It would have to be a dark red.

Ques. 80. Will you please to state the degree of redness of a person's hair where it ceases to take brown and commences to take black in a photograph?

Ans. I don't believe I ever said the picture would take brown. I said the hair would take light and dark and didn't say anything about brown.

Ques. 81. Did you not a few moments ago in answer to this question: "Will you please to state the difference in the looks in a photograph between light red hair and dark red hair," testify "Dark red hair shows dark color, black, and light red would show light brown?" Ans. I did.

Ques. 82. Can you testify under oath with any certainty as to the color of any person's hair from a photograph of that person? Ans. I can when dry; when the hair is dry.

Ques. 83. Can you tell from the photograph or not, whether the hair was dry when the photograph was taken?

Ans. I can not, unless I know the color of the person's hair.

Ques. 84. Have you now stated all the reasons from the photograph why you say that it is a photograph of Adolph Walters? Ans. I have.

Re-examination of the witness by defendant's counsel.

Ques. 85. You desired when asked the question as to whether you kept a memorandum of the height of Adolph Walters, to make an explanation as to how you came to remember it, which was not allowed. You may now state upon what grounds if any you recollected the fact?

Ans. There still being the mark in the shop now occupied by F. D. Ellwanger, formerly occupied by Charles Hinze, of the same, at the present time, having seen it last Friday.

Ques. 86. State whether or not you recognize the photographs of your friends taken while living without reference to the color of the hair, or shape of any [specify] feature?

Ans. I do when intimately acquainted with them.

Ques. 87. State whether or not you recognize in the same way the photographs of your friends taken after death,

2053 that is without reference to the color of the hair, or the shape of any specific feature?

Ans. I do, when taken shortly after death, before they are disfigured.

Recross-examination of witness by plaintiff's counsel:

Ques. 88. Will you please to state the name and residence of any dead friends of yours, whose photograph was taken after his or her death, that you have ever been called upon to recognize?

Ans. I don't know how long ago it is, several children related to my wife, at one time living in Fort Madison, now living out in the western part of the state named Koehler.

Ques. 89. Give the full name of those children, state their ages, when and where they died?

Ans. I can not give their initials or full names or their exact age, they being about two years old, in my opinion.

Ques. 90. How many children were there and what was their sex?

Ans. I do not know how many children there were.

Ques. 91. What was their sex? Ans. Male.

Ques. 92. How long ago did they die and where?

Ans. Some three years ago, in the western part of this state.

Ques. 93. Were their names all Koehler?

Ans. They were.

Ques. 94. What was the father's first name?

Ans. I can't say.

Ques. 95. How do you spell Koehler? A. Koeler.

Ques. 96. Whereabouts did he live in Fort Madison?

Ans. He lived on the outskirts of the city.

Ques. 97. Which direction from the court house?

Ans. West.

Ques. 98. What was Koeler's business?

Ans. He was a farmer.

Ques. 99. What relation was he to your wife?

Ans. An uncle.

Ques. 100. When did he go out in the western part of the state? Ans. I can not say.

2054 Ques. 101. About when, state as near as you can?

Ans. About six years ago, or seven.

Ques. 102. And he had three children die, photographs of which were taken of all of them after they were dead, did he?

Ans. No, sir, there were two who had photographs taken.

Ques. 103. When did you receive the photographs of the two dead children?

Ans. I did not receive them myself, but were shown to me.

Ques. 104. By whom and when?

Ans. By my wife, at present.

Ques. 105. How long ago?

Ans. I would judge three or four years.

Ques. 106. You had not seen the children since they moved away from here? Ans. I had not.

Ques. 107. Were you intimate with them before they went away?

Ans. I knew them personally, having seen them quite often.

Ques. 108. Your wife showed you these pictures and told you they were pictures of Koeler's children?

Ans. After I had recognized them, she having asked me if I knew who they were.

Ques. 109. You can swear positively now from your recollection that you were shown the pictures and was asked to tell who they were before you knew the children were dead and before any one had informed you who the photographs were taken from, can you? Ans. I can.

Ques. 110. And this you can do after not having seen the children for about three years, can you? Ans. I did.

Ques. 111. Now this matter in regard to the alleged death of Adolph Walters, has been a subject of common discussion in this place in Fort Madison, for months, has it not?

Ans. Of late, only within the last week. It was some time ago but had died out and was renewed here last week.

2055 Ques. 112. When did you hear of it?

Ans. I should judge about two years ago, maybe only one year ago, can't positively say.

Ques. 113. Can you tell whether it was one year ago or two years ago? Ans. I could not positively.

Ques. 114. You have had various conversations with Mr. Walters' family about it, have you not? Ans. I have not.

Ques. 115. No one of the family ever spoke to you on the subject, I suppose?

Ans. The son-in-law of Mr. Walters asked me in regard to the case, yesterday evening.

Ques. 116. Was that the first and only time any one of them ever spoke to you on the subject?

Ans. It was, of the Walters family.

CHAS. JOHNS.

2056 The defendants next read in evidence the deposition of Charles Hoessig, taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., May 25, et seq., 1881, which in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Charles Hoessig, a witness of lawful age, produced by defendnt, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Ques. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of esidence.

Ans. Charles Hoessig, age twenty-two, am in the saloon usiness at present, am a carpenter by trade, reside at Fort Iadison, Iowa.

Ques. 2. How long have you resided at Fort Madison?

Ans. Twenty-two years.

Ques. 3. Did you ever know a person by the name of Fredrick Adolph Walters? Ans. I did.

Ques. 4. Where was he living at the time you knew him?

Ans. At Fort Madison.

Ques. 5. What was he commonly called and known by, by is companions at Fort Madison?

Ans. Governor, we used to call him, in the last few years; t was a nickname.

Ques. 6. I refer to which of his given names, if he was alled by either alone? Ans. Adolph.

Ques. 7. Can you state the name of the father of this Fredrick Adolph Walters, to whom you refer, if so, state?

Ans. Daniel Walters.

Ques. 8. About when was it that you last saw Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. I couldnt remember the exact time, it was the day efore he left Fort Madison. I think it was about three years ow.

Ques. 9. Has he returned to Fort Madison since that time?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 10. Look at the picture or photograph now shown ou by J. W. Green, one of the defendant's attorneys, examine it carefully and state whether or not you recognize it as 057 the picture or photograph of any person whom you have heretofore seen, and if so, state of whom it is a photoraph. Ans. I do; of F. Adolph Walters.

Ques. 11. Describe this Frederick Adolph Walters, as he ppeared when you last saw him alive, commencing with his air?

Ans. His hair was dark brown, his mustache was a little ighter than his hair in color. His nose was slightly Roman. le had high cheek bones. He had a good set of teeth. He was ve feet eleven inches and a half high. Broad shoulders. His rms were long. His fingers were long and thin.

Ques. 12. State, or describe rather, his feet, if you can?

Ans. Rather large, wore about a number nine boot.

Ques. 13. State as to his hair; whether it was straight or therwise? Ans. They were a little curly.

Ques. 14. State as to his mustache, in regard to the heft of it. Ans. His mustache was rather thin.

Ques. 15. State, if you know, whether or not there were any marks on his back, and, if so, state what they were and where they were located?

Ans. There was a small mole right under the left shoulder blade, right next to the center of the back.

Ques. 16. State if you can, the size of that mole, and the shape?

Ans. It was about a quarter of an inch around, I think. It was about the size of the point of my little finger.

Ques. 17. State, if you please, as to his muscular development? Ans. He was well muscled, heavy.

On cross-examination of the witness, by counsel for plaintiff, he testified as follows:

Ques. 18. Where did you say he resided?

2058 Ans. At Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 19. Have you ever lived anywhere else, but in Fort Madison? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 20. Have you ever been away from Fort Madison for any length of time? Ans. I have.

Ques. 21. When and how long were you away?

Ans. Last January and February, was away five weeks. I have been away fifteen or twenty times, for two or three weeks at a time.

Ques. 22. What were you away for last January, and where?

Ans. On a visit, in the State of Michigan.

Ques. 23. What were you away for the other times you mentioned? Ans. At work.

Ques. 24. At what work? Ans. Carpentering.

Ques. 25. Name some of the place you were at?

Ans. It was mostly in the country.

Ques. 26. What other places besides in the country?

Ans. Warrens Station was one place, on the Southwestern road. That's all. That's the only place.

Ques. 27. How long have you been a carpenter?

Ans. Eight years this spring.

Ques. 28. What did you do before you became a carpenter?

Ans. Went to school.

Ques. 29. Do anything else?

Ans. No, sir, only work around home.

Ques. 30. During the eight years you have been a carpenter, have you been steadily at work at your trade?

Ans. All but the last two years.

Ques. 31. What have you been doing the last two years?

Ans. Tending bar in a saloon.

2059 Ques. 32. In whose saloon have you been tending bar? Ans. Jacob Mueller's.

Ques. 33. Now, during the six years you were at work, at the carpenter's trade, about how often do you think you saw Adolph Walters?

Ans. I saw him very near every day; we were here in town together.

Ques. 34. Were you running around town while you were steadily engaged working at your trade?

Ans. No, sir, only after supper in the evening.

Ques. 35. Were you in town every night while you were at work in the country and other places?

Ans. Not while I was working in the country.

Ques. 36. Were you and Adolph Walters particularly close and intimate friends? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 37. Did you ever stay with him all night at his house? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 38. Did he ever stay with you all night at your house? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 39. Did you ever visit any of his family?

Ans. I have been there often; we only lived half a block apart.

Ques. 40. Did you ever visit any of the members of his family?

Ans. No, sir; no more than I just went there. No, sir; I didn't.

Ques. 41. How do you know whether he has ever returned to Fort Madison or not, since he last went away about two years ago?

Ans. I haven't seen him or heard anything of his being here.

[—] He might have been here and you not have seen him or heard of him, might he not?

Ans. I might not have seen him, but I would have heard of it.

Ques. 42. How do you know you would have heard of it?

Ans. Heard of it from his companions.

Ques. 43. Do you mean to say now that he has not 2060 been here to your knowledge, or can you swear positively that he has not been here at all.

Ans. I can positively swear that he has not been here since he left over two years ago.

Ques. 44. You spoke about his mustache being lighter colored than his hair; isn't it a fact that almost everybody's mustache is lighter than his hair? Ans. I don't know.

Ques. 45. You have not had sufficient observation to be able to tell whether people's mustaches are generally lighter than their hair or not have you? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 46. It is not a matter that you have made a business of noticing is it?

Ans. I don't think I have to answer that question, I don't think it is anybody's business.

Ques. 47. Since you left the carpenter business and commenced selling whiskey as a bartender, you have had opportunity to notice a great many people in front of the bar have you not?

Ans. Yes, sir, I have had the opportunity if I wanted it.

Ques. 48. Since you have been a bartender have you been in the habit of selling whiskey over the bar?

Ans. Don't know as that is any of your business, I don't intend to answer any more such foolish questions.

Ques. 49. Since you have been a bartender have you been in the habit of selling whiskey over the bar? A. No sir.

Ques. 50. Have you ever sold any whiskey over the bar?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 51. Have you ever sold any whiskey in the saloon where you are a bartender since you have been in there as such bartender? Ans. No sir.

Ques. 52. How do you know what Adolph Walters' height was? Ans. I have seen him measured.

2061 Ques. 53. When did you see him measured?

Ans. Four or five years ago.

Ques. 54. Where did you see him measured four or five years ago?

Ans. Here in town at F. D. Ellwanger's cigar shop.

Ques. 55. Who was present at that measuring?

Ans. Don't remember who, now, there were four or five of them.

Ques. 56. State the name of any one of them, if you can?

Ans. Don't believe I can.

Ques. 57. You cannot now recollect the name of any person besides yourself who was present at that measuring can you?

Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 58. Please to state how the measuring was done?

Ans. He stood up against the wall and made a mark at the top of the head and measured it with a rule.

Ques. 59. Who made the mark at the top of the head?

Ans. Don't remember.

Ques. 60. Who did the measuring with the rule?

Ans. I did.

Ques. 61. Whose rule did you measure it with?

Ans. My own.

Ques. 62. Did you make any memorandum in writing of his height at that time?

Ans. No, sir, I didn't; I guess others did.

Ques. 63. How do you know he wore a number nine boot?

Ans. From the appearance of his feet.

Ques. 64. You judge then simply from the appearance of his feet, do you? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 65. When did you see the mole you speak of on his back?

Ans. I couldn't tell the exact day. A year or two before he left.

Ques. 66. Where was he when you saw it?

Ans. At the Turners Societies turn yard.

Ques. 67. How did you happen to see it?

Ans. By his getting on the turning pole; his shirt was open in the back.

2062 Ques. 68. Then you saw it while he was turning did you? Ans. That was the first time I noticed it.

Ques. 69. How long ago do you say that was?

Ans. A year or two before he left.

Ques. 70. Were you a member of the Turners' Society?

Ans. I was.

Ques. 71. Are you still a member?

Ans. No, sir, it has broke up.

Ques. 72. Who first spoke to you about giving your testimony in this case? Ans. Mr. Rourke, I think.

Ques. 73. Who is Mr. Rourke? Ans. Deputy Sheriff.

Ques. 74. Who next spoke to you?

Ans. Mr. Munn, the Sheriff.

Ques. 75. Who next spoke to you about it?

Ans. Mr. Green asked me a few questions.

Ques. 76. Who next spoke to you about it?

Ans. Nobody.

Ques. 77. Did Mr. Timpe come down and ask you to come up here? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 78. Have you and Mr. Timpe had any conversation on the subject? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 79. Are the three persons you have mentioned the only ones who have conversed with you about the matter?

Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 80. When did you first see this photograph that was shown you by defendant's counsel?

Ans. This is the first time, a few minutes ago when he handed it to me.

Ques. 81. Will you please to state what there is in that photograph that leads you to say it is the photograph of Adolph Walters? Ans. The general appearance of it.

Ques. 82. Is there anything else about it but its general appearance that leads you to so say?

Ans. His nose and his mustache.

Ques. 83. Are the nose and mustache the only
2063 things besides its general appearance that leads you to say it is a photograph of Adolph Walters?

Ans. His chin, that's all.

Ques. 84. What is there about the mustache that you can identify a person by it?

Ans. The mustache is like his was, it grows straight out, it was thin like his was.

Ques. 85. Does the mustache in that photograph look as Walters' mustache always looked when you knew him?

Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 86. What is there about the chin that gives you any means of identification?

Ans. It was straight, not a very large chin.

Ques. 87. Anything else? Ans. No, sir.

Ques. 88. What is there about the nose that gives you any means of identification? Ans. Long, slightly Roman.

Ques. 89. What do you mean by Roman?

Ans. A little round on top.

Ques. 90. You have seen other noses that were round on top, haven't you? Ans. I have.

Ques. 91. Was his nose crooked sideways on his face?

Ans. No, sir, it may have been a little, but a very little.

Ques. 92. Can you remember whether it was crooked at all sidewise of his face?

Ans. I think it was a little, but I wouldn't say positively that it was.

Ques. 93. Was Adolph Walters a large man?

Ans. He was.

Ques. 94. Did he have broad, strong hands and feet?

Ans. He had big hands, the feet were not very small. He did.

Ques. 95. Was he a very strong man? Ans. He was.

Ques. 96. Pretty raw boned? Ans. Yes, sir.

Ques. 97. With regard to that mole you speak of, can you say positively where it was situated on his back?

Ans. I can say within a few inches of where it was.

2064 Ques. 98. State the nearest point that you can state where it was.

Ans. Right under his left shoulder blade, next to the center of his back.

Ques. 99. About how far from his neck?

Ans. About ten inches.

Ques. 100. Who did you first talk with here, about knowing that mole was on his back?

Ans. I don't remember.

Ques. 101. Who first asked you the question whether there was such a mole on his back or not?

Ans. Nobody, I told it before I was asked.
Ques. 102. Who did you tell it to before you were asked?
Ans. To Charles Johns.
Ques. 103. When did you tell it to Charles Johns?
Ans. Eight or ten days ago.
Ques. 104. Where did you tell it to him?
Ans. At his cigar shop.
Ques. 105. Before you commenced giving your testimony here, had any one stated to you that the corpse of which the picture shown you by the defendant's counsel, appears to be a photograph, had a mole on its back? Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 106. Have you ever received such information from any source whatever? Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 107. Had you ever heard of such a thing?
Ans. No, sir.

CHARLES HOESSIG.

2065 The defendants, and each of them, next offered in evidence the deposition of Charles W. Schott, taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., May 25, 1881, and days following, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Charles W. Schott, a witness of lawful age, being produced by defendant, first being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Ques. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?
A. C. W. Schott, age twenty-five years, occupation cabinet maker, reside at Fort Madison, Iowa.
Ques. 2. How long have you resided at Fort Madison Iowa?
A. First came here in 1873. During that time I staid here then until 1875, was gone about two years then returned and remained six months. Then went away again and returned the 20th of last August; have been here since then with the exception of two months.
Question 3. State if you were ever acquainted with a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters?
A. Yes sir.
Ques. 4. When and where did you make his acquaintance?
A. Fort Madison, Iowa.
Ques. 5. When did you make his acquaintance, about when?
A. During the summer of 1873.
Ques. 6. Where and when did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters; if so please give it.
A. Daniel Walters.
Ques. 7. Where was Frederick Adolph Walters residing at the time you made his acquaintance?
A. With his parents at Fort Madison.

Ques. 8. Where and when did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. Kansas City, Mo., in the spring of 1879.

Ques. 9. Did he leave Kansas City before you did?

A. Yes sir.

Ques. 10. Where did he go to from Kansas City, state if you know.

Ans. He was going to see his brother who resided, I can't just say, out in Kansas somewhere, I believe.

Ques. 11. Look at the picture or photograph now shown you, which has been marked exhibit "A" by Mr. Casey, Notary Public, by J. W. Green, one of the attorneys for the defendant, and state whether or not it is the picture or 2066 photograph of any person whom you have heretofore seen, and if so, please state of whom it is a picture or photograph?

A. I recognize the picture in some few points as a person I have seen. His name was Adolph Walters.

Ques. 12. State the full name, please of the person.

A. Frederick Adolphus Walters.

Ques. 13. Please to give a description of Frederick Adolph Walters as he appeared when you last saw him.

A. He was a large person, very dark complected, dark clothes; his hair was quite long, and light mustache in heft. He looked quite natural from what I had always seen him.

Ques. 14. State if you please more fully in regard to his hair; giving color and the character of it.

A. Very dark hair; it might be called dark brown, inclined to curl when long as it was then when I last seen him.

Ques. 15. Describe if you please more fully, his mustache; giving the color and how it grew.

A. It was somewhat lighter than his hair in color; was of a bristly nature; it was not curly and a little lighter in heft on one side than on the other.

Ques. 16. Give the shape of his nose, if you can.

A. He had quite a large nose; more of what is called a Roman nose.

Ques. 17. Describe his cheek bones if you can.

A. The cheek bones were very high, showed very prominent, as his face was very thin.

Ques. 18. State if you can the character and quality of his teeth.

A. He had very good teeth, strong teeth, and as far as I know there was none missing. His teeth looked as if they might be tobacco stained; they looked as if of that color; they were not nice and white.

Ques. 19. Can you give the shape of his chin, if so, state.

A. No sir.

Ques. 20. Describe, if you can, his hands.

A. Very large hands, his fingers uncommonly long.

2067 Ques. 21. State if you can, in respect to his feet.

A. No sir; I couldn't.

Ques. 22. State, if you know, whether or not he had any marks upon his body.

A. He had a mole on his back is all I know about; two moles rather.

Ques. 26. Please to describe those moles and locate them if you can, and give the size.

A. One of them was quite large, about the size of a pea, more of a warty nature and it was dark; it was discolored; this one was under his left shoulder blade. The other was quite small, situated over his right hip bone; it was not very much discolored; quite small.

The witness on cross-examination, by R. J. Borgholthaus, Atty. for the Plaintiff, testified as follows:

Ques. 24. Mr. Schott how old were you when you first came to Fort Madison? A. Something near 17.

Ques. 25. Where did you come from?

A. I came from Bonaparte, Iowa.

Ques. 26. How long had you lived at Bonaparte?

A. About five months.

Ques. 27. Where did you live previous to that?

A. Burlington, Iowa.

Ques. 28. How long had you lived in Burlington?

A. I think it was about four months.

Ques. 29. Where did you come from when you went to Burlington? A. Pekin, Ill.

Ques. 30. How long had you lived at Pekin?

A. About two months.

Ques. 31. Where did you move from to Pekin?

A. St. Louis.

Ques. 32. How long had you lived at St. Louis before you removed to Pekin? A. About two weeks.

2068 Ques. 33. Where did you move from to St. Louis?

A. From Champaign, Illinois.

Ques. 34. How long had you lived at Champaign?

A. Nearly one year.

Ques. 35. Where did you move from to Champaign?

A. Vedersberg, Indiana.

Ques. 36. How long had you resided at Vedersberg?

A. Something like five months.

Ques. 37. Where did you move from to Vedersburg?

A. Centralia, Illinois.

Ques. 38. How long did you live at Centralia?

A. Can't say exactly; something about 9 or 10 months I guess.

Ques. 39. Where did you move from to Centralia?
A. From Monroe, Wisconsin.
Ques. 40. How long were you in Monroe; how long did you live there? A. Something like a year and a half.
Ques. 41. Where did you move from to Monroe?
A. Cepron, Illinois.
Ques. 42. How long did you live at Capron?
A. I couldn't say exactly, two years and a half I guess.
Ques. 43. Where did you move from to Capron?
A. Argile, Wisconsin.
Ques. 44. How long had you lived at Argyle; about how long?
A. I couldn't say; something as near as I can remember, about four years.
Ques. 45. Where did you move from to Argile?
A. Judy, Wisconsin.
Ques. 46. How long did you live at Judy?
A. I don't know; don't remember at all.
Ques. 47. Where did you move from to Judy?
A. Warren, Illinois.
Ques. 48. State as near as you can remember how long you lived at Warren? A. I do not know.
Ques. 49. Where did you move from to Warren?
A. I do not know.
Ques. 50. Who did you reside with when you resided at Warren? A. My parents.
2069 Ques. 51. How old were you then?
A. I could not say.
Ques. 52. Who did you reside with when you lived at Judy? A. My parents.
Ques. 53. Who did you live with when you resided at Argile? A. My parents.
Ques. 54. What was your father's business?
A. Cabinet maker.
Ques. 55. How old were you at that time?
A. I don't remember.
Q. 56. About how old were you?
A. I haven't any idea.
Ques. 57. Explain why it is that you can remember how long you lived at Argile and when you left there and why you can't remember your age or about your age, at that time?
A. I remember living there; I disremember giving any exact time how long and from there back to childhood I couldn't remember my age.
Ques. 58. Do you mean now to say that you are mistaken as to your having lived at Argile about four years?
A. I said I thought it was about four years; I couldn't say. it might have been three; it might have been five.

Ques. 59. Do you remember when you moved to Capron?
A. No, sir.
Ques. 60. What did your father do at Capron?
A. He followed carpentering for a time; had a store—a grocery store.
Ques. 61. Any other business? A. No, sir.
Ques. 62. Did he sell anything but groceries in the grocery store?
A. Had queensware, wooden and willow ware; that was all that I know.
Ques. 63. Your father is a German is he not?
A. Yes, sir.
Ques. 64. Is your mother a German also?
A. I think not.
Ques. 65. What did your father follow in Monroe, Wisconsin? A. Carpentering.
Ques. 66. Do you remember your age when living in Monroe; state about how old you were at that time?
A. Something like between eleven and twelve.
2070 Ques. 67. Where do your parents reside now Mr. Schott? A. In Fort Madison, Iowa.
Ques. 68. How long have they lived here?
A. Since about the spring of 1873. Since '73 in the spring.
Ques. 69. What has your father been engaged in here, since 1873? A. Furniture business.
Ques. 70. When did you learn your trade as cabinet maker?
A. I served no time, I picked it up in my father's shop at different times.
Ques. 71. Have you any other trade or business?
A. I sometimes follow painting.
Ques. 72. Are you engaged in business with your father?
A. No, sir.
Ques. 73. Have you been since he came to Fort Madison?
A. No, sir, nothing more than working for him.
Ques. 74. How long since you left home to work for yourself?
A. I worked for other parties for a livelihood since about fourteen years of age.
Ques. 75. Did you live with your father's family up to the time you left Bonaparte?
A. I lived with my father off and on during this time since 14 years of age; during the time I was not occupied and employed by other parties.
Ques. 76. Where did your father live when you were at Bonaparte? A. At Bonaparte?
Ques. 77. Did he live at Burlington the time you were there four months? A. No, sir.

Ques. 78. What did you follow while at Burlington?

A. I worked in a sash, door and blind factory.

Ques. 79. All the time?

A. During that four months, yes, sir.

Ques. 80. Where did your folks live while you were at Pekin?

A. My father was at Pekin with me, or I with him.

Ques. 81. How old were you when you first left home to work for yourself?

A. Between thirteen and fourteen.

Ques. 82. Did you leave the town your father was living in at that time for that purpose? A. No, sir.

2071 Ques. 83. You say you met Fred Walters in the summer of 1873, what time was it in the summer?

A. I couldn't answer the exact time, along in April as near as I can remember.

Ques. 84. How long did you stay here at that time, before you left home, after you met Walters?

A. About eight months.

Ques. 85. Then how long were you away before you returned?

A. I was here off and on at different times, to spend Sunday or a holiday at home, but I was gone something like a year and a half.

Ques. 86. Where did Walters live during the year and a half you were gone?

A. At home most of the time, I believe.

Ques. 87. Then you came back after the expiration of about a year and a half, and staid how long?

A. About between two and three months.

Ques. 88. Then you were gone about two years?

A. No, sir; not that I can remember of; I was gone about seven months.

Ques. 89. Well, how long did you stay after coming back after seven months? A. About nine months, I think.

Ques. 90. Then you left and were gone until August 1880, were you? A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 91. Then you did not see Walters from the time mentioned in your last answer, until you met him in Kansas City, as you have stated, did you?

A. I did not see him until during that time.

Ques. 92. What time was it in the spring you were in Kansas City and saw Walters?

A. I couldn't answer exactly; the exact time, as near as I can remember it must have been in the fore part of February.

Ques. 93. How long were you in Kansas City—at that time?

A. I was there from November 1877, to the fore part of 1880

Ques. 94. What were you doing there?
A. Working for a wholesale furniture house.
Ques. 95. What house?
A. At that time G. M. Todd & Co.
Ques. 96. You say at that time, what is the style of the firm now, or has it changed?
2072 A. Since 1880 in April, I have understood that the name of the firm then was Todd & Lowrey; it was changed to that since April, 1880.
Ques. 97. Were you working for them when you met Walters? A. I was working for G. M. Todd & Co.
Ques. 98. What was your foreman or superintendent's name?
A. The shipping clerk acted as foreman. His name is S. R. Parker.
Ques. 99. Was Walters on his way when you met him, to see his brother?
A. He came there in search of a situation and told me when he left, that he did not procure a situation, he was going to his brothers.
Ques. 100. He said his brother lived in Kansas, somewhere?
A. I didn't say so, or don't say so knowingly. I am not personally acquainted with his brother and did not ask him where he was.
Ques. 101. Where did he say he was going?
A. To his brothers.
Ques. 102. Did he state where his brother lived?
A. No, sir.
Ques. 103. Did you go with him to the train when he left?
A. He didn't go by the train.
Ques. 104. How did he go?
A. He walked, he started and told me he thought he would take the railroad track.
Ques. 105. How long was he in Kansas City?
A. From Tuesday morning until Monday morning?
Ques. 106. Where did he stay?
A. He staid with me.
Q. Where did you stay?
A. I was boarding at a restaurant.
Ques. 108. What was the restaurant,—what is the name of it?
A. Farmer's Dining Hall—Farmer's Restaurant and was changed to Farmer's Dining Hall. They called it a restaurant—it went while I know it by the name of Farmer's Dining Hall.
Ques. 109. Where was it located?
A. On Fourth street between Main and Walnut, opposite the Market House.

Ques. 110. What was the proprietor's name?

A. George Sass.

Ques. 111. Did you take Walters there as your guest?

A. Yes, sir.

2073 Ques. 112. Did you enter his name upon the Register of the house?

A. I did not, as they had no register.

Ques. 113. Did you pay his bill while he was there?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 114. Did you pay from meal to meal, or did you have an account there, and his went in with yours?

A. I told the proprietor he was a friend of mine and I would be accountable for his meals. I had no account as I paid every week. The proprietor kept account I suppose.

Ques. 115. Did you pay in advance or did you pay by the week as his account accrued against you?

A. I paid by the week at the end of each week, not in advance.

Ques. 116. Did he furnish you a statement of your account on a piece of paper, or a memoranda, of how much you owed him? A. No, sir.

Ques. 117. Didn't you take any receipt to show you had made these payments? A. No, sir.

Ques. 118. Did you during that spring at any time keep any other guest at your expense at that restaurant?

A. Not for any more than a meal probably a friend of mine.

Ques. 119. Do you know what road he left on?

A. As I stated before he was going to take the railroad track and walk, I told him he had better take the wagon road and he would probably have a chance to ride.

Ques. 120. Why didn't he take the railroad?

A. I don't know unless he acted on my suggestion and thought he might get a chance to ride and took the wagon road.

Ques. 121. Do you know which road he took, the railroad or wagon road, and in which direction did he start out on?

A. The wagon road; he started for Independence, Kansas.

Ques. 122. Did you go part of the way with him?

A. No farther than the store door.

Ques. 123. Is there a road leading from Kansas

2074 City, known as the Independence, Kansas road?

A. I don't know as there is really one by that name.

Ques. 124. State if you know, Mr. Schott, why Mr. Walters did not take the cars for Independence, instead of walking?

A. Because he didn't have no way of getting a ticket; he had no money to get a ticket or fare.

Ques. 125. Was he entirely out of money?

A. He had a little small change, it was less than a dollar, I think.

Ques. 126. What kind of a satchel did he have to carry his clothes in?

A. He had a small valise of morocco leather, nickel plated, and the word F. A. Walters, in gilt letters. It was on the outside.

Ques. 127. What was the size of it?

A. Probably 18 in. long, about 10 or 12 in. deep and about some thing like ten in. in thickness.

Ques. 128. Had he more than one suit of clothes?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 129. What kind of a suit did he have on when you seen him?

A. The suit he had on when he left was a light summer suit, that is of light goods, of a grayish brown color; the suit was made by his father in the summer of 1877.

Ques. 130. Was his satchel pretty well filled or only partially filled?

A. He had a suit of clothes; had some shirts and underclothing, and papers and letters—a nice little bundle of them. The way he put them in it was quite well filled.

Ques. 131. Did you ever see this picture your attention was called to in your direct examination, or one like it before this morning? A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 132. State when, Mr. Schot, and also who showed it to you?

A. Last Fall sometime; whether that one or one like it I could not say, it was shown to me by Mr. Munn.

Ques. 133. It was either this one or a copy of it?

A. Whether it was that one or a copy I can't say, it was one or the other.

Ques. 134. State now where that transpired?

A. In my father's door in Fort Madison.

Ques. 135. What did Mr. Munn say about the picture when he showed it to you?

A. I was in the store at the time; my attention was called to the picture, and what words were used at the door,
075 I can't say, I disremember, any more than I was asked if it resembled Mr. Walters.

Ques. 136. Who held the picture, did Mr. Munn hold it at the time you were asked the question? A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 137. Mr. Munn asked you the question did he not?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 138. Did he point out to you the points of resemblance between Mr. Walters and the picture at the time?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 139. Did he say anything at all?

A. He asked me the points I recognized.

Ques. 140. Did he point out any of the features of resemblance? A. Not to my remembrance.

Ques. 141. Did he state to you at the time who he was representing here, or did you know?

A. He did not, no, sir.

Ques. 142. Did you know who he was representing?

A. I had understood that there was a gentleman in the city that had photographs taken of the supposed Frederick Walters, and Mr. Munn came into the store, I was introduced to him, the pictures were shown to me, and the question asked whether I recognized any of the features.

Ques. 143. Do you mean to say Mr. Munn or Mr. Munn came into the store? A. Both of them.

Ques. 144. Which one of the Munns was it, Mr. Schott?

A. The older gentleman.

Ques. 145. Is he an insurance agent?

Ans. I believe so.

Ques. 146. Did you know at the time or ascertain since in whose interest Mr. Munn was acting?

A. Nothing more than I had understood he was an Insurance man.

Ques. 147. What companies did you understand?

A. No special company.

Ques. 148. Did you learn that those companies had been sued at that time or since on insurance policies?

A. No, sir. I have not known or do not know as yet, whether they have been sued on or not.

Ques. 149. Mr. F. A. Walters was a large man was he not, what is known as a large man? A. Yes, sir.

2076 And what would be ordinarily called a good looking man was he not?

A. He was an ordinary looking man, yes.

Ques. 151. Was he not an ordinarily good looking man in his proportions and in his features?

A. That's a matter of taste; I should call him a fair looking man; pretty well proportioned; he was raw-boned; his features had a very prominent look.

Ques. 152. At the time you last saw him did his mouth gap open and show his teeth as they do in this picture?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 153. Did his moustache look shaggy and hang out straight under his nose like bristles, as it appears in that picture?

A. His mustache was under his nose and would depend on the way it was combed; it didn't stick out like it does here when I saw him last.

Ques. 154. Were his cheeks hollow and sunken, like they are in the picture of that corpse?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 155. Were his eyes sunken and gone as they are in that picture of a corpse?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 156. Was his hair kinked and curled as it is in that picture, Mr. Schott?

A. His hair was kinky and curly when long as it was when I last saw him, but whether just as in this picture I can't say. I saw his hair combed when this in the picture shown here is uncombed.

Ques. 157. Did you ever see his hair as kinky as it is in that picture?

A. I have seen it, yes.

Ques. 158. Then you would say this hair is very curly would you?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 159. Is it not so in that picture?

A. As it looks in the picture it don't look curly to me. It looks more of the kinky order.

Ques. 160. Do you understand, or mean to imply, that curly hair is less straight than kinky hair?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 161. State what you mean by kinky hair.

A. Kinky hair is hair inclined to curl, where curly is curled more in ringlets.

Ques. 162. Would you say that F. A. Walters' hair was curly or would you say it was wavy?

2077 A. I should say it was more inclined to curl than to wave.

Ques. 163. Which is it—curly or wavy or kinky?

A. That's a question I am lost to answer myself. It wasn't curly and it wasn't wavy—put it in as kinky.

Ques. 164. When you saw him ordinarily his hair was combed wasn't it?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 165. Did you ever see the picture of a corpse before?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 166. How many corpses have you seen pictures of?

A. Of several; I couldn't give you the correct number.

Ques. 167. State the names of the persons.

A. I couldn't state no names of persons, because they were merely photographs of persons I had seen, that is photographs of corpses, the persons whom I did not know in life.

Ques. 168. You have had opportunities of observing dead bodies, have you not?

A. I have seen a few, yes.

Ques. 169. State the result of your observation in such cases, with regard to the change in appearance of the person when dead, as compared with them when living.

A. I could give no definite explanation of the difference, because I never observed them much, the difference would depend a great deal on how long a person had been dead.

Ques. 170. Did you ever observe any difference between a person when dead and the same person when alive?

A. There is quite a difference I should think in a person who had been long sick, and had died a natural death, than what there would be in life. As far as any cases I have noticed they generally turn a little whiter after death.

Ques. 171. Then you would imply that so far as your observation has gone, in the matter of observing dead bodies of persons whom you have known in life, that the only change in their appearance in case of death is that they have 2078 turned a little whiter; is this what you mean?

A. That is all I have observed unless they have been dead a few days; when so far as my observation has gone, very often the features are sunken.

Ques. 172. Have you ever examined a corpse of a person whom you knew in life, who had been dead a few days?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 173. Then this would be a matter of judgment?

A. Yes, sir.

Ques. 174. Now to be frank, Mr. Schott do you not know as a matter of fact that anybody is materially changed in features very shortly after vitality has passed out of them, and that they look very different from what they did in their life time?

A. Nothing more in my observation, than I never noticed any more than discoloration or sunken appearance.

Ques. 175. How about the eyes in case of death?

A. Oft times the case that they are sunken; sometimes more and sometimes less, in different cases.

Ques. 176. Look at the picture you testified about this morning and state how they appear to you there.

Ans. It appears sunken somewhat, the eye-ball either broken or the eye gone and a small piece of cotton in its place.

Ques. 177. Then you would say, Mr. Schott, that the eye as it appears in that photograph, bears no resemblance to the eye of Walters when you saw him?

A. No sir, it has no resemblance.

Ques. 178. What color does the hair in that picture appear to you to be?

A. I couldn't answer that. Well, I couldn't answer the color of the hair. I should judge from the photograph to be dark.

Ques. 179. Is it not black as it appears there?

A. No to my view it is brown, sooner than a black.

Ques. 180. You would not be certain in your judgment as to what it would be?

A. No, sir.

Ques. 181. Now, then, Mr. Schott, you have said in your cross examination that in answer to cross question No. 152, that the mouth of Mr. Walters when you last saw him did not gap open and show his teeth, as they do in this picture; you have also stated in answer to cross-question No. 153
2079 that "his mustache did not look shaggy and stick out like it does in the picture," you have also stated in answer to cross question No. 154, that "his cheeks were not sunken like they are in the picture of this corpse." You have also stated in answer to cross question No. 155, that "his eyes were not sunken and gone as they are in that picture," you have also stated in your cross-examination that when you saw him his hair was combed, and did not appear as it does in the picture of the corpse, you have also stated in your cross-examination that you could not say upon examination of the photograph what the color of the hair is as it appears in the photograph, you have also stated in your testimony that dead bodies according to your observation appear whiter and their features more sunken than in life; you have also stated that the eyes as they appear in this photograph appear to you to be gone and a piece of cotton put in their place; now then, after all these statements will you please state what there is left in the appearance of that photograph of that corpse upon which you based your statement when you said, "I recognize the picture in some few points as a person I have seen; his name was Adolph Walters?" Answer fully.

A. I recognized in the features of the photograph prominence of the nose, the kind of the hair, the appearance of the mustache, if combed or straightened, the high cheek-bones, as resembling those I saw of Frederick Adolph Walters.

Ques. 182. Explain what there is about the appearance of the nose in this photograph which leads you to believe it represents Fred Adolph Walters's nose?

A. As shown in the photograph it is as a Roman nose, and also a lump as being higher in the middle rather than straight.

Ques. 183. You have noticed Fred Walters' nose, have you in his life time?

A. I didn't in particular, as it appeared as I always saw it.

Ques. 184. State whether his nose appeared straight as it does in that picture, that is, not warped to either side.
2080 A. Yes sir. His nose was straight; not bent.

Ques. 185. Did you ever see his hair kinked as it is in the picture? Ans. Not exactly.

Ques. 186. State how you can tell, or form an opinion from the way that mustache sticks out or appears in that picture, that if it was combed or straightened out it would be just like Fred Walters' mustache? A. I don't know as it is just like it.

Ques. 187. Have you not in your observation seen numerous men with high cheek bones as indicated by this photograph? A. Yes sir.

Ques. 188. If you had that alone in this case upon which to base your opinion that this picture represents the body of Fred Walters, would you not have some doubt as to whether you could testify with certainty in the matter?

A. From what I have judged of it I have only judged from the photograph. If I had the cheek bones alone, yes sir, I would have doubts from the cheek bones, alone.

Ques. 189. Why would you have doubts in that case?

A. Because if I had nothing else to judge by I wouldn't be able to judge whether it was human or unhuman, just from a few bones.

Ques. 190. If in looking at this photograph, and making up your opinion as to whether it represented Fred Walters, you had nothing but the cheek bones as they appear there to judge from, would you swear that it represented Fred Walters?

A. No sir.

Ques. 191. If you had nothing but the hair as it appears there, or the nose, could you feel confident in your testimony?

A. No sir.

Ques. 192. Is it not a fact that you rely principally for your opinion that this picture resembles or represents in a few points Fred Walters, on the prominence of this Roman nose alluded to by you?

A. Mostly, especially with the accompanying features.

Ques. 193. What accompanying features do you mean?

A. The cheek bones, kinky hair and light weight mustache, being points that I can recognize this photograph as resembling him as I have seen him.

2081 Ques. 194. Did Walters chew tobacco or smoke?

A. He smoked a great deal, he did not chew very much to my knowledge.

Ques. 195. How do you know his teeth were good?

A. I noticed them as being good strong teeth; have heard him remark what good strong teeth he had; had often seen him cracking nuts with his teeth; never heard him say he had ever had the toothache or had ever had any taken out.

Ques. 196. Do you swear he never had any taken out?

A. Couldn't swear to that, no sir.

Ques. 197. What was the shape of his hand?

A. He had a very long hand, and uncommonly long fingers; also quite a wide hand.

Ques. 198. How about his knuckles, were they prominent?

A. They were not really large, clumsy knuckles; not very much so; that is that I ever observed.

Ques. 199. Were his fingers tapering or were they blunt?

A. Kind of tapering, and turned up a little at the tips.

Ques. 200. Would a ring slip easily over his joints?

A. That I couldn't answer as I never seen him try or heard him say.

Ques. [200.] Did you notice his hands particularly when you saw him last? A. No sir, not particular.

Ques. 201. Did you ever see him wear a ring on any of his fingers?

A. I saw him have a ring on his little finger.

Ques. 202. When was that?

A. Here at Madison in the summer of 1877.

Ques. 203. Did it have a set in it? A. Yes sir.

Ques. 204. The top of the ring was larger than the band was it?

A. Yes sir, accordingly, it was a set ring; had stones in it; the set was raised up above the band.

Ques. 205. The setting was in a separate piece, and set on the band? A. Yes sir. It was not a plain ring.

Ques. 206. How did you come to notice these moles you have spoken about?

A. From sleeping with him at night.

2082 Ques. 207. Did the largest one project like a teat or was it a discoloration, slightly raised above the surface of the skin?

A. It was of a warty nature, discolored, and was a pretty good sized mole. It projected about as a wart does generally, about from an eighth to 3-16 of an inch.

Ques. 208. Do you think it projected as much as 3-16?

A. I couldn't answer to a sixteenth; more or less.

Ques. 209. Did it project enough for you to take hold of it with your fingers and pull it?

A. I couldn't get a hold of it with my fingers but I could with my finger nails or tips of my fingers.

Ques. 210. How far below the shoulder blade was it?

A. I couldn't say exactly how far it was.

Ques. 211. Near his waist?

A. It was nearer the shoulder than it would be where a belt would rest on.

Ques. 212. How far would you say it was from the line of his back or back bone?

A. It might have been an inch and a half or two inches, I can't say exactly.

Ques. 213. When did you last see that mole?

A. It was in the summer of 1877. In June or July some time, I can't say which.

Ques. 214. How can you remember of so small a thing as that, from that time to this, and so as to mention it in your testimony as you did this morning?

A. My attention was attracted to it as I have a small mole on my shoulders.

Ques. 215. Was that the reason you remembered about this so as to specify to it, or did some one refresh your memory about it?

A. I remembered it as it was spoken about either by him or me, as a birth mark or something to that effect, which we both had.

Ques. 216. When was that?

A. At the time of our sleeping together.

Ques. 217. Did you ever come across anybody else who had a mole on their back? A. Not to be spoken of.

Ques. 218. What do you mean by "not to be spoken 2083 of"?

A. It is, my attention was never called to one. It was never spoken of.

Ques. 219. Did you converse with any one about this mole before you gave your testimony?

A. I was asked the question if I know any marks on his person, any scars, I remember no scars but remembered the mole.

Ques. 220. Was that all the conversation at that time, and state who it was with?

A. I think I was asked where the mole was situated and how I came to remember it. My answers were sleeping with him and it being brought about by his reference or mine, to birth mark. The conversation was with Mr. Green, one of the defendant's attorneys.

Ques. 221. How did you come to see this mark on Walters' back as you have indicated?

A. He had his shirt off, all clothes off, as I had likewise.

Ques. 222. What were you doing?

A. We were going to bed.

Ques. 223. It was in the night time?

A. Yes, sir; retiring time.

Ques. 234. Did you have lamps or gas?

A. It was a two lamp chandelier, coal oil.

Ques. 225. Were they both lighted?

A. No, sir, only one.

Ques. 226. Did he point out to you the mole on his hip, or did you discover it?

A. Well, he called my attention to a place on his back where his suspenders had rubbed it, and remarked about it that it was rubbed and the sweat made it sore, and in looking at his back I observed the second mole or slight discoloration;

I didn't know whether it was a bed bug or something else; I put my finger there and found it to be what I would call a small, soft mole, smooth.

Ques. 227. Were you standing close by?

Ans. Quite near, that is I had my hands on it.

Ques. 228. I mean at the time you discovered it were you standing very near?

A. Yes sir; close enough to put my hand on it.

Ques. 229. Did you ever see him naked any other time than that, if you did state when.

2084 A. Yes, sir; several times while bathing.

Ques. 230. Did you ever notice any other marks than those you have mentioned on his arms and legs? A. No, sir.

Ques. 231. Did you ever examine his arms or his legs particularly? A. No, sir.

Ques. 232. Did you ever hear through him or others of his having been bit by a dog on the calf of his leg? A. No, sir.

Re-Examination

By defendant's counsel:

Ques. 233. State if at the time you and young Walters were speaking about your birth marks, he called your attention to any other marks or scars upon his person? A. No, sir.

Ques. 234. State whether or not in recognizing the photographs of any of your intimate friends, living or dead, you do it without reference to the color or shape or feature or whether it is by relation of all the features to each other, and by their expression?

Objected to by plaintiff's counsel as irrelevant, incompetent and immaterial, as leading and suggestive.

2nd. It is immaterial so far as the facts in this case are concerned, what his custom has been or what his practice may be in determining resemblances of his friends by looking at their photographs.

3rd. That the suppositional case put by the counsel bears no similarity or sameness, but is altogther different from the point of identity he is seeking to establish by this photograph in question, in which the eyes are gone, and which represents a body which has been dead for some weeks.

4th. That this is an improper method of eliciting proof and seeks to obtain statements which in no manner bear upon or affect the issues in this case.

Objection overruled. Exception taken.

A. The combined features; the general expression.

CHAS. W. SCHOTT.

2085 Defendant next read in evidence the deposition of Conrad Lesch, taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., June 2d, 1881. It is in words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Conrad Lesch, a witness of lawful age, produced by the defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

A. Conrad Lesch, deal in boots and shoes and manufacture, live here in Fort Madison, Ia., will be 48 years old in September.

Q. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

A. Since 1862.

Q. State if at any time you knew and was acquainted with one Frederick Adolph Walters, and, if so, where did you become acquainted with him?

A. Yes, at Fort Madison.

Q. Can you state the name of the father of Fred. Adolph Walters, and if so, please give it? A. Daniel Walters.

Q. State if at any time you ever did any work for Frederick Adolph Walters, and, if so, state what it was, and state about when it was done?

A. I have been living in a couple of doors apart from him when I came to this town, and I always used to do their work, more or less, all of them; I made a pair of boots for him something about five or six years ago to my best knowledge.

Q. State if at that time you took his measure for his boots?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Give that measure of you please, if you have it.

A. Adolph Walters. That is his bare foot when he sets down, he had his stocking on, 7 in length, cross the ball 9¾, instep 10¾, heel 14.

2086 Q. State, if you please, what you mean by 7 in length?

A. When I take a person's measure I put down what the foot measures and I always make the boots or shoes from a size and a half to two sizes longer. If I would make them just what the foot measures a person couldn't wear them, they would be too short.

Q. What sized boot, then, did Frederick Adolph Walters wear? A. From 8½ to 9, at them times.

Q. State how long a foot is that calls for a boot No. 8½ to 9; that is, in inches?

A. For 8½ it requires eleven inches. For 9 about eleven and ⅝ths.

On cross-examination by R. J. Borgolthaus, Att'y for plff, the witness testified as follows:

Q. You have no recollection of having made more than this one pair of boots for F. A. Walters, have you?

A. [He] always done their work. I have made some shoes for him. I know that.

Q. When did you make the shoes for him ?

A. I couldn't say how long.

Q. Was it before or after you made the boots?

A. That was before. The boots he had made on his own order, the others went on his father's bill.

Q. How long before you made the boots was it that you made the shoes? A. I couldn't say.

Q. State as near as you can.

A. I couldn't say without I would go and look over some of Mr. Walter's accounts, if I could find them.

Q. About how old was Fred Walters when you made the shoes? A. I couldn't say.

Q. Was he grown or not? A. He wasn't grown.

2087 Q. Do you do your own measuring in your shop?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The answer you have given to question 7, which is as follows: "Adolph Walters. That is his bare foot when he sits down he had his stocking on, 7 in length, across the ball 9¾, instep 10¾, heel 14" is all, with the exception of "that is his bare foot, when he sets down he had his stocking on," was read by you from a book in which you keep your measurements of orders for boots, and was given by you to the Notary, as your answer to that question, word for word, just as it is written in that book, was it not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is it your writing that you read from the book?

A. Yes.

Q. Did anybody else make entries of your measurements in that book but yourself? A. No.

Q. Is there any date appearing there on that book, when that measurement was taken?

A. No, did not put dates in my order book when I take measures.

Q. How then can you tell when the measure was taken?

A. I looked up some boots that were charged just about the same time when that measure was taken.

Q. Who were the boots charged to?

A. One man, lives over the river named Walker.

Q. How can you tell in that way, when you measured for this pair of boots for Walters?

A. Because the measures are not far apart.

Q. Did you do Walker's work?

A. He has not been getting work done lately, but at them times I used to do his work.

Q. Did you do work for more than Walker himself?

A. Yes, I done work for the old man Walker and his boys.

2088 Q. Was it all charged to the old man? A. No.

Q. Who was this pair charged to, that you looked at to find the date when you measured Walters?

A. Johnnie Walters, the young man.

Q. How old was Walters at the time you measured his foot?

A. I couldn't say for sure, he was a young fellow, who had grown up pretty high, he may have been 19 or 20 I can't say for sure, he might be younger or older than that, at that time. I am almost satisfied in my mind that he was not older than that.

Q. What was the style of boot worn by him at that time?

A. Well he wore a round toed boot, that's what I think we made him at that time, he wanted them tight.

Q. Did he want them short?

A. There was nothing said about that.

Q. You made him a fashionable boot did you?

A. Yes.

Q. What was the fashion at that time Mr. Lesch?

A. They were mostly made then to protect the upper leather, with projecting soles.

Q. Did he have what you would call a very broad foot?

A. I call it a pretty good size.

Q. Did he have corns on his feet?

A. I couldn't say.

Q. He made no complaint to you about corns did he?

A. No.

Q. Did you make the boots tight as he requested you?

A. I had a shoemaker, he lasted his boots very tight at that time.

Q. Did Walters put these boots on in your presence?

A. Well, I could say that he tried them on, everybody tried them on, if they don't fit they leave them on my hands.

Q. State Mr. Lesch, whether he ever made any com-
2089 plaint to you about the fit of these boots?

A. Not what I could recollect.

Q. I will ask you if he had knots on the joints of his big toes? A. He kind of had.

Q. Were they larger than common, or like you generally see them on men's feet you measure?

A. They was, he was young at that time yet, he looked as if he would have a pretty good show to have some pretty big lumps, because I know that much about his feet yet.

Q. That is quite a common thing for you to notice that on men's feet when measuring them?

A. If I take a measure I will always look for that, will ask them if that hurts them, always fix something on the last for it. Or I ask people if they run boots or shoes over, which way.

Q. Did you find in your experience in a good many cases, where those knots were on their toes? A. I do.

Q. You didn't change your last any did you, in making Walters boots? In that particular?

A. I think not, it is not marked down.

Q. In taking a measure of a customers foot you do not measure carefully so as to know just what the size of the foot is in inches, do you?

A. I hardly ever look at it in that way, sometimes when a fellow wants to know, I will. I take it in shoemakers' sizes, not in inches.

Q. Then you could not tell in measuring for your purpose what the size of the foot is in length or breadth or in any other way in inches, from that measurement alone? Could you?

A. Yes I could.

2090 Q. How?

A. If I turn the measure over then you can see how many inches.

Q. Then you use another rule to ascertain that?

A. I don't understand.

Q. Why then, if you can tell the size of the foot in inches from the measurement you take for your purpose, was it that you had to go for your rule, before you could tell the length in inches it took to fit Walters' foot, why could you not tell this length in inches by the measurement you had before you, without your rule?

A. Well, I never look at the inches part in length.

Q. Do you ever look at the inches part in breadth?

A. I never measure across the bottom of the foot alone.

Q. You measure do you not the circumference around the ball of the foot only? A. Yes sir.

Q. And from that measurement you could not tell the width across the foot in inches could you?

A. For our practice we would call it about 3¼ across the bottom of the ball of his foot.

Q. How do you get at that?

A. When we trim soles we allow so much broadness on a person's measure according how broad his foot is.

Q. Look at the measure in your book and tell me from that measure without using the rule, how many inches long and how many inches wide across the bottom Fred Walters' foot was when you measured it if you can?

A. Well I couldn't that time but I could now, having looked at the rule.

Q. You could not have told then without looking at the rule, could you?

A. I could tell now without looking at the rule, but 2091 I couldn't then any time before.

Q. State if you please Mr. Lesch, how you got at the sized boot it took to fit Walters' measure when you were asked that in the examination by the defendant.

A. I had to look at my measure book.

Q. Did you have to look at anything else? A. No.

Q. Didn't you have to go for your rule? A. No.

Q. Did you not leave the witness stand and go down to your shop and get your rule, and bring it back before you could answer that question?

A. I wouldn't have to do that. I just got that thing to see about the inches.

Q. Then you can tell the size of the boot can you a customer will take by simply looking at your measurement in your book without the use of your rule, can you? A. Yes.

Q. Look at the measurement in your book next under the measurement taken of Walters, and state what it is, and then state in the same connection the sized boot it would take to fit that foot.

A. Length 8½, this is a bad foot, ball 11¼, instep 11, ankle 9¾, it was for a pair of shoes. A person who had such a big ball I make them 10½ in length, that is what the last would measure.

Q. How many inches long would that man's foot be?

A. Something about 11¾.

Q. Can you tell exactly?

A. That's as good as I could tell without the rule.
2092 On re-examination by defendant's counsel, the witness testified as follows:

Q. State when you speak of the length of a person's foot, and in taking the measurement of it, you take it in shoemaker's size or do you take it in its length in inches?

A. I take it in shoemaker's size.

Q. Now in measuring around the ball of the foot and the instep and the heel, what measurement do you get there?

A. That strop measures inches that I measure with.

Defendant here asks permission to ask the witness a question that should have been asked in direct examination.

Q. State the length in inches of a foot which measures in length No. 7 shoe-maker's size if you can?

A. I believe 11½.

Q. Please look at the rule and state exactly the number of inches in length a foot is, that measures No. 7 shoemaker's size?

A. I was mistaken, it measures 10½ inches, after examining the rule.

Q. State what sort of a rule it is you referred to and looked
?
[—]It is a standard shoemaker's rule, like they always use.

C. LESCH.

93 The defendant next read in evidence the deposition of Alvina D. Kasten taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., in June, 81, which is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

Miss Alvina D. Kasten, a witness of lawful age, produced defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Q. 1. State your name, age and place of residence?
A. Alvina D. Kasten. My age is twenty-one; reside at Fort adison, Iowa.
Q. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?
A. I was born and raised right in this place.
Q. 3. State if at any time you were acquainted with one rederick Adolph Walters, and if so, please state where he as residing at the time of that acquaintance?
A. Well, as long as I knew him he had been living on cond street where they now live in Fort Madison, Iowa.
Q. 4. When did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?
A. It was on the 24th of March, 1878, at Fort Madison at e Kasten House.
Q. 5. You may state whether or not he has been residing Fort Madison since? A. He has not.
Q. State whether or not he left Fort Madison about that ne? A. To my knowledge he did.
Q. 7. State if you please if at any time after he left Fort adison you heard from him, and if so, in what manner?
A. I received a letter two weeks after he was gone.
Q. Did you receive other letters from him, and if so, please ıte.
A. I have; I have received letters most every two weeks, nerally every two weeks, or a week and a half.
Q. 9. How long did this correspondence between you and : Walters last?
A. I received letters until the 3d of March, 1879, was the t one I received.
Q. 10. State whether or not you know the handwriting of Frederick Adolph Walters?
94 A. Well, I think I would.
Q. 11. Look at the letter now shown you by J. W. een and state if you know in whose handwriting the body the letter is in, and whose signature is affixed thereto?
A. The handwriting is that of F. A. Walters; I recognize letter as one I have given to Mr. Tillinghast. The signature is in the handwriting of F. A. Walters. It is his signature.

Q. 12. State whether or not you ever saw this letter before, and if so, please state about when you first saw it?

A. When I first saw it was on the 3d of March, Monday evening in 1879.

Q. 13. Where did you first see it?

2095 A. The letter was handed to me at the postoffice.

Q. 14. State whether or not by a person connected with the postoffice?

A. The letter was handed to me personally by the postmaster.

Q. 15. How many letters, if any, did you receive from F. A. Walters after this letter shown you? A. Not any.

Q. 16. Had your correspondence with F. A. Walters been regular from the time that he left Fort Madison up to the receipt of this last letter, if so, please state?

A. Yes, sir, it had.

Q. 17. Will you please state to the notary what appears on the face of the envelope written and printed?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question and asks the Court to limit the force of the testimony as indicated by the Supreme Court.

A. Miss Alvina Kasten, Fort Madison, Iowa, Lee County, postmarked, Wichita, March 2nd.

Q. 18. State if you know in whose handwriting is the address on the letter? A. F. A. Walters.

Q. 19. State to whom that letter was addressed if you know? A. To myself, of course.

Q. 20. You may state if this is the letter that you referred to as being the last letter received by you from Frederick Adolph Walters, and as having been received about March 3rd, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

The defendants and each of them offer in evidence the letter referred to by the witness, and the envelope containing the same.

By Mr. Hutchings, Counsel for the Plaintiff: We object to the introduction of the letter because it is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, no sufficient foundation has been laid for its introduction, and in any event it is not evidence for the purpose of proving the truth of any statement made in the letter, but merely as evidence in connection with the fact of Walter's statement he was going somewhere.

By the Court: That is the limitation prescribed by the Supreme Court.

By Mr. Hutchings: That is the limitation prescribed by the Supreme Court of the United States in the previous decision, and we ask the Court to limit it when it goes to the jury, that its force may be understood from the beginning and before the examination of other witnesses upon this subject.

By the Court: The letter referred to, gentlemen of the jury, will be read to you and should be considered by you not as a narrative of facts communicated to the writer of the letter by others, nor yet as proof that the writer of the letter—I take it to be Walters—

2096 By Mr. Green: Yes, the letter has been identified.

By the Court: — actually went away from Wichita, but as evidence that shortly before the time when other evidence tended to show that he went away, he had the intention of going and of going with Hillmon. In order to apply the letter as I have directed, you should find from the evidence that it was written by Walters. If it is not found from the evidence to have been written by Walters, then you give no attention to it whatever, but if you find that it is a genuine letter written by Walters then you give it such effect as evidence as I have described to you—not as a narrative of facts communicated to the writer by others nor yet as proof that the writer went away from Wichita, but as evidence that shortly before the time when other evidence tended to show that he went away he had the intention of going and of going with Hillmon, and that the Hillmon mentioned in the letter is the Hillmon in this case.

To the action of the Court in thus limiting the effect of the letter, the defendants and each of them then and there duly excepted.

And thereupon said letter was read in evidence to the court and jury, and is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

2097 EXHIBIT C.

Sabert M. Casey,
Notary Public.

Wichita, Kas., Mar. 1st, '79.

Dearest Alvina:

Your kind and ever welcome letter was received yesterday afternoon about an hour before I left Emporia so I did not have time to answer it at Emporia. I will stay here until the fore part of next week & then will leave here to see part of the Country that I never expected to see when I left home as I am going with a man by the name of Hillmon who intends to start a sheep range and as he promised me more wages than I could make at anything else I Concluded to take it for a while at least until I strike something better. There is so many folks in this country that have got the Leadville Feaver, & and if I would not of got the situation that I have got now I would have went there myself but as it is at present I will get to see the best portion of Kansas Indian Territory Colorado & Mexico the route that we intend to take would Cost a man to travel from $150 to $200. but it will not cost me a cent Besides I get good Wages. I will drop you a letter occasionally until I get settled down then I want you to answer it. (You bet Honey.) Don't it? So you can see that I will not get home for a few months yet, but cannot tell how soon I will get back, I am about as Anxious to see you as you are to see me. But I do not want to get back there without a sent of money for that is not what I left for (you know). When I get back you will get to see me in about the way we parted (You bet)!? If any one asks you what I am doing tell them that you were not Informed for it is none of their Business and an other thing don't ask me to write long letters for I would without being told if I could find the Words when I write as I am generaly Busy when I receive a letter from my (Old Woman) Sweet Little Girl. But you know how that is without being told so I will not have to waist any more paper on that cubject (at present). I will have to come to a close before long or I will have to do as that Other Fellow write 2 Sheets & swindle the P. Master out of 3 cents and you know that I don't like to do that. (Pet) Please give compliments to enquiring Friends and all the love that you can embrace for yourself & no body else. I will close for this time Love, to let you hear from me soon again.

Yours as ever,

F. A. WALTER.

P. S. Much obliged for that Poetry & I done as you said (thought of you when I read it.)

2098 Q. 21. Look at the picture now shown you by J. W. Green, one of the defendants' counsel and examine it closely and state whether or not you recognize it as the photograph of any person whom you have heretofore seen, and if so, state of whom it is a photograph.

A. Judging from the picture I recognize it as F. A. Walters.

Q. 22. Please state the name of the F. A. Walter whom you refer to, commonly went by among his companions.

A. Adolph.

Q. 23. Can you describe the personal appearance of Frederick Adolph Walters, if so, please state?

A. Do you mean as I last seen him? His appearance when I last seen him good?

Q. 24. I refer to his size and complexion, color of his hair and other features.

A. Well, I could not tell his exact size, but I think it was from five feet ten inches to six feet. His hair was dark, very dark, and wavy, dark brown eyes. His teeth as far as I knew were perfect. His nose to my judgment I would generally call a Roman nose, it had a bulge on top of the nose. He had high cheek bones and his lower lip was a little larger than his upper lip. He always wore a mustache, as long as I knew him, which was not very heavy. His chin was short and round. He had a long slim hand. I think his knuckles were larger. His fingers were pretty long and slim. He was dark complexioned.

Q. 25. State if you know whether or not he wore a ring and, if so, on which finger?

A. He wore a heavy ring on the little finger of his left hand.

On cross examination by plffs. counsel, the witness testified as follows:

Q. 1. When did you first become acquainted with Fred Walters? A. I have known him from childhood.

Q. 2. What age in childhood did you first form his 2099 acquaintance; state both your ages?

A. I couldn't say the exact age; I was quite little at (the) time.

Q. 3. About how old was he at the time; state as near as you can?

A. Well, I couldn't tell his age as I was very young myself and didn't put it in my memory; we were quite young.

Q. 4. How many years older is he than you?

A. Lacking five days of being four years older. He is 25.

Q. 5. His last birthday was in January? A. Yes sir.

Q. 6. Had he been absent from Fort Madison any portion of the time of your acquaintance prior to the time you have specified in your deposition, if so, specify the times he was gone, how long at each time and where he was?

A. He had been gone several times and as it was none of my business and I was not interested in his welfare at that time, I didn't take notice where he went, and how long he was gone.

Q. 7. State the last time he was absent, when it was, how long gone, and where he was preceding the time stated in your deposition?

A. I don't know of him going away before this last.

Q. 8. How far did you live from where he lived during the last several years? A. It is two blocks.

Q. 9. How long had you lived within that distance of each other? A. I think always.

Q. 10. Were you in the habit of seeing him frequently during this always?

A. I have, yes sir; we often met as friends.

Q. 11. Now, then, if you have lived within two blocks of him always and was in the habit of seeing him frequently during all that time, why can't you state whether he had been absent from home prior to the time mentioned in your testimony today, and when such absence occurred?

A. Well, it was then we met as friends, and I of course did not think it concerned me, or make it my business whether he was gone or not.

Q. 12. Up to what date or about to what date, were you in the habit of meeting him as friends during the years of your acquaintance you have referred to?

A. As we met as friends, and I began to feel an interest in him in the latter part of February, 1877.

Q. 13. Had you known of his being absent any time within a couple of years prior to the February, 1877?

A. That is a question I cannot answer.

Q. 14. When did he first leave home after February, 1877?

A. March the 26th, 1878.

Q. 15. And you did not see him for two days prior to the time he left?

2100 A. He left on the early train Tuesday morning, and I did not see him on Monday.

Q. 16. Did you not state in your testimony the last time you saw him was on March 24th? A. Yes sir.

Q. 17. What time on March 24th?

A. On Sunday evening.

Q. 18. Where? A. At the Kasten House.

Q. 19. How long was he there?

A. Well he staid until ten o'clock.

Q. 20. How many hours did he stay then?

A. He came at half-past seven.

Q. 21. What did he go away from Fort Madison for at that time?

A. To seek his fortune as he claimed.

Q. 22. How long after he had been away before you got the first letter?

A. It wasn't quite two weeks, or was two weeks; I am not quite certain. I think it was about two weeks.

Q. 23. How often was he to write to you in accordance with the understanding between you, if there was any understanding?

A. A week and a half or two weeks.

Q. 24. Where was he going when he left you?

A. Well that he wasn't certain of himself.

Q. 25. What direction was he to start when he left here?

A. He went from here to Council Bluffs, Pottawatomie County. It was from there I received the first letter.

Q. 26. Where did you receive the next letter from?

A. Well I couldn't tell you that. I couldn't remember.

Q. 27. When did you receive the next letter?

A. Well I couldn't tell you that, they were mostly two weeks apart.

Q. 28. State as nearly as you can when you received the next letter, how long after the first?

A. Well I am not certain; I think about two weeks. Mr. Tillinghast has all the dates I received letters.

Q. 29. How long after that before you received the third one, and where was it written from?

A. 29. I cannot tell where the next letter was from. I know of different places where he had been and I had received letters from him.

Q. 30. State the different places where you received letters from?

A. I received some from Alladin, Kansas. I received one from Kansas City. I don't remember whether it was one or two from Holden, Missouri. I received some from Paola, Kansas. Most of them were I think from Emporia, Kansas, and the rest from Wichita.

2101 Q. 31. When did you receive the Alladin, Kansas, letter?

A. I couldn't tell the date there.

Q. 32. How long after he had been gone?

A. I cannot answer that either.

Q. 33. How many were there of them?

A. I think I have between 24 and 26.

Q. 34. I mean the Alladin, Kansas, letters.

A. I don't remember whether it was two or three or more; I ain't certain.

Q. 35. Were there as many as three?

A. I am not satisfied in my mind on that question; I am not certain.

Q. 36. What is your best recollection?

A. I do not recollect, and cannot say no more on the subject than what I have.

Q. 37. About how long had he been gone before you received the Kansas City letter?

A. Well I couldn't tell the exact time, but I can find out.

Q. 38. Was it a year?

A. I am not certain.

Q. 40. How can you find out?

A. Well not to state names. I heard of another party who was with him at the same time.

Q. 41. How did you hear that?

A. To make a long story short, I know he met a young friend of his out there by the name of Schott, C. W. Schott, and of course as friends, he put in a few words to me in the same letter.

Q. 42. You mean that Schott put in a few words?

A. As a friend he put in a few words, he of course knows the time he was out to Kansas City.

Q. 43. Where is the letter now; what did you do with the letter? A. I destroyed it.

Q. 44. When did you destroy this letter?

A. I destroyed these with the rest of them except the last; well I destroyed them shortly after Mr. Tillinghast was here. I was sick at the time and did not expect to get over my sickness and destroyed all my letters.

Q. 45. When was that?

A. In 1880, in the spring.

Q. 46. When was Tillinghast here to see you?

A. January the 28th, 1880. I made a mistake. The letters I destroyed in 1881 in the spring.

Q. 47. You were sick this last spring? A. Yes sir.

Q. 48. Then you have no recollection as to when you
2102 received the Kansas City letter, nor how long it was before you received the Wichita letter, have you?

A. I cannot make mention of that.

Q. 49. You were dangerously sick were you?

A. I suppose I was.

Q. 50. Do you think that that sickness has affected your memory with regard to these matters? A. No sir.

Q. 51. Were you engaged in marriage to F. A. Walters?

A. Well that concerns no one but him and me, but we had exchanged rings.

Q. 52. Do you decline to answer my question?

A. Well there was an understanding between us both, nobody else knew anything about it, we didn't think it was anybody else's business—

Q. 53. How long had you been engaged before he left here if you were engaged?

A. Well I received a ring from him on Christmas eve in 1877.

Q. 54. When did you receive the letter next preceding the Wichita letter, and where from?

A. Well, I received that from Emporia.

Q. 55. How long was that after you received the Kansas City letter?

A. I received the Kansas City letter before he went to Holden, Mo.

Q. 56. Did you get any other letters between the Kansas City and Emporia letter besides the Holden letter?

A. Well I can't exactly state, but it seems to me I received the Alladin letters after he left Holden, then I am not certain whether I received the Paola letters or Emporia.

Q. 57. Then as a matter of fact your recollection with regard to the letters and the whereabouts of Mr. Walters during the period of his absence down to your last letter, has made very little impression on your mind and you have a very vague recollection of the same?

A. I cannot really answer that as I ought to. If I were in better mind I might answer more questions. I am bothered about my sister who is sick; if I was not bothered I might think of a good many things in explaining.

2103 The witness here explains her last answer as follows: "My sister was dangerously ill and I had no nights rest for the past two weeks and of course the letters made quite an impression on my mind but I could not recall the exact date."

Q. 58. You showed Mr. Tillinghast all the letters you had at the time and talked over very fully with him all these points as to Walter's whereabouts and his personal appearance and gave him all the information you could when he was here Jan. the 28th 1880, did you not? A. Yes sir.

Q. 59. Who was he representing at the time?

A. He was representing the New York Life Insurance Company.

Q. 60. You knew then at the time did you not that his only object in coming here and interviewing you with regard to Mr. Walter was in behalf of the insurance Company and not in behalf of yourself or Mr. Walter's family?

A. Well he was brought up there by Mr. Daniel Walter himself and by Mr. Spreen. Was introduced to that gentleman to whom I was to give all information I knew concerning F. A. Walters.

Q. 61. Did you have more than one interview with him on the subject while he was here, if so, how many.

A. Well I had an interview with him in the morning of the 28th and in the evening he called for the letter.

Q. 62. Are those the only interviews you had with him?

A. Yes sir, I meant to say it was shortly after dinner that I had the first interview with him. Mr. Walter and Mr. Spreen were present.

Q. 63. Were these other gentlemen present with Mr. Tillinghast during this first interview or did they retire?

A. They was there part of the time.

Q. 64. Did you produce these letters you have referred to, to Mr. Tillinghast at this first interview and while these other two gentlemen were present?

A. Yes sir, we all looked over them.

Q. 65. Did they read all these letters?

A. They did not read the full letters, they only looked at them to find out the places he had been.

Q. 66. Did they not have to read the letters for that purpose? A. Not the full letters.

Q. 67. How much of them did they read, state to what extent about they read these letters?

A. 67. They read enough of the letters just to find out where he had been.

Q. 68. What did Mr. Tillinghast say he wanted to get this information for?

A. For the New York Life Insurance Company.

Q. 69. Did he show you this picture that you examined yesterday?

A. He did not show me this one, but I saw one of the same kind. He showed it to me.

Q. 70. When did he show it to you?

2104 A. He showed it to me the day he called; the first interview.

Q. 71. Had he examined the letters before he produced the photograph, or did he produce the photograph first, and did he show you one or two photographs at the time?

A. He showed me two, and he produced the photographs before I got the letters out.

Q. 72. What did he say when he produced the photographs to you; give his exact language as near as you can?

A. He asked me whether I recognized it as the photograph of any one I knew.

Q. Was that his language?

A. Well, it was not just as he spoke at the present, he might have spoken some different.

Q. 74. Did you take both photographs in your hand?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. 75. Had you heard that Mr. Tillinghast and these pictures were in town before he called to see you?

A. I have never heard of Mr. Tillinghast before, but I had seen the pictures; Mr. Walter had them—

Q. 76. Then you had made up your mind about these pictures before Mr. Tillinghast brought them to your house, had you not? A. Judging from the picture, I did.

Q. 77. And your judgment was the same as you stated in your deposition yesterday, was it?

A. Well, I only looked at one of the pictures yesterday here.

Q. 78. One of these pictures you did not recognize, am I correct; but you recognized the side view picture?

A. I could not recognize the one only the teeth which I thought were his. That was the front view.

Q. 79. How long before Mr. Tillinghast came here was it that you had seen these pictures at Mr. Walter's?

A. The 6th of January the same year.

Q. 80. You have stated that you knew F. A. Walter ever since his childhood; were you in the habit during your childhood of meeting him frequently in common with your childhood associates and as a childhood associate?

A. Well, I have met him frequently, but I had no childhood companion in him, but I met him frequently and we spoke.

Q. 82. Have you been in the habit of visiting the family of Mr. Daniel Walters during this period of your acquaintance with him?

A. I called on the girls at the age of fourteen or fifteen when I started to go down there.

Q. 82. Were you in the habit of seeing F. A. Walter about the house on the occasion of those calls, particularly the early calls? A. Some times.

2105 Q. 83. Do you know whether he was ever bitten by a dog?

A. His mother was telling me he was is all I know about it.

Q. 84. Do you remember the time he was bitten or about the time. A. I do not recollect that.

Q. 85. In the description you have given of F. A. Walter in this deposition upon your direct examination you held the picture in your hand at the time, did you not, and described his features by looking at the picture, did you not?

A. I held the picture in my hand, but I described the features as I remembered him—

Q. 86. In describing his nose did you not inspect the photograph at the same time?

A. I inspected the photograph, of course, and judging from that, I thought it resembled his.

Q. 87. Did you not inspect the photograph when you described his cheek bones?

A. I had the photograph lying face down in my lap; the cheek bones are naturally high.

Q. 88. You are positive about having the photograph face down when you described his cheek bones?

A. At that time, yes, sir; but I had looked at them before. I had its face down when I described his features.

Q. 89. Now, if you can remember with such precision a small circumstance like that, and can also state the day and hour and the person of whom you received the letter alluded to as being the last letter you received from Fred Walter and can state the day of the month and the time of the day when Mr. Tillinghast came to see you, why is it you have no recollection as to dates or locations of the whereabouts of F. A. Walter, a person between whom and yourself intimate relations existed, during the time of his absence since March 26th, 1878?

A. As I did not expect that he should meet his death, and keep in memory the dates and location of his whereabouts. The last letter as having such an impression on my mind as it was the last, from him.

Q. 90. You do not know whether he went to Colorado or not, do you?

A. I know no more than the letter states, that's the last place I heard from him.

Q. 91. You don't know whether that is the last letter he wrote you or not, do you?

A. Yes, sir; that is the last I have heard of him.

Q. 92. Might he not have written you and you not receive the letter?

A. Not to my knowledge, as my mail is personally and no one can get it but myself.

Q. 93. Do you not think it possible that a letter
2106 would miscarry so you would never receive it?

A. Such might be the case, but it never happened before and I do not think it would have at that time.

Q. 94. Why do you think it would not have happened at that time?

A. As I can not complain of missing letters and if I had his parents would certainly have heard from him.

Q. 95. May it not have been possible that he had made up his mind not to write to either of you?

A. I think his affection for his parents would not allow him to keep silent and not allow them to hear from him.

Q. 96. Did you read the letters that came with these photographs to Mr. Walters? A. No, sir.

Q. 97. Did you hear them read? A. No, sir.

Q. 98. Did you ever read any newspapers bearing an account of a coroner's inquest held at Lawrence about two years ago? A. No, sir.

Q. 99. Did you hear any one talking about it?

A. No one but the family.

Q. 100. Was Fred Walter's nose blunt at the end or sharp?

A. Blunt.

[A.] Was the end of his nose large and round.

A. I cannot give a correct answer to that.

Q. 102. Did you ever see him when his hair was not combed, and was all mixed up like it is in this picture?

A. His hair was always combed when I saw him.

Q. 103. Did you ever see him with his cheeks sunken and hollow, like they are in this picture?

A. No, sir; they were never sunken that much.

Q. 104. Did you ever see him with his mouth spread open like it is in that picture? A. No, sir.

Q. 105. Did you ever see him with his mustache sticking straight out from under his lips like bristles like they do in that picture?

A. I have never seen him this way; they were bristly; he always kept them down as nice as he could.

Q. 106. Did he not part his mustache in the middle and train it back on either side of the lip?

A. Well, I know that he had them parted in the middle, but they were bristly like, and he couldn't keep them back, I suppose.

Q. 107. You have noticed in this picture that the 2107 eyes are entirely gone, have you not?

A. You can't tell much about the eyes. They look so to me.

Q. 108. You have said, have you not, that Fred Walter, as you knew him had a short chin?

A. As I thought, a short, round chin.

Q. 109. Now, look at the picture again and state whether or not you consider that a short, round chin represented there?

A. Judging from the picture I think the chin resembles his.

Q. 110. Look at the picture and state whether the chin, as represented here, without regard to the other features, is a short, round chin.

A. I should not call it much otherwise. Well, I can't see no difference in it here, according to my mind, but that it is him. I might have said medium, although it is not the shortest that I meant. That's what I have always called it to be.

Q. 111. You have stated that you never saw Fred Walter's cheeks look sunken and hollow as they do in this picture; that you never saw his mouth as it is in this picture, and that the eyes are gone from this picture; that you never saw his hair excepting when it was combed; that you have never seen his mustache this way as in the picture. Now, then if all these features and marks of identity are different from what you have ever seen upon him, what is there left upon which you can swear that that picture represents Fred Walters?

A. I cannot exactly state what it is, but it is the general expression and features of the head that I recognize and think to be F. A. Walters—

Q. 112. What features of his head do you rely upon?

A. I cannot state that exactly, but it is the impression that is upon my mind from knowing him while he was here as one of my acquaintances.

Q. [—] Did you ever see two persons who resembled each other?

A. I have never seen but have heard of folks who resembled one another.

Q. 114. Did you never make the remark concerning some person that they look like some person else you had seen?

A. I have in brothers and sisters, but not among strangers.

Q. 114. Did you never make a similar remark about other persons?

A. I disremember of ever making such remarks.

Q. 115. You have seen other men with high cheek bones have you? A. I suppose I have.

Q. 116. And you have seen other men with dark brown eyes, have you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. 117. And you have seen other men with dark brown hair, nearly black, inclined to curl, have you?

A. I presume I have.

Q. 118. And you have seen other men with short, round chins, have you?

2108 A. Such may have been the case.

Q. 119. And you have seen other men with the Roman nose have you not?

A. I think I have; my brother wears one, I suppose, which I call it any way.

Q. 120. What kind of ears did F. A. Walters have; did they lay up close to his head?

A. I can't give you the size of his ears, but they stood out from his head.

Q. 121. Did his nose stand up straight as it does in that picture?

A. Well I have never taken that particular notice of it whether it did or not.

Q. 122. Was his nose straight or twisted to one side?

A. As much as I know of his nose it was straight.

Q. 123. He had been gone nearly two years had he not before you saw the picture or a copy of the same?

A. I think it was one year and between nine and ten months before I first saw that picture.

Q. 124. Now don't you think it is rather an uncertain thing for a person to undertake to swear that they recognize a person who they have not seen for nearly two years from the photograph of a corpse buried several days then taken up out of the ground and exposed to the air and carried across the country about ninety miles by stage and over 200 miles by railroad in warm weather and then laid about an undertakers establishment, exposed to the atmosphere for two or three more days and then buried again, then taken up again and exposed to the air and embracing in all a period of nearly three weeks from the time it was killed such photograph having been taken at the last time it was taken up, and after all this had transpired don't you consider that it is very uncertain whether one can make a recognition from a photograph of such a corpse taken under such circumstances after all the decay that must have followed and the change that must have naturally taken place in a body under such circumstances, of a person whom they had not seen for nearly two years?

A. That is rather an uncertain thing but still the countenance and general expression of the corpse I cannot help as recognizing as being of Mr. Walters.

Q. 125. Would you say there is no possibility of its being a photograph of the corpse of some other person resembling Fred Walters?

A. It may be possible, but judging from the photograph, I cannot help but think it is that of Mr. Walter.

Q. [136.] Miss Kasten, you may state if you please, how do you know, if you do know, that Walter had no unsound teeth?

A. He told me so himself and I know he never complained of the toothache.

Q. 127. Do you know that he never had a tooth extracted?

A. I know no more than what he said, that his teeth were sound. I noticed in speaking that his front teeth were perfect.

Q. 128. How could you tell they were perfect; by looking at them?

A. Well, as we got into conversation, I had my teeth fixed at the time, it was through that he showed me his teeth, and I didn't see any decay about them.

Q. 129. How did he show them to you?

A. Well, by opening his mouth.

Q. 130. How did he open his mouth?

A. He drawed his lip back with his fingers and showed his upper teeth.

Q. 131. You didn't see the inside of his teeth at any time do you? A. No, sir; I took his word for that.

Q. 132. Did you ever notice the skin on his neck under the jaw and cheek as to whether it was smooth or wrinkled?

A. I am not certain but I think it was smooth.

Q. 133. And the skin on his face was smooth, was it not?

A. As much as I can remember, yes.

Q. 134. He was a young man in good health and had a ruddy complexion and round face, had he not?

A. He was in good health as much as I know of him. His complexion was dark. I cannot exactly state about his face; I believe it was longer than round.

Q. 136. Did he have a well filled face or was it hollow cheeked? A. I disremember; I can't really say.

Q. 137. Did he use tobacco, if so, in what form?

A. I have often seen him smoke cigars but never saw him chew.

Q 138. Do you know whether he chewed or not?

A. No, sir.

Q. 139. Did you write to him at any time after the letter received from Wichita?

A. No, sir, I never wrote to him after that as he told me not to write again until I heard from him.

Q. 140. Have you anything in your possession showing the signature and handwriting of F. A. Walters, if so, state what it is?

A. I have nothing but a copy which was lithographed of the letter which the insurance company now holds.

Q. 141. What letter is that, Miss Kasten?

A. The letter from Wichita.

Q. 142. Have you no autograph or other album in which he has written or no card upon which he has writen or none of his writing about your house?

A. I have an autograph album, but did not have 2110 it at that time, no writing whatever I may have; he wrote his name in some books of mine.

Q. 143. State, Miss Kasten, how you found out the height of Mr. Walters?

A. Through conversation between he and I. He told me.

Q. 144. That is the only way you know about it?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. 145. When you last saw him he was in a good condition of health and his appearance, as you have expressed it, "was good" and the impressions you bear to-day upon your mind and your recollection of him are the same as when you last saw him; this is the fact, is it not?

A. His health and appearance at that time was good as far as I know. My impression is still the same.

Q. 146. He didn't then at that time resemble this picture very closely, did he?

A. There is an expression about the picture I must say that resembles him. He didn't look that bad.

Q. 147. Do you or do you not then say that his appearance when you last saw him closely resembled that picture?

A. Well, I can't say no more about that picture than I have; I gave my opinion about the picture and can say no more.

Q. 148. Do you then say that you cannot answer that question?

[—] The expression about the picture that I seem to recognize, resembled him at the time, but he was not as poor as he was in that picture.

Q. 149. What do you mean about the expression about the picture; what do you mean by expression?

A. I mean there is a look about it, I cannot tell what it is, that gives me that idea.

Q. 150. You know, do you not, that after life has left the body that it changes very rapidly and very much in appearance from what it looked in life, do you not?

A. I presume so.

Q. 151. And that this change grows more marked in proportion as time advances?

A. Yes, I should think so any way.

Q. 152. Was his hand a slender hand or a wide hand?

A. I don't remember; I know it was a medium long hand.

Q. 153. What was the shape of his fingers?

A. I cannot give the shape of his fingers though I know they were rather long.

Q. 154. What kind of a ring was this you said he wore?

A. He wore a set ring for a short time and a plain ring after that; heavy ring.

Q. 155. When did you last see that ring?

2111 A. When I last seen him.

Q. 156. You haven't seen it since? A. No, sir.

Q. 157. Have you talked over the subject of your testimony in this case with any one before you commenced testifying here yesterday?

A. No, sir, as I hadn't the opportunity as I just come from my sister.

Q. 158. Have you seen Mr. Schott and talked with him since he testified here? A. I saw him last evening.

Q. 159. Did he state to you about what questions you would have to answer in this examination? A. No, sir.

Q. 160. Was there nothing said about it?

A. He didn't have much time to speak about that; the remark was only made that I was up here, and that I was getting along pretty well.

MISS ALVINA D. KASTEN.

2112 Defendant next offered in evidence the testimony of Gustav Buckholz, taken at Ft. Madison, Ia., in June, 1881, which testimony was in words and figures as follows:

Ques. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. Gustav Buckholz, my age is 32 this October, barber, reside on Pine street, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 2. State how long you have resided in Fort Madison, Iowa? Ans. Since 1855, November.

Ques. 3. State if you ever knew a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters; if so please state where it was you knew him?

Ans. I knew him from childhood up at Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 4. Do you know the name of his father, if so please state? Ans. I do not.

Ques. 5. Where does his father reside?

Ans. Between Market and Pine streets, Fort Madison.

Ques. 6. About when was it that you last saw Frederick Adolph Walters? Ans. Three years ago this spring.

Ques. 7. Where was it? Ans. At Fort Madison.

Ques. 8. State if you have resided in Fort Madison continuously the last three years? Ans. Yes, sir, I have.

Ques. 9. State if you know whether this Frederick Adolph Walters has been in Fort Madison since he left that place, as you state, about three years ago this spring?

Ans. He has not.

Ques. 10. Look at the picture or photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, one of defendant's attorneys, and which has been marked on the back Exhibit "A" by Mr.
2113 Casey, the notary public taking these depositions, examine it closely and state whether or not it is a photograph of the dead body of any person whom you knew in life, and if so state whom that person was?

Ans. The expression shows for itself that it is Adolph Walters.

Ques. 11. Describe if you can this person whom you speak of as Adolph Walters, stating first his general physical appearance and then if you can his different features.

Ans. First place his hair is what I would call half curly. Next, his forehead is somewhat long, his nose was long and it had a bump, and his mustache was light and straight, and it had light brown and dark brown together. And his teeth was the only teeth I ever saw in my life that looked anything like the front view of this photograph. His chin was long and full, and his face was long, his cheeks was flat, had a high cheek bone. His eyebrows they was what I would call dark brown. And his skin was smooth when it was shaved with a smooth razor and when it was with a rough-edged razor it would leave his face rough. And he had a long neck. And his hair is what I would call dark brown. I have shaved him for five years and nobody else for that time and I know that photograph is nobody else but Adolph Walters. And he had very good teeth. His teeth was long and broad and good condition, and he used to take good care of them while I was doing his shaving with the cigar ashes. And he used to say that he wished he had my mustache because it was laying down in place of sticking out. I used to say to him, I wish I had his teeth in place of my mustache. And his complexion was not spotted. And his ear didn't stand out very much.

He used to wear his hair very long because it was curly,
2114 and he knew that curly hair looked the best on him. And his height was five feet and between ten and twelve inches and his arm was tolerably long, and his fingers was tolerable long. And he was sort of a laughing sort of a person. He couldn't laugh without showing his upper teeth. And his hair was kind a coarse. But they looked black to people that didn't understand human nature or black or brown. it used to take a pretty short hair cut to make his neck and hair look smooth. And when he left here he said to me, "Gus" you are the first barber that ever shaved me and as far as I know this shave you are giving me now may last a long time. And Adolph said to me—

Ques. 12. State if you can as to the character of the beard he had other than a mustache?

Ans. His beard was very heavy below the top of his chin bone, and it was very heavy long the neck, and it looked like his beard was black at the neck, and there was black and brown hair together.

Ques. 13. State the character of the hair of his mustache if you know.

Ans. His mustache when it made its first appearance when it come out, it was trying to be curly but through shaving couple years to bring it out it made it so stiff that it growed out straight, and his mustache was very long for the thickness of it. And there was a few curly hair on each end of the mustache. And if he got ten years older his mustache would have been the same.

Ques. 14. State if you know whether or not his hair was inclined to curl more on one part of his head than another?

Ans. His hair was more curly from the ears than it was on top of the head, because—and his neck it, the hair,
2115 was a good deal like the hair around his ear, because his hair was finer along the edges of his hair, that's what made it more curly around the edges of his head, and his hair looked darker around the edges than it did towards the front, because I find pretty near all the hair that's curly to be that way. The hair was decidedly darker than the mustache in appearance.

On cross-examination of the witness by R. I. Borgholtham, plaintiff's attorney, he testified as follows:

Ques. 1. Did you ever see, Mr. Buckholz, Mr. Adolph Walters with his clothing off? A. I never did.

Ques. 2. Do you remember him when he was a child ten or twelve years old? A. I do.

Ques. 3. Did you see him frequently along about that time? Ans. I did.

Ques. 4. Were you a boy at the same time with him?
Ans. I was.
Ques. 5. What was the difference in your ages?
A. Between 5 and 7 years. I was older than he.
Ques. 6. Do you remember the time he was bit by the dog?
Ans. I remember.
Ques. 7. Was you with him at the time? A. I was not.
Ques. 8. Did you see the wound? A. I did not.
Ques. 9. Was it wrapped up when you saw the place?
Ans. I heard of it being wrapped up. I didn't have a chance to go to see him because I was under the care of my uncle in the saloon business at that time.
2116. Ques. 10 Was he laid up at home with the sore?
Ans. I heard some of my comrades say that he was.
Ques. 11. Before this happened were you in the habit of seeing him every day?
Ans. I was.
Ques. 12. How long was the time after this happened before you saw him again; state about the time?
Ans. About three or four weeks.
Ques. 13. He was kept at home then about that length of time, was he?
Ans. He was.
Ques. 14. Did you live with your parents here, Mr. Buckholz?
Ans. I haven't lived with my parents since 1867.
Ques. 15. Did they move away from here at that time or did you go off for yourself at that time?
Ans. My uncle got my father to consent to help my uncle to go to his home with him because my uncle was in need of a boy at that time, and my father he could spare me and that's the way I got away from home.
Ques. 16. How long did you stay with your uncle?
Ans. I stayed with him three years.
Ques. 17. Assisting him with his saloon?
Ans. Yes, sir.
Ques. 18. When you left him did you go into the barber business?
Ans. I did.
Ques. 19. Have you been in that business ever since in this town?
Ans. I have.
Ques. 20. You stated in your examination by Mr. Green when you looked at the photograph that the expression shows for itself that it is Adolph Walters. Will you please explain what you mean by the term "expression."
2117 Ans. I have been in all my days to my recollection been a inquisitive person on expressions and features and I equal myself with expressions and features generally, and I think I know more about features and expressions than two-thirds of the people, and when that photograph come here a year ago this spring I heard of it being down at Mr. Tewksbury's and I went down there to take a fair look at it, and Mr. Tewksbury asked me who that was. I said to him if any person couldn't see who that person was by the picture he must be next thing to blind. Expression is this much, that when I have a person in front of my face and I know him a long time and don't see him again until I see a picture of him, dead and gone, and its my place to know something about expressions when I know a person's hair as well as I do and his forehead and his ears and his nose and his mustache and his drawed up lip and his teeth and his chin, and his flat cheek and tolerable high cheek bones, I think it be mighty funny if a barber like me didn't understand expressions and features as well as I do, and I can prove by the people here in Fort Madison and strangers that I understand more about expressions and features generally.

Ques. 21. Mr. Buckholz suppose that you were acquainted with a person as well as you are acquainted with Walter and that he had left and you hadn't seen him for nearly two years, that this person had died or been killed and had been buried and after about a week the body had been taken up and exposed to the air, and then hauled in a wagon across the country for about ninety miles and then had been carried still farther on the railroad a distance of about 200 miles, and then was detained in a undertaker's establishment two or three 2118 days, and then was buried again and was then after two or three more days taken up again and exposed to the air, this all in warm weather and his photograph was taken at this last time when it was taken up, do you think that you coul look at that photograph after all this had happened and then state with confidence as to who the photograph represented? Ans. I could.

Ques. 22. You think you would have no doubt about it do you?

Ans. I would not.

Ques. 23. Did you ever see a man, or have you not seen men before who had hair that was dark brown and what you would call half curly?

Ans. I have but real different from this hair.

Ques. 24. Explain what the difference is, Mr. Buckholz.

Ans. The difference is that his hair from the ear and the edges of the hair was thicker than any other man's hair I ever cut or combed in my experience of my trade. I have cut a good many heads of hair in my trade and I found lots of heads of hair that was curly around the ear, but not much, some a good deal more than others. Walters, he had more around the edges than any man's hair I ever cut in my days.

Ques. 26. How about the forehead?

Ans. The hair was what I would call coarse around the forehead. It had a good deal of life in the hair for as coarse as it was.

Ques. 27. Have you not seen other men that had foreheads somewhat long?

Ans. I have.

Ques. 28. With regard to the nose, have you not seen other men who had a long nose and a bump on it?

Ans. I have.

Ques. 29. And take the mustache, have you not seen other men with a mustache similar to Walters?

Ans. Not exactly.

2119 Ques. 30. Explain the difference then.

Ans. Well the difference is he had a very narrow lip.

Ques. 31. Any other difference?

Ans. I know enough about mustaches to know that I never seen a mustache that had any resemblance like this one, in all my trade.

Ques. 32. Now look at the mustache in that picture and state whether it looks like Walters' mustache generally looked.

Ans. It does very much from the side view. It looked heavier from the front view; all these mustache look thinner by side views than they do from front views.

Ques. 33. Did his mustache ever part in the middle and turn to either side or did it stand out straight as shown in that picture?

Ans. Well it did part in the middle. I never knew a mustache as lighe as his was that didn't part in the middle.

Ques. 34. Is that one parted in the middle in that picture?

Ans. It is a side view and it don't show much of a part.

Ques. 35. Does it not seem to stand out straight under the nose in that picture. Ans. It does not.

Ques. 36. Was his nose straight or was it twisted over to one side?

Ans. It wasn't as straight as some noses I have seen.

Ques. 37. Was it slightly bent to one side or the other?

Ans. It was not

Ques. 38. What do you mean by saying that his cheeks were flat?

2120 Ans. I shaved him often enough to know what his cheeks looked like. Well, he wasn't very fleshy in his cheeks, if he had they wouldn't look as flat as they did.

Ques. 39. Did his cheeks look very much like they do in the picture of this corpse? Ans. They do.

Ques. 40. His skin, what color was that, on his face?

Ans. It was what I might call tolerable light, for the complexion of the hair and the beard.

Ques. 41. Did he use tobacco?

Ans. To my recollection I don't believe he did, only in smoking.

Ques. 42. Was he a great smoker?

Ans. He was not half as bad as the average cigar makers. He smoked what I would call moderately. What I call moderately would be three a day.

Ques. 43. Did his lips ordinarily when you knew him stand apart as they do in this picture? Ans. They did.

Ques. 44. Do you consider that a good picture of Fred Walters?

Here witness was shown Exhibit "B."

Ans. Yes sir, I do.

Ques. [—] You don't find the lips standing apart in that picture like the other do you?

Ans. You don't find any man to hold his lips apart when he tries to get a good picture of himself, and Walters when I met him any time I found his lips generally closed, but if I make any funny remarks he would draw his lip up so. I could see the whole length of his teeth.

Ques. 46. You have stated in your direct examination that no one else but yourself had shaved Walters for five years. How do you know that nobody else shaved him in that time?

2121 Ans. Well he come to the shop and he used to wait his turn to get into my chair and I haven't made the statement that I was the only barber that had shaved him in Fort Madison. Once in a great while he would take my brother's chair when he seen he had to wait too long to get into my chair.

Ques. 47. Had he not been away from Fort Madison at any time within this five years you speak of?

Ans. He has not.

Ques. 48. How do you know he took care of his teeth with the cigar ashes?

Ans. He has made that statement to me often enough that I ought to remember all about it.

Ques. 49. That is the only way you know is it?

Ans. Yes sir.

Ques. 50. How did you find out that his height was what you said it was?

Ans. I have heard him and his friends who used to shave in the shop that were Turners, and they have often spoke together about their heights.

Ques. 51. That is the only way you know about that is it?
Ans. Yes sir.
Ques. 52. Were you a Turner at that time?
Ans. No, sir.
Ques. 53. Do you belong to a Turner's society now?
A. No, sir.
Ques. 54. Was his shoulders square or round?
Ans. I have seen squarer shoulders.
Ques. 55. Were they straight out from the neck on top or did they slant off from the neck?
Ans. They didn't slant very much.
Ques. 56. Were his shoulders broad or narrow across the back?
2122 Ans. They were more narrow than they were broad, across the back. I would call it average.
Ques. 57. How about his chest. Did he have a full chest or a flat chest?
Ans. I never seen enough of his chest to know very much about it.
Ques. 58. Was he what you call a large, healthy, well developed man?
Ans. I wouldn't call him very well developed.
Ques. 59. Was his hand a slim hand or a broad hand?
Ans. I would call it not very broad.
Ques. 60. Was it a bony hand and somewhat knotty about the knuckles?
Ans. It wasn't a very fleshy hand, and the fingers had a rough appearance.
Ques. 61. Do you mean with regard to the skin or the bones, or both? Ans. They looked coarse.
Ques. 62. He had then rather a bony, rough looking hand, did he? Ans. Yes sir.
Ques. 63. Did his chin recede or retreat from his mouth by slanting in or was it a projecting chin, projecting out, or was it a straight chin, entirely straight?
Ans. It was curved a little.
Ques. 64. Which way?
Ans. About an inch below the edge of the lip it started to curve. The chin was what we would call straight.
Ques. 65. Do you remember when he was vaccinated or the fact of his having been vaccinated when you were boys?
Ans. I do not.

GUSTAV BUCKHOLZ.

2123 The defendants and each of them next offered and read in evidence in succession, the depositions of:
H. C. Spreen,
C. W. Schott,
F. Holzburger,

C. H. Walters,
F. D. Ellwanger,
F. H. Ochs,
J. G. Rourke,
George Anthes,
William H. Kasten,
E. H. Stempel,
A. H. Stempel,
H. F. Stempel,
D. W. Henry,
T. Ernst,
H. J. Windmayer.

Taken before Sabert M. Casey, a Notary Public at Fort Madison, Iowa, in October, 1881, which said depositions are, respectively, in words and figures as follows, to wit:

2124 H. C. Spreen, a witness of lawful age, being produced and sworn on the part of the defendant, testified as follows.

Ques. 1. State your name, age and place of residence.

Ans. 1. Henry C. Spreen, 38 years of age, reside in Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ques. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. Since the 23rd day of January, 1875.

Q. 3. State if you were ever acquainted with a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters.

Ans. I was.

Q. 4. State where was living at the time of such acquaintance, and how long it was that you knew him.

Ans. 4. I knew him since the 17th day of March, 1875; that was when I got acquainted with him at Fort Madison.

Q. 5. State when it was that you last saw him.

Ans. 5. It was about the 25th day of March, 1878.

Q. 6. Have you resided in Fort Madison continuously since that time? Ans. 6. Yes sir.

Q. 7. Were you in the habit of seeing him often prior to the date you have given?

Ans. 7. Yes sir, being a neighbor of mine I saw him nearly every day.

Q. 8. With whom did he reside?

Ans. 8. With his parents?

Q. 9. Do you reside in the same place and does his parents reside in the same place they did at that time?

Ans. 9. Yes.

Q. 10. Will you please describe the appearance and features of Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 10. Well I think he must have been about five feet ten or eleven inches in height, don't think he was quite six feet. He had kind of curly hair a kind of dark brown, kind of curly especially around his ears. He had rather a high forehead and cheek bones stood out prominently. I think he had a high nose over the bridge, sort of a Roman nose. He 2125 had a mustache when he left here it was kind of curly not very heavy. I think his mustache was lighter than his hair, lighter in color and lighter in heft. He had very nice white teeth. He had long slim fingers. His arms were very long I think reached down longer than usual. He was a pretty good turner his [mustache] well developed. Don't remember about his feet. I think he had a mole on his back but I can't tell where it was. We went swimming several times together.

Q. 11. Look at the picture or photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, one of the defendant's Counsel and which said counsel requests Sabert M. Casey, the Notary, to mark Exhibit A to these depositions and attach the same thereto. Examine it closely and state whether or not you recognize it as the photograph of any person whom you knew in life, and if so state the name of that person.

Ans. 11. It looks a good deal like Frederick Adolph Walters, I think it looks a great deal like the features of Adolph Walters.

Q. 12. State if you please whether or not Frederick Walters was a member of any secret society of which society you was a member?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and imaterial.

The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Ans. He was.

Q. 13. What society was that?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Ans. Concordia Lodge No. 133 of Odd Fellows, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. 14. What official position if any did you hold in said lodge?

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Ans. 14. I was N. G. Noble Grand about the time that he left.

Q. 15. State whether or not the death of Frederick A. Walters was ever suggested to the Lodge of which he was a member; if so please state under what circumstances and what action was taken by the Lodge, please state fully.

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court sustained the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendant and each of them at the time duly excepted.

2126 Ans. On account of Adolph Walters being always very punctual in paying his dues after he left here and also, and also having his traveling card renewed, and after we had not heard from him for some time, his traveling card running out some time, and as a great many members of the Lodge had seen the photograph one of them like the one shown me now and another view of the same body the members of the lodge came to the conclusion that it was the picture of Brother Adolph Walters and a motion was made to pay to the family of Adolph Walters the $50 in case of death of any member as provided for by our constitution and By Laws of said Lodge.

Int. 16. State if after Frederick Adolph Walters left Fort Madison at the date you have mentioned you had any correspondence with him and if so, state at what place you received the last communication and about when that was.

Ans. 16. I had a correspondence with him and received the last letter from him from Wichita. I received it about the 6th or 7th of March as near as I can recollect.

Int. 17. State if you have that letter in your possession?

Ans. 17. I have not.

Int. 18. State what has become of the letter if you know.

Ans. 18. I think I have thrown it in the waste basket and it has gone to waste.

Int. 19. State if you have looked for it diligently where you would be apt to keep it if preserved.

Ans. 19. I have, and can't find it.

Int. 20. State the contents of that letter as nearly as you can.

Counsel for the plaintiff objects to the question because the same is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

The Court overruled the objection to which action and ruling of the Court the plaintiff at the time duly excepted.

Ans. 20. He told me he was going cattle—he didn't say cattle herding he said herding, he said he was going to leave on the 7th of March, and he had already left when I got the letter. He asked me how he stood in the lodge, that he was going herding, and that I should see that he was not dropped on account of dues. HENRY SPREEN.

2127 William Schott, a witness of lawful age, produced by defendant and sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age and place of residence and occupation.

Ans. 1. William Schott, age 53 years, occupation that of furniture dealer and cabinet maker, residence, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison, Iowa.

Ans. 2. Eight years.

Int. 3. State if you have known a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters and if so please state where it was that you knew him.

Ans. 3. Yes, I had known him intimately well at Fort Madison, Iowa.

Int. 4. State if you please when you last saw Frederick Adolph Walters and where.

Ans. 4. I have seen Adolph Walters at my place near Fort Madison where he bid me good bye, on or about March, 1878, when he told me he was going out West, also asking me if my son Charlie was at Kansas City yet, which I answered in the affirmative.

Int. 5. Have you resided in Fort Madison ever since?

Ans. 5. Yes.

Int. 6. Describe the person and features of this Frederick Adolph Walters.

Ans. 6. He was a young man of about 24 years of age, he was about five feet ten or eleven inches high, broad shouldered, strong and healthy. He has to my best of knowledge, his hair had a bluish black color, curly; He had what I should call a Roman nose. He had high cheek bones, large mouth and splendid teeth. He had a high forehead. He had somewhat of a dark brown mustache light in heft not heavy. He had a large, long slim hand.

Int. 7. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, one of the attorneys for deft which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Sabert M. Casey, the Notary Public taking these depositions, examine it closely and state if you recognize it as the photograph of any person whom you have heretofore known and if so state of whom it is a photograph.

Ans. 7. I recognize it as that of Adolph Walters. I recognize it on his hair, nose and mustache, high cheek bones and of the teeth and by the features in general.

Int. 8. State whether or not you have in your business been accustomed to see persons after death.

Ans. I have, as I am undertaker myself, and seen many cases. WILLIAM SCHOTT.

2128 Frederick Holtzberger, a witness of lawful age produced by defendant being sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence.

Ans. 1. My name is Frederick Holtzberger, my age is 55 years, my occupation is blacksmith and carriage maker, residence, Fort Madison, Lee County, Iowa.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. I have resided in Fort Madison since the 5th of May, 1849.

Int. 3. State if you ever knew a person of the name of Frederick Adolph Walters, and if yes, please state where he resided at the time of such acquaintance?

Ans. 3. He resided in the city of Ft. Madison, Lee County, Iowa.

Int. 4. How long did that acquaintance continue?

Ans. 4. I knew him from childhood up.

Int. 5. Where did you last see this Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 5. I think it was three years ago last spring. I think he left in March sometime, he left in the spring, don't know exactly what month.

Int. 6. With whom did he reside when living in Fort Madison?

Ans. 6. He resided with his father Daniel Walters, he was a cigar maker by trade.

Int. 7. Where does his father reside as to your place of business?

Ans. 7. Right opposite my place of business on Second street between Pine and Market, Pine and Market.

Int. 8. Please describe the person and features of this Frederick Adolph Walters.

Ans. 8. He was about five feet nine inches tall. He was a broad-shouldered man and had a good lengthy arm and heavy shoulders, broad shoulders. He was well muscled. His hair was kind of brownish black on the curly order. He had high cheek bones and he had a Roman nose. His mustache was kind of light a little lighter than his hair and was not 2129 heavy, it growed kind of straight out and wasn't curly. He had a medium sized mouth, his teeth were white, good teeth and the two front teeth were broader than the other, when he spoke his lip went up and showed his front teeth. He had a pointed chin, a medium chin. He had a kind of long hand, medium size and very long fingers. He had a good foot on the long order, he had corns on his toes.

Int. 9. Look at the picture or photograph now shown you by J. W. Green attorney for defendant, which has been marked

Exhibit "A" by the notary, and state whether or not you recognize it as the picture of any one whom you have heretofore known, and if so, please give the name of that person?

Ans. 9. I recognize the photograph as being Adolph Walter.

Int. 10. State how you recognize that picture or from what you recognize it as being that of Frederick Adolph Walter?

Ans. 10. I recognize him by his cheek bones, his Roman nose, his two front teeth, his mustache and his hair and also his chin and by features in general.

FREDERICK HOLZBERGER.

F. D. Ellwanger, a witness of lawful age produced by defendant, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age and occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. Age, 28 the 17th of this month, name, F. D. Ellwanger, occupation, cigar maker and cigar manufacturer, reside at Fort Madison, Iowa.

Int. 2. How long have you resided at Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. About ten years, with a few short absences.

Int. 3. State if you ever knew a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters and if so where he resided during that acquaintance.

Ans. 3. I did, he resided in Fort Madison at the time I got acquainted with him.

Int. 4. How intimately were you acquainted with him?

Ans. 4. I was an associate with him, he worked in the factory for me.

Int. 5. What was his business or trade?

Ans. 4. His trade was a cigar maker.

Int. 6. When did you last see this Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 6. The last I saw him was before he left Fort Madison, I believe in the spring of 1878.

Int. 7. Have you resided in Fort Madison ever since that?

Ans. 7. Yes, sir, I have resided here ever since that.

Int. 8. Please give a description of the person and features of Frederick Adolph Walters as you now remem-2130 ber him.

Ans. 8. He was between five feet ten and a half to eleven inches probably higher, he was very raw boned. He had square shoulders, tolerably broad shoulders. He was not very fleshy, his muscles were well developed. His arms were very long. His hands were pretty large, slim hand long fingers. One of his little fingers was a little crooked. He had a pretty large size foot, a slim foot; he had corns on his feet. I have heard him complain of corns. He had a kind of brown hair, a dark brown. The hair was curly when long and wavy in front. He had a very high and prominent forehead. His cheek bones were ordinarily high. He had a kind of Roman like nose. It was a nice shaped nose. He had a mustache the last I saw him, a very small, thin mustache, it was a little lighter than the color of his hair, it kind of growed out straight. He had an ordinary sized mouth. He had very pretty sound front teeth, he showed them very prominent when he laughed and when he talked he showed them. He had a broad chin. Could not remember his weight.

Int. 9. Look at the picture now shown you by J. W. Green one of the attorneys for defendant which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Sabert M. Casey, the notary public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 9. I think I recognize it, and the features of this picture look a good deal like Frederick Adolph Walter.

F. D. ELLWANGER.

Charles W. Walters, a witness of lawful age, produced by defendant being duly sworn testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age and occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. Charles H. Walters, age 29; occupation, cabipet maker; residence, Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. Not quite 27 years.

Int. 3. State if you have known a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walter, and if so please state where he resided at the time you knew him?

Ans. 3. I knew him, he resided at Fort Madison.

Int. 4. About how long did that acquaintance exist, and how intimately were you acquainted with him?

Ans. 4. Ever since we were little boys going to school together.

Int. 5. When did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 5. It must have been in 1878, it was in the 2131 spring I saw him the last night before he left Ft. Madison.

Int. 6. Please describe the personal appearance and features of Frederick Adolph Walters as you now remember them.

Ans. 6. He was about five feet between ten and eleven inches high I would judge. He was wide across the chest, square shouldered; he was a muscular man and weighed between 180 and 190 in the winter time and in the summer time he would come down to 168 to 170. His arms were long, his hands were long, his fingers long. He had a pretty large foot, he wore nines I think. He generally wore his hair long. It was a dark brown color and wavy. He had a medium high forehead. He had high cheek bones. He had a large nose shaped like Roman nose. His mustache was a shade lighter than his hair rather thin and grew out straight from the lip. He had nice shaped, sound white teeth. He took a good deal of pains with his teeth. He showed them when he talked or laughed. He had a kind of wide shaped heavy chin.

Int. 7. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green attorney for defendant which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Mr. Casey, the notary public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 7. I recognize the photograph as that of Adolph Walter.

Int. 8. State how you recognize it as his photograph?

Ans. By the nose, teeth, chin, his high cheek bones, the mustache and the features taken together.

CHAS. H. WALTER.

F. H. Ochs, a witness of lawful age produced by defendant being duly sworn testified as follows:

Int. 1. What is your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. F. H. Ochs, age 20, occupation barber, reside at Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided at Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. I was born here and I have always made this my home.

Int. 3. State if you have ever known a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters, and if so state where you formed his acquaintance?

Ans. 3. I knew him at Fort Madison and made his acquaintance there.

Int. 4. When did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 4. I last saw him about three years ago before he went away.

Int. 5. Describe the personal appearance and the features of Frederick Adolph Walters as you now remember them?

2132 Ans. 5. He had long hair, never very short, it was in small curls and wavy, it grew down on his forehead in front and the temples were bare. His cheek bones stood out pretty well, his cheeks were thin and fallen in below the cheek bones. He had a peaked nose, Roman nose, thin as to the nostrils. His mustache was lighter than his hair, the color of his hair was dark brown and his mustache grew out long and thin, pretty hard to make it lay. His teeth showed when he laughed he had a good set of teeth, large teeth, his chin was kind of a pointed heavy chin. He had long fingers, pretty small but his hands were long. He was pretty muscled for a thin built fellow.

Int. 6. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant and which has been marked Exhibit "A" by the Notary Public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known, and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 6. I recognize it as the picture of Adolph Walter.

Int. 7. State how you recognize it?

Ans. 7. By his hair, lips, mustache, nose, cheek bones and chin and the long face and the general shape of it.

FRED H. OCHS.

John G. Rourke, a witness of lawful age being produced by defendant and duly sworn testified as follows.

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. John G. Rourke; age 45; occupation, Deputy Sheriff of Lee County, Iowa; place of residence, Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. Ever since 1864.

Int. 3. Have you ever known a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walter and if so, where was he residing at the time of such acquaintance?

Ans. 3. I have known him ever since 1864, he has resided in Fort Madison.

2133 Int. 4. About how long since you last saw him?

Ans. 4. Not since 1877 or 1878. I don't remember which year, the time he left to go on this trip, from which he never returned to my knowledge.

Int. 5. Have you been residing in Ft. Madison continuously for the last four years? Ans. 5. Yes, sir.

Int. 6. How large a place is Fort Madison?

Ans. 6. Between five and six thousand inhabitants.

Int. 7. How intimately were you acquainted with this Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 7. Well from 1864 up to 1870 I think I saw him nearly daily, after that, probably more than twice a week. I was absent from Ft. Madison from October, 1873, until January, 1875.

Int. 8. Describe the personal appearance and the features of Frederick A. Walter as you last saw him and as you now remember them.

Ans. 8. Well I think his height was somewhere near six feet as near as I can judge. I would think his weight to be somewhere from 160 to 175 pounds. He was a man that didn't carry much flesh but was a square built man square shoulders and very muscular. He had long arms and very strong fingers and long hands and fingers. His hair was dark and curly. He had a high forehead. He had a Roman nose. He had rather high cheek bones. His upper lip was shorter than the lower and his teeth would show. He didn't have a very heavy mustache, it was dark but not quite as dark as his hair, couldn't say whether it curled or not. He had good teeth in front but they were very long. I couldn't describe his chin.

Int. 9. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Mr. Casey, the Notary Public, and state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known, and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 9. I recognize it as the photograph of Adolph Walters and did recognize the photograph the first time I saw it without knowing it had been taken from Adolph Walters after he had been dead.

Int. 10. State how you recognize that photograph as being that of Frederic Adolph Walters?

Ans. 10. Well from the general appearance of the countenance in the picture.

JOHN G. ROURKE.

George Arthers, a witness of lawful age being produced and duly sworn testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. George Arthers; age, 42 years; hotel keeper; reside in Ft. Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

2134 Ans. 2. About twenty years.

Int. 3. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant, which has been marked Exhibit "A" by the Notary Public, and after examination state if you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known and if so state the name of that person?

Ans. 3. From the photograph I should take it to be Mr. Walter's son.

Ans. 4. Where did you know the person of whom this is a photograph? Ans. 4. Here in Fort Madison.

Int. 5. State whether or not he resided here in Fort Madison when you knew him? A. Ans. 5. Yes, sir.

GEORGE ARTHERS.

Wm. H. Kasten, a witness of lawful age produced by defendant being duly sworn testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age and occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. Wm. H. Kasten; age, 28 years; occupation, salesman in lumber yard; residence, Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. My life time. I was born here.

Int. 3. State whether you have ever been acquainted with a person by the name of Frederick Adolp Walter, and if yes, state where he resided at the time of such acquaintanc?

Ans. 3. In Fort Madison.

Int. 4. How long did that acquaintance exist?

Ans. 4. From childhood up as long as I can remember.

Int. 5. When did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 5. In 1878, in the Spring.

Int. 6. Please give a description of the personal appearance and features of Frederick Adolph Walters.

Ans. 6. I think he was rather tall, I judge about between five feet eight and twelve inches. He was rather square shouldered. He had tolerable long arms. His hands were pretty long from the wrists down, his fingers were long but somewhat clumsy. He had a foot rather flat, long and good sized, he wore somewheres near an eight or nine. His hair was of a dark brown and was kinky, that is somewhat curly. His forehead was rather high. He had pretty large cheek bones, they extended somewhat. He had a Roman nose. He had a very light mustache when I last saw him, it was dark in color. He had very large front teeth. They were nice white teeth, they would show sometimes while laughing. His chin was rather sharp-like and small, it was broad, yet somewhat thin.

2135 Int. 7. Look at the photograph now shown you which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Mr. Casey, the Notary Public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known, and if so please state the name of that person.

Ans. 7. I should state that I would take that to be the picture of a party that I have known. I would take that to be a picture of Adolph Walters, a likeness of him.

Int. 8. How do you recognize that to be a likeness of Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 8. By the form of his face by the shape of his nose, the style of his hair, the cheek bones, his teeth and also by the mustache.

WM. H. KASTEN.

Eugene H. Stemple, a witness of lawful age, being produced by defendant, and duly sworn testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. E. H. Stempel; age, 27 years; Guard at Iowa State Penitentiary; reside at Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided at Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. All my life; this has always been my home.

Int. 3. State if you were ever acquainted with a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters and if so state where he resided at the time of such acquaintance?

Ans. 3. I was acquainted with Frederick Adolph Walters. He was an intimate friend of mine and resided in Fort Madison.

Int. 4. How long did that acquaintance continue?

Ans. 4. From childhood up.

Int. 5. When did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 5. Early in the spring of 1878.

Int. 6. State if you ever heard from Frederick A. Walters since the spring of 1878 and if so, where was he the time you last heard from him?

Ans. 6. We corresponded regularly, and the last letter I received from him was written by him in Paola, Kansas.

Int. 7. Did you hear from him directly after you received this letter from Lawrence?

Ans. 7. I did; Miss. Kaston told me she had received a letter from him from Wichita, that was the last I heard of his whereabouts.

Counsel for the plaintiff moves to strike out the last answer of the witness as not responsive to the question and hearsay.

2136 The Court sustained the objection, to which ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Int. 8. Please to describe the personal appearance and features of this Frederick Adolph Walters the last time you saw him as you remember them?

Ans. 8. He was a man five feet eleven inches high. I should judge he weighed about 170 pounds. He was a well built man. He had pretty broad shoulders. He had a pretty long arm, a very long arm; he had a large bony hand and long straight fingers. He had been troubled a great deal with corn, which made his feet sore; he wore a number 8 or 9 fine boot, if I am not mistaken. He had dark brown hair, wavy. His forehead was medium in height. He had heavy cheek bones, high cheek bones. He had a pretty large nose, it was pretty high between and below the eyes. He had a light mustache, that is light in heft; I should call it a kind of ash color; the hair of it was straight; there was no lay to it. He had a very good set of teeth, his front teeth white and large.

Int. 9. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant, which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Mr. Casey, the Notary Public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as a photograph of any person whom you have heretofore known and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 9. I think I recognize that picture as that of F. Adolph Walters. There is no doubt in my mind of that being his picture.

EUGENE H. STEMPEL.

Arthur H. Stempel, a witness of lawful age, being produced by defendant and duly sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. Arthur H. Stempel; age, 23; occupation, druggist; reside in Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. Twenty-three years and over; was born here.

Int. 3. State if you were ever acquainted with a person of the name of Frederick Adolph Walters, and if so where did he reside at the time of such acquaintance?

Ans. 3. At Fort Madison.

Int. 4. State how long that acquaintance continued and how long had you known him?

Ans. 4. As far back as I can remember.

Int. 5. When did you last see Frederick Adolph Walters?

[Int. 5.] In the spring of 1878.

Int. 6. Please to describe Frederick Adolph Walters; that is, his personal appearance and features as you last saw 2137 him?

Ans. 6. His height was very near six feet, square shoulders; he weighed about 175 pounds; he was muscular; had long arms, long fingers and large hands. He had a large foot, but slim; he complained of corns. His hair was wavy, curly; heavy and dark brown; it seems to me it was fine, I may be mistaken on that point. It seems to me he had a high forehead, cheek bones, heavy. He had a pretty large nose; it had a hump, a small one in the middle. His mouth was not very large and when he laughed he showed his teeth. He had heavy, nice set of teeth. His mustache was light, that is it was lighter than his hair. It grew straight. He had a large chin.

Int. 7. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant, which has been marked Exhibit "A' by Mr. Casey, the Notary Public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known and if so give the name of that person.

Ans. 7. I think I do, of Frederick Adolph Walter. His hair, cheek bone, mustache and chin is that of Frederick Adolph Walters and teeth.

A. H. STEMPEL.

H. F. Stempel, a witness of lawful age, being produced by defendant and sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. My name is H. F. Stempel, my profession is physician; I am 57 years of age; reside in Fort Madison.

Int. 2. State if you were ever acquainted with a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walters, and if so state when and where you knew him.

Ans. 2. I have been acquainted with him intimately. He was very often in my house visiting my sons. I liked him just like our own boys. I knew him at Fort Madison.

Int. 3. Describe the personal appearance and features of Frederick Adolph Walters, as you last saw him?

Ans. 3. He must have been about five feet and ten inches or so; I don't know exactly, nine or ten inches, maybe ten or eleven inches in height. He was a heavy built boy; bony, not very fleshy, but muscular. He had pretty large arms and pretty long hand. His legs were long in proportion to his body. His hands were large and his fingers were long, and the veins showed themselves on his hands. He had a pretty high forhead, a good sized nose, a kind of Roman nose, and pretty large nostrils. His lower jaw and his upper jaw, the teeth of the lower and upper jaws covered, they fit together. He had very fine teeth, pretty large, too. He had somewhat curly, dark brown hair. He had a great mass of hair on 2138 his head. His cheek bones were elevated or high. He had a medium chin. He was of dark complexion.

Int. 4. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant, which has been marked Exhibit A by Mr. Casey, the Notary Public, and after examination state if you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have heretofore known and if so state his name?

Ans. 4. To the best of my belief I think it is the picture of Frederick Adolph Walter. It is the same hair and laying on the temple just as it did in life. It is the same forehead. The nose is a little changed, but it comes from death. The same cheek bones and mouth, and his mustache. The same chin as he had in life, and from the general cast of the features I would say it was Walters.

H. F. STEMPEL.

D. W. Henry, a witness of lawful age, being produced and sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. D. W. Henry; age, 58; residence, Fort Madison, Lee County, Iowa; I deal in stocks.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. Twenty-seven years last April.

Int. 3. State if you ever knew a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walter, and if so, where he resided at the time of your acquaintance?

Ans. 3. I knew him from his boyhood; he lived in the town of Fort Madison.

Int. 4. Please to give a description of the personal appearance and the features of this Frederick Adoph Walters?

Ans. 4. His general appearance was good. My opinion is he would be a man from five feet ten inches high to eleven inches. His legs were longer in proportion to the balance of his body to form an evenly proportioned man. His arms were long, equally long in proportion to his legs. He was 2139 square-shouldered, rather heavy shouldered, the point of his shoulder was higher if anything than where it joined his neck. He had rather high cheek bones and his face was wide through the upper part of his cheek bones. The nose was a little on the Roman order, and the nostrils were wide at the base. He had what I call nice teeth, a little broad, and his upper lip being short showed his teeth when he talked. My recollection is that his teeth set square together. He had a fine head of hair and my recollection is that it curled a little, it was dark brown.

Int. 5. Look at the protograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for defendant, which has been marked Exhibit "A," by S. M. Casey, the Notary Public, and after examination state whether you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have known heretofore and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 5. Yes, sir; I do, and that is poor Frederick Adolph Walters; I can't be mistaken.

Int. 6. State how you recognize that as the photograph of Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 6. Well, I recognize it by the general features of the man, there is something I cannot explain about it, but it is the general features of the man. There is the high cheek bone, a little of the Roman nose and the nostrils wide at the base, and a fine set of teeth and the upper lip a little short; and his fine head of hair. It looks as natural as a corpse could look.

D. W. HENRY.

Theodore Ernst, a witness of lawful age, being produced and sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age, occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. Theodore Ernst; Fort Madison, Iowa; jeweler; age, 48 years.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?

Ans. 2. Over 20 years.

Int. 3. State if you ever knew a person by the name of Frederick Adolph Walter and if so state where he lived when you were acquainted with him?

Ans. 3. I knew from a little boy at Fort Madison.

Int. 4. Please describe the personal appearance and the features of this Frederick Adolph Walters?

Ans. 4. He was a good sized man, very heavy boned and muscular. He had wide shoulders and a face which was a kind of Indian cut, with high cheek bones, a good nose, large, a little Roman nose in shape, high and wide forehead, nose was kind of Roman. The hair dark brown and curled or very near black. He had teeth, full, large teeth, and a mouth full of them. He was very strong, heavy boned and muscled. He wasn't fleshy; it seemed he was just muscle and bone, 2140 his mustache grew thin and straight.

Int. 5. Look at the picture now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for the defendant, which has been marked Exhibit "A" by Sabert M. Casey, the Notary Public, and after examination state if you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have known in life and if so give the name of that person?

Ans. 5. I recognize it as the picture of the person I have been describing.

Int. 6. How do you recognize it as the picture of Walters?

Ans. 6. From the full appearance and by the outside lines of the features. When I look at it it appears as if I had him right before me.

THEO. ERNST.

Alex. J. Windmayer, a witness of lawful age being produced and sworn, testified as follows:

Int. 1. State your name, age occupation and place of residence?

Ans. 1. A. J. Windmayer; age 25 last April; residence, Fort Madison.

Int. 2. How long have you resided in Fort Madison?
Ans. 2. I was born here.
Int. 3. State if you ever knew a person by the [—] of Frederick Adolph Walter and if so where did you know him?
Ans. 3. Yes sir; he resided here, we were schoolmates and very good friends.
Int. 4. Please to give a description of the personal appearance and the features of Frederick Adolph Walters as you last saw him?
Ans. 4. I should judge he was about five ten or eleven inches high, wide shouldered, very square build, he had high cheek bones and a pretty large nose, it was slightly Roman, very dark brown curly hair, more black than brown. He had beautiful teeth, a very close set and regular, of equal length. His hands were slim and very long fingers. His mustache was not very heavy; when I saw him last it was straight. It was lighter in color than his hair. He had a middling high forehead, slightly retreating. His arms were long. He had long legs; in proportion to his body his legs were a little too long, slightly bow legged. He had a pretty large foot. I think he wore an eight or 9 boot.
Int. 5. Look at the photograph now shown you by J. W. Green, attorney for the defendant, and marked Exhibit 'A' by the Notary Public and after examination state if you recognize it as the photograph of any person you have known and if so give the name of that person?
Ans. 5. I would say it was Frederick Adolph Walters. I should judge it to be a picture of him, Frederick Adolph Walters.

A. J. WINDMAYER.

2141 Impeaching Questions of Hezekiah Covey.

By Mr. Barker: We now offer in evidence certain questions on pages 29 and 30 of the transcript of the trial of 1885, on the cross examination of Hezekiah Covey, the witness who testified in regard to a mole on the back or John W. Hillmon. His attention was called to these questions.

The plaintiff objects to the reading of the questions in evidence as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, because no proper foundation has been laid, and because the method sought to be employed is not a proper method to impeach a witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Mr. Barker thereupon read to the jury the following questions and answers from said testimony of Hezekiah Covey:
"No, you identified those remains, did you?
A. Well, in my own mind I did, yes sir.

Q. Did they look natural, well preserved and in good order? A. They looked natural to me.

Q. Perfectly natural? A. Not perfectly natural.

Q. Now, by what particular feature, if any, did you recognize the remains as being Hillmon's?

A. Nothing no more than I would you.

Q. Didn't recognize him by any particular feature or mark?

A. No sir.

Q. Was there any peculiarity about Hillmon by which you could recognize him?

A. Not particularly, no marks that I knowed of.

Q. Don't remember of any marks? A. No sir."

By Mr. Hutchings: We now offer to read in evidence, the entire testimony of the witness Covey given upon said trial of 1896.

No objection. Said testimony is in words and figures as follows, to wit:

2142 H. Covey, called and after being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Questions by Mr. Hutchings:

Q. What is your first name? A. H. Covey.

Q. Mr. Covey, where do you reside? A. In Lawrence.

Q. How long have you resided in Lawrence?

A. Since 1865.

Q. What is your occupation?

A. Well, generally it had been driving a team.

Q. State if you were acquainted with John W. Hillmon in his life time? A. Yes sir.

Q. About what time did you become acquainted with him?

A. I can't state exactly. I think it was in 1872 or 1873.

Q. How frequently had you met him up to the time of his death?

A. I could not say. He was in the country frequently. I used to see him frequently in town. I seen him several times at Mr. Eldridge's stable, and I have seen him with Mr. Baldwin several times.

Q. About when did you last see him alive?

A. It was in 1879 sometime; I see him and Mr. Baldwin sitting on the bridge the last time I saw them—right at the end of the bridge. I was coming over with a team. They were sitting there talking. I spoke to them.

Q. The bridge at Lawrence? A. Yes sir.

Q. In what condition did you next see them?

A. I saw the remains of him there at Bailey & Smith's, the undertakers.

Q. About how long after that?

A. I could not say exactly how long it was after.
Q. Can you tell about what time of the year it was?
A. It was in 1879 some time, but I could not tell the exact time.
Q. Tell whether it was in the spring or fall.
A. It was in March or April along there somewhere in the spring, I think.
Q. Who was present when you saw the dead body
A. Well, there was a good many. I could not name them all. I was not looking to see who was present. I just walked in to see the corpse. Ed Monroe was present. He was the only one I have any recollection of knowing who was in there.
Q. Do you remember with regard to Hillmon's height?
A. Well, I don't; no sir.
Q. About what was his height, if you can tell, compared with yours?
A. I should judge he was about the height of me—might be a little taller; I could not say. He was as tall as I am any way, I think.
Q. What is your height? A. I am five feet eleven inches.
Q. Where were you at the time of the former trial of this case three years ago? A. Three years ago I was in Atchison.

Cross Examination.

Questions by Mr. Barker:
Q. I understand you to say that you do not remember in regard to his height—nothing special about his height?
A. I do not think I said anything of the kind.
2143 Q. You do remember now, then?
A. I said he was tall as I am.
Q. That is a mere matter of judgment, opinion, is it not?
A. Yes sir.
Q. He is a man that you have not seen since 1879?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And you call to mind now that that is your impression?
A. Yes, I have seen him frequently—been with the gentleman.
Q. Who were you working for in the spring of 1879?
A. Tom Anderson.
Q. Were you driving a team for Tom Anderson?
A. Yes sir.
Q. In Lawrence? A. Yes sir.
Q. You are working for him now in Atchison, are you not?
A. No sir; I am driving for the city of Lawrence now.
Q. What were you doing prior to 1879?

A. I drove some for Mr. Anderson in Atchison since. I have also drove a couple of years before for the city of Lawrence.

Q. You know Levi Baldwin, don't you? A. Yes sir, I do.

Q. Know him well? A. Yes sir.

Q. You used to live out there in that neighborhood, didn't you? A. Yes, within five miles of him.

Q. Do you remember seeing Levi Baldwin there at Lawrence at the same time the remains were there?

A. No sir, I don't.

Q. Didn't you see him around there?

A. No sir; I just happened in with a load of nails. I saw them take the remains in. I jumped off to see the remains. That is how I came to be there. Ed Monroe was in there, and we came out together.

Q. You and Ed Monroe came out together? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did you see Bailey & Smith there?

A. I do not have no recollection of it, no sir.

Q. Now, you identified those remains, did you not?

A. Well, in my own mind I did, yes sir.

Q. Who was the first person you told in regard to it?

A. Ed Monroe.

Q. Did those remains look natural?

A. They looked to me like Hillmon.

Q. Did they look natural—well preserved—in good order?

A. They looked natural to me.

Q. Perfectly natural? A. Not perfectly natural.

Q. The remains were sufficiently well preserved so that you had no trouble in recognizing Hillmon?

A. I got it down in my head that that was Hillmon.

Q. And this is the first time you ever told of it in public, is it not? A. Yes sir; I have tried to keep out of it.

Q. Now by what particular features, if any, did you recognize the remains as being Hillmon's?

A. Nothing no more than I would you.

Q. Didn't recognize him by any particular feature or mark?

A. No sir.

Q. It was just you had an impression that those were 2144 the remains of Hillmon, was it not?

A. Yes; I had seen him a good many times.

Q. It was talked over that those were the remains of John W. Hillmon?

A. Some said it was and some said it was not.

Q. Did you hear anything in regard to it in there?

A. No sir.

Q. So you remember Hillmon well, do you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Remember his features well, do you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember the color of his hair and eyes?

A. Yes sir.
Q. What was the color of his eyes?
A. He had dark eyes and dark hair.
Q. Did you examine the hair of the dead body?
A. I looked at it, yes.
Q. Was his head covered or uncovered?
A. It was not covered when I was in.
Q. How long were you in there?
A. About ten or fifteen minutes.
Q. You stayed in there ten or fifteen minutes, did you?
A. I did.
Q. This room in which the remains were kept was a small room, was it not? A. Yes sir.
Q. And there could not more than six or eight persons get in at the time?
A. There were more than that in there at that time.
Q. Was Mr. Eldridge in there all the time you were in there? A. I did not see Mr. Eldridge.
Q. I mean Ed Monroe?
A. I could not tell you. He came out with me. I think Mr. Monroe went in with me.
Q. What is his name? A. Edwin.
Q. You think he went in with you, do you? A. Yes sir.
Q. Where is he? A. In Lawrence.
Q. Was there any peculiarity about Hillmon by which you could recognize him?
A. Not particularly; no marks that I knowed of.
Q. Don't remember of any marks? A. No sir.
Q. Now, I understand you to say that you had seen Hillmon and Baldwin together some time before that?
A. Yes sir. I think the last time I saw Mr. Hillmon he was sitting on the bridge.
Q. He was sitting on the Lawrence bridge? A. Yes sir.
Q. Whereabouts?
A. At the end of the bridge right where the railroad goes under the bridge.
Q. When would you say that was—what month?
A. I could not say; it was along in the spring some time.
Q. They were sitting there talking? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you say that was the last time you ever saw Hillmon?
A. I think that was the last time. I would not say positive, but I think that was the last.
Q. When before that had you seen him?
A. I had seen him in town frequently.
Q. You saw him in March or February 1879; when had you seen him before that?

A. I could not say positive, only that I had seen him passing. He lived at Lawrence and I lived there. After I would get off of my team, sometimes I would go up town and pass the gentleman.

2145 Q. Was he there in Lawrence along during the winter of 1879—did you see him there frequently say during December 1878 and January and February 1879?

A. I do not think he was there in 1879.

Q. You don't think you saw him in 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you see him in those months in 1879—in the months of January and February 1879, and in the month of December, 1878?

A. I seen him in 1878, frequently, just as I saw him in 1879.

Q. Did you see him frequently in 1879?

A. Not very frequently.

Q. How often do you suppose you saw him in 1879?

A. About once or twice. That was in 1879 that I saw him on the bridge; I think it was.

Q. Did you see him at any time prior to that time in 1879?

A. I could not say positively. I used to see him every few days.

Q. When you first knew him, where were you living?

A. Well, we came out to where father was living on Robinson's place. He came there for a few cattle, I think.

Q. Do you know who he was working for then?

A. I do not.

Q. Did you ever know a man by the name of Keeler?

A. I do, yes sir.

Q. Do you remember of his working for Keeler?

A. Mr. Keeler had some cattle there, yes.

Q. Do you remember of Mr. Hillmon's working for Keeler?

A. I do not remember whether he was there for Keeler or not. He used to come there for cattle frequently.

Q. Do you remember of his herding cattle for Mr. Keeler anywhere over that country? A. I don't think I do.

Q. What year was that when you first saw him?

A. I could not say positively what year.

Q. State as near as you can.

A. I don't know as I could.

Q. You know of his going west, don't you?

A. I don't, no, sir. I didn't know it until I heard this talk of his getting killed.

Q. Didn't you know of his going to Colorado or New Mexico.

A. No, sir, I never knew anything of it until I went in to see him there.

Q. I understand, then, that during the time you lived there at Lawrence, you never knew the fact that he had been to Colorado or New Mexico? A. No, sir.

Q. Never heard of it? A. No, sir.
Q. Didn't miss him while he was gone?
A. I didn't pay any particular attention.
Q. I asked you if you missed him while he was gone there?
A. No, sir, I have no recollection of his going.

Witness dismissed.

* * * * *

2146 J. W. Green, recalled on behalf of the defendants.

Direct examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. At the time of the coroner's inquest at Lawrence over this body state whether or not there was a stenographer present? A. There was a stenographer present.

Q. Do you remember his name? A. George Baldridge.

Q. Did he take stenographic notes of the testimony of the witnesses? A. He did, I presume.

Q. Do you know what became of those stenographic notes; you may state when and where if ever you last saw them?

A. The last time I remember of seeing them was at the first trial of this case. That is to say, the stenographic notes extended; those stenographic notes were never signed by the witnesses.

Q. You may state what was done with them or what became of them if you know?

A. We placed Mr. Baldridge on the stand to testify and objection was raised to the notes that the notes were secondary evidence; then the further objection was made that—Objection.

By the Court: What became of the notes, Mr. Green?

A. That I don't know; they were deemed to be worthless.
Q. Were they used in evidence at that time?
A. They were not permitted to be used in evidence at that time.
Q. Have you seen those notes since that time?
A. No, sir, not to my recollection.
Q. Where was George Baldridge living at that time; I mean at the time of the trial of this case first in Leavenworth?
A. In St. Louis.
Q. Do you know what position he held, whether he was in any other business at that time or not?
A. I don't remember what he was doing. I know he was living in St. Louis.
Q. Do you know whether he is living or dead now?
A. My information was that he was dead before the second trial of this case.

2147 Q. I will ask you if you have those notes in your possession or under your control or know where they are?
A. I don't think I ever had them in my possession; I don't recollect that I did. I think Mr. Baldridge kept them in his possession.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Were they at any more than one trial, those extended notes? A. No.
Q. You are positive upon that point?
A. Quite positive of that.
Q. Who employed Mr. Baldridge to take those stenographic notes and extend them?
A. I don't know that I recollect who employed him to take them.
Q. Who paid him?
A. Some of the insurance companies paid him.
Q. When were the notes extended with reference to the inquest? How long subsquently to the inquest?
A. I don't recollect that.
Q. Well, it must have been prior to the first trial?
A. Yes.
Q. How does your recollection serve you, was it within a short time, a few weeks or months after the inquest?
A. That I don't remember.
Q. Did you or Mr. Barker to your knowledge give directions for their extension?
A. I think I gave directions for the extension.
Q. Who was the custodian of those notes after they were extended? A. Mr. Baldridge, I think.
Q. When were they paid for? A. I don't remember that.
Q. You know within six months or a year, don't you? This all transpired in the spring of 1879?
A. I don't remember when they were extended.
Q. What would be your best recollection as to whether they were extended within a month or two months after the inquest? A. I have no recollection on that point.
Q. Who was the custodian of those notes after they were extended? A. Mr. Baldridge, I think.
2148 Q. You never had them in your possession?
A. I don't remember ever having them in my possession.
Q. You say you don't know which of the insurance companies paid for them. Who distributed the money that went to Mr. Baldridge to pay for that work of taking those notes and extending them?
A. I don't know; I haven't thought of that matter.

Q. Is it not a fact that you were the person who did the most of the disbursing for the companies relative to that matter there. That is for the purpose of refreshing your recollection.

By Mr. Barker: I object to the question as not proper cross-examination. The only point was to show that the notes were lost.

By Mr. Atwood: We think it is proper to find out about them. If they were, as we understand, private property made by one of their servants, in the custody of one of their servants, then their loss is due to the insurance companies.

By Mr. Barker: That does not show that they are not lost.

By Mr. Atwood: But it shows who lost them along with the tin type and other things.

The defendants and each of them except to the remark of counsel.

Q. You say you never have been the custodian of those notes, extended or otherwise? A. Not to my recollection.

Q. Did you ever see them in the possession of the insurance people except with Baldridge?

A. I have had them in my hands.

Q. Did you ever see them in the possession of anybody besides Mr. Baldridge and yourself? A. I don't recollect.

Q. Did you have them in your possession outside of the court room at the time they were presented at the first trial?

A. I don't recollect that I did.

Q. Do you rememeber of seeing them at that trial?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. But you have no recollection of seeing them since that time? A. No, sir.

Q. But the insurance companies paid for them?

A. I presume they did.

Excused.

2149 George J. Barker, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Mr. Barker, you may state if you were present at the coroner's [question] held over this dead body in the spring of 1879? A. I was.

Q. Do you remember whether or not there was a stenographer there? A. There was.

Q. What was his name? A. George Baldridge.

Q. Do you know as to the fact as to whether he ever extended those notes, the notes taken there at that time?

A. He extended notes of some of the witnesses; I don't know whether he did of all or not.

Q. When and where did you see those notes as extended?

A. I saw them in this city, I think in 1881, at the time this case was being tried before Judge Foster.

Q. You may state whether or not Baldridge was a witness on that occasion? A. He was.

Q. Called by whom? A. By the defendants.

Q. You may state whether he was asked to testify as to his recollection of what took place or rather as to the evidence given at the coroner's inquest?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. He was.

Q. You may state if at that time objection was made as to his testimony and what that objection was.

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The Court sustained the objection, to which action of the Court each of the defendants at the time duly excepted.

2150 By Mr. Green: I desire to show this, and I think I can by this witness, that Mr. Baldridge was asked certain questions; that upon a preliminary question, Mr. Baldridge said that he had no recollection of the evidence which was given at that coroner's inquest except as shown by his notes; he testified that he took the evidence down correctly, that he transcribed it correctly, but that he had no independent recollection, and thereupon, upon the ruling of Judge Foster he was not permitted to testify, he being only allowed to use those notes for the purpose of refreshing his recollection. I think that is proper and we should be allowed to show that. Our motives have been constantly drawn in question by insinuations of counsel.

By the Court: I know, Mr. Green, but I have told the jury and I have no doubt they will endeavor to do so, to pay no attention to insinuations from either side; we cannot stop to clear up insinuations or to try insinuations. Whether Judge Foster was right or wrong, cuts no figure in this case; the utmost that could be said if he were wrong was that that was the reason why the notes were lost, but that cannot be urged because counsel say they think Judge Foster was wrong in making the ruling; they do not say the notes were lost because of Judge Foster's ruling, so I do not see how that throws any light on this subject at all.

To which ruling and opinion of the court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Q. Mr. Barker, where was Baldridge living at the time he was summoned here as a witness? A. Living at St. Louis.
Q. By whom was he brought here?
A. Brought here by the defendants.
Q. What was his business there, if you know?
A. I don't know whether he was still in the service of the telegraph company or not.
Q. What was his business in Lawrence?
A. He was a telegraph operator and stenographer.
Q. Do you know whether he is living or dead?
A. He is dead.
2151 Q. When did he die?
A. I can't tell you; I can't fix the date.
Q. Do you remember whether it was before the second trial? A. I think it was.
Q. Do you know where those extended notes are?
A. I never saw them—
Q. Have you got them in your possession?
A. I haven't got them in my possession or under my control; I have no knowledge as to where they are; I never saw them after that trial to my knowledge.

And in answer to cross interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Now, you think it was in 1882 the trial was, wasn't it?
A. Yes.
Q. Baldridge was here and testified as a witness?
A. Yes, he was put upon the stand, and we attempted to have him testify.
Q. You say that he said at that time he had taken this testimony in shorthand, but that he did not remember what Mrs. Hillmon or the other witnesses had testified to?
A. I don't remember of his using the words, Mrs. Hillmon, but he said he had no independent recollection of what the witnesses testified to.
Q. And he was present and heard all the testimony?
A. Well, I wouldn't say that.
Q. Well, wasn't he?
A. I could not say as to whether he heard all of the testimony; the testimony of the more important witnesses.
Q. I understood you to say upon direct examination that you were there present? A. I was present.
Q. You were examining witnesses, were you not?
A. I examined some witnesses.

Q. Is it not a fact that Mr. Baldridge was at Topeka when the case was tried there?

A. That is not my recollection; no, I am quite clear he never was at Topeka. I mean when I say never at To-
2152 peka, at the instance of the defendants upon these trials; I have no knowledge of having seen him at Topeka or of having seen him after this trial in 1882.

Q. You say that Mr. Baldridge testified that he had no independent recollection, but that the notes he had made were correct, and he knew they were correct when he made them?

A. That is what he testified to, that he had no independent recollection of what the witnesses testified to, but it was correctly taken down, and such of it as was transcribed was correctly transcribed, or extended, I mean.

Q. And you had at that time those notes which the stenographer had correctly taken down and correctly transcribed?

A. I wouldn't say that we had his notes, his original shorthand notes.

Q. The transcript?

A. But we had some transcript or extension of some of these notes.

Q. Now, Mr. Barker, didn't you have that transcript when this case was tried before Judge Thomas in 1895?

A. We did not.

Q. Didn't you have a copy of those notes that Baldridge had made? A. Did not; never saw them.

Q. You are sure of that? I mean at that trial.

A. Quite clear in regard to that, sir.

Q. Mr. Barker, Baldridge was a son-in-law of Colonel Walker, was he not? A. Yes sir.

Q. You say he is dead now?

A. Yes, both he and his wife.

By Mr. Green:

Q. Did Mr. Baldridge give any evidence as to the evidence given or testified to by witnesses at the coroner's inquest, on the first trial?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

2153 A. It is my recollection he did not.

By the Court: I think the law of this state requires the evidence before a coroner's inquest to be reduced to writing, signed and filed with the county clerk.

By Mr. Atwood: It does.

By Mr. Barker: Before the notes were written out, I think Mr. Baldridge had gone away and the witness did not sign their testimony.

Further cross-interrogatories by Mr. Atwood:

Q. How long afterwards did Mr. Baldridge leave the city of Lawrence?

A. I could not saw soon after the coroner's inquest he left Lawrence.

Q. Is it not a fact that he left there a year or more after that? A. I should not; I tried to get him—

Q. No matter about that; I simply want to know in relation to his residence, if you know?

A. I could not state definitely about it.

Q. Wouldn't you fix it as much as six months?

A. Possibly, but I would not think it was as much as that; still my recollection in regard to that is not very definite.

Q. It would be some time; some weeks or some months?

A. Yes, I should think as long as that.

Witness excused.

2154 Charles R. Walters, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Mr. Walters, you may state your name, place of residence?

A. Charles Robert Walters, Rich Hill, Missouri.

Q. What is your business?

A. I am engaged in the publication of a newspaper.

Q. How long have you resided in Rich Hill, Missouri?

A. I have resided there since 1880.

Q. Did you at any time reside at Fort Madison, Iowa?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. From what time to what time did you reside in that place?

A. I was both in St. Louis, Missouri, and my father removed to Fort Madison when I was quite small.

By Mr. Hutchings: Never mind about that; the question was how long you had resided there?

A. Well, I don't know exactly; I resided there from infancy until about 17 years of age.

Q. What was the name of your father?

A. Daniel Walters.

Q. Is he now living or dead? A. Yes, sir, living.

Q. What was your mother's name?

A. Elizabeth Walters.

Q. Is she still living? A. No, sir.

Q. What country was your father a native of, do you know?

The plaintiff objects to the question as immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff [fully] excepts.

A. He was a native of the French part of Switzerland.
Q. And your mother, what nationality was she?
A. I think my mother was a native of Germany.
Q. Have you any brothers and sisters? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Will you please state their names?
A. I have three sisters living, Mrs. Elizabeth Rieffenach, Miss Fannie Walters and Miss Anna Hansman.
2155 Q. Did you have any brothers? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What were their names?
A. I had one brother named Frederick Adolph Walters.
By the Court: Is the name Walters or Walter?
A. Sometimes written Walter and sometimes Walters; we usually drop the S; I always have.
Q. Where do your sisters reside?
A. At Fort Madison, Iowa.
Q. Are they still residing at Fort Madison, Iowa?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say you had a brother Frederick Adolph Walters?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. When did you last see him?
A. I last saw him at Holden, Missouri.
Q. At what time? A. In the month of July, 1878.
Q. Where were you residing at that time?
A. I was either residing then at Warrensburgh or Holden; I resided a portion of the time in one town and a portion of the time in the other.
Q. How did it come that you resided a portion of the time in one town and a part of the time in the other?
A. I was engaged in business in both towns; both towns are in the same county.
Q. Of those brothers and sisters, which was the oldest?
A. I was the oldest child in the family; my brother was next oldest, my sister Elizabeth next, Fannie was next in age and Anna was the younger.
Q. Since you saw this brother Frederick Adolph Walters as you stated at Holden, Missouri, have you heard from him?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, from what place did you last hear from him?
A. I am not certain in my recollection of the last point, but it was either Emporia or Wichita, Kansas.
Q. Did you hear from him before you say you heard from him from Emporia or Wichita, Kansas, from any other place after he left you at Holden, Missouri? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Can you state what places you heard from him?

A. I can remember some of the points; the first point after he left me was Paola, Kansas, and after that I heard 2156 from him at Lawrence and Emporia and perhaps Topeka; I am not certain about that now, however, and the last letter, his last letter came to me either from Emporia or Wichita.

Q. Now, when was that letter written or dated?

A. It occurs to me—

The plaintiff objects to the contents of the letter as secondary evidence.

By the Court: Is it lost?

By Mr. Green: It is lost. Do you know where the letter is that you last received from him? A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. Have you searched for that letter? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Have you searched in all the places you would expect to find it, where you would usually keep it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And so far as you know, the letter is lost?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, you may state if you please, the date of that letter?

A. To the best of my recollection that letter was received in the month of February following the time that I last saw my brother.

Q. That would be February— A. 1879.

Q. Do you know when your brother Frederick Adolph Walters left Fort Madison, if he did leave Fort Madison?

A. I do not know the exact time.

Q. How long had it been since you left Fort Madison up to the time that you saw him as you say in 1879?

A. Well, sir, I don't remember definitely but I saw him in 1876, during the Centennial year; I saw him in the fall of 1876 at Fort Madison.

Q. You don't understand my question. When did you leave Fort Madison originally?

A. I left Fort Madison in 1871.

Q. Now, have you heard from this brother Frederick Adolph Walters since the time you spoke of receiving a letter from him written from Emporia or Wichita? A. No, sir.

Q. Have you seen him since? A. No, sir.

Q. Has he returned to his home in Fort Madison since that time to your knowledge? A. No, sir.

2157. Q. Now, about how often had you been hearing from him from the time he left you at Holden in 1878, up to the time that you received this last letter?

A. Well, I judge about twice a month.

Q. Now, what business arrangement, if any, did you have or contemplate with your brother Frederick Adolph Walters?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled; the plaintiff duly excepts.

My brother and I had an understanding at the time he left me at Holden to go up to Leadville, Colorado, together as soon as I could dispose of my property and make my business arrangements at those points, Warrensburg and Holden.

Q. Now, will you please state the contents of that letter which you last received from him, as near as you can remember.

The plaintiff objects to the same as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, hearsay and because no proper foundation has been laid.

By the Court: That is the letter you stated was lost?
By Mr. Green: Yes, sir.

The court overruled the objection, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. My brother stated in this letter that he had engaged with a party by the name of Hillmon to make a cattle drive back from their into eastern Colorado; he said he believed [the] would be a benefit to his health, that it would enable him to see a large portion of the country which he was desirous of seeing and that it would bring him back to a point favorable for he and I to meet for the purpose of making this trip to Leadville, at a season when the climate and conditions would be more favorable than they were at the time he wrote me.

Q. What had been the condition of his health, if you know, from the time that he left you until you last heard from him?

The plaintiff objects to the question as calling for the contents of letters, secondary evidence and hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

2158 By the Court: If you know.

A. I only know from his letters; I have no personal knowledge of the matter.

Mr. Green withdraws the question.

Mr. Hutchings moves to strike out the statement of the witness about the proposed trip to Leadville. The Court overruled the motion, to which ruling, the plaintiff at the time duly excepted and still excepts.

Q. What, if anything, did he say in that letter in regard to your joining him at Leadville?

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading, and calling for the conclusion of the witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. I don' think there was anything said about my joining him at Leadville; I was to join him at a point before we reached Leadville and we were expecting to go up there together.

Q. What did the letter say if anything about your joining him.

The plaintiff objects to the question as leading and calling for hearsay. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. I don't remember anything further than that there was some comment on the condition of the climate, some newspaper clippings, and the letter referred to those same conditions, that when he returned, when he made his return to northern Colorado, I was to join him, at some point which we might agree upon.

Q. Now, will you describe the personal appearance of your brother Frederick Adolph Walters. Well, sir, he was rather a large man, nearly six feet tall, square shouldered, long of limb and arm, large chested, had regular features, rather a high square forehead, Roman nose, brown eyes and dark brown hair. His hands were specially noticeable; he had a long, strong hand with long bony fingers; had rather large feet.

Q. Now, as to his teeth, do you remember the character of his teeth?

A. He had large white teeth, rather prominent; very prominent.

2159 Q. Did he show his teeth when he was talking or laughing?

A. Yes, sir. In conversation his teeth was very noticeable.

Q. You may state whether he had any marks on his body or scars.

A. Yes, he had a scar just somewhere above the heel on the back part of one of his legs caused from a dog bite when a small boy.

Q. When did you last see that scar, if you remember; how large was he or how old?

A. Well, sir I don't remember; I haven't seen it since he was a boy, a young boy, he may have been eight or ten years old or he may have been twelve or fourteen when I last saw it; I could not say as to that; could not say positively as to the time I last saw it.

Q. Did he have any other marks on his body that you know of?

A. Yes, he had a brown mole on his back near the spinal column just a little under the shoulder blade.

Q. When did you last see that mole?

A. I last saw that at Warrensburg, Missouri, just a few days prior to the last time I saw him at Holden, Missouri.

Q. Under what circumstances did you see it?

A. He was taking a bath or had taken a bath, and had requested me to wipe his back with a towel, and it was then that I discovered it, or that I noticed it particularly.

Q. Now as to his teeth; you may state whether or not he had any fillings in his teeth?

A. Well, sir, I could not say as to whether he did or whether he did not.

Q. Do you know from what point he came when he made that visit to you there at Holden?

A. No, sir, I do not; I don't remember at this time; I may have known it at that time.

Q. Now, as to the condition of his feet, what do you say as to them? A. His teeth?

Q. Not his teeth, his feet.

A. One of his feet at the time I saw him last had a slight enlargement just back of the great toe, something in the nature of a bunion, and he had corns on one of his feet, perhaps both; I could not say as to that.

2160. Q. Do you know whether or not he had been walking before he visited you there at Holden?

A. Yes, he had been walking and had been at work in the harvest field; so he told me.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer of the witness as hearsay. Motion sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. Now, you may state, Mr. Walters if you know which member of the family resembles him particularly?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Which member of the family.

A. In the profile of his face he resembled my sister Fanny more markedly than any of the rest of us.

Q. How as to his teeth; does he resemble—

A. Very much in that respect.

Q. Resembled whom?

A. My sister Fanny; his teeth were even larger than hers; he was of larger mould in all respects.

Q. Now, as to the shape of his nose?

A. His nose resembled hers more than it did any of the rest of the family.

Q. You spoke about his feet being large; do you know about the size of the foot?

A. No sir, I do not; the last time he—

Objection.

A. His feet were larger than mine.

Q. How were they shaped as to yours?

A. He had a larger instep than I have, and his feet were broader than mine.

Q. You spoke of his height; what means do you have of stating his height more than a comparison?

A. Well, sir, during the Centennial year, when we met together, we had not met for some time and we measured.

Q. Where was that? A. At Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. Do you remember of his height at that time that you measured?

A. No, sir, not accurately; his weight was five feet, eleven inches and a fraction.

2161 Q. What trade did he have, if any?

A. He had acquitted the trade of a cigar maker and had manufactured cigars on his own account for a time before entering upon this trip.

Q. Can you state how old he was when he visited you at Holden in 1878?

A. I could not off-hand; he was between two and three years younger than I; I could give his age by figuring out my own at that time. He must have been 23 at that time, 23 or 24.

Q. Will you look at the letter which has been marked, in the deposition taken by Sabert M. Casey, as Exhibit C, and state in whose handwriting that letter is?

A. That is in my brother's handwriting.

Q. Your brother Frederick Adolph? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Will you look at the portion of envelope shown you, and which was also marked Exhibit C, by Sabert M. Casey, and state in whose writing the address of that letter is?

A. That is in his handwriting.

Q. Will you look at the picture which is marked Exhibit V and state of whom that is a picture, if you know?

A. Yes, that is a picture of my brother Frederick Adolph.

Q. Do you know how old he was when it was taken.

A. No, sir, I should judge, though, that was taken at about the age of 21.

Recess to 2 o'clock p. m.

Afternoon session. Charles R. Walters on the stand. Direct interrogatories continued by Mr. Green.

Q. Referring now, once more, Mr. Walters, to the condition of your brother's teeth; you may state whether you know of your own knowledge that he ever had any dentistry done?

A. No.

Q. Now, the last time that you saw him in Holden in 1878, state whether or not he had a mustache?

A. Yes, he had a light sandy brown mustache; mustache not as deep color as his hair.

Q. What was that as to texture; as to heft? A. Sir?

Q. What was the character of that as to heft, the 2162 weight of the mustache? A. It was rather light.

Q. How did it grow?

A. Well, I don't know that I can describe it definitely; it grew something as mine does though his mustache was not as heavy as mine, not nearly so heavy.

Q. Will you look at the pictures now shown you which have been marked Exhibits Nos. 29 and 30, and state if you recognize them as the pictures of any one you have heretofore known, and if so, state to the jury who it was?

A. I would take these pictures to be pictures of this brother.

By a Juror: What did you say?

A. I pronounce them pictures of my brother.

Q. Where did you first see these pictures or pictures identical to them, if you remember?

A. I don't remember the exact date but it was sometime in the winter or early spring following his disappearance, or following the time when I last heard from him.

Q. Where did you see them?

A. I received them at St. Louis, Missouri; I received them by mail.

Q. From whom did you receive those?

A. They were sent me by my father from Fort Madison.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Mr. Walters when did you leave Fort Madison originally? A. In 1871.

Q. At that time you left Fort Madison permanently, did you not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where did you go?

A. I went first into Nebraska, came down through Kansas, and located at Holden, Missouri, for a period of a year and a half or such a matter.

2163 Q. Then, where did you go?

A. I went from there to Houston, Missouri, in Texas county in that state.

Q. Where else did you go?

A. Went from there to St. Louis, and from St. Louis back to Iowa, and back again to St. Louis.

Q. You went back to Iowa; what part of Iowa?

A. I went back to Fort Madison.
Q. How long did you stay in Fort Madison?
A. I don't remember, sir; but a very short time at that period.
Q. Was it days or weeks?
A. It might have been a period of two weeks or four weeks; to the best of my recollection it was about four weeks.
Q. What year was that? A. That was in 1876.
Q. Did you see your brother on that occasion?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had not seen him between 1871 and 1876, had you?
A. Yes, sir.
[A.] You had seen him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where? A. At St. Louis.
Q. When?
A. I don't remember the exact year, but it was either in 1873 or 1874,to the best of my recollection.
Q. Then was that the only time between 1871 and 1876 that you saw him? A. I think it was.
Q. How old was he when you left home?
A. I should judge he was about 14 in his 15th year probably.
Q. When you left there in 1871? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You saw him only once between 1871 and 1876?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then you saw him at Fort Madison when you returned there temporarily in 1876? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Then where did you go to?
A. I went back to—I was at that time located in southern Missouri, I went back to southern Missouri in Texas county.
Q. How long did you remain there?
A. I remained there until, well, I believe I left there in the winter of 1876.
Q. Where did you go to then?
A. I went to Fredericktown in Madison county, Mis-
2164 souri, and remained there a time, and then back to St. Louis and up to Warrensburgh where I located.
Q. That is where you were living in 1878? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you see your brother between 1876, when you saw him in Fort Madison, and the time when you saw him in Warrensburgh or Holden in 1878? A. I think not.
Q. Then, from the time your brother was 14 years old, up to the time you say he disappeared, you had seen him but three times?
A. Now, I had seen him a number of different times at three different periods. Now, he was located at St. Louis a portion of this time, during the same time at which I was there when I saw him there in 1873.

Q. How long a period?

A. Well, I should judge we were together there perhaps a month or two.

Q. In St. Louis? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And during that time you saw him frequently?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know when your brother left Fort Madison on his western trip? A. No, sir, I do not know the exact date.

Q. Do you know approximately when he left there?

A. Only from hearsay.

Q. Were you in correspondence with him before he left Fort Madison did he write to you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you know when he left Fort Madison by the correspondence you had with him? A. No, sir.

Q. When did you first learn that he had left Fort Madison and gone west? A. I don't remember.

Q. What is your best recollection; what is your present impression with reference to that matter?

A. I have no recollection on that point; my impression is that I was notified either by him or by one of the family of his departure.

Q. At the time that he left?

A. At the time he left but I don't remember when that was.

Q. You have no distinct recollection about that?

A. No, sir.

2165 Q. Well, after he left, where did you first hear from him? A. I don't remember that, sir.

Q. Haven't you any recollection at all upon the subject?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you any recollection that you did hear from him after he left Fort Madison?

A. No, sir; no definite recollection upon that point.

Q. It may [he been] then several months afterwards before you received any letter from him?

A. No, I think I received letters from him about twice a month at all times from the time he left there until he met me at Warrensburgh, and after he left Warrensburgh.

Q. And yet you cannot remember of any place from which you received a letter?

A. It occurs to me that I did receive a letter from him from Council Bluffs and one from Kansas City prior to his coming to see me, but I have no recollection of those dates.

Q. Have you any sort of recollection that you received a letter from him from Kansas City?

A. No, sir; it seems to me I received a letter from him from Kansas City, but I don't know.

Q. You can't say that you have any recollection of it?

A. No, sir.

Q. You can't say that you have any recollection of receiving a letter from him from Council Bluffs?

A. I have no distinct recollection of receiving letters from those places.

Q. Now, then, coming right down to the spring of 1878, you have no recollection of receiving a letter from him from Wichita? A. 1878? No, sir.

Q. Or 1879?

A. I would say no, sir; I received a letter from him—

Q. Just answer the question if you have any recollection of receiving a letter from him from Wichita?

A. I recollect that I received a letter from Wichita—

Q. That does not answer my question; I am asking for your present recollection; if you recollect, can you say that your mind is in that condition at the present time, that you remember that you received a letter from him at Wichita?

2166 A. No, sir.

Q. The last letter that you received, you don't know where it was dated; you don't remember?

A. I don't remember positively, no, sir.

Q. Have you no recollection on the subject?

A. I remember receiving letters from Emporia.

Q. From Emporia?

A. Yes, I have a distinct recollection as to that.

Q. That is what I want to get at. You have a distinct recollection of receiving more than one letter from him at Emporia? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many letters do you think you got from him at Emporia? A. I could not say as to that.

Q. You got more than once?

A. I don't know as to that. I remember of receiving letters from Paola, from Lawrence—

Q. That is not the question; I want to stick to this Emporia. We will come to the other points. I understood you to state voluntarily that you did remember of receiving letters from Emporia, and that that amounted to a recollection?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is that right? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, as contradistinguished from what you said about getting a letter from Council Bluffs and Kansas City and Wichita, you have a better recollection, you do distinctly recollect of receiving a letter from Emporia?

A. Yes, sir; I distinctly recollect of receiving letters from Paola—

Q. I didn't ask you anything about Paola; I am going to come to that. You have stated, as I understand it, that you have no recollection of receiving a letter from Council Bluffs,

Kansas City or Wichita, but you do remember of receiving a letter from him at Emporia? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is right, is it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, then, do you remember of receiving more
2167 one letter from him from Emporia? A. No, sir.

Q. What is your impression about that, that you received one letter from him from Emporia or more?

A. My impression is that I received one letter from Emporia; I may have received more.

Q. You may have received more? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is is not your recollection now that he was in Emporia for some weeks and that he wrote you several times from Emporia?

A. No, sir; I remember at this time whether he did or not.

Q. The last letter, as I understand it, that you received must have been from Emporia?

A. From Emporia or Wichita.

Q. But you have no recollection of Wichita?

A. No, sir; but my impression is, my best impression is that it was from Wichita, for the reason that it was received when I was at St. Louis.

Q. I am not asking for the reason; I want, Mr. Walters, to get your recollection. You understand, don't you, that a man may have a recollection of a matter or not. Now, does that amount of memory or recollection that you received any letter from Wichita?

A. According to my best recollection, I did.

Q. Well, now, then, is it your recollection that you received a letter from Emporia? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then it is your recollection that you received a letter both from Emporia and from Wichita? A. Yes, sir; that is.

Q. That is clear in your mind?

A. Yes, that is according to my best recollection; yes, sir.

Q. You have a recollection upon the subject? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, in your direct examination, you have stated the contents of a letter which you received from your brother?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. I would like, if you are willing, to get you to just write on this paper, your best recollection of that letter?

A. Well, I don't know that I can do that.

The defendants object to the question as improper.

By the Court: I do not see, Mr. Hutchings, that so far as aught appears at present, it is necessary.

2168 Q. Where was that letter dated?

A. I don't know to a certainty as to whether it was dated at Emporia or Wichita.

Q. Was it dated at all? A. I should judge it was.

Q. Do you remember that it was?
A. No, sir; I don't remember that it was dated at all.
Q. You don't remember then when it was?
A. I think the inference is that it was.
Q. But you have no recollection about it? A. No, sir.
Q. That is just simply a guess that you make; it was dated because letters are ordinarily dated? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have no recollection as to whether it was dated or not? A. No, sir.
Q. You don't remember whether the word February or March, or what appeared at the top of the page? A. No, sir.
Q. Do you remember when you received the letter?
A. To the best of my recollection I received it in the month of February.
Q. In the month of February?
A. In the latter part of February, yes, sir.
Q. Do you remember where it was postmarked?
A. No, sir.
Q. How did that letter address you?
A. His letters usually addressed me as Dear Brother.
Q. Have you any recollection as to how this letter read?
A. No, sir; I have not.
Q. What, according to your recollection was the first line of that letter; how did it start out?
A. Well, I could not—. If I could give you the first line, I could probably give you more; I could not state that.
Q. How many sheets of paper did it cover?
A. I can't say as to that.
Q. Was it a long letter or a short letter?
A. Well, I would call it just a medium letter.
Q. How was it signed? A. It was signed F. A. Walters.
Q. F. A. Walters? A. Yes, sir.
2169 Q. That was his name, was it?
A. Yes, he spelled his name Walters sometimes.
Q. How did he in that letter? A. I don't remember.
Q. You always write your name that way, don't you?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say the family way is Walters?
A. Some of the family write it with the s; some without the s.
Q. You don't remember how he signed his name?
A. Sometimes he signed it without the s and sometimes with.
Q. He did? A. I think, yes, sir.
Q. He had been to school, hadn't he? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Had some education? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say that in signing his name he sometimes signed Walters and some times Walter? A. I think he did.

Q. Which way did he employ mostly?
A. I think he left off the s most of the time.
Q. Most of the time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have been talking with counsel about that since the adjournment haven't you? A. No, sir.
Q. Have you looked at this letter which was introduced in evidence signed F. A. Walter?
A. I looked at that this morning.
Q. You noticed that the s was left off?
A. I think not; I didn't notice.
Q. But you testified this morning that the name was Walters, and that that was the way in which your family spelled it? A. I don't think I gave any such testimony.
Q. Don't you remember of his Honor asking you this morning whether the name was Walters or Walter?
A. I think I explained to his Honor that some would spell it one way and some the other.
Q. Didn't you say that your family called it Walters and didn't you say that you called it Walters?
A. Some of our family do, yes; some of my father's family do not.
Q. Going back to this letter again: You say it is lost?
A. Yes, sir, I presume it is.
2170 Q. Do you remember when you saw it last?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you give that letter to the insurance companies?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Didn't you give to Mr. Munn or Mr. Tillinghast, and these insurance companies, all these letters?
A. Not to my knowledge.
Q. Did you give any papers to the insurance companies, any letters you had from your brother?
A. I don't remember; I don't remember that I ever did.
Q. Your recollection is not very goods, is it?
A. No, sir, not in some things; in some, it is.
Q. Now, you have been shown some pictures here, those pictures that are marked Exhibits No. 29 and No. 30; they are pictures of a dead body, one of them is a side view and the other a front view. I will get you to tell the jury when it was you first saw those pictures, or pictures similar to those?
A. To the best of my recollection it was in the winter or early spring following the last letter I received from my brother, which must have been 1880.
Q. It was as early as January 1880, was it not?
A. I think likely it was.
Q. You saw these pictures at that time?
A. Yes, or pictures like these.
Q. Or similar pictures? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And at that time you say you thought you recognized these pictures as pictures of your brother? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had no doubt that they were? A. No, sir.
Q. You had no doubt he was dead? A. No, sir.
Q. You had no doubt that these pictures represented him dead? A. No, sir.
Q. You say no, sir; you mean you had no doubt?
A. I mean I had no doubt.
Q. That was in January, 1880?
A. I think it was in January, 1880 yes, sir.
Q. Before you received these pictures, you received
2171 a letter from your brother in which he said, in substance, among other things that he had been hired by a man by the name of Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the service that he was to perform for Mr. Hillmon was to go with him through Kansas, Texas and Colorado in herding sheep?
A. I don't remember any mention of sheep in the letter.
Q. Well, what was said on that subject?
A. It was a cattle drive.
Q. A cattle drive? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And in that letter he reminded you of some understanding he and you had that you would go to Colorado, did he? A. He made allusion to that in the letter, yes, sir.
Q. He said in that letter on his way back he would go to a convenient point to meet you; that is right, is it not?
A. Oh, I can't give the point to meet him; we were to meet at a common meeting point.
Q. Your understanding was that you would go to a point where he was to be? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And he would be partially on his way toward Leadville?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was the last letter that you received from your brother? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Which is lost? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You had fully made up your mind to meet and go to Leadville; is that right?
A. Well, we had an understanding to that effect.
Q. Well, had you in your mind determined that you would go?
A. Yes, sir, provided I could dispose of my business; could make satisfactory arrangements.
Q. Now, of course, that understanding was had in July, 1878? A. Yes, sir.
Q. The last time you saw him? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were expecting all the time to make arrangements to meet him as he stated?
A. I was up to the time of this writing, yes, sir.

2172 Q. You didn't change your mind after receiving this letter, did you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You changed your mind? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Then you determined what?

A. Well, sometime afterwards I had given up the idea; sometime afterwards, I gave up the idea.

Q. Sometime after what?

A. Sometime after I had made this arrangement, and after he had written this letter I had given up the idea of going to Leadville, whether he had returned and had been ready to go or not.

Q. Or not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. After he was down there with you in July, he went away saying that he was going to Kansas City? A. No, sir.

Q. Where? A. He was going to Paola.

Q. You then received letters from him from Paola?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. He left there some time in August?

A. I don't remember when he left Paola.

Q. I mean left Holden to go to Paola?

A. I think it was in July.

Q. July 1878? A. Yes, sir.

Q. He went away on foot did he, or did he take the train?

A. Well, sir, I don't know about that now; it occurs to me through that he took the train there.

Q. Your recollection would be that he went from Holden to Paola by train? A. By train, yes, sir.

Q. And you got a letter from him after he got to Paola?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many letters did you get from him from Paola?

A. It occurs to me that I received two letters from Paola.

Q. Now, where did you next hear from him?

A. I am not certain as to where the next letter came from, but subsequent to his departure from Paola, I received letters from Lawrence.

Q. From Lawrence, Kansas? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What would be your recollection as to the time you got a letter from Lawrence, Kansas?

A. I have never charged my memory with them.

2173 Q. I want to refresh your recollection: Will you say that you ever received a letter from him or that he ever was in Lawrence before the spring of 1879?

A. I can't say at this time.

Q. Well, did you get letters from him anywhere else except Paola and Lawrence?

A. Yes sir. I received letters from him continually up to the time I received this last letter I have mentioned.

Q. But from what places; you have already stated you got letters from him about twice a month?

A. I don't remember the different places.
Q. Did you ever get a letter from him at Leavenworth?
A. Not that I remember now.
Q. Do you know that he worked here in Leavenworth at any time? A. I don't remember.
Q. Did you hear that he worked here for Simmons & Staiger? A. I don't remember that I ever did.
Q. Did you get a letter from him at Topeka?
A. It occurs to me I did.
Q. Now, then, your brother had a scar on his leg?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You saw him in 1878 naked? A. Yes sir.
Q. Taking a bath? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you particularly remember that you noticed a mole on his back? A. Yes sir.
Q. That you remember more definitely than you do these letters? A. Yes sir.
Q. That made an impression upon your mind at that time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And remained in your mind? A. Yes sir.
Q. And at that same time you noticed that one of his feet was larger than the other, did you not?
A. Yes, sir, there was somewhat of an enlargement on one of his feet than on the other.
Q. He had an enlargement of his toe joint that was very noticeable was it not?
A. Well, I don't know whether it was an enlargement of the toe joint or not; it was similar to a bunion, a large 2174 bunion or inflamed condition of the toe there that was very perceptible at that time.
Q. It was very perceptible and made one foot look larger than the other? A. Yes sir.
Q. You were shown a picture here that was marked U. I will show you another picture which will be marked No. 35. Do you recognize that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is the same as the one you have seen; the same picture? A. Yes sir.
Q. The same negative but a different picture? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, I will show you another picture which will be marked No. 36. I will get you to state whether you recognize that? A. Yes sir.
Q. When did you have that picture in your possession?
A. I don't know that I ever had it only at the trials of this case; I don't remember that I ever had it in my possession.
Q. You say that is a picture of your brother?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you know H. S. Clarke who used to be sheriff of Douglas county? A. I have met him.

Q. Did you send that picture to him?
A. I don't remember.
Q. Did you send him a picture? A. I don't remember.
Q. Which of these two pictures, No. 35 or No. 36, is the best picture?
A. I presume they were both good pictures at the time they were taken; they were taken at different times, different periods of his age of boyhood.
Q. I exhibit to you here another picture which is marked No. 33, that has already been introduced in evidence, and ask you to state if you recognize that? A. Yes sir.
Q. Who is that? A. That is a picture—
Q. Of your brother, Frederick Adolph Walters?
A. Yes sir, I do not consider it as clear a picture though, as the other.
Q. But it is a picture that you recognize? A. Yes sir.
Q. You don't remember of sending the one from 2175 which that was copied to Mr. Clarke? A. No sir.
Q. You recognize 33 as being a copy of 36, do you not? A. It looks like it, yes sir.
Q. I will exhibit to you a paper to be marked No. 37, and I will get you to state in whose handwriting it is, if you know.
A. That is in my handwriting.
Q. Did you write that? A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you write it about the date that it bears date?
A. I presume I did.
Q. Did you mail it to H. S. Clarke, to whom it is addressed?
A. I presume I did.
Q. Now, prior to that time had you received letters from H. S. Clarke? A. I presume I did, yes sir.
Q. Don't you know you did? A. Yes sir, I do.
Q. Those letters are lost, are they not?
A. I don't know whether they are or not.
Q. Mr. Walters, I will ask you if you don't remember that at the trial of this case in 1895, when you testified in this case before Judge Thomas, that you said that these letters of Mr. Clarke—that you had not been able to find them, but you would go home and look for them, and if they could be found, you would express them to the clerk of the court? Do you remember that?
A. I remember testifying in regard to some letters.
Q. You remember of promising to go home and make a search?
A. I don't remember of testifying in regard to the Clarke letters.
Q. Don't you know that it was the Clarke letters that you testified about and that you promised the court that you would go home and search for those letters, and if they could be found, would send them back?

A. I remember of testifying in regard to some letters and I remember about promising to go home and search for them and I went home and searched for them.

2176 Q. Did you search for them? A. Yes sir.

Q. You could not find them? A. No sir.

Q. Either of the letters? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will ask you this general question: Whether those letters from H. S. Clarke were written prior to this letter; were they not letters inquiring of you for a description of your brother, Frederick Adolph Walters, and what information that you had about him? A. I presume they were.

Q. They asked you as to where he was employed last, and his whereabouts, to give any marks of identity, and to give the sheriff all the information that you could, did they not?

A. I don't remember just about the details.

Q. That is the substance of them?

A. Yes, that would be the presumption.

By Mr. Hutchings: I ask leave to read the letter in evidence as a part of the cross examination of the witness.

Counsel reads as follows:

2177 EX. 32. C. H. N.

Exhibit 37. Nov. 99. W. C. H.

224 Walnut St., St. Louis, Mo., Apr. 25th, 1880.

H. S. Clarke, Esq., Lawrence, Kansas:

My dear sir: Your favor of a few days since at h'd. In reply will say.

I had a brother who has been missing for more than a year, and who, from circumstances and description, we believed to be the unfortunate person you mention in your letter as being shot near Lawrence, Kansas, year ago this spring.

My brother was entering his 25th year, I believe, tho' at time mentioned must have looked slightly older, owing to severe illness and hardships through which he had passed during winter; he was nearly 6 ft. tall; good chest and rather nicely proportioned tho' long limbed and perhaps spare or raw boned; had dark eyes and deep brown hair, counted by many for black; large full white set of teeth; long bony fingers though powerful hands, wore about an eight or nine shoe—high in instep and had a scar just above heel of one foot; but don't know which foot; must have weighed at that time about 165 pounds. Don't know of any other marks. Usually wore a light (not of dense growth) mustache, which was of lighter shade than the hair—a more sandy brown and his face was perhaps swarthy from exposure.

My brother was a cigar maker by trade but had not worked at his trade for some time previous to that date; had wintered at or near Topeka, I believe and was on his way to Colorado; don't know for whom he worked last, or at what occupation—but don't think he had over $25 in money about his person; had with him a large black leather valise with name "F. A. Walters" in gilt letters on outside and containing about two suits of clothing, shirts and underwear a collection of coins, numerous small articles of brick-a-brack, papers, &c.; had an open face silver watch attached to a hair guard with gold slides usually worn over neck a small gold locket and a 2178 heavy gold ring (valued at $10 or $12) was an Odd Fellow and had papers with him to that effect.

Above are about all particulars I can give you. Have sent for picture and on receipt will forward to you; have none of his handwriting but if you possess any that you consider from his hand and will forward same, I will cheerfully identify if his. have not his last letter, but think I can obtain same as it was written to me in Iowa where, with other articles, I left it. In meantime if you will please send me paper containing account you refer to of last February, and any additional particulars in your possession, I may be able to assist you further.

Very truly yours, C. R. WALTERS.

2179 Q. Now, the date of this letter is April 25th, 1880. At the time you wrote this, didn't you know of any other marks; it was subsequent to the time you say you particularly noticed this mole, was it not? A. Well, I might—

Q. Was it or not?

A. There might have been other things that I might have omitted in that description right at that time that might not have occurred to me.

Q. That does not answer the question. That was after the time you had seen that mole, and particularly remembered it? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, then, when you wrote this, "I don't know for whom he worked last or at what occupation," you say that you had in your possession a letter from him in which he told you he had hired out to a man by the name of Hillmon and had gone off on a cattle drive?

A. He hadn't worked for Hillmon at that time.

Q. At this date?

A. At the date he wrote the letter.

Q. This letter is dated April 25th, 1880; when you wrote that, you say you had a letter from him and that you did know from that letter who he had hired out to, whom he was with last; that is true, is it not; when you wrote this letter you knew he had hired out to Hillmon?

A. Yes sir, I did undoubtedly.

Q. Now, then, I will exhibit to you another letter here, which is dated St. Louis, May 5th, 1880, and get you to state in whose handwriting that is. It is to be marked No. 38. You wrote that? A. Yes.

Q. Wrote it to this same Mr. Clarke? A. Yes sir.

Q. I will exhibit to you another letter dated St. Louis, May 9th, 1880, which will be marked No. 39. I will get you to state who wrote that? A. I wrote it.

Q. I will exhibit to you another letter dated May 22nd, 1880, and get you to state who wrote that.

A. I think I wrote that also.

Q. I will exhibit to you another letter dated August 9th, 1880, and get you to state who wrote that.

A. I wrote that also, I think.

2180 Q. I will exhibit to you another letter dated February 20, 1881, and get you to state who wrote that letter.

A. I wrote it.

Q. Now, each one of these letters was written by you to this man H. S. Clarke, sheriff of Douglas county, who was making inquiries concerning your brother? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, who did you first tell or inform that you had received a letter from your brother in which he mentioned the name Hillmon?

A. I think I first informed my relatives in Iowa.

Q. When did you do that?

A. Along about the time of its receipt I should judge.

Q. Didn't you first inform Mr. Munn of that fact?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Did you ever tell anybody of that fact except Mr. Munn at the first trial of this case?

A. Of the fact of receiving the letter?

Q. Yes, in which the name Hillmon was mentioned?

A. Yes sir, I don't remember it now.

Q. You don't remember of ever mentioning that circumstance to anybody until the first trial of this case, do you, except Mr. Munn?

A. My best recollection would be that I first spoke to my relatives about it.

Q. Well, now, that don't answer the question. The question is whether you remember of ever stating that circumstance to any person until you stated it upon the witness stand here when this case was tried in 1882?

A. No sir, I don't remember of stating it to—I don't remember of stating it to Mr. Munn or to any one else; I have stated it to a number of persons but I don't remember when nor where.

Q. You knew H. B. Munn? A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you first see him?

A. I don't remember that.

Q. Was it before or after you first saw these photographs of the corpse? A. I don't remember.

Q. You can't remember: You did see Wiseman?

A. I think I met Major Wiseman in this town at the first trial of the case.

2181 Q. You saw Mr. Tillinghast?

[—] I don't think I ever did.

Q. Well, these parties were up there at Fort Madison, were they not, Munn? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you give any papers or letters that you had received from your brother to Munn or Tillinghast or Wiseman?

A. I don't remember.

Q. Well, now, the fact is, Mr. Walters, that notwithstanding your brother wrote you twice a month, you haven't got the scratch of a pen that he ever wrote to you?

A. Not that I know of at the present time.

Q. And you don't know what you did with those letters?

A. Well, as a rule, I destroyed them as I do all ordinary correspondence; I usually preserve letters until I have replied to them and then I destroy them.

Q. Well, now, returning to these letters of Mr. Clark?

Exhibit No. 38. Nov. '99, W. C. H.

"St. Louis, Mo., May 5th, 1880.

H. S. Clarke, Esq.,
Lawrence, Kansas;

My Dear Sir: As per previous promise, I write you this p. m. Since I wrote you before I had written to Iowa and have received reply to effect that a picture of my brother was sent you, &c. Should it not have reached you, I could now send you another. I have none of his handwriting, and can give you no other information asked because I do not possess it."

[—] You remember of writing that, do you, in May, 1880?

A. I don't remember of writing it but I presume I wrote it."

(Reading again.) "I do not know that he ever worked in Lawrence and do not at present know where he did work last."

Q. You wrote that, didn't you? A. I think so.

The defendants object to the evidence as not the best evidence.

By the Court: It is proper to call upon him for explanation, if he has any.

2181 To the ruling of the Court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

(Reading.) "I have none of his handwriting and can give you no other information asked because I do not possess it. I do not know that he ever worked in Lawrence, and do not at present know where he did work last."

[—] At the time you wrote that, you had received a letter from him that he had hired to a man by the name of Hillmon and gone out on a cattle drive; you had that information when you wrote this letter?

A. Well, at the time I received that letter—

Q. Just answer the question?

A. He hand't gone on this drive; he had engaged to go with Mr. Hillmon on this drive, but he hadn't gone, though.

Q. But you knew when you wrote this letter that the last thing you ever heard from him was that he had hired out to go with Hillmon? A. Yes, sir.

(Reading.) "Years ago he worked in this city and in Quincy, Ill., also in Burlington, Iowa. He was in Kansas City awhile but don't think he worked there. Was on his way to Colorado by way of Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Route."

Q. Now, at the time you wrote that he was on his way—that the last you heard he was on his way to Colorado by the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Route, you had a letter from him that he on his way with Hillmon or was going with Hillmon on a cattle drive, didn't you. That is what you claim, at the very time when you wrote this; you knew the last you heard from him that he was going with Hillmon and wasn't going on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Route at all?

A. That is your construction of the matter, yes, sir.

"I think when I last heard of him—He was in Kansas City awhile but don't think he worked there; was on his way to Colorado by way of Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Route, I think, when I last heard of him."

Q. When you wrote that the last you heard from 2183 him he was on the railroad, you had a letter in your possession that he had hired to Hillmon?

"But was looking for work in Kansas towns on that route on account of weather being too severe to make Colorado a pleasant climate at that season and may have worked in Lawrence; may have signed a fictituous name to hotel register, as you suggest, as young men frequently do such things without apparent reason. My own name is Robert Walters; my brother spoke German, as he was of German descent. His given name was Fred A. so there is a singular coincidence in the transposition of the names on hotel register, if nothing more and if such it was, and I was at that time in or near Kansas City. Could you trace this party, or either of them? I could identify the handwriting of my brother's without a doubt, and if you can get permission to cut these two names from the sheet of the register on which they appear, and send them to me, it might settle a point at once, and if necessary I can preserve them and return to you. I am in poor health and laboring under business difficulties, so that I cannot come to Lawrence, or I should go and settle the point at once. As you say, the murderers ought to be brought to justice, if murder it was in the case in hand, and it also looks as though Mrs. Hillmon could not be mistaken in the body if it was that of her husband, unless wilfully."

When you wrote this letter, you say you had seen the pictures of this cadaver, and you hadn't any doubt that your brother was dead and that they were pictures of your brother; that is true, is it not? A. I don't remember now.

Q. This was in May, 1880, and you say you saw the pictures in January, 1880?

A. Well, I am not certain as to whether I saw the pictures of January, but it occurs to me that I did.

Q. That is your best recollection?

A. Yes, sir, in the winter or early spring.

Q. "Have you a picture of the man shot and of Hillmon?

Respectfully, C. R. WALTERS.

If you have pictures, please send to me and I will return them."

2184 EX. 39. Nov. '99, W. C. H.

(Counsel reading.) "St. Louis, Mo., May 9th, 1880.

H. S. Clarke, Esq..,

Dear Sir: Your last at hand. The picture intended for you was sent me by my sister, and I herewith send same to you with request that you be kind enough to preserve it and after having satisfied yourself, return same to me—"

Q. Now, I will get you to state whether that was not the picture I showed you; if that is not the picture that you sent to Mr. Clarke in this letter?

A. I don't know; at this time whether it was or not.

Q. I will read further where it speaks of his not having any mustache.

"as it is the last picture of my brother my folks had. I have one of later date but as it is more flattering, and not as true and as I have not got it at hand, either, I prefer to send you this. This picture was taken some few years ago and lacks the mustache, but otherwise it is a true likeness, and any one who knew my brother would I think recognize it at once."

Q. Is that your opinion now, that any one who saw that picture would recognize your brother, that knew your brother would recognize him?

A. Well, yes, that knew him, yes, sir.

Q. You state in this letter it is a true likeness of your brother? A. I think it was at the time it was taken.

Q. Did you believe at that time when you sent that letter to the sheriff that any one who knew your brother would recognize him from that likeness? A. I presume I did.

"I believe I have nothing further in way of information that would be of account to you, but should you desire anything I can supply, I will cheerfully comply with any demand you may reasonably make on me, and if you can possibly procure the papers containing account which you first mentioned, or a picture of Hillmon, Brown or the dead man whom you believe to be Hillmon, and whom my folks mourn as my brother, (which you certainly can, in your position) I 2185 trust you will do me the kindness to do this, as I am, of course, anxious to have everything bearing on this subject, especially as I am not yet convinced as to my brother's death or whereabouts."

Q. When you wrote this letter to him, you stated here you are not yet convinced of your brother's death, and yet you say that in January, you had seen these pictures and was satisfied that your brother was dead and that those were his pictures?

A. I think I was satisfied of that at the time I wrote that letter.

Q. "Also, has the dead man's grave been properly cared for, and is its freshness been preserved?

Trusting you will comply with my injunctions as regards pictures, &c., and also confer with me in regard to your convictions, &c., after having examined same, I remain,

Yours respectfully, C. R. WALTERS.

224 Walnut.

P. S. Could you trace Sorf and Robert Walter? And how long after the death in question was the latter in Lawrence?

C. R. W."

EX. No. 40. Nov. 99. W. C. H.

St. Louis, Mo., May 22nd, 1880.

H. S. Clarke, Esq.,
Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Sir: Your favor of nearly a week since came promptly to hand but I have been so busy and unwell that I could not answer sooner.

The other picture of my brother desired by you I have not at hand but may have it in a week or two. It is in my sister's possession (in Iowa). Otherwise, I would send it to you cheerfully, although from your statement as to the time of Sorf's stay in your city, I think it will be hardly necessary to send you the last picture, as my brother was never in Lawrence previous to the spring of 1879."

2186 Q. You say you received letters from him from there in 1879? A. Yes.

Q. In this letter you state that he never was in Lawrence prior to the spring of 1879?

A. My impression is that I received letters from there in 1878.

"And never in Kansas prior to the summer of 1878. I was the last of our family who saw him. I saw him in Missouri (at Warrensburg in Johnson county, where I was then located) in July of 1878. He visited me for a week or so and then went to Paola, Kans., where he remained a short time, after that he went to Topeka, and in the spring of '79 towards Lawrence. I received but a few letters from him as he never wrote often."

[—] Now, you say that you received a letter from him twice a month. Is this statement here correct that you never received letters from because he did not write often?

A. Well, sir, my impression is that I received letters from him; I was in the habit of receiving letters from him about twice a month. Some of those statements were made to Mr. Clarke for the purpose as I have explained on the witness stand heretofore.

Q. That were made for that purpose? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You understood that Mr. Clarke was the sheriff of that county?

Q. I understood that Mr. Clarke was working against the interest—understood from several parties he was working against the clearing up of this mystery in the interest of the other party.

Q. And when you found that an effort was being made to find out the facts in reference to this matter, you wrote that your brother had never been in Lawrence until the spring of 1879, when you knew that was not true?

A. That might have been the case.

Q. That is what you claim now with reference to these letters? A. I do not claim that altogether.

Q. When you ascertained that Mr. Clarke was trying to find out the facts in relation to this matter, you misled him by sending him false letters; is that so? Let us get right at the proposition. Do you say when you learned that Mr.
2187 Clarke was desiring to find out the facts in relation to this matter, you wrote him false letters?

A. I was led to believe that Mr. Clarke was not after the facts.

Q. I didn't ask you that. It wouldn't make any difference—were you opposed to anybody's finding out what the facts were? A. No, sir.

Q. You wanted the facts to be discovered, didn't you? Were you to be benefited in any way or your feelings to be appeased in any way by giving false information to a man who was trying to find out about it, whatever his purposes were?

A. I might have been, yes, sir, if he were going to—

Q. (Reading): He then went to Paola, Kansas, where he remained a short time, after that he went to Topeka and in the spring of '79 towards Lawrence. I received but a few letters from him as he never wrote often. He wrote me but a few letters in ten years previous to the visit he made me at Warrensburg."

Q. Now, you say that he wrote you twice a month?

A. He did not previous to the visit he made me at Warrensburgh. I do not claim he wrote me twice a month previous to the visit he made me in Warrensburg.

Q. What particular object had you then, if you wanted to mislead or deceive Mr. Clarke, what, if any reason had you, or what was your idea of writing him that you got but few letters from him in ten years, if that was not true; can you explain to the jury why you would tell that kind of a story or falsehood?

A. I was not supposed to be as accurate in my statement to Mr. Clarke under the circumstances as I would be to people ordinarily.

Q. But your brother was lost then; you did not know whether he was dead or not, and people were endeavoring to find out the facts.

[—] At the time those letters were written, you admitted a few minutes ago I had testified I was convinced he was dead.

Q. You were convinced?

A. The situation as it occurred to me at the time
2188 these letters were written was that Mr. Clarke had been deceiving me, had misled me in regard to [these] matter and that he was working up the case in the interest of Mrs. Hillmon as against our side—family—

Q. Our family side? A. —Side, as much as he could.

Q. Which side was your side of the case? How did you come to have a side of the case?

A. We had a family interest.

Q. You wanted to find out whether your brother was actually dead or not, didn't you?

A. The supposition is from your own statement a few minutes ago that I was convinced he was dead, and I was convinced that he was dead when I saw those pictures.

Q. That is what you testify now? A. Yes, sir.

Q. But when you were writing, at the time you said you were not satisfied he was dead, while writing this, do you intend to say to the jury that [this] statements that you made in that letter were false and that you knew they were false, and that you made them to mislead Mr. Clark?

A. I think that is correct, that is, in regard to some of them.

Q. I will read further: "As he never wrote often. He wrote me but a few letters in ten years previous to the visit he made me at Warrensburg. I may have the last letter he wrote me, and if so will give you the contents when I get to it. it is in a trunk I left in Iowa with a number of private papers, if I have it at all, and I will probably go there in a few weeks and rummage them over in search of it. My other papers are of such a nature that I cannot trust them to be overlooked by any one else, or I should have had this looked after before this. You could gain nothing yourself by going to Iowa, as I can and will give you all information in our possession regarding this affair, besides your going there would be very distasteful to my folks as they are deeply mourning the dead man at Lawrence as their relative, particularly my mother who is now almost deranged over the sad affair. But I will if not dis-
2189 appointed in certain monetary matters, make the trip to Iowa and would also, if I could raise the funds make an incognito trip to Lawrence to fully satisfy myself in this matter (as by going there I could undoubtedly from the tone of your letter, learn some things which cannot well be communicated otherwise and perhaps also throw some light upon it for others. If there is any doubt of the dead man being my brother, of course, the sooner I know it the better (the better also for all others concerned). I have no sympathy with the insurance companies you mention whatever for they have no interest at heart but their own and of course no thought of justice in the matter, if they really believe the man in question to have been murdered. As for myself, if the man has been murdered, as supposed, and is my brother, as far as I could, would move heaven and earth to have the perpetrator brought to justice, but if on the other hand, there should be any reasonable possibility of doing injustice to others and that there is really a mistake in this matter, I will also do my utmost and leave no stones unturned towards rectifying the error and "restoring unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's," &c., and I feel under obligations to yourself for the information bearing upon the subject thus far received.

As regards your other questions, will say: My brother I think had had some dentistry performed on his teeth (a few fillings perhaps) he also had a high instep and corns on his feet. Tho' I cannot give you a more positive description than the one already sent you aside from this, as my brother and I were only a few times together in the past ten years. I usually have a good eye for noticing such things and can picture it all off to myself but as to a description for others, I do not know how I can excel the one already given you. If I could see the handwriting you mentioned on hotel register, I think I could at once decide as to whether it was that of my brother or not, if this could have any bearing in the case. I thank you for the newspaper clipping sent me (which I herewith return) and also for the picture of Hillmon. I should be pleased to have a copy of all newspaper articles, coroner's inquests, &c., bearing on the subject and if possible for you to obtain duplicate of the one enclosed and copies of any others that may have appeared, I shall be under additional obligations to have them for preservation. The one herein returned you is very erroneous in several things as my brother's name was not Frank Walter and my father is not an Odd Fellow, but a Mason, &c. Believing this to be about all that I can now furnish you, I remain,

Yours very resp'y,

C. R. WALTERS.

Address 4200 Broadway,
Care Yost,
St. Louis, Mo.

And if anything further is wanted of me demanding haste, your letter must reach me by Wednesday morning next or it will probably not come to hand for a week or two.

C. R. W.

2190 EX. NO. 41. W. C. H. NOV. 99.

Near Ft. Madison, Ia., Aug. 9, 1880.

H. S. Clarke, Esq.
Lawrence, Kas.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of a few days since at hand. In reply to your question as to whether my brother was vaccinated will say, yes, as an infant he was. I believe this is the only question of concern to you not previously answered by me.

As regards other import of your letter, I must say that I can find no objection to same whatever. A "square deal," I think, is all that any of us can demand and all I want to see in the present matter is as with yourself, to have it shown up in its fullest light.

I feel certain that I had several of my brother's letters last written to me but to find them since my return is impossible. Other parties besides yourself are desirous of knowing their contents but thus far all search on my part has been unavailable. Besides, I have no sympathies in this matter as it now stands, and as I know it. All I desire is a thorough investigation and justice meted out in fullest measure.

I believe I have nothing else in way of information for you; but should be pleased to know everything in connection with this case in your possession that you dare trust me with. Of course, I recognize your position and do not expect the inside secrets. Those belong to your profession. However, I should like to have you trust me with all real facts in the matter you can which do not interfere with yourself, and if things should terminate so that I can be of assistance to you hereafter, I should certainly endeavor to return to you like in like measure.

Very respy,

C. R. WALTERS.

2191 EX. NO. 42. Nov. 99, W. C. H.

Office of Rich Hill Mining Review.

Rich Hill, Mo., Feb. 20, 1881.

H. S. Clarke, Esq.,
Lawrence, Kansas.

My Dear Sir and Friend:

Your favor of the 2nd instant was forwarded to me from Ft. Madison, and like yourself I feel that a meeting between us could not or should not, be averse to either, although it might result in nothing of advantage so far as I can see to either party as regards information, yet it might afford us some slight satisfaction as to a better understanding of certain matters and for my part, I should be pleased to meet you if for no other reason than to express to you my satisfaction with your treatment of me and mine; but could you not come directly to this place as well as to Kansas City, as I am in a position here which demands almost my constant presence, otherwise I should cheerfully accede to your request, besides you could use your own convenience about coming here and find me in the office of the "Mining Review," whereas, in an appointment at other place, it would probably inconvenience us both to a greater or less extent. Please let me hear further on this.

It has been my intention to get off to Lawrence sooner or later but thus far I have seen nothing that could be accomplished thereby as I know of nothing but what I have already imparted to you, concerning my brother or the case in your hands. We have had no further information of any kind regarding this matter.

Yours truly, etc.

C. R. WALTERS.

"Review" Box, Rich Hill.

12672

2192

EX. 33. C. H. N.

EXHIBIT No. 38. Nov. 99. W. C. H.

St. Louis, Mo., May 5th, 1880.

H. S. Clarke, Esq., Lawrence, Kansas:

My dear sir: As per previous promise I write you this p. m. Since I wrote you before I had written to Iowa and have received reply to effect that a picture of my brother was sent you, &c. Should it not have reached you I could now send you another. I have none of his handwriting and can give you no other information asked because I do not possess it. I do not know that he ever worked in Lawrence, and do not at present know where he did work last. Years ago he worked in this city and in Quincy, Ill., also in Burlington, Iowa. He was in Kansas City a while but don't think he worked there; was on his way to Colorado by way of Atchison Topeka and Santa Fe Route, I think, when I last heard of him; but was looking for work in Kansas towns on that route on account of weather being too severe to make Colorado a pleasant climate at that season, and may have worked in Lawrence; may have signed a fictitious name to hotel register as you suggest as young men frequently do such things without apparent reason; my own name is Robert Walters; my brother spoke German as he was of German descent; his given name was Fred A. so that there is a singular coincidence in the transposition of the names on hotel register if nothing more, and if such it was and I was at that time in or near Kansas City. Could you trace this party or either of them? I could identify the handwriting of my brother's, without a doubt and if you can get permission to cut these two names from the sheet of the register on which they appear and send them to me, it might settle a point at once, and if necessary I can preserve them and return to you. I am in poor health and laboring under busi difficulties, so that I cannot come to Lawrence or I should go an settle the point at once. As you say the murders ought to be brought to justice if murder it was in the case in hand and it also looks as though Mrs. Hillmon could not 2193 be mistaken in the body if it was that of her husband, unless willfully. As to your last inquiry, Wiseman wrote me sometime since, but I do not know what he is now doing. Is he still with the insurance companies? He gave my folks the clue which caused them to believe the dead man their son and my brother. Have you a picture of the man shot and of Hillmon? Resp'y.

C. R. WALTERS.

If you have pictures please send me. I will return them.

2194 By the Court: Was the statement in your letter that your brother had a scar on his leg, the result of the bite of a dog, a true one or otherwise?

A. Yes sir, that was a true statement; I have made that statement on the witness stand. So far as the description goes I think the description is all straight in these letters. Now, I desire to make a little explanation in regard to—

By Mr. Hutchings: Just wait a minute until I turn you over to the other counsel.

And in answer to re-direct interrogatories propounded to him by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. If you desire to make an explanation, you may do so now.

A. I desire to say this, that at the time those letters were written to Mr. Clarke, I had been prompted by friends that he was a detective in the interest of Mrs. Hillmon; that there was a mystery here that we wanted cleared up, and that he assumed that he wanted to clear up, but he was really in the employ of Mrs. Hillmon, and for me to be very careful about making representations to him. Then I had a feeling of vengeance in the matter and was naturally suspicious on all sides, and while I had no sympathy for the insurance companies as expressed there, still I had the fear that the murderer would not be brought to terms unless he was brought there by the insurance companies, and that prompted me to make some statements to Mr. Clarke that may not be altogether true.

Q. In the letter of May 9th, you say: "as I am of course, anxious to have everything bearing on this subject, especially as I am not yet convinced as to my brother's death or whereabouts." What do you say to that?

A. I was convinced as to his death when I received those pictures from my father; up to that time, I never was.

2195 Q. How did you come to write this?

A. I don't remember now unless it was from a desire to mislead Clarke and to keep him in the dark. I don't remember all the little details and motives at this time which governed me at that.

Q. Now, in the description which you wrote to Clark on May 22d, 1880, you say: "As regards your questions, will say that my brother, I think, had some dentistry performed on his teeth, a few fillings perhaps." What knowledge, if any, did you have of the fact that he had fillings in his teeth?

A. I had none whatever. I don't know whether he had or had not had any dentistry performed at any time.

Q. Now, further in that same letter of May 22d, you state "Besides your going there would be very distasteful to my folks as they deeply mourning the dead man at Lawrence at their relative particularly my mother who is now almost deranged over the sad affair." Was that true? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, you spoke in your cross-examination of his having a gold ring. Do you remember of his wearing a gold ring?

A. Yes, he wore a heavy gold ring, a plain gold ring, the last time I saw him.

Q. On which finger, if you recollect?

A. I am not certain about that; it was on one of his little fingers; on one of the small fingers, of one hand.

Q. Did you notice this scar at the time he was in Holden, Missouri, at the time you spoke of his being in Holden, Missouri?

A. No sir.

Q. Or Warrensburg; which place was it that you met him?

A. I saw him at both places.

Q. Well, did you notice this scar at the time he was taking the bath to which you have referred? A. No sir.

And in answer to re-cross interrogatories propounded to him by C. F. Hutchings, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

2196 Mr. Walters, I would like, if you can, to state just when it was that H. B. Munn came and saw you at Rich Hill?

A. Well, sir, I don't remember that; it seems to me that Mr. Munn was there to see me before Mr. Clarke was; it occurs to me that Mr. Munn was there on two different occasions.

Q. Can you fix the date can you give us some idea as to the date that Mr. Munn came there to see you?

A. No, sir; I could not; I might by turning to the files of my paper.

Q. Could you state the year?

A. No, sir; I cannot at this time.

Q. Is it not a fact that Mr. Munn came there to see you after you had written all these letters to Mr. Clarke?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Is not that your best recollection?

A. I haven't any recollection upon that point; it occurs to me that I saw Mr. Munn first in Iowa before I went to Rich Hill.

Q. How is that?

A. It occurs to me I saw Mr. Munn at one time in Iowa; I don't know whether that was before I went to Rich Hill or not. I was in Iowa before I went to Rich Hill; Mr. Munn came up to see my father, and I was there at that time. Yes, I saw Mr. Munn before I did Mr. Clarke.

Q. What time would you say you saw Mr. Munn?

A. Well, sir, I cannot give the date.

Q. Did you see Mr. Tillinghast?

A. I think not; I don't remember Mr. Tillinghast.

Q. Did you see Mr. Wiseman before you came here to testify?

A. I think not. I think I either met Mr. Wiseman in Kansas City or Leavenworth the first time I saw him; it occurs to me, according to my best recollection at teh present time, it was during the first trial of this case; I don't remember of seeing Mr. Wiseman before that.

Q. I want to ask you Mr. Walters: You have testified at every trial of this case, have you not?

A. I don't know that, sir.

Q. Well, you remember of testifying twice in this case when I have cross-examined you, don't you?

A. It occurs to me—

2197 Q. Twice in Topeka?

A. I am positive of that now.

Q. You have a very poor memory, have you not?

[Q.] On some points I have.

Q. Were you not in Topeka and testified in 1895 before Judge Thomas? A. I was at Topeka to testify in this case.

Q. In 1895?

A. I don't remember how long ago it has been.

Q. Whether it was two or three or four or five years ago?

A. I remember that I testified; I have testified under your cross-examination, I remember that.

Q. In Topeka? A. I think it was Topeka.

Q. You have been shown these letters before haven't you? Every time you testified? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever testify before that these letters contained falsehoods that you had purposely written? Did you ever say that before this term? A. I have made an explanation.

Q. Did you ever say before that you purposely misrepresented facts and that these letters were falsehoods?

A. I think I did.

Q. You have testified to that before?

A. I made an explanation showing—

Q. I am not asking about an explanation; you have made an explanation this time, but I want your best recollection as to whether you ever told any twelve men who were jurors in this case, that these letters were falsehoods?

By Mr. Barker: He has not said the letters were falsehoods.

A. I don't remember it.

Q. You don't remember whether you have or not?

By the Court: He has not said the letters entirely but that they contained falsehoods.

Q. You don't remember whether you ever testified so at any other trial or not? No, sir.

2198 By Mr. Green: Do you remember whether that question was ever asked you?

A. I don't remember that it ever was.

By Mr. Hutchings:

Q. Wasn't each one of these letters read on your cross-examination just as they have been this time, and were you not asked to explain how you came to make these statements inconsistent with your testimony?

A. I don't remember as to that; I think some of them.

Q. You were asked as to some of them? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you explained them? A. I think so.

Q. But you did not at that time state that they were false?

A. It has been a very difficult matter for me to get any proper explanation in your cross-examination, and it may be that I did not make the full explanation before as I have this time.

Q. Now, Mr. Walters, what has there been about any cross-examination of mine—what do you mean by that? Haven't I been very civil and all that kind of thing? You say that you have not been able to explain that these statements were falsehoods on account of my cross-examination. I would like to have you explain to the jury in what respect. Do you think my cross-examination would prevent you from telling the whole truth?

A. I don't think I was ever given an opportunity before; I do not mean to reflect upon your cross-examination at all.

Q. These other attorneys here have always heard you testify, have they not? A. Some of them.

Witness excused.

2199 Mrs. Elizabeth Rieffenach, a witness produced by the defendants, being first duly sworn to testify to the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to [him] by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to-wit:

Q. Mrs. Rieffenach, where do you reside?

A. At Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. What is your full name? A. Elizabeth Rieffenach.

Q. What was your maiden name? A. Elizabeth Walters.

Q. What was your father's name? A. Daniel Walters.

Q. Where does he reside? A. At Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. How long have you resided at Fort Madison, Iowa?

A. Always.

Q. Born in Fort Madison? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Is your father still living? Yes, sir.

Q. What was your mother's name?

A. Elizabeth Walters.

Q. Is she living? A. Yes, sir.

Q. When did she die, Mrs. Rieffenach?
A. 3rd of March, 1888.
Q. Do you know whether or not it was during one of the trials of this case?
A. It was just before, I think; well, during, I think.
Q. Were you present on the trial of the case during that time? A. No, sir.
Q. What prevented you, if you know?
A. Well, the sickness and death of my mother.
Q. Now, what brothers and sisters, had you?
A. I did have two brothers and two sisters besides myself.
Q. What were the names of your brothers?
A. Charles Robert Walters and Frederick Adolph Walters.
Q. Charles Robert is the one who had just testified?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. And your sisters' names?
A. Fannie D. Walters and Anna L. Lewis.
Q. Is your sister Anna married? A. Yes, sir.
2200 Q. When did you last see your brother Frederick Adolph Walters? A. The 26th of March, 1878.
Q. Where did you see him at that time?
A. Fort Madison, Iowa; at home.
Q. Did he leave Fort Madison at that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Where were you residing at that time when Frederick Adolph left Fort Madison?
A. At home with father and mother.
Q. At that time you were unmarried? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, since that time where have you resided?
A. Fort Madison, Iowa.
Q. How far has your residence been from your father's?
A. Not more than two blocks at the farthest.
Q. Who, of the family resides and have resided all the time with your father? A. Sister Fannie.
Q. Do you visit at their place?
A. Yes, almost every day.
Q. During all this time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, after your brother Frederick Adolph left home, you may state whether or not you heard from him?
A. Yes, we did.
Q. About how often, Mrs. Rieffenach, did you hear from your brother?
A. About every two weeks, one member of the family.
Q. One member of the family would hear from him about every two weeks? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Did you have letters from him direct? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Addressed to yourself? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Which of the other members of the family would hear from him?

A. Sister Fannie and father once in a while.
Q. Now, do you remember where you heard from him?
A. Yes, sir, after he left home.
Q. After he left home, the first letter that came was from—
A. Council Bluffs, Iowa.
Q. And then do you remember where was the next?
A. I don't know that I can give them in exact rotation, but I can about—Kansas City.
2201 Q. About what time was it that you heard from him from Kansas City if you remember?
A. It seems to me it was in June, 1878.
Q. Do you remember where you heard from him next?
A. Holden and Warrensburg.
Q. Do you know what he was doing in Holden and Warrensburg? A. He went to visit my brother.
Q. Where did you hear from next, if you remember.
A. It seems to me it was Paola.
Q. Paola, Kansas? A. Yes, sir.
Q. After that where did you hear from him?
A. Aladdin, Kansas, I think.
Q. Any other place? A. Lawrence and Emporia.
Q. Now, when did you hear from him last?
A. The last letter we received from him was the beginning of March, 1879.
Q. Where was that addressed from: Was that a letter or postal card? A. Letter I think.
Q. Where was it from? A. From Wichita, Kansas.
Q. Do you know where that letter is? A. No, sir, I don't.
Q. Was that addressed to you? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Do you know what became of that letter?
A. It was lost in some manner; the last I saw of it was when I was getting ready to move after I was married was the last time I saw the letter.
Q. When would that be?
A. That was about the 19th or 20th of August, 1879 was the last time I saw that letter.
Q. Do you remember whether that was a postal card or a letter? A. I think it was a letter.
Q. In the process of moving—
A. Yes, sir, separated from some of the other letters.
Q. Have you been able to find it? A. I have not.
Q. Have you looked for it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have you looked for it in all places where you would expect to find it? A. Yes, sir.
2202 Q. Now, if you please, will you state as near as you can the contents of that letter.

A. Wichita, Kansas March 1st, 2nd, 3rd or 4th, I can't state the exact dates, but it was dated, he said that he expected to leave— Do you want me to state the letter?

Q. Yes, state the contents of the letter as near as you can.

"Dear sister and all: I now in my usual style drop you a few lines to let you know I expect leaving Wichita on or about March 5th with a certain Mr. Hillmon a sheep trader for Colorado and parts unknown to me. I expect to see the country now. News of no interest to you as you are not acquainted here. I will close with compliments to all inquiring friends.

I remain, Very truly your brother,
FRED ADOLPH WALTERS."

That is as near as I can give it.

Q. Do you remember of giving a deposition in this case, Mrs. Rieffenach? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was that taken? A. My first deposition?

Q. Yes. A. At Fort Madison.

Q. Do you remember when that was?

A. It seems to me it was in the spring of 1880.

Q. Have you heard from this brother since? A. No, sir.

Q. Has he ever returned from Fort Madison? A. No, sir.

Q. You still reside there and have continuously?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, will you describe your brother as near as you can.

A. He was a larger man than my oldest brother, coarser, had long limbs, dark brown hair, prominent forehead, high cheek bones, what I call a Roman nose, dark brown wavy hair, his mustache was some shades lighter; full set of large white teeth; his hands were broad and long fingers; what I would call he had a large hand.

Q. Do you know his height?

A. No, sir, I don't; I know he was taller than my oldest brother; he was much coarser.

2203 Q. Do you know whether or not he had any scars?

A. Not that I know of, No, sir.

Q. Did he have any scars on his body that you know of.

A. Not what I would call scars.

Q. Do you remember of his having been bitten by a dog?

A. I remember the dog bite; he was a small boy; I remember of seeing the mark but I wouldn't call it a scar; I didn't call it a scar at that time.

Q. Did you see that mark afterwards?

A. I saw it, yes, several years before he left home

Q. About how old was he when you last noticed that mark?

A. I can't say exactly; he might have been fourteen or fifteen years old.

Q. Do you remember whether he wore any ring or not?

A. He did when he left home, yes, sir.

Q. On which finger did he wear it?
A. On one of his small fingers; I couldn't say which one.
Q. What sort of a ring was that, do you remember?
A. A plain, heavy ring.
Q. Now, what character of teeth did he have?
A. He had a very elegant set of white teeth, straight, what any one would call a perfect set.
Q. How were they as to size? A. Rather large and long.
Q. Was there any difference in the size of his front teeth, the upper front teeth?
A. The front teeth were larger than the others.
Q. Did he show his teeth?
A. He showed them very plainly when he would laugh or talk.
Q. Now, did any other member of the family resemble him, have a strong family resemblance?
A. Yes, sir, I think sister Fannie resembled him very much.
Q. Now, in what respect would you say they resembled each other?
A. Well, as to the color of the hair, the prominence of the cheek bones, the nose and the teeth.
2204 Q. Is your sister Fanny here present. A. Yes, sir.
Q. How about the hand, what sort of a hand did he have? A. Hand?
Q. Yes. A. He had a broad hand with long fingers.
Q. A little louder.
A. A rather broad hand and long fingers.
Q. Do you know your brother's handwriting?
A. Yes, sir, I do.
Q. I will ask you to look at the letter which has been marked by Sabert M. Casey, Notary Public, Exhibit C, and state in whose handwriting that letter is.
A. My brother's, Frederick Adolph Walters.
Q. Now, will you look at the envelope which has been marked by Sabert M. Casey, Exhibit C, and state in whose handwriting that is? A. My brother's, also.
Q. Will you look at the picture which has been marked Exhibit B, and state of whom that is a picture?
A. That is a picture of my brother, Frederick Adolph Walters.
Q. Do you know about when that was taken?
A. Year before he left home, I should judge.
Q. About how old was he when he left home?
A. Twenty-three years old, I think.
Q. Will you look at the two pictures which have been marked Exhibit No. 29 and Exhibit No. 30, and state if you recognize these as pictures of any one you have known and if so, state who that person was. A. Yes, sir I do.

Q. Whose picture?

A. Pictures of my brother, Frederick Adolph Walters.

Q. When did you first see those pictures, Mrs. Rieffenach, or pictures identical with these?

A. January, I think, in the year 1880.

Q. Where did you see them? A. At Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. At what place in Fort Madison?

A. At my father's house.

Q. Who had the pictures?

A. They were sent to father and father brought them home.

2205 Q. Did he show them to you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the family? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Who was present when he showed them to you?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Mother and I think my sisters.

Q. Which sister?

A. Both sisters; Sister Fannie and Anna, I think.

Q. Now, what was said and done at the time those pictures were shown to you?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and calling for hearsay. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

Q. State what if anything your mother did at that time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

By Mr. Barker: We offer to prove by the witness Elizabeth Rieffenach, that the two pictures, to-wit, Exhibits 29 and 30, were shown to the witness and her sister, Fannie Walters, by their father, Daniel Walters, in his house; that his daughters, (the witness and Fannie Walters saw them, and immediately recognized them as pictures of their brother, Frederick Adolph Walters) that before the mother had seen the pictures, the father accidentally dropped one of the pictures on the floor; that while it was being picked up, the mother saw it, and exclaimed, "Oh, it is my son," and immediately fell into a swoon.

By the Court: The part in parenthesis you may show; that which is not in parentheses is excluded.

To which action and ruling of the court the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

2206 Q. Mrs. Rieffenach, do you know the date of your mother's death? A. Third of March, 1888.

Q. What was her age at the time of her death?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Sixty-three years.

Q. Now, you may state if there is a tombstone erected in your family lot in Fort Madison?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained, each of the defendants at the time duly excepting.

Q. What, if any inscription has been placed upon the tombstone in the cemetery at Fort Madison with reference to your brother Frederick Adolph Walters?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of the defendants at the time duly excepting.

The defendants offer, in writing, to show by the witness now upon the stand, that the following inscription is inscribed upon the family tombstone in the grave yard at Fort Madison, Iowa: Frederick Adolph Walters, born January 25th, 1855, died February 17, 1879. Interred at Lawrence, Kansas.

On the tombstone erected by Daniel Walters, the father.

The plaintiff objects to the offer as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. Will you look at the pictures which have been marked Exhibits 29 and 30, and state if you recognize them as the pictures of any one whom you have known in life, and if so, state whom?

A. Yes, sir, I do, as pictures of my brother.

Q. What was that brother's name?

A. Frederick Adolph Walters.

Q. When did you first see those pictures?

A. In January, 1880.

2207 Q. At your father's house? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, Mrs. Rieffenach, have you lived in Fort Madison ever since your brother, Frederick Adolph Walters, went away in 1878. A. Yes, sir.

Q. How far, during that time, have you lived from your father's house? A. At farthest two blocks.

Q. Has your brother, Frederick Adolph Walters, ever returned to Fort Madison since the time he left there as you say in the spring of 1878? A. No, sir, he has not.

Q. Have you ever heard from him by letter since the time you spoke of receiving a letter from Wichita, in the fore part of March, 1879? A. No, sir.

And in answer to cross interrogatories propounded to her by Mr. L. B. Wheat, counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to-wit:

Q. Mrs. Rieffenach, I will ask you if this is your signature here on page 156 of this bundle of depositions?

A. I think it is.

Q. Your deposition was taken at that time? Is that your signature to this deposition?

A. I don't know what that is but that is my signature.

Q. I will ask you to look at page 101 of the same bundle of depositions, and read the first few questions. Start off.

By Mr. Green: I submit that is not the proper way to cross-examine a witness.

By the Court: What are you asking her now?

By Mr. Wheat: I am asking her to look at this deposition where she was sworn, at the commencement of it.

By Mr. Green: The witness has testified on direct examination that she gave her deposition in Fort Madison and that she thinks it was in 1880.

By Mr. Atwood: It is conceded that this is her deposition.

By Mr. Green: Yes.

2208 Q. You stated in your direct examination what you say you considered a copy of the letter you received from your brother? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you if you did not state in this deposition—You said it was taken in 1880? A. I think so.

Q. Was it not taken in 1881?

A. I said about the spring or summer of—

Q. 1881? A. I was not certain.

Q. Commenced in May. I will ask you if you did not, when you were giving that deposition, say that letter was in the words, "Wichita, Kansas, March 4th or 5th, 3rd or 4th, I don't know, 1879. Dear Sister and all: I now in my usual style drop you a few lines to let you know I expect to leave Wichita on or about March the 5th with a certain Mr. Hillmon, a sheep trader, for Colorado and parts unknown to me. I expect to see the country now. News are of no interest to you as you are not acquainted here. I will close with compliments to all inquiring friends. Love to you all.

I am, truly your brother,
FRED ADOLPH WALTERS."

Didn't you on that occasion state that the letter was in those words?

A. Yes, sir, to that effect; I think I did the same to-day.

Q. I ain't asking you about what you said to-day. Will you look at that, what I have read, and will you tell me whether that is not what you said on that occasion?

A. I understood you; I heard you read it.

Q. I want you to look particularly?

A. I say it is not my writing; I heard you reading it all right.

Q. Did you or did you not on that occasion so testify that was a copy?

A. To that effect, yes sir; I don't say that it was word for word; I don't think I ever did state that the words were just exactly as I stated them; I gave them to the best of my recollection.

2209 Q. I will ask you if this question wasn't asked you: "Please to state the contents of that letter as near as you can right through from the beginning to the end, commencing at the date and reciting it right through to the end," to which you answered—Didn't you make that answer on that occasion?

A. That is the answer that I stated to-day; that is as near as I can remember.

Q. Will you look at what purports to be the signature of Frederick Adolph Walters. Is it signed Walters or Walter?

A. Well, he usually signed his name Walter.

By Mr. Wheat: I move to strike that out; I didn't ask how he usually signed it.

By the Court: Yes, that is what you said—the signature to the letter. Was it Walter or Walters?

A. I can't say to that now.

Q. Look at that writing?

A. He never signed his Frederick Adolph Walters; it was F. A.

Q. I ain't asking you how he signed it? A. There it is.

Q. I will ask you if you did not on that occasion say that he signed it Fred Adolph Walters? A. I did there, yes, sir.

Q. That was very soon, compared to the present time, after you received that letter? I will ask you if your memory was not much better then than it is now with reference to whether he signed it Walter or Walters?

A. He signed it mostly Walter.

Q. I ain't asking you what he signed mostly. I move to strike out her answer.

The Court sustained the motion, the defendants duly excepting.

Q. I am asking simply whether your memory at that time wasn't better than it is now? A. I suppose it was.

Q. You said something about a dog bite on this occasion. I will ask you if you did not when that examination was going on, these questions and answers that I will read to 2210 you were not made by you: "You stated, I believe, that your brother was bitten by a dog. Do you remember on which leg he was bitten?" To which you answered "No, sir, I do not."

Q. The next question: "State if you please about when it was you last noticed any effect from that bite," to which you answered, "About eight years ago."

"Was there any sore from the effect of the bite, at that time," to which you answered. "No, sir, there was not."

Q. Next question: "If there was any mark at that time, please describe it?" To which you answered, "It was what I would call a dent, with the skin some drawn."

Q. Next question: "State the extent of that dent. Whether it was deep or otherwise," to which you answered, "No, sir, it was not deep; it was what I would call a dent in the flesh, is the only name I can give it."

Q. Were those questions put to you and did you make those answers?

The defendants object to the question because it does not tend to impeach the witness in any way.

By the Court: No, I think not; ask her what she says now, and if she says anything different from that, it will be competent to contradict her.

By Mr. Wheat: She has already testified to that mark. I was going on the examination in chief. I will ask her, however.

Q. You said on your direct examination, I believe, that your brother was bitten by a dog. Do you remember on which leg he was bitten? A. No, sir, I do not.

Q. State, if you please about when it was you last noticed any effect from that bite?

A. It was several years before he left home, I think.

Q. Wasn't that question put to you when you were being examined in the taking of this deposition?

A. I guess it was.

Q. And didn't you answer on that occasion:" About 2211 eight years ago." A. That may be, yes, sir.

Q. Now, I will ask you another question:

"If there was any mark at that time, please describe it?"

A. It was just as you stated it was, a dent in the flesh with the skin drawn, is the only way that I ever could describe it.

Q. You gave a description of your brother on that occasion, didn't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I believe you said something about his nose?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you to state whether his nose at the end of it was blunt?

A. Yes, sir, what I would call blunt; that is my judgment; my opinion.

Q. That is what you would call it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You mentioned his hair; you described his hair?

A. Dark brown, wavy hair.

Q. I will ask you whether it was coarse or fine?

A. Rather coarse in my judgment.

Q. I will ask you to look at this exhibit marked No. 36 and state of whom that is a picture?

A. That is a picture of my brother Frederick Adolph Walter.

Q. What did you say now; did you now say Walter or Walters; I didn't understand you?

A. I said Walter or Walters; I don't know, well, it is either.

Q. I want to know which you meant to say?

A. Frederick Adolph Walters; I am speaking of the past; I put the S on it.

Q. Do you know about when the picture was taken?

A. I should judge that picture was taken four or five years before—he was about 18 or 19 years old, I should judge.

Q. Four or five years before he left home?

A. I should think so.

Q. That would be somewhere about 1873 or 1874? State whether that was a good picture of him or not at that time?

A. Yes, at that time it was.

Q. I will now present to you exhibit No. 33 at this trial and ask you to state if that is a picture of any person that you ever knew?

2213 A. I think that is a copy of my brother also.

Q. You think it is a copy of this small one?

A. Yes sir, I do.

Q. You think it is a copy of this 36?

A. No, not of that same number, no.

Q. Don't you think it is a copy of the picture marked 36?

A. These pictures have been copied in some way or another, maybe not of that picture.

Q But one just like it, whether it is not really the same picture enlarged? A. That is what I think it is.

Q. When did you first hear from your brother Frederick Adolph Walters after he left in 1878, from what place and on what date? A. I can't say the date.

Q. Can you approximate the time?

A. Yes, sir, I still have letters from April; I have one now.

Q. Have you any of them here? A. Yes, I have.

Q. Will you please let me see some of them? A. Yes sir.

Q. Let me see the first letter you received.

[—]The first one I have with me is April 22nd, from Council Bluffs.

Q. This is dated April 19th, 1878, is it not?

A. I never noticed the date of it.

Q. Where was that letter from? A. From Council Bluffs.

Q. Will you show the next one?

A. There is a postal card. That is Council Bluffs, June 3rd—Kansas City—

Q. Never mind. From where did you receive the next letter? A. Kansas City, I think.

Q. From where did you receive the next letter?

A. I suppose I am allowed to refer to these I have with me?

Q. No, I ain't asking you to refer to any; I am now asking you for your memory?

A. The next, I think, was Warrenburg.

Q. That was when he was there with your brother in the summer of 1878? A. Yes sir.

Q. From where did you receive the next letter?

A. Aladdin.

2214 Q. From where the next letter?

A. I think the next was Paola, Kansas.

Q. From where the next letter?

A. Aladdin, I think, Douglas county.

Q. From where the next letter?

A. Lawrence, I think.

Q. Can you tell me the time of year?

A. It must have been in January some time.

Q. January of what year? A. 1879.

Q. In January, 1879, you received a letter from him in Lawrence?

A. I am not certain it was in January; I say about that time, about January. I am not saying it was January because I could not unless I would refer to my letter.

Q. Then from what other place did you next receive a letter? A. Emporia, Kansas.

Q. When?

A. February 10th, is the post mark on the letter.

Q. Was it in 1879? A. 1879.

Q. How many letters did you receive from him at Emporia?

A. I can't say.

Q. Did you receive a letter from him at Wichita?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Prior to this letter that you have endeavored to give us a copy of? A. Not to my knowledge, no sir, at present.

Q. That was the first letter from Wichita? A. I think.

Q. That you ever heard of, was it? A. I think.

Q. How often did he write? A. About every two weeks.

Q. It is the last letter that is copied in your deposition. Who did you first show that to outside of your own immediate family, brothers, sisters, father or mother, or some of them?
A. Besides them?
Q. Yes.
A. I don't know that I ever showed it to anybody.
Q. State whether you had that letter when Mr. Munn came there first? A. No sir, I think not.
Q. State whether you had that letter when Mr. Tillinghast first came there? A. Not that I know of, no sir.
2215 Q. When do you remember first seeing Mr. Munn connected with this matter? A. I don't remember.
Q. When did you first see the pictures of the corpse?
A. Some time in January, fore part of January.
Q. I will ask you if your brother Charles R. Walters was then there? A. At home?
Q. Yes. A. No sir, I think not.
Q. How long after that time before he came home?
A. I can't say.
Q. Do you remember when you first saw Mr. Tillinghast?
A. I do not.
Q. You remember seeing him, do you?
A. No sir, I do not, at the present time.
Q. Do you remember seeing Mr. Munn?
A. Mr. Munn I remember, yes sir.
Q. When do you remember seeing him?
A. I saw Mr. Munn here at the trial in 1885; I think Mr. Munn was present.
Q. Didn't you see him in Fort Madison?
A. Yes sir, but I couldn't tell the time when.
Q. When was it with reference to the time of receiving the pictures of the corpse that you mentioned?
A. I can't say.
Q. Was it before or after? A. I think it was after
Q. How long after? A. I could not say.
Q. When did you first see Mr. Wiseman?
A. I don't remember; I don't know Mr. Wiseman.
Q. Now, take your letters, and look at the places; take the first one.

Mr. Green objects to the question as not proper cross examination. Objection overruled, the defendants an deach of them duly except.

A. If I am allowed to say, these are not all of my letters that I received; only a part of them.
Q. Where are the others? A. They were destroyed.
Q. Why did you preserve these and destroy the others?

A. I just took care of these and after my brother
2216 had disappeared, of course, these letters were more precious than they were while he was living.

Q. When were the others destroyed?

A. I could not say; at times; I did not preserve all of them.

Q. They were destroyed before or after you supposed your brother was dead? A. I can't say—Before, of course.

Q. Why were the others destroyed and not these, then?

A. Oh, it just happened that these were put aside in a trunk and stayed there I suppose.

Q. Now, state whether you did not have a large number of letters still in your possession when your deposition was being taken?

A. No I think not, not a larger number than I have now, I don't think.

Q. Don't you think you had more then than you have got here now? A. I think not.

Q. Give me the date and the place from whence you received the first letter? A. Council Bluffs, April 22nd.

Q. What year? A. The postmark is 1878.

Q. What is the next communication from him, whether a postal card or letter? A. Council Bluffs, June 2nd, 1878.

Q. The next one? A. Kansas City, June 7th, 1878.

Q. What was the date, when was the next one mailed and from where? A. Warrensburg, June 17th, 1878.

Q. Where was the next one from?

A. June 6th, 1878, Holden, Missouri.

Q. Where was the next one from?

A. Paola, Kansas, July 10th, 1878.

Q. Date of the next one?

A. Paola, Kansas, August 4th.

Q. Date of the next one?

A. Aladdin, Douglas county, Kansas, 9th month, 15th, 1878. That would be September.

Q. Date of the next one?

A. Lawrence, October 4th, 1878.

Q. And the next one?

A. Lawrence, October 10th, 1878.

Q. Date of the next one?

A. Lawrence, October 19th, I think.

Q. Date of the next one?

A. Emporia, Kansas, February 9, 1879.

2217 Q. Did you ever receive any letter from him from Wichita previous to the last one?

A. Not to my knowledge, no sir.

Q. If you did, you would remember it, wouldn't you?

A. I don't know whether I would or not.

Q. I will ask you in what part of the country he was, from what part of the country his letters came to you previous to the one there of February 9th, at Emporia?

A. I don't understand.

Q. From whence, according to the best of your remembrance, did the letters come that he wrote to you between the last letter you mentioned at Lawrence, and the letter of the 9th of February, 1879. A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember anything about that?

A. I don't quite understand.

Q. You say you received letters about once in two weeks.

A. About.

Q. There is a long gap between October 17th, 1878, and February 9th, 1879?

A. I do not say that these were all of my letters.

Q. I understand, but there is a long gap of time. Now, you received letters from him during all of that time, if I understand you?

A. I suppose some other member of the family during that time; they were not all directed to me.

Q. Did you receive any letters?

A. No, sir, I cannot say; I don't know.

Q. Did you see any letters from him to any other persons, of dates intervening [intervening] those two dates, October 17th, 1878, and February 9th, 1879?

A. Yes, sir, I know we received letters.

Q. Did you ever hear from any friends of his being in Wichita, Kansas, prior to the time when you received the letter a copy of which is set forth in your deposition?

A. Not that I remember of now.

Q. You don't remember of ever hearing of his having been there? A. Not that I remember now.

Q. Don't you think you would if you had heard of it; don't you think you would remember it, if he had been work-
2218 ing for Holsnider there in Wichita a month or a month and a half or two months; do you think you would have heard of it?

A. I don't know that I would have heard who he had been working for or not.

Q. Let me ask you, didn't he usually inform you in his letters what he was doing? A. No sir, not always.

Q. If I understand you, you never heard of his being in Wichita nor of his working for Holsnider?

A. Not that I remember now, no sir.

Q. Do you know what he was doing in Emporia?

A. No sir, I do not.

Q. How long was he there? A. I can't say.

Q. Have you the Emporia letter? A. Yes sir.

Q. Will you let me see it. Did you ever receive any other letter from him at Emporia than that one?

A. I don't know; I can't say.

Q. Did you ever hear what he was doing in Emporia?

A. I can't say.

Q. You know nothing about what he was doing there. Did he ever say anything in any letters you have here or heard from, about going to Colorado? A. Yes sir.

Q. I am not speaking about the last one.

A. No, not in the other letters.

Q. Not in any other letter. Did you ever know of his being in Leavenworth, Kansas?

A. Not that I know of now, no sir.

Q. Did you hear of Simmons & Staiger or Staiger & Simmons, either one, in connection with the place where he was working? A. Not that I know of, no sir.

And in answer to re-direct interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Mrs. Rieffenach, take this letter which is marked Lawrence. What is the address of that letter?

The plaintiff objects to the question for the reason
2219 that the letters themselves are the best evidence. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Miss Fannie D. Walter.

Q. How is it signed? A. F. A. Walter.

Q. Take the postal card from Council Bluffs: How is that addressed?

A. Miss Lide M. Walters, Post-office box 116, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. Take the postal card sent from Lawrence; how is that addressed?

A. Miss Lide M. Walters, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. How is it signed? F. A. Walter.

Q. Take this letter sent from Kansas City; How is it addressed?

A. Miss Lide M. Walter, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. How is that signed? A. F. A. Walter.

Q. Take the postal card from Warrensburg; how is that addressed, please?

A. Miss Lide M. Walters, Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. How is it signed? A. F. A. Walter.

Q. Take the postal card from Paola, Kansas; how is that addressed? how is that addressed?

A. Miss Lide M. Walters, Fort Madison, Iowa.

[A.] How is that signed?

A. I think that is F. A. Walters.

Q. Take the postal card from Aladdin.

By Mr. Wheat: Let me interrupt you a moment. In order to cut the matter short, just offer all these letters and postal cards and the envelopes in evidence and we will not object.

Q. Take the postal card from Aladdin, Kansas; how is that addressed? A. Miss Lide M. Walters.
Q. How is it signed?
A. Your brother, F. A. Walter.
Q. I think I have shown you the one from Council Bluffs; if so, I will show it to you again. How is that addressed?
A. Lide M. Walter.
Q. How is that letter signed?
A. Your brother, Fred A. Walter.
Q. Did I ask you in regard to the one from Lawrence?

The plaintiff objects to the evidence as secondary evidence.

2220 By the Court: I assume the purpose of this is that the papers are already in evidence, and in order to save time, counsel is calling the attention of the witness to certain facts in the letters.

By Mr. Barker: The contents of the letters have not been offered by either party: It is only the addresses on the letters and the signatures to the letters. Some question has been raised here as to whether the name was Walter or Walters.

By Mr. Atwood: We offer them as part of the cross-examination of the witness.

By Mr. Green: State the address on that please.

A. Miss Lide M. Walter, Fort Madison, Iowa.

By the Court: I suppose there may be a great many facts in these letters incompetent for the consideration of the jury, and there may be other facts which are competent.

By Mr. Hutchings: We have not had time to read them over, but we would like to have them considered in.

Q. How is it signed? A. F. A. Walter.
Q. Take the letter from Emporia; how is that addressed?
A. Miss Lide M. Walter, Fort Madison, Iowa.
Q. How is that letter signed, if you know?
A. Fred A. Walter.
Q. It is suggested that I omitted one question in my direct examination. I will ask you to look at the letter which has been marked heretofore by Sabert M. Casey, Notary Public, Exhibit C, and state in whose handwriting that letter is?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled the plaintiff duly excepting.

A. Of my brother.

Q. And the envelope? A. Of my brother also.

By Mr. Green: Exhibit C is the Kasten letter.

Q. By Mr. Green: Now, I will offer in evidence, the addresses and signatures on each of the letters and postal cards which have been exhibited to the witness, and ask that 2221 the jury may be allowed to compare those signatures with the signature to the Kasten letter.

The plaintiff objects to the admission of the evidence unless it is accompanied with an offer of the contents of the postal cards and letters.

By the Court: That is unnecessary from their standpoint. They are offering them simply to show that the signature to the Kasten letter is the same as the signature to these letters. They may be considered in evidence. But perhaps I misunderstood your purpose. If it is simply to show that the name was signed part of the time Walter and part of the time Walters, an exhibition to the jury would be improper.

By Mr. Green: The object is to show that he universally signed his name Walter, and that the Alvina Kasten letter is also signed Walter; also that the jury may compare the signatures to these letters which are not charged to be forgeries, with the signature to Katsen letter, whose genuineness, I believe has been challenged.

By the Court: That may be done.

To which ruling of the Court, the plaintiff at he time duly excepted.

Witness excused.

The several letters and postal cards produced and identified by the witness Mrs. Riefenach, were read in evidence by the plaintiff, and are respectively in words and figures as follows, to wit:

2222 Macedonia, Apr. 29th, '78.

Dear Sisters: As I have not much to do and can not get my Mail out of the Office I thought I would drop you a few lines. The reason that I can not get my mail is that over (2/3) Two Thirds of the Population of Macedonia are down with the Small Pox and the People will not let any one in or out of town, so I can not get to the P. O. to get my mail. The last report we heard from there were that 15 were sick abed, and the Population is only 35 or 40. what brought the Small Pox here is simply this there was a stranger came here sick and so the Citizens or as I should say those Families took care of him and the Doctors (2 in number) were sent for. They asked him if he ever had the Small Pox he said he had, and so they thought it must be Black Measles. After fooling around with him for a week or so he was so far gone that he Kicked the Bucket (or in Plain words Died) and since then nearly all that waited on him are down a bed. The Doctors have them all at one Place and think there is no danger of it spreading any further than it has already gone. This is about all the news that I can pick up for such a large City as Macedonia (Population 40½). Please tell A. D. K. if she has not yet written to Address to M—Pottawatime Co., Ia. I am well as ever hoping this to reach you the same, I remain Your

Brother F. A. WALTER.

P. S. Give my regards to enquiring friends.

FRED A.

(On the envelope:) Lyde M. Walter, Fort Madison, Iowa. (P. O. Box, 116.)

(Post-mark:) Council Bluffs, Ioa., Apr. 22.

Council Bluffs, Sunday, June 2nd, 1878.

Dear Sisters: I received your letter some time ago & also those Photographs much obliged for the same. I start for Nebraska to-morrow. When I get settled down will write you a letter. We have had several Hail Storms the last week and done considerable damage. Otherwise every thing looks prosperous. Give my Compliments to all enquiring Friends.

Your Brother, F. A. W.

(Post-mark:) Council Bluffs, Ioa., Jun. 3.

(On the postal card:) Miss Lyde N. Walter. P. O. Box 116, Ft. Madison, Iowa.

Kansas City, Mo., June 6th, '78.

Dear Sisters: I arrived here this morning 3:30 o'clock found Charley Schott all O. K. I will have to stay here about a week for this is quite a city and as Lodging does not cost
2223 me any thing only my meals. This is all for this time for there is no news that would interest you and I have had a dull Head Ache all day on ac't of riding all night.

Your Brother, F. A. WALTER,
Care C. N. Schott,
407 Delaware St., K. C., Mo.

P. S. Write Amediately.

(On the margin:) Compliments from C. W. Schott.

(On the envelope:) Miss Lyde M. Walter, Ft. Madison, Iowa.

(Post-mark:) Kansas City, Mo., Jun. 7.

(Postal Card.)

Warrensburg, June 17, '78.

Dear Sisters: I arrived here a few days ago and found Bob enjoying good health. I have not yet heard from you in regard to my Kansas City Letter. I shall stay here a few days longer and then will start for parts unknown. Lyde I am much obliged for those Photos you sent me, as there is no news that would interest you I will close hoping the rest of the family are enjoying as good health, as Bob and Myself are.

Yours, F. A. WALTER.

(On the postal card:) Miss Lyde M. Walters, Ft. Madison, Io.

(Post-mark:) Warrensburgh, Mo., Jun. 17.

(Postal Card.)

Holden, July 6th, '78.

Rob will write in a day or two and give you particulars about my whereabouts, &c.

Hearty as ever. Yours as ever, FRED A. W.

(On the postal card:) Miss Lyde M. Walters, Ft. Madison, Io. (Lee Co.)

(Post-mark:) St. L. & Atch. R. P. O., Jul. 7.

(Postal Card.)

Lyde & Fannie: I arrived here safe & sound as usual and have struck a job but do not know how long it will last. Please let us hear from you in a long letter as soon as possible.

Your Bro., F. A. WALTER.

Paola, Kans, July 10th, 1878.

(On the postal card:) Miss Lyde M. Walters, Ft. Madison, Iowa.

(Post-mark:) Paola, Kan., Jun. 10.

2224 (Postal Card.)

Paola, Kas., Aug. 4th, '78.

Dear Sister: Your letter came to hand in due time, and as there is no news to amount to any thing I thought I would drop a postal to let you know that I am still alive if nothing else. Give my Compliments to Oscar & Tell Chas. Lopmon if he don't answer that card that there will be a Dutch Funeral the next time I run across him. This is all for this time with Love to all I remain Your Bro., F. A. WALTER.

(Address:) Miss Lyde M. Walter, Fort Madison, Iowa.

(Post-mark:) Paola, Kan., Aug. 5.

(Postal Card.)

Aladin, Douglas Co., Kas., 9, 15, '78.

Dear Sisters: I received your Postal last night—was glad to hear from you. I have been sick nearly all last week but am up and around again, and feel as young as ever (in a horn). I hope by the time this reaches you Farther & Annie will be all O. K. again.

Your Brother, F. A. WALTER.

(Address:) Miss Lyde M. Walters, Fort Madison, Iowa (Lee Co.).

(Post-mark:) Aladdin, Kans., Sept. 18, '78.

(Postal Card.)

Lawrence, Oct. 4th, '78.

Dear Sisters: I left Aladin for Lawrence the other day simply to try and get Cured as I have been to low for the past two weeks to write, I thought I would let you know that I am still alive, and think I will be all right in a week or so as I have employed the best Dr. in Lawrence to wait on me.

F. A. WALTER.

(Address:) Miss Lyde M. Walters, Fort Madison, Iowa.
(Post-mark:) Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 4, 11 a. m.

Lawrence, Oct. 10th, '78.

Dear Sisters & All: Your letters came to hand last night—was glad to hear from you. You advise me to come home if I would that would not cure me as far as care goes you could not take any more than the family I am stopping with for they treat me just as though I was one of the Family so you need not be alarmed about me. And as my health is improving fast I think in a week or so to be able to go to work again. I have not heard from Rob for over a week is he in good health or don't you know. Please answer these few lines Amediately and give me full particulars about the Family. This will be all for this time. I will try and write more the next. Give my Compliments to Spreen and tell him that he did not send that book he promised (viz. Constitution & By 2225 Laws of K. of P.) also tell Eugene to drop me a few lines and oblige Your Brother,

F. A. WALTER.

(On the Envelope) Miss Fannie B. Walter,
Fort Madison, Iowa.

(Post-mark) Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 10, 9 A. M.

Central Hotel,
Lawrence, Kansas.
John Anderson, Propr.

Lawrence, Oct. 18th, 78.

Dear Sister & All: Your letter was received yesterday, sorry to hear of the misfortune Farther had for I don't think P. Walter will give him a cent. I wrote to Rob about a week ago, as he said if I run short for me not to hesitate in calling on him or I should of called on one of you Girls for a small sum of money. as both of you are earning some thing please see "Rob" and if he has not attended to it will one or both of you try and send me ($5) Five Dollars as I have run into Debt a little, for Medicine and the Dr. said that I will have to take it a little easy yet for a week or so until I get a little stronger before I undertake to work. see Rob and have him or either you attend to it amediately Please and I will send it back as soon as I possible can. If you see Eugen tell him that I will write to him in a short time (as I have only one P. Stamp left and no money to buy any with I will have to save it at present) so I cannot write to him, but you need not tell him about the stamp business. this is about all for this time with Compliments to all I remain your True

Bro. F. A. WALTER.

P. S. Please answer by Returning Mail and oblige,

F. A. W.

(On the envelope) Central Hotel, Lawrence, Kansas, John Anderson, Propr. Miss Lyde M. Walter, Fort Madison, Iowa.

(Ports-mark) Lawrence, Kan., Oct. 19, 7AM.

Emporia Kans Feby 9th 79

Dear Sisters: It has been some time since I last wrote to you so I thought it no more than write for me to drop you a few lines, for you would not let me hear from you otherwise. I have been having a Couple shakes lately but think I have got them Checked now for I have not shook since a week to night otherwise I feel well & Eat harty I have not been doing any thing for some time but as the Weather is Moderating I think I will get a hold of something soon now. there is not much of anything in the Amusement line going on here so I am not Enjoying myself any to good but have to be Contended without Amusement there is not any News that would interest you so I will make these lines as short as possible. tell Rob 2226 that I received his Card (postal) in due time. And Congratulate Farther on the 14th for me.

I remain as ever Your

Brother F. A. WALTER.

(Lyon Co) Emporia Kans

P. S. Write Soon.

Compliments to Annie Baker & the rest of the good looking girls)

FRED. A. WALTER.

(On the envelope) Miss Lyde M. Walter, Ft. Madison Iowa (Lee Co)

(Post-mark) Emporia Kan. Feb 10.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * *

2227 Fannie Walters, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to her by James W. Green, Esq., counsel for the defendants, testified as follows, to-wit:

Q. You may state your name, please, and place of residence? A. Fannie Walters; Fort Madison, Iowa.

Q. How long have you resided at Fort Madison, Miss Walters? A. Over thirty-nine years; all my life.

Q. With whom do you reside at Fort Madison?

A. With my father, Daniel Walters.

Q. How long have you resided with him? A. All my life.

Q. Of whom did your father's family consist? A. When?

Q. We will say in 1878?

A. My father, mother, brother Robert, brother Adolph, sister Elizabeth and sister Anna.

Q. Is your father still living? A. He is.

Q. Is your mother still living? A. No, sir.

Q. When did she die? A. March 3rd, 1888.

Q. Now, you may state when you last saw your brother Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. On February 26th, 1878; I mean March 26th; that was a mistake.

Q. Where did you see him at that time? A. At home.

Q. You may state whether or not he parted from home at that time? A. I don't undertsand the question.

Q. Did he leave home at that time?

A. He left home; that is when he bade us farewell, yes, sir.

Q. Do you know where he went?

A. He left home for the west.

Q. Where did you hear from him the first time, if you remember?

A. I think it was Macedonia, Iowa, or Council Bluffs; one or the other.

Q. About how long was that after he left home?

A. I could not tell exactly, but it was very soon after he left.

2228 Q. Do you remember where you next heard from him? A. I do not.

Q. Could you mention any other places from which he sent letters to you?

A. Yes, Macedonia, Council Bluffs, Kansas City, Warrensburg, Holden, Aladdin, Paola, Leavenworth, Lawrence, Emporia and Wichita, I think, all those places.

Q. Were you in correspondence with him? A. I was.

Q. How often did you hear from him?

A. I cannot say how often; I would, but the family would hear from him regularly about every two weeks.

Q. State whether or not he was writing to different members of the family? A. He was.

Q. Now, at that time, in 1878, where was your brother Robert Walters living?

A. I think he was either at Holden or Warrensburg.

Q. Where did your sister Elizabeth live?

A. She lived at home with us.

Q. And your sister Anna, also? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, has either of your sisters since married?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and imaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. Yes, they are both married.

Q. Now, after they were married, where did they reside?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial; objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. In Fort Madison.

Q. About how far from your father's house?

A. Sister Elizabeth always lived within a block or two, while sister Anna has for years of her married life lived within two miles on the outskirts of the town.

Q. At the time that your brother Frederick Adolph left home, what were the relations between him and the family?

A. Most friendly.

Q. Did they at any time cease? A. No, sir.

Q. Where did you last hear from him?

A. Wichita, Kansas; I think.

2229 Q. Do you remember about the time?

A. We received it the first few days in March, 1879.

Q. Who of the family at Fort Madison received the last letter from him?

A. It was either sister Elizabeth or myself; I could not tell.

Q. Now, since about the first of March, 1879, have you ever received any communication from him? A. No sir.

Q. Has any member of the family, to your knowledge, received any? A. No sir, they have not.

Q. Have you ever seen him since then? A. No sir.

Q. Has he ever returned to Fort Madison since that time?

A. No sir.

Q. Now, Miss Walters, will you give a description as well as you can, of the personal appearance of this Frederick Adolph Walters?

A. He was a tall, robust man, raw-boned; don't know his exact height, with dark hair, dark eyes, had a perfect set of teeth, and his mustache was some shades lighter; had a Roman nose, quite prominent cheek bones, long fingers.

Q. How were his arms and legs in comparison with his body?

A. They were considered somewhat long in proportion.

Q. Do you know as to the size of his feet? A. No sir.

Q. Did he to your knowledge, have any jewelry?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What did he have if you remember?

A. He had a plain gold ring, a silver watch with a hair guard, slide and gold locket, and an Odd Fellows' pin, three linked pin.

Q. Did he wear this gold ring? A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you remember on which finger he wore it?

A. On one of his little fingers, I could not tell which hand.

Q. Was he wearing that at the time he left home?

A. He was.

Q. I wish you would look at the letter which has been marked Exhibit C by Sabert M. Casey, and state if you know in whose handwriting it is; if so please, state. A. Yes sir.

Q. In whose handwriting is it?

A. That my brother Adolph's.

2230 Q. And the signature to it; will you please observe it; in whose handwriting is that?

A. That is his signature.

Q. Will you look at this portion of the envelope which has also been marked by Sabert M. Casey, Exhibit C, and state in whose handwriting the address on that letter is?

A. That is also his.

Q. Now, as to the color of his hair; what would you say as to that Miss Walter? A. Very dark brown.

Q. How would it compare with the color of your hair?

A. I think it was somewhat similar to the shade of my own. Of course, mine is streaked with gray now.

Q. As to the shape of his nose, how would that compare with yours? A. It was similar to mine.

Q. And as to his teeth?

A. They were very much like mine.

Q. Would you have any objection to showing your teeth to the jury? A. No sir.

Q. If you will, please. The witness does so.

Q. I think you said his teeth were perfect?

A. They were, yes sir.

Q. Will you look at the picture which is marked Exhibit V, and state to the jury whose picture that is, if you know?

A. Yes, that is a picture of brother Adolph.

Q. Now, will you please look at the picture marked Exhibit No. 29 and No. 30, and state if you knew the person in life of whom those are pictures?

A. Yes, these are pictures of my brother.

By Mr. Green: I desire to place certain of these pictures in the hands of the jury, and I shall request Miss Walters to remove her glasses, and I would like to have the jury compare this side view picture with the profile of the witness.

By Mr. Hutchings: We object to that as incompetent, irrelevant and improper.

By the Court: It may be done. To which ruling the plaintiff at the time excepted.

Q. In regard to the hair of your brother, Frederick Adolph, you may state whether it was straight or otherwise?

2231 A. His hair was what I would call wavy.

Q. When he talked or laughed, did he show his teeth? A. Yes sir, quite distinctly.

Q. Which teeth did he show when he would laugh?

A. He would show them all, because he would generally laugh heartily.

Q. Upper and lower both? A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you first see the pictures marked No. 29 and No. 30 if you remember, or pictures similar to them?

A. Were they the last ones you showed me?

Q. The pictures of the body?

A. The beginning of January, 1880.

Q. Where was it that you saw them?

A. At our house at home.

Q. Who had them? A. Father.

Q. Do you remember what time of day it was?

A. I do not.

Q. Who was present at the time he showed you those pictures?

A. Father and mother, my two sisters and myself.

[Q.] By Mr. Barker: We offer to prove by the witness Fannie Walters, that the two pictures, to wit, exhibit 29 and 30, were shown to the witness and her sister Elizabeth Rieffenach, by their father Daniel Walters in his house; that his daughters (the witness and Elizabeth Rieffenach, saw them and immediately recognized them as pictures of their brother, Frederick Adolph Walters); that before the mother had seen the pictures, the father accidentally dropped one of the pictures on the floor; that while it was being picked up, the mother saw it, and exclaimed, "Oh, it is my son," and immediately fell in a swoon.

The plaintiff objected to the offered evidence as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay.

By the Court: The part in parentheses, you may show; that which is not in parentheses, is excluded.

To which ruling of the Court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted and still except.

Q. Now, you may state whether or not you recognized those pictures when you saw them at your home? A. I did.

2232 Q. Whom did you recognize them as being pictures of? A. Of my brother Adolph.

A. How soon after you were shown them did you recognize the pictures? A. Immediately; as soon as I saw them.

Q. What was your mother's age at this time?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the plaintiff duly excepts.

A. She was about 55; in her 55th year.

Q. Did you ever, at any time, erect a monument to your mother?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

The defendants here offer to prove by the witness that the following inscription is inscribed upon the tombstone erected by Daniel Walters in the grave yard at Fort Madison:

Frederick Adolph Walters, [both] January 21, 1855. Died March 17, 1879. Interred at Lawrence, Kansas.

The plaintiff objects to the offer as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and hearsay. Objection sustained, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

And in answer to cross interrogatories propounded to her by L. B. Wheat, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. When did you say your mother died?

A. March 3, 1888.

Q. And when did you say that these pictures that have been mentioned were exhibited to you?

A. These of the body, of the corpse?

Q. Yes, at the time you were just speaking of, I mean the time of the exhibition you were just speaking of.

A. At the beginning of January; I don't know the date; it was from the 3rd to the 5th of January, 1880.

2233 Q. Your mother died some eight years after that?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Miss Walter, will you please look at this picture marked Exhibit No. 36, at this trial, and state whether you recognize that as a picture of any person?

A. Yes sir, that is a picture of my brother Adolph.
Q. The one— A. That died.
Q. That we have been talking about?
A. When was that taken?
A. I could not tell.
Q. I will ask you to look at Exhibit No. 33 at this trial and I will ask you to tell me whether you recognize that as the picture of any person?
A. I should think that a copy of the other small picture.
Q. You think it is copy of this? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, state if you recognize that No. 33 as the photograph or picture of any person? A. Yes sir.
Q. Of whom? A. Of my brother.
Q. The same brother? A. Yes sir.
Q. Called Frederick Adolph Walters, is that right; he is the one you recognize it as? A. Yes sir.

Q. In this comparison of noses, I will ask that the jury be permitted to look at this picture Exhibit 10, and to compare it with the lady's nose.

By Mr. Ware: Consent.
By Mr. Wheat: I will also ask that the jury compare the nose in exhibit 33, and also in the little one, No. 36.

Q. Your deposition was once taken in this case, was it not?
A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you if that is your signature, Fannie Walters?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You gave your deposition in this case at what time?
A. I could not tell you.
Q. As near as you can remember?
A. The beginning of 1880; some time in the summer of 1880.
2234 Q. Well, the beginning of 1881, was it not?
A. I could not tell exactly.
Q. I will ask you if you remember a man by the name of H. B. Munn? A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you if you remember a man by the name of Tillinghast. A. No sir.
Q. You don't remember a man named Tillinghast?
A. No sir, never heard of him.
Q. In connection with this case? A. No sir.
Q. Were you present when Miss Kasten's deposition was taken in this court? A. No, sir.
Q. Do you remember a man by the name of Wiseman?
A. No sir.
Q. Can you tell me whether you remember of having seen any of these insurance agents before you saw these pictures?
A. No sir.

Q. You were expecting some pictures when they arrived, were you not? A. No sir.

Q. Who brought the pictures to you? A. Father.

Q. You stated in answer to questions asked you by Mr. Green that your brother's teeth were perfect?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Do you feel sure of that?

A. I am positive of it.

Q. Do you mean to apply that to every single tooth?

A. Yes sir, so far as I know.

Q. Well, how far do you know?

A. I have never known of his having any dentistry done, or complain of toothache.

The plaintiff moves to strike out the answer as not responsive to the question. Motion overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

Q. If I understood you, you said he opened his mouth a good deal, carried his mouth a good deal open in laughing? Showed his teeth a good deal?

By Mr. Green. She has not said anything of the kind.

Q. How was it about that?

A. Please ask the question again.

Q. Did he have his mouth open a good deal or not;
2235 did he carry his mouth open; was he in the habit of having his upper lip raised or not? A. No sir.

Q. Was there anything unusual in that respect, so far as you know? A. No sir.

Q. His teeth were perfect— Compare them with the eye teeth? You said as far as you knew. Now, I want to get at it in detail how far you knew, I mean. Take his eye teeth to start with.

A. So far as I knew, all his teeth were perfect.

Q. I want to ask you some questions with reference to that; I want you to come down to see how far you knew. Take his eye teeth for a basis, take his upper eye teeth to start upon; can you state whether he had any imperfect teeth back of his eye teeth? A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Was your knowledge sufficient to enable you to state whether he had or not? A. I think so.

Q. You think then if there had been any imperfection in any of the teeth, either back or front of either of the eye teeth, you would know it, do you? A. Yes sir.

Q. Were not some of his teeth broken? A. No sir.

Q. None of them? A. None of them to my knowledge.

Q. Any of them broken off?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Do you think you looked at them close enough to be sure of that?

A. I think I saw them often enough.

Q. To be sure that no corner of any of them was broken off? A. Yes sir.

Q. You feel certain of that? A. Yes sir.

Q. How certain can you be? Are you as certain of that as of anything? A. Yes sir.

Q. Miss Walters, do you remember this dog bite on him?

A. No sir.

Q. You don't remember it? A. No sir.

Q. Do you remember any scar or mark or dog bite on him?

A. Not of my personal knowledge.

2236 Q. I will ask you to state whether at the time your deposition was being taken, whether this question was asked you: "Did you ever know anything about his having been bitten by a dog on the back of one of his legs," and your answer thereto, "Yes sir."

The defendants objects to the question as not a proper way to impeach the witness. The Court overruled the objection, to which ruling of the Court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

[—] "Did you ever know anything about his having been bitten by a dog on the back of one of his legs?"

A. Not from my personal knowledge; only from hearsay.

Q. And did you not to such question asked you in that examination answer, "Yes sir?" A. I don't remember.

Q. I will call your attention to page 60 of this bundle of depositions where it speaks about your being sworn. I just want to draw your attention to it. At page 100, you will see what you said was your signature. I wish you would run over these pages and see if that is your deposition taken some time in 1881.

A. I have no doubt but this is my deposition. I don't know as I need to go through it; there is no need to refresh my memory for I didn't swear to anything except that I remembered and I don't intend to swear to anything except what I remember at the present time. I think that is all that is expected of me at the present time, is it not, Judge?

Q. Do you remember the questions of dog bite on your brother, Frederick Adolph Walters, being asked you at that trial?

A. I don't remember to-day, no sir.

Q. I will have to offer the whole deposition in evidence, and then ask her particularly about particular parts of it. I offer the whole deposition in evidence.

The defendants object to the offer of the same as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: The rule as to contradicting a witness
2237 is very clear. If you contend that she made certain statements in that deposition the reverse of what she now testifies, call her attention to the particular statements and if she denies having made them, or says that she does not remember, and they are contradictory to what she says now, then you may subsequently call her attention to the deposition.

Q. Question 4. Will you give a description of the personal appearance of your brother Frederick Adolph Walters, beginning with the hair?"

Wasn't that question asked you? A. I don't remember.

Q. I will skip down to the next place where I find his name mentioned.

Wasn't this question asked you: "Do you know where the last letter you say your brother Frederick Adolph Walters wrote to your sister from Wichita about March 5th, 1879, is." Do you remember that question being asked you?

A. I don't remember, no, sir.

Q. To which you answered: "I don't, but I know where there is one that can prove." Do you remember that answer to such a qestion as that? A. I do not.

Q. Now, when your deposition was being taken, were you not asked this question: "Q. Do you know anything about his having been bitten by a dog on the back of one of his legs?" to which you answered "Yes, sir." Do you remember that question and answer being asked?

A. I don't remember, no, sir; I don't remember that answer.

Q. Then, wasn't the next question asked you, "Did you ever see the place where he was bitten," to which you answered, "Yes, sir." A. I don't remember.

Q. Do you remember such a question being asked you as that? What is the fact about it; did you ever see the place where he was bitten I am asking you the question now; did you ever see the place where he was bitten?

A. I really don't remember whether I saw it or just have it from the rest of the family, their speaking of it; I don't remember that I ever saw it.

2238 Q. You don't remember that such a question was asked you? A. No, sir.

Q. You have already answered that you don't remember answering? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is the fact as to whether, what do you say the fact is; what is the fact now as to whether you saw where he was bitten?

A. Of my own knowledge, I don't know. It was just what I heard from the family.

Q. It was family talk? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, the next question: "(68) State where it was as near as you can remember," to which you answered, "I think it was in the calf." Was that question so answered by you?

A. I suppose so or it would not have been down there; I don't remember.

Q. Can you tell me anything of your own knowledge where that dog bite was; state where it was as near as you can remember? A. I don't remember anything about it.

Q. Don't you remember such a question being asked you, and you answered, "I think it was in the calf?"

A. I don't remember.

Q. With reference to the hair of your brother, state whether it was coarse or fine?

A. Why, it was medium; it was not real fine, and was not coarse.

Q. I will ask you if on that examination, this question was asked you: I will ask you this: Was your brother's hair coarse or fine I am asking that question now?

A. I think it was medium; it was not real fine nor real coarse.

Q. On that examination, when you were giving your deposition, were you not asked this question: "Was your brother's hair coarse or fine?" and if you did not to that, make answer: "Rather coarse." A. I don't remember.

Q. You have attended this court at every trial of this case?

A. I think all but one.

Q. Which one did you not attend?

A. The one that was held in 1888.

Q. At all the other trials, you have attended?

A. I think I have.

Q. And testified as a witness? A. I think so.

2239 Q. I will ask you if, at the court-house in Topeka, when this case was being tried before Judge Thomas and a jury, you did not—You attended the trial in 1895?

A. I think I did.

Q. You remember that trial, do you not, before Judge Thomas, in 1895? A. I think I do.

Q. Ain't you certain? You said you attended all the other trials? A. I don't remember but I am almost certain I did.

Q. You are certain that you attended all of them except the trial of 1888? A. I think I did.

Q. I am not speakin of 1885, but 1895; you think you attended before Judge Thomas? A. I think so.

Q. Now, I will ask you if in that trial, this question was not asked you by Mr. Hutchings: "Now, about this dog bite, you have seen that, have you not?" to which, did you not answer: "Years ago when I was quite young."

[—] I don't remember.

Q. What about the fact? A. Sir?

Q. How about the fact? How is it about the fact? Did you see that dog bite?

A. I don't remember now whether I did or not.

Q. You don't remember now whether such question was asked of you and you made such answer or not?

A. No, sir, not to-day.

Q. I will ask you if this question was not asked you by Mr. Hutchings at that trial: "I understood you to say this morning that you didn't know anything about the dog bite except from hearsay; how is that; you have actually seen it?" To which you answered, "I have seen it when I was younger." Didn't you make such an answer to that [to that] question?

A. I don't remember to-day; I suppose I did at that time.

Q. Well, is it a fact that you did see it when you were younger?

A. I say I don't remember to-day whether I did or not.

Q. You don't remember whether you did or not?

A. No, sir.

Q. You can't say whether you made such answer or not?

A. No, sir.

Q. I believe you mentioned something about his nose in answer to one of Mr. Green's questions, did you not, you 2240 gave a description of his nose. Now, with reference to his nose. If I understand you, you remember his nose?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, I will ask you whether his nose was crooked sidewise or not? A. Not that I knew of.

Q. If it had been crooked sidewise, you would have known it would you not? A. If it was noticeable, yes, sir.

Q. Didn't you notice him enough to have noticed it if it had been out of line? A. If very much so, I think so.

Q. If it had been any out of line, wouldn't you have noticed it? A. I don't know; I suppose so.

Q. You think you would don't you?

A. Yes, if it was noticeable.

Q. So that you think his nose was not crooked sidewise?

I think not.

Q. I will ask you in reference to this hearing from Wichita. When was it that you heard from him from Wichita?

A. It was the beginning of March, 1879.

Q. About what time did you hear from him?

A. I could not tell you it was all the way from the 2d or 3rd to the 5th.

Q. Somewhere from the 3rd to the 5th that you got a letter or whatever way you heard?

A. It came about from the 3d to the 5th.

Q. You are sure of that, are you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell me whether you ever heard from him more than once from Wichita? A. I cannot, no, sir.

Q. Do you remember of hearing from him more than once at Wichita? A. I don't remember to-day, no, sir.

Q. Where did you hear from him last before hearing from him at Wichita?

A. I don't remember; I think it was Emporia; I am not certain.

Q. Can you tell me when that was that you heard from him at Emporia? A. No, sir.

Q. Can you fix it at all within a month? A. No, sir.

Q. Can you fix it within two months?

A. Oh, it was not that long.

2241 Q. Fix it as near as you can then, please.

A. I would rather not for I cannot tell you, definitely; it might have been two weeks or a month.

Q. I wish you would do the very best you can to fix it when you heard from him at Emporia.

A. I expect it was—

Q. I don't want what you expect; I want your recollection.

A. I don't know; I don't recollect.

Q. Don't recollect when? A. No, sir.

Q. Do you recollect whether you heard from him more than once at Emporia? A. I do not.

Q. Where did you hear from him last before you heard from him at Emporia? A. I don't remember.

Q. Have no recollection? A. No, sir.

Q. How often did you hear from him during January and February, 1879? A. I could not tell you how often.

Q. I only want your memory.

A. I can't tell you definitely, no sir.

Q. Tell as near as you can? A. About every two weeks.

Q. Yet you can't tell from whence you heard from him?

A. No, sir.

Q. Can you remember of hearing from him at any point between Lawrence and Emporia?

A. I can't answer that question as I am not acquainted with Kansas well enough to know; I know different stations that we heard from him in Kansas, but I don't know which was first or last.

Q. You don't know where the places are along between those places?

A. No, I don't know the places between those places, no sir.

Q. Can you remember where you heard from him in December, 1878? Do you remember of hearing from him in Decemer, 1878?

A. Oh, we certainly did, but I don't remember.

Q. I ask you if you remember? A. No, sir.

Q. You don't remember of hearing from him in December, 1878? A. No, sir, I do not.

2242 Q. Then, how can you say that you certainly did, if you don't remember?

A. Why, because we always heard from his regularly.

Q. How can you say you always heard from him, if you can't remember?

A. I can remember that we did, but I can't remember the dates.

Q. I am not asking you now for the specific dates. Can you give me any further reason or answer why you can say that you did hear from him, and yet cannot state where or when?

A. I can only give that answer, that we always heard regularly from him once—

Q. How can you say you always heard regularly from him?

A. Because it was his custom and we had—

Q. You are sure you heard from every two weeks?

A. On an average we heard from him regularly, not regularly every two weeks but on an average; sometimes he would write oftener.

Q. Would it be as much as three weeks between the times you would hear from him?

A. I don't know; it might have been.

Q. Would it be as much as four weeks?

A. No, until after the last time we heard from him, no sir.

Q. Didn't you get letters from him at Sun City and Medicine Lodge and all along that line? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you not get letters from him at Medicine Lodge?

A. No, sir.

Q. You say you never heard from him at Medicine Lodge?

A. No, sir.

Q. Sure of that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Sure you didn't hear from him from Sun City?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Sure you didn't hear from him at Medicine Lodge?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear of his being at Medicine Lodge?

A. No, sir.

Q. In any shape, form or manner?

A. Not until after his death, no sir.

Q. I am asking about hearing from him? A. No, sir.

By Mr. Wheat. I move to strike out what she said about after his death as not responsive. Stricken out.

Q. Did you ever hear from him more than once, did you or any member of your family ever hear from him more than once at Wichita?

2243 A. I don't remember, no sir, hearing more than once.

Q. That is the time you have already mentioned as from the 3rd to the 5th of March, 1879? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That is the only time? A. To my best recollection.

Q. Can you remember of hearing from him more than once at Emporia? A. I can't remember, no sir.

Q. You have no remembrance of more than once at Emporia? A. No, sir.

Q. You can't remember the time when that?

A. No, sir, not definitely.

Q. Can you come within a month of the time?

A. I might but it would be guess work.

Q. I don't want guess work, except what is a recollection in your mind? A. No, sir, I could not.

Q. Didn't you hear that he was working in Emporia for a considerable length of time? A. Not from him, no, sir.

Q. That is all I am talking about from him? A. No.

Q. I don't want to be misunderstood about that; I want to know what you heard from him?

[A.] Didn't you hear that he worked in Wichita for a considerable time? A. Not from him, no sir.

Q. It is from that my questions are applicable.

Q. In your examination in chief you mentioned Leavenworth as one of the places that you heard from him?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you mean Leavenworth, Kansas? A. Yes, sir.

Q. This place? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Can you tell me whether you heard from him as working for Simmons & Staiger? A. No, sir.

Q. Did you hear from him as working for Staiger alone?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear from him as working for Simmons?

A. No, sir.

Q. Did you ever hear from him as working at all at Leavenworth? A. I don't remember.

Q. But you did hear from him as being here in Leavenworth at some time? A. Yes, sir.

2244 And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to [him] by Mr. Green, counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. Can you tell me, Miss. Walter, as to the relative time of the taking of the photograph Exhibit V and No. 36. Which was taken first if you know?

A. The 36 was taken first; I don't remember when that was taken; but this is later, was taken sometime near Christmas in 1877 shortly before he left home.

Q. That is exhibit V? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And the other was taken prior to that?
A. I don't remember just when; I don't remember the time, no, sir.
Q. Now, when you spoke of hearing from him, did you refer to letters directed to yourself alone, or to yourself and other members of the family? A. To the immediate family.
Q. Now, prior to his leaving there in 1878, where had he been residing? A. Before he left?
Q. Yes. A. At home with the family.
Q. Were you living there at the same time? A. I was.
Q. Where did he make his home when he was in Fort Madison up until the time he left there?
A. With father; with the family.

By Mr. Wheat:
Q. You said that the picture Exhibit V was taken Christmas, 1877. I understood you to say; was that right?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. So that it was taken before 1878? A. Yes, sir.
Q. And this other picture of your brother of which the large picture of your brother is a copy, you say, if I understand you right, you can't say when that was taken?
A. I don't remember; that was taken prior, at an earlier period.

Witness excused.

2245 The defendants and each of them again offer in evidence of James S. Crew, the testimony of J. W. Blythe and the testimony of Dr. E. D. F. Phillips, already offered, and excluded by the court, and read in connection therewith, certain clauses from the policies and application of the defendants, in evidence herein, upon the subject of fraud.

The court denied said offer, to which action and ruling of the court the defendants and each of them duly excepted.

2246 C. H. Nettels, a witness produced by the defendants, being duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Barker:
Q. Have you read the testimony of Mrs. Hillmon given upon the trial of 1885 as found in this book? (Handing book to the witness.) A. Yes, sir.
Q. Does she anywhere in that testimony testify that her husband had a mole upon his back?

The plaintiff objects to the question as not being a proper way to impeach a witness. Objection overruled, the plaintiff excepts.

A. No, sir.

Cross Examination

By Mr. Wheat:

Q. Was Mrs. Hillmon asked any questions about a mole on her husband's back?

A. She was not; the word mole is not mentioned in her testimony.

Witness excused.

And here the defendants and each of them having concluded their evidence rested their causes.

2247 And thereupon, at the conclusion of the defendant's evidence, the plaintiff in order to further maintain the issues upon her part, offered and adduced evidence in rebuttal as follows, to-wit:

2248 C. H. Nettles, a witness already sworn in the cause, testified in behalf of the plaintiff on rebuttal as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Wheat:

Q. You reported the testimony given upon the trial of the Hillmon cases in 1895. A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was Fannie Walters a witness at that trial.

A. She was.

Q. Did you take down her testimony correctly? A. I did.

Q. I will ask you if on the trial in 1895, she was asked this question on cross examination: "Now, about this dog bite; you have seen that, have you not?"

A. I have no independent recollection of the question being asked but the transcript from which you are reading is a transcript of her evidence given upon that trial made by myself and it is correct. I should say she was asked that question.

Q. And did she to that question make the following answer: "Years ago when I was quite young." A. Yes, sir.

Q. Was this question put to her and this answer made thereto at that time: "I understood you to say this morning that you did not know anything about the dog bite except from hearsay; how is that? You have actually seen it? A. I have seen it when I was younger."

A. Yes, sir, that question was asked and that answer given.

Cross Examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. I will ask you if upon her direct examination at that trial, she was asked the following questions and made the following answer thereto:

"Q. Do you know of any identifying marks, I will call it identifying marks, that your brother had, of your own knowledge. A. Nothing in particular; I do not know of my own knowledge, no sir.

2249 "Q. Do you know whether he had a scar; did you ever see it? A. I may have seen it, but it has been so long ago that I expect that scar—well, I do not remember except from hearsay."

A. Yes, those questions were asked and those answers given by her.

By Mr. Wheat: I now read from the deposition of Fannie Walters, taken at Fort Madison, Iowa, and on file in this case, questions 61, 62, 63, 64 65, 66 and 68, as follows:

61. Have you any knowledge of your brother, Frederick Adolph, ever being hurt in any way.

Ans. I have no knowledge. I have been informed.

"62. What injury or hurt have you been informed he had?

Ans. A cut on one of his hands.

"63. Did you ever see the place where he was cut?

Ans. No, sir.

"64. Did you ever know anything about his having been bitten by a dog on the back of one of his legs? Ans. Yes, sir.

"65. Did you ever see the place where he was bitten?

Ans. Yes, sir.

"66. When did you last see it?

Ans. As much as twelve years ago.

"68. State where it was as near as you can remember?

Ans. I think it was in the calf.

By Mr. Green: Q. In that connection I desire to read now all that she said in regard to that matter, in regard to the scar.

(Mr. Green now reads questions 64, 65, 66 and 68 already set forth above. Also the following questions and answers:

"67. It was on the back of his leg just above the ankle?

Ans. I don't remember."

2250 "71. Can you state about how large the scar was?

Ans. I cannot.

"100. Can you state when your brother Frederick Adolph received that dog bite? Ans. I cannot.

"101. Do you remember who he used to work for at the time? Ans. He did not work at all.

"102. Whereabouts was he when he received the bite?

Ans. In Fort Madison, opposite his home.

"103. Whose dog did the biting?

Ans. I can't answer that question by my own knowledge.

"104. Whose dog was it reputed to be?

Ans. Mr. George Rieffenach.

"105. Was he at the time of that dog bite or directly afterwards engaged at working in a cigar shop here in Fort Madison? Ans. No, sir.

"106. Do you remember the circumstance of his being bitten? Ans. I do not.

"107. Then of your own knowledge you do not remember when he was bitten? Ans. I do not.

"121. You stated in your cross-examination that your brother when a child had been bitten by a dog and that the last time you saw it was some twelve years ago. Now, when you last saw your brother's leg where the bite was supposed to be, how did it appear to your best recollection?

Ans. I don't think I can give a description of it; I was too young at the time."

2251 Dr. S. F. Neely, a witness produced by the plaintiff in rebuttal, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to-wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Your name, please, doctor? A. Shaw F. Neely.

Q. Residence? A. Leavenworth city.

Q. Are you a physician and surgeon? A. I am.

Q. What medical institution did you graduate from?

A. I graduated from the medical department of the Pennsylvania College of Gettysburg, and also graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania.

Q. I will ask you to state to the jury in your own phraseology—to give a description of a normal vaccine sore, the way it appears?

The defendants and each of them object to the question as not proper rebuttal. Objection overruled, each of the defendants duly excepts.

A. When vaccine lymph has been introduced into the system of a person, who had not been previously vaccinated, either by puncture or abrasion of the cuticle, there is usually very little manifestation of any kind except it might be a little redness due to irritation, which it is not specific at all, until after the 48th hour, or until after the second day; then at the point or the points of the insertion of the lymph there is a local engorgement or swelling and elevation. That is designated by the authorities as the papule. On the summit or top of the little elevation, from the third to the fourth day appears vescicle; it contains a clear liquid. It corresponds in shape usually or always, to the shape of the wound at which the virus was introduced; that is, if it be a small puncture, it is circular in shape; if the abrasion be lengthy it is not circular but oval in shape. That vesicle continues to increase in size until about the end of the 8th day from the insertion of the 2252 lymph. It has a peculiar appearance in this: That the summit of it, the top of it, is depressed, is what the authorities say umbilicated. That term is applied to its resemblance to the tucking in of the navel, the umbilitis. That vesicle is divided in its interior, by partitions of tissue, and if it be punctured, there is only a limited amount of oozing of the contents of it because it only comes from the segments of the vesicle that the pucture involves. As I have said, it continues to increase in size until about the end of the 8th day, and then around the vescicle or vescicles appears an areola of inflammation; the parts become reddened usually to the extent of an inch or three inches perhaps in diameter; if the lymph has been inserted at more than one point that redness will run together and coalesce, in the language of the authorities; sometimes the redness extends beyond that areola, it extends up and down the arm and along the course of what we call the lymphatic vessels, that is, the little vessels that connect the glands, especially of the arm. This areola and the size of the vesicle increase until about the end of the 10th day, after which it decreases, the redness and the inflammation subside, and at the center of the vesicle it begins to dry and the formation of a crust or scab commences at that particular point and increases until the end of the 14th or 15th day. By this time, the inflammatory pustule or the areola as you might term it, around the pustule— I have gone just a little too fast. Before this 14th day, before the drying of the scab, the contents of the vesicle changes, and what was in the vesicle becomes opaque and muddy, and gradually yellowish, or changes from a vesicle to a pustule; from a clear liquid it changes to a yellowish, or pus; from a clear liquid to a yellowish liquid or pus, and it is the drying of that pus that forms the scab on the tissues that are adjacent to the contents of the pustule. Now, ordinarily, as I have said, by the 14th or 15th day, that scab is complete, the period of dessication, in other words, has become complete, and then the tendency is to the character of a vaccination. It is not so speedy in the person of a child as it is in a grown person. Climate has some effect on its course, and what we call individual peculiarities, or susceptibilities of the system, idiosyncracies, professional men call them, influence the course of a vaccination. In some persons it has no effect whatever; they are wholly insusceptible to the influence of the vaccine lymph. In others, they remain insusceptible for a number of years, and then vaccination will take as it is ordinarily stated. Others will take vaccination but once, and never again. I am an illustration, in so far as my present age is concerned of that. I was vaccinated once; I have been vaccinated a great many times since and have never taken vaccination a second time. There are others whom it will protect for a number of years and re-vaccination will then take. Persons whom have once been vaccinated, and are re-vaccinated—the sore may pursue a normal course, or about the course I have described. In others who have been re-vaccinated, the course of the vaccination is not as I have described, but it may vary; it may come to a sudden termination at one of its stages, and the crust will form much earlier than at the period I have stated. In some, in many, on the other hand, the crust will not be detached until a much later period. I have cases of my own where the original crust was not detached for nearly three months. There are also cases where the appearance of the vesicle does not occur until much later than the 4th or 5th day. I have personally known of one case, at least, where I did not discover the vesicle until as late as the 9th day.

2253 healing up of the sore underneath the scab; it becomes covered with new cuticle and separates from the circumference to the center of the crust and by the end of the 20th to the 25th day in a natural case, the scab is cast off of itself. Now, that is the course of a natural vaccination. It is modified, however, at times by different circumstances. The circumstance of age in itself modifies to an extent the

2254 Q. Does that conclude your answer, doctor?

A. Practically.

Q. You say the duration of the inflammation of the sore, to use the language that comes readily to the layman's lips, is dependent on a measure, upon the surrounding circumstances and condition of the patient; is that a fact?

A. Yes, and also dependent, I may state, upon the character of the virus used.

Q. Bovine virus?

A. Yes, bovine virus, that is, virus taken from a cow; it is more potent in its effect upon the system than virus that has passed through the system of individual. It has a magnified effect.

Q. When you say more potent, do you mean by that that it makes the sore sorer? A. Yes.

Q. And prolongs it?

A. Prolongs the duration of it, yes.

Q. How about climatic conditions, whether or not exposure to the cold would affect it, and if so, how?

A. Well, climate has some effect.

Q. I don't think you quite grasped my question. Suppose during the winter months or the spring months a man was [—] good deal of moving about in a wagon, and camping out on the ground over night, exposed to the weather in that way to the cold, would that tend to have any effect upon a sore in the way of prolonging it or not?

A. I should say not materially, unless the cold affected, that is, I mean directly; that is, unless the cold affected the general system in some way; the fact that a vaccinated person was knocking around would show of course that he was subject to external irritating influences, and that probably would have a greater effect than anything else. I failed to state to the jury that any irritant applied to the sore will intensify the inflammation, and perhaps prolong the period at which the crust would be shed, for instance, the rubbing of the clothing or an injury received on the arm; of course, all those things would have a very material influence upon the duration of that sore.

2255 Q. Where the injury or irritation that you speak of augmented the inflammation, would that tend to prolong the period that the sore would appear upon the arm?

A. Yes, injuries certainly would.

Q. Now, you spoke, as I understood you, at the 12th or 14th day, that there was an elevated tendency of what I will call the scab, a tendency to come off and heal up. Did I understand you correctly when I understood it that way?

A. Yes, I said when the crust had been formed, when the period of drying or dessication is complete, that then the healing process proceeds from the circumference of that sore proper, not from around the inflammatory blush that is around the areola that I spoke of, but from the circumference of the sore proper, and a new cuticle is formed underneath the scab, and from 6 to 9 days, from the 20th to the 25th day, that crust is thrown off by nature, and it leaves a big cicatrix or mark which I did not describe.

Q. Describe that mark; is it durable?

A. It is usually permanent; not always.

Q. When you say that it will be thrown off in 20 to 25 days, you mean where it is absolutely normal?

A. Where it is absolutely normal it will be thrown off of itself.

Q. But where these extraneous conditions that I spoke of, injury or rubbing or anything of that kind come in, then is the period prolonged or shortened? A. Prolonged.

Q. You say that you have an instance in your mind where the scab remained upon the arm for three months?

A. I will not state the definite time, but the instance; I understand the gentleman will testify here as a medical expert,

Dr. Walters was the man; he can state positively for himself as to the course of his vaccination.

Q. Now, when this pus, what I will call matter, this yellowish substance that appears in the pustule dries and this hardened crust is formed, in the first instance, what is that known as, primary or secondary or what sort of a scab, if it has any name similar to that?

2256 A. Well, you can properly designate it as a primary crust, but let me explain about that. That is ordinarily the only crust that is formed; the secondary crust is only the result of accidental inflammation.

Q. In the event that the scab after it arrives at this stage that you spoke of as being loosened around the edges, is it then easily detached from the arm or the reverse?

A. It is easily detached.

Q. A comparatively slight blow or push would remove it when it comes to that stage; I am speaking of an accident.

A. I don't know what you mean by comparatively slight.

Q. Of course, if it is knocked off, it has got to be knocked off by some force?

A. Yes. I will state that the crusts that form on persons that are vaccinated are very frequently prematurely detached.

Q. Do I understand you mean that they are prematurely detached, that they are knocked off before they would naturally fall off?

A. In children, the rubbing of their clothes, itself will, or accidental injury.

Q. When that takes place—prematurely detached, I will put it, or knocked off before in the course of nature they would come off, if any sore or scab is formed then, what name is sometimes given to it?

A. Where it is prematurely detached, while there is a certain degree of inflammation remaining on the surface, where the cicatrix will form underneath the primary scab, there would be perhaps what you would understand as a secondary scab form, or crust, the thickness of which would largely depend upon the extent of the inflammation.

Q. Is the normal vaccine scab of average thickness; I mean, does one resemble the others in thickness; I express myself rather awkwardly, but I think perhaps you get what I mean?

A. The normal vaccine crust should contain nothing but the results of the drying of the pustule. But if there be underneath a degree of inflammation, there may be tissues underneath that crust attached to the scab which would 2257 materially thicken it. For instance, ulceration may occur at the base of that crust, and it may involve the attachment of considerable tissue, that is underneath or at the base of that scab.

Q. I think you used the expression as the inflammation progresses there was induration and that sort of thing, meaning as I understand, thickening, and what I and perhaps the jury would call inflammation manifests itself?

A. You do not apply your remarks to the crust?

Q. No, I am speaking of the whole sore.

A. Now, that induration that you hear of as applied to vaccination is the result of the inflammation surrounding the vaccine sore proper.

Q. Yes, that is the way I understood it.

A. And the induration is round in the neighborhood of the areola I have described.

Q. The areola I think you said, was colored?

A. It is the colored portion of the skin; every man who has been vaccinated will understand what that means; it is the discoloration around the sore.

Q. I have understood it that way, as indicative or as indicating the whole sore, or the whole swelling; the areola you designate the color kiven given by the congestion of the blood vessels at that point?

A. That is my understanding, that the areola designates the inflammatory discoloration around the pustule, as it is applied to a vaccine sore.

Q. Now, will that inflamed condition—I will use that word to indicate the thickened—the swelling that is found there on the arm under these condtions, is that sometimes augmented in prolonged induration by accident or injury or may it be?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. In the light of what you have just said, I will ask you whether or not it is anything extraordinary from a medical standpoint to find a vaccine sore very much prolonged beyond 20 to 25 days from the time that the virus was inserted?

A. It is a very common occurrence, especially in my army experience, I may add.

Q. Were you a surgeon in the army?

A. I was an assistant surgeon.

Q. You were going to say that the extending beyond the 25th day was a common occurrence in your army experience?

A. Yes sir.

2258 Q. When the pustule is formed, that as I understand, is what you call the sore; the place where the matter is. Is that the pustule?

A. Yes, where the pus is.

Q. When that is once formed, I will ask you whether or not all the tissues, the skin at that point, is destroyed, so that there is no piece of skin at that point, I mean the outer skin?

A. I do not understand your question, but I think I can make it plain; I think I have your idea in the question. As I understand you, you wish to know as to whether the vesicle or the pustule carries to its surface the whole of the skin, raises up the whole skin?

Q. No, that is not what I mean; I mean whether or not if all the pus was removed from that little pustule, all the matter, or the liquid then in the pustule was removed, would you not be right down on the flesh as distinguished from the skin?

A. No, sir.

Q. Would not? A. No, sir.

Q. What portion of the skin is destroyed if any portion of it is by the presence of this matter, this pus?

A. The vesicle, and also, of course, the pustule would have the same covering over its surface that the vesicle had; it simply carries up with it a part of the epithelial layer of the skin.

Q. Explain what that means.

A. A part of the cuticle, a part of the scarf skin; you understand what that means, the scarf skin?

Q. That which raises up when there is a blister?

A. Such as would be raised up as the covering for a blister. The true skin would lie underneath the contents of that vesicle and pustule, and would not be destroyed during the progress of the vaccination unless ulceration should occur underneath that pustule, and destroy it in that unnatural way.

Q. Now, at the 12th or 14th day, at the time you described the scab as tending to loosen around the edges, which, as I understand you, if the thing was permitted to pursue the normal course, would finally result in the shedding of 2259 the scab, would the scab be so closely adherent that it could not be picked up, could not be picked up with a sharp instrument like a knife?

A. I have never seen a vaccine scab that I could not detach with a knife.

Q. I mean by detached, not by cutting it off, of course, but by picking it up? A. It is usually easily detached.

Q. That is what I mean. What I am trying to get at is this, you have described, as I understand, that at the 14th or 15th day, along in that neighborhood, the scab is in such shape that it could be easily detached?

A. Well, before that time, before it dries, before there is perfect desiccation, it is easily detached then because there is pus underneath it, and the natural inclination of it after that time is to detach itself in a comparatively few days.

Q. The fact then that a particular sore or scab is so closely adherent, hard to be removed, so much so that it could not be picked up at the edge, I want you to tell the jury whether that is indicative of or appears like a vaccine scab at the 12th or 14th day or not, the fact that it sticks close and is adherent?

A. That has not been my experience with a vaccine scab.

Q. You say you have known that in your army experience, the prolongation of the vaccine sore beyond the 25th day, was a common occurrence. Can you recollect the longest period?

A. It has not been uncommon in my private practice.

Q. As well as your army experience? A. Yes.

Q. You have frequently known of the crust being retained, that is, the non-shedding of the crust, for a much longer period than 25 days? A. A much longer period than 25 days.

Q. What is in your mind; would you mean for 30, or 35 or 40? A. Longer than that even.

Q. Longer than any of those? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So the mere fact that a particular vaccine sore, or the place where a vaccine sore had occurred at a point in a man's arm where the virus had been inserted, the fact that 25
2260 days after that virus was inserted there was found on that arm and at that place, some evidences of the vaccination, that is, swelling, more or less swelling, and a closely adherent scab, would there be anything about such a situation as that to make it impossible that that sore was more than 25 days, or was 25 days old, speaking from a medical standpoint?

A. I think not, sir.

Q. Turning from testimony as an expert relative to medical matters, I want to ask you a question in regard to a matter or two. I will ask you whether or not you were U. S. marshal for the district of Kansas at the last trial of this case?

A. I was.

Q. At the time it was tried at Topeka before Judge Williams? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Your office occasioned you to be in attendance upon the court at that time; is that a fact? As U. S. marshal you were obliged to be in attendance upon the court?

A. I was, most of the time.

Q. I will ask you if you there saw a man by the name of Stuart, Dr. Stuart? A. I did.

Q. The same Doctor Stuart who testified here; perhaps you were in the room when he was testifying?

A. Part of the time. I know Dr. Stuart very well.

Q. He is the same Stuart who testified on the stand here as a doctor on this trial? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, I will ask you this question, whether or not at the time, I think on the very day that he testified at the last trial of this case before Judge Williams, in the rotunda of the Throop Hotel in Topeka, on the evening of the day he testified, if, in a conversation with him, this, in substance transpired between you: If you asked him how he could be positive or certain about the identity of that body in the light of all that had transpired, and that he in reply said to you, this: That he was not sure, and when he stripped up the sleeve and saw these vaccine marks at the point where he had inserted 2261 the virus in the arm of John W. Hillmon, that his doubts were increased. Did he in substance state that at that time and place or not?

The defendants object to the question for the reason that it is not the question that was asked Dr. Stuart, and because no foundation has been laid for such a question.

Q. I will ask you to state if you know Dr. Stuart?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. The same one you testified you saw and had a talk with at the time of the last trial at Topeka when he was a witness and you were U. S. Marshal of this court; is that right?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, I will ask you if in the rotunda of the Hotel Throop in Topeka, on the day when he testified, or rather the evening of that day, that is, the day that Dr. Stuart testified, he stated to you in his conversation at that time and place in substance as follows: That when he viewed the corpse brought to Lawrence, supposed to be the body of Hillmon, that he was in doubt about the identity of the corpse, and when he stripped up the sleeve and saw the sores at the places corresponding with the points at which he had introduced the virus into the arm of Hillmon, that had greatly increased the doubt as to the identity of the cropse. Did he in substance say that?

A. In substance, yes, sir.

Q. Now, adverting just a moment to the sore again. I want to read to you what was given as a description of this sore by Dr. Stuart so as to get your opinion upon 2262 whether or not it discloses such a situation as to a medical man would preclude its being 25 days old or more. In response to a question by Mr. Hutchings to give a description of the sores on the arm of the body, he uses the following language:

"There was a dark spot or sore, two of them, on the arm, in size half to three-quarters of an inch in diameter, perhaps, surrounded by a hardened thickened portion of skin running together between the two more or less. The extent of this thickened hardened condition around the sore was perhaps an inch and a half or two inches in diameter, with the sore in the center; as I said, the sore itself was dark and roughened, not raised much, if any, above the general surface of the skin. That was the general appearance. Then my object in cutting it—as I cut through one of them, made a central incision right across through the center of the sore, passing through the hardened, thickened skin about it for a distance of an inch and a half, removing a piece of skin half or three-quarters of an inch wide, to observe the depth or thickness of that hardened or inflamed portion of skin surrounding the sore, I found that the thickness varied, I did not take any definite measurement, but I should say from half an inch more or less shading off to the margin of it. The cut surface presented a reddish or pinkish hue still maintaining the characteristics of the inflammation that existed from the vaccination, the central part, the sore. I made an effort to lift up and remove the crust, as it seemed to be, from the other I found I could not do it, it was adherent, I found. Its thickness was very slight, and under the sore was also this reddened and thickened condition resulting from the inflammation and the filling up with blood product." Now, Dr. Neely, I will ask you if that description precludes the possibility or probability that that sore was 25 days old or more?

2263 The defendants and each of them object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and not a proper question. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.

Q. State what it does show; what would it show as regards age.

A. May I read that? Is that the testimony at this trial?

Q. Yes, that was asked him at this trial and he said that was a proper description. What does it show about the age, if anything?

A. It does not show anything definitely. May I explain?

Q. Yes, I shall be glad to have you do so.

A. He states that the sore itself was dark and roughened and not raised much if any above the general surface of the skin; that was the general appearance. Then, my object in cutting it—as I cut through one of them, made a central incision right across through the center of the sore passing through the hardened thickened skin about it for a distance of an inch and a half, removing a piece of skin half or three-quarters of an inch wide to observe the depth or thickness of that hardened or inflamed portion of skin surrounding the sore, I found that the thickness varies; I did not take any definite measurement but I should say for half an inch more or less shading off to the margin of it. The cut surface presented a reddish or pinkish hue still maintaining the characteristics of the inflammation that existed from the vaccination, the central part of the sore. I made an effort to remove the crust as it seemed to be from the other; I found I could not do it; it was adherent. I found its thickness was very slight, and under the sore was this reddened, thickened condition resulting from the inflammation and the filling up with blood product. [A.] I take it that [when] he means—when he says under that sore, under what he supposed to be the crust, in his testimony throughout, he speaks—

The defendants object to the statement of the witness.

Q. Confine yourself to this statement; just this state-
2264 ment of Dr. Stuart.

A. He speaks—I mean simply to say that he describes that vaccination as a sore, that is, the central part; he does not include in his description the inflammation of the skin surrounding the vaccination proper. Now, here is his statement. "The cut surface—

By Mr. Ware: What is the question before the house?

A. I asked to be permitted to explain this business. He says, "I made an effort to lift up and remove the crust, as it seemed to be." He does not assert positively that it was a crust. "I found I could not do it." "It was adherent." He further makes the statement that it was very thin. His description is not inconsistent with the crust of a primary vaccine sore having been shed, in his description of that sore.

Q. I think you said the shedding of the crust occurred somewhere, ordinarily, unless it was prolonged by some means—

A. From the 20th to the 25th day, ordinarily.

Q. Yes sir, and that very frequently some influences act to prolong that much beyond that time?

A. Yes sir. He states that he could not detach it with a knife. If that was an early crust, I mean, a crust that had just matured, a crust which just dried up, say at the 14th or 15th day; if it was a later crust it would not be difficult to detach it, because the processes of nature itself throw it off, and the thinness of the covering of this original sore is not inconsistent with the idea that the original crust had been cast off; it does not preclude the idea that it might have been cast off.

Q. Does that conclude your examination of the reason why it does not show the age?

A. The fact that there was inflammation surrounding that sore, to use his language, does not preclude the idea that it was an older sore. He states here in his answer that that inflammation was greater between the two sores; it would naturally be greater between the two sores, because so
2265 close together, and the inflammation extending from each sore would intensify the conditions in that particular territory.

Q. That might be true even if the primary scab had been shed?

A. That might be true; that induration of the witness, it seems to me, that may be kept up by artificial causes.

Q. By artificial causes, you mean something that happened to the sore? A. Some irritating, rubbing influence.

Q. A blow, or sleeping upon the hard ground?

A. Dye from the clothing getting into the sore, will irritate it very much and the clothing itself. The amounts of the engorgement that he described—

Q. What are engorgements?

A. The engorgement of the blood vessels, the condition of the tissues underneath the surface of that surface and surrounding the surface of that sore, would not necessarily draw an inference as to the age of the sore; I take it that the amount of the moisture due to the engorgement, I mean simply the filling up of the blood vessels, from his description, there was necessarily a leakage from the blood vessels there, an infiltration of the tissues that would be necessary to cause this induration of the tissues and the sore; the filling of the blood vessels in itself would not create that contusion; the other would be necessary. Now, the amount of that contusion, it seems to me, would rather preclude the idea of the drying of a natural vaccine crust at its base, at its surface that it would be attached to the cuticle; but the extreme thinness that he describes is not a correct description of a vaccine crust.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. Doctor, if I understand you right, the first thing which appears after the insertion of the virus, is a redness of the skin, with a slight pimple, is that correct? A. Yes sir.

Q. Then about the 4th or 5th day, there is what you called a papule formed?

2266 A. Well, what you have just described as the pimple, from about the 3rd to the 5th, appears on the summit of the vesicle.

Q. Up until the time this papule is formed, you would not be able to tell whether you had successful vaccination or not, would you?

A. You would not be able to tell then, Mr. Green?

Q. Yes.

A. Because you might have a papule formed that would occur in an unsuccessful vaccination.

Q. As I understand you you might have papule and not have a successful viccination?

A. Yes, sir. You might have a papule; that has nothing to do with the specific effect of the virus.

Q. But would you [—] able, doctor, to tell from the papule, as to whether it was a papule formed and rising from the vaccination? A. No, sir.

Q. You would not be able to tell that? A. No, sir.

Q. So that if on the 5th day, upon examination you would find a well formed papule, or vescicle—when does the vescicle form?

A. From the third to the fourth day, usually it appears. Then it gradually develops.

Q. Let me ask you in regard to the vescicle; would you be able to tell from the appearance of the vescicle as to whether it was a true vaccine vescicle or not?

A. From the early appearance of it?

Q. Well, the 4th or 5th day?

A. Yes, that would be the earlier appearance. You would not.

Q. Would not be able to tell then? A. No, sir.

Q. So that, if I understand you correctly, you would not be able to tell on the 5th day, we will say, upon the formation of this vescicle, whether you had a successful vaccination or not?

A. No, sir. It would be extremely probably if proper lymph had been introduced at that point, and the papule had formed, followed by the vescicle, it would be extremely probable that that would be a successful vaccination that would proceed in an ordinary course, but you could not tell that.

Q. So that you would say from that, that when Dr.
2267 Stuart examined that vaccination that he had made on the arm of John W. Hillmon on the 20th of February, that on the 25th he could not tell from what he observed then, whether that was a successful vaccination or not?

A. He could tell that that vaccination had taken, but he could not tell positively that it would not absorb at some part of its course.

Q. Then I am mistaken; I have not understood you. I have understood you to say that you could not tell from an examination of this vesicle whether it was a true vaccination vesicle or not?

A. You understood me to say and I did say that you could not distinguish it. Now, I am speaking,—suppose I knew nothing about the man being vaccinated; suppose it was on some other part of a person's body, and I was called to look upon a little vescicle that would usually form from the 3rd to the 4th day, and had not watched its further course, I could not positively tell that that was a vaccine vesicle; I could, perhaps, later in its course.

Q. You could by the 8th day tell? A. By the 8th day?

Q. Yes. Now, we will take now a normal vaccine sore. We will speak about a normal vaccine sore, and if on the 5th day you find a well formed vescicle arising from the vaccination, the virus, then what is the next stage that you would expect to find in that vaccine sore?

A. I would not expect to find a well formed vescicle on the 5th day; I would expect to find a vescicle.

Q. You would find a vescicle there?

A. Yes, but not a well formed one.

Q. If you found a vescicle, what would you expect next? The next stage?

A. I would expect a gradual development of that vescicle; I would expect it during the next three days to acquire certain characteristics, distinguishing—two or three characteristics,—not absolutely so; that is, it would become depressed in the center, umbilicated. Then another characteristic of it would be that it would become cellular, divided up and partitioned.

2268 Q. It forms into cells?

A. Yes, sir. Now, that is not a positive characteristic of a vaccine vesicle; you also find that in small-pox; you have that kind of a vescicle in small-pox; you have it taking that course.

Q. That is what forms the pit; what we call the pit?

A. Well, the pit is a scar, a cicatrix, and the little indentations in the cicatrix, the little depressions that you find there; correspond to the segments or divisions of the vescicle or pustule.

Q. But on the 8th day in a normal vaccine sore, you find now that vescicle developed and filled with lymph, do you not?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it begins to dry at that period? A. No, sir.

Q. It does not begin to dry? A. No, sir.

Q. What then causes the depression in the center of the scab?

A. There is no scab there at that period, at the end of the 8th day.

Q. What causes the depression then in the center of the sore? A. The center of the vesicle?

Q. The center of the vesicle?

A. It is due to the tucking in of the center by these partitions of tissue within the vescicle; the vescicle is swollen, bulged out, and the attachment of that tissue underneath cause tucking; that is, the border, the circumference of the vescicle is bulged higher up there than the center, this way. Having my fingers represent those partitions, then the vescicle would bulge out around the circumference by the lymph within the vescicle.

Q. Do you find that appearance in a sore caused by a wound? A. No, sir.

Q. It is peculiar, is it not, to a vaccine sore? A. No, sir.

Q. What other sores do you find it in? A. Small-pox.

Q. That is akin to a vaccine sore; the smallpox sore; they are kindred; one dispels the other?

A. The one protects the system against the other to an extent.

2269 Q. But the stages of vaccine sores correspond somewhat with the smallpox, do they not?

A. It does; the smallpox vesicle presents that same segmentation and umbilication.

Q. Then you would say, wouldn't you, doctor, if you found that character of a sore upon a man's arm, that it was either occasioned by vaccination or the small-pox?

A. Yes, I will make another little modification. Occasionally, you will find, not often you will find that same pitting in chicken-pox; you will find that same depression but not often.

Q. Now, after the 8th day, what is the next stage in the progress of a normal vaccine sore?

A. The appearance of an inflammatory blush around the vesicle, which indicates that the constitution has become specifically involved.

Q. Is that inflammatory blush peculiar to a vaccine sore?

A. You have an inflammatory blush surrounding almost any sore, but when you find this, you find that condition around that vesicle about the 8th day, a little earlier, or perhaps a little later, but ordinarily about the 8th day; it is evidence, additional evidence, if you choose, that that is a vaccine sore.

Q. Now, that inflammatory blush lasts about how many days in a normal case?

A. It begins to decline ordinarily about the end of the 10th day, that is, two days after its appearance.

Q. Then at the 10th day what is the appearance of the vesicle?

A. At the 10th day the contents of the vesicle—it is no longer a vesicle—the contents have changed, it gradually become apaque, in place of being a clear liquid; that is the period in which it changes from a vesicle to a pustule.

Q. What you might call matter? A. Yes, sir.

Y. And then does this pus from that stage begin to dry?

A. About the end of the 10th day ordinarily that pus begins to dry at the center of the pustule.

Q. And about the 13th or 14th day, this pus is dried up?

A. About the end of the 10th day, ordinarily that 2270 process of dessication is continued clear out to the circumference of the pustule.

Q. And then it forms what you might term a scab?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, after this scab is formed, then I understand in an ordinary vaccine sore, by the processes of nature, this sore, you might say, begins to heal, and a skin begins to form under this crust or scab from the circumference?

A. From the circumference, I say, from the skin around the circumference of the crust or underneath the crust, that is a continuation of the skin from the circumference inward, a new cuticle is formed underneath that scab from the circumference towards the center, and when that process has proceeded sufficiently far, the scab is cast; it is thrown off, it leaves the sore with this thin delicate cuticle.

Q. Now, when nature begins to form this cuticle underneath the scab then the scab begins to detach itself does it not? A. Yes sir.

Q. And as that process goes on, it heals, you might say; I am not using medical terms, may not properly describe it altogether, but my idea is that this healing process goes on and it heals from the circumference towards the center of this sore?

A. Yes, that is the cicatrix; that would be the cicatrix.

Q. Now, prior to this healing process, the edge of the sore is closely adherent, is it not, to the surrounding tissue?

A. You mean prior to the covering of that cicatrix?

A. No, I mean prior to the time this healing process commences.

[—] It is then attached formly or attached to the surrounding tissue, this scab has not begun to separate at all?

A. No sir, the scab prior to that has not become separate.

Q. Now, this healing process goes on until the 20th, from the 20th to the 25th day, when it has become complete so that the scab will drop off of itself? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Any little flip of the finger or rub or anything would rub it off? A. Yes sir.

2271 Q. Now, would you say in a majority of cases this scab in a normal vaccine sore, would be ready to drop off from the 20th to the 22d day? A. I would say so, yes sir.

Q. I understand you to say further in your direct examination that there may be sores that are exceptions to this rule, which governs the ordinary vaccine sore?

A. Yes, the human system is not governed by any mathematical rules.

Q. But the ordinary rule is that in a majority of cases, from the 20th to the 22d, and from that to the 25th day, the scab is thrown off by nature itself? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, is there anything, doctor, in the appearance of this vaccine scab, from the texture of it, or the component parts of it, which would distinguish it from a scab formed by a wound?

A. It is probably a little darker; they often speak of these true vaccine scabs, to judge by the books, of the inflammation being of a mahogany color.

Q. Now, as to the substance of the scab itself. I understand you that this scab is formed from this lymph which is thrown up, and which has dried down and formed the scab?

A. The scab is formed from not only the lymph, but from the structures of that pustule, and perhaps there may be attached to the scab underneath some of the products of the inflammation, and some destroyed tissue; some tissue destroyed by inflammation at the base of the scab. But your idea is that the scab is formed wholly of the pus; that is not the case; the scab includes all these elements.

Q. But is it not of a different color, and different texture from a scab which is formed from the drying up of blood, a scab which is formed on a sore produced by a wound?

A. Well, the scab formed by the drying up of pus may be of a little different texture from a scab formed by the drying up of blood, but it is very difficult at all times to determine what the scab was the result of, but the real thing you would judge by would be the color.

2272 [—]Would you say you could tell—a person I am talking now, of experience—could you tell—you have had experience in these matters, could you tell a vaccine scab found on an arm, from a scab which was produced by a wound?

A. Well, if I didn't know anything of its history, of the history of that sore, and the circumstances, like the location on the arm, I would not like to swear very positively as to what kind of a scab it was, if I simply saw the crust and nothing more. As to the appearance and size of the scab, there is very little variety in them because, as a rule, the lymph is not inserted over a very large area or surface; it is either by puncture or a little abrasion, and the scabs, of course, will vary in size owing to the extent of the surface in which the virus is inserted into the system, wherever it may be inserted; but the appearance of the crust, its color, and irregular surface would be the only semi-distinguishing marks. I was going to speak about that irregular surface.

Q. Now, as I understand, a true vaccine scab has a kind of a notched surface around the edge, does it?

A. Oh, it may have just a little mulberry appearance, but that is not a distinctive feature of the vesicle or pustule; it may be punctured and cause oozing of the contents and that would destroy that condition.

Q. I am speaking all the time, doctor, of a normal vaccine sore?

A. Well, I am trying to give you answers accordingly. If you will permit me to explain further, if there be any irregularity of the surface of that crust, it is due to that same division of the pustule that I have described; but a destruction of those partitions, that is, I mean their injury, or anything of that kind, would destroy that effect of the crust.

Q. If it is destroyed through injury, then it would not be a normal sore, would it?

A. It would be a normal sore, yes, that had been subjected to the influence of the accident; but the vaccination would be what you might call a normal, referring to its specific character.

2273 Q. Is it not a fact that a vaccine scab is tougher than a scab formed by an injury?

A. Well, not necessarily, no sir.

Q. Is not a scab formed by the drying of blood more brittle; blood alone? A. Yes sir.

Q. Now, you spoke about this being prolonged by rubbing; would not that simply mean that the inflammation would be continued?

A. The rubbing would affect the degree of the inflammation, and consequently the course of the sore in that respect.

Q. Would the rubbing have the effect of destroying any of these tissues, and allowing the blood to infiltrate into the scab; would that be sufficient to prolong it?

A. Rubbing that would not destroy?

Q. Merely rubbing now [with] surface of the sore by a shirt?

A. Rubbing has the effect of irritating, and increasing the inflammation and that inflammation would extend, not only around that sore crust, as you speak of it, but underneath it, and would influence it in that way.

Q. What effect do you think climate would have upon it, the weather? A. You mean cold weather?

Q. Yes.

A. Not very much, I should not think, unless it would be from cold affecting the subject in some other way than through the sore.

Q. What do you term a secondary scab, doctor?

A. A scab that is formed at the side of the original scab that had been previously cast off.

Q. And when the original scab has been removed from some injury [or] some extraneous force, then you would expect to find a secondary scab, would you?

A. I didn't get the first part of the question.

Q. I say after the primary scab had been removed by some extraneous force, some injury or otherwise, you would expect to find a secondary scab? A. Why, yes.

Q. That secondary scab would be formed largely of blood, would it not?

2274 A. Well, blood and lymph and tissue that was destroyed by the inflammatory process.

Q. Now, is it not your experience that you can tell from the appearance of the scab, whether it is a primary or a secondary scab? Tell it from the condition of the sore?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, up until the time that this scab begins to separate itself, you might say, from the cuticle on the outside, up until the 14th day, would it not be difficult to remove that?

A. No, sir.

Q. As a scab? A. No, sir.

Q. Prior to the 14th, day, supposing the scab should be removed by extraneous force, then you would be able to tell?

A. I have stated that in the ordinary vaccination desiccation is concluded about the 14th day. Prior to the 14th day, there would be more or less— Now, I have also stated that it dries from the center towards the circumference, and prior to that time, there would be more or less pus underneath there, more or less liquid, not just up to the 14th day, but very frequently; you take the surface of that scab that is, the top of it; and you push it down, there is a kind of a boggy feel to it; therefore, if there was liquid around the circumference of the sore, it seems to me it should not be very difficult to detach it.

Q. To detach it as a whole?

Q. You detach the circumference of a vaccine crust, and you will not have any difficulty in taking it off as a whole.

Q. Now, as I understand you, in your direct examination, that it is not infrequent that a person may be vaccinated successfully in childhood and afterwards vaccination take, as we speak of it? A. Yes.

Q. It is not infrequent? A. It is not, no, sir.

Q. Now, the last questions you were asked, and the last answers you gave in your direct examination, were based upon these descriptions which Dr. Stuart gave of that sore, or contained in this paper? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The last questions you were asked were based on this paper? A. Yes, sir.

2275 Q. Doctor, may a person be vaccinated successfully with virus taken from the arm of another?

A. Yes, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. I want to ask you, doctor, whether or not, what we will call, postmortem digestion ever takes place, that is, whether or not food left in the stomach of a person killed accidentally, will be dissolved by the action of the then existing gastric juice, or whatever things there are in the stomach; do they act as a solvent so as to make a liquid of it?

A. To an extent, yes, sir.

The defendants and each of them object to the testimony as not rebuttal. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.

By Mr. Greene:

Q. Now, would there be any such a thing as digestion after death. A. You might call it digestion if you wish.

Q. You say you might call it digestion?

A. I say you might call it digestion. It is solution; it is practically the same thing except that one goes on under vital surroundings, and the other does not; it would simply be solution. You take the digestive fluid of the stomach outside of the stomach and submit food to it, and it is practically the same process.

Q. That is, it dissolves it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. It is not what you call digestion, but it dissolves it; that is, if a piece of meat is put into gastric juice, it will dissolve it?

A. Well, it is digestion; it is practically; it is solution or digestion, just as you choose to call it.

Q. Now, supposing a person had eaten a meal composed of bacon and bread and coffee half an hour before he was accidentally killed, might that bacon and bread be dis-

2276 solved?

A. Under favorable circumstances it might, at least, partially.

Witness excused.

2277 Dr. W. W. Walters, a witness produced by the plaintiff in rebuttal, being duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination.

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Your name is W. W. Walters? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Physician and surgeon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Practitioner in this city? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Graduate of the Pennsylvania Medical College?

A. Yes, University of Pennsylvania.

Q. How long have you been in practice here?

A. 16½ years.

Q. Speaking in the light of your experience as a medical man, I will ask you to state to the jury whether or not it is anything remarkable or exceptional that a vaccine sore should extend beyond the 25th day?

A. It is exceptional but it is a very common exception; it very often happens.

Q. Have you ever had any particular experience in that line? A. Yes, sir.

Q. What experience have you had?

A. I never had many cases that extended beyond that time, but the one that impressed me is one I had on myself. I was vaccinated in 1878 or 1879 here in Leavenworth, and the vaccination pursued a normal course up to the time of the exfoliation, up to about, along the 20th to the 23rd day—

The defendants and each of them object to the statement of the witness as not competent. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly except.

A. It then pursued the course of an ulcer for three months which had to be treated as a local ulcer. It was a vaccination from the [the] fact that I had been vaccinated, I should judge fifty times since that and it never has taken, which proves conclusively that was not a poisoned wound, but was a vaccination; it continued sore—I have a scar now which shows it very plainly; it continued sore, in a condition of ulceration, for three months.

2278 Q. What experience have you had, if any, in the treatment of smallpox patients?

A. I have seen a great many cases; I have been through three epidemics of smallpox.

Q. When you say been through them, been through them as a physician treating patients? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And of course you speak in the light of the information obtained from that source as well as the authorities?

A. Yes.

Q. Supposing a man would eat a light meal of bacon and such, and within half an hour come to a sudden death, and 17 days after that a post mortem does not disclose any contents of the stomach; would that be anything extraordinary?

A. No, sir, it would be what you would expect.

Q. Will you explain to the jury why that is so?

A. Well, when you decide to eat your meal, of course, there is action going on in the stomach all the time; the gastric [—] is being secreted and thrown out to receive the food, to digest the food that is coming into the stomach, and when you take the food into your stomach there is another preparation which nature has provided to liquefy the food in the stomach to begin the process of digestion; that process goes on as a mechanical as well as a vital process; in other words, that can be done outside of the body as well as in the body; the juice has been taken from the stomach and placed upon food and the digestive process continued just the same out of the body as in it.

Q. This process that you speak of, as I understand it, transforms the food into a new substance, a liquid substance?

A. It makes a solution of it.

Q. And then it is a liquid instead of what it was before, and commences to make this new substance?

A. To make liquid, yes.

Q. And then gravity causes that to be drawn through the tissues in the body, in a dead body, I am speaking of?

A. Yes, sir; gravity would carry it through to the intestines, probably, and a good deal of that liquid would 2279 pass out of the body through the tissues.

Q. Let me ask you, would the fact that the body of the man I have described to you a moment since, would have been carried in a wagon a great many miles up hill and down dale, would that tend to make any difference?

A. Yes, that would promote digestion; the shaking and mixing up of the fluid in the stomach would assist in the digestion of the food that was in there, mix that liquid in the stomach and would also assist in spreading the fluid throughout the body and carrying it into the intestines.

Q. In your opinion as a medical man, would the difficulty of determining the age of a vaccine sore be increased or diminished by the fact that the examination of the sore took place 17 days after death. Have I made my question plain? In other words, when a doctor looked at a vaccine sore on a corpse 17 days old, would he have more difficulty in determining how old that sore was than if he had looked at it in life? A. Yes, sir.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. Doctor, if you put a piece of meat in a bottle containing gastric juice, what effect would that have upon the meat?

A. It would digest it; that has been done. There was a man by the name of St. John who was shot through the stomach, leaving an opening right through the abdomen into his stomach and he lived for many years afterward with that opening. He was used, he made his living by submitting himself to experiments. Gastric juice was taken out and that process proven.

Q. Now, supposing that bottle with the gastric juice was put in cold storage, would it dissolve?

A. It would interfere somewhat with the process of digestion and if it was frozen it would stop it.

Q. Is it not necessary, doctor, in order that meat shall be dissolved by gastric juice, that it should be subjected to a certain degree of heat?

2280 A. It is not absolutely necessary; it does not check the digestion entirely; it promotes digestion to have it exposed to a certain temperature, the temperature of the body; of course, at the normal temperature, it promotes it, but it does not absolutely arrest it to change that temperature somewhat.

Q. Did you ever try an experiment of that kind, doctor?
A. Yes, sir. I never tried it on a piece of fat meat.
Q. Didn't you find that it was necessary, in order to have that go on that you brought it to a certain stage of heat?
A. Not absolutely necessary; it does progress to a certain degree, but not as thoroughly as it would at the temperature of the body.
Q. Do you think now, doctor, given your bottle of gastric juice and meat, that that would dissolve if the heat was brought down to the freezing point?
A. It would dissolve; I do not say it would digest entirely; it would disintegrate, the meat in this liquid solution would probably disintegrate.
Q. Do I understand you to say a bottle of gastric juice will digest a piece of meat?
A. Will digest a piece of meat under certain conditions.
Q. Doesn't it simply dissolve it, liquefy it?
A. No, sir, well, it does liquefy too; liquefies it through the course of digestion.
Q. Similar to digestion? A. In the body.
Q. In the body?
A. You can put a piece of meat into a bottle of water and in time that meat will disintegrate and become a part of the liquid, losing its identity and shape in which it existed as meat.
Q. Is not that all it does—gastric juice? A. No.
Q. You believe in digestion after death?
A. I do, yes, indigestion after death.
Q. Do your books teach you that? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What work?
A. Well, all the physiologies that I have ever studied.
Q. Just give me the name of the work, please?
2281 A. I don't recollect any just now; I would not like to state the name of the work because I cannot remember; I think I can produce it for you.
Q. Do not the standard medical works put it down that it is not digestion proper, but liquefaction?
A. It is a modified digestion, of course, but it is digestion just the same.
Q. Now, then, you think that after a body becomes cold, that this digestion would still go on?
A. After it becomes cold. I would not say if it was frozen.
Q. I don't mean frozen; I mean after the natural heat of the body has left it? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say in your opinion that digestion would still go on? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long would it continue?

A. Continue as long as there was a solution of that gastric juice in the stomach; anything there for it to act upon.

Q. Would the gastric juice flow into the stomach after death? A. I don't think so.

Q. So there must have been enough gastric juice flown into the stomach before the person was killed in order that there should be any digestion?

A. The taking of food into the stomach stimulates the stomach, and the formation of this gastric juice; nature has provided that the amount of gastric juice should be sufficient to digest a meal.

Q. But it does not all flow in at once?

A. No, it has been flowing in for some time.

Q. Flows in afterwards, does it not?

A. Yes, continues to form.

Q. And if sufficient gastric juice had not flown into the stomach at the time of death, why then it would not digest the food perfectly?

A. I do not believe there is a formation of any more gastric juice after death; the vital processes stop.

Q. Do you know how long it takes to digest bacon?

A. I think it depend a good deal on the amount
2282 taken. It would take several hours to digest a piece of bacon.

Q. It takes longer than to digest some other foods?

A. No, some other foods are a good deal harder to digest than bacon. Bacon is not an indigestible food at all, there is so much fat in it.

Q. Different foods take longer and lesser periods of time to digest, as I understand it? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Bacon takes several hours?

A. No. I don't say that bacon takes several hours always but I think to thoroughly digest it it would take several hours. It is always so with any process you know. Digestion may be begun and the food may liquefy and yet not be thoroughly digested, that is, put in a position to be absorbed by the body.

Q. How long do you think it would take to liquefy if there was sufficient gastric juice there?

A. It is a hard thing to say; I have never seen it done; I would not like to say the exact length of time.

Q. It would take into the hours?

A. It would take at least an hour I should think, to liquefy.

Q. Do you think, doctor, it would be possible to tell a vaccine sore after death?

A. To say that is was a vacinne sore?

Q. Yes. A. No, sir, I don't.

Q. Don't think that would be possible? A. No, sir.

Q. You think you could not tell whether it was a vaccine sore or otherwise?

A. That is, under certain conditions; you take a vaccine sore in the early stages when the vesicle is forming, and becoming umbilicated, you could tell it but later on, after it becomes an ulcer, which would be continued until an ulcer formed, it would be impossible to tell.

Q. When would that occur?

A. That usually continues until the 23rd to the 25th day.

Q. I am speaking now of a normal vaccine sore.

2282½ [—[A normal vaccine at the early stages of it you could tell it, yes, sir.

Q. Could you do it up to the 14th day?

A. I should think you could.

Q. Now, the rule in regard to a vaccine sore is that it sheds its crust, running from the 20th to the 25th day, is it not?

A. Yes, sir. A perfectly normal vaccination runs from 20 to 25 days.

Q. The books lay it down from the 20th to the 23rd; 20th to the 23rd, do they not? A. I believe so, yes, sir.

Q. A normal vaccine sore you would expect to shed its crust from the 20th to the 25th day, would you not?

A. A normal, typical vaccine sore you would expect to do that, yes, sir.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. But I understood you to say that a typical, normal vaccination was almost the exception, rather than the rule?

A. Well, among the working classes who wear rough shirts, the original crust is very often, I may say, in a majority of the cases, it is removed—especially among the working classes who wear wollen shirts, they knock it off and that leaves a raw surface, just as any sore would be left; a new scab forms. They knock it off and another one forms and that process may be continued indefinitely.

By Mr. Green:

Q. You could tell from the appearance of the crust whether it was a primary or secondary crust, couldn't you?

A. Yes, you could very likely tell that.

Witness excused.

2283 Doctor Jacob L. Everhardy, a witness produced by the plaintiff, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, testified as follows, to wit:

By Mr. Atwood: I promise you he is better than he looks.

[A.] What degrees do you hold? A. B. and A. M. as well as degrees in medicine? A. Yes, A. B., A. M. and M. D.

Q. You have acted as assistant county physician at one ime, have you not? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You are an instructor in the Nurse's School in this city?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you, doctor, speaking in the light of the know-edge you have acquired as a medical man, whether or not it s anything extraordinary or unusual that a vaccine sore shall ontinue beyond the twenty-fifth day? A. It is not.
Q. I will ask you this question, doctor: A man takes—not ery much, is the language of the testimony,—of a meal, and n the course of half an hour or something like that, he meets violent death; the body is moved from the place where this ccurs some twelve miles, and is again removed eighty miles y wagon road, and a post mortem examination is held 17 lays after death; would it be anything extraordinary that no ood should be found in the stomach? A. It would not.

By Mr. Green. That is all.
By Mr. Atwood: That is where you are smart.
By Mr. Green: I will cross-examine you, doctor.

Q. By Mr. Green: What is the rule as to the time that a ormal vaccine sore sheds its crust?
A. The authorities very from the 21st to the 28th day.
284 Q. What is the rule as laid down by your books?
A. Some of the books give it all the way from the 1st to the 25th, 26, 27, 28 days.
Q. Will you give me the one that gives 28?
A. The 20th Century Practice of Medicine, in 20 volumes, ives it as three to four weeks. That is 21 to 28 days.
Q. But the books usually lay it down from the 20th to the 5th day do they not?
A. Well, in the same book are given the authorities of dif-erent men as to the 25th or 26th day.
Q. In your experience does not a true vaccine sore shed its rust from the 20th to, we will say, the 25th day?
A. In my experience among the poor people—
Q. I am not asking you about poor people; I am asking for our experience.
A. I would expect the crust to shed about the end of the urth week, to put it in round numbers.
Q. But you have them shed earlier than that?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Have them shed as early as the 20th day?
A. No, I don't recollect of any shedding before the end of e third week; between the end of the third week and the end the fourth week.
Q. How much experience have you had in that line?
A. You mean as to years or numbers?

Q. Years and numbers.

A. I have studied medicine and practiced about seven years and have seen probably 250 cases of vaccination.

Q. Isolated cases: Have you ever passed through an epidemic of smallpox or anything of that kind?

A. Well, in what sense do you mean?

Q. Where vaccination was required of all to be had?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Where was that? A. In this city.

Q. About how many cases did you see at that time?

A. In the epidemic I was a student in Dr. Brock's office; he had a very large number; we used to have in those days 2285 from 30 to 50 cases in the office every day and they would be coming in at the end of every week for a month.

Q. Were you admitted to practice at that time or were you a student? A. Yes, we are students yet, for that matter.

Q. You say it would not be extraordinary if a man was killed and placed in a wagon and carried a certain distance, and then carried a certain other distance, not to find any food in the stomach; would it be extraordinary if you should find any food in his stomach?

A. Well, if you would take a body and put it in cold storage and keep it cold, put it on ice, let the body be killed within ten minutes after the ingestion of food, I would say no.

Q. Suppose it was killed half an hour, not ten minutes after the ingestion of food, so that the digestive process takes place or starts. A. I would say no.

Q. You would say the digestion could not be stopped?

A. No, sir.

Q. It would go on to the end?

A. Yes, bacon and that kind of food.

Q. Have you had any experience in that line, doctor.

A. Yes, we had experience in college on dogs; never on a human being. The only case of a human being on record is the case of Alexis St. Martin of Canada about fifty years ago; he was shot in his stomach, and for years he was the subject of experiment there and in the medical centers of the United States; he traveled from one city to another.

Q. And from that experiment, doctor, you are prepared to show that this would go on?

A. Not from that experiment alone, no sir.

Q. Now, your information and your knowledge is derived from your experience and from books, is it not? A. Yes, sir.

Q. If you should find in a recognized authority of medical science that five physicians of good standing had examined a vaccine sore on the arm of a man who had been killed suddenly two weeks before, and his body had lain on the ground over night, and then had been taken and put into a wagon and carried a distance of 15 miles and there buried, and 2286 then taken up, still in a good state of preservation, and then carried eighty miles across the country, and then shipped by rail 200 miles, arriving at the point where the examination was made in a good state of preservation, and those physicians having had long experience in smallpox cases and men of recognized authority, if you would find that in a medical book, you would take that as true, would you not?

The plaintiff objects to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and an improper hypothesis. Objection sustained, to which ruling of the Court, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepted.

Witness excused.

2287 Dr. W. R. Vantuyl, a witness produced by the plaintiff in rebuttal, being first duly sworn, testified as follows, to wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Physician and surgeon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Prior to going to the Philippines you resided in this city? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you to state in the light of your knowledge and experience as a medical man whether or not the fact of a vaccine sore extending beyond the 25th day is anything extraordinary or unusual? A. It is not.

Q I will ask you also, whether or not a man who eats a meal that is described as not very much, presumably a small quantity of bacon and such, and in half an hour comes to a sudden violent death, and 17 days thereafter a post mortem examination is held, the body in the meantime having been carried by wagon a distance of 90 miles or 100 miles over ordinary roads, whether or not it would be extraordinary not to find anything in the stomach, any food in the stomach?

A. It would be owing largely to what he had eaten at that meal.

Q. Bacon is the only thing that is described.

A. That is largely an oily substance; it would be largely emulsified and pass into the bowels; bacon is largely fat or oils and it would be very usual for that to be emulsified in half an hour and be in liquid form so that it would pass easily from the stomach into the small intestines.

Witness excused.

2288 Dr. J. W. Brock, called as a witness in rebuttal on behalf of the plaintiff, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Your name is J. W. Brock. A. Yes, sir.

Q. You are a physician and surgeon? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many years? A. About forty-three.

Q. Your residence is in this city?

A. Yes, sir; Leavenworth.

Q. And has been for a great many years?

A. Thirty-four years, I fancy.

Q. Have you ever had any army experience, doctor?

A. Yes, sir; I was in the army four years.

Q. I will ask you to state, in the light of your experience as a physician, whether or not it is anything extraordinary or unusual or remarkable that a vaccine sore should continue up to even beyond the 25th day?

A. It is not remarkable for it to do so, I don't think.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. What is the rule, in a normal vaccine sore?

A. From 23 to 26 days to a month.

Q. Don't the books lay it down from 20 to 25?

A. From twenty-three to twenty-six.

Q. And the others are exceptions to that rule?

A. As a rule. It might extend longer than a month.

Q. Yes, one case is laid down in the books where it extended 35 days before it dropped off.

A. I don't recollect that special case.

Q. As I understand you now, doctor, a normal vaccine sore, after the virus has been inserted into the arm, ifi it takes, the first thing you find there, we may say, is a vesicle about five days from the time you put it in? A. A papule.

2289 Now after the papule is formed, then the true normal vaccine sore progresses along with regular stages, doesn't it?

A. At the end of five days you will have a depression of the skin that is called "umbilicated."

Q. You will find that at about a certain number of days after you find the papule? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then after that you find another stage of the sore, do you not? A. Yes, sir; secretion.

Q. Then about the fourteenth day you find another stage of that sore, do you?

A. At the eighth or ninth day it is perfected. It has run its course at that time; and then on the thirteenth day it begins to desiccate, that is, to dry up in the middle, and the crust extends from the center out, and then the umbilicated appearance is disappearing.

Q. That crust may fall off as early as the seventh day, may it not?

A. Not normally. I don't think of any case now where there was a healthy vaccination where it fell off in that time.

Q. It may fall off in twenty days, may it not?

A. It might.

Q. And be a healthy case?

A. It might in twenty days, but that is not the rule. It is generally from the twenty-third to the thirtieth day.

Winess excused.

2290 Dr. J. A. Lane, a witness sworn on behalf of the plaintiff, testified in rebuttal as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. You are a practicing physician and surgeon in this town? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And have been for a good many years?

A. Yes, sir; a number of years.

Q. Leavenworth is your home now? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you, Doctor, whether or not from a medical standpoint it is anything extraordinary that a vaccine scab should continue on the sore of a subject for more than twenty-five days after the time that the arm is inoculated?

A. No, sir; I don't think it is.

Cross Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. You say it is nothing extraordinary? A. No, sir.

Q. Does it often happen?

A. Often? Yes, I should say it often happens.

Q. Now, if it was a true vaccine sore, would you say that would happen to a normal sore—what we call a normal sore? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would that be an exception to the rule?

A. It occurs too frequently to be called an exception.

Q. Don't the books lay it down that on a normal vaccine sore that the scale or scab or crust is shed from the twentieth to the twenty-fifth day?

A. Yes, I think that is true; that is considered the usual time for a normal vaccine scab to be thrown off under normal circumstances.

Q. If the vaccination takes, the regular course, we will say from the fifth day to the formation of the vesicle, would you know that the crust would shed from the twentieth to the twenty-fifth day?

A. Yes; if you accept the normal process.

2291 Q. In the great majority of cases from the twentieth to the twenty-second day?

A. That is what I understood you to ask, from the twentieth to the twenty-fifth day.

Q. From the 20th to the 23rd?

A. I would put it from the 21st to the 23rd day.

Witness excused.

Dr. Albert Franklin Yohe, called as a witness on behalf of the plaintiff, testified in rebuttal as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. Your full name is Dr. Albert Franklin Yohe?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What is your school?

A. Rush Medical College of Chicago; Bellevue Hospital college of New York City.

Q. What position if any do you occupy with reference to the School for Nurses?

A. I am a professor of physiology in the School of Nurses.

Q. I will ask if you are a resident of this city?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Do you occupy any official position now?

A. I am county physician.

Q. I will ask you, Doctor, whether or not the prolongation of a vaccine sore beyond the 25th day is anything extraordinary, from a medical standpoint? A. No, sir.

Q. I will ask you this: Whether or not the gastric juice in a stomach would continue to act upon any food after death; supposing a man was killed after he had eaten say half an hour or an hour after he had eaten a meal composed of bacon?

A. The gastric juices that have been poured out in the course of half an hour after a hearty meal would continue to act and cause digestion.

Q. Does that transform the food into a liquid?

A. The whole process of digestion is liquiefaction.

Q. Then how does gravitation act upon such liquid,

2292 or any liquid, that is within the stomach.

A. Any liquid in the body is diffused through the tissues by osmosis; that is, the process of absorption goes on. Gravitation and osmosis would go on after death.

Q. Is it not a fact that the blood and other liquids of a dead man's body settle on the lower side?

A. Always gravitate; yes, sir.

Q. Downward? A. Yes.

Cross-Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. You say, Doctor, it is not extraordinary in medical science to find [that] a vaccine sore extending beyond the 25th day. Is that a rule or an exception?

A. Well it is about half and half.

Q. You think it is half and half?

A. About half and half. There are so many cases that the scabs are irritated.

Q. Do your books lay it down that way?

A. The books take a typical case, not allowing for any [—] d not cases having irritations that come in these cases at all; hat is, a typical case without the possibility of irritation or anything else of that character, either chemical or mechanical.

Q. Then in a normal vaccine sore, when would you expect the crust to shed?

A. The crust sheds ordinarily from the 17th to the 30th day. There is a wide limitation of possibility there.

Q. Do your books put it from the 20th to the 25th day?

A. That is a typical case.

Q. I am speaking now of a normal sore.

A. I believe the books put it—the authorities vary, from the 17th—15th day to the 28th or 30th day.

Q. Do any of them put it more than 25 days?

A. I don't recollect of any, sir—in my experience.

Q. I am not speaking of your experience now, but books.

A. Just the authorities?

Q. Yes.

A. I don't recollect any of them that put it over twenty-five; no, sir.

2293 Q. Now this normal vaccine sore has regular stages has it not, Doctor?

A. Yes, sir, within certain limitations it has stages.

Q. With certain exceptions? A. Yes, sir.

Q. There isn't anything certain in your science, is there; but there are exceptions to about every rule which may be laid down in medical science, are there not? Oh, yes.

Q. But I speak of a normal sore, a normal sore that passes on from the time that the vesicle is formed on the 5th day or 8th day, when you find a different stage on the 12th and 14th day, don't you? A. Yes, sir; the books put it that way.

Q. In a normal vaccine sore about the 14th day the scab begins to separate at the edges, healing from the circumference towards the center? A. Yes, sir.

Q. The cuticle forms underneath about the 20th or 25th day, whichever time you please to put it, and sheds?

A. Yes, sir; in your hypothetical question, probably it does.

Q. Isn't that rule laid down by your books now?

A. Yes, sir; if it is qualified enough, it is.

Q. But I am speaking of a normal sore all the time, normal vaccine sore. Do the books qualify that, in a normal vaccine sore? A. Not in the sense in which you put it; I think not.

Q. Of course some one may come along and hit a fellow a blow on the arm and injure a true vaccine sore, and then it would be prolonged? A. Yes, sir.

Q. That theoretical case is the exception and not the rule, you say? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Could you tell from the appearance of a scab upon a vaccine sore, whether the scab that is found there is a normal vaccine sore, or one which had been occasioned by some injury?

A. I don't think, sir, I could tell in all cases. Very few cases I could tell exactly, postively.

Q. If an arm had been so injured that the blood would flow from a part or a whole scab that you would find there, would you not be able to tell that from a true vaccine scab?

2204 A. If any quantity of blood had flown; yes, sir.

Q. Now the question he put to you about a man digesting food after he dies—you think he could do it?

A. It is owing to how soon after the ingestion of the food he died.

Q. Suppose he had eaten a hearty meal of bacon and bread?

The plaintiff objects to the hypothesis because it is not embodied in the testimony. Objection overruled, plaintiff excepting.

Q. Suppose a person should eat now and should be suddenly killed—wouldn't you expect to find some traces of food either in the stomach or in the colon?

A. That is so broad I couldn't tell you. If a person is killed half an hour after eating food, the food is more or less digested by the gastric juice that has been poured out before death, and the process goes on then even outside of the body. Digestion is the process of liquiefaction.

Q. Wouldn't you even then say, if there was enough gastric juice had poured out to completely dilute the food which he had eaten and it had not passed from the body—wouldn't you expect to find some traces of that food?

A. If enough gastric juice had been poured out to dilute the food and a small amount of food had been taken, I think in the course of six or eight or twelve hours it would be almost entirely digested.

Q. But wouldn't you find portions of digested food still in the stomach or in the colon. Supposing it had passed into the colon, you would find something there?

A. Digestion in the process of liquiefaction.

Q. Would you say that it would so thoroughly dilute this food that it would be absorbed?

A. Yes, sir; after death the process of digestion, liquiefaction, would convert the albuminous foods into peptones that would be liquid—starchy foods converted into grape sugar—that is, in solution with the gastric juice. There might possibly be some particles there, but I don't know that there would be any.

2295 Q. If the liquid dried up, wouldn't you still find some refuse there?

A. I hardly know how to answer that question; it is so broad.

Q. Well, I will put it in this way: If you place a piece of meat in gastric juice and subject it to heat—take the gastric juice, now, outside of the body entirely, and put it in a bottle and then put some meat in that bottle and subject it to heat, and the gastric juice will dilute the meat, will it not?

A. Liquefy it; yes, sir.

Q. Now if you take that gastric juice and try it and evaporate it, you would have some remnants there, wouldn't you?

A. There would probably be some little remnants of fibrous tissue left. There might be probably—would probably; because there is more or less fibrous tissue in meat. There would be less in fat bacon than there would be in fresh beef. It would be little shreds that could hardly be considered meat at all.

Q. Now in order that there should be solution or liquifaction, must it not be accompanied with heat?

A. Why, yes, but it takes a body hours to lose its heat.

Q. Suppose a body was lying out exposed to the weather on a cold windy night.

A. I don't think a body would then entirely lost its bodily heat, if killed in apparent health, for six to twelve hours afterwards there would be a temperature about the stomach; it would not be reduced below seventy for six hours any way, because we know the normal stomach and liver is 104 and 103—along there; and it takes several hours to get below the temperature that is compatible with digestion.

Q. So that this liquifaction might go on, you think, under those conditions for several hours? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Would the stomach expel the solution after death?

A. Expel it?

Q. Yes, sir.

A. No, sir; not action after death; certainly not. Solutions escape by osmosis; pass from the normal membranes, certainly; gravitate through.

Q. Gravitate from there into the colon, wouldn't it?

A. O, no; just directly down; it would be owing to 2296 which position the body was lying in; gravitate to the most dependent portion, right through the tissues.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. In order to get an understanding from your standpoint on the whole situation, I will ask you this question relative to the likelihood of the stomach being empty. A man takes a light meal of bacon and within half an hour meets with sudden death. The next day that body is carted ten or twelve miles to Medicine Lodge. It is buried; it is then exhumed; it is carried overland up hill and down dale for eighty miles to Hutchinson, and then taken finally by cars to Lawrence and a post mortem held which discloses what the situation is. It takes place on the 3rd of April and the death occurred on the 17th of March; that would be seventeen days afterwards. Would the likelihood that the contents of the stomach being gotten out of it be increased or diminished by such a post mortem experience as that? A. It would be increased.

Q. I will ask you this question, too. Perhaps it wouldn't be within the rule, but we [havnt] followed it closely. I will ask you whether or not the condition of a vaccine sore—whether the difficulties of telling the age of a vaccine sore would be increased or diminished by such an experience as that; that is, the intervening 17 days between death and the time that it is exhumed; would that be increased or diminished?

A. You would increase the difficulty of telling it; certainly.

Q. Your cross-examination by Mr. Green develops, as I understand, the fact that the gastric juice doesn't dilute the food in the sense that a bucket of water would dilute a bucket of meal, but changes the character of it?

A. It is purely a chemical process.

Q. So this was a liquid? A. Yes, sir.

Q. So it is not a mixture of water and food?

A. No, sir.

2297 Q. But it changes its whole character and makes a liquid of the whole? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And it would be acted upon by gravitation as any other fluid in the body? A. Yes, sir.

Recross Examination

By Mr. Green:

Q. If you liquify salt with water and then evaporate that water, what do you get?

A. Salt. Digestion is not liquification pure and simple; it is a chemical process entirely.

Q. Notwithstanding, it is liquifaction?

A. It is liquifaction, but not solution in the same sense of mixing water and solt. You haven't changed the chemical nature of salt by merely adding water to it.

Q. Do you mean to say if you take a bottle and put gastric juice in the bottle and put meat in the bottle, that it dissolves it so that there is such a chemical change of that food that if you evaporate the gastric juice you wouldn't have and residium there?

A. You would have some residium probably, but you wouldn't have meat.

Q. There would be solid matter there, wouldn't there?

A. Take the pure albuminous portion of meat and there would be no solid matter left; there might be just a slight residium or albumen.

Q. Now you say that carrying a body—I think our friend spoke of it as carting it, if I recollect the conveyance—it was taken in a spring wagon. What is there about that mode of transportation which would render it more difficult to tell whether the sore upon the arm was a true vaccine sore or not?

A. The post mortem processes which go on for seventeen days after death, alone would increase the difficulty of determining it.

Q. How?

A. The decay of the tissues; the decay that necessarily goes on in the tissues.

Q. Do you say it would not be possible for a man of experience in vaccination to tell whether it was a true vaccine sore or not?

2298 A. A man could make a fairly good guess, but he couldn't tell beyond a doubt.

Q. Why not?

A. I don't think a man could tell—any physician—no matter how experienced he is.

Q. Did you ever examine one?

A. I never examined any case seventeen days after death; no, sir.

Q. That is just your opinion? A. That is my opinion.

Q. Have you had any experience whatever in that line?

A. No; not with sores on a seventeen day old corpse.

Q. It is your judgment that it would make a difference?

A. Yes, it would; yes, sir.

Witness excused.

2299 Dr. J. D. Patterson, a witness heretofore sworn in the case, being recalled by the plaintiff, testified, in rebuttal, as follows, to-wit:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. You are the same Dr. Patterson who testified early in the trial, are you not? A. I am.

Q. I will ask you to state if you know Dr. Stuart, J. H. Stuart, I think his name is, who has been a witness in this case? A. I do.

Q. Who used to lived at Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.

Q. At the time you lived there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I think you lived there in the month of April, 1879?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you, Doctor, whether or not, in your office, or I will ask you first, if you ever officed in the same building?

A. Yes, sir. We had the adjoining offices.

Q. The question I desire to ask you is this: Whether or not, at your office, or in your office, or the one occupied by him, at or about the time that the coroner's inquest was being held by the coroner of Douglas County, early in April, 1879, whether or not, at that time and in that place, Dr. Stuart said, in your presence, in response to a question propounded to him by somebody else—in which the query was put to him as to whether or not the body in question was, in his opinion or believe, Hillmon, or whether the whole thing was a fraud, and he replied, "I am sure I don't know Doctor, I am sure I don't know." Did he, in substance, say that or not?

The defendants, and each of them, object to the question because it was not submitted to Dr. Stuart on his cross-examination in order to lay the foundation for impeachment.

2300

By Mr. Barker: Here is the question as it was asked the witness, Dr. Stuart, and it was passed up to the court.

By the Court: I do not see any substantial difference.

Thereupon the examining counsel takes the question presented by Mr. Barker and reads:

"Q. Now Dr. Patterson, just disregard what I have said. This is a new question I propound to you. State whether or not, in the City of Lawrence, Kansas, in the office occupied by you, or in one occupied by Dr. Stuart at or about the time of the inquest held by the coroner of Douglas County, early in April, 1879, that he, Dr. Stuart, said to you, Dr. Patterson, or in your presence, in reply to a question as to whether or not the body in question was the body of Hillmon, or whether the whole thing was a fraud, did he say, in substance: "I am sure I don't know. I am sure I don't know"?

The defendants and each of them object to the question as being incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial, and because the place is not definite. It is stated as being one of two places.

The Court overruled the objection, to which action and ruling of the Court the defendants and each of them duly excepted.

Q. Did, he, in substance, say that or not? A. He did.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. You live in Kansas City now, I believe, Doctor?

A. I do, yes sir.

Q. You have been living down there for a good many years? A. Fifteen years.

2301 Q. You left Lawrence about what year?

A. Fifteen years back.

Q. You went direct from Lawrence to Kansas City?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have testified on every trial of this case, have you not? A. I have.

Q. You never testified to this conversation before in your life, did you Doctor? A. No.

Q. And now, after the lapse of all these years, you think that you can recollect a conversation of this kind, which occurred something like twenty years ago, Doctor?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You think you can? A. Yes, sir. Positively.

Q. You have a remarkable memory, have you?

A. I can describe to you—

Q. I am not asking you now. When I desire anything from you I will ask you I will ask you a question.

Redirect Examination

By Mr. Atwood:

Q. What is it you want to say Doctor, that you were going to say? If it is in explanation of the question propounded to you by counsel we ask that he be permitted to explain. What circumstance, discussion, or anything, if anything did occur, that tended to fix this in your recollection?

A. I have always remembered it perfectly from the time it occurred.

Q. Was there any discussion, or anything between you and him that tended to fix it in your memory?

A. I can tell the conversation that occurred at that 2302 time, when he made the remark.

Q. I will ask you to state it?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: Anything that served to fasten the remark in your memory you can tell.

A. He was sitting in my office. He was telling about the vaccination, about the discrepancy in the height, and about what Sam Walker said, and what the insurance people claimed, and I said, what do you think about it, and he replied: "I don't know Doctor." Those were his words.

By the Court: Q. Were your office and his office adjoining?

A. Yes sir. The door was always open at that time. His door was always unlocked.

By Mr. Atwood.

Q. You were asked if you ever testified to this fact before. I will ask you if this question was ever propounded to you at any of the other trials? A. It was not.

By Mr. Barker:

Q. Where did you say this last conversation occurred, in your office or in Dr. Stuart's office?

A. It occurred in my office.

Q. I understood you to say, in answer to the other question, that it was either in your office or in Dr. Stuart's office?

A. I should have said it was in my office, because it was.

Q. Now, you say it was in your office?

A. I have always said so.

Q. Do you remember the day on which it occurred?

2303 A. No.

Q. Do you remember who was present at the time it occurred?

A. There was not any one, save Doctor and I.

Q. You remember that he was alone with you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. At that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You have already said you never testified in regard to this matter before? A. No.

Q. You have testified on the trial of this case at each time that it has been tried? A. I have.

Q. Been called by the plaintiff in the case, have you not?

A. Not the first trial; I was called by the defense.

Q. Ever after that you have been called by the plaintiff in the case, haven't you? A. That is right.

Q. And you came up from Kansas City without a subpoena for the purpose of testifying in regard to this matter?

A. I did.

Q. You expect compensation for your trip up here?

A. My expenses.
Q. Now do you remember the first person you told in regard to this conversation? A. I have always—
Q. I ain't asking you what you have always done. I ask you if you will state the name of the first person to whom you told this conversation? A. I don't think I can.
Q. Is it not a fact now that you never—
2304 A. I can give you my impression.
Q. I don't want your impression now. Isn't it a fact that you said nothing about this conversation until since this trial? Answer yes or no.
A. I have not to the attorneys.
Q. I will ask you if you have?
A. I have spoken of this conversation.
Q. But not to the attorneys? You say you have spoken about this conversation, or had spoken about it before the last trial of this case? A. That was in 1896, I believe?
Q. Yes. A. I have spoken about it many times.
Q. But you had never spoken to the attorneys on either side in regard to it? Say yes or no, whether you have or have not? A. I am not sure. I think I did to John Hutchings.
Q. You think you told John Hutchings about it?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. John Hutchings attended in the trial of the case how many times? A. Twice or three times.
By Mr. Hutchings: Three times.
Q. Mr. John Hutchings has assisted in the trial of this case on behalf of the plaintiff three times.
A. Yes, sir. I think I told him that conversation, among others.
Q. I am not asking you, among others, I want to know when you told him that, whether it was before the third trial of this case? A. Oh, yes.

Witness excused.

2305 A. J. Phillips, a witness heretofore sworn in these causes, being now recalled on behalf of the plaintiff, testified in rebuttal as follows:

Direct Examination

By Mr. Atwood:
Q. What has been your occupation?
A. For the last twenty years I have been a policeman, constable and night watchman.
Q. What is your business now? A. Night watchman.
Q. In private or public employ? A. In private employ.
Q. There in Lawrence? A. Yes, sir.
Q. How long have you held that position?
A. Something over eleven years.

Q. Continuously? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is your employment now? A. It is.
Q. I will ask you to state if you ever met, so as to know him, a man named Theodore Wiseman?
A. I met him frequently.
Q. Insurance agent? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You have been here before at this trial?
A. I have been here before; yes, sir.
Q. Did you see Mr. Wiseman here?
A. No, sir; I didn't see him.
Q. Do you remember the date of the arrival of the body claimed by some to be the body of Mr. Hillmon and by others not—in Lawrence in April, 1879?
A. I couldn't remember the date, but I remember the circumstance.
Q. Now with reference to that date, I will ask you if you met Theodore Wiseman, this insurance agent, at or near the office of the livery stable owned by Mr. Walker—I think he is called Colonel Walker—in the city of Lawrence in the evening of the day that dead body arrived, or the evening of the following day. A. I did.
Q. I will ask you if, when you met him, he substantially said to you: "Well, you are the man I want," or "the man we want." Did he in substance say that to you?
A. Yes, sir.

2306 The defendants and each of them object to the question for the reason that it does not tend to impeach the witness.

Mr. Green: I especially object on behalf of the Connecticut Mutual, for the reason that Wiseman was not an agent of the company, and had no authority to act in any respect for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Objection overruled; the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you if he then said to you in substance at that time and place, "I want you to shadow Brown" meaning John Brown? A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you if in reply to that you said to him in substance "do you want me to arrest him if he goes to leave town?" A. Yes, sir.
Q. I will ask you if in answer to that question I have just quoted, Wiseman said, "No; that is just what I want; I want him to leave." Did Wiseman say that to you?
A. Yes, sir; he did.
Q. I will ask you if you then said to him that if he wanted him arrested and would get out the proper papers you would serve the warrant and assist him; otherwise you wouldn't act for him. Did you in substance say that? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did he further say on that occasion at that time that the insurance companies didn't want something for nothing and that they would pay you well for your services?

A. He did.

Q. Did you then reply to him that you would have nothing to do with the running off of witnesses? A. I did.

Cross-examination

By Mr. Barker:

Q. You testified before in this case I believe?

A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. You testified before in this trial—during this trial?

A. Yes, sir.

2307 Q. I believe you are the witness who testified that Hillmon was five feet, eleven and three-eighths inches high, from having been introduced to him once?

A. I didn't get in the three-eighths.

Q. You are the same party—you are the same witness?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How long had you been acquainted with Major Wiseman at that time?

A. I couldn't tell you the number of years.

Q. I say, in 1879 how long had you been acquainted with Mr. Wiseman? A. I couldn't tel you just how long.

Q. You didn't know him at all at that time, did you?

A. Yes, sir; I did.

Q. You knew him by sight? A. Yes, sir.

Q. You knew his name? A. I did.

Q. How long had he been living in Lawrence in 1879?

A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Do you know whether he lived there at all before that time?

A. I knew he was there off and on. I knew him and I met him.

Q. Do you know whether he lived in Lawrence at that time or not? A. I wouldn't say whether he did or not.

Q. Now can you tell when and where you first saw him, Major Wiseman?

A. I met Major Wiseman and at that time was well acquainted with him. I knew him as I knew ather citizens.

Q. He came there in 1878, did he not, the first time?

A. I say I can't give the time when he came there.

Q. He had no residence there at that time, did he? If he did, state where he lived?

A. As I say, I couldn't tell you.

Q. You don't know whether he had any residence there or not. You claim that you never had any talk with him before in regard to this matter?

A. I never did, in regard to this matter.

Q. That occurred down at Colonel Walkers'?

A. He was at Mr. Walker's stable when I went in there—in the office.

Q. He was in there when you went in there? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then, you claim, you had this conversation with him? A. I do.

2308 Q. What do you say he said to you the first thing?

A. He turned and said I was an officer—"You are an officer"—and I said, "I am."

Q. He asked you if you are an officer? A. I said, "I am."

Q. He knew you, didn't he? A. He knew me.

Q. And you knew him; you had been working around there for some time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And you say he asked you if you were an officer?

A. He says, "You are an officer."

Q. And you said you were? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And then didn't he say that John Brown ought to be arrested if he went to go away? A. He did not.

Q. How long ago was it that this occurred, Mr. Phillips?

A. It occurred there just as I stated in my examination.

Q. I say, how long ago? A. I can't give the dates.

Q. That occurred something over twenty years ago?

A. Yes, sir; something like that.

Q. It occurred in 1879, didn't it?

A. Well, it occurred at the time this—

Q. It occurred in 1879, didn't it?

A. It occurred at this time; at the time this body was brought there.

Q. Do you know what year that was in, whether it was 1879 or '80? A. I couldn't say positively.

Q. You couldn't say what year; it occurred at that time?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now you have given in detail the conversation that took place at that time? A. I did.

Q. Mrs. Hillmon lived in your family, didn't she?

A. She did at one time.

Witness excused.

2309 Arthur Simmons, a witness produced by the plaintiff in rebuttal, being first duly sworn to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in answer to direct interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, testified as follows, to wit:

Q. What is your full name? A. Arthur Simmons.
Q. Where do you live? A. Leavenworth City.
Q. How long have you lived here? A. Over forty years.
Q. This has continued to be your residence during all that time? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What is your business, Mr. Simmons?
A. Manufacturer of cigars.
Q. How long have you been engaged in that business?
A. Since about 1862.
Q. How long have you been at the stand where you are now; the same place? A. Very nearly 20 or 30 years.
Q. You are alone at present? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was that always true of your business during all those years? A. No, sir; I have had partners.
Q. How many? A. I have had two.
Q. Who was the first one and about when was that partnership?
A. That was the commencement of my business and his name was Harris.
Q. He is the one you say you had at the commencement of your business? A. Yes, sir.
Q. It began back in the early 60s? A. Early 60s.
Q. That endured for how long?
A. A year or a little over; I won't be certain how long but it was over a year, about a year, a little over.
Q. Who was the other partner? A. Dave Staiger.
Q. How is that pronounced, if it is pronounced more than one way?
A. A great many ways; the Americans called it
2310 "Stager;" the Germans called it "Stiger;" one part of the Germans and then the other part of them called it "Stager."
Q. [redacted] was your partner, you say? A. Yes, sir.
Q. [redacted]gaged with you in manufacturing cigars?
A. Yes sir.
Q. In this city? A. Yes sir.
Q. Was he your partner in 1878 and 1879? A. Yes sir.
Q. How long after that did he cease to be?
A. We dissolved partnership on the 3rd day of February, 1881.
Q. Then in 1878 and 1879 he was your partner?
A. Yes sir.
Q. What was the style of the firm under which the business was carried on?
A. Simmons & Staiger: at first it was Simmons & Company; when first we went together, Mr. Staiger got married, and said he would like to have his name up. I told him I had no objections and we styled the firm, Simmons & Staiger.

Q. What was the firm style in 1878 and 1879?
A. Simmons & Staiger.
Q. Was there during those years, 1878 and 1879, any other man by the name of Staiger engaged in manufacturing cigars in this city, if you know?
A. No, sir. I am certain there was not.
Q. You knew the men engaged in the same line of business with yourself? A. Yes sir, I do.
Q. Now, I will ask you whether or not in the manufacture of cigars, you employ cigarmakers? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you employed cigarmakers in 1878 and 1879?
A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you to look at that picture (Exhibit 35, Nov., 99. W. C. H.) and state whether or not that is the picture of anybody who ever worked for you? A. Yes sir.
Q. (Picture of Walters with mustache). I will ask you when your attention was first directed, if it was directed at all, to the fact of such a man as Walter working for you?
A. It was a short time ago; a strange gentleman came into store and asked me—
Objection.

2311 Q. You said a short time ago—was that after the commencement of this trial?
A. If I am not mistaken, I think it was.
Q. The one going on now in which you are a witness?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You say your attention was directed to it by a stranger?
A. Yes sir.
Q. I will ask you if your attention was directed to this matter by anybody else after this stranger spoke to you about it? A. Yes sir.
Q. Who was the gentleman?
A. It was a young man that works in the Leavenworth Times office.

The defendants move to strike out the answer as incompetent.

Motion overruled, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. A Leavenworth Times reporter?
A. I presume that is his position.
Q. He is connected with the paper and you know him in that way? A. Yes sir.
Q. How long was it after your attention was directed to this matter first, that the gentleman, the Times man spoke to you?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them at the time duly excepting.

Q. That is, whether it was a day or two days; a day or two?
A. I would not be certain which it was.
Q. Then, I will ask you if the matter became a subject of discussion between yourself and anybody else? That would be the third time?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: What is the purpose of that?

By Mr. Atwood: I am leading up to the question how he came to look at the books.

By the Court: Not the details?

By Mr. Atwood: I am simply asking if it was a subject of discussion, you understand the question whether or not it was a subject of discussion the third time; once with a stranger, once with the Times man and another time with any-2312 body else?
A. I was going to relate what occurred with the gentleman from the Times.
Q. I don't know whether they will allow you or not.

By the Court: No, that is not proper.

Q. Was it a subject of discussion between you and the third person, besides the stranger and the Times man?

The defendants object to the question as leading, and incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. Objection overruled, the defendants and each of them duly excepting.

A. Yes, sir, I spoke to Mr. Sam Wheat about it.
Q. Now, I will ask you this question, whether or not during the time that you have carried on this business, and during the time that Walter worked for you way back in 1878 and 1879, whatever the time was, if you had a book, kept by you at that time, of the men who worked for you, and the work that they did?
A. I have a book with every man's name in it and the amount of work that they made, the kind of cigars that they made and the amount of it.
Q. Is this book in the paper that book? A. Yes sir.
Q. Will you open it up, please. (Does so.)

Q. I will ask you if, following the third time that this matter was called to your attention, you made an examination of this book with the view of seeing if the name of F. Walters appeared upon it? A. Yes sir, I did.

Q. Will you turn to that portion of that book, if there is any portion that does have the name of F. Walters, as one of your workmen?

The defendants object to the question as calling for secondary evidence. The court sustained the objection, to which ruling the plaintiff duly excepted.

Q. Do you know whether or not any page of that book shows that Mr. Walter worked for you there?

The defendants object to the question as secondary evidence, incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

2313 By the Court: The book is not original evidence.

Q. I am now simply asking you to refresh your recollection. Will you turn to any portion of the book which will serve to refresh your recollection in relation to this matter?

A. Yes sir, I have sir.

Q. I will ask if the memorandum of which you have just spoken was made by yourself?

A. Yes sir, it is in my handwriting.

Q. In your own handwriting? A. Yes sir.

Q. At the time of the business transactions of which you have spoken with him, at the time of the employment?

A. Yes sir.

Q. That is a fact, is it? A. Yes sir.

Q. Have you refreshed your recollection from an examination of this memorandum? A. Yes sir, I have.

Q. In the light of that refreshed recollection, are you able to state when it was that this man Walters, whose picture you say that is, worked for you or worked for Simmons & Staiger, if he worked for them at all? A. Yes sir.

Q. When was it?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: He does not say he is Walters.

By Mr. Atwood: He says that is a picture of the man who worked for him. The picture is conceded to be a picture of Walters.

Br. Mr. Barker: There is no question about that.

By the Court: You have not shown when the entries were made in reference to the transaction.

By Mr. Atwood: I think the court is in error. I asked him if he made the entries at the time of the transaction of the hiring of this man and he said yes.

A. Not at the time of hiring him.
Q. At the time he worked for you?
A. At the time I paid him.
Q. At the time he was in your employ?
A. The first time he came into my employ.
2314 Q. When the entry was made, it was made in the course of your busines and of the employment of him. Now, I will ask you if you can state, having refreshed your recollection by an examination of this memorandum, when it was that the man the man of whom this is a picture, worked for you, or for Simmons & Staiger?
A. Yes sir I can tell you.

By Mr. Barker: We object, so far as the book is concerned.

By Mr. Atwood: The book is not offered in evidence.

By Mr. Barker: Let me ask the witness one question. May I ask the witness a question or two.

Q. This occurred some twenty years again didn't it?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you undertake to say and do you say that you have any independent recollection of that transaction, that you have any recollection in regard to it whatever except what you get from the book? A. Yes sir.
Q. Do you say that independent from the book itself; you recollect the man, do you?
A. I recollected the man well just as quick as I saw his picture.
Q. You recollect independently of the book itself?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Your mind don't need any refreshing in regard to that; it is already fresh on that subject?
A. It was fresh when I saw the picture; not previous to that.
Q. I mean with regard to his working for you, when he worked for you and all about it, it evidently impressed upon your mind—
A. When he worked for me—
Q. You remember that, do you; you remember that independent of the book, don't you?
A. I could not tell the date without referring to the book.
Q. But you remember the fact, do you?
A. I remember the man's face and working for me, sir.

By Mr. Atwood: What is the day, month and year.

By Mr. Barker: When you look at the book, is your 2315 memory refreshed or do you simply testify from the book? A. That refreshes my memory.

Q. So that you remember the date?
A. Yes, I got the dates down.
Q. Now, do you remember the facts independent of the book?
A. I don't know that I would, sir, not independent of the book itself.

By Mr. Atwood: Having refreshed your recollection, can you state the month and year, without regard to the day of the month.
A. Yes, sir, the first week's salary of F. Walters—
By Mr. Barker: Are you testifying from the books or from your recollection?

A. I told you before sir, I could not recollect the date every man has worked for me unless I refer to the book.

By Mr. Atwood: I simply ask having refreshed your recollection, as you have, without reference to the day of the month, whether or not you remember the month that is, the month and year?

A. It was in the month of May, 1879.
Q. And that you testify to, after having refreshed your recollection from this book, that you made the memoranda in at the time? A. Yes sir.
Q. You say you remember, recognized the man from this photograph? A. I did, sir, perfectuy well.
Q. What name did he go by? A. F. Walter.

And in answer to cross-interrogatories propounded to him by Geo. J. Barker, Esq., counsel for the defendants, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. This book from which you refreshed your memory, I see is kept in pencil?
A. Yes sir. I don't know that all of it is in pencil.
A. I see that a name has been erased and then a name written above that?
A. Well, sir, we done that; I can explain—
A. I say it has been done, you see, don't you?
A. Yes sir, I can explain that.
Q. Just what name was that erased there?
A. Anderson.
2316 Q. The Anderson on this memorandum has been erased, has it not? A. Pencil run through it.
Q. Another name written above? A. Yes sir.
Q. That is the only erasure on that page, is it not?

A. I could not tell without looking at it now, sir.
Q. I am asking you in regard to that; it is the only erasure on that page? A. So far as I can see, yes sir.
Q. You said you have lived in Leavenworth all these years? A. Yes sir.
Q. You were living here when this case was tried in 1882, were you not?
A. If it was tried in 1882, I was here, yes sir.
Q. Well, you remember the fact of its being tried before Judge Foster, do you not?
A. I remember the case being on, yes sir, several times.
Q. Well, you remember of it being tried about that time, do you not?
A. Oh, I don't say I could recollect the time.
Q. You remember of it being tried before Judge Brewer here, do you not? A. Yes, I remember that well.
Q. You were at the trial, were you not? A. No sir.
Q. You were in and out of court several times while it was being tried?
A. No sir, the first trial I have been at.
Q. But you have been living here all this time?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And this is the first time that you have ever testified in this case is it not? A. Yes sir.
Q. Now, I understand you to say that you say that after the lapse of twenty years you recognized this photograph?
A. Yes sir.
Q. You recognized it just as soon as you saw it? didn't you?
A. I did sir.
Q. Just as soon as this photograph was presented to you you recognized it immediately as a man who had worked for you, didn't you? A. Yes sir.
Q. And you say that it was not presented to you until since the commencement of this present trial?
A. I do, sir, it was not presented to me before.
2317 Q. It was not presented to you until the trial, this present trial and then you say it was presented to you and then you hunted up this book, did you?
A. No sir, before I saw that picture I hunted up that book; didn't have to hunt for it; it is a book that we use even at the present time.
Q. You are not using it now, are you? A. Yes sir.
Q. This identical book? A. Yes sir.
Q. Used it for 20 years, have you?
A. I don't know as we have used it for 20 years; there was some time we didn't manufacture.
Q. Who do you say your partner was? A. Which one?
Q. The last partner? A. Staiger; Dave Staiger
Q. When did he die?

A. He died about 1883 or 1884, I think; I won't be certain about his death.

Q. Where did he die?

A. He died down in Kansas City, it was supposed.

Q. You don't know in regard to where he died?

A. We have never seen him since he started down there.

Q. He started down there at Kansas City, did he?

A. Started what?

Q. Started to go to Kansas City, did he?

A. That is what he said when he came in to get a cigar of me.

Q. You haven't seen him since? A. No sir.

Q. And that is the reason you say he died at that time?

A. The supposition is that he died.

Q. What other men did you have working for you at that time? A. I had Mr. Berthune, a German.

Q. Who else? A. Mr. Opel.

Q. You remember them, do you; you remember them working at the same time that you say this man was working there?

A. I don't know as to that.

Q. What I am asking you now is what other men were working for you we will say in May, 1879. Just mention one?

A. The book will show; I can't recollect, as many men as we had.

2318 Q. You can't from recollection, recollect the name of a single person who was working for you in May, 1879?

A. Yes, I can one, in particular, that is Mr. Pfeiffer.

Q. Where is he now?

A. He is in Leavenworth City manufacturing cigars.

Q. Working for you?

A. No, sir; manufacturing for himself,

Q. On his own account? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many cigar factories were there in Leavenworth in 1879? A. I could not say exactly how many.

Q. Well, about how many were there?

A. There was one, two there was two I am positive of.

Q. Two? A. Including ourselves.

Q. Was it then, one?

A. No, sir; there was two, I say, including ourselves.

Q. One other factory besides your own?

A. There may have been more.

Q. How many men did you have working for you at that time? A. I guess from 20 to 25 perhaps.

Q. 20 to 25 working for you at that time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many men did you have working for you the next year? A. I could not tell you.

Q. Well, about how many? A. I could not say.

Q. Now, from 1879 up to the present time, how many men have you, how many different cigar makers have you had in your employ? I wish you would give me the number?

A. I could not do it.

Q. You could form an idea? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Had a thousand? A. No.

Q. Well, how many? A. Had less than 100.

Q. You think you have had less than 100 in all these 20 years? A. No, sir; not in all these years.

Q. That is what I am asking you, taking from 1879 up to 1899, how many different cigar makers do you suppose you have had working for you?

A. Several, but I could not say how many.

2319 Q. A large number, haven't you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. How many do you suppose it would amount to?

A. I could not say sir.

Q. For instance, take it in 1880; you had different men, didn't you?

A. I had some that worked for me for several years.

Q. They are constantly changing aren't they?

A. Not in all factories.

Q. I mean in your factory. You might have one man this year and another one next year?

A. Yes, I might have one this week and not the next.

Q. That is the way of cigar makers?

A. Yes, like lawyers.

Q. In what respect are cigar makers like lawyers?

A. They like to travel around.

Q. You say lawyers like to travel around and therefore they are like cigar makers; is that your way of identifying men by their habits in that respect?

A. No, sir; that was only a little joke of mine.

Q. You joke on the witness stand? A. No, sir.

Q. Are you joking in regard to this other matter?

A. This is not the first time that you and I, Mr. Barker, had a joke.

Q. I am asking if you are joking in regard to the other matters? A. No, sir; I am on my oath.

Q. I was getting at how many you employed in 1880?

A. I could not tell you.

[A.] How many did you employ in 1881?

A. I could not tell you without referring to the books.

Q. You could not tell without referring to the books; can you tell by referring to the books? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And so on through all these years up to the present time? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, after having your attention called to these matters, how many men do you suppose you have employed in the 20 years? A. I could not tell you.

Q. You could form some idea? A. No, sir; I could not.

Q. How many do you employ now?
2320 A. Only one now here in this city. I am connected with a factory in New York.
Q. You only employ one here? A. Yes, sir.
Q. But up to 1890, hoy many do you suppose you employed? A. I could not tell you sir.
Q. Could you form any idea of how many you have employed? A. No, not without referring to the book.
Q. How long do you say this man worked there?
A. But a very short time.
Q. Well, how long would a very short time be?
A. Well, two or three or four weeks; I couldn't say; I could tell you if you will allow me to look at the books.
Q. I know, but have you any recollection in regard to it?
A. I should say about three weeks.
Q. That would be your recollection in regard to it?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is your recollection of the length of time a cigar maker worked for you 20 years ago?
A. Yes, sir; I should say about three weeks; I don't know.
Q. That is your recollection in regard to it, is it?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. That he worked for you about that length of time and that was 20 years ago? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, you spoke about somebody speaking to you in regard to this, and showing you a picture; when was that?
A. That was after this trial commenced.
Q. Do you know the man? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was he a man in and about the court room here?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Was he a man with a white hat?
A. I could not tell you the color of the hat he wore.
Q. Wear a white slouch hat?
A. I couldn't tell you sir.
Q. He came in there, did he? A. He came in, yes, sir.
Q. And you say he showed you a picture?
A. He showed me several.
Q. Have you got any of those pictures now?
A. No, sir.
Q. Did you retain any of the pictures?
A. No, sir.
2321 Q. You say he showed you one picture like this, did he? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You talked with him, didn't you?
A. No, sir; just a little.
Q. Didn't have any talk with him?
A. Very little, no sir, very little.
Q. What were the other pictures like?
A. Pictures that I did not recognize.

Q. You would not recognize the other pictures?
A. There was one that looked like this, and when the gentleman showed me the picture I said, "That looks something—"
Q. I am not asking what you said; I asked you what they looked like?
A. They looked like they had been taken from a human face.
Q. They were pictures of a human face? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That is as good a description as you can give?
A. Well parties that I didn't know. I couldn't give it.
Q. How long was it after that before you saw somebody else? A. In what respect?
Q. In regard to pictures, I am only speaking of pictures. I am not speaking about your general affairs. You spoke about a young man being in there to see you. I am asking when the second man was in there?
A. I told you at first that the second man came in a day or two after the first man came in.
Q. How long ago was that?
A. Since this case has been on trial.
Q. This case has been on trial for nearly a month, I believe, three or four weeks anyhow?
A. I have forgotten; I can't state when it was; I can't state exactly when it was.
Q. Can you tell on what day of the month it was?
A. No, sir.
Q. Can you tell who was in there, when he came in?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Who was in there? A. Mr. Chamberlain.
Q. Mr. Chamberlain was in there? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was in your place of business in Leavenworth?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. On what street is it and what is the number of the street? A. 405 Delaware street.
Q. Mr. Chamberlain was in there; does Mr. Chamberlain work for you? A. No, sir.
2322 Q. What is his first name?
A. I don't know his first name.
Q. Did he hear the conversation between you and this man? A. Yes.
Q. Let me understand, was Mr. Chamberlain in there at the time the first man came in there or the second one?
A. The second one, not the first one.
Q. Now I will ask you in regard to the—
A. I will qualify that by saying I [you] have no recollection of any person being there when that first man came in. He was a perfect stranger to me.

Q. This first man that came there was a perfect stranger to you? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Were you in your store alone?

A. I would not swear that I was alone; I have no recollection of there being anybody there.

Q. [—] he come in there with anybody?

A. No, sir, he came in by himself.

Q. About what time in the day or night was it?

A. It was at noon time.

Q. Then you recollect distinctly that you were there alone, do you not?

A. I did not say that; I could not say positively whether there was anybody there, and I couldn't say positively that there was not.

Q. Can you recollect anybody being in there?

A. If I could I should certainly do so, sir.

Q. Will you state the name of the man, the first man that came in? A. No, sir, I don't know his name.

Q. What kind of a looking man was he?

A. He was quite a respectable looking gentleman.

Q. I know, but all people are respectable looking, the most of them. I want a description of the man now. What was the color of his hair? A. I could not tell you.

Q. How tall was he? A. Medium height man.

Q. Did he have whiskers?

A. I couldn't say; he just came in and—

Q. I am asking you for a description of the man who first showed you this picture? A. He didn't show me the picture.

Q. What did he do?

A. He came in and asked me if my name was Simmons.

Q. That is all that took place between you and him?

A. No, sir.

2323 Q. I thought you said— Am I mistaken in regard to that, that that is the first time you saw the picture, when this man showed it to you?

A. No, sir, he didn't show me any picture.

Q. He didn't show you any picture? A. No, sir.

Q. Well, now, did this third man—What was the other's name that came in?

A. I don't know the gentleman's name but he is connected with the Leavenworth Times.

Q. You don't know his name?

A. No, I know him well; I think his name is Edwards, though.

Q. He is a small man, is he? A. Yes, sir.

Q. And the other man you can't describe at all?

A. Well, I told you he was a medium sized gentleman, very respectably dressed; I didn't take any notice of his dress; he just came in and went right out.

Q. When did you first see a picture of this kind, this picture or one like it?
A. The first time I saw it was afer finding the name.
Q. I am not asking in regard to that; just state the date as definitely as you can without reference to finding anything.
A. The first time I saw it was when Mr. Hutchings showed it to me.
Q. Mr. Hutchings showed it to you?
A. Yes, sir, showed me several.
Q. The gentleman present on my right?
A. That gentleman there.
Q. When was that?
A. At my store sometime a little after noon or about noon.
Q. Of what day? A. I don't know the day.
Q. You don't know the day when he showed you this picture? A. No, sir.
Q. This was the first time you had seen this picture or anything like it? A. I never saw it before in my life.
Q. Never saw anything that purported to be a picture similar to it?
A. No, sir, never heard of it; never knew the man had one taken.
Q. Never knew anything about it? A. No, sir.
2324 Q. So the fact of it is Mr. Hutchings showed you this picture? A. Not that alone.
Q. I know, but this picture with others? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Down at your place of business? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Now, look at the page which I show you and see how many men were working for you at that time?
A. Mr. Bethune—
Q. You need not read the names, just say how many; you can count them, can't you? A. 22, sir.
Q. You had 22 different cigarmakers working for you at that time? A. Yes, sir, on that date.
Q. Now, take this, for instance, April 26; how many men did you have working for you? A. 24, sir.
Q. You had 24 working for you on the 26th day of May, 1879? A. This is marked April here.
Q. What is this? A. May.
Q. Did it take two entries?
A. This is for the week ending April 26th, and this for the week ending May 3rd.
Q. So I was right, on April 26th?
A. You were right, April 26th, but you said May afterwards.
Q. How many men did you have working for you on the 17th day of May, for instance, that was working for you on the 26th day of April?
A. Is that the 17th of May there?

Q. Yes, what changes had there been from that time; I am asking what changes there had been, what men were working for you at that time that were working for you on the 26th day of April, 1879? A. April 26th?

Q. Yes; that is the same one you read before; what men had been discharged and others had taken their places at that time, if you know?

A. On April 26th, one man by the name of Dill was discharged or quit—That I can't answer, whether I discharged him or he quit.

Q. He had gone, had he?

A. Yes, sir; there was three of them.

Q. Three who were working for you on April 26th, were not working for you in May?

2325 A. I can't tell by looking at these. There was only one man quit work or discharged from May 10th to May 17th.

Q. I was asking from April 26th to May 10th?

A. I don't know as I can tell without putting the names down. About how many changes have been made to May 10th?

Q. Yes? A. I think three, sir.

Q. I see you have your books here. You have no recollection in regard to these changes except by the books, have you?

A. No, that is all.

Q. That is all you know in regard to the matter, is what these memoranda show? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Now, take your book and look at it as well as you can: Can you form any estimate of how many different men you had working for you since 1879?

A. I will have to go all over the books.

Q. Can you form an estimate from your books now of the number of men? A. It will take some time.

Q. You have got your books before you and you know in regard to your business; I am asking now if you can form any estimate of the number of men who worked for you for the last 20 years?

Objection.

A. I shall have to go over the books and put the names down; I can't tell in any other way or make any estimate except by counting the names, no, sir, in 20 years.

Q. You couldn't from your knowledge of your business, and the number of men you have employed and all that sort of thing, you couldn't form any basis? A. Of what?

Q. Of the number of men you have employed during the time you have been in business here? A. No, sir.

Q. You have employed a great many, haven't you?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. What would you say in regard to two or three hundred men? A. What, in that time?
Q. Yes? A. We have had fully that, yes, sir.
Q. What would you say in regard to five hundred?
A. I couldn't say.
Q. What would be your best judgment in regard to it?
A. I couldn't say.
2326 Q. Couldn't say in regard to that? A. No, sir.

And in answer to redirect interrogatories propounded to him by John H. Atwood, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the witness testified as follows, to wit:

Q. How many times does this name Walter appear on your book? That is the way they treat your book, when you let them have it.
A. They have got it all mixed up.
Q. They didn't get you mixed up, so it is all right. How many times does it appear in the book?
A. I will tell you in one minute, if you please.

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

By the Court: It is relevant in view of the question about the erasure in one place.

A. Mr. Walter worked for the firm of Simmons & Staiger and received three weeks' pay.
Q. Answer the question, how many times the name appears on the books? A. Twice.

The defendants move to strike out the next to the last answer as not responsive to the question. Motion sustained, the plaintiff duly excepting.

[—] How many times does the name appear on the books?
A. Twice for three weeks.
Q. Does that cover the time that this man worked for you?
A. Yes.
Q. I will ask you if you have examined that book with a view to determining whether or not the name appears at any other time than those two times?

The defendants object to the question as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial and leading. Objection sustained, the plaintiff duly excepting.

Q. I will ask you if, after an examination of your 2327 book, you are able to state whether or not this man worked for you at any other time than the time you have described?

A. No, sir, he did not.
Q. Or any man by the name of Walter?
A. No, sir, it only appears that once Walter.
